Last Sunday evening was Children's Evening at the Non-Sectarian services conducted by the Chaplain in the Library Hall. The subject treated was the fourth commandment of God which is "Honor Thy Father and Thy Mother." An address was made to the children direct warning, and giving advice as to conduct expected from every child as regards the parents and their rights. Several stories were related by the speaker which the children seem to enjoy very much and which it is hoped will tend to make them better both in the sight of God and Man.

PROGRAM FOR FEBRUARY
Non-sectarian services, in the library hall, every Sunday evening at 7:30:

Feb. 1st.—Parental Authority.
" 8th.—Fond recollection.
" 15th.—The author of life.
" 22nd.—George Washington "Father of Our Country."

Only those who have gone astray and wandered far from the ways of holiness can experience the anguish of remorse that sweeps over the soul when it recognizes at last the wickedness of its deeds and the infinite purity of the all-just God. The nearest approach to its sorrow is the dread in a mother's soul when she sees her boy making his way as if seems, straight to perdition.

A MOTHER'S CRY.
My Beloved Son:—

If this meets your eye, as I pray God it will, may it be the means of bringing you back to the old paths of truth and righteousness. I am sick, broken-hearted, nearly blind because of the tears I have shed for you. I am watching for your coming, listening for your signal whistle, but I see you not, and the silence of months remains unbroken. No letter comes to cheer and brighten the gloom. Oh, my child, hasten your return to God, to mother and home. I am praying always in your behalf. The Lord hears and will answer.

MOTHER.
A DREAM OF THE BOY ACROSS THE SEA.

Her dim eyes gaze through the window wide,
O'er the broad St. Lawrence foam,
And her sad thoughts bide with the wind and the tide,
Near the boy who is far from home.

And the tiny boat that he loved to sail
Lies close to her wrinkled hand;
And her pleadings rise to the angry skies—
That her son may come safe to land.

For a mother's heart is an anguished heart,
When the billows are rough and white;
When the north winds start like a poisoned dart,
And the clouds have shut out the light,

And she prays to the Lord of the stormy sea
That safe in His gentle hand
He will bring her son,—her dearest one—
To the safe untroubled land."

Joe Ross and the Brown, Manzanares Company have bonded the "Prospect" to Mr. Shultz of this place, recently from Indianapolis. We learn Mr. Shultz is leaving for Denver Monday, to begin preparations for work upon the mine. The "Prospect," though very little is known of it outside of camp, is one of the best propositions here. Considerable work has been done upon it for the last twelve or fourteen years, and it makes a fine showing in the peculiarity of its continuous ore pockets, differing in that to any claim in camp.

Mrs. Deel and Mrs. Coomes of Ancho were visiting Mrs. Pitts Sunday last.

Joe Ross will probably leave for Mountainair this week, instead of having left last week—as we reported. He has been detained by business.

News arrived that Carl Sheler, one time a resident of this place, is soon to be married in his home city, Madison, Wisconsin.

A few of the "croppers" are going through the stunts of breaking their land for the next crop. Land is in fine shape when not broken for work, but the severity of the cold nights is against the farmer at this time of the year.

A. H. Norton went to Ancho Monday on a business mission.

"Ground-hog day" was beautifully clear and spring-like, and of course the hog came out as is his custom on this particular day, and saw his shadow, as not a cloud marred the dull opaque above him. Will retire to his hole not to return again for six weeks. It's up to all to take notice of this, that there will be yet to come much more cold and snow—for the ground hog knows.

Hubert Handy is over at Leadville working on the Solomon group of claims.

We notice quite a number of migratory birds have returned from the south. Though quite early, they are the harbingers of spring.

Some say in order to palliate hard conditions, if not to exterminate them, is to fall into the scheme. So we must face about and move along as a last resort to the peace-maker.

E. E. Wilson conveyed Mrs. Davenport to Carrizozo the first of last week, where death relieved the sufferer and her spirit fled to its final abode on Wednesday.

It is better to meet and defeat a foe in speedy retaliation, than to beat about the brush in uncertainty. Many foes in life if ousted at once, relieves the victim of their morbid growth.

It is not the part of wisdom, nor of mercy, to warm the viper into life upon your hearthstone; "lest he rise again and strike you."

True courage is never disguised under false colors. It scorns to venerate the truth or make amends for that which is right and just. "Two wrongs never made the right."

White Mountain.

Max Benkendorf returned Friday from a trip to Alamogordo.

H. S. Scheffey spent a couple of days in El Paso recently on business.

Mr. Harris of Roswell was a recent visitor at the Harper ranch.

Charlie Lemmons passed thro here, stopping over night with Sam Hall.

Miss Florence Nabours attended the "baile" at Three Rivers Saturday night.

Our "neighboring metropolis," Three Rivers is becoming a noticeable social centre and bids fair to rival Oscura in the number and classiness of its dances.

W. S. Rohn was up from the Fall ranch, at which place he has been doing some work, the past week.

Jas. O. Nabours spent several days in town this week.

Several of the men of this vicinity were busy the past week, working out a new road between here and Three Rivers Station.

A Young Poetess

A FRIEND from White Oaks furnishes us the following introduction and the lines to which it refers:

The following efforts at writing poetry are decidedly good, especially considering the fact that they are the product of a young lady only 13 or 14 years old, Miss Estella Smith, who was born in White Oaks, but now lives in Los Angeles, Cal.:

TOO THIN

"There once was a teacher, Miss Lind,
Who was so exceedingly thin
That when she essayed
To drink lemonade,
She looked down the straw and fell in."

THE PROFESSOR

"There is a professor named Webb,
Who's brain like the tides flow and ebb;
When lessons are bad
The professor gets mad
And the class fears he'll bite off their heads."

BEGIN TO GO TO CHURCH MOVEMENT

FROM A PASTOR'S STANDPOINT.
BAPTIST

We are grateful for the hearty co-operation of the local newspapers in giving this matter wide announcement, and in publishing this statement and others to come from the Methodist Pastor and two other Christian citizens.

First, the motives that prompt our efforts in this direction are not selfish. Not only is there a splendid spirit between both pastors, but we believe that a good spirit should prevail among all believers in Christ, though we may believe differently on some teachings. Nor do pecuniary interests influence the promoters of this movement. The fact is the citizens generally realize that the financial responsibilities fall on but a few. Our friends back east wonder how such a few can carry on the work. But we have a number of citizens with good hearts, and they cheerfully contribute to the churches, and thus, with gifts from the members and from the respective Mission Boards, the work is insured.

