Race Feeling

Running High

The following dispatches are given for what they are worth. A deplorable condition exists along the border, if these dispatches are to be relied on, and portray quite clearly the race feeling growing along the Rio Grande.

Houston, Texas, Aug. 11.—Governor Ferguson tonight telegraphed from Rockport, where he is spending his vacation, to President Wilson asking the latter to double the number of federal troops now on duty in the Rio Grande valley.

Governor Ferguson said he purposely delayed making the request, hoping the situation might clear up. Conditions now are perilous and grave, he added.

Governor Ferguson's telegram recites that citizens are being murdered and property looted, and continues:

"The marauders are mostly Mexicans from across the border and only a few are American citizens.

"I have increased our ranger forces almost to the maximum, and yet, on account of the great area of the disturbed district, it is doubtful whether I longer can control the situation. I do not overdraw the picture when I say that a reign of terror exists on the Mexican border and that any unusual occurrence now would cause a disastrous invasion of Texas from Mexico."

Brownsville, Tex., Aug. 11.—Practically every American citizen in the three southernmost counties of Texas, Cameron, Hidalgo and Starr, is under arms tonight in fear that the overwhelming Mexican population of the section may break out in a racial fight.

The disturbances, attributed to Mexicans on the international border, spread rapidly today. Rumors of trouble came from widely separated localities, some of them even from Laredo, on the border, 200 miles distant from Brownsville. The outstanding feature of the day's developments was the circulation of a rumor in many quarters—even reaching to the state department at Washington—that the disturbance was an effort on the part of untutored Mexicans to turn back a portion of Texas to Mexican control. This scheme, it was rumored, was backed by ignorant Mexicans living on the American side of the Rio Grande, assisted by escaped convicts and fugitives from justice and also, according to the report by a considerable number of irresponsible Mexicans, both soldiers and civilians, who were said to have crossed the border from Mexico. Impetus was given the movement, it is believed, in many quarters by border political conditions.

San Antonio, Tex., Aug. 11.—Major General Frederick Funston, in command of United States troops on the border, has sent a report to Washington, it was announced tonight, indicating that secret organizers are enticing Mexicans under the so-called plan of San Diego. The plan calls for the death of every American male over the age of 16 in the states bordering on the Rio Grande and in New Mexico, Colorado, Arizona and California. This would be followed by the seizure of these states and the establishment of a republic for Mexicans, negroes, Japanese and Chinese.

The portion of Texas which the supporters of the San Diego plan would restore to Mexico embraces 21,514 square miles and according to the census of 1910, includes 146,538 inhabitants. Of this number more than 60 per cent are Mexicans, mostly of the poorer class. For the past two years dissatisfied Texas-Mexicans and refugees from across the border have been spreading the principles of the plan. Lodges have been established in many localities peopled by Mexicans.

Information given to General Funston is said to lead to the belief that normal conditions will not be restored in the valley until enough troops are distributed to form a sufficient guard for every village in the Brownsville territory.

The "plan of San Diego" derives its name from a meeting of Mexicans held at San Diego, Tex., a small border town, in the spring of 1914, at which resolutions were adopted calling for the restoration of certain territory to Mexico. Several Mexicans were arrested at that time with copies of the resolutions in their possession. They were charged with sedition but later were released without trial.

We Misrepresented

Some two or three weeks ago we had occasion to call attention to some sheafs of wheat brought to our office by W. M. Ferguson and stated that the crop grown, relying on Mr. Ferguson's statement, would probably thresh out 20 bushels to the acre. However, since that statement was made the grain has been threshed, the ground upon which it grew measured, and the yield foots up a little more than 30 bushels to the acre.

It will be remembered that this wheat was grown without irrigation, and is pretty conclusive proof that wheat would have been a very profitable crop for our farmers this year. Anyhow, our 50 per cent error was on the right side of the ledger.

White Oaks

Dr. F. S. Randles is spending a few days here visiting friends and doing some dental work.

Mr. and Mrs. Phil Reasoner moved their household goods to Jicarilla Monday and will make that their future home.

Hon. A. H. Hudspeth came up from Carrizozo Saturday evening and left the following day for Santa Fe.

A large crowd attended the dance here Saturday night.

Miss Monie Wilson who has been here for the past two months visiting her aunt, Mrs. Lee H. Rudisille, left last week for her home at Artesia, N. M.

Wayne Van Schoyck and R. H. Taylor were in Carrizozo on business Friday.

Mrs. J. E. Bell and sister, Miss Nelle Coombs came up from Carrizozo last week for a few days visit with friends. They were joined here Saturday evening by J. E. Bell and Dr. and Mrs. R. E. Lucas and spent the next day picnicking in the mountains.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Lane and children, Mrs. William Watson and Mrs. S. S. Burgey enjoyed a picnic in Water canyon Monday.

John Gallacher and William Kelt were in from the Gallacher ranch Tuesday.

D. C. Smith left Monday for Douglas, Arizona.

Mrs. Marie Dessinger, of Hillsboro, N. M., is here for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chris Schale.

MAUD, AGAIN

Maud Muller on a summer's day
As usual raked the well-known hay.
The Judge rode by in his limousine,
And lamped Friend Maud in a field of green.
"What is your name?" he asked. "My Lawd!
Don't laugh," she said, "my name is Maud."
"As a candidate," began the Judge,
"I beg you accept this box of fudge;
"You will vote for me? The reason why
Is merely this: I AM A DRY."
"Sorry," said Maud, "though a suffragette,
I beg to inform you that I am a 'Wet.'"
"Ahem," said the Judge, as he cleared his throat;
"I'm only 'dry' until after the vote."

BOOM NEW MEXICO FAIR

President Putney and His Party of Swift Boosters Here and Stir Interest

Lincoln's Commissioners Appropriate $500 For County Exhibit; Reduced Fares Assured; World-wide Attractions Make It the Greatest of Western Fairs

R. E. Putney, president of the New Mexico state fair commission, D. A. Macpherson, president of the Albuquerque Morning Journal, and R. L. D. McAllister, of the editorial staff of that paper, were in Carrizozo yesterday in the interest of the state fair to be held from October 11 to October 16 inclusive. They arrived from Roswell Thursday afternoon by auto, having appeared before the county commissioners of Chaves county and secured an appropriation to secure the display of an exhibit of the county's resources at the fair.

On the auto with the Albuquerque party were County Commissioners W. M. Ferguson and Rinaldo Duran, who had been asked by telephone to come into town to hear Mr. Putney's proposition. Commissioner Franks arrived from his home last night, and the three commissioners met in the court house this morning. Mr. Putney explained that the state fair was not asking for one cent of money for itself and that it could not legally take money from the counties even if it so desired. What was wanted, he said, was to be sure that every county in the state is represented at the fair by a display of its resources. Fourteen counties have been approached, he said, and fourteen counties have responded to the call.

In the past, Mr. Putney explained, counties have promised that they would make an exhibit, and that would be the last of it. This time, he said, it was desired to have them actually make an appropriation of not less than $500 each, to be placed in the hands of local committees who would be interested in seeing the county put its best foot forward at the fair.

After hearing from Mr. Putney the county commissioners unanimously voted to appropriate $500 for the purpose of getting together a Lincoln county exhibit. Postmaster J. A. Haley was appointed chairman of the committee that is to handle the funds, and will select two other committeemen to serve with him.

