

News Notes from Outside Points

FORT STANTON

Miss Emma Acuna, from Clifton, Arizona arrived Sunday to join the local nurses at No. 10.

The usual high-class movies were had this week at the Post theater. A two reel speciality entitled "Father and Son" was exceptionally good.

We regret very much to have to announce a loss in our social circles, because of the departure of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Lovett who will take up their residence in Oregon. We wish them every success in their new field and ask them to remember always their many friends left at Ft. Stanton.

The Patriotic singing each Sunday evening in the Library Hall during the Non-Sectarian services is becoming more interesting as time goes on. The Chaplain insists that we all learn each and every one of the U. S. Hymns and as well that we shall sing them with the spirit of old.

"Look out for the cars" when driving down Easy Ave., for the B. & A. is making daily runs, with several branch lines to Rudolph's Bead factory, Johnston's wholesale tailoring house, and the Ft. Stanton Ice factory.

We are in receipt of letters from Dr. M. T. Sloan, the "Gas Specialist," who has returned to his post as superintendent of the Eudwood Sanatorium at Towson, Maryland, telling us how he misses his many friends at Fort Stanton, and the pleasure he had while with us. We return compliment by saying the same of you, Dr. Sloan, and we hope they will see fit to send you back every now and then.

Our welcome friend, the "Bonito" visited several days with this week flooding the laws and preparing them for the warm weather at hand. From time to time the Bonito will thus visit us, each time bringing pleasure by its presence to both young and old.

Were you wise? "Why the bonfire at the rear of the No. 3 the other day?" Because Mrs. Harry Leach wanted to see how her faithful husband would act since his promotion recently in the service. He proved quite a fire chief and now can vouch for it that Harry deserved the promotion.

The high sign at Ft. Stanton is always "Chase the cure" and he that fails to do so is a traitor and with no right to be in our midst. So through or with the permission of A. S. Hathaway let us remember this A. B. C. Cure which runs:

- A. is for air, constant, plenty and pure.
- B. is for bathing, to cleanse every pore.
- C. for contentment—your lot might be worse.
- D. for the doctor, your pains to disperse.
- E. is for exercise; take it with care.
- F. is for food, more wholesome than rare.
- G. is for grit, to hold out in the race.
- H. for the hope, which should shine in your face.
- I. for impatience, at the arduous task.
- J. for the joy, when you've won out at last.
- K. is for kicking, at rule and restraint.
- L. is for laughter, more wise than complaint.
- M. is for milk when one is too

- thin.
- N. for the nurse, so cheerful and trim.
- O. is for order, not trusting to luck.
- P. is for patience, persistence and pluck.
- Q. for the quiet which should reign after dinner.
- R. for the rest on your bed or the recliner.
- S. is for the sleep, unbroken and restful.
- T. is for temperature, keep still when abnormal.
- U. is for useless, applied to drug "cures."
- V. is for visitors, just limit the hours.
- W. for worry, to be overcome.
- X. for excesses, you surely must shun.
- Y. is for yearning when pleasures allure.
- Z. is for zeal in taking the "cure."

Dr. Currie and Mr. James Hanna visited with Mrs. Currie on upper 4th street at Capital last Sunday afternoon, reporting a most enjoyable time.

The Sacred Heart Patient's Choir is increasing and is furnishing very devotional hymns at the daily services in the chapel held at 6:30 p. m.

"Two Cousins" Intemperance and Gambling is the subject to be treated next Sunday evening at the Non-Sectarian services. "By their company you shall know them."

Easter Sunday, April 12th, will be celebrated in regular city style at this Post. Special programs at the hall, in the sick wards and in the Sacred Heart chapel.

Master Alva Sitton, the distinguished son of our "Chief" is anticipating a fine trip up and down the Mississippi this coming summer. Reo will remain at the Post.

It is certainly an honor judging from our surroundings to be a native of the great state of Texas. Still like all other states of any note it has a share of Freedom, a class who would have intervention with Mexico because a stray steer was cruelly murdered across the line. Cheer up you sons of the Brann State, were that the case New Mexico has a right to intervention.

"Well of all things," all the Tennesseans wanting to take a trip to El Paso next Friday—what for? Listen—to hear Ex-Governor Patterson, of Tennessee lecture on Temperance. Why not have the Governor come to Ft. Stanton here many other great Ex-Tennesseans reside?

All the private schools of the Post report much progress and preparation being made for several spring picnics, outings, etc. for the children.

Dr. and Mrs. Laws, of Lincoln visited with the Commanding Officer and family last Sunday afternoon, coming up in the Laws's auto.

