OLDEST AND LEADING NEWSPAPER IN CIRCULATION IN THE COUNTY OF LINCOLN, NEW MEXICO

VOLUME 22

CARRIZOZO, LINCOLN COUNTY, NEW MEXICO, FRIDAY, JUNE 2, 1922

NUMBER 22

Lincoln County High School Captain, New Mexico

(W. J. Klorr, Supt.)

Lincoln County High School closed the year with appropriate ceremonies lasting four days. The Baccalaureate sermon was preached by Rev. Caughey, of Roswell, before an unprecedented crowd. His theme was "Prepare for the larger service."

Thursday following occurred the eighth grade commencement at which time a class of ten was graduated into the academic department.

The little playlet given by them the week before was one of the best given this year. The address of the evening was delivered by Mrs. M. L. Blaney on the "The Larger Vision," and was inspirational and instructive, and had its effect upon the class as well as the entire community. Her unselfish devotion to the interests of education in Lincoln county has ever been manifested in her actions and words and District 28 takes this pleasure of expressing profound gratitude for the faithful services rendered in behalf of her interest in education.

On Tuesday of the last week of school the Home Economic Department gave its sewing exhibit of the 9th and 10th grades. This, no doubt, was the finest exhibit ever given in the Lincoln County School. Nineteen organdie dresses, with hats to match, were designed and made by the girls of this department and numerous other garments were made, bringing out all the finer principles of sewing and designing which this department taught. This department is in charge of Miss Stella Wyatt, who is one of the most competent instructors in this work in the state.

We were given an unusual surprise by the senior class when it gave a senior ball to their friends. This was a unique function. Decoration and lunch were unsurpassed, and the music was furnished by the Fort Stanton Symphony Orchestra.

The following night occurred the Senior Class Night at which time an excellent musical program was rendered followed by the regular class program and ending with an address by the Superintendent, who gave a brief review of the work covered and the proposed program for the coming year. He especially urged all boys and girls to enroll as special students in the Commercial, Mechanical Drawing and Ceramic courses if they do not desire to enroll as regular students. In fact, all members of the community are invited to take the course in Ceramics regardless of age or qualification.

Saturday night was the final and most interesting function of the senior class. The hall was packed until standing room was at a premium. The hall was decorated in class colors, roses, sweet peas and plants; the lights gave a soft glow through the draperies and the soft strains of music from the orchestra pealed forth as the superintendent and president of the board led the march to the rostrum.

After the local Glee Club sang several numbers and the orchestra

Water Bonds Sell at Premium

The $25,000.00 issue of Water Works Bonds for Carrizozo were sold yesterday at a premium of $700 and accrued interest to date of delivery. The successful bidder also furnishes the bonds, which cost $50.00, and that item added to the cash premium makes the purchase price 103, or 3 per cent above par, which is doing very well for a youngster.

The successful bidder was Antonides & Company, Denver, Colorado. There were two other bids, one as low as 96.51, and also inquiries for further information.

It should not be long now till it begins to fly and all preliminary steps in motion. It is impossible to say when the mains will be laid, the connections made and the water ready for use, but it is safe to say the city dads will not let the grass grow under their feet until the system is installed.

Aged Sailor Dies

John (Uncle Jack) Crowley, 84 years, died in El Paso last week. The deceased saw 37 years active service in the American navy. Three years before his retirement in 1897 he began living with Mr. and Mrs. Edgar H. B. Chew, and when the Chew family came to White Oaks about twenty years ago, "Uncle Jack" came with them, and when the family moved to El Paso, as a part of it, he went also. "Uncle Jack" saw service on the seven seas, and served on 25 naval ships flying the Stars and Stripes.

Many White Oaks people, besides those surrounding the town, remember the kindly, pleasant old veteran, his unobtrusive but courteous manner, and his careful consideration of those with whom he came in contact. It is pleasant to recall that, while he had no near relatives, he still enjoyed the comforts of a home with the Chew family, and advancing years brought no difficulties that were not assuaged by his surroundings.

gave a short program of flute solos by Mr. Brady, violin solo by Mr. Pitts, vocal solo by Miss Fleming and duet by Messrs. Brady and Pitts, the superintendent introduced Col. Wilson, head of the New Mexico Military Institute, President of the Military Academies of the United States and member of the State Board of Education, who gave a remarkable address upon the subject "State Loyalty," reviewing the resources and wonderful opportunities of the grand state of New Mexico.

This was followed by a brief address and the presentation of diplomas to the seniors by Major Werner of Fort Stanton. The program concluded by very able and appropriate remarks by Mr. Hurt, clerk of the board, in which he gave praise to the members of the faculty for their faithful services and announced the reelection of the entire academic faculty.

Miss Martha Howard will enter Chicago University this fall; Misses Geneva Coffey and Ruby Bryan will enter Oklahoma University and Clyde Brubaker the New Mexico Military Institute. The other two seniors will enter Normal this summer and teach a year after which they, too, will enter college.

Teachers Go their Ways

Dr. E. E. Cole, Mrs. Nellie Clark, Misses Laver, Burton and Fordon, teachers; and Miss Herndon Reily, recently graduated from Carrizozo HI, have gone to Las Vegas. Dr. Cole will be engaged as one of the faculty in the State Normal, Miss Burton as Librarian, while the others will take the summer courses in the same institution.

Mrs. Cole and Mrs. Vaughn left last night for Michigan, to spend the summer.

Mrs. Susie Tuton is taking her vacation at La Luz, and Mrs. Shirley Massie Phipps is at Tucumcari.

