

Begin to Go to Church Sunday, February 15

News Notes from Outside Points

FORT STANTON

Dr. Currie and Mr. Berry transacted business in Capitan last Monday.

The Rev. Father Girma of Lincoln celebrated the 8 o'clock mass in the Sacred Heart Chapel, last Tuesday morning, during which the new choir rendered several hymns, Chaplain Frund presiding at the organ.

Dr. Allison Brown now under treatment for the Gas Cure is reported doing splendidly, which is happy news for his many friends.

This beautiful weather makes it possible for the lovers of the croquet games to indulge, and judging from the number in attendance each day much interest is manifested.

The "Try-Outs" for the making of the ball team this season is continuing each afternoon on the local diamond.

The new display of Indian rugs made here by Mr. Tittsworth brought him many sales, in fact nearly the entire lot was taken by the various residents of the Post.

Mr. C. U. Babbs states that arrangements are being made to install a dynamo in the movie booth which will run the picture machine, thus eliminating much labor, since the machine as it is now is run by hand.

Mr. Peter Duffy, the librarian is confined to his quarters for the past week because of the usual trouble "running a temp." Mr. Jacobs is the temporary librarian.

Fridays will be "Ladies Night" during the Billiard Tournament at No. 4.

An electric piano is the next improvement needed in the library hall, just how it is to be obtained is at present not determined, but we hope that those who undertake same will receive the proper cooperation in the way of funds, or in what ever manner our superiors may decide.

The house committee at No. 4 has ordered a supply of up-to-date embossed letter stationery, each member of the "Mess" having guaranteed their portion made it possible to make the innovation.

The hundreds of new electric light bulbs about the Post has made a wonderful improvement in the electrical effects at night.

The return of the many "Robbins" give indication of the arrival of springtime which gives great cheer to the invalid, and all, for who does not feel happy in the springtime?

Miss Rose Lutz of Lincoln will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Leach at No. 3 next Saturday, Sunday and Monday probably the rest of the week.

Pre-Lenten parties are now in vogue, as Ash-Wednesday comes on February 25th.

The dance given by the Fort Stanton attendants at Library Hall last Friday evening to their many friends was a complete success. The hall was crowded, and latest dance music furnished by the popular Hightower Orchestra.

The Lincoln County pastor Rev. J. H. Girma of Lincoln visited with the chaplain a few hours last Saturday.

"Fond Recollections" was the subject treated by the chaplain

in the library hall last Sunday evening during the Non-Sectarian services. The speaker took his hearers through memory's hall, and dwelt in particular before the drawing—"A dream of the boy across the sea."

At the "Officer's Mess" arrangements are about completed for a Billiard Tournament, the time to cover forty days. Details will be announced in next week's issue of this paper.

Rumor has it that we are soon to be greeted with "Alright Old Top" from Dr. Anthony Lanza, who with his wife will return to Ft. Stanton. May the rumor be true is the cry of every resident here. Everybody will be at the entrance to give them the hearty welcome they so well deserve.

A very interesting lecture on "The Gas Treatment" was delivered by Doctor M. F. Sloan last Monday evening in the library hall. Dr. Sloan was ordered here by the Bureau of the United States Public Health Service to give the treatment which goes to show the importance, and special privilege we have had, besides the added interest he has given us both in the study of Tuberculosis, and the Ft. Stanton social circles.

The Corona "Billiard Shark" has been signed for several exhibition games during the coming billiard tournament at the Officer Billiard hall.

The Fort Stanton Fire Department gave another of their interesting drills last Saturday afternoon, and it's to be regretted that a Pathe Weekly man was not present, as it was certainly an exhibition of bravery, and wonderful water pressure. Papa Johnson had the honor turning in the alarm which privilege is accorded a select few here known as "Goats."

Owing to the illness of Mr. Oscar Brockwell, his position as superintendent at the laundry has been temporary filled by Mr. W. Lindsay. Mr. Lindsay's place at the Pharmacist's office is being filled by Prof. McKorkle, also a temporary position.

The following were the "movies" at the local theater last week: Pathe Weekly No. 53. John Bunny takes a dip into society; and two reels giving, Her Unmasked Beauty.

The "Board Illustrations" for the Sunday evening Non-Sectarian services are being drawn by Mr. Edward Berry, our talented artist from the hill. Many were the compliments passed upon his drawing for last Sunday's subject, namely "A dream of Mother's Boy Across The Sea."

No. 4 on the interior is being painted and decorated by the official painter, Mr. Darby, making the quarters appear neat and attractive. White and green are the predominating colors. The lawns about No. 4 are being put into shape by the gardeners so that in the spring the quarters and surroundings will give a pleasing and homelike appearance.

The Chaplain and several others are in receipt of letters from our dear friend, Dr. Russel G. Pearce, the popular dentist at Detroit. Russell is as we may expect growing more noted each day for his tact as an entertainer. He spent the past ten days with the Shriners at Atlanta, Ga. Russell is the "Noble Potentate" of his lodge.

Ben King, also well remembered here for his happy disposition writes us from his present address at New Orleans where he has an office in connection with the work of his company in Honduras.

Valentine Day will be celebrated next Saturday evening with unique parties by various members around the "Square."

DR. M. F. SLOAN TENDERS RECEPTION TO OFFICERS AT FT. STANTON.

Another happy event in local social circles at Ft. Stanton took place at 13 D last Saturday evening, where Dr. M. F. Sloan, the Baltimore Specialist gave a reception to the officers and their wives. The rooms were tastefully decorated and arranged, and the evening was spent at the game of "Bridge." Light refreshments were served, and most enjoyable event was the universal verdict of each as they bid the smiling Host Good-Night. The following were present: Dr. and Mrs. F. C. Smith, Dr. and Mrs. F. H. McKeon, Dr. C. Lincoln, Dr. Littlejohn, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Lovett, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Leach, Chaplain G. G. Frund, Mrs. Bagg, Miss Truesdale, Mrs. Stewart, Messrs. Martin, W. Scott, W. Johnston, Jos Gentry, Chas. U. Babbs, Ed. Berry, Benham, and Furgerson.

Jicarilla

W. A. Franklin arrived a few days since from Chicago, accompanied by two men from same city. They left for El Paso on a business trip next day.

A dance was "pulled off" at Ancho Saturday evening to which many of the Jicarilla people went.

Business is good in the poultry yards, showing more activity than any other place in camp.

As a sign of Spring, Ft. Worth has seen the first straw hat, El Paso is under going the hardships of winds with all the vein of March in them, and we are enjoying the sweetest, softest days, while the earth around here is being transformed into a beautiful new green.

There is to be a dance in this camp the last of the week, to which all are welcome. It will be Saturday evening.

Saturday, 14th. of February is Valentine Day. There is little or no interest attached to the once hallowed time for an even place of feeling, either of love or spite. Half a century ago it was looked forward to with much interest. It seemed to serve the double purpose of conveying the "truly heart throbs," or of "prodding" an enemy who could only be reached subrosa. How it originated, and its first and subsequent purpose we glean from obscure corners of ancient history and old folk lore of every country. Saint Valentine was a priest of Rome. Few points of interest are left intact from superstition, to relate the third martyred saint. In the third century he was noted as a great healer; his deeds were called miraculous, but enemies were made by those who coveted his power, and from melevolence he was thrown in prison by Emperor Claudius. Here every effort was made to turn his belief to idolatry without availing. He spent his prison life by sending out messages of good cheer, good-will and consolation to the sick in mind and body. Thus in a way we see through the custom of sending to the world our sweetest thoughts. Not being able to give up his belief he was beheaded on the Flaminian Way on the fourteenth of February. This is the Roman version. From another source, equally plausible comes the story, that in ancient Rome there was a custom during February to celebrate the "Lupercalia," which was a feast of honor to Jesus and Pan. One feature was in the form of a lottery. The maidens names were put on a slip of paper and dropped in a box. The men drew blindly the name supposed to be decreed by the gods. The early Christians put a ban on this custom, just as we discourage lottery today. So to change the harm instead of eradicating it, only the saint's name was put in the box. As the festival began the middle of February and St. Valentine's death about the same time, the priests simply chose the day for its celebration. This too was unsatisfactory, so the custom reverted time and again to the lottery game in one shape or another. In England and Scotland a pretty custom on the same order prevailed for centuries. The young people met at a house, each put their names in separate boxes, each sex drew from opposite boxes, this was confusing, as it resulted in being doubly mated, so the men claimed the right to cling to the drawing from their box, the forfeit was for the feasts, parties, etc., to be given by the masculine persuasion. The romantic swain wearing his ballot on the coat over his heart to publish the engagement. We know what it is now to celebrate St. Valentine's day in a mild way, or perhaps to let it pass unheeded. A half century ago it was a great day for the young, and the busiest day of the year for the post-master and less remunerative, as he labored from dawn until dark without canceling a stamp.

White Oaks

The Women's Club will give a valentine social Saturday night at their hall. Everybody invited to come.

Ed Kelley of Carrizozo was a visitor in town a couple of days this week.

Roy Treat came in from Roswell Monday. He will visit for a few days with relatives and old time friends. On his return home he will be accompanied by his mother, Mrs. Geo. Treat, who is here visiting from Great Bend, Kansas.

Rev. Robinson and wife of Capitan came in Saturday and held services here Sunday. They returned home Monday.

The "Wild Cats" had the misfortune to lose another valuable horse last week. This is the seventh loss of this kind for them in the past three years.

Mr. J. F. White and Miss Florence Orthofer were united in marriage Monday night at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Orthofer, Rev. Robinson of Capitan officiating. The bride has grown to womanhood here and is one of our most popular young ladies. The groom who recently came here from Colorado has made many friends and is employed by the Wild Cat Leasing Co. This popular young couple have the best wishes of their many friends.