But the reason for a church's existence is the reason why every individual should enjoy its privileges. In its commission and in its aim, the church is intended and calculated to be of untold and lasting benefit to mankind in the individual, the family, the social, the business and the civic life. Because we know its message to be the spiritual and moral good, followed by temporal blessings; and because we realize keenly that many of our fellowmen "cash in their checks" to Almighty God with a deep regret that they have not given due attention to their spiritual welfare, and if they could live over again they would give it at least some consideration, we desire that NOW, when time and occasion offer, everybody shall shoulder to shoulder come to church and derive the good that God intends for them. Because God loves mankind, and does not want any to "cash in" unprepared, we want YOU, fellow citizens, on February 15th, to begin to come to church. Come to one of the churches, or, if you desire, come to each church for one of the services.

The Baptist Pastor will show from the Bible and from history the benefits of a church-going community, and discuss the subject:

"Who Should and Who Should Not go to Church." We bring no pressure to bear on you; we use no schemes of rivalry. We just want you to get started going to church out here like you, or those godly parents, used to do back east. And if the citizens will do this, we predict a better and much happier life, and God's smile to

LOLA HIGHFILL WINS $10

Third Special Count Wednesday, February 25th.

ALMA ROBERTS AWARDED $5

A Prize of $10 in Gold Offered at Next Count. Every Candidate Has a Good Chance.

The second count of the Carrizozo News' Grand Piano Contest came to a close Monday evening. Upon counting the ballots Miss Lola Highfill was awarded first $10 and Miss Alma Roberts second, $5. The standing of the contestants is as follows:

CANDIDATE	1ST COUNT	2ND COUNT	TOTALS
Miss Lola Highfill	27,250	90,000	123,300
" Alma Roberts	10,000	93,875	103,875
" Kitty Tinnon	10,275	70,250	80,525
" Patsy Johnson	11,575	48,700	60,275
" Gladys Wilson, Ancho	5,075	14,200	19,275
" Johnnie Spiller	5,000	12,000	17,000
" Besale White	2,700	14,550	17,250
" Opal Morse	3,775	3,200	6,975
" Clara Brazel	2,800	4,000	6,800
" Iona Stevens	4,500	1,750	6,250

From the above vote it can be plainly seen that no candidate has any advantage to a marked degree. The two leading girls who are to be congratulated upon their standing should realize that the third special count is very important and do their best. Misses Kittie Tinnon and Patsy Johnson are so close upon their heels that they have no time to look back but must push ahead with renewed energy.

A large per cent of contests are lost or won right at the critical point. The third special count is very important. Do not lose your courage. A faint heart never won anything. Your courage is your greatest asset. Don't look back or consider for a moment resting on your oars. Now above all things is the time to forge ahead.

THIRD SPECIAL COUNT FEB. 25th.

The third special count has been set for Wednesday, Feb. 25th, at which time we desire to give $10 in gold to the contestant that secures the largest vote from now until Feb. 25th. This gives every candidate an even chance, even if you have only started you as good a chance as the leading candidate, as the $10 will be given to the girl who secures the largest vote from now until Feb. 25th. All votes count on the piano.

SPECIAL BIG BONUSES

For the next few days the following bonuses will be given and may be withdrawn at any time. Remember these are positively the largest bonuses that will be given for these subscriptions during the contest, so get busy and get subscriptions while the bonuses are big and your work will count for the most. Here are the bonuses.

For every 7 new subscriptions 10,000 extra bonus votes, making a total of 14,200 votes.

For every 7 renewal subscriptions 8000 extra bonus votes, making a total of 11,500 votes.

For every 7 back subscriptions 6000 extra bonus votes, making a total of 8,800 votes.

For every 40 Merchants' Coupons brought to this office and counted by the publisher or his assistants, a bonus of 1,000 votes will be given, a total of 2,000 votes in all.

The names of the other candidates who received votes in the first count, but did not in the second, do not appear in this report. They are not to understand that they have been eliminated; they have the same chance as before, and there is no reason why one of them should not receive the $10.00 gold award in the special count February 25.

GAS, DYSPEPSIA AND INDIGESTION

"Pape's Diapepsin" settles sour, gassy stomachs in five minutes—Time fit!

You don't want a slow remedy when your stomach is bad—or an uncertain one—or a harmful one—your stomach is too valuable; you mustn't injure it. Pape's Diapepsin is noted for its speed in giving relief; its harmlessness; its certain unfailing action in regulating sick, sour, gassy stomachs. Its millions of cures in indigestion, dyspepsia, gastritis and other stomach trouble has made it famous the world over.

Keep this perfect stomach doctor in your home—keep it handy—get a large fifty-cent case from any dealer and then if anyone should eat something which doesn't agree with them; if what they eat lays like lead, ferments and sours and forms gas; causes headache, dizziness and nausea; eruptions of acid and undigested food—remember as soon as Pape's Diapepsin comes in contact with the stomach all such distress vanishes. Its promptness, certainty and ease in overcoming the worst stomach disorders in a revelation to those who try it.—Adv.

At Church in Holland.

In many parts of Holland men still wear their hats in church. Moreover, smoking in church is not considered irreverent by the Dutch when services is not in progress, and, it is said, even the ministers sometimes indulge in this practice.

Altogether, Dutch Protestantism is it would seem, from a certain standpoint, a comfortable form of religion. One may keep his hat on in church, which saves him many a chill, he may talk freely and in his natural voice, not in a whisper, he has a neat housemaid in a white cap and apron to show him to his pew or to offer him a chair, and he has nice drab pews of painted deal all around him and a cheerful "two-decker" pulpit above.

FACE IN ONE SOLID RASH

Lindsay, Mont.—"I started to get great big blotches round my neck and I did not think very much about it at first, but they commenced getting worse all the time and such an intense itching, it never gave me a minute's rest. The pimples were red and would swell. From itching, and scratching them so it caused them to spread; there would be sores from scratching them so intensely. My face and neck were covered with pimples. It looked as if my whole face was in one solid rash or sore, and I was nearly crazy with itching and burning. At night they would be very bad so I hardly could sleep. My face was, I must say, in one raw sore. I nearly gave up all hopes of ever getting like myself.

"I bought one cake of Cuticura Soap and one box of Cuticura Ointment and started to use them and followed the directions as closely as I could. To my surprise only a few applications stopped the itching and scratching and in a couple of weeks' time my face was nearly well. I kept on using the Cuticura Soap and Ointment and in two months' time I was completely cured." (Signed) Mrs. Gust Nelson, Dec 4, 1912

GOOD ITALIAN PASTES

WORTH COPYING BY HOUSEKEEPERS OF AMERICA.

At Least One Dish May Well Be Served at Dinner—Many Methods of Cooking Macaroni—Tomato Sauce With Spaghetti.

American housekeepers anxious to keep down the market bills have learned the advantages of serving at each dinner one dish containing some of the Italian pastes, which are low in price, nutritious and appetizing.

The American way of cooking spaghetti is to combine it with American cheese chopped, butter and a little milk beaten with eggs. The spaghetti is first cooked until it is soft; then drained of the water, and the cheese, butter and eggs already mixed are beaten lightly into the hot paste. The mixture is then baked to a golden brown in the oven. A porcelain lined baking dish is best, though some prefer the old-fashioned yellow stone ware.