Mr. Putney was high in the praise of Lincoln county and stated that the county could not afford to be among the absentees in the list of counties at the fair. No richer mineral deposits are to be found in the state, he said, than here in Lincoln county, while the live stock and agricultural resources of the county are among the finest in the southwest.

Mr. Putney emphasized the fact that the fair this year is not to be a cheap street carnival affair with the snake-eater and the sword swallower the leading attractions of the fair. It is to be, he said, a real exposition of the resources of every county in the state with view to bringing the various sections of New Mexico closer together and developing their splendid possibilities. The spectacular features that go with every fair, he said, had not been overlooked, for nobody wanted to stroll around and look at the exhibits for a week without having some amusement while doing so.

Accordingly, Mr. Putney explained, some of the best amusement features to be obtained in the United States have been secured for the fair. The Kilties band, one of the most famous musical organizations in the world, clad in their native costumes, with bagpipe players and sword dancers, will be one of the principal musical attractions. An entire squadron of cavalry from Columbus, N. M., with its mounted band of 32 pieces and its polo team, will be another conspicuous feature. The polo ponies will be shipped in special cars in the care of expert horsemen and the squadron will march overland from Columbus to Albuquerque.

Special attention has been paid to developing New Mexico institutions in arranging for the fair. The famous girls' band of Clovis will make the trip to the fair and will give daily concerts.

Through the instrumentality of Mr. Putney a special rate of nine dollars for the round trip from Roswell to Albuquerque has been made for the cadets of the New Mexico Military Institute, who will travel in a special train and will camp at Albuquerque for the week of the fair. The battalion is admittedly one of the best military organizations in the United States, ranking hardly less in importance than the West Pointers, and their drills at the fair will be something that nobody can afford to miss.

Experts are now at work, Mr. Putney said, in arranging for the decoration of the city of Albuquerque for the fair, and the city will be a blaze of color and light during the week that the fair is in progress. A rate of one fare for the round trip would be made for the week of the fair and there is every prospect that record breaking crowds will be on hand to see the biggest fair that has ever been attempted in New Mexico.

GOOD ROADS

AGITATION FOR GOOD ROADS

Less Being Said About Betterment of Public Highways Than Two or Three Years Previously.

What has become of the wide-spread good-roads agitation of two and three years ago? Is it dying down and giving way to something else? Have our roads been improved to such an extent that we can let up on the campaign that swept back and forth across the country or are we simply getting tired of it and somewhat indifferent about it?

There is no doubt in my mind that less is being said about the necessity for bettering our roads than was said two and three and four years back, writes B. C. Varnum in Farm Progress. I must confess that in three states I have visited within the last six months I have seen nothing to convince me that we are even approaching the good roads millennium. I believe there is more work being done in some communities than was done a few years back, but in others there is little or no change. In some neighborhoods I am sure there has been a let up in the work since the crusade started to die down.

It all turns back upon the proposition that what is everybody's business is nobody's business. We all have a spasm of the good roads fever and pitch in and help out for awhile and then our attention is gradually taken up by something else. We begin to neglect our part of dragging the roads and cease to donate work or money to the upkeep of the high ways. We leave it to the road bosses or overseers and they are busy mending looking after their own private affairs, and the whole movement slows up.

Before we have anything approaching really good roads all over the country the machinery for looking after the roads will have to be created. A county highway engineer is needed, but we need something more. One man cannot look after all the highways, brick, stone, concrete macadam and dirt, of any fair-sized county. We can't keep up our roads without an organization to keep after them all the time. Nor can we build them without putting more money into them and then following this up with more money. Those of us who believe the Federal government ought to build all our highways will wait a long and weary time if they wait till the government puts in the permanent roadways.

We are making a great mistake if we permit the good roads movement to die. Rural credit is an important thing, better schools and better churches are needed and better farming and marketing arrangements are of great importance, but the good roads problem will have to be partially solved before we can get the right answer to many others.

At every farmers' club and grange meeting, institute and fair this year the subject should be brought up and kept up. This fall we ought to get back into the battle once more even if it is an old struggle. We may know all about the statistics of what good roads cost us yearly, but possibly the other fellow doesn't, or if he did know, has forgotten. Most of our movements have to be worked out and planned for in the winter, and we must see what can be done during the coming autumn and winter for better roads.

In the meantime we can drag and work and do a little missionary duty. Keep the road drag going every day this summer when it is needed and when you can spare the time.

Commands Attention.

It is again the time of year when the subject of good roads commands practical as well as theoretical attention.

Greatest Chasm.

The greatest chasm between the producer and the consumer is the mud hole.

Increase Farm Value.

A paved road leading to or past your farm ought to increase its value from $10 to $25 per acre.

NEWS and GOSSIP of WASHINGTON

Aunty Has Absolute Faith in President Wilson

WASHINGTON.—There may be those who criticize the president in the matter of the controversy between the United States and Germany, but one old colored woman of Washington plus her faith to President Wilson, because "he was raised right."

In Augusta, Ga., she knew the president when he was a boy, and her Sunday school teacher was young Woodrow Wilson's mother.

"Dey tell me dat Mistah Bryan is de one in de right," she said to her employer the other morning. "Well, he's ag'in drinkin' an' so is I. But I jes' tell 'em dey ain' no 'casion to tell me dat Mistah Wilson done anything mean, 'cause I jes' natchelly knows dat ain' de trufe. He warn't raised no sech er way. I knowed him when he 'uz a boy," she went on, "en' his mothah she done taught me in de Sunday schools. Yassuh, he 'uz sho'ly raised right, en' all his folks is dat kind—jes' all good Preab'terians. I knowed 'em, en' I know dey is to be trusted fer sense en' fer goodness. I knows dat fer myse'f."

"I's goin' up ter de White House soon's I kin en' make myse'f knowed to do president. I's jes' goin' to say ter him w'en I sees him, 'Mistah President Wilson, heah's one fer shore w'at ain' goin' ter b'leve nothin' ag'in you-all, sub, 'cause I knows foh myse'f dat it ain't true. Tain' no use er talkin', dey's de Lawd's own people, and de president is goin' ter do de Lawd's w'uk."

"No, ain' nobody need ter tell me nuffin' 'bout Mistah Wilson. De president he's clean, soul an' body, 'cause he 'uz raised jes' dat er way. He ain't goin' ter do nuffin' mean er low ter nobody. He's jes' natchully Gawd's own chile. en' he er goin' ter lead up de nation in de way er righteousness. Ain' I tol' yer his ma done teach me in de Sunday school?"

Uncle Sam Produces Only Truly Accurate Maps

IN a manufacturing enterprise that is open to all comers—the making and publishing of maps—Uncle Sam, through his geological survey, competes with such success that he is pretty generally recognized to be the only producer of truly accurate maps in the country. As a natural result, he practically monopolizes the business in so far as it relates to land areas within his own national boundaries.

The government maps are bought in large quantities by dealers every year, and, being resold in shops, find their way into the hands of thousands of citizens who seldom realize that they are purchasing a government-made article. But so firmly has the government established itself as a map maker in the minds of persons who know the fundamentals of good maps that the geological survey product is specified in many of the calls for bids on big map orders.

Altogether, over half a million maps and map folios are distributed each year by the geological survey, the majority of them being sold approximately at cost and the remainder being given away. This business is growing constantly, and its educational value in one field alone is indicated by the estimate of officials of the survey that fully 20 per cent of the maps distributed find their way into the educational institutions of the country. In addition the majority of the maps used in school geographies are compiled by commercial publishers from maps made by the survey.