The other teachers have not announced their plans for the summer.

Corona School Exercises

The Corona school gave its closing entertainment Thursday night, May 25, and it is said to have been one of the best given by any school of the county. The paper doll drill, by a number of small children, and the Japanese drill song by the fifth and sixth grades, elicited great applause from a full house. The Little Grandmother and the Minuet brought forth extended approbation.

Miss Sweeney, athletic instructor, had the matter in hand, and her systematic training and untiring efforts were an unqualified success, and to her and Mrs. Vaughn and Mrs. Argenbright, who so ably assisted, much credit is due. Supt. Dunlap, in fact the entire faculty and board of directors, were the recipients of unstinted praise. It was a splendid program from beginning to end, and by some pronounced the best ever given by a rural school in Lincoln county.

Good Rains

Good rains fell in many parts of the county Wednesday of this week, and light showers fell all over the county, so far as we have been able to ascertain. Hail and high winds accompanied the rain in various sections, but no serious damage has been reported, and the benefits of the moisture are so far transcendent that little worries don't count. One rain doesn't bring a season any more than one swallow brings spring, but it's a fine beginning and sufficient, in most places, to start vegetation and get crops going. It was a special blessing to sheep and cattle men.

Parsons News Letter

Parsons, May 31, '22.

Mr. H. D. Burrall, of Alamogordo, with a party of foresters, is finishing up a mountain trail that will be of great benefit to pleasure seekers as it will be to those who travel the mountain tops in pursuit of their duty.

The party cleaned out the Water Cañon trail from the flats and made a better grade to reach the top of the Nogal divide. The new work includes a trail around west and north sides of the peak connecting the Water Cañon trail along the ridge to the top of the Parsons-Nogal divide road.

There is surely an invasion of men in our hills this spring. In addition to the Forest service work that is going on, the Land Office has a large party of men at work under the supervision of Mr. T. D. Daley, laying out what will probably be township No. 9. Township No. 8 was surveyed about ten years ago by Lee S. Miller, of Santa Fe.

The present party consists of thirteen men, and the work lies through such rough country that the work will probably require several months to complete.

Mr. T. B. Grafton and family, also Mrs. Ross Bentley and children and Aila Givens attended the Memorial Day services at August J. C. Clard, an old-time miner from Creston, Colorado, and H. D. Burrall were visitors in town Sunday.

Arthur Givens is working with the pipe line force north of Carrizozo.

Mr. Payne and a party of young people from Fort Stanton picnicked at Parsons mill Sunday.

"Pilla," with the Misses Burroughs and Knutt were among "those present" at the above mentioned picnic dinner.

Miss Mildred Peters and Miss Edith Rockwell, of Capitan, and Mr. and Mrs. David Smith visited friends here last Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Runnels and family, who have returned from Hot Springs, were at August Memorial Day.

Mr. O. B. Robinson is visiting relatives of the Ruidoso.

While there is sufficient moisture in the ground to insure good grass, still one has only to look over the growth of young pines to know that rain is badly needed in this district.

The oak-covered hills are green at last; so we know spring is here, although the nights continue to be cold.

Ralph Peters and the Misses

Next Entertainment

The Carrizozo Entertainers offer the following as part of their June program:

They desire to state that the orchestra will be enlarged by the addition of a cornetist who is none other than John E. Wright. The orchestra has agreed to go on the program and give one number from the stage in which it will endeavor to solo each instrument. In addition it will play several selections from the pit. Following are some of the numbers:

Duet—Miss Lorena Sager and Mrs. Albert Ziegler.
Male Quartet—Jones, Appelget, Sparks and Prude.
"Mammy Chloe"—Impersonation and song, (Alabama Lullaby), Hilary Cooper.

Solo—Carrie Roberts.
Musical Repertoire—Parts of a number of old-time songs will be used; Hilary Cooper and Eb K. Jones.

At least two choruses with from 15 to 20 voices.
Balance of program to be announced later.

Revival Meeting

A revival meeting will begin at the Methodist church, tonight, and will continue for about two weeks. The services will be under the auspices of the church of the Nazarenes, and Rev. C. W. Davis, district superintendent, will be the directing spirit. Mrs. Davis will assist in the work.

The Gospel car is expected in tonight, but may not reach here before tomorrow. It will bear an additional number of ministers, singers and workers, as well as many other features that accompany the car. Throughout the meeting specially trained singers will furnish the music. A cordial invitation is extended to all to be present at every service possible.

Memorial Day

The local cemetery was visited on Decoration Day from early morning until night and the graves bedecked with flowers and evergreens. In the afternoon the members of the local American Legion Post decorated the graves of soldiers buried there, while Mrs. C. A. Hooper performed the ceremony for those "over there." The Star Spangled Banner, America and Sweet Bye and Bye were sung, and the simple, but impressive, ceremonies ended.

Porter drifted in for a spell last Sunday.

There are rumors that the mining industry is going to pick up this summer; but so far it is only rumor.

Miss Betty Devine and the Misses Kurtz were among the visitors in Parsons Sunday.

Mr. J. M. Rice celebrated his seventy-seventh birthday Friday. Mr. Rice is a veteran of the Civil War, having served his country for four years, seven months of which time was spent in a Southern prison. Mr. Rice has been interested in mining in this county for twenty years and expects to live to see his ambitious realized.

Sunday's Ball Game

The White Oaks and Carrizozo ball teams crossed bats last Sunday on the diamond on the east side. The game ended in a score of 10 to 5 in favor of Carrizozo. For a number of innings, however, the game was a close one, but as the game progressed the local team gradually moved away from the visitors and the score resulted as stated above.