Quite a number of our young people attended the dance at Ancho Saturday night. All report a very pleasant time.

Mr. Stone, representing the Continental Oil Co was in town for a short time Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Lee and Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Lemon returned last week from an auto trip to Roswell on combined business and pleasure.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Bohling of Carrizozo spent Sunday with the family of Clay Van Schoyck.

J. C. Ballagh left Sunday for a short business trip to El Paso.

D. L. Jackson has gone to Fularosa and El Paso on business for the "Wild Cats."

Mr. Smithson was here Monday night entertaining the people with his "movies."

Contest Ballots are Dropping Fast

Next Count February 25th

But a short time intervenes between now and the date of the next count of ballots in the News popular voting contest, and when the count is made on the evening of February 25, the vote will show some surprising gains. A hard fight is being made by the leaders to get the coveted position at the head of the long list, and ballots are falling in large numbers daily, each mail bringing envelopes filled with ballots and subscriptions, while the merchants' coupons are pouring in all the time.

From the efforts being put forth by the leaders there is apt to be an entire change in their positions, and just who will get out in the lead is difficult to say. Indications are that the vote will be very close. Those down on the list are also making efforts to better their standing and are hustling here, there and everywhere to get votes.

The bonus offers have put new life into the contest and the young woman who makes the greatest gain will receive the ten dollar gold piece offered as a special prize.

There are many residents of this county who have not yet subscribed to the News and who are only waiting for some friend to ask them. Candidates can get many subscriptions by asking their friends and acquaintances to help them in the contest. Seven new yearly subscriptions, paid up, will give the contestant 14,200 votes, and will make them factors in the race for the prizes. A $400 upright piano is worth the time and energy in trying to win, and as no more than one candidate can be the winner of the capital prize there is still a chance to win one of the handsome prizes which the merchants will donate. A little earnest work will land the big prize for somebody. To those persons who have not subscribed to the News, we will give a gentle hint. Do it now. There certainly is one candidate in the list in whom you are more or less interested and who would appreciate the help you would give her by sending your subscriptions to this office and asking that the votes be credited to her. As to the value of the News as a newspaper, there are hundreds of readers who will tell you all about it and will say more for it than the publishers would, because the latter are really too modest.

Merchant's coupons, counting 25 votes, can be procured with every cash purchase amounting to one dollar at many of the leading stores in Carrizozo.

These coupons may be collected from any and all merchants who are in the contest. The names of the merchants who are giving handsome prizes and helping to make this contest a big success are as follows:

N. B. Taylor & Sons,	Kelly & Sons,
G. A. Williams,	Ziegler Bros.,
John E. Bell,	Rolland Bros.
Carrizozo Trading Co.,	Groom's Meat Market

When making purchases at any of these places ask for the coupons and send them to this office, bearing the name of the candidate for whom you want to vote them.

The News makes the following bonus offers to the various candidates in the contest.

For every seven new subscriptions a bonus of 10,000 extra votes, making a total of 14,200.

For every seven renewal subscriptions a bonus of 8,000 extra votes, making a total of 11,500.

For every seven back subscriptions a bonus of 6,000 extra votes, making a total of 8,800.

For every forty merchants' coupons brought to this office and counted by the publisher or one of his assistants, a bonus of 1000 extra votes will be given, making a total of 2000.

To the candidate making the greatest gain in her vote between Feb. 2 and Feb. 25, in subscriptions of every kind, merchants' coupons, will be awarded a special prize of $10 in gold.

The ballot box will close for the third count on Feb. 25, at 1 o'clock p. m.

The following is a list of the contestants and the total number of votes received by each up to the second count.

CANDIDATE	1ST COUNT	2ND COUNT	TOTALS
Miss Lola Highfill	27,250	90,050	123,300
" Alma Roberts	10,000	95,875	105,875
" Kitty Timmon	10,275	70,250	80,525
" Patay Johnson	11,575	48,700	60,275
" Gladys Wilson, Ancho,	5,075	14,200	19,275
" Johnnie Spiller	5,000	12,000	17,000
" Bessie White	2,700	14,550	17,250
" Opal Morse	3,775	5,200	8,975
" Clara Brazel	2,600	4,000	6,600
" Iona Stevens	4,500	1,750	6,250

Remember the $10.00 in gold goes to the one who makes the greatest gain in number of votes, regardless of their total number.

Remember to have your friends trade with merchants giving coupons.

Hallelujah Bride's Vow:

"DUTY Before LOVE"

Faithful to the Salvation Army Always First to Capt. Margaret Hicks, Who Even Had to Obtain Permission from Her Commanding Officer Before She Could See Her Husband-to-Be Alone During Their Courting Days.

NEW YORK.—There was an army wedding right here in little old New York the other night, with beat of drums and martial music, uniforms, and waving of flags.

Right down on Fourteenth street. A real army wedding. Makes you think of all sorts of things, doesn't it? Gold lace and dashing uniforms, clink of swords and a military band—all the gayety and color of garrison life perhaps a little tightening of the lips when the old sweet words are read.

"Till death do us part"
For that means a whole lot of things when you're an army bride. When any day may bring marching orders, a call perhaps to a distant land, a day when the little wife stands alone waving good-bye to a speeding train or vanishing ship.

Army brides must be brave hearted, but this little brown-eyed one, Margaret Hicks, was a soldier, too, a captain in the same army as her husband. Here there is no separation. Shoulder to shoulder they are to march through life together as a sweetheart comrade in the Salvation Army, writes Lydia Forrester in the New York World Sunday Magazine.

It was a double vow they took together promising loyalty to each other and fealty to the Army. Promising never to allow their love to interfere with their work. Promising always to regard their home in every way as a Salvation Army Holders or Officers' Quarters.

Wasn't it a strange army wedding? Capt. Margaret Hicks and her soldier sweetheart Capt. George A. Jackson. Just supposing you buy or girl who expect to stand one of these days beside the one you love best, just supposing you had to repeat these vows to be faithful soldiers continual comrades, obedient to your commanding officer first of all.

Supposing, like these two children of the army, your parents had taken you when you were wee kiddies, trotted you up to headquarters and dedicated you to the service of the Lord?

Supposing before you could ever see each other alone in the courting days, permission must be given from your commanding officer, leave of absence to go a wooing?

Then, when you had finally won her consent, you must both ask for an official engagement. Even your wedding day was set for you. You know that while love was to link your lives, your duty as faithful soldiers must always come first through life. You knew that you must dedicate whatever little ones came to bless the union to the service of the army, just as your father and mother dedicated you.

You'd think that was a pretty hard restraint to place on Cupid—to hand him a blue uniform, and a drum slung handily on one hip, with a War Cry rolled under his arm. Maybe you think he doesn't enjoy it? Then you haven't been to an Army wedding. You've never seen the little smiling blue bonnet bride.

This one is brown-eyed and dark-haired, with a chin that points upward and lips that can't help but smile. She's barely up to Captain Jackson's shoulder, but then, so are those who, he is really exceptionally tall. Only for a minute did I see her to clasp her hand and wish her joy, before she was swept away to the wedding supper, but the big, blue-eyed soldier husband talked for her at headquarters after the wedding.

"Yes, Mrs. Jackson, is on duty, and I'm awfully sorry you can't see her, but I have to go without seeing her myself. We've started a little home over at East Orange, though, and hope to settle down there for a little while until marching orders come."

"You see, we don't mind Army life because we've been in it ever since we were born." He handled the little red Morocco-bound Covenant Book of the Army tenderly in his hands. "My father is Col. J. W. Jackson, superintendent of the Plainfield Industrial home, and my wife's father was Col. John Hicks, the first officer commissioned in the United States. We grow up in Army life together ever since we were babies."

Swearing in the Marriage Vow Never to Allow Their Love to Interfere With Their Army Work.

married two weeks, it's not easy to get down to facts on how it all happened. I always cared most for the captain, even when I was a boy. I think we were pretty sure of ourselves five years ago, before she was sent away to Moody's school up at Northfield, Mass., to prepare for her Army service. But we could not be officially engaged until he were both in the regular Army.

"I started active work myself in New York five years ago, and did not see much of her then, until I heard she was to be sent down here for a year at our training school next door. She was under the command of Lieut. Col. Bovill here, and Mrs. Bovill knew how we hoped to be married after the captain received her commission."

"She was not a captain then, of course, but the next year she received her commission, and was sent out to the school that is run in connection with our children's home at Cherry Tree farm, Spring Valley, N. Y. I used to get leave of absence and run up to see her there, and that was our first real courtship."

Isn't that a lovely name for a trying place, Spring Valley, and Cherry Tree farm? Somehow, looking up at the radiance shining in the young captain's face, you know that all the rigors of Army life can never take away the joy and glamour of that summertime wooing.

But how did they ever steal away for a quiet walk together with over a hundred little foundlings and orphans and half-orphans running after "Captain Margaret?" How did they find time to plan their wedding and honeymoon? Not as all other sweethearts of the world do, but always under Army rules and regulations. Cupid had to keep step to the top of the drum this time, with the drill sergeant's eye on him all the time.

Finally this fall there came the long-expected word from headquarters. Capt. George A. Jackson and Capt. Margaret Hicks were to be married November 12 in Memorial hall, New York city.

The personal preparations of the little bride were few—nothing fluffy or lacy for her, but just the plain, dark blue uniform, with its touches of red, and one broad white silk cashmere shawl.

But there was a bower of autumn leaves erected in The great hall for those children of the Army to be married under, and varicolored electric lights shone from hollow bunches of tinted glass grapes.

No "Lohengrin" wedding march pealed from some hidden organ, but there was a good old rousing martial band tune with a tinkle of tambourines behind it. And no smiling girl bridesmaids came behind the little bride, only Captain Jackson's sister, Lieut. Mattie Jackson, as comrade attendant, and beside the bridegroom was another Army comrade, Adjutant Cooke. Lieutenant Colonel Parker read the Army marriage service, with Colonel McIntyre and Lieutenant Colonel Damon as rear guard.

