New Mexico Fair Committee Busy

For the greater part of the past two weeks the state fair committee for this county has been busy collecting and preparing the fruit exhibit for the state fair.

Three Rivers and Oscuro were first visited and a fine collection of perishable fruits selected and placed in jars for exhibition purposes. Next the Bonito, Ruidoso and Hondo valleys were visited and many fine specimens of various fruits were collected.

In addition to the collection of perishable fruits the committee found large quantities of later fruits which the orchardists will ship here, and most of which will be shown at our field days, Friday and Saturday, October 1-2. Also, some excellent farm products will be here, and the agricultural and horticultural productions will be in the nature of a surprise to many of our people, we dare say. Following their exhibition here the exhibit will be shipped to Albuquerque.

In its travels the committee has seen many fine orchards, excellent farm crops and, apparently, abounding prosperity. But most of all, the reception given the committee has been so hearty and generous that the work has really been one of pleasure. The liberal offers of fruits, vegetables and cereals in addition to assistance in collecting the exhibit is conclusive proof of the interest aroused throughout the county, and more people from Lincoln county, as a result of this interest, will attend the state fair this year than ever before.

Road Board Meeting

The Lincoln County Road Board will meet at the court house Monday, October 4, the same date of the regular quarterly meeting of the Board of County Commissioners. At this meeting the board will audit all bills presented in proper form, and after approval will pay same. All road foremen are urged to have their reports in by the date of the meeting, and all persons having accounts for labor and supplies must present same on an approved form, properly attested by an official authorized to administer oaths.

Four New Dodges

The newest car on the market—and a Jim Dandy at that—has made its appearance in Lincoln county. Four are owned in this vicinity and are now in use. They were purchased by Harry B. Dawson, John B. Baird, Roy E. Lemon and Ernest Burrell.

Boys' and Girls' Encampment

The State Fair Association has allowed $1000 to the department of Boys' and Girls' Clubs for an encampment during the fair at Albuquerque. The Extension Department of the Agricultural College is in charge of the fund and has decided to entertain during fair week not more than ten boys and girls of each county—paying all of the necessary expenses of the school children when once they arrive in Albuquerque. This will be the largest encampment of school children ever attempted in this country.

Large army tents, floored, will be provided and an army cook will have charge of the kitchen and large dining tent. A hospital tent with attendant will be provided in case any child is ill.

The mornings will be devoted to club work under Prof. W. T. Conway and Miss Edna Ross; the afternoons and evenings will provide ample time for sightseeing and amusements. The county school superintendent of each county is expected to chaperone his party.

The local committee had a difficult task in selecting but twenty who were eligible for the trip. Another difficulty was that sufficient means were available for paying the expenses of only ten, but the committee believed the opportunity offered boys and girls to secure some first hand knowledge was so attractive that another ten could be selected whose railroad fare would be paid by the parents, thus giving the county its full quota of twenty. Therefore, ten boys and girls were notified that the committee would take care of their traveling expenses and another ten appointed whose traveling expenses were to be cared for by parents.

In the selection of these boys and girls the committee endeavored to secure a list that would represent all parts of the county, and, at the same time, a list that would put to use for himself and the community the ideas taught at the meeting; the faithfulness to school duties and the report of deportment. The aim of the committee, with these ends in view, was to select pupils who had proved by their past record that the county would be proud of them at the fair and afterward. Naturally, all those selected could not go, and a number of others have failed to respond; so it will become necessary to fill the gaps made by those who have been selected but who cannot go. The original list follows:

Horton Spillers, Capitan,
Ware Brazel, Carrizozo,
Herman Gschwind, Oscuro,
Porfirio Gonzales, Glencoe,
Daniel Gomez, San Patricio,
Franklin Bixler, Capitan, P.O
Yule Miller, Ruidoso,
Henry Peebles, Alto,
Champ Ferguson, Nogal,
John Nelson, Tinnie,
Maude Bryan, Capitan,
Margaret Lacey, Carrizozo,
Jennie Baca, Lincoln,
Clara Fritz, Hondo,
Amy Hazelwood, Encinosa,
Pearl Clements, Corona,
Delphenia Brockway, Fort Stanton,
Robbie Taylor, White Oaks,
Geraldine Tully, Glencoe,

Methodist Church

Rev. E. D. Lewis, Pastor.

Everybody is invited to be present at the Methodist church Sunday morning and evening at the regular preaching hours, 11 a.m. and 7:30 p.m., as this is the last Sunday of the Conference year. The subject of the morning will be "Christian Brotherhood"; at night "The Journey of Life" will be considered. There will be special music by the union chorus choir. You will miss a treat if you fail to hear this good music.

There will be a Rally Day program given at the Sunday school hour. You want to come to this, also. If you are not going to the Baptist Sunday school we extend to you a cordial invitation to come to the Methodist Sunday school. If you have not been going and you feel you ought to go to Sunday school, let this be the day that you start. Come and enjoy the good program Sunday morning at 9:45.

At this will be our last Sunday at this place before the meeting of our Conference we desire to state that considerable progress has been made along all lines, and while more has already been done financially than was done all last year, yet the church is considerably behind with the assessments, and it is very probable that the stewards will be around to see you that you may help to raise the deficit. We hope you will willingly and liberally contribute that we may make a full report at Conference. A full statement may be published next week.

We will look for you at the services Sunday. Come.

Ruidoso Residence Destroyed by Fire

Last week the residence of Rev. S. M. Johnson, Ruidoso, was destroyed by fire. A still greater loss, however, were the contents—practically nothing saved. Besides the furniture, clothing, linens, etc., the building contained Mr. Johnson's library, a series of lectures and a large number of most valuable slides, which he used for illustrating his lectures; brick-a-brac, mementos, etc., much of which was invaluable to the family. The loss, we understand, is placed at $10,000, with no insurance. The origin of the fire is unknown, as no member of the family was there at the time the fire was discovered, and before assistance arrived the blaze had gained such headway that practically none of the contents were saved.