Macaroni cooked and then simmered in a good meat broth until tender also mixes well with grated Gruyere cheese mixed in the baking dish in layers, finishing off the top with a thick layer of the cheese and some grated bread crumbs and butter.

Another dish is made by adding this mixture to the already cooked macaroni: One onion, a little parsley and six anchovies chopped up together. Fry this in the pan with butter for about six minutes; then add it to the paste with half a glass of good white wine and an equal amount of fish broth. Sprinkle with paprika and grated Parmesan cheese.

Here is a simple dish called tagliatelle. Make a good paste with flour and eggs, roll out thin and cut in strips half an inch wide; parboil in salted water. Cut a slice of ham in squares; mince the same amount of carrots and celery and brown them in a pan with butter. Add strained tomatoes or tomato paste and a cupful of broth. Serve on a hot dish all together, the paste seasoned with grated cheese.

The Italian method of serving spaghetti, which is most popular in this country, is in combination with tomato sauce. The Neapolitan sauce is made in many ways. A good and simple recipe calls for a quarter of an onion, half a stalk of celery, a few leaves of bay and a bunch of parsley. Cut these up fine together. Add a cup of olive oil, a pinch of salt and one of pepper, and eight tomatoes cut up without the skins. Boil this until the sauce is like a cream; then strain and pour over the spaghetti. Sprinkle grated cheese on top.

The Italian cook prepares the potato with all the state of rarer vegetables, adding cinnamon, nutmeg, saffron and herbs of all kinds. In one recipe you are told to wash half a dozen potatoes; peel off a strip of the skin; put them in a saucepan and cover with water to boil. When they are nearly peeled and mash them, put them in a saucepan; add an ounce of butter and a piece of fresh bread soaked in milk. Add two tablespoonfuls of milk, three eggs beaten to a froth, yolks and whites separately; salt, pepper and a little grated nutmeg. Mix well and put in a baking dish. Pour melted butter over; sprinkle with Parmesan cheese and brown before serving.

Old German Salad Recipe.

Here is an old German recipe for a salad that is delicious for Sunday night supper when sweet things pall. Finely chopped, it is also an excellent filling for sandwiches. Soak any desired quantity of salt sardines in water for several hours. Sardines put up in oil may be used instead of the soaked sardines. Line a salad bowl with lettuce leaves and fill with stuffed olives, capers and shrimps or crab meat. Garnish with parsley and slices of lemon and pour over the whole a heavy French dressing.

Florida Cornbread.

Take one cup of cold boiled hominy one scant cup of white cornmeal, one and one-half cups of milk, one egg, one tablespoonful of butter, one-half teaspoonful of salt, one rounding teaspoonful of baking powder. Beat hominy with fork until thoroughly broken, then gradually beat in the milk. Mix the salt and baking powder with the meal; add all to the hominy and milk; then add the egg well beaten and the butter melted. Pour the mixture into two buttered deep tin plates, bake in quick oven 20 minutes.

Noodles for Soup.

Rub into two eggs as much sifted flour as they will absorb, then roll out until thin as a wafer; dust over a little flour and then roll over and over in a roll, cut off thin slices from the edge of the roll and shake out into long strips; wash them into the soup lightly and boil for ten minutes. Salt should be added while mixing with the flour—about a saltspoonful.

Lyonnais Tripe.

One pound of cooked tripe cut into dice, two tablespoonfuls of butter, one of grated or chopped onion, one of vinegar, and salt and pepper to taste. Put the onion and butter in the frying pan, and when the onion turns yellow add the tripe and cook five minutes. Add seasoning and let boil up once. Serve on toast.

Invention Said to Guarantee Every Shot a Bullseye, Even in the Dark.

Charles Peckard, a police official of Paris, has invented an attachment that enables one to shoot a revolver more accurately in the dark than in broad daylight, the New York Independent states.

This attachment consists of a metallic tube with a lens at one end and a tiny electric lamp at the other. By means of mirrors the light is directed out through the lens as a slender cone, and is sufficiently strong at a distance of some four rods for all practical purposes. In the middle of the illuminated field there is a small dark spot which coincides with the line of the bullet's flight. This enables the inexperienced shooter to hit a selected part of the burglar's anatomy with more certainty than he could display in ordinary target practice.

The electric current is supplied by a small dry battery or a storage battery, which the officer can carry in his pocket or which the defender of the home can place under his pillow. The light tube can be attached to an ordinary pistol, and it may be used as a flash with peaceful intent or merely as a show of force.

Park for Millionaires.

Plans for the transformation of an enormous tract of the 14,000-acre Palms Verde ranch, overlooking Los Angeles harbor and the Catalina channel, into one of the most magnificent residential parks in the nation for American millionaires, are being made. Frank A. Vanderlip of the National City bank of New York and his associates recently purchased the tract for $1,750,000 for this purpose. The plans as they now stand promise to involve an expenditure of $5,000,000.

Easy Money.

"You can't fool all the people all the time," announced the investigator.

"I know it," replied the trust magnate. "There is plenty of profit in fooling half of them half the time."

SKIN CLEARED.

By Simple Change in Food.

It has been said by a physician that most diseases are the result of indigestion.

There's undoubtedly much truth in the statement, even to the cause of many unsightly eruptions, which many suppose can be removed by applying some remedy on the outside.

By changing her food a Kan. girl was relieved of an excema which was a great annoyance to her. She writes: "For five months I was suffering with an eruption on my face and hands which our doctor called excema and which caused me a great deal of inconvenience. The suffering was almost unbearable.

"The medicine I took only gave me temporary relief. One day I happened to read somewhere that excema was caused by indigestion. Then I read that many persons had been relieved of indigestion by eating Grape-Nuts.

"I decided to try it. I liked the taste of the food and was particularly pleased to notice that my digestion was improving and that the eruption was disappearing as if by magic. I had at last found, in this great food, something that reached my trouble.

First Chinese School Book.

There are also fragments of the Chi Chiu-Chang vocabulary composed by a bunch of the palace in about the year 40, A. D. All the authentic texts of this ancient school book, widely used in the year 2 to teach Chinese children to read and write, had long since disappeared. The paper manuscripts are the oldest examples of such literature in existence. M. Chavannes has succeeded in reconstructing from these heterogeneous and more or less fragmentary and disconnected materials a fairly probable picture of the daily life of the Chinese garrisons that held these frontier posts against the Huns and kept open the trade routes to Farghana and Yarkand. The human as well as scientific interest of such a picture is manifest.

Rheumatism Is Torture

Many pains that pass as rheumatism are due to weak kidneys—the failure of the kidneys to drive off uric acid thoroughly.