And the words they spoke were strangely different from those that other bridal couples say. Clear and proud rose the soldier boy's voice as he repeated:

"I put this ring upon your finger as a continual sign that we are married under the solemn pledges we have this day given, to live for God, and fight in the ranks of the Salvation Army."

Three volleys were fired at the last word, volleys not of bullets, but of "Amen's" and "Hallelujah's." There was one more Hallelujah bride in the Army, one more officer, who, as the commanding officer put it, had "added to his power and efficiency."

paws resting on solid ground and his fore paws stretched across the mire. Antonio reached out toward his paws, but it was too far for him to grip them. So, after thinking, he took off his coat, and holding a sleeve firmly, he hung the garment toward the dog. The dog tried to get hold of it with his paws and mouth, but it was just beyond his reach, and the good animal dared not venture any nearer. After several other attempts Antonio made a tremendous effort to reach over as far as he possibly could, and then once more he hung the coat toward the dog. He struggles to throw it almost sent him quite under, but this time the dog was able to grip the other sleeve with his teeth, and at once he began to pull. Steadily the noble animal tugged and tugged, and Antonio felt himself rising. The dog kept on pulling and by slow degrees he at last dragged the boy out of the quagmire. Soon Antonio had one foot on firm soil and the next minute he and his noble rescuer were together on solid land.

Italian shepherd dogs are larger than our collies, tall and very strong. The dog led Antonio to his master's house, where the boy was kindly cared for and helped on his journey, and at Leghorn he got a job as cabin boy on a ship bound for New York. His troubles were not over yet, for he had a hard time making his way in the strange city. He knew no English and the first words he learned to understand were: "Hurry up!" and "Get out!" At first he sold plaster images, then got better work and supported himself through school and college, finally becoming a preacher. Pastor Arrighi, who is now connected with the Italian evangelist church in New York, has had a long and eventful life, but he still likes to tell the story of the good dog who pulled him out of the quagmire.

Early Prowess.
"Pa," stated little Dodd Rott, the small son of the distinguished statesman, "I heard a man say that you used to be so crooked that you had to sleep wound around a stump. Is that so, Pa?"

"When I was younger, Daddie," replied the Hon. Thomas Rott, with becoming modesty, "I was the best athlete in the neighborhood."—Judge.

NATIONAL CAPITAL AFFAIRS

He Did Not Care for Dessert After Free Lunch

WASHINGTON.—In the days when the free lunch in this city was in its prime, when tavernkeepers prided themselves on having an array of thirst-provoking delicacies which rivaled the menus of the finest hotels, a government clerk who had an eye on the way first nickel he ever earned used to subsist almost entirely on the provender provided by a certain free lunch counter. Said clerk would prong about a dollar's worth of cheese and wienewurst, salad, brown bread and all the other stuff that goes to make up the food attractions at tavern bars. He would do this twice a day, once at noon and again at night, and therefore, having spent two nickels for the very good beer offered by the proprietor, he could very well figure that he had lived sumptuously that day for almost nothing.

He did this for several months. Finally the long-suffering proprietor recognized the fact that the government clerk was about the only man in the place who was getting something for nothing and keeping it up for an indefinite period. So he bethought himself of a scheme to put a stop to this practice and shame the man. He sent word out to his own best friends that if they would gather there at noon on a certain day they could see him put this unsatisfied eater of lunches in the class with a whipped child.

At the appointed hour the friends were there, and so was the clerk, pronging away with both hands. As he left the lunch counter and headed for the door the long-suffering proprietor tapped him on the shoulder:

"My friend," he said, while the crowd waited to see him display his coup de grace, as we would say in France, "I have noticed that you take the record as long-distance free lunch borrower? Therefore I would suggest that you wait. You have overlooked something today. If you will stay here a moment the chef will present you with a fine strawberry shortcake."

The proprietor had the carcass heavily veiled, but it did not fool that shrewd free lunch operator. He looked Mr. Proprietor squarely in the eye, a cold, glittering penetrating look which meant that the weapons had clashed and that the fight was on. His face betrayed not one quiver of excitement or of embarrassment as he spoke in a loud tone:

"Give it to that gang of loafers behind you. I never eat dessert."

Congressman Avis' Short but Effective Speech

RESIDENTS of Huntington and Charleston, W. Va., are, and always have been, jealous of one another. It is fighting jealousy, too, and not the kind that exists between Toledo and Columbus, in Ohio; St. Louis and Kansas City in Missouri, which runs mainly to building taller buildings and that sort of thing. The brand of jealousy in West Virginia causes the residents of one town to vow that no good can come out of the other.

They do say that the second most popular man in Charleston is the one who spent his vacation this year kicking the rails of the railroad because they run into Huntington. The most popular man in the one who directed to the "Citizens of Huntington" this telegram: "You are no good." Thus did he insult the whole city at one stroke.

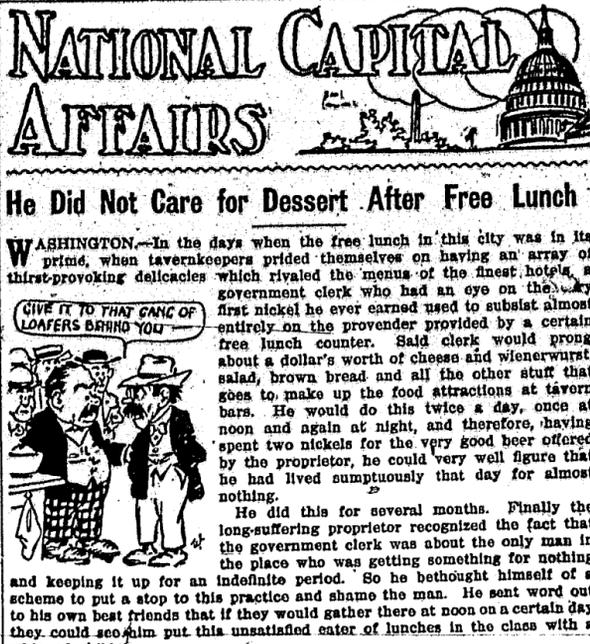

The two cities are constantly fighting over conventions and other big gatherings. All any organization need do to create a deep desire to entertain it is to tip off the leading citizens of one of the two cities that the other wants the organization's convention. Once a political party was trying to decide which of the two cities should have the honor of entertaining its delegates to a state convention. Charleston and Huntington sent representatives to plead their causes.

The Huntington man spoke first. He told of the great wealth his city possessed, of its charming people, its fine railroad and hotel accommodations, and, finally, wound up his flight of oratory thus:

"Gentlemen, no city in the United States is laid out as well as Huntington!" Then up rose Capt. S. B. Avis, now representative from the Third district of West Virginia, to speak for Charleston.

"When Charleston is as dead as Huntington," he said, it too, will be well laid out."

And with those few words he sat down.

DIZZY, HEADACHY, SICK, "CASCARETS"

Gently cleanse your liver and sluggish bowels while you sleep.

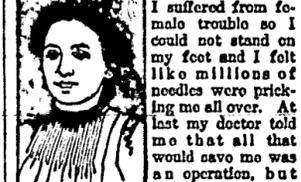

Get a 10-cent box. Sick headache, biliousness, dizziness, coated tongue, foul taste and foul breath—always trace them to torpid liver; delayed, fermenting food in the bowels or sour, gassy stomach. Poisonous matter clogged in the intestines, instead of being cast out of the system is re-absorbed into the blood. When this poison reaches the delicate brain tissue it causes congestion and that dull, throbbing, sickening headache. Cascarets immediately cleanse the stomach, remove the sour, undigested food and foul gases, take the excess bile from the liver and carry out all the constipated waste matter and poisons in the bowels. A Cascaret to-night will surely straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—a 10-cent box from your druggist means your head clear, stomach sweet and your liver and bowels regular for months. Adv.

There is no effect without a cause. The girl with pretty feet never gets the bottom of her skirt muddy.

WOMAN REFUSES OPERATION

Tells How She Was Saved by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Logansport, Ind.—"My baby was over a year old and I bloated till I was a burden to myself. I suffered from female trouble so I could not stand on my feet and I felt like millions of needles were pricking me all over. At last my doctor told me that all that would save me was an operation, but this I refused. I told my husband to get me a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I would try it before I would submit to any operation. He did so and I improved right along. I am now doing all my work and feeling fine."

"I hope other suffering women will try your Compound. I will recommend it to all I know."—Mrs. DANIEL D. R. DAVIS, 110 Franklin St., Logansport, Ind.

Since we guarantee that all testimonials which we publish are genuine, is it not fair to suppose that if Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has the virtue to help these women it will help any other woman who is suffering in a like manner?

If you are ill do not drag along until an operation is necessary, but at once take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

Representative Kinkead Set the Ball Rolling

REPRESENTATIVE EUGENE KINKEAD of New Jersey bids fair to be the leading practical joker of the Sixty-third congress. When not engaged in trying to find some new method of throttling the beef trust, which is his special nightmare, Kinkead is thinking up some new method of getting a "rise" out of his colleagues.

He nearly caused a serious split between Representative Carter Glass, author of the currency bill, and Representative Bartlett of Georgia. Glass was sensitive about his currency bill, and Bartlett is a self-appointed defender of the constitution. One day Gene Kinkead whispered to Glass:

"What's this that Judge Bartlett is saying about you?"

"Haven't heard," replied the succinct chairman of the banking and currency committee.

"Why, he's telling the fellows that you don't know anything about currency."

Then he left Mr. Glass and whispered to Judge Bartlett:

"Say, Charlie, are you on the outs with Carter Glass?"

"No, indeed," said Bartlett in surprise. "Why?"