Mrs. Oliver Succumbs

Mrs. George Oliver died at Fort Stanton yesterday morning after an illness extending over a period of several months. Services were conducted this morning in the Fort Stanton chapel and interment will be made in the Lincoln cemetery tomorrow. Father Frund, the Fort chaplain, will have charge of both ceremonies.

Mrs. Oliver was a daughter of Mr and Mrs. F. W. Brockway, at present residing at Fort Stanton, was born at Picacho, in this county, and was a member of one of the oldest and most highly respected families of the county. She lived with her family for a number of years in Carrizozo, and taught school for two terms here, and she had also taught at other points in the county. A few years ago she was married to Mr. George Oliver, who, with a small infant, survive her. She spent her girlhood among our people, with whom she was a general favorite, and all of whom will be pained to learn of her untimely death.

Buys El Paso Property

Dr. J. W. Laws, who has been conducting a private sanatorium at Lincoln for the past ten years, has purchased a tract of land in the suburbs of El Paso, consisting of 94 acres. The land lies in New Mexico, just across the Rio Grande, but is easily accessible to the city, and the doctor expects to establish a sanatorium on the purchase. It is not the purpose of the doctor to immediately establish his sanatorium at the Pass City, but he hopes to have everything ready within a year or two to receive patients at his new location.

Dr. Laws has conducted a very successful institution in this county, and, in addition, has been a successful practitioner in the county; but above all he has been a most progressive citizen whose loss will be keenly felt. However, there is a slight satisfaction in the fact that while he will be out of Lincoln county he will still be a citizen of New Mexico.

Card of Thanks

We desire to express our gratitude to friends for sympathy and aid extended us in our bereavement over the death of husband, father and brother and for the many beautiful floral offerings.

Mrs. Chas. S. Jones and Children,
Mr. and Mrs. Ray R. Sale,
Grace, Ebb, Ralph and Lewis Jones.

Field Days at Hand

At the end of another week Field Days, which this year fall on Friday and Saturday, October 1st and 2d, will have arrived. And efforts have been put forth that should make them the two biggest days in the history of Lincoln county. Committees have put forth greater effort to make this meeting attractive than ever before; a larger sum of money has been collected, a greater variety of events have been arranged—in fact, the two days' program, which may be seen elsewhere in this issue, will be crowded with events, commencing early Friday morning and running into Saturday night. There'll not be a dull minute—something doing all the time—two big joyful days and nights of fun, frolic and sport.

For the first time in the history of Lincoln county we will have a splendid agricultural and horticultural exhibit—an exhibit that has been collected by the state fair committee and in the collection of which the committee has had the united cooperation of farmers and fruit growers. This exhibit, in itself, will be worth traveling miles to see, for it will be superb. In addition to the exhibit from farm and orchard there will be not only the usual sports but there will also be a number of high class entertainments that are calculated to suit the fancy of the most fastidious. Concerts by a brass band, imported for the occasion, and a vocal concert at the Methodist church will be some of the interesting features that we have not heretofore enjoyed on occasions of this kind.

Four beeves and twenty mutton will be toasting on the spit for the delectation of the hungry assemblage, and will be served Saturday noon. We want all parts of the county represented at this gathering, and well represented, at that. We'll furnish the sports, the entertainments and the eats, and all we ask is for the people to come, help enjoy the good things we'll have and thus add to our pleasure with your presence. Come!

A Good Idea

Editor News:

I earnestly hope that every person in Carrizozo who owns a United States flag will put it out during the two Field Days next Friday and Saturday. There should also be other decorations, such as bunting, streamers, etc. Give the town a gay appearance. It is done everywhere else on special occasions—why not here? Let's be up-to-date.

GOOD ROADS

TO MAKE SMOOTH ROAD BEDS

Put Soil on in Layers, Not in Piles—Best Tool for Road Improvement is Splitlog Drag.

The making of a smooth roadbed requires that when the soil is put on, it be laid in layers and not in piles. When dumped in piles some places will be more packed than others and there will likely be a difference in the density, while if laid on in layers this will be avoided. Each layer should be harrowed, or better yet, disked and packed before the next one is laid down.

In this way a good roadbed is secured from the first, while if the soil is just dumped on the road to be leveled and packed by the traffic over the road a good roadbed will never be secured.

The best tool for keeping the road well crowned and the surface smooth is the splitlog drag. This tool should be used soon after a rain. The soil is then loose and easily moved. The drag moves but small amounts of soil and smears it on the roadbed in thin layers, which is just what is wanted. It cuts off any projections and fills any low places.

SUPERIORITY OF WIDE TIRES

It Has Been Found by Actual Test That Broad-Tired Wagon Pulls 6.2 Per Cent Easier.

Wide tires build up roads and save horse labor, according to the department of agricultural engineering at the University of Nebraska. They have the same effect upon a country road as a roller on a plowed field. On the other hand, the narrow tire cuts up a road like a disk.

It has been found by actual test in this department that the wide-tired wagon pulls easier in nearly all cases than the narrow-tired wagon. In deep mud on a country road the wide-tired wagon pulls 6.2 per cent easier.

On a country road with a thin surface of mud or deep dust, however, the narrow tires pull 4.9 per cent easier. In a corn field the wide tires pull 30.5 per cent easier, in a dry alfalfa field 17.7 per cent easier, and on a dry country road 10.2 per cent easier.

BETTER ROADS IN MISSOURI

Movement Has Passed Boom Stage and Become Fixed Policy—Good Advertisement for State.

