Probate Clerk

OLDEST AND LEADING NEWSPAPER IN CIRCULATION IN THE COUNTY OF LINCOLN, NEW MEXICO

VOLUME 22

CARRIZOZO, LINCOLN COUNTY, NEW MEXICO, FRIDAY, MAY 5, 1922

NUMBER 18

I'm the Gink

I'm the gink that bawls out the telephone girl whenever I don't get the kind of service I want. Why shouldn't I? It's my telephone, ain't it? I pay for it. What do I care if I do say "five" and "nine" just alike. If she can't hear me, let 'em get somebody that can. What do I care for her feelings? If she don't like her job, she can quit. These hello girls know my voice and they know they'd better step around when I call in. I'm going to have service or raise the devil every time I want it. That's me.

For Lyceum Course

The Carrizozo Lyceum Committee states that its organization is now completed and all but one or two numbers for the first entertainment have been arranged for. The outside talent that will appear in the first number follows: Minnie D. Fleming, instructor in Lincoln Consolidated Schools, will sing. Miss Fleming's home is in Roswell; she is a finished musician, and plays and sings equally well. She has agreed to come and sing without charge, the committee to bear her expense. Esther Reed, instructor in the schools of Vaughn, will sing. Miss Reed came to New Mexico from Ohio. She has appeared in Carrizozo before, having sung at the Commencement Exercises in schools about three years ago. Her singing at that time has never been forgotten by those who heard it. She lends her assistance, the committee assuming only her expenses. The local Lyceum Committee will fill in the balance of the programme with five or six other numbers. Details will be announced later.—Committee.

"Husbands on Approval"

At the request of many of the people of the town the Epworth League will repeat the comedy, "Husbands on Approval." The date is Monday, May 8th, at eight o'clock at the Crystal, and the price of admission same as before, 35 and 50 cents. This play when presented last month met the hearty approval of a packed house and its repetition will, no doubt, draw a still larger crowd. Everybody attend, enjoy the production and assist a worthy organization, the Epworth League.

Upper Ruidoso Items

Ruidoso, May 2
I. N. Wingfield made a business trip to Roswell the first of the week.
P. G. Hale is laid up with an attack of the "flu."
No rain has fallen in this part of the valley yet. We are daily hoping we may receive some of the muchly-needed moisture as feed for stock is becoming scarce, and new grass would be very welcome just now.
Several new summer cottages for Roswell parties are being erected up in the Upper Ruidoso canyon, which is rapidly becoming very popular as a summer home section.

While enumerating the improvements in eight years in this valley we might mention these: Good hard roads, bridges over streams, telephones, many beautiful summer homes on Upper Ruidoso, two inns for travelers' accommodation, daily mail service, and three passenger car service between Roswell and Alamogordo. Had you really thought about all of them?

The baby died Tuesday and the mother the following day. Quarantine regulations were put into effect and anti-toxin administered to about a dozen children who had been exposed to the contagion. No additional cases have been reported.

The chairman expressed satisfaction over the political outlook, and stated that he had encountered a fine party spirit in every section he had visited and that the general feeling was that an active campaign with a ticket composed of good, competent men would sweep the state next November.

Educational News

(By Mrs. M. L. Blaney)
This office is in receipt of a letter from Jonathan H. Wagner that the New Mexico Normal University, Las Vegas, will be ready for the summer season. The new building being in readiness at that time. Fortune has favored this institution since the loss of some of the buildings by fire, by the people responding with united efforts to have everything ready for the large attendance of summer students.
The financial condition of the state makes it necessary for every class of employees and employers to stand a certain reduction in salary, and the teachers will be called upon to add their efforts to bring back to a substantial basis the financial standing. Just what reduction in salary will be made is not known at this time.
The first of the rural school commencement exercises will be held at the Nogal Mesa school Friday evening, May 12, 1922. This school continued the school work at Christmas time, therefore closes earlier than some of the others.
The Glencoe school, under the direction of Mrs. Wilber Coe, will have a May Festival Friday evening, May 6th. The Glencoe and Ruidoso schools will have joint commencement exercises on May 19th at the Glencoe school house.
The last State Eighth Grade Promotion Examinations will be held May 18th and 19th. Those who have not already done so will please make request for questions. I again wish to call the attention of teachers to the fact that answers to these questions must be sent as first class matter and requires letter postage.
The attendance banner for the month of April was won by the Baca Canon school, Mrs. J. H. Mims, teacher.
Teachers having attended an eight weeks' session at one of the State Normal Schools last summer will not be required to attend an Institute this summer, but will be required to do the Reading Circle Work and take examination for credit in same. The first State Teachers' Examination will be held in the office of the County Superintendent of Schools, Carrizozo, New Mexico, June 16th and 17th, 1922.

THE SANDMAN STORY

MR. COON GETS EVEN

MR. COON was feeling pretty cross with Mr. Fox, though Mr. Fox did not know this, and Mr. Coon wasn't going to tell him, but his mind was made up the very next time he'd a chance Mr. Fox should be paid for treating him in such an unfriendly manner.

It happened that Mr. Fox had been visiting the poultry up at the farm, and the farmer did not think he was the right sort of a caller to have around, so he set Mr. Dog to watch, and he also set a trap, hoping to catch Mr. Fox the next time he called.

But Mr. Fox was too clever to be caught in a trap. He wasn't certain,

Mr. Dog watching the door but he thought there was a trap under the hay by the poultry house window. He wanted to make sure for he had his mind set upon having a turkey dinner some night.