When you suffer achy, bad joints, back-ache too, dizziness and some urinary disturbances; get Doan's Kidney Pills, the remedy that is recommended by over 150,000 people in many different lands. Doan's Kidney Pills help weak kidneys to drive out the uric acid which is the cause of backache, rheumatism and lumbago.

Here's proof. A SOUTH DAKOTA CASE

W. H. Smart, Belle Fourche, S. D., says: "Rheumatism caused me terrible suffering. I had to give up work. I had to be lifted around and was perfectly helpless. Doan's Kidney Pills acted like magic in driving away the rheumatism. It soon left me entirely and I haven't had an attack since."

If you have any trouble with your stomach Chamberlain's Tablets will do you good. They strengthen and invigorate the stomach and enable it to do its work naturally. Many very remarkable cures of stomach trouble have been effected by them. For sale by all dealers.

You Predicted The Coming of This Car

When you saw the automobile had come to stay you said: "Some day they will make a car that is thoroughly reliable, and sell it at a price within the means of the average business man.

"Some day they will make a really practical car, a car so compact in construction and so well built that it will be as dependable as a trucking wagon. When that time comes, I'll by my car." And here it is:

A Year Full of Promise

FROM time to time we have taken occasion to say, during the past few months, that we believed the year 1914 would be a most prosperous year for our native land. It is true we have administered our optimism after the manner of the homeopathic school for fear some of our readers might think we were talking for effect. But, as a matter of fact, we have felt like "going the limit," and would but for the reason that a "Prophet" is not without honor, save in his own country."

When the new currency law becomes operative—which will be in the near future—the indications are that money will not only be plentiful but will seek investment in various fields of industry. Indeed, money is already getting easier; the rate of interest is less than it has been for months, and bonds that have gone begging are now selling readily. The incision that marked the American business world during the consideration of the two big, constructive measures of the past year—tariff and currency—has given place to a feeling of security, and the financial interests and the financial centers are rapidly adjusting themselves to meet present conditions.

A discordant note is not heard from any of the substantial and influential journals of the country, and optimism is the watchword in such strong journals as the Saturday Evening Post, Collier's Weekly, the Literary Digest and similar publications that constantly watch every pulse beat of industry; neither does the air change when you pick up a periodical like the Review of Reviews or the World's Work—among the ablest and strongest in the land—for they, too, are full of optimism and good cheer.

Money—which has been tight since the panic of 1907—is coming from its hiding place, and, since the passage of the currency bill, has no fears of a panic, is beginning to seek investment. The practical settlement of the trust issue, without the beating of tom-toms or the use of a big stick, is also having a good effect, and the disposition of the tariff final it seems gives hope of good business with legitimate profits. Factories are not yet running in full blast, but nearly everyone is turning out a fair percentage of its capacity, and many are making additional improvements to compete for trade in the markets of the world. The value of our exports over our imports the past year exceeded that of any other year in our history, save one, and the prospects are that 1914 will eclipse that year.

With good prices for stock, good prices for farm products, with unbounded possibilities in industrial lines, with wheels revolving to their full capacity and with abundant capital, eager to keep them turning, how can one help being an optimist?

Ground Hog Day

IF old beliefs, superstitions or whatever they are, hold good, we are due for six weeks of bad weather. Ground Hog Day, February 2, dawned bright and beautiful, and remained so throughout the day. If we have a ground hog in this section, if he came out of his hole on that day, and if Scoop was not there to place an umbrella over him, he certainly saw his shadow and retreated, as is his wont, to the darker recesses of his burrow. Therefore, a late spring and cold weather should follow.

Mortgage Sale

Whereas, by their mortgage deed bearing date July 29th, 1907, which is recorded in the County of Lincoln in Book 25 of Records of Mortgages, the sum of $1000.00, to the said Foxworth-Galbraith Company, his wife, conveyed to Foxworth-Galbraith Company the northwest quarter of Section four Township ten South, Range nine East.

Whereas, the said conveyance was made to secure the said Foxworth-Galbraith Company in the payment of the sum of $1000.00 as evidenced by a promissory note of the said date payable one year after date with interest at the rate of 10 per cent per annum and an attorney's fee of 10 per cent in case of legal proceedings on the said note.

Whereas, by the terms of the said mortgage it was provided that in default of the payment of the said sum of money or the interest thereon when the same became due and payable then the said Foxworth-Galbraith Company was authorized to take possession of the said property and after having given notice of the time and place of sale by publication in some newspaper printed in the County of Lincoln at least twenty days prior to the time of sale, to expose at public auction and sell to the highest bidder for cash the said property and to execute and deliver to the purchaser thereof a good and sufficient deed therefor, and apply the proceeds arising from the sale to the payment of the note and interest, first paying out of the proceeds the cost of such sale and the residual to be retained to the parties of the first part.

Whereas, the said note became due on July 29th, 1907, and the said parties have failed to pay the balance due of $1100.00 on said note and the interest accrued thereon.

Now Therefore, in consideration of the premises notice is hereby given that on the 21st day of March, 1914, at the front door of the Court House at Carrizozo, New Mexico, at ten o'clock a. m. of the said day the undersigned will by virtue of the power vested in the said mortgage expose and sell at public auction to the highest bidder for cash the said real estate above described, for the purpose of satisfying the said indebtedness and paying the cost and expense of this sale.

BEGIN TO GO TO CHURCH MOVEMENT

PASTOR'S STANDPOINT METHODIST

We as pastors come to you in unity of heart and message and ask you frankly, What are you going to do about paying your vow to God? Our one viewpoint is your spiritual interest. We call your attention to the fact that we are pastors of churches which are so arranged in way of lighting, heating, and seating as to give to every comer every bodily comfort. We belong to this world of life and desires, and we therefore know that from the pulpit we offer a surcease from our old selves, weakness, and remorse which you can faintly refuse. We have our car, our blacksmith, our tin, our cobbler, our auto shops, but without our churches what hope is there for a careworn, sin-corrupted, remorse-ridden soul.

Now, Brethren, you may have criticized the ministry because its pulpit utterances appear commonplace, or because they troubled and occasioned counter currents in sentiment which you may have hoped to control, or because, perchance, they did not adopt and preach some peculiar religious or political theory you held dear. But after all, the minister still continues to pour forth, Sunday after Sunday, his volume of teachings and reproof and correction. He is rather difficult to escape. Where ever you go, you are not long there until he is on the ground, and little time passes until he begins to pour forth his message. If you have made up your mind that it is all worthless confusion, had you better not reconsider, and give him another hearing? In fact, with all his weakness, which he confesses, has he not the very message you need? We do not have in mind to interfere with your choice in the matter, we just come to you as a friend and ask your consideration of these vital questions which are always with us. Come and risk us to give you a square deal.

Yours for a better citizenship,
J. W. HENDRIX

WHAT'S THE USE?