Mrs. F. H. McKeon, of No. 2 is visiting for a few days with Dr. and Mrs. Tappin at El Paso.

A TRIANGLE OF THOUGHT
Woman's suffrage is probably the most talked of, if not the most momentous question up to date. Many women oppose it in every phase. A great number "lean to" the measure, but doubt its stability; fads take the world by storm, and are easily acquired, only to be discarded when the novelty wears off. The masculine world are not enthusing over its possible benefit to women. In a few states where women's votes will mean victory, that could not be gained in any other way, the men are decidedly in favor of it. The bait is alluring, and the influence of great minds are swaying the majority to the ballot box. But there is a strong opposition to all this. The south keeps entirely out of the controversy.

Senator Root in an address says: "I have said that I thought suffrage would be a loss to women. I think so because, suffrage implies not only the casting of the ballot, but if it means anything it means entering upon the field of political life, and politics is nothing more than modified war. In politics there is struggle, strife, contention, bitterness, excitement, agitation, every thing which is adverse to true character of women." That it is not making the reformations it was hopeful for, a lady of high standing in Colorado, who has given her best thoughts to the subject testifies. She has been active in politics since the passage of the bill granting political rights, has participated in conventions nominating presidents, as a delegate and studied every phase of the issue. She is now convinced that the votes of women have been useless in her state, that women's efforts have not raised the tone of politics, and that they have made no higher quality of legislation, nor in any way improved upon the administration of the laws. She says suffrage has had a tendency to increase unworthy voting, instead of eliminating the disparaging elements at the polls. This proof from the experience of those at "the helm," should be convincing to those whose decisions are swaying in the balance.

It is presumed from recent advises from "the front," that there is a fierce struggle going on at Torreon. The army of the constitutionalists have been forced to forge through the sands of the desert, under a fierce tropical sun, in order to fight at all. The federals with the safe guard of the desert, and its burning sands, and no water, thought to have had every advantage of the enemy in its inability to get to their strong hold. Such feats as meeting the enemy half way, or fighting from behind a adobe wall, is what they are striving to avoid. But the "rebels" are there, and we wait to hear the result.

Last week's "slap in the face" of gentle spring, assures us that spring is on her way. There is the exhilarating influence exuding from earth long before the first bird song or breaking of the leaf-bud. It infuses the blood, and awakens each tenuous nerve and dormant fibre of man's anatomy. Day by day the sun is gaining on his way to the north, and the oblique rays point a little more forcefully to the earth. Slowly the frost is relaxing and the mellowness sent forth in the aroma long bound in fetters of ice. We drink in the tonic so sweetly akin to ambrosia and feel again the agility of youth. For Spring is coming.

White Oaks

The masquerade ball given by the Women's Club last Saturday evening was well attended, notwithstanding the severe storm that had been raging for a day or two. A number of young people attended from Corona, Ancho and Carrizozo. The costumes were, without exception, well gotten up. A very enjoyable time was had, the dance lasting until the wee sma hours of the morning.

Mrs. John Lee, Sr., was a visitor in Carrizozo a few days the past week.

Miss Lena Smith, who has been teaching school at the Braum ranch, left Saturday night for San Simon, Arizona, in response to a telegram announcing the serious illness of a sister at that place.

Mr. and Mrs. Swoyer left Friday for Orogrande to make preparations for the removal of their household effects to this place, where they expect to reside in the future.

Mr. and Mrs. John Owen and daughter, of Corona, were visitors here over Sunday, the guests of Wm. Owen and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Reily and little son were in town a short time Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Erastus Lacey returned Saturday from El Paso, where Mrs. Lacey has been in a hospital taking treatment.

J. B. French, Joseph Spence, Chas. Spence and F. J. Sager left Wednesday for an auto trip to the Gallinas country.

James Cooper had the misfortune to break an axle on his car near town Saturday evening. Outside of having to walk some little distance there was no other damage.

White Mountain.

Miss Agnes Bennett of Three Rivers has been the guest of Miss Florence Nabours the past week.

H. S. Scheffey has returned from Carrizozo where he was called on court business.

M. R. Cook of Roswell has been at the Harper ranch for some time.

Sam Hall and Jim Harper were in Oscuro Saturday on business.

Ben Nabours and wife have been visiting here. Mr. Nabours having but recently returned from a trip to Arizona on government business.

"Uncle Ben" Robinson was here one day this week doing more surveying for the Halls.