Mr. Fox did not think it wise to risk his feet in finding out about the trap so he trotted over to Mr. Coon's to tell him about some fine young chickens which he was sure his dear friend, Mr. Coon, would like.

"I am waiting for the turkeys to be the right size," he explained to Mr. Coon, "and as I am tired of chicken dinners I thought I would give you a chance."

Mr. Coon thanked Mr. Fox for being so thoughtful, and that very night he trotted up to the farm and caught his toes in the trap, but he managed to get away and ran home to nurse his sore feet for a week or more without having any food to speak of.

Of course, Mr. Fox was watching not far off, and learned just what he had suspected, and now he would be careful of straw when he was again ready to visit that farm.

While Mr. Coon was home sick he had plenty of time to think, and as he thought he came to the conclusion that Mr. Fox was to blame for all his trouble and suffering, so that was the reason he was so cross at Mr. Fox, and no one could blame him, for one tender toe is bad enough and more than one must be very bad indeed.

One day after Mr. Coon was well he happened to notice Mr. Dog watching the doorway of the home of Johnny Woodchuck and an idea came to him right away.

Mr. Coon waited for Mr. Dog to give up watching and go home for his dinner; then off he ran to tell Mr. Fox that Johnny Woodchuck had a very wide doorway to his home because he was so fat.

Mr. Fox bounded right off for Johnny's home, for he had no idea that Mr. Coon knew the part he played in his being caught in the trap, so he was not at all suspicious.

Mr. Coon knew that Johnny had several openings to his home, that he would be out of the way by the time Mr. Fox got inside, but that was not what he intended for the joke on Mr. Fox.

The doorway was wide just as Mr. Coon had said, for Mr. Dog had helped to make it so, and half of Mr. Fox's body was inside Johnny's house when Mr. Coon, who was watching from a tree, saw Mr. Dog coming on the run, but he was not barking, so Mr. Fox did not hear him.

Mr. Coon smiled. He knew it would not matter at all to Mr. Dog whether it was Mr. Fox he caught or Johnny Woodchuck, and he would give Mr.

Madge Bellamy

Dainty Madge Bellamy, the diminutive "movie" star, had no worries concerning Easter tops, for on that day she donned her mother's finery of another day. Miss Bellamy is well known among the many other screen stars.

Fox the worst shaking he ever had in his life, if nothing more.

Mr. Dog came up to Johnny's home. He recognized Mr. Fox at once and grabbed him by a hind leg, which brought him out of the doorway so quickly that Mr. Coon could never be sure how Mr. Fox looked when he saw who had him.

They got so mixed up that Mr. Coon couldn't tell them apart, but Mr. Fox managed to free himself and off he ran with Mr. Dog chasing him.

Mr. Coon called out from his safe place in the tree, "Look out you do not step on a trap, Mr. Fox. Sorry Mr. Woodchuck was not at home." (Copyright.)

"What's in a Name?"

By MILDRED MARSHALL

FACTS about your name; its history; meaning; whence it was derived; significance; your lucky day and lucky jewel

JOSEPHINE

THE origin of Josephine lies in Scriptural history. When, after long waiting and hoping, a son was born to Rachel, she named him Joseph, the name coming from a word meaning an addition, because she hoped that there would be still another child added to her family.

The beautiful character of Joseph assured him namesakes beyond number and in 1621 a festival day was fixed by the pope in honor of St. Joseph, the husband of the Blessed Virgin. This spread the use of his name afar. Spain adopted it, calling him Jose Maria, or Pepito for the contraction. In this way Pepito, or Jose, the feminine form, arose.

The daughter of Maria Theresa was called Maria Josepha, and these names were seldom separated in France, Italy and Germany. The famous Empress Josephine really bore the name of Marie Josepha Rose. Her unfortunate career as the wife of Napoleon made her such a dramatic figure in French history that Josephine became the favorite name of French damsels, who sometimes contracted it to Effie or Finette. In Switzerland the name became, through some curly Jose Maria, or Pepito for the contracted as such among the peasants. Josephine was introduced into England straight from France, and no effort was made to change it or place the stamp of the Anglo-Saxon upon it. America, taking it over, straightway contracted it to Josie, but Josephine is always given in baptism. Josephine is popular in all Latin countries, except Spain, which retains Josefa. Sweden has a musical Josefina.

Yet, signifying sorrow, is Josephine's talismanic stone. If worn by her it will drive away the causes of sorrows, disease and suffering. Thursday is her lucky day and 2 her lucky number. Her flower is the snowdrop of purity.

WORRY

IF BY a bit of worry I could cure a portion of the care man must endure I'd gladly stand the part of it. And worry night and day, asleep, awake, And even do my level best to make My daily staff of it.

But since 'tis but an added wee With not of remedy a little or a jot, Let's make the nearest cheat of it, And meet our care with drabs of constant cheer, And when a cloud of worry cometh near, Just make a laugh of it. (Copyright.)

WHEN VISITING

WHEN you are the visitor, you might think all your responsibilities would end, so far as the financial end of things is concerned. For it is without doubt the duty or privilege of the host and hostess—it depends on them which they consider it—to pay your expenses while you are their guest. That is to say, besides providing you with board and lodging they plan and pay for your entertainment.