When the public roads bureau of the department of agriculture made its study of roads covering a period which ended in 1913, Missouri did not figure among the leading states either in its mileage of improved roads or in progress made in road building, while some of the southern states with smaller resources in a financial way showed striking evidences of progress, says Farm Progress. They had been building cheap roads of such materials as were immediately at hand, and that is what Missouri is doing today with such energy and enthusiasm that the next survey of the road situation is sure to tell a different story. This will be a good thing for state pride and as a state advertisement, but vastly more significant is the direct benefit derivable from roads that can be traversed at all seasons with full loads. Every good road that is built today and tomorrow and every road that is improved will go to make Missouri a better state in which the people may live their normal social life, a better state for the school child, a better state in which to spend a working life and live out a contented old age. The good roads movement in Missouri has passed the boom stage and become a settled policy, finding its strongest reason for being in the silent argument of good roads already built. Its goal is a state in which every market shall be accessible to the farmer's wagon the year around and a public sentiment in favor of good roads so strong that no other condition will be tolerated.

A Good Roads Advocate.

"Aren't you in favor of good roads?"

"Of course I am," answered the toll-gate keeper.

"But this road of yours is miserable."

"Maybe. But I'm in favor of good roads. If the road hadn't been pretty good this far you mightn't have got here to pay your toll."

Road Drag an Aid.

The great farm builders are live stock, alfalfa and silage, aided by the manure spreader and the road drag.

MODISH AND PRETTY

NEUTRAL TONES ARE DECIDEDLY ATTRACTIVE.

Also There Is Enough Variety to Enable Any Woman to Make a Selection That Will Please Permanently.

If you prefer a dark coloring for your new silk dress, are tired of blue and do not want black, there are such lovely neutral tones to choose from, such as gun-metal grays, very dark olive greens and the almost black shade of brown known as tete de negre, and seal brown. This is a very modish color, and when touched up with a bit of enlivening color of white to relieve the neck and sleeve ends some very rich effects can be achieved.

The illustrated design is a splendid one for a development in seal brown, with an interesting vest-girdle, and sleeves of cream-colored taffeta striped with lapis-lazuli blue.

There is a high-necked guimpe of white Georgette crepe, shirred at the neck and wrists to give a generous fullness. Frills of self-material add a soft finish at the top of the collar and sleeve ends. Over the guimpe is worn the attractive jumper blouse of brown taffeta, widely open in front, slashed over the shoulders and bloused over the top of the striped girdle. The under elbow-length sleeves of striped silk must be attached to the guimpe. A close row of silver buttons trims the center of the draped girdle, to whose lower edge the tunic and drop skirt are applied with a cord finish and narrow heading of plaited silk. China silk will do for the drop skirt, to which the two lower flounces are sewed. They are circular flounces and finished with narrow plaited ruffles of the goods.

The tunic is a little below knee length, and similarly bordered with a narrow plaiting. Unlike the two flounces, it is not circular, but is evenly gathered around the hips.

The same design may be used for a thin wash fabric, such as voile, organdie or crepe de chine.

MOST USEFUL LETTER BOARD

Simple Contrivance of Especial Service Where There Are Many Members of the Household.

Our sketch shows a useful article to prepare for hanging upon the wall at some convenient spot in the hall of a boarding house, or where there are many members in a family.

It is quite easy to make. For its construction, in the first place a piece of thin board measuring 18 inches in length and 8 inches in width will be required. This board is covered with pale green casement cloth, the material being turned over at the edges and fastened on at the back with tacks.

Diagram A shows the shape in which the casement cloth should be cut out, the space inclosed by the dotted lines corresponding in size with the surface of the board. Diagram B shows the back with the four flaps folded over and tacked down. Across the front of the board bands of broad white elastic are fastened on with small brass-headed nails, the nails being inserted at each end of each band and also at the points where the bands cross each other.

The rack is finished off at the edges with a dark green cord, and for suspending it from nails in the wall two ordinary picture rings are screwed into the upper edge.

ROSE COLOR FIRST IN FAVOR

Most Attractive Shade Is Given Preference Over All Others, at the Present Moment.

Rose linen is a favorite and rose mull and sweaters in rose and pink and white embroidery, rose net embroidered in silver, rose girdles and rose garlands are everywhere. And as for millinery, the rosy hats are "all over the place."

Most fascinating to wear with lingerie gowns are rose taffeta jackets. They are made in a number of beguiling ways. Some are short Eton and others come well below the waist.

On the rose-trimmed hats the roses are used in large single ones or wreaths about the crown. A whole crown of them is sometimes used. From the handsome full-blown variety to the weeniest buds are employed. Even the wild rose is often pressed flat against the crown in delightful effect.

The rosiest of hems of taffeta is used on frocks of chiffon, net or embroidery. Sometimes, too, the only rose the gown may show will be in the hem itself.

The rose applique trimming used now is not like the old-fashioned applique. It is far more graceful and has almost the effect of painting.

Perhaps the reason that older women may venture into pink these days is because there are so many more with gray hair and pink cheeks.

Rose is the first choice in dance frocks, and rose color means anything from deep American beauty to the palest pink.

ORIGINAL IDEA OF MERIT

Novel Gift That Could Not Fail to Give Delight to the Fortunate Recipient.

A girl who is hailed among her especial friends as the only original one fully lived up to her name and reputation by bringing to the last linen shower a most novel gift—and it was not linen. It was intended, however, for the lingerie chest and was the most novel and prettiest of sachets. Apparently, when the eager bride-to-be opened the little flowered, silk-covered box, she saw lying in its silken depth a large creamy satin rose. When she lifted it for further examination a sweet aroma was diffused through the room and the rose was discovered to be nothing more than a number of petal-like bags of sachet attached to a central calyx disk by means of the smallest of gilt safety pins. The petals shaded from light cream at the outer edge to a deep pink in the center. The only original girl admitted to having used a "real rose" as her model, and shaping the petal sachets accordingly. A clever little verse told the delighted recipient that one petal at a time might be removed and attached to any piece of lingerie she desired. The sachet used was a delicate rose, which had first been laid between thin strips of soft cotton and baked in a slow oven to make the odor more enduring and less pungent.