Grandfather Carrington

DR. CARRINGTON, for many years Surgeon-in-command at Fort Stanton, is now a grandfather, as the following from the Los Angeles Tribune shows:

Dr. P. M. Carrington, surgeon for the public health service at the port, reports the debut of Pauline Wallis at Fort Rosecrans Sunday afternoon. This makes Dr. Carrington a grandfather. Pauline's parents are Lieutenant and Mrs. John W. Wallis.

After Two Years

TWO years ago J. B. French made a shipment of hay to a point east of here, and was charged, what he thought, an exorbitant rate. He was unable, however, to convince the railroad company and took his case before the commerce commission. Just this week he received an order from the commission, directed to the railroad company, commanding a refund of $246.00. This long delay indicates that the commission is pretty badly crowded and that some means should be adopted to facilitate matters. It should not take forever to adjust an excessive charge.

School Notes

Friday afternoon of this week the school as a whole will observe Arbor Day as proclaimed by the governor. A programme of songs, recitations, etc., will be given in the auditorium after which the formalities of ceremonial tree planting will be observed. There will be six trees: one for the senior class and one for each room. The public is welcome.

In view of the hearty co-operation of the community, we feel that it will only be necessary for the following regulation to be generally known to have the support of the parents in its observance. The first bell rings at 8:30 a. m. Before that time no pupil is allowed on the grounds except those who have work beginning at 8:20 a. m. This is a necessary rule and pupils should easily be here on time tho' not before time with a half hours margin. The days are lengthening now so there is no need to leave home first after sunrise and we hope parents will see that their children do not trespass the regulation.

We understand that April 1st has been a time of foolishness, indeed in time past, as pupils have been wont to feel licensed to stay away from school and some parents helped them by writing excuses. All we have to say is that we have never recognized this "All Fools Day" as a national holiday and school will be in session. In this the "Home Stretch" of the school year, long lessons are being assigned and your child can ill afford to miss a day's work. We refuse to recognize anything but a good excuse for absence this day, and those who absent themselves will knock a big hole in their attendance and scholarship grades.

Respectfully,
ANDREW MCCURDY,
Principal.

Dramatic Club Reorganized

AFTER a lapse of almost two years, a reorganization of the Carrizozo Dramatic Club has been effected. The reorganization contains many of the old members and a number of new ones, as well, and those who witnessed the productions of the old club anticipate much pleasure from the forthcoming plays which the organization has under consideration. Besides the fact that all participants are local people, which adds in material interest, the proceeds derived from the plays are devoted to church and charitable causes, which creates a strong desire in the hearts of all to give the effort liberal support.

The production now under consideration by the club, and which will be presented at an early date, is "The Old New Hampshire Home." It is a typical representation of down east, full of dramatic scenes, comedy and characters to make it laughable. A splendid cast of characters is being arranged, made up of the old organization, supplemented by the new members, and there is no question as to the success in store; for Carrizozo has the material with high qualities for entertaining. The cast of characters and the date will be given in a later issue.

The Unemployed

SOME weeks ago we published an item on the question of the "Unemployed," and cited a few instances where it was not so much lack of employment as it was a general antipathy to honest toil that swelled the ranks of the unemployed. Since the presentation of the article above referred to, further investigations have been made, and the results bear out the suggestions made by THE NEWS. It has been so clearly shown that the great majority of those clamoring for work do not want it, and about all the sympathy that had been expressed for those unfortunates(?) has been withdrawn. The following from the Albuquerque Journal pretty aptly defines the situation: Sympathy for the army of unemployed in New York, and other sections of the country, has waned since the true inwardness of it became known. Governor Glynn undertook to have the unemployed moved from the cities to the country, where the farmers need help. Funds for that purpose were raised and means were found for the transportation and distribution of those in need.

"Let the governor go and dig potatoes himself," was the answer of the Industrial Workers of the World leader. "What we want is the kind of work that suits us, not more than eight hours a day and at not less than thirty cents an hour," he further explained.

In California, that high apostle of "the cause of the masses," Governor Hiram Johnson became disgusted with Kelley's army of the unemployed when he was brought face to face with it at Sacramento, offered it work on the state roads and was refused. Then the governor expressed great sympathy for men who want work and can't get it, but added: "For the men who won't work, which I understand is the principle of the Industrial Workers of the World, I have no sympathy."

The fiction of an unusual body of men wanting work is neither a republican nor a high protection invention; there is neither democratic nor tariff reform denial of truth for party gain or selfish interest. The pretended truth isn't so. Careful inquiry reveals less than the usual winter number of men who want work, and municipal and charitable agencies have more than plenty for them. In San Francisco, they traded their work tickets for booze. In New York they refused to shovel snow and invaded the churches to sleep in the pews and eat free food. In Chicago they fed on bounty until a federation of charity sifted out of them the few really needy ones. They say frankly they want a living without work and are going to take it.