However, there is nobody so offensive as a stingy or a selfish guest. The attitude of taking all and giving nothing is one that everybody, and perhaps guests more than anybody else, should avoid. Though, of course, you accept the gift of hospitality from your host and hostess in accepting their invitation, don't be greedy about it.

For one thing, if you make a long visit, by all means suggest some sort of "treat" of your own. You may invite your hostess, if you are a woman, or your host and hostess, if you are a man, to the theater. Don't be of those who, if they don't want to go, will insist that you go with them.

RISES IN DEFENSE OF FLIRT

According to English Author, Flirtiness is Simply Natural Desire to Be Liked by All.

"I like being adored," she said, "even though I dislike the person who adores me."

"You can express that more simply by saying, 'I'm a flirt,'" said Philip. "But it's such an ugly word. Besides, everyone likes being adored; everyone is a flirt in that sense. It's only the people who never are adored who call it flirting. They would like to be adored, but as they can't, they call the rest of us rude names. But it's no use going about trying to be adored because nobody has the least idea as to how to set about it. It's not the least use being kind and honest and amiable, for that only makes you mildly popular, while the most disagreeable people get worshipped. And it isn't any good being beautiful, I dare say beauty hurries people up, because there is obviously something rather attractive about it, but it's not a bit of good by itself. Perhaps brains have got something to do with it, or is there a sixth sense which directs it all?"—From "Lovers and Friends," by E. E. Benson.

Two Hundred Pounds of Sympathy. "I want to speak to 'Aunt Agnes,' who gives advice to the lovers." "That fat man over there in the corner is 'Aunt Agnes.'" "The idea! I thought the editor of that department was an elderly splinter with a broken heart!" "You can see for yourself that he's of the masculine gender and takes nourishment regularly, but truly, madam, you don't know the depth of that man's soul. He's so affected by some of the letters he receives from maidens in distress, that if he didn't drink steadily he never could get through his work."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

"It" is a small word, but the most unsatisfactory one in the dictionary. A good many bachelors are wearing socks with peckaboo toes and heels.

NOTED PRELATES IN LONDON

Caller's Comment on Matter of Time Somewhat Embarrassing to All Parties Concerned.

We had been spending the evening with acquaintances with whom we had but little in common. In consequence, the time seemed to drag interminably, and when my wife asked me the time I glanced thankfully at my watch.

The hands indicated 9:30. I looked again, shook it and held it up to my ear.

"Funny," I muttered, "the darn thing seems to have stopped. According to this it's only 9:30."

The hostess laughed a little as she referred to her watch. "That's exactly the time I have, too, and that's the time the clock over there on the piano says, I guess, maybe"—she didn't finish, but merely laughed.

Since then when she asks the time, I tell it without any comment. It's less embarrassing.—Baltimore American.

Lee XIII and Plus XI Said to Have Been Familiar With the British Metropolis.

The new pope, Plus XI, visited London as well as Oxford in early life. In the latter place, especially the great Bodleian library naturally attracting such a great scholar. He was himself librarian of the great Vatican library, and known everywhere as a booklover.

It was said that the late Pope Leo XIII knew his way about London better than a great many natives, as he had spent much time there before being raised to the papacy, exploring the stunts and other problems in the metropolis.

Pope Leo XIII was the only one of that exalted rank who ever sat in the British house of commons and in the distinguished strangers' gallery; at that. He also is said to have enjoyed the hospitality of Lord Palmerston under that distinguished statesman's own roof. That was, of course, before his exaltation to the papacy.

Men with "Pop" Men with "Pop" rush in where angels fear to tread. Even in the pling times of peace, they cast "nocturnal" and "lunatic" to the fourth remove and "let their action imitate the tiger." They advance upon our civilization like an army with banners. "Brashness" we need to call it, with affectionate contempt and tender pity; "pop" we call it now, and land it with loud hurrahs.—Henry Ford's Dearborn Independent.

Mr. Jenkins Took a Cracked Club To Tame Lions

The exhibition ended rather badly. It very nearly was a big day for the lions and a sad day for Mr. Jenkins—all for want of proper care in getting ready.

Many a man who has business to do and a living to make and a job to fill is as careless how he feeds his body as Mr. Jenkins was in picking out a club.

Some foods are too heavy, some are too starchy, many lack necessary elements and so starve the body—and many load the system down with fermentation and auto-intoxication.

Grape-Nuts helps build health and strength. It contains the full richness of wheat and malted barley, including the vital mineral elements, without which the body cannot be fully sustained. Grape-

Nuts digests quickly and wholesomely. Served with cream or good milk, it is a complete food—crisp and delicious.

Grape-Nuts is just the food for those who care to meet life's situations well prepared in health. Order Grape-Nuts from your grocer today. Try it with cream or milk for breakfast or lunch, or made into a delightful pudding for dinner.

Has a true Ring

He, with liberal and enlarged mind, who, with his capacity, cannot be masked. The above from Churchill's Farewell strikes the keynote and rightfully places loyalty side by side with human sympathy.

How contemptible, however, is the man who uses patriotism as a cloak in his selfish effort to achieve greatness; for, as Moore, in his Melodies, says:

Far dearer, the grave or the prison,
I lined by one patriot name,
Than the trophies of all who have risen
To Liberty's robes to fame.

But it was left to Lord Byron to name the lowest depths to which man could descend, when he said:

He who loves not his country, can love nothing.