As an habitual church-goer and consequently one who has spent a good deal of time in God's sanctuary, the writer has been asked to express in these columns his private conception of the propriety of church attendance. In other words what's the use of spending time which could be used in other pursuits—at least two hours every Sabbath—in the house of God? We are fully convinced that the average man of affairs, places too great a premium on his available time to concern himself with things which do not make for his benefit. It is, therefore, of first importance to establish a real profit to be gained by church attendance before we can expect attention to what we have to offer.

In the first place, there is hardly one of us who has not at some time wished for a better country than this earthly home. If therefore we realize that the turmoils and cares of this life, together with whatever of this world's goods we may be able to glean from the marts of trade, are all to be left behind at the close of life, then does it not behoove us, once every seven days, to turn aside from the battle of the commercial world and fix our attention on things eternal? Does it not appear to be the part of sound judgment to cultivate also the only thing we believe to be enduring?

It is hardly true that many of us willfully neglect to go to church when Sunday comes around. Few of us have a grinch at the Almighty or are inclined to infidelity. Why, if the churches were suddenly to give it up as a bad job and quit the town, some of us who never darken the portals of the sanctuary would be the first to deplore the loss of such a great influence for good in community life. Now isn't that the truth? And yet, how does the church know you want it to stay? The minister meets you on the street, but never sees you in the pew when he announces his text.

Perhaps you say that you owe a duty to your family as their natural provider, and that you cannot properly fulfil your parental part by them without continuing with unrelaxed efforts very day and Sunday too. Had you ever stopped to think that you have to leave everything you manage to scrape and save behind, and that life at best is a fleeting existence? And had you thought of that inevitable responsibility—your influence? The main thing is for us to stop and think.

That done, results will, nine times out of ten, take care of themselves.

And lastly, man is an animal who needs regular periods of relaxation. Time and again has it been demonstrated scientifically that more is eventually accomplished if Sunday is observed as a day of absolute rest and quietude. Link with this the inspiration by meeting your fellow man in the pew, the cheering songs of praise, the minister's words of admonition and encouragement—in short, you are a better man, physically, mentally and morally, and the Sabbath's experience links itself inseparably with week's routine. To those who have given it the most consistent try out, it proves a most indispensable source of strength. Your father, my father found it a good thing for his health, his strength of mind and soul. Has the son outgrown the father? We hardly think so.

FROM THE STANDPOINT OF A CITIZEN AND BUSINESS MAN

We heartily approve of the measures taken by the pastors of the different churches of the town in an effort to get the people to go to church.

Having lived in the community for a number of years, and having previously lived in a church-going community, we can say that the general tone of business, moral and social life in any place, is by far the better where people attend church. A community is generally what the people living in it, make it. In one portion of this county, blessed with natural resources, where a person can view the beauties of nature at all times, and intended to be a pleasant place to live, several American families of the best type of citizenship left that district for the simple reason that there were not good churches or suitable schools. To quote one of the most successful business men in Lincoln County: "Undoubtedly live churches and good schools are the best assets to any country."

From personal observation, children who have the example from church-attending parents, make better citizens and better business men and women. Let us set the example for our children and for the world, and join in the work which should be done in our churches.

Our Investment

The telephone instrument on your wall or desk, the piece of wire, and the occasional pole you see, the voice of one operator you hear when you make a call, doesn't make a telephone system.

You see less than one-tenth of the things that are necessary for one single telephone message.

You see on the average only an investment of $15.47.

It really costs us an average of $162.00 to reach each subscriber.

Our investment, as shown in our last annual statement, is divided approximately as follows:

The part you see
Subscriber Station Equipment	$2,682,964.00
The part you don't see
Switchboards and Central Office Equipment	$2,771,512.25

WHY GRIP IS DANGEROUS.

It is an Epidemic Catarrhal Fever Caused by a Bacillus that Generally Leaves the Patient Weak After the Acute Stage Has Passed.

Grip Patients Grateful to Peruna, the Expectorant Tonic.

Do not make the error of regarding grip as an exaggerated cold. There is a big difference between the two. Grip is an epidemic disease that poisons the vital organs.

Peruna is a Tonic Laxative. It requires a good tonic laxative to keep the body of the patient as strong as possible to counteract the effect of the poison created by the grip bacillus.

There is no specific for the grip. Peruna has been used with good success in former grip epidemics. Indications point to the return of grip this winter.

Do not fail to read the experience of former grip patients with Peruna. Mrs. Gentry Gates, 8219 First Ave., East Lake, Ala., writes: "I had a bad case of grip. I tried Peruna and it cured me. I can safely say it is a fine medicine."

Mrs. Charles E. Wells, Sr., 230 South St. Delaware, Ohio, writes: "After a severe attack of the grippe I took Peruna and found it a good tonic."

DIDN'T KNOW GREAT PLAYER

Boy Would Have Fallen Down and Worshipped if He Had Realized of Whom He Was Speaking.

The Tinker brought this story from the east with him. He declares Willie Kessler now a scout for the Giants told it to himself.

Kessler likes nothing better than to watch a bunch of boys playing a "bant" ball game. While scouting in a west end league town late in the season he chanced upon such a game arriving just in time to see a lanky, scrubby haired lad, who was umpire give a decision. The little captain of the team fighting the decision rushed up to Kessler.

"Want that a strike, mister?" he demanded. "Sure it was," replied one of the greatest hitters in baseball history.

As said the other kid captain fiercely "what does that old boot know about baseball anyway?"

Absent-Minded. She (after the elopement) I have received a letter from my father. Dear papa is so absent-minded.

He in what way? He inhaled a lot of millinery and dress making bills and forgot to put in the money to pay for them.

Anticipated Doer. Why don't you sit down, Weary?"

Aw shucks! Look at their trouble of getting up again. Part is the age at which the average man either gets rid of his coat or doubles it.

SELF DELUSION. Many People Deceived by Coffee.

We like to defend our indulgences and habits even though we may be convinced of their actual harmfulness. A man can convince himself that whiskey is good for him on a cold morning, or beer on a hot summer day.

It's the same with coffee. Thousands of people suffer headache and nervousness year after year but try to persuade themselves the cause is not coffee—because they like coffee.

"While yet a child I commenced using coffee and continued it," writes a Wis. man, "until I was a regular coffee fiend. I drank it every morning and in consequence had a blinding headache nearly every afternoon."

"My folks thought it was coffee that ailed me, but I liked it and would not admit it was the cause of my trouble, so I stuck to coffee and the headaches stuck to me."

"Finally, the folks stopped buying coffee and brought home some Postum. They made it right (directions on pkg.) and told me to see what difference it would make with my head, and during that first week on Postum my old affliction did not bother me once.

From that day to this we have used nothing but Postum in place of coffee—headaches are a thing of the past and the whole family is in fine health."