The usefulness of the geological survey as a maker of topographic maps to the various branches of the government and to the public is practically unlimited. Of great value in connection with boundary matters to the state department and in connection with delivery routes to the post office department, scrupulously accurate maps are obviously indispensable to the war department and to the marine corps of the navy in working out the national defense.

Thirty Cents Puzzles Secretary of the Treasury

A COMMUNICATION addressed to "Mr. and Mrs. W. S. McAdoo, Secretary and Treasurer, United States Mint, Federal and Penn Streets, Washington, D. C., Care of Postmaster," has been delivered to the secretary of the treasury as the official of the government most nearly answering to the name, titles and address given. But there is a mystery regarding the screeled written upon this post card that makes Secretary McAdoo doubtful if it is indeed meant for him; yet there are other references that appear to make it certain that the writer was addressing himself to him.

"Have received the money 30c O. K. & very much obliged for kind favors. May send more next when I have some."

What 30 cents? Secretary McAdoo is not conscious of having parted with six tinneys to a correspondent who can be identified as the writer of the post card. And who is to send more next time? Is it a suggestion that Secretary McAdoo increase his remittances? Or is there a prospect of his receiving a rebate and an offset on the 30 cents alleged to have been forwarded?

"Did you name the baby boy after me, W. C. or C. W. McAdoo?" is a question asked.

Now, as the correspondent signs initials to his note, one of which is "C," it is not quite obvious what he means, especially as the newcomer in the McAdoo household is a wee young lady and has been given the name of Ellen Wilson McAdoo.

Duplicate of Solomon's Temple in Washington

WHAT is considered one of the most beautiful and artistic buildings in Washington, "the city beautiful," is nearing completion. It is the new Scottish Rite Temple on Sixteenth street, one of Washington's finest residential streets. It has been in course of construction more than four years and will cost about $1,750,000, including the property, when completed. Every effort is being made to have it finished so that it can be dedicated in October of this year during the meeting of the supreme council of the Scottish Rite.

The new structure is said to be the only exact duplicate of King Solomon's temple that has ever been built. The building proper is of Indiana limestone, while the steps, an important feature, are of Millford (Mass.) granite. The steps leading to the main entrance are 200 feet in length, larger than those of the capitol, and said to be the largest in the city.

There are many special features of this remarkable building, not the least being the library, containing the most complete collection of Masonic literature in the world.

Another of the special features of this structure are the two great sphinxes, which will guard the main door. They will cost $12,000. The blocks of stone from which they are being carved are said to be the largest ever quarried in this country. They come from Scotland, but

WAITED LONG FOR PROBATE

After Twenty Years Son Produces Father's Will—Testator's Instructions Had Been Obeyed.

Undiscovered for nearly twenty years after his death, the will of Johann Michael Muller has been offered for probate at Baltimore by his son, John G. A. Muller. The testator died March 13, 1896, having made his will on May 31, 1899.

The paper, yellow and musty with age, left all Mr. Muller's property to his wife, Elizabeth Barbara Muller. She died April 30, 1915, and her son was appointed administrator of her estate. He had known of the existence of the will for several months prior to his mother's death, but since all the property had been enjoyed by Mrs. Muller as her husband had desired, it was not thought necessary to probate the will at that time.

The son says the property will now be divided between his two brothers and himself, since his mother died intestate. The exact value of the estate has not been determined, but it is made up almost entirely of parcels of real estate.

Modernizing the Roundup.

Each year seems to give the automobile a new hold on life. The war brought it to the forefront in a new field. The soldier of the present day seldom makes long forced marches like Sherman's march to the sea. He travels by motor car. As a result, the automobile casualty list is tremendous; the average life of a car in the battle lines is estimated at thirty days. But it is not only the war zone that has lost part of its picturesqueness through the use of the automobile, the latter has begun to rob the annual cattle roundup of some of its thrills by replacing the horse. This year has seen the ubiquitous car with a cowboy at its wheel on our western prairies discouraging the cattle from attempts to escape from the ever-narrowing circle in the roundup. Many a steer which has given a cow horse a run must feel disconcerted when it bucks up against the four-wheeled steed.—Wall Street Journal

Wrong Document.

The "Tommy" on leave from the front had been given a free railway pass to take him home to see his people, and utilized part of his brief holiday to get married. On the return journey, when the ticket inspector asked to see his pass, he produced by accident his marriage certificate.

The inspector handed the paper back with a glimmer of a smile. "This is a ticket for a very long and wearisome journey, young man," he said, "but not on this line."

Hard on Her.

"This ten o'clock closing is a nuisance," observed a shawled lady to her neighbor.

"Well, what difference does it make to you, seein' you never drink?"

"Why, once my 'usband always come 'ome at eleven after we was all in bed, and glad he was to get any bits of supper left for 'im. But now he's in at ten, and the trouble I 'ave to get anything he fancies you can't imagine."

His Reason for Thinking So.

Easily Pleased.
"Guess I'd better order a few going-away gowns," said she brightly.
"Nix on the going-away gowns, my dear," said her husband gloomily. "I can't afford to take you anywhere this summer."
"All right," was the cheerful response. "Then I'll order a few staying-at-home gowns."

Limitations.

The Effects of Opiates.

THAT INFANTS are peculiarly susceptible to opium and its various preparations, all of which are narcotic, is well known. Even in the smallest doses, if continued, these opiates cause changes in the functions and growth of the cells which are likely to become permanent, causing imbecility, mental perversion, a craving for alcohol or narcotics in later life. Nervous diseases, such as intractable nervous dyspepsia and lack of staying powers are a result of dosing with opiates or narcotics to keep children quiet in their infancy. The rule among physicians is that children should never receive opiates in the smallest doses for more than a day at a time, and only then if unavoidable.

The administration of Anodynes, Drops, Cordials, Soothing Syrups and other narcotics to children by any but a physician cannot be too strongly decried, and the druggist should not be a party to it. Children who are ill need the attention of a physician, and it is nothing less than a crime to dose them willfully with narcotics.

INFORMATION EASY TO GIVE

Daddy Happily in Possession of Knowledge as to Where One Vacuum Was Located.

The good man had just been informed by the only person who could possibly possess the information that he hadn't an ounce of sense, that he had never had an ounce of sense, and that there was not the remotest chance that he ever would have an ounce of sense.

Having been assured on these points, the good man turned to his paper, only to be interrupted by his young son and heir:

"Father," asked the boy, "what is a vacuum and where can I find one?"

"My boy," replied the good man, "if we are to assume that your mother is qualified to speak on the subject, I possess the only real vacuum in the neighborhood and, for your further information, it is situated just between my collar and the glossy open space where I used to grow hair."

"You mean your dome?"

"Yes, my son, that is the family vacuum."

Insects and Crops.

It has long been a belief of the Apache Indians that the appearance of insects in early spring indicates a good crop.

DAISY FLY KILLER placed anywhere, attracts and kills all flies. Most efficient, economical, convenient, cheap. Kills all species of house flies, stable flies, etc. No odor, no taint, no injury to anything. Guaranteed effective. All dealers or direct express paid for $1.00. BLACK LEG LOSSES SURELY PREVENTED by Carter's Blacking Pills. Low priced, from reliable source. Write for booklet and business reply. 18-dose pkg. Blacking Pills $1.00. 25-dose pkg. Blacking Pills $1.50. The only doctor, but Carter's best. The superiority of Carter's products is due to over 11 years of practical experience in medicine and surgery. Write as Carter's. If unsatisfactory, order direct. THE CUTLER LABORATORY, Berkeley, California.