"Well, I just wondered. He's going around saying that you know absolutely nothing about constitutional law."

It took three days to straighten out the matter and, meanwhile, Kinkead had denied flatly saying anything to either congressman. However, it was the unflinching twinkle in the Kinkead eye which finally brought the war to a close.

Put Surrounding Atmosphere to a Great Test

HARRY "OREGON" BROWN, who represents about all the newspapers there are in the northwest cowboy district, was sitting in his office one night last week, when Col. What's His Name dropped in. The colonel, loud of voice and manner, had something to tell Mr. Brown which would be of interest to the readers of one of the Idaho papers which Mr. Brown represents here in Washington.

When he started to talk the walls bulged outward a bit, then gripped themselves and sat tight. Never had the surrounding atmosphere been put to so great a test. The vibrations of the colonel's voice were equal to the splash of a mountain dropping into a placid sea. Doors began to close all over the building, for the men in the various offices wanted to work.

Across the hall from Mr. Brown was "Liz" Jones. He got up and slammed his door with a great show of anger when the colonel started to shout. After it was all over "Liz" went into Mr. Brown's office:

"Say, was that man telling you a news story?"

"Yes," confessed Mr. Brown, as he unwrapped the cotton from his ears.

"For what?"

"For my Idaho paper."

"Well, if the editor had his ears open he could save telegraph tolls, for he surely could have heard it out there."

Begin to Go to Church Sunday, February 15

News Notes from Outside Points

FORT STANTON

Dr. Currie and Mr. Berry transacted business in Capitan last Monday.

The Rev. Father Girma of Lincoln celebrated the 8 o'clock mass in the Sacred Heart Chapel, last Tuesday morning, during which the new choir rendered several hymns, Chaplain Frund presiding at the organ.

Dr. Allison Brown now under treatment for the Gas Cure is reported doing splendidly, which is happy news for his many friends.

This beautiful weather makes it possible for the lovers of the croquet games to indulge, and judging from the number in attendance each day much interest is manifested.

The "Try-Outs" for the making of the ball team this season is continuing each afternoon on the local diamond.

The new display of Indian rugs made here by Mr. Titsworth brought him many sales, in fact nearly the entire lot was taken by the various residents of the Post.

Mr. C. U. Babbs states that arrangements are being made to install a dynamo in the movie booth which will run the picture machine, thus eliminating much labor, since the machine as it is now is run by hand.

Mr. Peter Duffy, the librarian is confined to his quarters for the past week because of the usual trouble "running a temp." Mr. Jacobs is the temporary librarian.

Fridays will be "Ladies Night" during the Billiard Tournament at No. 4.

An electric piano is the next improvement needed in the library hall, just how it is to be obtained is at present not determined, but we hope that those who undertake same will receive the proper cooperation in the way of funds, or in what ever manner our superiors may decide.

The house committee at No. 4 has ordered a supply of up-to-date embossed letter stationery, each member of the "Mess" having guaranteed their portion made it possible to make the innovation.

The hundreds of new electric light bulbs about the Post has made a wonderful improvement in the electrical effects at night.

The return of the many "Robbins" give indication of the arrival of springtime which gives great cheer to the invalid, and all, for who does not feel happy in the springtime?

Miss Rose Lutz of Lincoln will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Leach at No. 3 next Saturday, Sunday and Monday probably the rest of the week.

Pre-Lenten parties are now in vogue, as Ash-Wednesday comes on February 25th.

The dance given by the Fort Stanton attendants at Library Hall last Friday evening to their many friends was a complete success. The hall was crowded and latest dance music furnished by the popular Hightower Orchestra.

The Lincoln County pastor Rev. J. H. Girma of Lincoln visited with the chaplain a few hours last Saturday.

"Fond Recollections" was the subject treated by the chaplain

in the library hall last Sunday evening during the Non-Sectarian services. The speaker took his hearers through memory's hall, and dwelt in particular before the drawing—"A dream of the boy across the sea."

At the "Officer's Mess" arrangements are about completed for a Billiard Tournament, the time to cover forty days. Details will be announced in next week's issue of this paper.

Rumor has it that we are soon to be greeted with "Alright Old Top" from Dr. Anthony Lanza, who with his wife will return to Ft. Stanton. May the rumor be true is the cry of every resident here. Everybody will be at the entrance to give them the hearty welcome they so well deserve.

A very interesting lecture on "The Gas Treatment" was delivered by Doctor M. F. Sloan last Monday evening in the library hall. Dr. Sloan was ordered here by the Bureau of the United States Public Health Service to give the treatment which goes to show the importance, and special privilege we have had, besides the added interest he has given us both in the study of Tuberculosis, and the Ft. Stanton social circles.

The Corona "Billiard Shark" has been signed for several exhibition games during the coming billiard tournament at the Officer Billiard hall.

The Fort Stanton Fire Department gave another of their interesting drills last Saturday afternoon, and it's to be regretted that a Pathe Weekly man was not present, as it was certainly an exhibition of bravery, and wonderful water pressure. Papa Johnson had the honor turning in the alarm which privilege is accorded a select few here known as "Goats."

Owing to the illness of Mr. Oscar Brockwell, his position as superintendent at the laundry has been temporary filled by Mr. W. Lindsay. Mr. Lindsay's place at the Pharmacist's office is being filled by Prof. McKorkle, also a temporary position.

The following were the "movies" at the local theater last week: Pathe Weekly No. 53. John Bunny takes a dip into society; and two reels giving, Her Unmasked Beauty.

The "Board Illustrations" for the Sunday evening Non-Sectarian services are being drawn by Mr. Edward Berry, our talented artist from the hill. Many were the compliments passed upon his drawing for last Sunday's subject, namely "A dream of Mother's Boy Across The Sea."

No. 4 on the interior is being painted and decorated by the official painter, Mr. Darby, making the quarters appear neat and attractive. White and green are the predominating colors. The lawns about No. 4 are being put into shape by the gardeners so that in the spring the quarters and surroundings will give a pleasing and homelike appearance.

Next Sunday evening in the library hall the subject to be treated will be "The Author of Life" and promises to very interesting with some illustrations.

Mr. Harry Leach, the pharmacist with Mr. James Hanna transacted business in Capitan last Tuesday afternoon.

The splendid weather for the winter so far has been such that even California and Florida is unable to boast of an equal.

The Chaplain and several others are in receipt of letters from our dear friend, Dr. Russel G. Pearce, the popular dentist at Detroit. Russell is as we may expect growing more noted each day for his tact as an entertainer. He spent the past ten days with the Shriners at Atlanta, Ga. Russell is the "Noble Potentate" of his lodge.

Ben King, also well remembered here for his happy disposition writes us from his present address at New Orleans where he has an office in connection with the work of his company in Honduras.

Valentine Day will be celebrated next Saturday evening with unique parties by various members around the "Square."

DR. M. F. SLOAN TENDERS RECEPTION TO OFFICERS AT FT. STANTON.

Another happy event in local social circles at Ft. Stanton took place at 13 D last Saturday evening, where Dr. M. F. Sloan, the Baltimore Specialist gave a reception to the officers and their wives. The rooms were tastefully decorated and arranged, and the evening was spent at the game of "Bridge." Light refreshments were served, and most enjoyable event was the universal verdict of each as they bid the smiling Host Good-Night. The following were present: Dr. and Mrs. F. C. Smith, Dr. and Mrs. F. H. McKeon, Dr. C. Lincoln, Dr. Littlejohn, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Lovett, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Leach, Chaplain G. G. Frund, Mrs. Bayg, Miss Truesdale, Mrs. Stewart, Messrs. Martin, W. Scott, W. Johnston, Jos. Gentry, Chas. U. Babbs, Ed. Berry, Benham, and Furgerson.

Jicarilla

W. A. Franklin arrived a few days since from Chicago, accompanied by two men from same city. They left for El Paso on a business trip next day.

A dance was "pulled off" at Ancho Saturday evening to which many of the Jicarilla people went.

Business is good in the poultry yards, showing more activity than any other place in camp.

As a sign of Spring, Ft. Worth has seen the first straw hat, El Paso is under going the hardships of winds with all the vein of March in them, and we are enjoying the sweetest, softest days, while the earth around here is being transformed into a beautiful new green.

There is to be a dance in this camp the last of the week, to which all are welcome. It will be Saturday evening.

Saturday, 14th. of February is Valentine Day. There is little or no interest attached to the once hallowed time for an even play of feeling, either of love or spite. Half a century ago it was looked forward to with much interest. It seemed to serve the double purpose of conveying the "truly heart throbs," or of "prodding" an enemy who could only be reached subrosa. How it originated, and its first and subsequent purpose we glean from obscure corners of ancient history and old folk lore of every country. Saint Valentine was a priest of Rome. Few points of interest are left intact from superstition, to relate of this martyred saint. In the third century he was noted as a great healer, his deeds were called miraculous, but enemies were made by those who coveted his power, and from melevolence he was thrown in prison by Emperor Claudius. Here every effort was made to turn his belief to idoltry without availing. He spent his prison life by sending out messages of good cheer, good-will and consolation to the sick in mind and body. Thus in a way we see through the custom of sending to the world our sweetest thoughts. Not being able to give up his belief he was beheaded on the Flaminian Way on the fourteenth of February. This is the Roman version. From another source, equally plausible comes the story, that in ancient Rome there was a custom during February to celebrate the "Lupercalia," which was a feast of honor to Jesus and Pan. One feature was in the form of a lottery. The maidens names were put on a slip of paper and dropped in a box. The men drew blindly the name supposed to be accreed by the gods. The early Christians put a ban on this custom, just as we discourage lottery today. So to change the harm instead of eradicating it, only the saint's name was put in the box. As the festival began the middle of February and St. Valentine's death about the same time, the priests simply chose the day for its celebration. This too was unsatisfactory, so the custom reverted time and again to the lottery game in one shape or another. In England and Scotland a pretty custom on the same order prevailed for centuries. The young people met at a house, each put their names in separate boxes, each sex drew from opposite boxes, this was confusing, as it resulted in being doubly mated. So the men claimed the right to cling to the drawing from their box, the forfeit was for the feasts, parties, etc., to be given by the masculine persuasion. The romantic swain wearing his ballot on the coat over his heart to publish the engagement. We know what it is now to celebrate St. Valentine's day in a mild way, or perhaps to let it pass unheeded. A half century ago it was a great day for the young, and the busiest day of the year for the post-master and less remunerative, as he labored from dawn until dark without canceling a stamp.