"Postum looks good, smells good, tastes good, is good, and does good to the whole body."

Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. Read "The Road to Wellville" in pkg.

Postum now comes in two forms: Regular Postum—must be well boiled. Instant Postum—is a soluble powder. A teaspoonful dissolves quickly in a cup of hot water and, with cream and sugar, makes a delicious beverage instantly. Grocers sell both kinds. "There's a Reason" for Postum.

WASHINGTON GOSSIP

His Oratory Is Loud Though State Is Little

WASHINGTON.—It is not often that the little state of Delaware is heard from in the house of representatives, but when she does arise to address the chair she bellows like a bull. It was worth while listening to Representative Brockson of that state when he took considerably more than an hour in his effort to divest the house of the opinion that the whipping posts of Delaware are inhuman, brutal, unconstitutional, and relics of a medieval age when pillories and alleged witchcraft walked hand in hand.

Mr. Brockson received great applause for his oratory, which is just as loud as that of Representative Sisson, who comes from a much larger state, Mississippi; and the applause was not limited to the members of the house. Over in the southwest corner of the gallery sat a man who applauded with his two hands just as loud as any of members. In fact, when Mr. Brockson made a particularly strong point this well-wisher clapped his palms so vigorously that a doorkeeper had to admonish him that applause in the galleries is not allowed. In the midst of a hot debate one of the numerous Smiths of congress arose.

"According to the gentlemen's statement," he said, "there are six cases pending in Delaware. If that is a fact does it not indicate that corporal punishment has not stopped these brutal crimes? In a little state like Delaware you have six cases at the present moment in which whipping is to be administered."

"What state is the gentleman from?" asked Delaware's sole representative. "New York," replied Representative Smith, and the contrast between the two states made the house laugh with great glee.

However, Representative Brockson came right back at him. He told Buffalo Smith that the last time four New York crooks came to Delaware they were given the whipping-post treatment—and never came back.

Didn't Know Hearst, but Was Glad to Meet Him

PARKER ANDERSON of North Carolina mingles with the great of the nation with exactly the same nonchalance as he uses in lighting a cigar. Parker knows cabinet officers by their first names, and the "Keep out" sign is always automatically reversed to "Welcome" when Parker strolls into the office of a senator or representative. It was only a few days ago that he paid a call upon Commissioner of Internal Revenue Osborn. The office was crowded with folks, big and little, important and unimportant, job hunters and patronage grabbers, and a clerk was keeping them all back in line until the commissioner had signed his mail.

"I would like to see my friend Osborn right away," announced Anderson in a smooth voice. "No one gets in that door ahead of me!" announced a shrill female who would have been at home brandishing a war ax. "I got here first."

"Pardon me, madam," said Anderson, bowing, as an attendant deferentially opened the door for him to pass within.

Well, there are a lot of fellows like that, and a lot of good they can do if they want to. You see, Anderson is a newspaper man. He got into the business from the telegraph end.

They tell a story of him in his telegraph days, which may throw some light on the way the great men of the nation ask him to set down and listen to stories. Once, when he was an operator here in Washington, some fellow made an attack upon William Randolph Hearst.

The telegraph company sent Anderson over to the American bureau to handle the key. His fingers spat lightning for an hour. During that time a long person came out and sat by him. Anderson's cigar went out.

"Say, old timer, get me a match," he said, and he leaned over and slapped the long person a resounding thwack on the leg.

"All right," was the reply, and the lanky one went out and got a box full. "Hivins," said the janitor. "Don't you know that's Mister Hearst?"

"No," responded Anderson, still making the key hum, "but I'm glad to meet him."

Great Excitement in the Suburb of Brookland

WHEN is a burglar not a burglar? Answer is: Out in Brookland the other night a woman rushed to the engine house crying for help. A colored man was in her house, she said. No fire fighter who stands ready to risk his life any hour of the day or night, and all the minutes between, is going to disregard a Macedonian cry like that. So the engine-house-manned man and two citizens, who, returned with the woman to her home, and, sure enough, a light shining from one of the windows showed that a burglar was on his job.

The one fireman and the two citizens mounted guard at the doors, front and back, and one of them—don't ask which, you can't know every little last thing about an incident you get second hand—called to the man to come out and show himself.

The burglar stepped on the porch, as big as life, with a gun in his hand. The gun looked as if it were loaded, and know it. And the man had every appearance of one who is well acquainted with triggers.

The one fireman and the two citizens went into conference and appointed a committee of one to go for the police. And when an officer showed up and called out for the burglar to come and show himself, the answer came sizzling back:

"Come in and get me." "There was no mistaking an invitation like that, so the policeman, with his courage as true blue as his coat, marched in the house and got him, but Lor—

He wasn't a burglar-man, after all. He was a guard.

She Gave the Crowd Something to Snicker At

A WOMAN with a nubia over her foreign black hair and with eyes as fresh as a spring water gave a crowd something to snicker at the other after noon. She was brisking along Seventh street when she stopped with a shocked suddenness to look in her brown cord bag. Something must have gone wrong with her finances, for the inventory brought to the spring-water eyes that distracted look that comes from trying to think up where the money went.

She repeated the rummaging act, without relief. Then—and here's where the free show came in—she plumped herself down on the curbstone, yanked the bag open and spilled its contents in her lap and unwrapped each package.

She must have been an early Christmas shopper woman, for her layout included a wool knitted clown with brass symbols that strike when you pull a string—maybe, and there was a calico cat and a tiny set of tea things decorated with red flowers that come off at the first washing, you know—and a child's hair ribbon that the clerk had tied into a bow—and there was spool cotton and shoe laces and safety pins and—

The price of each purchase did the woman count up by thumping her fingers on her knee. But her anxiety showed no sign of a letup until, with a flash of belated memory, she pushed a hand under her jacket and brought out a pin with a glass set that was better than a truly emerald, because it was as big again as any emerald ever dared to be and a whole lot greener.

The obviously missing dime had been tracked to its lair; the money problem was solved.

THE COURSE OF TRUE LOVE

"Oh, mistress of my heart," he cried, "Say but one tender word to me And I will never quit thy side In life or eternity."

She gazed upon him kneeling there And heaved a long and happy sigh; She wore a basketful of hair She had been saving long to buy.

"Oh, mistress of my heart," said he, Repeating what he'd said before, "Unless you yield your love to me Contentment can be mine no more."

"And if I yield my love," she said, "I'll sweat contentment all your breast!" He said it would and bowed his head, His glad heart throbbing beneath his vest.

"Then doubt no more, for all is well, I gladly yield my love," said she; Whereat he rose up with a yell, He'd run a tack into his knee.

Promoted. "My boy," said the millionaire who headed the great corporation, "you have worked here faithfully for a good many years. I realize that you have devoted your best efforts to our interests, and that our success is in a measure due to your work and that of your fellow employees. Now I am going to do something for you."