PARKER'S HAIR BALM A toilet preparation of merit. Helps to eradicate dandruff. For Restoring Color and Beauty to Gray or Faded Hair. Sold and $1.00 at Druggists.

His Preference. A gentleman in delivering one of a series of addresses excused himself one evening for being unable to speak on several points, the mice, he said, having destroyed part of his notes. Later, while visiting in the neighborhood, he asked one man: "Were you at any of my lectures, Rooney?" Rooney—"Indeed I was, yer honor; all of them." Lecturer—"Which one did you like best?" Rooney—"The one the mice was at, yer honor!"

Natural Procedure. When telling the story of the Pilgrim Fathers to the children of a primary grade in a large city the leader tried to impress upon them the fact that the country was barren at that time. Later they were told of the planting, the harvest, the great feast, and the thankful attitude of those early settlers. Finally she asked: "What did the Pilgrims do after the great feast?" After a moment's silence a little girl said, "They went by the moving picture."

From Corn to Toasties

—a capital evolution

The ripened kernels of pearly white Indian Corn with their succulent goodness, are cooked, then rolled into thin, wafery bits, and toasted to a golden brown.

Add a little cream and sugar—perhaps some fresh berries—and the combination smacks wondrous good.

Post Toasties are untouched by human hand from start to finish of the making, and come to you crisp and sweet—ready to eat from the package. Wholesome, nourishing—a Royal dish for hot days—and all days.

Biggest Crop in History

Washington, Aug. 9.—Three billion bushels of corn, one and a half billion bushels of oats and a billion bushels of wheat are in prospect for this year's American harvest.

The wheat crop, the greatest ever grown in any country, will be worth more than $1,000,000,000, while the corn crop's value may reach $2,500,000,000.

Corn prospects increased almost 100,000,000 bushels, the principal gains having been: Illinois, 13; Minnesota, 12; Kansas, 24; Oklahoma, 20; Nebraska, 15; Iowa, 14; and Texas, 10.

Kansas shows a loss of 12,000,000 bushels in winter wheat, Oklahoma 64,000,000, Nebraska 4,000,000 and Missouri 3,000,000, while Ohio and Indiana showed an increase of 3,000,000 bushels each.

Exports Increased, Imports Decreased

The effect of the war on the United States is shown by these comparisons, based on figures from October, 1913, to August, 1914, the ten months preceding the war, and from August, 1914, to June 15, the first ten months of the war, the latter being the latest figures now available.

Exports during the war have gained $394,000,000, or 20 per cent, and imports have shrunk $249,000,000, or 15 per cent.

An export balance in favor of the United States has grown from $345,000,000 to almost $1,000,000,000.

A surplus export of gold of $83,000,000 has been turned to a surplus import of $6,000,000.

The usual surplus export of silver has decreased by $2,000,000.

American steamships show an increase of approximately 200 per cent in business.

American sailing ships show an increase of 231 per cent.

Exports of "animals" have risen from $954,000 in April, 1914, to $9,400,000 in April, 1915.

Exports of breadstuffs were $9,000,000 in April, 1914, and $67,700,000 in April of this year.

In April, 1914, $39,000 worth of oats were exported, and $10,600,000 last April.

Trade with Germany, Austria-Hungary and Belgium is at a standstill, but is large with other belligerent nations.

Forest Receipts Large

National Forests turned into the United States treasury during the fiscal year ended June 30, 1915, nearly $2,500,000, an increase of more than $40,000 over the receipts of the previous year, according to a statement just issued by the forest service.

The timber sales, which amounted to $1,164,000, yielded on account of the depressed condition of the lumber industry about $79,000 less than those of the previous fiscal year, but the gain was made possible by larger revenues from other sources.

The grazing receipts, which totaled $1,125,000, increased $127,000 over last year, and the water power receipts, which amounted to not quite $90,000, showed an increase of nearly $42,000.

In Arizona and New Mexico the national forests brought in $390,000. Of this amount total of 46 per cent, or $182,000, goes to the states and counties for roads and schools.

State University Has Large Enrollment

When the University of New Mexico opens for the college year of 1915-16 next Tuesday, August 17, the opening enrollment will show the most notable growth in the history of the institution.

A statement made yesterday by the registrar shows that more than 200 students will apply for admission, or resume their work on the opening day.

While this number does not seem large compared to the thousands who enroll in the great eastern universities, yet it compares favorably with the state universities of the other newer western states.

and the advancement in the New Mexico institution is better understood by a comparison with recent openings.

Three years ago, when President David R. Boyd assumed the direction of the university, the total enrollment was 99, of whom only 42 were of full college grade.

Two years ago the total enrollment reached 110, of whom 71 were of college grade. Or the more than 200 who will enroll next Tuesday all but twelty will enter full college rank and work. The meaning of this big increase in total enrollment, and also in the standard of work being done, indicates two very important facts.

The first is that New Mexico parents and New Mexico young men and women have begun to appreciate that a college education may be had within our own state.

The second is that the university is fully prepared in faculty and equipment, to do that high standard of university work which the progressive young man and young woman of today demand.

Advertisement for GARDUI The Woman's Tonic. It Always Helps. Says Mrs. Sylvania Woods, of Clifton Mills, Ky., in writing of her experience with Gardui, the woman's tonic. She says further: "Before I began to use Gardui, my back and head would hurt so bad, I thought the pain would kill me. I was hardly able to do any of my housework. After taking three bottles of Gardui, I began to feel like a new woman. I soon gained 35 pounds, and now, I do all my housework, as well as run a big water mill. I wish every suffering woman would give GARDUI The Woman's Tonic a trial. I still use Gardui when I feel a little bad, and it always does me good. Headache, backache, side ache, nervousness, tired, worn-out feelings, etc., are sure signs of womanly trouble. Signs that you need Gardui, the woman's tonic. You cannot make a mistake in trying Gardui for your trouble. It has been helping weak, ailing women for more than fifty years. Get a Bottle Today!"

The Auditor Case

Elsewhere in this issue will be found a communication entitled "Stopped the Clock." It deals, by illustration, with the celebrated and notorious Traveling Auditor case, quoting a portion of the state supreme court's opinion therein. With reference to the authorship of the article we need only say it must be evident to the reader that it is the product of a legal mind, and we will add that the author is one of our ablest citizens and his integrity and fairness are unquestioned.

We especially desire to call attention to the indented paragraph which is a quotation from the decision, and from which it may be inferred that the legislature, having disregarded the constitution twenty-four hours might well do so twenty-four days; for, to quote from the decision:

"It [the legislature] has the power to make its journal conform to what it determines to be that moment of time." Sufficient attitude to create the belief that the constitution is only "a scrap of paper" after all. Notwithstanding the "sound doctrine," the conclusion must be that the creature (the legislature) is supreme and its creator (the constitution) is already in the sear and yellow.

The Blind Institute

One of the most progressive and beneficial institutions in the state is that for the blind located at Alamogordo. A perusal of the institute's report, supplied through the courtesy of Superintendent Pratt, shows what the institute has accomplished and its increasing usefulness for the future. The unfortunates who are thus assisted to an education and to some usefulness and practical calling in life through the generosity of the state are showing an advancement far beyond the expectations of the founders of the institution, and for which the board of directors and institute faculty are to be congratulated. Two of the board of directors reside in Lincoln county, George B. Barber and A. J. Roland, the former being president of the board.