Married

Allie Wagoner and Miss Bessie Fritz were married at Alamogordo Sunday, May 21. The bride was born and reared in Lincoln county, and for the past few years has been teaching school at Picacho. The groom has lived in that section since early boyhood. Heartly congratulations to the young couple.

Keeping Railway Clerks Fit for Their Work

In order that its employees may enjoy better health and become more efficient in their work, the Rock Island railroad has instituted a system of exercise periods in the morning and afternoon, during which the windows are all open and the clerks all go through a number of exercises. The head of a department and his four assistants are here seen taking their afternoon exercises.

Park Chain From Ocean to Ocean

National Park Director Mather Outlines Plan for System Reaching Across Country.

IS NOT GOVERNMENT PROJECT

Scheme is Purely a State Proposition, but Will Have Approval and Assistance of National Government—Follow Rail Routes.

Omaha, Neb.—A dream of a park system reaching from the Atlantic to the Pacific along half a dozen or more of the great travel highways was outlined in Omaha by Stephen T. Mather of Chicago, director of the government national park system. Mr. Mather emphasized that while these park lines are not sponsored by the government and are purely state projects, they have the approval of the national system in every way.

"It is a gigantic undertaking," says Mr. Mather.

Mr. Mather is now in the West getting the great national parks, Yellowstone, Yosemite, Rocky Mountains, Zion and the other playgrounds, ready for the coming sight-seeing season.

"Many of the states are working on these park lines now," says Mr. Mather, "and we hope to have others interested very quickly."

Will Follow Rail Routes.

West of the Mississippi these park lines, as outlined by Mr. Mather, will follow closely the big transcontinental railroad lines. One system of parks will follow the Southern Pacific road from New Orleans across Texas, New Mexico and Arizona to California. A second line will follow the Missouri Pacific and Santa Fe from St. Louis through Kansas City and on to the Pacific through Kansas and the states west. A third line of parks will follow the Union Pacific from Omaha across Nebraska, Wyoming, Utah and Nevada to San Francisco, with branches at Ogden to Los Angeles and Portland. Still another park system will extend from St. Paul and Minneapolis out to Seattle.

East of the Mississippi these lines of parks will follow trade routes across New York, northern Ohio and Indiana to Chicago; across Pennsylvania, central Ohio and Indiana to Chicago and St. Louis; across Maryland, West Virginia, southern Ohio and Indiana to St. Louis and down the Atlantic coast and around to New Orleans.

"The national government has nothing officially to do with these park lines," Mr. Mather states, "but we are assisting all along the line. These parks will be under the control of the different states. They will be small compared with the vast government playgrounds. Some of them will contain but a few acres. Here they will take in a bit of rough land with an especially fine view; there the park may border on a small lake, again it 'pleasure' is coming back into the vocabulary of the ordinary people, and this year these great western parks will entertain their largest crowds for many years—if not in their histories.

"The people are going to enjoy the great outdoors more in the future than they have in the past, and when the different states complete these chains of state parks across the country the American people will get a new idea of what it means to be out-of-doors."

SUPREME COURT MARSHAL

Mrs. William Chesley Lewis of Oklahoma City, Okla., the only woman in the United States holding the position of marshal of a supreme court.

may be on the banks of a stream, it may commemorate some act of state-wide importance; it may be located around a landmark, etc. All these small parks will work right in with the national system.

"The day of the park and of the great outdoors has come in America. The people are getting ready to play again. We are expecting the largest crowds at the national parks this coming season that have visited them for a number of years.

"For five or six years the American people have done very little playing. There was the war and there was the expense of travel. But the war is over and traveling expenses have been materially reduced.

"Steamship lines to Europe are advertising a specific amount as the expense of a trip abroad, everything included. To offset this the government park service has figured the necessary cost, including railroad fare, Pullman and dining car extras and the expense in the parks themselves. While our service has nothing to do with expenses outside the park, it has everything to do with those within the park boundaries, and we have forced the total cost down to a minimum.

May Use Different Roads.

"The government service has arranged with the railroads which reach these parks to take passengers in at one entrance and permit them to leave the parks at entirely different gateways and use a different railroad thenceforth, if they wish to do so.

"From inquiries the park service is receiving now, we believe the word

ANCIENT SHOP HAS BEEN SOLD

Nothing but Drugs Ever Sold in This London Pharmacy.

Worshipful Company of Apothecaries Disposes of Its Historic Shop in City of London—Established in Seventeenth Century.

London.—The Worshipful Company of Apothecaries has sold its ancient shop to a London firm of druggists. It has been carried on by this city company since early in the Seventeenth century and was, as it were, the classic druggist's shop, with its discreet window of frosted glass—the apothecaries did not display their wares—the shop forms, the plain facade behind which is hidden a dim old courtyard and then the hall and other rooms of the society. Almost next door, in Water Lane, was the Blackfriars theater, where Shakespeare and Burbage played.

The society's prescriptions, formulas and special preparations—many of them centuries old—are taken over by the new owners. The little factory where the society makes drugs wholesale, chiefly on government orders, has not changed hands yet.

The shop is a spacious place, lined with mellow-looking old bottles, gleaming warmly with gilt and color. You look in vain for patent medicines or any paraphernalia of the modern chemist. It is all drugs and nothing but drugs, and people who come in with prescriptions are usually known and addressed by their names. The shop is leisurely and quiet, as befits its pedigree. Many customers are sorry that the company should be giving up its useful service of selling sound drugs in these days when the city companies rarely still perform their original functions.