Long Coats for Fall.

In the fall we shall see serge princess frocks with coats so long that the skirts will be entirely covered.

To Restore Worn Leather.

Leather hand bags, purses, card cases and belts, if black, can be restored to original beauty in the following manner: Buy a tube of ivory-black oil paint and apply it to the leather by rubbing it in with a piece of old stocking. It should be used generously and rubbed in vigorously, so as to leave no noticeable residue. Let it stand 24 hours and if the surface of the leather is rough, polish with a piece of old Turkish toweling. Let stand another 24 hours, and if the dye will be permanently set and none will rub off even on white gloves. By the same method colored leather can be dyed black, but a number of coats would be necessary. Each coat should be given 24 hours to dry, and each coat must be polished before another is applied. The degree of polish depends on the amount of rubbing.—The Ladies' World.

Combination Cap and Bag.

A combination bathing cap and bag is made either in rubberized cotton or silk fabric, in black and white stripes, in colored stripes and in Scotch plaids. The bag is made in double-tier effect, the upper portions being attached to the lower by means of a heading on an elastic band. The top of the bag, which has a deep heading, is fitted with ribbon drawstrings, and while measuring only fifteen inches in depth the bag is designed to successfully accommodate a bathing suit, shoes, comb, brush, etc. Upon arrival at the shore the contents of the bag are removed, the base portion inverted, the ribbon drawstrings tightened at the top and the bag is transformed into a bathing cap, the elastic heading serving as a brim.

WILL AEROPLANES STOP WAR

Orville Wright Is Moved to Say He Likes to Think So, Anyhow.

Did you ever stop to think that there is a very definite reason why the present war in Europe has dragged along for a year with neither side gaining much advantage over the other? The reason, as I figure it out, is aeroplanes, Orville Wright writes in Collier's. In consequence of the scouting work done by the flying machines, each side knows exactly what the opposition forces are doing.

There is little chance for one army to take another by surprise. Napoleon won wars by massing his troops at unexpected places. The aeroplane has made that impossible. It has equalized information. Each side has such complete knowledge of the other's movements that both sides are obliged to crawl into trenches and fight by means of slow, tedious routine rather than by quick, spectacular dashes.

My impression is that before the present war started the army experts expected it to be a matter of a few weeks or, at most, a few months. Today it looks as if it might run into years before one side can dictate terms. Now, a nation that may be willing to undertake a war lasting a few months may well hesitate after engaging in one that will occupy years.

The daily cost of a great war is of course stupendous. When this cost runs on for years the total is likely to be so great that the side which wins nevertheless loses. War will become prohibitively expensive. And the scouting work in flying machines will be the predominating factor, as it seems to me, in bringing this about. I like to think so, anyhow.

The Bonnie Conductor Lass

Edinburgh, Scotland, has two dozen women street car conductors who are a thorough success in the new line of work. Other tramways are already recruiting girls and training them to be conductors. It is said that girls working in the English cartridge factories are so fired with patriotism that some of them work thirty hours in a stretch without any rest. Miss Elizabeth Lister has been appointed a stationmaster in South Wales, the first woman to act in that capacity. In the north of England and in Scotland and Wales the men workers are being supplanted in the fields by women, who can be seen following the harrow or digging and hoeing.

Family Days.

Family occasions ought to be celebrated frequently, even if the celebration is the simplest form of little festival. Bringing the family together helps to promote affection. Whatever the event, birthday or wedding anniversary or a welcome home from a journey, it ought to mean something to every member of the family, and can be made an occasion that will remain bright in memory when the family circle is broken.

GOLD'S SIREN LURE FOR MEN

Hardship and Death Dared by Thousands That They May Gain Riches Quickly.

It was in 1898 that the rush of gold seekers to the Klondike reached its flood. The ninety-eighters probably never will know the fame of the forty-niners, but they have a place in the long history of the gold hunters, the men of all nations, ancient, medieval and modern. The book has a hundred chapters telling of failure and of death to every one lightened with the story of success.

H. M. Cadell recently visited the Klondike, and there made a study of present conditions. He describes them and adds an interesting account of the early day rush to the Northwest territory. The Smithsonian institution has put Mr. Cadell's report into print. It is an interesting document. Some of the happenings in the Klondike were duplicates of like happenings in California and Australia during the first years of the surface washing in those fields. These duplications show that human nature is unchanging.

Men went to the Klondike daring hardship and death that they might get rich quick. Some of the gold seekers were quickly successful. A large percentage of the successful ones almost literally threw their money away. Easy come, easy go. This sort of thing has marked gold mining in all ages. The Klondike is not what it was, but human nature stays the same. The discovery of gold at the North pole would start a northern migration that would take no account of the insuperable obstacles of distance and cold. The lure is irresistible.—Chicago Post.

Baby's Eyes.

Do sound a warning to mothers about letting tiny babies lie flat, gazing straight at the sky. Unless a baby is sitting up in its carriage, the top should always be over its face.

The best throw one can make with dice is to throw them away.

The Invitation.

"Hello, Mabel!"

"Oh, hello, George!"

"How are you, Mabel?"

"Just fine! How're you, George?"

"Same. Say, Mabel, let's go through the park this afternoon. What say?"

"Well—ah-ah ahem—I—I—ah—I'm kind of—well, I'm kind of tired, George."

"Then you won't go?"

"I'm so sorry, but, George, you understand just how it is, don't you, George, dear?"

"Yes, I guess so. I suppose I'll have to ride with someone else, then."

"Ride?"

"Yes; my new eight-cylinder roadster came this morning."

"Oh, George! Did it really! Isn't that just splendid? Say—ah—George, I guess I'm not as tired as I thought I was."

"Well, I wouldn't take any chances if I were you, Mabel. It doesn't pay. I'll take someone else."