A perusal of records, courts' and commissioners', in Santa Fe and some of the other counties that harbor real bosses will convince the most skeptical of who don't pay the taxes. To be a friend of the assessor, the board of county commissioners, and of the district attorney, comes in handy once every seven or eight years.

Instead of worrying about that $9,200 taken from the state treasury under an appropriation bill, which bears an endorsement of irregularity, the tax payers of the state had better get busy and prepare to keep the gang from getting the entire bank roll of the state the next time. It took that crowd one extra day to put over this and other like stuff the last time; but the possibilities for the future are great. If the same old bunch is in control next time, already possessing the O. K. of the supreme court, the treasury till will be as empty of coin as its ravishers are of honor.

Germany has sprung more surprises on the world, if half of the reports be true, than all her opponents combined. Her system of espionage has astonished the world, and her operations in Russia, just now becoming public, create a kind of creepy feeling.

Johnny Bull's obstinacy in refusing to recognize the right of America to ship goods to neutrals may easily reach the acute stage. In the tremendous fight between themselves, the European countries have entirely overlooked the rights of neutrals.

It is now said that gold fillings and wedding rings are being collected in Germany to maintain a gold reserve. This report may have little more foundation than many others coming across, but Ernest Seton Thompson vouches for its authenticity.

The traditional friendship existing between this country and Great Britain may require an amendment. It will be forgotten entirely if Johnny Bull continues to interfere with American shipments to neutral ports.

And now comes the tale that many of the Russian ammunition boxes, when opened, were found to contain only rubbish, Blood Tentons, but Russian born, are accredited with the deed.

It has been over a hundred years, it is true, but England should not so readily forget her attempt to monkey with American ships.

The Tariff Bogy

Saturday Evening Post

In this last fiscal year our purchases of foreign goods were smaller by two hundred million dollars than in the year before, and at the end of the period commodity prices in the United States, as reflected by Bradstreet's index number, were the highest ever known. But in spite of that the country, our protectionist friends tell us, is being mysteriously ruined by the pauper labor of Europe.

The aforesaid labor is getting killed and maimed to an extent that appalls the world. The factories in which it was employed are increasingly disorganized by war. The capital behind it is being shot away at the rate of tens of millions of dollars a day. But those things were mere brook-reeds to lean upon, unless we are further fortified by a very high tariff.

You might sink Europe in the sea tomorrow, and your true high

Taxpayers' Association

Santa Fe, N. M., August 10.—

It is stated on good authority that as a result of the active interest of a number of prominent business men in all parts of New Mexico, a call will be issued very soon for an organization meeting in this city of the long talked of state taxpayers' association. Bankers, merchants, stockmen and others have become interested in the movement and the formal call probably will be issued in time to hold the meeting during the session of the state tax commission, to begin on August 30 and continue for ten days. Governor McDonald, it is understood, has given his approval to the movement and will join in signing the call, as will members of the tax commission. The proposed association will be strictly non-political and will not seek to interfere with the work of the tax commission or with individual assessments; devoting its energies toward better public understanding of taxation and revenue matters and greater economy and efficiency in disbursing public moneys.

protectionist would still go about false and trembling unless he had in his pocket the rabbit's foot of high duties to fend off the specter of pauper labor. A Europe with both arms in a sling and not a leg to stand on would still frighten him into gooseflesh unless he had the tariff horseshoe over his door.

So the tariff will no doubt be one of the issues of the next presidential election, and if the republicans win we shall have another revision of it. The loudest champions of high protection do not want an intelligent tariff; they want a political one, with the usual logrolling. This is painful to contemplate, but as neither democrats, or republicans seem at all minded to take the tariff out of politics there is probably no help for it.

COULD NOT STAND ON FEET

Mrs. Baker So Weak—Could Not Do Her Work—Found Relief in Novel Way.

Adrian, Mich.—"I suffered terribly with female weakness and backache and got so weak that I could hardly do my work. When I washed my dishes I had to sit down and when I would sweep the floor I would get so weak that I would have to get a drink every few minutes, and before I did my dusting I would have to lie down. I got so poorly that my folks thought I was going into consumption. One day I found a piece of paper blowing around the yard and I picked it up and read it. It said 'Saved from the Grave,' and told what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for women. I showed it to my husband and he said, 'Why don't you try it?' So I did, and after I had taken two bottles I felt better and I said to my husband, 'I don't need any more,' and he said, 'You had better take it a little longer anyway.' So I took it for three months and got well and strong."—Mrs. ALONZO E. BAKER, 9 Tecumseh St., Adrian, Mich.

Not Well Enough to Work.
In these words is hidden the tragedy of many a woman, housekeeper or wage earner who supports herself and is often helping to support a family, on meagre wages. Whether in house, office, factory, shop, store or kitchen, woman should remember that there is one tried and true remedy for the ills to which all women are prone, and that is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It promotes that vigor which makes work easy. The Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

NEW PARISIAN MODELS

UMBRELLA OUTLINE NOTICED ON THE LATEST SKIRTS.

May Signify Change in Forthcoming Styles—Lemon-Yellow Linen Promises to Be Popular—Smart Little Cherry-Red Coat.

Redfern is making some practical and attractive white serge suits for seaside wear. He has always been in favor of plaited skirts, but on some of these white suits I noticed the umbrella outline, and I found it admirable, writes Idalla de Villiers, Paris correspondent of the London Globe.
One model which pleased me especially had an umbrella skirt which buttoned up the front and which had large side pockets. The coat was half-length, with a shaped basque and a waist belt which buttoned on at the side seams. There was a plain roll over collar and wide turn-back cuffs. Both collar and cuffs were caught down by ivory buttons and the coat was lined with chintz, silk which showed pale blue and pink flowers on a white background.
Some of the more elaborate Redfern suits have pipings and buttons made of glove kid. This idea was successfully carried out on a large suit in hedgesparrow-egg blue, which was accompanied by a shirtwaist made of fine white organdie muslin. All the pipings on the coat and skirt were done in hedgesparrow-blue glove kid and there were rows of tiny blue kid buttons on the front of the high-necked blouse.
Redfern seems fond of lemon-yellow lines, one of the most popular novelties of the present season. The Parisiennes are charmed with lemon-yellow linen and muslin and they have the costumes made of these materials finished with sashes in ivory-white or Belgian blue taffeta.
Lemon-yellow may be said to be the color of the season, for dresses and for hats. It is especially in demand for dinner gowns and for picturesque wraps which are thrown on over oldered with very fine black braiddings. The coat opened over a white linen waistcoat which was fastened with ball buttons made of cherry-red enamel and there was an effective touch of dull blue in the lining.

Colored linen coats are the rage of the hour. They are worn over linen, serge, cloth and silk skirts, and in all circumstances they are decorative and novel. Pansy-purple linen, lined with black and white striped silk, makes a beautiful coat for wearing with white skirts. The same may be said for loose garments made of Joffre-blue or rose Dubarry-pink linen.

ONLY A HINT OF MILITARISM
American Women Have Refused to Go to Extremes in Styles—New Turban Models.

Though there was, before the Paris openings, much talk of the military influence in hats and clothes, it has been accepted, especially in suits, only in a conservative way. Today, the smartest tailored suit is much plainer than it has been for many seasons, for it has borrowed line rather than trimming of the military coats. The pocket and the belt have been adopted, to be sure, but in their simplest form.
Among the first spring offerings in millinery were small dark turbans trimmed with white wings in a rather daring manner and turbans with a light or white top, accented by a bow. The well-gowned woman has chosen these two models in preference to the more somber ones. Flowers are certainly worn and so are cockades of all kinds, but the bow on a dark hat is usually white or beige and the wings are almost invariably white.—Vogue.