In the old days no apothecary could open a shop in the city without a license from the Apothecaries' Hall, nor could he sell drugs that had not been duly tested at the hall.

The old charter gives the company the right to burn unwholesome drugs in front of the offender's door. The company is one of three bodies entitled to grant a medical degree. In the early Eighteenth century there was a fierce quarrel between the physicians and the apothecaries over this, and Doctor Garth in his dispensary spoke rudely of the Apothecaries' Hall as the place "where tyros take the freedom out to kill."

TRACE STONE AGE IN CANADA

Existed in British Columbia as Late as Century Ago.

Archaeologists Make Interesting Discoveries While Exploring Old Community Sites, Mounds and Aboriginal Graves.

Victoria, B. C.—The stone age, which, scientists say, came to an end in western Europe about 1700 B. C., was carried on for more than 3,000 years later, and in its most characteristic form existed in British Columbia as late as late as a century ago, in some districts, according to the findings of archaeologists who have been exploring some of the old community sites, mounds and aboriginal graves in the coast and interior of the province.

of a seated human figure holding a bow. It was chipped from a solid block of stone and then polished. There are two of these specimens very much alike. One was discovered near Departure bay, Nanaimo, and the other in North Saanich, on Vancouver island.

Perhaps the most characteristic of the stone age are the stone axes and hammers discovered in many places. The stone weapons include daggers and war clubs. There are many examples of stone dishes, hewn from small boulders. With what appear to have been rolling pins of somewhat angular design the prehistoric woman of this coast seems to have been well supplied.

Primitive man in British Columbia apparently did a little smoking now and then. Old shell mounds on the Thompson and Fraser rivers have yielded what appear to have been stone pipes. The early explorers found the native races using a true tobacco, smoking through a pipe which

Special Care of Baby.

That Baby should have a bed of its own all are agreed. Yet it is more reasonable for an infant to sleep with grown-ups than to use a man's medicine in an attempt to regulate the delicate organism of that same infant. Either practice is to be shunned. Neither would be tolerated by specialists in children's diseases.

Your Physician will tell you that Baby's medicine must be prepared with even greater care than Baby's food.

A Baby's stomach when in good health is too often disarranged by improper food. Could you for a moment, then, think of giving to your sick child anything but a medicine especially prepared for infants and children? Don't be deceived.