"But, really, dear, I'm not tired a bit. Honestly."

"It's sweet of you to say that, but I don't want to take advantage of your kindness. Good-by, Mabel."

Mabel slammed the receiver viciously on the hook. "Darn it!" she muttered. "Why didn't he say so in the first place?"—Michigan Gargoyle.

Roswell Will Entertain Many Conventions

A most unusual combination of meetings and conventions will be held at Roswell during the week of October 4. The New Mexico Bankers Association will hold their annual convention there; the cattlemen of the state will meet to take preliminary organization steps; the Eastern New Mexico Good Roads Association will hold a meeting and the Eastern New Mexico Swine Breeders Association will have a big meeting and banquet. The sheep men are also planning a meeting for Friday of the same week, but this will be purely informal and it is not the intention to form any association.

Although the topics to be discussed and business to be transacted by all these associations are interrelated the meetings were arranged independently and without any idea of working together. Now that all the meetings have been scheduled however, it is being pointed out that there are great possibilities of co-operation during the week. For instance, the cattlemen are very much interested in the question of public lands, and it is one of the principal questions to be taken up by the proposed association. The question is equally vital to the sheepmen, and the good roads enthusiasts have come forward with a proposition that large bodies of land be sold and the proceeds applied to the building of good roads. The bankers are naturally indirectly interested at least in this proposition, and while the interest of the swine breeders in this topic is only casual, they do have absorbing problems, which will be of considerable interest to the bankers.

Another added feature to the week's busy program is the State Live Stock and Products Exposition, at which it is expected that there will be the largest exhibits of stock ever assembled in New Mexico. It is the first opportunity the stockmen have had to show the financial interests of the state just what they are doing in a broad and official way.

The bankers will have their banquet on Tuesday evening October 5, the cattlemen on Wednesday evening, and the hog men on Thursday evening. The sheepmen will have a social gathering and dinner on Friday evening.

All kinds of stunts have been planned for the visitors and Roswell is preparing to entertain enormous crowds all during the week.

Lee H. Rudisille was down from White Oaks Monday. He says the old camp is hammering along at a pretty good clip and that some interesting developments are near at hand.

State University Adds Latin-American Course

With the announcement today by President D. R. Boyd that Roscoe R. Hill, of Columbia University, has accepted the chair of history in the New Mexico State University, is coupled the even more important announcement that Mr. Hill's coming marks the opening of the department of Latin-American training which the government of the university has had under consideration for some time, and which had to do with the selection of the Columbia man for the post.

Although a general historian of thorough training, Mr. Hill has specialized in the history of the Latin-American republics and is considered an authority therein. He has to his credit years of research work and several volumes on various phases of the history and development of Latin America. It has been the purpose of the university government, when its funds permitted, to establish a department in which special training could be given in the history, language, and commercial and social conditions in the South American republics, to the end of equipping young men for diplomatic and commercial service in those countries. The department has been dictated by the growing demand for men so equipped. The fact that in New Mexico a large part of the young men are equipped to start with a thorough knowledge of Spanish, the official and commercial language of the southern republics, has caused the university authorities to feel that a special service could be rendered this class of the young men by the new department.

It will be the purpose of the department under Professor Hill's direction to so equip young men that they can undertake work in any of the republics of Central and South America with a complete knowledge of social, commercial and industrial condition, a knowledge of history and the language, and thus be prepared to take advantage of the rapidly increasing number of splendid business opportunities these nations are offering and will continue to offer as relations with the United States become more intimate.

COULD SCARCELY WALK ABOUT

And For Three Summers Mrs. Vincent Was Unable to Attend to Any of Her Housework.

Pleasant Hill, N. C.—"I suffered for three summers," writes Mrs. Walter Vincent, of this town, "and the third and last time, was my worst.

I had dreadful nervous headaches and prostration, and was scarcely able to walk about. Could not do any of my housework.

I also had dreadful pains in my back and sides, and when one of those weak, sinking spells would come on me, I would have to give up and lie down, until it wore off.

I was certainly in a dreadful state of health, when I finally decided to try Cardui, the woman's tonic, and firmly believe I would have died if I hadn't taken it.

After I began taking Cardui, I was greatly helped, and all three bottles relieved me entirely.

I fattened up, and grew so much stronger in three months, I felt like another person altogether."

Cardui is purely vegetable and gentle-acting. Its ingredients have a mild, tonic effect, on the womanly constitution.

Cardui makes for increased strength, improves the appetite, tones up the nervous system, and helps to make pale, sallow cheeks, fresh and rosy.

Cardui has helped more than a million weak women, during the past 50 years. It will surely do for you, what it has done for them. Try Cardui today.

A new governor rules in the executive mansion at Santa Fe, and his name is William C. McDonald Spencer. A number of new reforms have been put in operation by the new executive, and he is expected here soon to t... the local management at the Bar W's what to do with the herd over in the big pasture.

A Kansas paper makes the statement that a woman was seriously injured by a boy who threw a stone "against her window sill." We have always thought Kansans were queer, but never dreamed of anyone possessing an anatomy of this character.

Bulgaria continues neutral, despite the pleadings of the allies and the Teutons. It appears that Bulgaria is ready to exclaim:
"How happy could I be with either,

The "Little Father," who has assumed command of the Russian armies, seems to possess one quality of his cousin, the deposed duke—ability to move backward with celerity.

China is thinking of returning to a monarchical form of government. Perhaps that kind is better than none at all.

Largest Tent Show In West at Fair

The biggest order for tents ever received by manufacturers in Denver was the one placed last week by Secretary R. W. Wiley on behalf of the New Mexico state fair to be held in Albuquerque from October 11 to October 16. These tents, it must be remembered, are not bought, but are rented for the week of the fair, on account of the destruction of the fair buildings by fire some time ago.