Change in Village Officers

Monday night, May 1, the mayor and trustees who have guided the affairs of the Village the past two years surrendered their offices to their successors.

We feel that the past two years the Village has enjoyed a systematic business administration. It is true that evidences of progress are not prominently visible, but the retiring officials did lay the foundation for better things—pointed the way for modern conveniences at a cost far below that of any other town or village in the state—and yield the reins of power to their successors in the clearest manner. And in improvements, the retiring trustees kept pace with the financial re-

Uncle Walt's Story

LOVED AND LOST

THE newspaper tells of a young man who committed suicide because he was rejected by the girl he loved," observed the professor. "He must have been a poor-spirited creature. There is much truth in the old saying that it's better to have loved and lost than never to have loved at all."

"I never could see much truth in it," replied the low-browed man. "Most of the old sayings are gold bricks. They seem to be 50 per cent wisdom until you sit down and take them apart and examine the pieces, and then you wonder that they fooled you so long."

"I've only been in love once. I've imagined myself in love a good many times, but the great sizzling passion of my life had possession of me about ten years ago. I was so far gone that I wrote poetry, and when a man does that you may know he's no longer responsible for his actions."

"The girl's name was Isabella Butterworth, and to say she was a peach-erino is not doing her justice. She was an apprentice in a millinery joint, and only earned two bones a week, so you can see I loved her for herself alone. If she hadn't been drawing more than one plunk a week it would have been just the same. There's nothing unselfish about me where my affections are concerned."

"Tom Magretree was my rival. He was a worthless, loathsome individual, who had a squeaky tenor voice and played the mandolin. He belonged to the glee club and sang in the choir, and a man who sings in public always has a strong pull with the girls. Isabella wavered for a while. She realized that I was one of nature's noblemen, but I couldn't sing any more than a bullfrog with a sore throat. She was passionately fond of music, and the sight of Tom standing up before a cultured and refined audience, all shirt-front and white teeth, was more than she could resist. So finally she told me the best she could do under the circumstances was to be a sister to me, and she and Tom were married."

"I can't tell you how tough I felt, professor. It seemed to me that the bottom had fallen out of everything. If the marriage had been a failure my broken heart might have healed in time, for there's nothing more encouraging to a rejected suitor than to see the girl strike hard wedding after the ceremony. Then he knows she is regretting the choice she made."

"But everything prospered with Isabella. She had a great business head on her. She bought out the millinery store and built it up until it employed fifteen or twenty women, and then she added dry goods, and more or less years she had the biggest establishment in town. I never heard of such a soft snap as Tom's. His wife makes all kinds of money, and all he has to do is to wear purple and fine linen and sit around looking beautiful. He hasn't done a lick of work since he was married, and his wife considers it a pleasure to make money for him to blow, and she looks upon him as the most interesting event that ever occurred."

"No man with flesh and blood in his veins can look unmoved upon such a spectacle. Often when I am carrying milk to my customers I see Tom bowling along the boulevard in his motor-car, and he looks at me in a tone of voice that makes me yearn to battle, murder and sudden death. Some day I'll meet that man when the police can't interfere, and then I'll manure his head until he admits that he is a complete mistake."

"If I had never loved Isabella I wouldn't care anything about this business. But when I reflect that I might be in his place if I had been able to sing 'The Lost Chord' in a high, squealing voice, my burden seems greater than I can bear, and I can hardly wait for the time when I'll have a chance to even things up with Tom."

sources at their command.

The new board of trustees has a big job before it, not only in that it will have considerable funds to disburse, but more particularly in getting value received for every dollar spent and in giving the Village an up-to-date water system that will fulfill every requirement and produce the most conveniences. Two of the old board are members of the new—Julian M. Taylor and Frank E. Richard—the former elevated to the position of mayor, and the latter re-elected as a trustee.

W. W. Stadtman, who has served as clerk the past two years, was re-elected and is, therefore, quite well acquainted with its duties and responsibilities. Added duties, of course, will fall to his lot the ensuing two years by reason of the work attending the installation of a water works system, etc.

The experience of the two old members of the board, and the business training and level-headedness of the three new members, assure the people that their interests will be given proper attention. The new board has its cloth cut—but its hardest days are before it—and that it will meet and overcome any difficulties Tax News has no doubt. The new ship of state, so far as the municipality goes, is in your hands, gentlemen. Bon voyage.

The old officers were:—A. J. Rolland, mayor; Julian M. Taylor, Frank E. Richard, E. D. Boone, Ben Lujan, trustees; W. W. Stadtman, clerk.

The new officials are: Julian M. Taylor, mayor; Frank E. Richard, Fred Lalone, Charles H. Lutz and George T. McQuillen, trustees; W. W. Stadtman, clerk.

Ordinance No. 25

An ordinance authorizing and directing the incurring of the indebtedness and the sale of bonds in the par value of $25,000.00 for the purpose of securing funds with which to construct a water works system and acquire such water, water rights and rights-of-way as may be necessary for such purpose for the Village of Carrizozo, New Mexico.