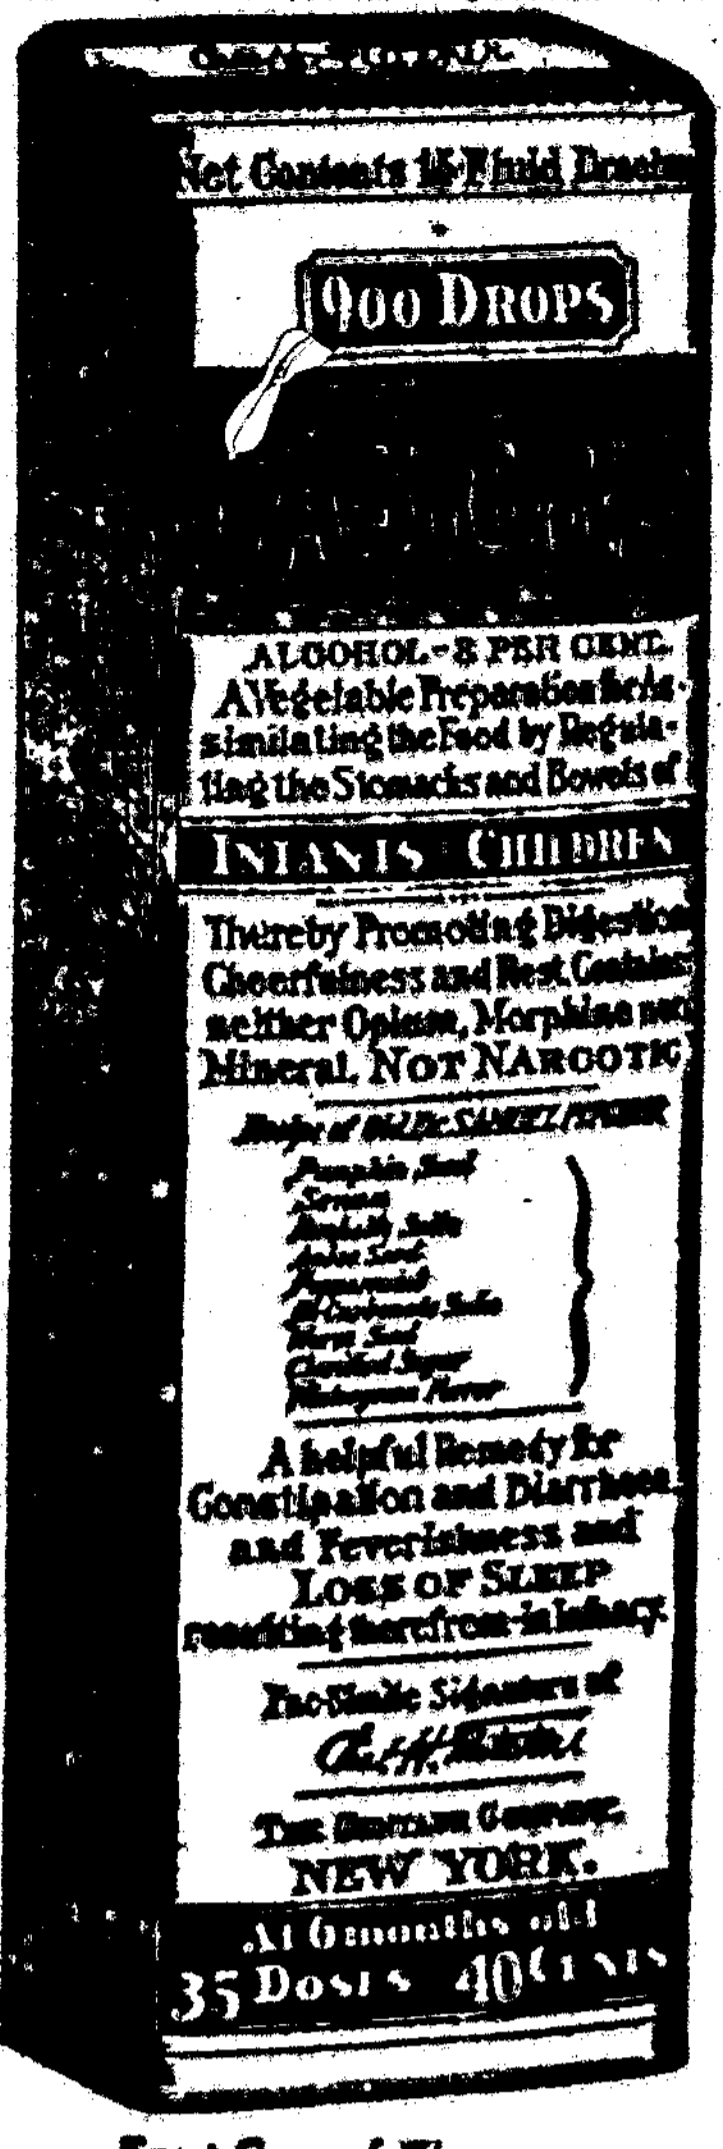

Make a mental note of this:—It is important, Mothers, that you should remember that to function well, the digestive organs of your Baby must receive special care. No Baby is so abnormal that the desired results may be had from the use of medicines primarily prepared for grown-ups.

MADE FOR EMPEROR'S TABLE

Massive Silver Set Ordered by Napoleon I Put on Exhibition at New York.

The massive silver set of 610 pieces ordered by Napoleon I, during the hundred days, delivered after his abdication to Louis XVIII, and used by the French royal family at Tuileries palace from 1815 to 1830, has been placed on exhibition in New York. Two bullet holes in the soup tureen bear evidence of the revolutions it has passed through. Each article bears the Bourbon coat of arms, the fleur de lis surmounted with the crown and is stamped with the official government mark, the mark of the chief craftsman and of the guild. Napoleon I ordered this set of silver from Biennais on his return to France from his first exile on the island of Elba. It was made during the hundred days of Napoleon's second reign, but before it could be delivered Napoleon was forced to abdicate and was again exiled this time to end his days on St. Helena. Louis XVIII, his successor, paid Biennais for the silver and had the Bourbon coat of arms placed on it. The set of silver passed finally to the heirs of the duc de Chambord and through them has come to North America.

Expert Advice.

The Bride—'I'm in an awful mess here, mother. I simply can't get my expense account to balance. Mother—'It's quite simple, my dear. Deduct the items you can remember from the amount you had to begin with and call the difference sundries. —Life.

"DIVORCE RING" THE LATEST

Fad Recently Adopted by Those Freed From the Marital Tie by Court Proceedings.

From time immemorial woman has worn on the third finger of her left hand a plain band of gold as a symbol of her honored position of wifehood. And when death takes from her the partner of her life she signifies her loss and grief by wearing appropriate garb. But in what a different manner today the widow of the present, that is, the one who by the sanction of the courts, has resigned her job as wife, makes known to all the world her renewed state of single blessedness. For the grim widow of today has adopted the latest of fads, the "divorce ring." The jeweled symbol of the severance of the marital tie takes the place of the former gold band. It is made of gold or platinum on which is mounted a broken Cupid's bow at the end of which is set a jewel to represent a divorce. Should the wearer once more embark on the matrimonial seas and again come to wreck then another jewel is added to indicate the second divorce, and so on.

And Bill Going.

This is a bad time for young men to impose on the old folks by sitting up with their daughter while coal oil is 15 cents a gallon and with an upward tendency.—Forty-five Years Ago Item in Newton Knowlton-Republican.

Avoiding Extremes.

"Do you admire skirts so short as to justify the term 'flapper'?" "No," replied Miss Cynenne, "yet I don't want them so long as to brush the street. There should be a happy medium between the flapper skirt and the copper skirt."

MADE HIS MEANING CLEAR

Old Dicky's Description of Wife's Failing Aptly Spelled Out Word He Didn't Understand.

Moses Diggs, an old Alabama dicky, had been arrested for having more than one wife, the last woman being the complainant. He happened to be well known locally and considered an orderly character. "How many wives have you had?" demanded the examining judge. "Six, yo' honah," was the reply. "Why couldn't you get on with them?" "Well, suh, de first two spelled de white folks' clo's when dey washed 'em; de third worn't no cook; de fourth was feet nacherally lazy; an' de fifth—I'll tell you, Jedge, de fifth, she—" "Incompatibility?" "No, yo' honah," said the negro, slowly, "it worn't nothin' like dat, yo' jest couldn't git on with her unless yo' was somewhars else."—Harper's Magazine.

The Greatest Dam.

The world's greatest dam, the Bear, is being rushed to completion on the Blue Nile river, 2,000 miles south of Khartoum, Africa, where Lord Kitchener became famous.