White Oaks

The Women's Club will give a valentine social Saturday night at their hall. Everybody invited to come.

Ed Kelley of Carrizozo was a visitor in town a couple of days this week.

Roy Treat came in from Roswell Monday. He will visit for a few days with relatives and old time friends. On his return home he will be accompanied by his mother, Mrs. Geo. Treat, who is here visiting from Great Bend, Kansas.

Rev. Robinson and wife of Capitan came in Saturday and held services here Sunday. They returned home Monday.

The "Wild Cats" had the misfortune to lose another valuable horse last week. This is the seventh loss of this kind for them in the past three years.

Mr. J. F. White and Miss Florence Orthofer were united in marriage Monday night at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Orthofer, Rev. Robinson of Capitan officiating. The bride has grown to womanhood here and is one of our most popular young ladies. The groom who recently came here from Colorado has made many friends and is employed by the Wild Cat Leasing Co. This popular young couple have the best wishes of their many friends.

Quite a number of our young people attended the dance at Ancho Saturday night. All report a very pleasant time.

Mr. Stone, representing the Continental Oil Co was in town for a short time Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Lee and Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Lemon returned last week from an auto trip to Roswell on combined business and pleasure.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Bohling of Carrizozo spent Sunday with the family of Clay Van Schoyck.

J. C. Ballagh left Sunday for a short business trip to El Paso.

D. L. Jackson has gone to Tularosa and El Paso on business for the "Wild Cats."

Mr. Smithson was here Monday night, entertaining the people with his "movies."

Contest Ballots are Dropping Fast

Next Count February 25th

But a short time intervenes between now and the date of the next count of ballots in the News popular voting contest, and when the count is made on the evening of February 25, the vote will show some surprising gains. A hard fight is being made by the leaders to get the coveted position at the head of the long list, and ballots are falling in large numbers daily, each mail bringing envelopes filled with ballots and subscriptions, while the merchants' coupons are pouring in all the time.

From the efforts being put forth by the leaders there is apt to be an entire change in their positions, and just who will get out in the lead is difficult to say. Indications are that the vote will be very close. Those down on the list are also making efforts to better their standing and are hustling here, there and everywhere to get votes.

The bonus offers have put new life into the contest and the young woman who makes the greatest gain will receive the ten dollar gold piece offered as a special prize.

There are many residents of this county who have not yet subscribed to the News and who are only waiting for some friend to ask them. Candidates can get many subscriptions by asking their friends and acquaintances to help them in the contest. Seven new yearly subscriptions, paid up, will give the contestant 14,200 votes, and will make them factors in the race for the prizes. A $400 upright piano is worth the time and energy in trying to win, and as no more than one candidate can be the winner of the capital prize there is still a chance to win one of the handsome prizes which the merchants will donate. A little earnest work will land the big prize for somebody. To those persons who have not subscribed to the News, we will give a gentle hint. Do it now. There certainly is one candidate in the list in whom you are more or less interested and who would appreciate the help you would give her by sending your subscriptions to this office and asking that the votes be credited to her. As to the value of the News as a newspaper, there are hundreds of readers who will tell you all about it and will say more for it than the publishers would, because the latter are really too modest.

Merchant's coupons, counting 25 votes, can be procured with every cash purchase amounting to one dollar at many of the leading stores in Carrizozo.

These coupons may be collected from any and all merchants who are in the contest. The names of the merchants who are giving handsome prizes and helping to make this contest a big success are as follows:

N. B. Taylor & Sons.	Kelly & Sons.
G. A. Williams.	Ziegler Bros.
John E. Bell.	Rolland Bros.
Carrizozo Trading Co.	Groom's Meat Market

When making purchases at any of these places ask for the coupons and send them to this office, bearing the name of the candidate for whom you want to vote them.

The News makes the following bonus offers to the various candidates in the contest.

For every seven new subscriptions a bonus of 10,000 extra votes, making a total of 14,200.

For every seven renewal subscriptions a bonus of 8,000 extra votes, making a total of 11,500.

For every seven back subscriptions a bonus of 6,000 extra votes, making a total of 8,800.

For every forty merchants' coupons brought to this office and counted by the publisher or one of his assistants, a bonus of 1000 extra votes will be given, making a total of 2000.

To the candidate making the greatest gain in her vote between Feb. 2 and Feb. 25, in subscriptions of every kind, merchants' coupons, will be awarded a special prize of $10 in gold.

The ballot box will close for the third count on Feb. 25, at 1 o'clock p. m.

The following is a list of the contestants and the total number of votes received by each up to the second count.

CANDIDATE	1ST COUNT	2ND COUNT	TOTALS
Miss Lola Highfill	27,250	96,050	123,300
" Alma Roberts	10,000	95,875	105,875
" Kitty Tinnon	10,275	70,250	80,525
" Patay Johnson	11,575	48,700	60,275
" Gladys Wilson, Ancho	5,075	14,200	19,275
" Johnnie Spiller	5,000	12,000	17,000
" Bessie White	2,700	14,550	17,250
" Opal Morse	3,775	5,200	8,975
" Clara Brazel	2,800	4,000	6,800
" Iona Stevens	4,500	1,750	6,250

Remember the $10.00 in gold goes to the one who makes the greatest gain in number of votes, regardless of their total number.

Remember to have your friends trade with merchants giving coupons.

The Best Cough Medicine

"I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy ever since I have been keeping house," says L. C. Hames, of Marbury, Ala. "I consider it one of the best remedies I ever used. My children have all taken it and it works like a charm. For colds and whooping cough it is excellent." For sale by all dealers.

School Notes

On Friday afternoon of this week the Athenaeum Literary Society, consisting of pupils of 8th grade and high school, will hold its bi-monthly meeting. The Mexico question will be debated pro and con by a team of four. Besides other literary features, a number of musical selections will be interpolated. The public is cordially invited to all school activities.

On last Friday afternoon the pupils of Miss Spellman's room gave a most creditable literary and musical program. Miss Humphrey's room, the 8th grade and High school department, formed the nucleus of the audience. After the programme was concluded, Rachel Hughes, Hattie Hust and Gladney White were called to the rostrum, each receiving a handsome silver medal—the trophies of the County-wide spelling contest at Capitan Xmas week. The audience showed their unanimous approval with three ringing cheers.

Preparation has begun on a minstrel act and playlet by the boys and girls of the high school respectively. The date will be announced soon—watch for it. The performance will be thoroughly rehearsed before it is imposed upon the public. If you find pain in laughter either come after the minstrel act is over or leave before it begins. Popular prices. Proceeds benefit piano fund.

Chase Pleads Guilty

LEE B. CHASE, who was indicted in the federal court last fall on the charge of embezzlement and falsifying papers while United States Commissioner, entered a plea of guilty before Judge Pope at Roswell this week. The plea covered six counts of falsifying papers, the embezzlement charge being dismissed. A sentence of 30 days in the Lincoln County jail on each of the six counts was imposed, but the sentence is to run concurrently; hence 30 days will cover all cases. The defendant was also required to pay the costs, which are estimated at between $700.00 and $800.00. Friends will endeavor to relieve Mr. Chase as to the amount of the costs, so that he will not have to serve an excessive jail sentence in order to satisfy them, in the event he is not able to pay the amount. Defendant will probably arrive this evening.

Going to Church

GOING to church, like many other things, is largely a habit. We find the habit growing with us and are quite willing to confess it is not a bad one. The ministers and the church people are making a special effort to get out good congregations for next Sunday, the 15th, the "Go to Church" Sunday, and in order that we might not appear a total stranger we have been quietly slipping into a pew the last few Sunday nights and listening to the sweet voices of the choir for there is no music more attractive than that made by the human voice and have also enjoyed the discourse from the pulpit.

Last Sunday night we wandered over to the Methodist church and were astonished to find so many there. There were no services at the Baptist church that night, which was, no doubt, partially responsible in swelling the crowd, but we opine that many were impelled as were we habit. At any rate, all attendants must have felt well repaid for going. The singing was good, nothing more to be said about it, and the duet by Prof. M. Curdy and Mrs. Hendrix was one of the most delightful we had the pleasure of listening to for many moons. The sermon too was entertaining and instructive and well worth the trouble of going to hear. Yes, we have a spirited the hunt, we expect to go again Sunday the 15th, and the hunt may become chronic.

Abraham Lincoln

YESTERDAY was the one hundred and fifth anniversary of the birth of Abraham Lincoln. Born in a log cabin in the state of Kentucky, with no advantages in his youth, he succeeded in writing his name more prominently in American history than any man of his or of former generations. As a statesman he stood head and shoulders above his contemporaries; as an orator he was unequalled, and his Gettysburg address will live as long as the English language exists. When his kindly heart ceased to beat, as a result of an assassin's bullet, the south lost its best friend and the nation its strongest bulwark. His memory is revered by all sections, since the passions of war have subsided, none than that of any other man in our history with the possible exception of Washington.