This is a theory of life as old as the Roman forum. Low-demagoguery may make a tool of it, but high sentiment is not blinded by it. The one solution of society is ready at hand. Twenty years ago, the Coxy army was coddled and passed along. Now sympathy is better organized and turns the wilfully idle over to the law. The eastern and western armies are deprived of their generals, Tennenbaum and Kelley, by vagrancy imprisonment, and are scattered by police and deputy sheriff forces.

There is work for everybody, but living without work for nobody.

THE election of officers in the Civic League was postponed from last Tuesday to next Tuesday. The meeting will be held at Mrs. Gumm's office, and a good attendance is desired. Remember the date, Tuesday afternoon, March 31.

The Forty Year Test

An article must have exceptional merit to survive for a period of forty years. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy was first offered to the public in 1872. From a small beginning it has grown in favor and popularity until it has attained a world wide reputation. You will find nothing better for a cough or cold. Try it and you will understand why it is a favorite after a period of more than forty years. It not only gives relief—it cures. For sale by all dealers.

Donaldson for Director

AT the solicitation of many friends, D. S. Donaldson has consented to allow the use of his name as a candidate for school director, at the election that will be held here Monday, April 6. Few men are willing to assume this position, for it is not, only one of grave responsibility but is one that is often filled with vexations and serious problems—problems that if properly solved and duties honestly performed are often forgotten by the public and but illy requited, and if unsolved bring constic comment from those who are ever ready to condemn a fault but grudgingly commend a virtue. Notwithstanding this, all realize that a sacrifice has to be made by some one and a number of the citizens of the town who have the best interests of the school at heart and who believe we have had a most successful school and who are anxious to see it progress, approached Mr. Donaldson and succeeded in prevailing upon him to allow the use of his name for director. Mr. Donaldson's election means the continued prosperity of the Carrizozo school along the lines it has been so ably conducted during the past year; he is a man with a clean, honest mind, capable of knowing what is right, and with the ability to achieve it. He is not associated with or bound to any faction, and will not be governed or controlled by religious creed or political affiliation—a condition that does not obtain in certain circles, if current reports are true.

District Court

WE have purposely delayed printing this page, expecting to give some court news of more than common interest, and, naturally, the entire edition was delayed, as well. Even now, after waiting until Saturday morning, we are unable to make a direct statement concerning this matter a matter which, when presented, will result in an early adjournment of court or its continuance until the term would close in the regular manner.

The situation is this: The array of the grand jury has been attacked, several irregularities being alleged, the principal one being that the notice announcing the drawing of the jury was not posted ten days before the date the jury was drawn. The record shows the notice was posted February 7 and the drawing took place February 16; hence to be able to count ten days the day the notice was posted as well as the day the jury was drawn must be included in order to cover the ten days. This, many authorities are said to hold, is an insuperable objection, or at least a serious question as to the legal empanching of the jury. The motion, as stated, has been filed, but has not been presented to the court, but may be heard this afternoon. Should the court sustain the motion not only will the particular indictment be quashed but all others returned by the recent grand jury, having a similar defect, meet a like fate.

The petit jury is subject to the same character of attack and a like motion would meet a like result. However, the defense in the Sheffield murder trial did not raise the point, and the work of securing a jury began Wednesday. The regular panel was exhausted, a special issued, which has been exhausted and a second special has been drawn and service is now being made. So the court may last three weeks more and may adjourn in three days.

Chronic Stomach Trouble Cured

There is nothing more discouraging than a chronic disorder of the stomach. It is not surprising that many suffer for years with such an ailment when a permanent cure is within their reach and may be had for a trifle? "About one year ago," says P. H. Beck, of Wakolee, Mich., "I bought a package of Chamberlain's Tablets, and since using them I have felt perfectly well. I had previously used any number of different medicines, but none of them were of any lasting benefit." For sale by all dealers.

A Local Manufacture

FOR many years the root of the amole plant, locally known as "soto," has been used by the natives as a washing compound, but it remained for J. A. Coomes, of Ancho, to evolve a plan to put it to commercial use. He has a small plant at Ancho with which he grinds the root into a powder, packs the powder neatly in a box and has succeeded in placing it on the market. His preparation is advocated as a shampoo principally, for which it is said to be excellent. He has placed his product with local dealers and is also supplying wholesalers with it.