This dam will bring under irrigated cultivation 3,000,000 acres of farming land now idle. It will run a swarm of factories, mightier than the pyramids. Ancient way of conquering a territory was to enslave the inhabitants. Modern man's great conquests harness nature's forces and free human labor.

Definitions.

Merit—The thing that gets you everything desirable you have. Pull—That which obtains for your neighbor everything worth while that comes his way.

When Hungry Little Muscles Say, "Please Help Me"

DID you ever stop to think who it really is that's talking, when childish voices raise a clamor, "Mother, I'm hungry?"

It's really muscles and bones and nerves and cells worn in the stress and strain of play—that are calling for rebuilding material.

What kind of an answer? The right thing, or just anything? It makes a big difference.

Grape-Nuts, so deliciously crisp and appetizing to taste, and so quick and convenient to serve, is a splendid food for rebuilding young bodies. All the wonderful nutriment put in wheat and barley by Nature, including the vital mineral elements, is there—and Grape-Nuts digests easily, quickly and completely. Served with cream or milk, Grape-Nuts is exceptionally nourishing.

"That's splendid!" says appetite. "That's just the need!" say the hungry muscles, nerves and bones.

Ready to serve right from the package—always crisp and fresh. A favorite dish with all the family. Sold by grocers.

Fred Bastion Sleeps

We had lost sight of the Bastion family, well known residents of Lincoln county for a number of years, until this week when we received a letter from Mrs. Bastion, written at Luna, Socorro county, New Mexico. A clipping was enclosed describing the funeral, at Santa Fe last fall, of Fred Bastion, a son, who died in France and whose body was brought home and interred in the National Cemetery at the state capital.

Fred Bastion, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Bastion, was born at White Oaks in 1893 and died in France February 4, 1919. Mrs. Bastion sends us the following verses, composed on the death of her son:

HOME AGAIN

A letter came to me one day,
The last from over seas.
"Dear mother mine, I'm coming
Home to the west again.
"I dream at night in the crowded camp,
I slide o'er its great plains;
I track the stag o'er slippery erag,
And over winding trails."
The war is over and hell never,
Never come again.
My memory weeps for the boy who sleeps
Beneath the western flowers.
In the shadow of the snow-capped hills,
They brought him home to rest,
His giant form was covered
With his colors o'er his breast.
The sky o'er head was all sunshine,
When we laid him down to rest
Midst the graves of Christian martyrs,
And pioneers of the west.

Locally, if the political pot is even slumming it is so thoroughly muffled it can't be heard. Perhaps Democrats don't want office and Republicans think it's no use to try.

Five tables were entertained at bridge Saturday night at the Huppertz home. The games were in operation until the approaching hour of midnight. The hostess was the recipient of many encomiums for the delightful refreshments and the host for his supply of Havana, in addition to the pleasant evening's entertainment.

Picnic at the Lake

Last Saturday ye scribe, in company with a couple of friends, drove up to the big lake on the top of Nogal hill and enjoyed a sumptuous repast with the people who had gathered there. The supply of good things to eat was so bountiful that our only regret was that our capacity was not greater. At that we did full justice to the dinner; so did the twain whom we had the pleasure of accompanying.

Rubber Sandals

A unique use for worn out automobile tires is found in the neighboring Republic of Mexico. The stock carcasses of the tires, especially the larger sized truck tires, are in great demand among the people of the working classes, who cut them out with a sharp knife in the shape of the foot, attach leather thongs and wear them for sandals.

Thus you may find the Mexican peon walking across the sand, leaving behind him the trail of the familiar diamond shape All-Weather tread of the Goodyear tire. So popular have these shoes become that worn out tires are in great demand and the making of these rubber shoes is an established industry.

We are glad to announce that plans are being perfected for the opening of Montezuma College at East Las Vegas next September. The number of students will be limited to one hundred fifty for the first year.

The Southern Baptist Convention, representing the work of eighteen states, has just closed its annual session at Jacksonville, Florida. There were 4,200 messengers to the convention, which is considerably less than for the last few years, because the session was held in one corner of the territory. Two hundred fifty thousand titheers were enlisted in the bounds of the convention last year. We sometimes hear the charge that our churches appeal only to the women and children, but it was shown that, whereas, ten years ago twenty-five per cent of our members were male, now forty per cent are male.

The work of our convention is largely done through large committees called boards. There are five of these with headquarters in different cities. Besides these boards we have the Woman's Missionary Union, which cooperates with the convention. The whole work of the convention is financed at present by one fund, called the 75 Million Dollar Campaign Fund. There was collected on this fund during the past year the sum of $10,010,148.78.

The Foreign Mission Board has had a great year. The work of this board includes the sending of evangelists, building and supporting schools and hospitals. There are as many students in our Baptist schools on the foreign field as we have students in our Baptist schools in the South.

The Sunday School Board, with headquarters at Nashville, Tennessee, is our money-making board. Each year it has a surplus to turn back into denominational channels.

The Relief and Annuity Board is only four years old. Its task is to care for disabled preachers and to provide annuities for those who are now in the service, so that, in case they are disabled, the annuity will keep them from want.

Our youngest board is the Educational Board. Its purpose is to foster Christian education, and to assist in a general way the one hundred nineteen denominational schools of our convention. It is through this board that our own college at East Las Vegas is being aided.

The Woman's Missionary Union has 20,874 local organizations, and contributed during the year nearly $4,000,000 to the work of the denomination. The New Mexico women won the banner for the largest proportionate net increase in the total number of #### Genoa Conference Ends After Planning Parley on Russia at The Hague.