Mail-Order Ten Commandments

THE following ten commandments are offered for the guidance of catalogue house patrons:

1. You shall sell your farm products for cash whenever you can, but not to us. We do not buy from you.
2. You shall believe our statements and buy all you need from us, because we want to be good to you, although we are not personally acquainted with you.
3. You shall send your money in advance to give us a chance to get the goods from the factory with your money; meanwhile, you shall have to wait patiently a few weeks, as that is our business method.
4. You shall apply to your nearest city to aid you in building good roads so you can conveniently get the goods from the depot, for we do not build country roads.
5. You shall buy church bells and church fixtures from us and forward the money in advance, for this is our business method, and you shall collect from the business men in your vicinity as much money as you can for the benefit of your churches as it is against our rules to donate for building country churches.

6. You shall buy your tools from us and be your own mechanic in order to drive the mechanics from your vicinity, for we wish it so.

7. You shall induce your neighbor to buy everything from us, as we have room for more money—the less money there is in your community, the sooner we can put your local merchant out of business and charge you any price we please.

8. You shall look often at the beautiful pictures in our catalogue, so your wishes will increase, and so you will send in a big order, although you are not in immediate need of the goods, otherwise you might have some money left to buy some necessary goods from the local merchant.

9. You shall have the merchants who repair the goods you buy from us, book the bills so you can send the money for his labor to us for new goods, otherwise he will not notice our influence.

10. You shall, in case of sickness or need, apply to your local dealer, for aid and credit, as we do not know you or care to. Inland Grocer.

The Last Half of the Ninth Inning

FOR several weeks you have doubtless seen posters here and there and read in your town papers items and arguments in regard to church going. It has called your attention to the church as an institution which has a right to your respect and patronage. Some may have cared little about anything that may have been said or anything that may be done; as for them they have made up their minds that they will not have anything to do with this sort of thing, and if there be such a man, we hope there is not, we must just shake off a little dust in his trail and turn to that man who does care. But, in our judgment the church has been using up a great deal of valuable time lamenting ever that of imaginary man who did not care and have thought too often they have found him or are face to face with him. He is the bugaboo of Christian workers, and still he is a most rare article, if he even exists at all. It is my experience that all men care more or less about their rating in the moral world. Some whom we cast out, if we cast any out, as heathen, we do so by our choice, and not by a deep desire of theirs. The fact is that in this movement encouragement has come from unexpected sources. There are always that circle from whom we expect words of cheer and deeds of helpfulness these have not failed us; but there has appeared on the scene another circle, men and women who have not figured in church work. They have left here and there a word or a whisper or sent a favorable comment. This has all been most gratifying to the lovers of the church and good morals. The papers have opened their columns, the Lodges from whom we have received returns, have reported favorable, and a splendid sentiment has been displayed along all lines. The religious symptoms are to be observed everywhere, and yet apparent symptoms are not enough. There is great need that religion take deeper hold of the very life of the community. It will not be enough in the last day to say to the Master, "Thou has taught in our streets." Has that teaching been accepted in our hearts? This is the last exhortation before the Sunday set comes. All things are ready, come to the feast. There will be two doors of entrance open to

you. Take your free and unbiased CHOICE. No one is forcing you to go to either church or to go at all; we simply invite you to come.

J. W. HENDRIX,
Methodist Pastor.

The Garrett Music Recital

ON February 20th, at 8 o'clock p. m., Miss Elizabeth Garrett, the blind but beautiful singer, will give one of her popular recitals. Miss Garrett is very much appreciated wherever she goes for her splendid musical talent. The following quotation from the El Paso papers is self-explanatory:

"The recital given last night at the Chamber of Commerce by Miss Elizabeth Garrett was one of the most thoroughly enjoyable musical affairs ever given in this city. It was given under the auspices of the Woman's Club.

Although Miss Garrett has been blind almost from birth she moves so naturally and gracefully, and is so perfectly mistress of herself that one would scarcely notice her affliction. She has a sweet, clear voice, of which one never tires, and at the end of the concert was as fresh and clear as at the beginning. The most remarkable part of her performance is the wonderful technique she displays in her accompaniments, which she always plays for herself. Her second group of songs were all composed by herself, both words and music, and as an encore she sang 'My Garden Has Roses.' The Mesilla Valley songs were especially catchy; the refrain of which was written in Spanish. The last group were the old favorites: 'Annie Laurie', 'The Mocking Bird' and 'Bonnie Doone'.

The writer has heard Miss Garrett, and bespeaks a real feast for all who shall avail themselves of this musical treat. The recital is given under the auspices of the Baptist Church, and tickets may be purchased from members of the Sunday School, or at Roselle's Jewelry Store. Remember the date: February 20, 8:00 p. m.

NOTE: It is evident from the sale of tickets that the Baptist Church will not be large enough to accommodate the public for the Garrett Recital. So come to the School House, and at 8 o'clock instead of 7:45, on Feb. 20th.

INDIGESTION, GAS OR BAD STOMACH

Time it! Pape's Diapepsin ends all Stomach misery in five minutes.

Do some foods you eat hit back—taste good, but work badly; ferment into stubborn lumps and cause a sick, sour, gassy stomach? Now, Mr. or Mrs. Diapepsin, for this down: Pape's Diapepsin digests everything, leaving nothing to sour and upset you. There never was anything so safely quick, so certainly effective. No difference how badly your stomach is disordered you will get happy relief in five minutes, but what pleases you most is that it strengthens and regulates your stomach so you can eat your favorite foods without fear.

You feel different as soon as "Pape's Diapepsin" comes in contact with the stomach—distress just vanishes—your stomach gets sweet, no gases, no belching, no eructations of undigested food. Go now, make the best investment you ever made, by getting a large fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin from any store. You realize in five minutes how needless it is to suffer from indigestion, dyspepsia or bad stomach. Adv.

A CLERGYMAN'S TESTIMONY.

The Rev. Edmund Heslop of Wigton, Pa., suffered from Dropsy for a year. His limbs and feet were swollen and puffed. He had heart fluttering, was dizzy and exhausted at the least exertion. Hands and feet were cold and he had such a dragging sensation across the joints that it was difficult to move.

After using 6 boxes of Dodds Kidney Pills the swelling disappeared and he felt himself again. He says he has been benefited and blessed by the use of Dodds Kidney Pills. Several months later he wrote: "I have not changed my faith in your remedy since the above statement was authorized. Correspond with Rev. E. Heslop about this wonderful remedy."

FALLING HAIR MEANS DANDRUFF IS ACTIVE

Save Your Hair! Get a 25 Cent Bottle of Danderine Right Now—Also Stops Itching Scalp.

Thin, brittle, colorless and scraggy hair is mute evidence of a neglected scalp; of dandruff—that awful scurf. There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its luster, its strength and its very life; eventually producing a feverishness and itching of the scalp, which if not remedied causes the hair roots to shrink, loosen and die—then the hair falls out fast. A little Danderine tonight—now—any time—will surely save your hair.

Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any store, and after the first application your hair will take on that life, luster and luxuriance which is so beautiful. It will become wavy and fluffy and have the appearance of abundance; an incomparable gloss and softness, but what will please you most will be after just a few weeks' use, when you will actually see a lot of fine, downy hair—new hair—growing all over the scalp. COLD WEATHER DISHES

ABUNDANT NUTRIMENT FOR THE BODY IN WINTER.

Appetizing Method of Preparing and Serving Veal Cutlets—Corn Bread at its Best—Recipe for Virginia Smothered Chicken.

By LIDA AMES WILLIS.

Veal Cutlets a la Maintenon.—Procure two pounds of veal cutlets, having them cut three-fourths of an inch thick. Trim neatly, then dip each one first in beaten egg, and then in pounded cracker crumbs, seasoned with salt, pepper and a bit of marjoram. Wrap each cutlet in half a sheet of buttered letter-paper or heavy paraffin paper, well buttered; lay on a greased broiler, and broil over, or exposed to a clear fire, not hot enough to scorch, however. Turn often. (When they are done, have fresh papers ready to put the cutlets in if those enveloping the cutlets become discolored. The edges of the papers should be fringed and twisted to secure the juices of the chops. Veal cooked in this manner is delicious, as all the juices and flavor are retained.)

Baked Squash.—Cut in pieces no for serving, remove the seeds and stringy portion, brush with molasses, season with salt and pepper, and bake until soft. Add butter and serve from the shell.

Trifle.—Get half a dozen little sponge-cakes (lady fingers or ices of stale sponge-cake may be used). Also a dozen fresh macaroons. Make a thick custard with three eggs, two tablespoonfuls of corn starch mixed with a third of a cupful of sugar, and two-thirds of a pint of milk. Scald the milk, turn it over the eggs and sugar and cook over hot water until thick; then set away to cool. Arrange the sponge-cake in a glass dish and moisten with a gill of cream, flavored with vanilla. Sprinkle powdered sugar over the cake. Then spread a layer of raspberry jam or strawberry jelly over this. Add the macaroons and pour the cold custard over the whole. Heap whites of eggs, beaten stiff, over the top, sweetening them slightly, or whipped cream in place of the eggs. Chill thoroughly before serving.

Corn Bread.—Sift one cupful of yellow cornmeal, and one cupful of flour, and put together. Add one teaspoonful of baking powder, and half a teaspoonful of salt. Beat two egg yolks light; add a pint of milk and a tablespoonful of melted butter. Stir this into the meal and flour, and last of all stir in gently the beaten whites of the eggs. Pour the batter into a thoroughly well-greased breadpan. The batter should be two inches deep. Just before it is placed in the oven, pour carefully into the middle of the batter, a cupful of sweet milk. Do this very gently, and do not stir it. Bake in a moderate oven for at least three-quarters of an hour. When done, cut into squares with a hot knife, split open and butter and eat while hot.