Quick Way to Thread a Needle.
To thread a needle when the light is bad and it is hard to find the eye, put a piece of white cloth or paper back of the needle. You will be surprised to see how quickly the thread will go through.

The handles of the bag are made of cord securely tied to the pieces of case and it will be noticed that there is one long handle and one short handle. The long handle is slipped through the short handle in the manner shown in diagram A at the top of the illustration, and when the bag is closed, it can be carried by the long handle and cannot possibly come open.
Initials of the owner or the words "Bathing Dress" can be roughly embroidered upon one side of the bag.

DICTATES OF FASHION
Hat brims are of various sizes, but they are increasing in size.
Finish the bottom of the full skirt with one row of piping.
The latest bolero sleeve seems to be cut in one with the bolero.
Parisianes are embroidering their handkerchiefs with soldiers.
White crochet ball fringe appears on both hats and summer gowns.
Nothing has ever replaced the knitted golf coat for golf players.
Sashes with flower-appliqued ends are among the prettiest novelties.
The Eton collar of sheer organdie is a feature of the new blouses.
Multicolored picot edges to white ribbons are among the prettiest.

Sewing With Two Needles at Once.
It will facilitate sewing to use two needles at the same time. In shirring two rows can be run in almost the same time as one, and in sewing a braid flat on the bottom of a skirt a saving both of the skirt (which is handled less) and of time will be accomplished by the use of two needles.

With the warm weather, open-air bathing once again becomes possible, and in anticipation of holidays it is well to prepare a bag for carrying a bathing dress. It should, if possible, be made of some waterproof fabric. It is cut out in two pieces which are sewed together at the base and half-way up the sides; above this the material is bound at the edges with braid. The opening of the bag is stiffened on either side with pieces of cane, the material being turned over and hemmed down and the cane run through.

Fooling the Enemy.
Rain was falling steadily as the weary cyclist plodded on through the English mud. At last he spied a figure walking toward him through the gloom.
Gladly he sprang off his machine and asked the native:
"How far off is the village of Poppletown?"
"Just ten miles the other way, sir," was the reply.
"The other way!" exclaimed the cyclist. "But the last signpost I passed said it was in this direction."
"Ah," said the native, with a knowing grin, "but, ye see, we turned that there 'post round so as to fog those 'ere Zeppylings!"—Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph.

"Well, Tommy, I suppose you are entitled to something nice as a reward for graduating from the public school," said the friendly aunt. "What has your father planned for you?"

"What are you wearing that long face for, professor?"
"Reason enough, doctor. I've just been to call on my old friend Privy Councilor Schulze—and what should I do but leave my bread ticket instead of my visiting card."

Police Would Get It.
The talk of parents at home about conditions in the police department made a deep impression on the mind of a twelve-year-old boy who was before Judge F. J. Lehr in juvenile court for stealing a bicycle. The court had lectured the boy and his three companions on the disgrace of stealing and finally asked the boys what they thought about stealing.
"Now suppose everybody were to steal," the court suggested, "and then what do you think would become of all of our property?"
"Oh, the police would get everything," was the boy's quick response.

WHY FAMOUS PASTRY COOKS USE KC BAKING POWDER

The patrons of our first class hotels and restaurants are exacting—they demand the best. Women go where the pastry and cakes are noted for their excellence. Men are attracted by hot bread and biscuits—when fresh and moist and light.

The pastry cook with a reputation uses K C Baking Powder because he knows that results are certain; every time everything is as good as his best.

Then, too, with K C Baking Powder he can mix the various kinds of batter before the rush of the meal begins and bake as needed so that every order goes to the table fresh and hot, yet the last he bakes are just as good as the first.

The reasons behind these reasons is that K C is really a blend of two baking powders. One commences to give off leavening gas as soon as moistened. The other requires both moisture and heat to make it active. Dough or batter will remain in a partially leavened condition for hours, and when put in the oven, will come up as light as if mixed a moment before.

For cookies, pancakes, doughnuts and the like which cannot all be baked at once, K C is indispensable. For all baking the double raise makes doubly certain.

Follow the example of the professional cook and your baking will be equal to his.

The Auditor Case

Elsewhere in this issue will be found a communication entitled "Stopped the Clock." It deals, by illustration, with the celebrated and notorious Traveling Auditor case, quoting a portion of the state supreme court's opinion therein. With reference to the authorship of the article we need only say it must be evident to the reader that it is the product of a legal mind, and we will add that the author is one of our ablest citizens and his integrity and fairness are unquestioned.

We especially desire to call attention to the indented paragraph which is a quotation from the decision, and from which it may be inferred that the legislature, having disregarded the constitution twenty-four hours might well do so twenty-four days; for, to quote from the decision:

"It [the legislature] has the power to make its journal conform to what it determines to be that moment of time." Sufficient latitude to create the belief that the constitution is only "a scrap of paper" after all. Notwithstanding the "sound doctrine," the conclusion must be that the creature (the legislature) is supreme and its creator (the constitution) is already in the sea and yellow.

The Blind Institute

One of the most progressive and beneficial institutions in the state is that for the blind located at Alamogordo. A perusal of the institute's report, supplied through the courtesy of Superintendent Pratt, shows what the institute has accomplished, and its increasing usefulness for the future. The unfortunates who are thus assisted to an education and to some usefulness and practical calling in life through the generosity of the state are showing an advancement far beyond the expectations of the founders of the institution, and for which the board of directors and institute faculty are to be congratulated. Two of the board of directors reside in Lincoln county, George H. Barber and A. J. Roland, the former being president of the board.

A perusal of records, courts' and commissioners' in Santa Fe and some of the other counties that harbor real bosses will convince the most skeptical of who don't pay the taxes. To be a friend of the assessor, the board of county commissioners, and of the district attorney, comes in handy once every seven or eight years.

Instead of worrying about that $9,200 taken from the state treasury under an appropriation bill, which bears an endorsement of irregularity, the tax payers of the state had better get busy and prepare to keep the gang from getting the entire bank roll of the state the next time. It took that crowd one extra day to put over this and other like stuff the last time; but the possibilities for the future are great. If the same old bunch is in control next time, already possessing the O. K. of the supreme court, the treasury till will be as empty of coin as its ravishers are of honor.

Germany has sprung more surprises on the world, if half of the reports be true, than all her opponents combined. Her system of espionage has astonished the world, and her operations in Russia, just now becoming public, create a kind of creepy feeling.

Johnny Bull's obstinacy in refusing to recognize the right of America to ship goods to neutrals may easily reach the acute stage. In the tremendous fight between themselves, the European countries have entirely overlooked the rights of neutrals.

It is now said that gold fillings and wedding rings are being collected in Germany to maintain a gold reserve. This report may have little more foundation than many others coming across, but Ernest Seton Thompson vouches for its authenticity.

The traditional friendship existing between this country and Great Britain may require an amendment. It will be forgotten entirely if Johnny Bull continues to interfere with American shipments to neutral ports.

And now comes the tale that many of the Russian ammunition boxes, when opened, were found to contain only rubbish. Blood, Teutons, but Russian born, are accredited with the deed.