EIGHT-MONTHS' TRUCE SIGNED

America Declines Invitation to Participate in the New Meeting—Good Work by League of Nations' Council—Pinchot's Victory in Pennsylvania.

By EDWARD W. PICKARD

The final results from the Genoa conference that was to bring about the regeneration of Europe, economically and financially, and which has adjourned, appear to be: Plans for new negotiations for a settlement of relations with Russia, to be carried on by commissions which will meet in The Hague in June; a truce of eight months between all the soviet republics and the other European powers; a clearer comprehension on the part of the world of the arrogant attitude and extravagant demands of soviet Russia; and a repeated affirmation of the position of the United States, that it will not participate in the political wrangles of Europe and will not enter into dealings with the Moscow government until the latter recognizes its international obligations.

The last mentioned result came when the Genoa conference invited the United States to take part in the proposed negotiations at The Hague, virtually admitting that without the aid of America's financial resources any agreement for the commercial regeneration of Russia would be useless. Secretary Hughes' reply, after expressing the deep sympathy of this country for the people of Russia and its desire to aid them in every practicable way, continued:

"This government, however, is unable to conclude that it can helpfully participate in the meeting at The Hague, as this would appear to be a continuance, under a different nomenclature of the Genoa conference, and destined to encounter the same difficulties, if the attitude disclosed in the Russian memorandums of May 11 remains unchanged.

"The inescapable and ultimate question would appear to be the restoration of productivity in Russia, the essential conditions of which are still to be secured and must, in the nature of things, be provided within Russia herself."

Intense disappointment was caused in Genoa by this answer, and though it seemed final, some of the delegates, especially the British, refused to consider it. Before the meeting at The Hague gets under way it is likely another attempt will be made to obtain the co-operation of the United States.

ACCORDING to the accepted plan, the nations represented at Genoa will send delegates to The Hague, and from them will be selected a commission that will deal with the financial and economic problems involved in the recognition of soviet Russia, but not with political affairs. The findings will be submitted to the various powers, and, if they are approved, the commission will begin conferences with a commission of Russia. Meanwhile the eight months' truce with the soviet republics will be in effect and the powers will not enter into separate treaties with Moscow or back their nationalities in trying to obtain property in Russia which did not belong to them before the soviet came into control there.

whether Japan intended to engage in a truce in the Far East or to continue the state of war in Siberia. Viscount Ishihara's swift reply was that regardless of past differences among the Russians which had necessitated the presence of Japanese troops in Siberia to protect the property of their nationals, Japan was now ready to conclude a non-aggression pact in the Far East if the China republic also complied with the truce.

Tchitcherlin then squabbled with the Poles, Rumanians and others over alleged plans of anti-Bolshevik leaders to organize expeditions against Russia, but was again squashed. When he asked that what is left of General Wrangel's army be removed further from Russia, Mr. Lloyd George retorted: "Who wants them? We don't." The British premier severely scored Tchitcherlin's defense of Russia as an "innocent, patient, and tolerant model of all the Christian virtues," and in concluding said: "Speaking after 10 years as a minister, longer than anyone else here, I believe the best we can do is to mind our own business. Organizing an expedition under General Wrangel to convert the heathen in Russia or under M. Tchitcherlin and Litvinoff to convert the heathen in our country will only bring trouble."

The Russian delegates have been trying hard to "save their faces" and it is predicted they will not be enthusiastically received by the more extreme communists at home. They have the treaty with Germany to their credit, but they have failed to obtain recognition for their government, and what hurts more, they haven't the ghost of a show of getting the huge loan which was demanded.

DOCTOR WIEDEFELD, the recently arrived ambassador from Germany to the United States, just before he left Berlin concluded a contract by which the Krupp establishment was granted a concession of 50,000 acres of land in Russia to be used in raising food supplies for the Russians. Berlin says this concession gave rise to the "false report" that the Russo-German treaty contained a secret military clause including Krupp delivery of war materials. Dispatches from the German capital state that the success of the Krupp project depends on the co-operation of America and that one of Doctor Wiefeld's first tasks is to persuade Secretary Hoover that America should supply agricultural machinery, grain and seeds, as well as moral support.

NOTWITHSTANDING the decisive defeat of his ally, General Chang, near Peking, Sun Yat Sen, head of the southern Chinese government, is "carrying on" and at last reports was preparing to attack the northern forces in Kiangsi province. General Wu is ready to attack Sun's army in the rear and believes he will soon crush it. Meanwhile Chang has established himself for the time being in Manchuria and has declared the independence of that province and Mongolia. Plans for the unification of China await the result of the coming conflict with Sun Yat Sen's army.

OLD-LINE Republicans received another jolt last week, in the success of Clifford Pinchot who defeated George E. Altner for the gubernatorial nomination in Pennsylvania. As was the case after the Indiana primaries, the Democrats hailed the result as a blow at the national administration, which was denied by the Republican leaders. Really, Mr. Pinchot, ardent conservationist and former Progressive, owed his nomination largely to the women of Pennsylvania. They took an active part in the campaign all over the state, and appeared at the polls in full force.

Senator Pepper easily defeated Congressman-at-Large William J. Burke for the nomination in all the unexpired terms of the late Senator Pepper, and David A. Reed of Pittsburg was nominated for the unexpired term of the late Senator Knox and for the full term beginning next March.