"Oh, thank you, sir," tremblingly replied the man who had been working for years on a salary that was barely sufficient to enable him to live in decent comfort. "I don't know how I can find words to fittingly express my gratitude. I can only hope that my work in the future will be such as to convince you that your generosity is fully appreciated."

"There, there, don't worry about that. We are going to open a branch in Nevada and I've decided to let you be the manager of it. The town to which you are to be sent is a small one, and I understand that it is not as attractive as some towns are, but it may grow. In any case, the dry atmosphere of there will be almost sure to relieve you of any catarrhal troubles you may have. You will receive the same salary you are getting now, but it will probably be easy for you to save money, as there will be nothing out there on which your earnings can be spent. I congratulate you on your promotion."

Willing to Make the Effort. "My dear, there's no reason why we shouldn't save a part of my salary. I've just been reading about a Chicago man who is able to support a family of a dozen children on $12 a week."

Desires. "I ask no more than this, to be a toiler here awhile. Ere I go forth upon the sea, That wears stormy smiles."

Not a Forcible Illustration. "Do you know," asked the abstainer, "that the money which the American people spend for drink in a single year would be sufficient to build a stone tower forty feet in diameter and a mile high?"

Sympathetic Father. "Do you expect to send your boy to college?" "Yes. After the hard studying he is compelled to do in high school I think it is no more than right that he should have a few years of play before he goes to work."

Suspicious. "What do you know against her?" "Oh, nothing in particular, but how can she be all right? You never see her anywhere without her husband. He must have some cause for being suspicious."

Good Bowels Are An Aid to Growth

Growing Children Need a Mild Laxative to Foster Regular Bowel Movement.

As a child grows older it requires more and more personal attention from the mother, and as the functions of the bowels are of the utmost importance to health, great attention should be paid to them.

Diet is of great importance, and the mother should watch the effect of certain foods. A food will constipate one and not another, and so we have a healthy food like eggs causing biliousness to thousands, and a wholesome fruit like bananas constipating many. It is also to be considered that the child is growing, and great changes are taking place in the young man or young woman. The system has not yet settled itself to its later routine.

A very valuable remedy at this stage, and one which every growing boy and girl should be given often or occasionally, according to the individual circumstances, is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. This is a laxative and tonic combined, so mild that it is given to little babies, and yet equally effective in the most robust constitution. At the first sign of a tendency to constipation give a small dose of Syrup Pepsin at night on retiring, and prompt action will follow in the morning. It not only acts on the stomach and bowels but its tonic properties build up and strengthen the system generally, which is an opinion shared by Mr. John Dey of Bloomfield, N. J. He has a large family and at ages where the growth and development must be watched. Little Marie has thrived especially well on Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. Mr. Dey considers it the right laxative for young and old and has found none better for young children.

The use of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin will teach you to avoid cathartics, salts and pills, as they are too harsh for the majority and their effect is only temporary. Syrup Pepsin brings permanent results, and it can be conveniently obtained of any nearby drug-gist at fifty cents and one dollar a bottle. Results are always guaranteed or money will be refunded.

Families wishing to try a free sample bottle can obtain it postpaid by addressing Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 203 Washington St., Monticello, Ill. A postal card with your name and address on it will do.

Dummies Arrested. Dummies used by a Patho director in an auto wreck at South River, N. J., had the distinction of being shot at and arrested by Chief of Police Oppenberger of that place recently, according to a New Brunswick newspaper. The dummies, when not in use, were placed in the store room of the Washington hotel. Some jokers told the chief that some men were stealing cigars from the store room, and when he arrived and saw the dim figures in the darkness he called upon them repeatedly to surrender. Receiving no answer he blazed away at them several times before he discovered the joke.

Calumet the Secret of Economy

The high cost of living nowadays, and the way prices are steadily climbing skyward, is making economy in the kitchen even more important than it was in the good old days of our thrifty ancestors. But how to achieve economy? There's the rub!

In many lines, it depends almost entirely on the housewife's knowledge of foods and on her watchfulness—but fortunately, in one line, baking, economy can be made almost automatic by the use of the famous Calumet Baking Powder. But how to achieve economy? There's the rub!

Economy in baking, as every good cook knows, depends not so much on economy in buying the materials as on the success of her baking. Failures mean waste—bigger losses by far than the savings she makes in buying. And the fact that Calumet absolutely prevents failures and makes every baking successful has made it the favorite of every cook that seeks to be economical. In other words, Calumet is the secret of economy in baking.

It is the purest, too—attested by hundreds of leading physicians—and as for its general quality, it is enough to say that Calumet has received the highest awards at two World's Pure Food Expositions—one in Chicago, Ill., and the other in Paris, France, in March, 1911.

Terrific Dilemma. Our friend Tom married recently, says a contributor to the Boston Transcript. His bride, being from the Pacific coast, where thunderstorms are rare and moderate became terrified when a genuine eastern "rip-roarer" broke loose, and she sought safety in a closet. Presently came a scream from her place of refuge. "What's the matter?" inquired her husband. "O Tom," she answered, half crying, half laughing, "I'm afraid to come out because of the lightning, and I'm afraid to stay in here because there's a mouse."

Indians First "Cubists" (?) "Lone Star," art instructor in the United States Indian service, claims that "cubist" art originated with the American Indian some 200 years ago. Among his collection of Indian art, says American Art News, specimens in the common figure of the eagle, shaped square and totally unlike an eagle, yet immediately impressing the observer that it is one, which, declares "Lone Star," is the height of the "Cubist" art.

The Secret of Health is Elimination of Waste

Every business man knows how difficult it is to keep the pigeon holes and drawers of his desk free from the accumulation of useless papers. Every housewife knows how difficult it is to keep her house free from the accumulation of all manner of useless things. So it is with the body. It is difficult to keep it free from the accumulation of waste matter. Unless the waste is promptly eliminated the machinery of the body soon becomes clogged. This is the beginning of most human ills.

SAUSAGE AS A DELICACY

Method of Preparation Has Much to Do With its Appreciation When Put on the Table.

Sausage, considered by some as a plebeian edible, ranking with Irish stew and corn beef and cabbage, and not possible on the ultra-refined board, may really be made the basis of many delicious and even dainty luncheon dishes.

Sausage sliced and delicately fried in its own grease, drained and then broiled crisply, and served with thin little buckwheat cakes, four inches across, will make a delightful luncheon on a cold winter day.

Sausage smothered in potato is another luncheon dainty, which even the most cultured need not disdain.

Parboil some very small link sausage five minutes. Bake a number of medium sized potatoes, and when done cut in half and remove the meaty pulp, mashing it well and adding butter and a little cream or milk, as well as some salt and pepper. Fill the potato skins with this mixture, leaving a depression in the center of each. Lay in the parboiled sausages and brown well in the oven for a few minutes.