WHEREAS, by an ordinance heretofore duly passed by the Board of Trustees of the Village of Carrizozo, New Mexico, and duly approved and published as required by law, and also by a resolution, the said Board caused to be submitted to a vote of such qualified electors of the said Village as had paid a property tax therein during the preceding year the question of incurring an indebtedness and of issuing negotiable bonds by the said Village in a sum not to exceed $25,000.00, bearing interest at not to exceed six per cent per annum, payable semi-annually, and to become due and payable not to exceed thirty years from their date, for the purpose of constructing a water works system and acquiring such water, water rights and rights-of-way as may be necessary for such purpose for such Village, to be determined by the ballots of such qualified voters, the said election to be held at the same time and at the same polling place of the next regular election for the election of Officers and Trustees for the said Village on Tuesday, the 4th day of April, 1922, and by said ordinance and resolution directed and caused due legal notice of such time and place for holding such election and the purpose for which such bonds were to be issued to be duly and lawfully published once each week for four consecutive weeks immediately prior to the said election.

And whereas, said election was duly held at such time and place and said question of incurring such indebtedness and of issuing said bonds of said Village in said amount for said purpose was voted upon as required by law and in accordance with such ordinance and resolution by the qualified voters only who had paid a property tax in the said Village during the preceding year, and thereafter due return and canvass of such ballots so cast separately and deposited in a separate ballot box, and the results of such vote determined and a certificate of such result made upon the minutes of this Board in accordance with law.

And Whereas, there was and it so appears from the said return of said election upon the question of incurring such indebtedness and issuing said bonds for the purpose of construction of such water works system and acquiring such water, water rights and rights-of-way as may be necessary for such purpose, 54 ballots were cast, of which 53 were in favor of and 1 was against the same, and now, therefore:

Be it Ordained by the Board of Trustees of the said Village of Carrizozo, New Mexico:

1. That there shall be incurred an indebtedness by the said Village of Carrizozo in the sum of $25,000.00 and the bonds of said Village issued and sold as hereinafter provided, the proceeds of the sale to be used for the construction of such water works system and acquiring such water, water rights and rights-of-way as may be necessary for such purpose for the said Village of Carrizozo. The said bonds shall be numbered consecutively from No. 1 to No. 50, inclusive, and shall be styled and denominated "WATER SYSTEM BONDS." That each of said bonds shall be in denomination of Five Hundred Dollars par value and each thereof shall bear interest at the rate of six per cent per annum, payable semi-annually on the first day of June and the first day of December, respectively, with coupons for such interest payments. The principal of each and every such bond shall be and become payable at the option of the said Village after twenty years from the date thereof and be paid in installments of one per cent per annum for the first five years from the date thereof...

in the City of New York, State of New York.

2. That such bonds shall be sold and delivered to the purchaser by the said Board of Trustees of the said Village at its office in the Village of Carrizozo on the first day of June, 1922, immediately upon the close of inspection of the bids therefor which shall begin at two o'clock P. M. of the said day, for cash to the highest and best bidder at not less than par and accrued interest to the date of such sale. That each and every bid shall be enclosed and sealed with the name of the bidder plainly marked on such envelope and submitted and filed in the office of the Clerk of said Village on or before twelve o'clock noon of the said date and shall not be opened until the time for inspection of the bids, above named. That each bid made for such bonds shall be accompanied by an unconditional check in the sum of Two Hundred Fifty Dollars ($250.00), certified by some responsible bank, payable to the Treasurer of the said Village, as liquidated damages should such bidder fail to take up and pay the amount so bid for such bonds, in the event the same are awarded to him, immediately after such award being made.

3. That the moneys derived from the sale of such bonds shall be used to construct such water works system and acquire such water, water rights and rights-of-way as may be necessary for such purpose, as may be determined by the Board, and the said water works system shall be operated by the said Village as a public utility under such reasonable rules and regulations and compensation as shall be charged for furnishing water, so that the net revenue arising from the operation of such property will after deducting the actual cost of maintenance and operation be annually sufficient to provide an amount sufficient to pay the interest upon the bonds so issued for the construction and acquirement of such property from the operation of which such revenues arise, and an annual ratable proportion of the principal thereof for the redemption of said bonds as the same fall due, less such amount thereof as will be or become available for such purpose from the taxes levied and collected prior to the time when any such interest should be paid or any portion of the principal provided or set aside for the future payment thereof. That in addition thereto there shall be levied and collected each and every year a separate tax upon all the taxable property in the said Village sufficient for the payment of the said interest and of said principal of said issue of said bonds when the said interest and principal fall due; provided that the said taxes shall not exceed any constitutional liquidation applicable thereto; and provided further that if the net revenue arising from the operation of such water works system during any calendar year is or will be sufficient to meet such interest payments upon the bonds and provide such ratable proportion of the funds for the payment of the principal thereof when due, so issued for the construction and acquirement of such property from the operation of which such revenue arises, then and in that event such tax so to be levied during such year for the payment of such interest, and to provide such proportion of the funds for the redemption of such bonds, shall not be collected or applied to such purpose. If for any reason there should not be produced by either of said methods sufficient funds for the payment of interest and to provide for the principal as above required for such bonds, the same shall be collected and paid as above provided, as soon as may be under the laws of the State of New Mexico for the levy and collection of taxes in villages thereof, and within such year in which such deficit occurs, if such can be done under such laws, and if not so possible thereunder, then at the earliest period allowable under the law during the succeeding year. That any and all balance of the net revenue arising from the operation of such water works system shall together with the proceeds of the tax levied for the payment of the principal and interest on the bonds so issued shall constitute a separate fund for the payment of such interest and the redemption of such bonds when due. That at each interest bearing date the proportion thereof available for the redemption of said bonds shall be placed in a sinking fund for such purpose...