It has been over a hundred years, it is true, but England should not so readily forget her attempt to monkey with American ships.

The Tariff Bogy

(Saturday Evening Post)

In this last fiscal year our purchases of foreign goods were smaller by two hundred million dollars than in the year before, and at the end of the period commodity prices in the United States, as reflected by Bradstreet's index number, were the highest ever known. But in spite of that the country, our protectionist friends tell us, is being mysteriously ruined by the pauper labor of Europe.

The aforesaid labor is getting killed and maimed to an extent that appalls the world. The factories in which it was employed are increasingly disorganized by war. The capital behind it is being shot away at the rate of tens of millions of dollars a day. But those things were mere brook needs to lean upon, unless we are further fortified by a very high tariff.

You might sink Europe in the sea tomorrow, and your true high

Fourth year—Chemistry, American literature, Spanish, Latin, trigonometry, bookkeeping, commercial law, American history and civics.

Taxpayers' Association

Santa Fe, N. M., August 10.—It is stated on good authority that as a result of the active interest of a number of prominent business men in all parts of New Mexico, a call will be issued very soon for an organization meeting in this city of the long talked of state taxpayers' association. Bankers, merchants, stockmen and others have become interested in the movement and the formal call probably will be issued in time to hold the meeting during the session of the state tax commission, to begin on August 30 and continue for ten days. Governor McDonald, it is understood, has given his approval to the movement and will join in signing the call, as will members of the tax commission. The proposed association will be strictly non-political and will not seek to interfere with the work of the tax commission or with individual assessments; devoting its energies toward better public understanding of taxation and revenue matters and greater economy and efficiency in disbursing public moneys.

protectionist would still go about pale and trembling unless he had in his pocket the rabbit's foot of high duties to fend off the specter of pauper labor. A Europe with both arms in a sling and not a leg to stand on would still frighten him into gooseflesh unless he had the tariff horseshoe over his door.

So the tariff will no doubt be one of the issues of the next presidential election, and if the republicans win we shall have another revision of it. The loudest champions of high protection do not want an intelligent tariff; they want a political one, with the usual logrolling. This is painful to contemplate, but as neither democrats or republicans seem at all minded to take the tariff out of politics there is probably no help for it.

COULD NOT STAND ON FEET

Mrs. Baker So Weak—Could Not Do Her Work—Found Relief In Novel Way.

Adrian, Mich.—"I suffered terribly with female weakness and backache and got so weak that I could hardly do my work. When I washed my dishes I had to sit down and when I would sweep the floor I would get so weak that I would have to get a drink every few minutes, and before I did my dusting I would have to lie down. I got so poorly that my folks thought I was going into consumption. One day I found a piece of paper blowing under the yard and I picked it up and read it. It said 'Saved from the Grave,' and told what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for women. I showed it to my husband and he said, 'Why don't you try it?' So I did, and after I had taken two bottles I felt better and I said to my husband, 'I don't need any more,' and he said 'You had better take it a little longer anyway.' So I took it for three months and got well and strong."—Mrs. ALONZO E. BAKER, 9 Tecumseh St., Adrian, Mich.

Not Well Enough to Work.
In these words is hidden the tragedy of many a woman, housekeeper or wage earner who supports herself and is often helping to support a family, on meagre wages. Whether in house, office, factory shop, store or kitchen, woman should remember that there is one tried and true remedy for the ills to which all women are prone, and that is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It promotes that vigor which makes work easy. The Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

NEW PARISIAN MODELS

UMBRELLA OUTLINE NOTICED ON THE LATEST SKIRTS.

May Signify Change in Forthcoming Styles—Lemon-Yellow Linen Promises to Be Popular—Smart Little Cherry-Red Coat.

Redfern is making some practical and attractive white serge suits for seaside wear. He has always been in favor of plaited skirts, but on some of these white suits I noticed the umbrella outline, and I found it admirable, writes Idalis de Villiers, Paris correspondent of the London Globe.

One model which pleased me especially had an umbrella skirt which buttoned up the front and which had large side pockets. The coat was half-length, with a shaped basque and a waist belt which buttoned on at the side seams. There was a plain roll-over collar and wide turn-back cuffs. Both collar and cuffs were caught down by ivory buttons and the coat was lined with chintz silk which showed pale blue and pink flowers on a white background.

Some of the more elaborate Redfern suits have pipings and buttons made of glove kid. This idea was successfully carried out on a large suit in hedgesparrow-egg blue, which was accompanied by a shirtwaist made of fine white organdie muslin. All the pipings on the coat and skirt were done in hedgesparrow-blue glove kid and there were rows of tiny blue kid buttons on the front of the high-necked blouse.

Redfern seems fond of lemon-yellow lines, one of the most popular novelties of the present season. The Parisiennes are charmed with lemon-yellow linen and muslin and they have the costumes made of these materials finished with sashes in ivory-white or Belgian blue taffeta.

Lemon-yellow may be said to be the color of the season, for dresses and for hats. It is especially in demand for dinner gowns and for picturesque wraps which are thrown on over old-world muslin frocks. Cherry-red linen braided in fine black silk braid is another summer novelty.

I have illustrated a particularly smart coat made of this material which was to accompany a skirt of white linen embroidered with a l'Anglaise. The coat was rather short and semi-light, with a raised waistband covered with very fine black braidings. The coat opened over a white linen waistcoat which was fastened with ball buttons made of cherry-red enamel and there was an effective touch of dull blue in the lining.

Colored linen coats are the rage of the hour. They are worn over linen serge, cloth and silk skirts, and in all circumstances they are decorative and novel. Pansy-purple linen, lined with black and white striped silk, makes a beautiful coat for wearing with white skirts. The same may be said for loose garments made of Joffre-blue or rose Dubarry-pink linen.

ONLY A HINT OF MILITARISM

American Women Have Refused to Go to Extremes in Styles—New Turban Models.

Though there was, before the Paris openings, much talk of the military influence in hats and clothes, it has been accepted, especially in suits, only in a conservative way. Today, the smartest tailored suit is much plainer than it has been for many seasons, for it has borrowed line rather than trimming of the military coats. The pocket and the belt have been adopted, to be sure, but in their simplest form.

Among the first spring offerings in military were small dark turbans trimmed with white wings in a rather daring manner and turbans with a light or white top, accented by a bow. The well-gowned woman has chosen these two models in preference to the more somber ones. Flowers are certainly worn and so are cockades of all kinds, but the bow on a dark hat is usually white or beige and the wings are almost invariably white.—Vogue.

Quick Way to Thread a Needle.

To thread a needle when the light is bad and it is hard to find the eye, put a piece of white cloth or paper back of the needle. You will be surprised to see how quickly the thread will go through.

THE HANDLES OF THE BAG

The handles of the bag are made of cord securely tied to the pieces of cane and it will be noticed that there is one long handle and one short handle. The long handle is slipped through the short handle in the manner shown in diagram A at the top of the illustration, and when the bag is closed, it can be carried by the long handle and cannot possibly come open.

Initials of the owner or the words "Bathing Dress" can be roughly embroidered upon one side of the bag.

DICTATES OF FASHION

Hat brims are of various sizes, but they are increasing in size.
Finish the bottom of the full skirt with the row of plying.
The latest bolero sleeve seems to be cut in one with the bolero.
Parisienne are embroidering their handkerchiefs with soldiers.
White crocheted ball fringe appears on both hats and summer gowns.
Nothing has ever replaced the knitted golf coat for golf players.
Sanxes with flower-appliqued ends are among the prettiest novelties.
The Eton collar of sheer organdie is a feature of the new blouses.
Multicolored picot edges to white ribbons are among the prettiest.