PLUM PUDDING ICE CREAM

Change From the Usual Method of Serving Will Be Appreciated by All the Family.

A novel change from the usual plum pudding is this delightful dessert, which is quite easily made:

Scald a pint of milk, add to it four eggs beaten with one cupful and a half of sugar. Stir constantly over hot water until it forms a rich custard; strain and set aside to cool. Dissolve two tablespoonfuls of cocoa in one-half cupful of boiling water and boil for a moment. Chill this and add to the cold custard with one tablespoonful of vanilla and one pint of cream. Shred sufficient citron to measure one-half cupful; steam one-half cupful of seeded raisins and one-quarter cupful of sultanas until plump and tender. Blanch and cut fine two dozen almonds; mix these, add just enough sherry to moisten, and let stand for an hour. Pour the mixed cream into the freezer and freeze until like a thick mush. Open, and work in the fruit, then finish freezing. In serving, garnish with whipped cream.

Sauce for Chops.

Pound fine an ounce of black pepper and half an ounce of allspice, with an ounce of salt, and a half ounce of scraped horseradish and the same of shallots peeled and quartered; put these ingredients into a pint of mushroom ketchup or walnut pickle; let them steep for a fortnight and then strain it. A teaspoonful or two of this is generally an acceptable addition, mixed with the gravy usually sent up for chops and steaks; or added to thick melted butter.

Another delightful sauce for chops is made by taking two wineglasses of port and two of walnut pickle; four of mushroom ketchup; half a dozen anchovies, pounded, and a like number of shallots sliced and pounded; a tablespoonful of soy and half a drachm of Cayenne pepper; let them simmer gently for ten minutes; then strain, and when cold put into bottles, well corked and sealed over. It will keep for a considerable time.

Fish Croquettes.

Stir over the fire in a saucepan one tablespoonful of butter, the same amount of flour and two-thirds of a cupful of milk or water. Boil up once and add one small half teaspoonful of salt, a dash or two of pepper, then remove from the fire and stir in the yolks of two eggs. Rub a deep plate with salad oil, pour in the mixture and stir in gently one cupful of flakes of cold cooked fish. Allow to cool thoroughly. Make out into corked shaped rolls. Wet the hands to prevent sticking. Roll in sifted bread crumbs, then in beaten eggs; roll again in bread crumbs, lay in a wire-basket, hang in boiling fat and fry a delicate brown. Lift out with a skimmer, place on brown paper a moment to absorb superfluous grease. The finer the bread crumbs the more certainty of success.

Apple Sponge.

Cover one-half box of gelatin with cold water and allow it to stand for half an hour; then pour over it half a pint of boiling water and stir until dissolved. Mix a pint of strained apple sauce with the gelatin, add a pound of sugar and stir until it melts, and the juice of two lemons. Set on ice until it begins to thicken. Beat the whites of three eggs to a stiff froth, stir into the apple mixture and pour into a mold. Serve with whipped cream.

Meat and Rice.

Line bowl with cooked rice, fill the center with any chopped cooked meat, seasoned with salt, celery salt, pepper and onion juice, one-half teaspoonful of sage and two tablespoonfuls of fine cracker crumbs moistened with hot water; steam 30 minutes and serve with tomato sauce.

Making Better Coffee.

If a little salt is added to the coffee before pouring on the boiling water it will greatly improve the coffee's flavor.

Filling Lamps.

An oil lamp should be filled only within about an inch of the top, as the oil will expand slightly when the wick is lighted.

Women Everywhere

Praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Women from the Atlantic to the Pacific, from all sections of this great country, no city so large, no village so small, but that some woman has written words of thanks for health restored by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. No woman who is suffering from the ills peculiar to her sex should rest until she has given this famous remedy a trial. Is it not reasonable to believe that what it did for these women it will do for any sick woman?

Wonderful Case of Mrs. Stephenson, on the Pacific Coast.

INDEPENDENCE, OREGON.—"I was sick with what four doctors called Nervous Prostration, was treated by them for several years, would be better for a while than back in the old way again. I had palpitation of the heart very bad, fainting spells, and was so nervous that a spoon dropping to the floor would nearly kill me, could not lift the lightest weight without making me sick; in fact was about as sick and miserable as a person could be. I saw your medicines advertised and thought I would try them, and am so thankful I did for they helped me at once. I took about a dozen bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and also used the Sensitive Wash. Since then I have used them whenever I felt sick. Your remedies are the only doctor I employ. You are at liberty to publish this letter."—Mrs. W. STEPHENSON, Independence, Oregon.

A Grateful Atlantic Coast Woman.

HODGSON, ME.—"I feel it a duty I owe to all suffering women to tell what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for me. One year ago I found myself a terrible sufferer. I had pains in both sides and such a soreness I could scarcely straighten up at times. My back ached, I had no appetite and was so nervous I could not sleep, then I would be so tired mornings that I could scarcely get around. It seemed almost impossible to move or do a bit of work and I thought I never would be any better until I submitted to an operation. I commenced taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and soon felt like a new woman. I had no pains, slept well, had good appetite and was fat and could do almost all my own work for a family of four. I shall always feel that I owe my good health to your medicine."—Mrs. HAYWARD SOWERS, Hodgson, Maine.

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No one sick with woman's ailments does justice to herself if she does not try this famous medicine made from roots and herbs, it has restored so many suffering women to health.

Write to LYDIA E. PINKHAM MEDICINE CO. (CONFIDENTIAL) LYNN, MASS., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

How He Made It Out.

Mrs. Jones and Johnny had only a few minutes ago boarded the train when the conductor called for "tickets." Mrs. Jones immediately produced hers.

"How old is your boy, madam?" "Quick as a flash Johnny was down between the seats on his head and the mother replied, "Six years old." As this procedure was not understood, and as Johnny looked too large for six years, the conductor said, "I did not understand you, madam." Johnny grinned and spoke out proudly, "Don't you know that nine turned upside down is six?"

Helping the Editor.

Wright—it seems to be getting harder work for the newspaper man all the time.

Penman—Oh, I don't know about that. I see that ball-bearing scissors have been patented by an Ohio inventor.

MOTHER! LOOK AT CHILD'S TONGUE

If cross, feverish, constipated, give "California Syrup of Figs"

A laxative today cures a sick child tomorrow. Children simply will not take the time from play to empty their bowels, which become clogged up with waste, liver gets sluggish; stomach sour.

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, or your child is listless, cross, feverish, breath bad, restless, doesn't eat heartily, full of cold or has sore throat or any other children's ailment, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," then don't worry, because it is perfectly harmless, and in a few hours all this constipation poison, sour bile and fermenting waste will gently move out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. A thorough "inside-cleaning" is oftentimes all that is necessary. It should be the first treatment given in any sickness. Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask at the store for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Adv.