Virginia Smothered Chicken.—Split a tender chicken down the back and lightly season with salt and pepper. Put into a roasting pan with a cupful of hot water and bake in a hot oven until tender. As soon as it begins to brown, make a paste of two tablespoonfuls each of butter and flour, spread over the chicken, and then baste every ten minutes with the pan drippings until the chicken is a nice brown. Take out the chicken and keep hot. Place the pan over the fire and pour in a cupful of rich milk or thin cream, and stir until it boils up. Season to taste with salt and pepper, and pour over the chicken. Garnish your dish and serve.

Fried Oysters.

Select large fine oysters, drain and dry with a napkin. Lift with thumb and forefinger on either side of the eye or hard portion; dip into bread crumbs and then into beaten egg, and again into bread crumbs. It is seldom necessary to add salt to the crumbs, but a little pepper, black or red, as preferred, is an improvement. After crumbling, pat the oyster between the hands and lay upon a platter to dry well before frying. To fry, immerse in deep hot fat in which a piece of bread will brown nicely. When the oyster comes to the surface it is done. Drain and keep upon a hot platter until all are ready to serve.

Oyster Cocktail.

Put a cover off stem parts of six ever sized green peppers, scoop out insides, remove seeds from covers as well as stems, and place in six small, deep oyster plates with shaved ice all around. Place 48 freshly opened small Blue Point oysters in a bowl, add six drops tabasco sauce, six tablespoonfuls freshly and very finely grated horseradish. Mix all well together, then evenly divide oysters in the six green peppers, place covers on and serve with a teaspoon on each plate.

Olive Oil for Shoes.

Patent leather shoes may be kept in good condition during the cold weather by rubbing them with a little olive oil and polishing with a piece of Canton dannel. This will keep the leather from cracking and the shoes will always appear new.

Hard Soap.

Soap that is allowed to dry and harden lasts twice as long as if used when fresh. Therefore, it is cheaper to buy in quantities and keep it in a dry place.

CHILDREN LOVE SYRUP OF FIGS

It is cruel to force nauseating, harsh physic into a sick child.

Look back at your childhood days. Remember the "dose" mother insisted on—castor oil, calomel, cathartics. How you hated them, how you fought against taking them.

With our children it's different. Mothers who cling to the old form of physic simply don't realize what they do. The children's revolt is well-founded. Their tender little "insides" are injured by them.

If your child's stomach, liver and bowels need cleansing, give only delicate "California Syrup of Figs." Its action is positive, but gentle. Millions of mothers keep this harmless "fruit laxative" handy; they know children love to take it; that it never fails to clean the liver and bowels, and sweeten the stomach, and that a teaspoonful given today saves a sick child tomorrow.

Ask at the store for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on each bottle. Adv.

And many a man is sold without getting his price.

The Point.

"Does the young fellow you have referred in with you know anything about this business he is putting his money into?"
"No; if he did he wouldn't put in his money."

Overdoing Housework.

"Housekeepers everywhere recognize that life is too valuable to spend every hour of the day in the mere keeping of the house. No human being can be continuously efficient and work more than eight hours in twenty-four. There are better ways, more scientific methods, more efficient utensils."—Charles Barnard.

Beware the Gray Eye.

Among the gray eyed there are few who retain any spiritual emotions. People with gray eyes are superficial, frivolous, given to embrace false idols, running down blind alleys, following false prophets, thoughtless, inconsiderate, wanting in sympathy, neurotic, unstable, not firm and deliberate, but rash and impetuous.

Aeroplane Kept as Memento.

All that is left of the Wright biplane with which Calbraith P. Rodgers flew from the Atlantic to the Pacific two years ago is to be presented to the Carnegie museum at Pittsburgh by the late aviator's mother. The machine was badly damaged when Rodgers fell to his death in the Pacific ocean a short time after completing his wonderful flight. Subsequently it was used by Andrew Drew until that aviator also was killed with it. The machine has been restored to its original condition. Both Rodgers' and Fowler's Wright machines have motors of but 20-horsepower, yet they flew across the continent in opposite directions at a time when the aeroplane had not been equipped with the 100-horsepower motor of today, which makes it much more stable, nor had it developed anywhere near the speed of which it has since shown itself to be capable.

WONDERED WHY. Found the Answer Was "Coffee."

Many pale, sickly persons wonder for years why they have to suffer so, and eventually discover that the drug—caffeine—in coffee is the main cause of the trouble.

"I was always very fond of coffee and drank it every day. I never had much flesh and often wondered why I was always so pale, thin and weak."

"About five years ago my health completely broke down and I was confined to my bed. My stomach was in such condition that I could hardly take sufficient nourishment to sustain life."

"During this time I was drinking coffee, didn't think I could do without it."

"After awhile I came to the conclusion that coffee was hurting me, and decided to give it up and try Postum. When it was made right—dark and thick—I soon became very fond of it."

"In one week I began to feel better. I could eat more and sleep better. My sick headaches were less frequent, and within five months I looked and felt like a new being; headache spells entirely gone."

"My health continued to improve and today I am well and strong, weigh 145 lbs. I attribute my present health to the life-giving qualities of Postum."

Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. Read "The Road to Wellville," in PERS.

Postum now comes in two forms: Regular Postum—must be well boiled.

Instant Postum—is a soluble powder. A teaspoonful dissolves quickly in a cup of hot water and, with cream and sugar, makes a delicious beverage instantly. Grocers sell both kinds.

"There's a Reason" for Postum.

PAYS TO KEEP AN INDEX

For One Thing, It is Good to Be Able to Turn to Any Recipe Needed at the Moment.

Few women outside of business and academic circles realize the convenience of the card catalogue system, says the Christian Science Monitor. One energetic woman who had been a very successful secretary made an efficient housekeeper and homemaker because she remembered in her married life the devices that had helped her in business. She had a number of catalogues to indicate the state of her household supplies—linen, etc.—but the most interesting of all was her card catalogue cook book, and menu index. It was just like a library catalogue, being composed of a couple of drawers in a little cabinet filled with cards on which were typed recipes. Those cards were grouped under appropriate heads and made readily accessible through a number of guide cards headed, Dinners, Soups, Entrees, Salads, Meats and Desserts. When faced with the problem "What shall we have to eat today?" she simply ran through her cards for the meal in question and often found the recipe for a dish she had quite forgotten about.

For use as a cook book this arrangement is much more convenient than the old book form. The collection of recipes grows rapidly, too, as it is so easy to paste on a card a newspaper clipping or a recipe from a household magazine, and slip the card into its proper place where it does not get lost, as loose papers have a habit of doing. The catalogue outfit is quite inexpensive and the utility of the scheme will certainly repay the original trouble of making.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

When making a cake mix the spices and baking powder with the flour before it is sifted.

To distinguish cotton from linen moisten a spot of the material. If the material wets through instantly it is pure linen; cotton does not take up moisture so quickly.

Black walnut furniture or furniture made of any dark rich wood should be cleaned occasionally with a soft rag dipped in paraffine oil, then polished with another soft rag.

There is always a cause for a flickering kerosene oil light. Either the top is clogged, the wick or chimney is a misfit or a draught of wind may be blowing into the room.

To clean velvet stretch it taut, pile upward, over a basin of boiling water. As the steam rises through the velvet have a second person brush it briskly with a clean brush.

When the eyes ache relieve them by closing them for a few minutes. If there is a burning sensation bathe them with hot water, to which a few drops of witch hazel has been added.

To test silk, fray out the threads and break them. If they snap easily, it is not good. The wrap thread running lengthwise should be of equal strength with the wool thread running crosswise.

When frying doughnuts it is a good idea to have a dish of boiling water on the stove. As each cake is done, lift it out with a fork and dash quickly into the boiling water and out again.

If your kitchen is small and crowded, take out the kitchen table and have a hinged shelf made. A shelf answers every purpose of a table and can be put down out of the way when not in use.

Baked Apples.

Select apples with the same degree of hardness and rather uniform size; remove the cores. Unless the skins are very tender it is best to pare them. Water sufficient to cover the bottom of the bake dish should be added if the apples are not juicy. Bake in a quick oven. Cover the first ten minutes, then remove the cover just before finished. Serve with cream or the following dressing: To the white of one egg, beaten stiff, take one cup of malt honey or molasses, which has been heated, but not to the boiling point. Pour the hot honey over the beaten egg white and beat until light in color. Flavor with lemon, vanilla or orange.

Bombay Special.

Take half a pound of finely grated fresh coconut, boiled eight or ten minutes in a pint of milk. Beat five eggs lightly with quarter of a pound of fresh butter and sugar to taste. When light and well mixed, stir with a penny sponge cake, grated and crumbled; stir gradually into the coconut and milk, which should have time to cool. Add brandy, and pour into a dish lined with good puff paste, and bake from 30 to 45 minutes.

Tricadilloes.

One large cup chopped cooked meat (veal, beef or lamb), one-half cup bread crumbs or rolled rice, one tablespoon onion chopped fine, seasoning of salt, pepper and sage. Moisten with beaten egg and water. Shape and brown them in drippings, or prepare and cook as croquettes in deep fat.

Pineapple Salad.

Place slices of pineapple on lettuce leaf. Cover slice with grated cheese. Over this put mayonnaise and on top sprinkle ground nuts. If desired put maraschino cherry in center.

Cleaning Windows.

Try rubbing the window panes and mirrors with a piece of newspaper dipped in paraffin.

SIMPLE AND EASIER TO DO

Tramp's Methods Not Altogether Unlike That Followed by Too Many Others.

Hoboes came up for discussion in a Washington club the other night; and Senator Nathan P. Bryan of Florida told this anecdote along the weary Willie line:

Some time ago a hobo meekly tapped on the back door of a suburban home and asked for something to eat. The good housewife responded that she would feed him on the back stoop along with Fido, providing he was willing to earn the meal by cleaning out the gutter.

The tramp agreed, and when he had eaten his way through several sandwiches to a feeling of happiness, the housewife came out with a reliable looking hoe.