4. The said bonds shall be issued substantially in the form and to be of the tenor and effect as follows, to-wit:

"KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS: That the Village of Carrizozo, New Mexico, acknowledges itself to owe for value received and promises to pay to the bearer on the first day of June, 1952, at the Chemical National Bank, in the City and State of New York, the sum of Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00), together with interest thereon from June 1, 1922, at the rate of six per cent per annum, payable semi-annually on the first days of June and December, respectively, after date, upon presentation and surrender of the coupon calling therefor at such bank. Said Village of Carrizozo hereby reserves the right to redeem this bond at any semi-annual interest paying date on or after the expiration of twenty years from the date thereof, by paying principal and interest. That in event the same shall be called in for redemption before maturity, notice thereof shall be given in writing to the said Chemical National Bank by the Treasurer of the said Village at least thirty days before the date fixed for redemption, and should this bond not be presented for redemption at the said time the same shall cease to bear interest from and after the date so fixed for such redemption. This bond is one of a series of bonds numbered from No. 1 to No. 50, inclusive, each in the sum of Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00), and the entire issue totaling Twenty-five Thousand Dollars ($25,000.00), and issued for the construction of a water works system and acquiring such water, water rights and rights-of-way as may be necessary for such purpose for the said Village of Carrizozo, New Mexico, under and by virtue of and in strict conformity with the requirements of the laws of the State of New Mexico and the ordinances of the said Village of Carrizozo, New Mexico, and in pursuance of an election duly and lawfully called, notice given and held as provided by the laws of the said State and such ordinances, at which said election more than one-half of the legal votes cast were in favor of the proposition of creating such indebtedness and issuing such bonds for such purposes, and in all other respects in full and strict compliance with the laws of the said State and the ordinances of the said Village.

It is hereby recited and certified that the provisions and requirements of all the laws of the State of New Mexico and the ordinances of the said Village of Carrizozo, New Mexico, as well as all conditions precedent to the lawful issue of this bond, have been fully and strictly complied with and performed. That the total indebtedness of the said Village does not exceed the limitation of indebtedness prescribed by law, and for the prompt payment of the principal and interest hereof as the same shall respectively fall due the full faith, credit and resources of the said Village are hereby irrevocably pledged.

5. The Mayor and Clerk of the said Village are hereby directed and required to give notice by publication of the passage and approval of this ordinance in the Carrizozo News, a newspaper of general circulation printed and published in said Village of Carrizozo, on the 5th day of May, 1922, and notice of publication as required by law once each week for four consecutive weeks prior to the first day of June, 1922, in said Carrizozo News, and also in one newspaper published in Santa Fe, New Mexico, and one leading financial newspaper published in the City of New York, State of New York, stating the amount, rate of interest, time of maturity and condition of said bonds, respectively, and that such issue will be sold on the date and in the manner above named.

6. This ordinance shall be in full force and effect from and after its passage and publication as required by law.

Passed by the board Trustees and duly approved by the Mayor on the 27th day of April, 1922.

U.S. Vessels in Hudson Lacked of their Fittings

These ships of the American merchant marine, lying idle in the Hudson near Peekskill, were loaded of valuables to the extent of half a million dollars. According to information received, the articles taken consist mainly of brass fittings, table linens, silverware and other items used in the officers' rooms and in cabins. Secret service men have been working on the case for some time, and are able to throw some light on the mysterious death of Charles Olm, an employee on one of the boats.

Wireless Light Is New Wonder

Only in Experimental Stage, but Scientists Have Faith in Its Possibilities.

SOFT ORANGE-COLORED GLOW

Research Work at Massachusetts Institute of Technology Has Succeeded in Producing Light Without Wires.

Boston.—A ring of soft orange light, with no wires leading to it and glowing in the darkness, sets up an interesting train of speculation as to the illumination of the future. Nobody supposes for an instant that our lighting problems have been solved. Compared with what the future will bring forth the present arrangement of wires with bulbs that have to be screwed into their sockets and renewed frequently is cumbersome and inefficient. Research work at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology has succeeded in producing a light without wires; that is to say, the incandescence is set up by induction, where the electric current bridges an interval purely by electric energy. To be sure the light is only an experiment and so far is not practical for commercial purposes, but the method has possibilities.

The research division of the department of electrical engineering experiments with a tube filled with neon gas have been carried to the point where the tube has been caused to give out light, although no wires have been attached to it. In the ordinary form of electric illumination the light is usually produced by an incandescent form of filament or by carbon electrodes. The life of both of these types is limited by the burning out of the incandescent element. Of course, in the case of the arc lamp this can be easily renewed, but at the cost of frequent trimming. The type of incandescent bulb in common use has been improved through the substitution of tungsten for the carbon filament. Several types of lamp using incandescent vapor have been developed, and have been used both experimentally and commercially. The Moore light used very long tubes filled with carbon dioxide or nitrogen, which were caused to glow through the discharge of a high voltage electric current through the glass. This type was not much used commercially, but a similar lamp known as the Cooper-Hewitt mercury vapor lamp is at present in general use in a great variety of places, among them the motion-picture studios. Both of these types require electrodes, or terminals, sealed in the glass, but they have a long life because there are no parts which wear out or burn out.