"They thought I was crazy when I told them what I wanted," said Mr. Wiley in describing his experience with the Denver tent men. "For a long time I couldn't make them believe that the fair management was actually willing to spend all that money in order to give the people of New Mexico the best state fair that they had ever seen." However, the order will be filled, and the visitors to Albuquerque during fair week will see perhaps the most remarkable spread of canvas ever shown anywhere in the United States. This in itself will be a spectacular feature that would be hard to surpass.

The sale of boxes for the fair has been one of the most encouraging incidents connected with the management of the big enterprise. Letters were sent out to a number of prominent business men in every part of New Mexico offering the fair boxes for sale at fifty dollars each. It was not pretended that this sum represented the value of the boxes to those who were asked to purchase them. The offer was simply in the nature of an appeal to the public spirit of the citizens of New Mexico to test their loyalty and enthusiasm for a big enterprise, being undertaken for the benefit of the people of the entire state. The result has surpassed all expectations. Nineteen boxes have been sold, and the returns are not all in.

The fair officials are now getting ready for the big pageant and ceremonial that is to mark the opening day of the big show. Governor McDonald, United States Senators Catron and Fall, Congressman B. C. Hernandez, all the state house officials and every district judge and district attorney in New Mexico are to be extended a special invitation to take part in the opening day ceremonies, and the occasion bids fair to be one of the most notable ones in the history of the state.

The appointment of J. E. Hickey, of Albuquerque as grand marshal of the day was announced last week and was received with gratification by all those interested in the fair. Mr. Hickey, who is widely known throughout the state, is a man of wide experience and splendid executive ability. In the discharge of his duties he will have complete control of the fair grounds and of all the programs taking place in front of the grandstand. The selection is considered a most happy one.

MOTHER OF SCHOOL GIRL

Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Restored Her Daughter's Health.

Plover, Iowa.—"From a small child my 13 year old daughter had female weakness. I spoke to three doctors about it and they did not help her any. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had been of great benefit to me, so I decided to have her give it a trial. She has taken five bottles of the Vegetable Compound according to directions on the bottle and she is cured of this trouble. She was all run down when she started taking the Compound and her periods did not come right. She was so poorly and weak that I often had to help her dress herself, but now she is regular and is growing strong and healthy."—Mrs. MARTIN HELVIG, Plover, Iowa.

Hundreds of such letters expressing gratitude for the good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has accomplished are constantly being received, proving the reliability of this grand old remedy.

If you are ill do not drag along and continue to suffer day in and day out but at once take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a woman's remedy for woman's ills.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

NATIONAL CAPITAL AFFAIRS

Capital Is Threatened With a Deluge of "Nuts"

WASHINGTON.—There is danger of an invasion of the national capital by "nuts"—would-be inventors who have impossible schemes for getting rich and famous. Secretary Daniels' naval advisory board, composed of real scientists and inventors, promises to be the cause of the invasion. Washington patent attorneys admit it is entirely possible that the city will be overrun with "nuts" with alleged wonderful inventions to offer the board.

A man who invents something that turns out well is a genius; the fellow who dreams and invents the things that never get by is a "nut." That's the difference.

That the naval advisory board will encounter both species while it seeks inventions which might aid the United States in time of warfare is regarded as certain. The prospects are, however, that the visionaries, the "nuts," will outnumber by far the genuine inventors who come here for fame, money or the consciousness of rendering a public service.

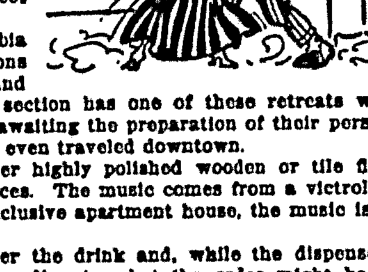
Joseph A. Steinmetz, president of the Pennsylvania Aero club, first voiced apprehension that the naval board would encourage the pilgrimage to Washington of men with hopeless schemes.

J. H. Brickenstein of this city, president of the Patent Law association, says Mr. Steinmetz is right about it and Washington probably will be overrun with impractical ones whose discoveries and inventions will not stand scrutiny.

"Many men with impractical schemes come to Washington as it is," said Mr. Brickenstein. "Every patent attorney encounters well-meaning but misguided fellows who believe they have solved some problem like perpetual motion. Probably 50 per cent of the supposed inventions brought to patent attorneys here are either impractical, or the patent would be comparatively worthless if granted. These men are discouraged by reputable attorneys from wasting their time and money."

Drug Store Glide Is the Latest in Washington

THE drug-store glide is here! During these torrid evenings, with the Fahrenheit thermometers vying with Bethlehem stocks in the battle for ascendancy, the popularization of the modern dances goes upward and onward with the speed of a Teutonic advance in the eastern theater of war.



With the time of the evening ball and the dansant, either past or future, young Washington has adopted the soda-fountain cotillion, which is nothing more or less than a dance in the emporiums devoted to the disposition of confectioneries and sweet beverages.

Mount Pleasant and Columbia Heights led off, but other sections have been enveloped in the fad and now practically every residential section has one of these retreats where youthful couples may dance while awaiting the preparation of their perspiration-producing prescription. It has even traveled downtown.

All of these places have either highly polished wooden or tile floors, which make excellent gliding surfaces. The music comes from a victrola or, if adjoining a cafe or a hotel or exclusive apartment house, the music is furnished by the regular orchestra.

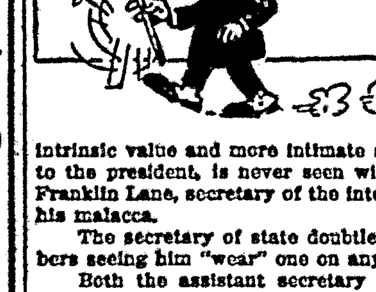
The formula is simply to order the drink and, while the dispenser is drawing, shaking or shoveling, according to what the order might be, the couple glides off in a two-step, hesitation, fox trot or some other gyration. The drink served, one-half is drunk, and then comes an informal intermission. During this hiatus another dance is engaged and when the glass is drained a parting whirl is enjoyed.