"You needn't have gone to that trouble, madam," said the hobo, fixing up the farm implement. "I never use a hoe in cleaning out a gutter."

"Never use a hoe!" said the woman with a wondering expression. "What do you use, then, a shovel?"

"No, madam," replied the hobo, starting for the back gate, "my method is to pray for rain."

Eulph for a Trust.

"Miss the trust!" said Senator La Follette at a luncheon in Washington. "Yes, oh, yes, when the trusts go we'll miss them—we'll miss them like the widow."

"A widow, at her late husband's funeral, happened, during the burial service, to drop her handkerchief into the open grave."

"A young man gallantly offered to leap down and get the handkerchief for her."

"But the widow shook her head. 'No,' she said, 'leave it there. I have done with tears now.'"

SCALP TROUBLE FOR YEARS

268 Harrison St., Elyria, Ohio.—"My case was a scalp trouble. I first noticed small bunches on my scalp which commenced to itch and I would scratch them and in time they got larger, forming a scale or scab with a little pus, and chunks of hair would come out when I would scratch them off. It caused me to lose most of my hair. It became thin and dry and lifeless. I was troubled for over ten years with it until it got so bad I was ashamed to go to a barber to get my hair cut."

"I tried everything I could get hold of, but received no relief, but received no cure until I commenced using Cuticura Soap and Ointment when the scale commenced to disappear. The way I used the Cuticura Soap and Ointment was to wash my scalp twice a day with warm water and Cuticura Soap and rub on the Cuticura Ointment. I received benefit in a couple of weeks and was cured in two months."

(Signed) F. J. Bueber, Jan. 28, 1913. Cuticura Soap and Ointment sold throughout the world. Sample of each free, with 32-p. Skin Book. Address postcard "Cuticura, Dept. L, Boston."—Adv.

DR. PIERCE'S Favorite Prescription

Mrs. Fannie H. Drent, of Bryant, Nelson Co., Va., writes: "I believe I had every pain and ache a woman could have, my back was weak, and I suffered with nervousness and could not sleep at night. Suffered with soreness in my right hip, and every month would have spells and have to stay in bed. I have taken eight bottles of your Favorite Prescription, and one vial of your Pleasant Pellets, and I can truly say my ailment is cured. Can now do my work for six in family, and feel like a new woman. I think it is the best medicine in the world for women. I recommend it to all my friends and many of them have been greatly benefited by it."

The Best Cough Medicine.

"I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy ever since I have been keeping house," says L. C. Hames, of Marbury, Ala. "I consider it one of the best remedies I ever used. My children have all taken it and it works like a charm. For colds and whooping cough it is excellent." For sale by all dealers.

School Notes

On Friday afternoon of this week the Athenaeum Literary Society, consisting of pupils of 8th grade and high school, will hold its bi-monthly meeting. The Mexico question will be debated pro and con by a team of four. Besides other literary features, a number of musical selections will be interpolated. The public is cordially invited to all school activities.

On last Friday afternoon the pupils of Miss Spellman's room gave a most creditable literary and musical program. Miss Humphrey's room, the 8th grade and High school department, formed the nucleus of the audience. After the programme was concluded, Rachel Hughes, Hattie Hust and Gladney White were called to the rostrum, each receiving a handsome silver medal—the trophies of the County-wide spelling contest at Capitan Xmas week. The audience showed their unanimous approval with three ringing cheers.

Preparation has begun on a minstrel act and playlet by the boys and girls of the high school respectively. The date will be announced soon—watch for it. The performance will be thoroughly rehearsed before it is imposed upon the public. If you find pain in laughter either come after the minstrel act is over or leave before it begins. Popular prices. Proceeds benefit piano fund.

Chase Pleads Guilty

LEE B. CHASE, who was indicted in the federal court last fall on the charge of embezzlement and falsifying papers while United States Commissioner, entered a plea of guilty before Judge Pope at Roswell this week. The plea covered six counts of falsifying papers, the embezzlement charge being dismissed. A sentence of 30 days in the Lincoln County jail on each of the six counts was imposed, but the sentence is to run concurrently; hence 30 days will cover all cases. The defendant was also required to pay the costs, which are estimated at between $700.00 and $800.00. Friends will endeavor to relieve Mr. Chase as to the amount of the costs, so that he will not have to serve an excessive jail sentence in order to satisfy them, in the event he is not able to pay the amount. Defendant will probably arrive this evening.

Going to Church

GOING to church, like many other things, is largely a habit. We find the habit growing with us and are quite willing to confess it is not a bad one. The ministers and the church people are making a special effort to get out good congregations for next Sunday, the 15th, the "Go to Church" Sunday, and in order that we might not appear a total stranger we have been quietly slipping into a pew the last few Sunday nights and listening to the sweet voices of the choir for there is no music more attractive than that made by the human voice and have also enjoyed the discourse from the pulpit.

Abraham Lincoln

YESTERDAY was the one hundred and fifth anniversary of the birth of Abraham Lincoln. Born in a log cabin in the state of Kentucky, with no advantages in his youth, he succeeded in writing his name more prominently in American history than any man of his or of former generations. As a statesman he boomed head and shoulders above his contemporaries; as an orator he was unexcelled, and his Gettysburg address will live as long as the English language exists.

Mail-Order Ten Commandments

THE following ten commandments are offered for the guidance of catalogue house patrons:

1. You shall sell your farm products for cash whenever you can, but not to us. We do not buy from you.
2. You shall believe our statements and buy all you need from us, because we want to be good to you, although we are not personally acquainted with you.
3. You shall send your money in advance to give us a chance to get the goods from the factory with your money; meanwhile, you shall have to wait patiently a few weeks, as that is our business method.
4. You shall apply to your nearest city to aid you in building good roads so you can conveniently get the goods from the depot, for we do not build country roads.
5. You shall buy church bells and church fixtures from us and forward the money in advance, for this is our business method, and you shall collect from the business men in your vicinity as much money as you can for the benefit of your churches as it is against our rules to donate for building country churches.

6. You shall buy your tools from us and be your own mechanic in order to drive the mechanics from your vicinity, for we wish it so.
7. You shall induce your neighbor to buy everything from us, as we have room for more money—the less money there is in your community, the sooner we can put your local merchant out of business and charge you any price we please.
8. You shall look often at the beautiful pictures in our catalogue, so your wishes will increase, and so you will send in a big order, although you are not in immediate need of the goods, otherwise you might have some money left to buy some necessary goods from the local merchant.
9. You shall have the merchants who repair the goods you buy from us, book the bills so you can send the money for his labor to us for new goods, otherwise he will not notice our influence.
10. You shall, in case of sickness or need, apply to your local dealer, for aid and credit, as we do not know you or care to—Inland Grocer.

The Last Half of the Ninth Inning

FOR several weeks you have doubtless seen posters here and there and read in your town papers items and arguments in regard to church going. It has called your attention to the church as an institution which has a right to your respect and patronage. Some may have cared little about anything that may have been said or anything that may be done; as for them they have made up their minds that they will not have anything to do with this sort of thing, and if there be such a man, we hope there is not, we must just shake off a little dust in his trail and turn to that man who does care. But, in our judgment the church has been using up a great deal of valuable time lamenting over that of imaginary man who did not care and have thought too often they have found him or are face to face with him. He is the bugaboo of Christian workers, and still he is a most rare article, if he even exists at all. It is my experience that all men care more or less about their rating in the moral world. Some whom we cast out, if we cast any out, as heathen, we do so by our choice, and not by a deep desire of theirs. The fact is that in this movement encouragement has come from unexpected sources. There are always that circle from whom we expect words of cheer and deeds of helpfulness, these have not failed us; but there has appeared on the scene another circle, men and women who have not figured in church work. They have left here and there a word or a whisper or sent a favorable comment. This has all been most gratifying to the lovers of the church and good morals. The papers have opened their columns, the Lodges from whom we have received returns, have reported favorable, and a splendid sentiment has been displayed along all lines. The religious symptoms are to be observed everywhere, and yet apparent symptoms are not enough. There is great need that religion take deeper hold of the very life of the community. It will not be enough in the last day to say to the Master, "Thou has taught in our streets." Has that teaching been accepted in our hearts? This is the last exhortation before the Sunday comes. All things are ready, come to the feast. There will be two doors of entrance open to

you. Take your free and unbiased CHOICE. No one is forcing you to go to either church or to go at all; we simply invite you to come.

The Garrett Music Recital

ON February 20th, at 8 o'clock p. m., Miss Elizabeth Garrett, the blind but beautiful singer, will give one of her popular recitals. Miss Garrett is very much appreciated wherever she goes for her splendid musical talent. The following quotation from the El Paso papers is self-explanatory:

"The recital given last night at the Chamber of Commerce by Miss Elizabeth Garrett was one of the most thoroughly enjoyable musical affairs ever given in this city. It was given under the auspices of the Woman's Club. Although Miss Garrett has been blind almost from birth she moves so naturally and gracefully, and is so perfectly mistress of herself that one would scarcely notice her affliction. She has a sweet, clear voice, of which one never tires, and at the end of the concert was as fresh and clear as at the beginning. The most remarkable part of her performance is the wonderful technique she displays in her accompaniments, which she always plays for herself. Her second group of songs were all composed by herself, both words and music; and as an encore she sang 'My Garden Has Roses.' The Mesilla Valley songs were especially catchy the refrain of which was written in Spanish. The last group were the old favorites: 'Annie Laurie', 'The Mocking Bird' and 'Bonnie Doone'."

The writer has heard Miss Garrett, and bespeaks a real feast for all who shall avail themselves of this musical treat. The recital is given under the auspices of the Baptist Church and tickets may be purchased from members of the Sunday School, or at Roselle's Jewelry Store. Remember the date: February 20; 8:00 p. m.