The instrument. The experiments conducted at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology used a glass tube closed upon itself in the form of a ring. This ring was slipped over an iron core wound with the proper number of turns of wire through which alternating current was caused to flow. The magnetism, passing through the glass tube, then induced a voltage in the gas contained therein, and if the parts were properly proportioned this voltage ionized the vapor and caused it to glow, giving out light in a similar manner to the Moore and the Cooper-Hewitt lamps, but of a pleasing orange color. Neon gas at a low pressure was used, since it has desirable characteristics for this purpose, and a high-frequency current of about 300,000 cycles was employed to excite the transformer.

The new lamp is only in the experimental stage at present and the amount of light given out is not large, but the possibilities are interesting. It could be commercially made in the form of a standard fixture around which the glass tubes could be slipped. The lamp will last indefinitely unless the glass is broken, and then it is only necessary to slip a new tube in place, no electrical connections being required. The quality of the light is soft and pleasing, and as it is not of a high intensity it does not strain the eyes.

GRADING AND PAVING ROADS

Average Figures for Whole of United States Given Out by Bureau of Public Roads.

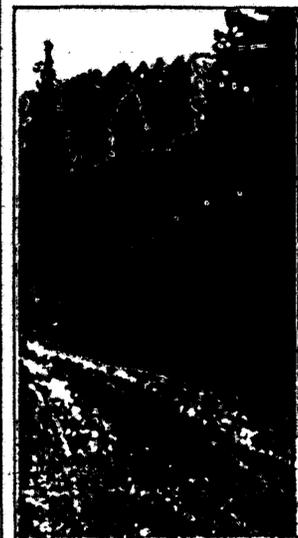

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

What part of the cost of a road goes into grading and structures that are more or less permanent, and what part goes into the paving, which may eventually wear out?

This question is answered fully by statistics compiled by the bureau of public roads of the United States Department of Agriculture on 1,850 completed federal-aid roads, involving 7,500 miles of road, at a total cost of $112,000,000. Of the total cost, 21 per cent went into grading, 14 per cent into structure, 62 per cent into paving, and 3 per cent for engineering. These are the average figures for the whole of the United States, but there is considerable variation in different sections.

In the Middle Atlantic states, where grading is not heavy and paving must be built for heavy traffic, the cost of the paving rises to 70 per cent and the grading and structures fall to 15 per cent and 2 per cent, respectively.

In the Mountain states the problem is very different, much of the work being new construction with heavy grading, and the highest type

TRAFFIC CENSUS OF TRUCKS

Information as to Speed and Size of Average Vehicle Obtained in New England.

How large is the average truck and how fast does it travel? This question and others of interest to truck owners and users of the highways are answered by information obtained in a recent traffic census taken by the bureau of public roads, United States Department of Agriculture, on one of the most traveled highways in New England. The census discloses that 40 per cent of the trucks were of 1 ton capacity or less; 33 per cent between 1 and 2 1/2 tons; 5 per cent between 2 1/2 and 5 tons; and that less than 2 per cent of the trucks were of more than 5 tons capacity.

On a level stretch of road, over which the speed of motor vehicles was timed, it was found that more trucks traveled at a speed of 20 miles an hour than at any other rate. Thirty-seven per cent traveled 20 miles an hour or faster. One truck, whose driver said he was in a hurry to get there, was found to be traveling at a speed of 45 miles an hour.

TREES FOR STATE HIGHWAYS

If Planted 50 or 60 Feet Apart They Will Not Harm Roads and Will Add Pleasure.

The Minnesota forestry department in the capitol at St. Paul is offering nut trees for planting on the highways of Minnesota. The planting of these state highways with shade, ornamental or fruit trees should be begun at once. If the road is properly made so that it drains well and the trees are set 50 or 60 feet apart they will not harm the roads in the least and will add much to the pleasure of driving along them in the future.—LaRoy Cady, associate professor of horticulture, University Farm, St. Paul.

USE MORE WATER CRESS

Water cress will be found growing in almost all parts of the country in shallow brooks, but it is far from being properly appreciated. As a blood purifier and tonic it is a green unequalled. In city markets one finds many buyers, for the city housewife has some appreciation of its worth. One must be sure that the water from which the cress is gathered is pure, for disease germs gather on such greens and are a menace to health.

Like most green vegetables cress is better served fresh than cooked, as much of the mineral matter is dissolved or changed by cooking. Cress is particularly rich in mineral matter, containing both sulphur and phosphorus. It is especially good in the spring as it is a stimulant to the appetite because of its peppery flavor.

A water-cress soup is especially good. The following recipe will give the method of preparing it:

Take two bunches of water cress, each bunch weighing a pound, or a quart of chopped cress, half a tablespoonful of minced onion, three tablespoonfuls of rice, three tablespoonfuls of butter, a dash of cayenne, the yolk of an egg, four cups of white stock (chicken preferred), a cupful of rich milk or thin cream, one-half teaspoonful of salt, a grating of nutmeg and whipped cream for garnishing. Pick off the tips of the cress and save for garnishing; chop fine, stems and all. Fry the onion in butter until a light yellow, add the stock, rice and cress. When well cooked rub through a sieve and add the egg and cream. There should be three cupfuls of soup when ready to serve. Serve piping hot with whipped cream sprinkled with the fresh cress tips.

When one is fortunate enough to obtain cress in abundance, cook it as one does spinach or any greens. Do not add any water when cooking except that which clings to the cress. Toss and stir occasionally until it is well heated through. If care is used no extra water will be needed. Drain, save the liquor and chop the cress fine. Thicken the liquor with a little flour and butter cooked together, adding a generous supply of butter. Serve very hot.