The girl politely declines a second drink. But after a short walk the couple either returns to the original place or seeks out some similar establishment where the same courtesies are understood and extended.

Some particularly shy and demure maidens were rather loath to accept the invitations of the management offered through signs which simply read "Dancing." But now it has become rather conventional and there is little hesitancy in joining the others on the floors.

President Belongs to the Cane-Carrying Brigade

ALTHOUGH President Wilson does not call his fondness for walking sticks a fad, a hobby, or even a habit, the fact remains that he has a large and handsome collection, in which he takes a lively interest and constant pleasure. Whenever he walks he selects a plain, stout stick from among the number and carries it after the manner of men who punctuate their steps as they tramp; but inasmuch as the president's chief exercise is golfing, and he always drives to and from the links, he cannot be identified as one who "wears" a stick from choice or habit. He does not even carry one of his ebony sticks to church, but takes the greater pleasure in what his collection of canes means—the variety, intrinsic value and more intimate association. Joseph P. Tumulty, secretary to the president, is never seen without his neat blackthorn, any more than Franklin Lane, secretary of the interior, can be found upon the street without his malacca.



The secretary of state doubtless has walking sticks, but no one remembers seeing him "wear" one on any occasion whatever.

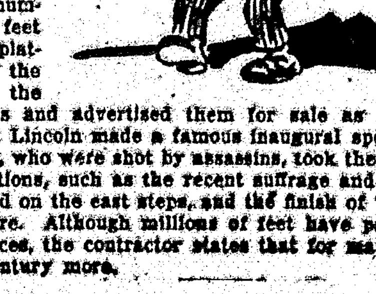
Both the assistant secretary of state, Mr. Osborne, and the third assistant secretary of state, Mr. Phillips, have sticks, but not "the habit," while the second assistant secretary, Mr. Adee, is identified with no other concomitant than his bicycle, with which he has toured the highways and byways of Europe every summer for many years, until the war made it impossible.

The secretary of the treasury wears a slim, snakewood stick, a gift from one of his sons at Christmas, and it is not unusual to meet Secretary McAdoo on the street with Comptroller of the Currency Williams, both of them swinging their sticks as vigorously as they walk only—with a difference.

Secretary McAdoo holds his exactly at the top, in the hollow of his hand, and brings it down to the pavement, tapping each step; Mr. Williams takes his stick half way between the crook and the end, and swings it horizontally.

John R. McLean Buys Front Steps of the Capitol

JOHN R. M'LEAN has bought the front steps of the United States capitol, which are being removed to make way for new ones of granite. It is understood that the historic steps on which presidents have been inaugurated for a century past and which have been the site of gatherings of notable character in the history of the country will become part of a sunken garden for Mr. McLean's country estate.



The old steps are being removed by Arthur Cowsill of this city, who will replace them with granite. The steps to be removed are 35 in number, each 16 inches wide and 60 feet long, with several landings and platforms. As a part of the cost of the work the contractor figured on the historical value of the old steps and advertised them for sale as such.

Upon the old steps President Lincoln made a famous inaugural speech; Presidents Garfield and McKinley, who were shot by assassins, took the oath of office there. Great demonstrations, such as the recent suffrage and temperance crusades, have culminated on the east steps, and the finish of "General" Coxey's army occurred there. Although millions of feet have passed up and down their historic surfaces, the contractor states that for material purposes they are good for a century more.

DESERT AUTO IS NO CAMEL

These Men Forget to Provide Water for Their Desert Ride and Ones Dies.

Failure to think about evaporation in an automobile radiator brought death to one man and frightful tortures to two others, who arrived in Los Angeles from the desert and told of their sufferings. The trio—James S. Roche and John H. Welsh, attorneys, and James G. Clarke, a real estate dealer—left here Sunday in an automobile for El Centro, in the imperial valley.

Monday morning the car stopped in the sand. The radiator was empty and they had no water. Roche and Welsh started after a mirage which they believed was the Salton sea. Clarke waited a day, and then, believing them dead, made his way to Mineral Springs, where he was resuscitated after falling himself in a faint and organized a rescue party. They found Roche unconscious and Welsh dead. Roche said they drank lubricating oil.—Philadelphia Record.

Colorado potatoes at $1.80 per hundred pounds. Welch & Titsworth, Capitan.

It wouldn't be a bad idea to brush up the town a bit before Field Days by cutting down all weeds in front of business houses and residences, on the sidewalks and in the gutters.

Dr. Watson has unloaded a carload of Fords this week. As they are all sold, however, he will have to get in another order at once. There appears to be a limit only to Henry Ford's ability to supply the demand.

Mr. and Mrs. George Ferguson and Mrs. L. Hickerson returned this week from their visit to Indiana.

Good rains have fallen throughout the county the past ten days, and, while they are too late to produce much grass, they will have the effect of greening up the range until frost comes.

Morris B. Parker is here from El Paso, visiting the Rollands and Spencers. Mr. Parker is well known as one of the early mining men in this county, but for a number of years past his mining operations have been largely confined to Mexico.

Mrs. Harry Dixon is in California visiting the fairs and seeing the sights in the Golden state.

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Henley were here Tuesday from Nogal. "Uncle Tom" brought down a fine jar of peaches to the fair committee.

We handle Flour, Feed and Stock Salt. Just received a car of fine Alfalfa and Oat Hay. And we are always pleased to quote prices. Humphrey Bros.

Earl R. Rountree has spent the past week here from Corona. Mr. Rountree is making preparations to start for South America, expecting to leave about October 1. The Argentine Republic is his objective point, but he intends to see a large part of the South American continent before returning.