Sewing With Two Needles at Once.

It will facilitate sewing to use two needles at the same time. In shirring two rows can be run in almost the same time as one, and in sewing a braid flat on the bottom of a skirt a saving both of the skirt (which is handled less) and of time will be accomplished by the use of two needles.

Rain was falling steadily as the weary cyclist plodded on through the English mud. At last he spied a figure walking toward him through the gloom.

Gladly he sprang off his machine and asked the native:

"The other way!" exclaimed the cyclist. "But the last signpost I passed said it was in this direction."

Police Would Get It.

The talk of parents at home about conditions in the police department made a deep impression on the mind of a twelve-year-old boy who was before Judge F. J. Lehr in juvenile court for stealing a bicycle. The court had lectured the boy and his three companions on the disgrace of stealing and finally asked the boys what they thought about stealing.
"Now suppose everybody were to steal," the court suggested, "and then what do you think would become of all of our property?"
"Oh, the police would get everything," was the boy's quick response.

WHY FAMOUS PASTRY COOKS USE K C BAKING POWDER

K C BAKING POWDER

The patrons of our first class hotels and restaurants are exacting—they demand the best. Women go where the pastry and cakes are noted for their excellence. Men are attracted by hot bread and biscuits—when fresh and moist and light.

The pastry cook with a reputation uses K C Baking Powder because he knows that, results are certain; every time everything is as good as his best.

Then, too, with K C Baking Powder he can mix the various kinds of batter before the rush of the meal begins and bake as needed so that every order goes to the table fresh and hot, yet the last he bakes are just as good as the first.

The reasons behind these reasons is that K C is really a blend of two baking powders. One commences to give off leavening gas as soon as moistened. The other requires both moisture and heat to make it active. Dough or batter will remain in a partially leavened condition for hours, and when put in the oven, will come up as light as if mixed a moment before.

For cookies, pancakes, doughnuts and the like, which cannot all be baked at once, K C is indispensable. For all baking the double raise makes doubly certain.

Follow the example of the professional cook and your baking will be equal to his.

Father Girma was here from Lincoln Tuesday evening, on a visit to his parishioners at this place.

Perry Humphrey made proof on his homestead this week before U. S. Commissioner W. H. Osborn.

Mrs. J. S. Ross and little son, Charlie, returned yesterday morning from a three months' visit with relatives in Oklahoma.

Sam F. Fambrough was here the past week from his Ancho ranch. He reports the range fine and stock in good condition.

The Wetmore garage has its roof on, the plastering is being done, and the building will soon be closed in and ready for occupancy.

Mrs. R. T. Vaughn, with little Miss Vaughn, arrived the past week from El Paso. The "Kid" now has no time to devote to his friends.

A nine-pound girl arrived Sunday morning at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Nye. The little miss and mother are getting along nicely.

Mr. W. H. Roberts and family returned this week by auto from Gallup, and after a day's stop-over here went on to Alamogordo and El Paso.

W. W. Corn, an old-time and respected citizen of this county, but now living in Grant county, came in this week on a visit to relatives and friends.

Rains have fallen in most places throughout the county the past week, and although light in places the moisture has been sufficient to keep everything going.

Attorney Buel R. Wood and George Spence, Jr. left Sunday for the Manzano and Chilli country. They went overland and expect to be gone several days.

Red lake is reported to be full to overflowing, the result of a heavy rain in the Coyote-Ancho country. This promises fine duck shooting for fall and winter.

A large number of the young people of the town went to White Oaks last Saturday night. It is reported they danced until the limit was reached—11:58 p.m.

A slight freight wreck at Ocuco Tuesday delayed traffic for two or three hours. A flange on a coke car broke and the wrecker had to be used to replace the car on the track.

Farmers out on the east side of the range are too busy taking care of crops to visit us often. Excellent returns are promised the husbandman in that section of the county this year.

Jacob W. Smith, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Geo. J. Dingwall, went to Roswell Sunday. They returned Wednesday, after visiting many ranches enroute. Mr. Smith's mission being to purchase cattle.

Carrizozo Loses to El Paso With Ease

When Judge Rummy had a man before his court on the charge of being intoxicated he started—just started—to question him in his characteristic fashion. He didn't get beyond the first question, however, for the answer caused the judge to lose his balance, and court was adjourned.

The judge, in his severest manner, said:

"I am told you are a hard drinker; what have you to say?"

"It's a base slander, judge," replied the culprit. "It's the easiest thing in the world for me to drink."

So, it would appear, this heading is entirely appropriate for Sunday's ball game—it was easy for Carrizozo to lose—the result being 7 for El Paso, 1 for Carrizozo. It may be said, in passing, that Carrizozo had a splendid team on the diamond for that occasion; but, on the other hand, the visitors had also wonderfully strengthened their team, perhaps remembering the two severe trouncings they had received at the hands of the local team.

Stopped the Clock

In one of the precincts of this county the young people have been in the habit of holding their dancing parties on Saturday nights, presumably for the reason that they could rest on Sunday.

A complaint was made before the justice of the peace of the precinct, who was himself a strict constructionist and church member, charging the young people aforesaid with the violation of the Sabbath. On the trial it was shown that the dance complained of was continued till about daylight Sunday morning, the Sabbath under our statute beginning at 11:59 Saturday night. It was also disclosed by the testimony that somebody had stopped the clock in the hall where the dancing took place at 11:58, and it so remained until the dance ceased.

At the conclusion of the testimony, and knowing the views of the court, the young dancers appeared to have lost out and on the way to the district court for trial and subject to heavy fines and imprisonment. But the attorney for the defense cited some of the decisions of the supreme court of the state, viz.: Territory v. Davensport, 17 N. M., 214; Territory v. Hart, Id. 222, where it is held that base ball was not sport within the meaning of the statute relative to the Sabbath. He also cited a recent decision of the same court in the case known as the "Traveling Auditor" case, in which it was held:

"It is a matter of common information that legislatures resort to subtleties, and for the sake of regularity and form only, often stop the clock shortly before the hour has arrived for adjournment so that in form the adjournment actually takes place at the proper moment of time. Out of these considerations, and many others, it has come to be recognized that a legislative body has the power and the right to determine for itself when the moment of time has arrived for adjournment, and it has the power to make its journal conform to what it determines to be that moment of time. The doctrine is sound and must not be departed from."

On the conclusion of the argument the court said:

"To say that this court is surprised at the construction of the statute and the constitution on these subjects, as read by counsel for the defendants, does not fully express our state of mind. If the legislature can extend the time of its sessions beyond the express limits fixed by the constitution and in violation of its provisions simply by stopping the clock for one hour, it seems to me it might continue its sessions indefinitely or until the clock was again set in motion. If the legislature can legally do this, and we see by this decision that it can, then I see no reason why these defendants could not legally dance, not only until daylight on Sunday, but during the entire Sabbath day, provided the hands of the clock still pointed to the hour of 11:58 p. m. of Saturday. The decisions are binding on this court and are the law of the state, we had hoped to put a stop, not to the clock, but to what we had heretofore erroneously thought to be a violation of the statutes to preserve the sanctity of our holy Sabbath and to prevent the disturbance of the peace of a civilized and Christian community, but we find the statute will not bear such a construction and therefore the defendants must be discharged and it is so ordered."