EVERYDAY ECONOMICAL DISHES

A well made bean soup is delicious, and is also most nourishing.

Bean Soup.—Parboil one pint of beans, adding one-fourth of a teaspoonful of soda to the water, and cook five minutes; drain and add twice as much boiling water as beans and six ounces of salt pork cut in dice. Cook until the soup is rich and creamy and the beans tender. Add a tablespoonful of butter, pepper and salt to taste; rub through a sieve, add one-half cupful of rich milk and serve hot.

Chocolate Custard.—Take one pint of milk, add one egg, one tablespoonful of cornstarch, one tablespoonful of cocoa or chocolate and one-third of a cupful of sugar. Scald the milk in a double boiler, beat the yolk of an egg with the sugar and cornstarch, the latter being dissolved in a little cold milk. Pour the hot milk on this and cook like a soft custard, adding a tablespoonful of coconut before it has fully thickened. Beat the white of an egg until stiff, add two teaspoonfuls of powdered sugar. Heap this meringue on top of each serving.

Cocunut Pudding.—Place a teaspoonful of coconut in the bottom of individual glasses and make a custard of two cupfuls of milk, the yolk of one egg and one-half of a tablespoonful of cornstarch with three teaspoonfuls of sugar. Pour the custard over the coconut after it is cooked and cool. Serve with the white of the egg beaten stiff and a little sugar added, on top.

Spider Corn Cakes.—Take one and one-half cupfuls of sour milk, one-half teaspoonful of soda, one and one-eighth cupfuls of corn meal, one-half cupful of bread flour, three teaspoonfuls of baking powder, one tablespoonful of sugar, one teaspoonful of salt, one egg and one and one-half cupfuls of milk. Mix the dry ingredients together and then turn in the sour milk, mixed with the soda and one-half of the sweet milk. Beat well, stir in the egg, well beaten, and pour into a frying pan containing two tablespoonfuls of melted drippings. Gently add the remainder of the milk, but do not stir. Bake in a moderate oven for thirty minutes. To be perfectly successful this cake must contain a crusty layer in the center. Serve with sweetened jelly.

Baked Apples With Dates.—Wash and core four small apples. Fill the centers with sugar and two dates. Bake until tender and serve with one-half cupful of cream whipped and

AFTER THE FLU

If the Flu Left You Weak, or You're in Need of a Tonic to Build You Up, Take This Advice

Houston, Texas.—"I was in a terribly run-down condition of health after a siege of pneumonia poisoning, and then the influenza. I could not seem to regain my strength and was really not able to do my household work. I knew I needed a good tonic and builder and remembered how my folks used to regard Dr. Pierce's remedies in my girlhood days, and then I decided to take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. After taking the second bottle I found it was doing me a world of good, strength returned rapidly and I felt better in every way. I am glad indeed to recommend the medicine that did me so much good and do not hesitate to give this statement."—Mrs. Gertrude Hall, 1236 Rutland St.

A New Nash

It's a Nash; light, easy running, furnishes its own power; is equipped with self-starter, uses no lubricant, has all the latest improvements, and yet retains every essential of strength and beauty, symmetry and and comeliness that has attracted the eye of man since the first bird warbled his sweet song in the fragrant orchards of the Garden of Eden. This new creation was exhibited in El Paso Wednesday night for the first time, and attracted a large crowd of admirers—among which the gentler sex—predominated, each vying with the other in praise; some declaring it had the brightest, clearest lamps they had ever visioned; others dilated on its old rose coloring, so charming in its simplicity, while others contented themselves with ecstatic expressions over its lovely top—a blending of lavender, corn-flower and sunshine. The Trainmaster expects to bring the latest Nash product to Carrizozo soon, and has remodeled his garage for its reception, and has also enlarged it; for he, naturally, anticipates additions to the model, but because of its daintiness—it weighs only seven pounds, seven ounces—it will be conveyed to this point in a Pullman. We have the assurance that it will be received with open arms by our people; that its popularity will grow with the years, and that when sixteen summers shall have passed it will not only still be in the running, but will be striking on four cylinders and hitting up its best gait.

Our Streams Restocked with Native Trout

Thomas P. Gable, state fish and game warden, arrived Wednesday afternoon with 80,000 trout fry for restocking the streams of Lincoln county. They are brook trout, and are said to thrive and propagate in mountain streams. The warden turned the consignment over to the Southwestern Game & Forest Protective Association for distribution in our streams. T. E. Kelly, president of the association, and a number of the members of the association took charge of the shipment, and that evening conveyed the little fellows to their new homes in the streams of this county. The fry was divided among the Bonito, Eagle and Ruidoso streams and their tributaries.

Road Work South

An appropriation of $1250 was made by the county commissioners to be applied on the road to Three Rivers, down the track; providing the state would set aside a like sum. This the state has since done; therefore, there is now the sum of $2500 available for this particular piece of road.

The State Highway Department sent a representative down to view the road and report. Work, it is confidently believed, will begin at once. The work will be done under state supervision.

The improvement of this road will result in great benefit to Lincoln county, and will be the means of attracting much travel through here. The road, while passable now, is in bad condition, and for that reason much travel south and west is directed to other routes. All that will be obliterated when these new arrangements are completed.

No community is too remote for us to reach and every case reported will be promptly investigated. If you know of a needy person or family in your neighborhood, please notify the board at once.