Charlie Pierce is back at his old home, Evansville, Indiana but only for three weeks, when he and Mrs. Pierce will return.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Bohling are visiting the old home of Mr. Bohling in Indiana. They will be gone a fortnight.

Treasurer Watson, Clerk Harvey and Robert H. Taylor, ex-chairman of the board of county commissioners, expect to be in Clovis, Curry county, next Monday. They are witnesses in the bond suit brought by Ben Bechtel, the court house contractor. There are two suits growing out of the county seat litigation, one against the bondsmen and one against the county, in both of which the contractor is suing to recover damages.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Burrell and children were in Wednesday from the head of the mal pais, and went over to Capitan. Ernest now sports a "Dodge."

Pierce Perry was in town Wednesday. He and Mr. Burrell have just finished a well for Gallocher brothers at Indian Tank. Water was encountered at a depth of 159 feet.

Mrs. George W. Howard and little girl returned Monday of this week from an extended visit to Texas.

Robert H. Taylor, postmaster at White Oaks, was here a short time Wednesday.

James M. Summs passed Wednesday from White Oaks enroute to Water Canon, where he went to look after some mining property.

N. B. Taylor left Sunday night for Santa Fe, from which point he went with U. S. Marshal Hudspeth to Little Rock, Arkansas. They went to convey a federal prisoner to Arkansas' capital, and Mr. Taylor will pay a visit to a brother while there.

J. P. Perry, a ranchman of the Pajarito country, was here several days this week, looking after business matters.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Louis T. Bocot Wednesday a baby girl.

Arch Parker, a well known citizen of the Capitan country is in town today.

There'll be music in the air, both day and night during Field Days. It will not all be made by the small boy with the tin whistle, either. A sixteen piece band will furnish music through the day and a five piece orchestra from the same aggregation will supply music for the dances.

Parsons

Mr. Jack Cohen, of Detroit, Mich., and Arthur Berinstein, of Chicago, left for home the first of the week.

Mr. Bolby, of Warrenton, Mo., was a recent visitor in town.

Mr. Jennings' aunt, Mrs. Lukes, is visiting the family at their home on the Bonito.

Mr. and Mrs. Anderson and Miss Charlotte Rice motored to Carrizozo Monday and spent several hours shopping and calling upon friends before returning home the same day.

There is a good deal of sickness along the Bonito. No one seems to know the source of the trouble, but typhoid fever seems to be getting a foothold here. Mr. James Robison is the latest victim of the malady while Mrs. Berry and several members of the Jennings family are afflicted.

Mr. Harry Lucas has finished his work at the sawmill and returned home the first of the week.

Mr. G. T. Anderson and crew of men spent two days improving the road between Parsons and the Carrizozo-Roswell stage road. With a few exceptions we have a very good automobile road now between here and Carrizozo.

Mr. Lee Oswald and daughter are visiting the family of Mrs. Oswald's brother, Thomas Bragg.

Last Sunday there was a decided falling off of the attendance at the Sunday school due to sickness in several of the families.

The Forest Service is at work on a new trail around the ridges that will connect the Rodemaker-White Mountain trail with the Three Rivers trail.

The friends of Dr. and Mrs. Dryden will be sorry to learn of their bad luck on the second day out from Parsons on their way overland to Pima, Arizona. The doctor and his wife made Alamogordo the first night without accident and the second day started for Las Cruces. They lunched at the White Sands and all went well till they started down the Organ Mountain Divide and something broke about the machine and the emergency brake being deficient, they went dashing down the divide at the rate of seventy-five miles an hour. The doctor finally steered his car into a sand marsh, but seeing an arroya yawning ahead turned back into a bank and landed against a Spanish dagger plant. Neither the doctor nor his wife received any injuries but the car was put out of commission till the repair crew from Las Cruces towed it into town. The friends of Dr. and Mrs. Dryden will be anxious about their welfare till they hear of their safe arrival in Pima. The Ford seems a car in most ways suitable to the needs of this country, but there seems to be something wrong with their emergency brakes.

Another rain—get ready to plant winter wheat.

The Pure Food Bakery has received its shipment of new store fixtures, and now presents a thoroughly up-to-date appearance. This new concern reports that it is increasing its sales every day, and is now supplying all the stores in Carrizozo as well as several stores in neighboring towns. They have been assured of getting the contract to furnish at least 500 loaves of bread for the big barbecue next week.

School Notes

The belated shipments of school furniture are gradually arriving. This week we have received ten more manual training benches, with tool equipment, and eighteen handsome tablet arm chairs for recitation rooms. Three new teacher's desks supplant the last traditional pieces of furniture, making all up-to-date equipment in this line. As soon as the furniture for the 5th and 6th grade room arrives conditions will be the most conducive to good work that it is possible for wise planning to make them.

Basket ball practice is being kept up every afternoon with unflagging interest. Full teams are out, both boys and girls, and second teams to give them the indispensable opposition. Athletic work is being given more care than ever before and the number trying for places on the team makes strong teams a foregone conclusion. The field day series is the especial object of gruelling practice at this particular time and results are sure to follow from the kind of work which these teams are now doing.

An electric bell system has been installed. There are two bells: one announces the close of the general sessions for the grades. The big bell on the top of the building is still authority for the opening of school and the preliminary signals.

A Modern City Drug Store in Town

With the establishment of our mail order department, some two years ago, it places our entire stock of the dainty drug store toilet preparations that are so dear to every woman's heart, at her door; no matter where you live, with the parcel post as it is now regulated, we will be able to fill your orders and deliver them to you without cost for transportation. A post card or a letter will be treated with the same prompt, courteous consideration that you would receive were you to come to our store to make your purchases. We do not confine ourselves to the drug business alone. Write us your wants. Should you not care to buy a money order, give us references with the first order and we will be glad to have your monthly drug store account. We have everything that is advertised at the advertised prices. Drop us a note when you want a can of tooth powder or anything else, and see how quickly you will receive it.