German-Polish treaty settling the Upper Silesia question; the establishment of a financial and economic protectorate over Albania by the league; the throwing open of the court of international justice to all nations, including Russia, Turkey and Mexico; the creation of a commission for international intellectual co-operation with an American member, and the setting of a definite date for disposal of the mandate over Palestine.

The last thing the council did was to decide to support Germany in her protest to the league against the treatment of more than a million Germans residing in Poland. They were barred from citizenship by a ruling that Germans must prove continuous residence in Poland for six years. Nearly all of them were serving in the German army during the war and so are deprived of citizenship. The council determined to urge strongly on Poland the reconsideration of the ruling.

IN PASSING upon the constitutionality of the grain exchange law the Supreme court of the United States found that the taxing features of the measure are unenforceable. Therefore the agricultural bloc in congress, under the leadership of Senator Capper of Kansas, is drawing up a revamped bill to overcome the objections. In place of the taxing power the new bill will probably provide for federal control over exchanges by declaring their activities to be a form of interstate commerce and therefore subject to government supervision.

THE Supreme court knocked out another piece of legislation last week, holding that the child labor law, passed in 1916, is unconstitutional, as an attempt by congress to regulate through its taxing power something entirely within the jurisdiction of the various states in the exercise of their police power. The law was designed to regulate the employment of children in any mill, cannery, workshop, factory or manufacturing establishment, under the age of fourteen or in any mine or quarry under sixteen years by imposing an excise tax of 10 per cent upon the net annual profits of those employing such labor. The Supreme court ruling is in effect another victory for the mill owners of Southern states.

PROGRESS in the senate debate over the tariff is outrageously slow, despite the fact that night sessions are being held. This is by no means due altogether to the Democratic opposition. Republican members are so lax in their attendance that Senator McCumber felt called on to take them to task, telling them if they couldn't keep on the job they should resign. The Democrats attack especially the section of the bill which gives the President power to raise or lower duties within a range of 50 per cent and to proclaim American valuation. This, they assert, is unconstitutional.

ANOTHER battle in conference between the house and the senate is presaged by the action of the senate appropriations subcommittee in agreeing that the army for next year shall consist of approximately 140,000 enlisted men and 12,500 officers. This represents a cut of 10,000 from the strength asked by the War department, but is an increase over the house bill of 28,000 men and 1,500 officers.

WILLIAM RANDOLPH HEARST is again causing the Democrats of New York state great distress of mind. He has declared himself a candidate for the nomination for governor and told the party leaders that he has done so much for the party that it should do that much for him. Mayor Hylan of New York city has come out strongly in favor of Hearst and his chief up-state supporter is W. J. Conners, the Buffalo editor. Tammany doesn't know just what to do.

Has Used it for Years With Splendid Results—Fine for Run Down Condition.

"For four years Tanlac has kept me in the pink of condition as I take a few doses of it every time I feel a little run down and it always builds me up again," said Wm. A. McGraw, 207 Beach Place, Tampa, Fla.

"I began taking Tanlac first about four years ago when I was in a very bad state of health and had been run down for several years. I was always taking laxatives, too, but I believe they did me more harm than good."

"Tanlac made me feel like a brand new man in a very short time and I have never had a return of any of my old troubles. The reason of this I am firmly convinced is that I always have Tanlac handy and take a few doses every time I feel a bit under the weather."

Tanlac is sold by all good druggists.

Fish Stories. Representative Merrick was talking in Oklahoma City about a fish speculator who had made millions during the war.

"It's a good fish story," he said, "and fish stories are popular. In fact, they've been a popular ever since the days of Jonah."

"In the days of Jonah the fish swallowed the prophet and the people swallowed the story, but nowadays the people swallow the fish and somebody also swallows the profit."

WHY DRUGGISTS RECOMMEND SWAMP-ROOT

For many years druggists have watched with much interest the remarkable record maintained by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder medicine.

It is a physician's prescription. Swamp-Root is a strengthening medicine. It helps the kidneys, liver and bladder do the work nature intended they should do.

Swamp-Root has stood the test of years. It is sold by all druggists on its merit and it should help you. No other kidney medicine has so many friends.

Be sure to get Swamp-Root and start treatment at once. However, if you wish first to test this great preparation send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle. When writing be sure and mention this paper.—Advertisement.

Tough. Two negroes were lying behind a packing case on the docks at Great taking the labor out of the alleged labor battalion. Said one boastfully: "Boy, Ah comes I'm a tough breed. My ole man done cut his nails with a ax an' brash his teeth with a file." "Tuh, ain't so tough. Mah ole man am a plumber, an' twice a week he done shave hisself with a blow torch."—American Legion Weekly.

Cuticura Soothes Baby Rash. That itchy and burn, by hot baths of Cuticura Soap followed by gentle anointments of Cuticura Ointment. Nothing better, purer, sweeter, especially if a little of the fragrant Cuticura Talcum is dusted on at the finish. 25c each.—Advertisement.

Having a Heart. "Ought we not to treat the napper humorously?" "I don't know," replied Miss Cayenne. "There are circumstances under which it seems cruel to laugh."

Some men's wishbone is where their backbone ought to be.

Envelope Valued at $12,500. August Lutteken of Denver, one of the largest stamp collectors in the world, has an envelope mailed in 1850 which is valued at $12,500. There are no postage stamps on the envelope. It bears only what were known as postmaster's stamps, requiring payments of 5 cents overseas postage and the collection of another 5 cents postage from the addressee on delivery. No street address appears because such letters could be received only by calling in person at the post-office. The practice was discontinued about the time of the Civil War and specimens have become so rare that Lutteken asserts the one he holds is, in his belief, the only one extant.
