

Carrizozo News

Feature Clerk

OLDEST AND LEADING NEWSPAPER IN CIRCULATION IN THE COUNTY OF LINCOLN, NEW MEXICO

VOLUME 22

CARRIZOZO, LINCOLN COUNTY, NEW MEXICO, FRIDAY, SEPT. 1, 1922

NUMBER 35

Democrats Hold Convention

The biggest Democratic convention in the history of Lincoln county met at the court house Monday, August 28, completed its work and adjourned at 4:00 o'clock the same afternoon. Not only was the convention big in point of numbers—82 delegates being present and in addition casting 23 proxies—but it was big in good humor, harmony and in unanimity of action. Nearly every action of the convention was unanimous and only two contests developed—and they were of the friendliest sort—and the mass of work turned off was wholly due to the harmonious spirit that marked every action of the convention from its opening to its close.

County chairman Robert Taylor called the convention to order at the appointed time. A. H. Norton was chosen temporary chairman and Miss Audrey Miller temporary secretary. Three committees were appointed, viz: one on credentials, one on permanent organization and order of business and one on resolution. The convention then took a recess until 1 p. m., during which time the committees prepared their reports.

At the hour named in the recess the convention reconvened. The credentials committee reported 82 delegates present and 23 proxies; the committee on permanent organization and order of business recommended that the temporary organization be made permanent and that the order published in the call be followed; and the committee on resolutions briefly commended the official acts of the four Democratic county officials, and congratulated the people of Lincoln county in electing them to their respective positions; condemned the Republican state administration for extravagance, high taxes and general wastefulness and urged all citizens to consider carefully the policies of the Democratic party and the merits of its nominees. All reports were adopted.

E. W. Harris was nominated for sheriff by acclamation; so was Harry G. Norman for treasurer; Ralph M. Treat for county clerk; John L. Bryan for assessor; W. E. Kimbrell for Probate judge; Mrs. Louise E. Coe for school superintendent; Ben F. Nabours for Surveyor; Robert H. Taylor for commissioner from district No. 3, and Merritt U. Finley for representative to the legislature for Lincoln county. In district No. 1 the names of Robert C. Sowder, Eugene C. Dow and George Hamilton were presented for commissioner. Dow received a majority of the votes and upon Sowder's motion the nomination was made unanimous. In district No. 2 the names of Melvin Franks and Harry A. Gallacher were presented. The result of the ballot gave Franks just a little lead and upon Gallacher's motion Franks' nomination was made unanimous.

Twelve delegates were elected to represent Lincoln county in the state and district conventions that met in Albuquerque yesterday. They are as follows: A. H. Hudspeth, George L. Ulrick, John Y. Hewitt, A. S. McCamont, R. C. Sowder, Jno. A. Haley, Mrs. Eva S. Coldren, Mrs. Rebecca Anderson, A. D. Brownfield, Mrs. Mae Atkinson, Mrs. L. A. McCall and Joe H. Clements.

A resolution presented by Judge Hewitt endorsing Ernest M. Brickley for Governor was unanimously adopted.

Chairmen and vice chairmen for the respective precincts of the county were then chosen after which the convention, having completed its labors, adjourned. The county committee held a meeting immediately following the adjournment of the convention and elected Jno. A. Haley chairman and Syl G. Anderson secretary. The committee, after the transaction of routine business, adjourned subject to the call of the chairman.

A. A. Jones Nominated for U. S. Senate

Special to the News

Albuquerque, Sept. 1.—Yesterday was taken up with temporary organization and other routine convention matters, and a recess taken until this morning.

Got down to business early this morning. A permanent organization was formed, then a platform and arranging committees for the campaign, when a recess was taken until 1:00 p. m.

2:00 p. m.—On the convention convening the name of Andrieus A. Jones was placed before the convention. He was nominated without a dissenting vote for United States Senator for New Mexico.

There will probably be a night session held in order to complete the ticket.

Everything is going harmoniously.

Parsons News Letter

Mrs. J. I. Welch and little daughter Myra Jr. left Tuesday for their home in Dawson, N. M. They were accompanied by Mrs. Welch's aunt, Mrs. Julia Molineaux.

Miss Erma Ponge is home again after several months spent with an aunt in Trinidad, Colo.

Mrs. J. M. Rice celebrated her seventy-seventh birthday Sunday by a dinner party given in her honor and at which her entire family including children and grandchildren were present.

Mr. Walter Grey and wife were visitors in Parsons Sunday.

Mrs. Lottie Bentley gave a children's party Friday night. Many were present and all had a good time.

Will Close Plants

Detroit, Mich., Aug. 26.—The Ford Motor company plants at Highland Park, Dearborn and River Rouge suburbs, will close down Sept. 16 because of lack of coal, it was announced by Henry Ford today. The suspension will affect upward of 50,000 workers in the three plants and indirectly several hundred thousand others throughout the country.

Assembly plants of the Ford company throughout the country also will be closed, it was stated, bringing the number of strictly Ford employees affected by the suspension to approximately 85,000. Others affected are employees of concerns dependent on Ford orders.

A Tree is Known by its Fruit

(From keynote speech, Democratic State Convention.)

1. During whose administration did the American farmer receive the largest returns for his labor and upon his invested capital?

2. During whose administration has the American laborer had his fullest dinner pail and received his highest pay?

3. During whose administration did the American business man make his largest profits?

4. During whose administration has the American stockholder received his highest dividends?

5. During whose administration was the greatest banking ever known created?

6. During whose administration was the American flag restored to the seas of commerce and the greatest American marine created?

7. During whose administration was America's wealth made to bear its just proportion of taxation?

8. During whose administration did the American navy reach its highest efficiency?

9. During whose administration did America's foreign trade reach its highest figure?

10. During whose administration did America become the great creditor nation of the world?

11. During whose administration did America enjoy the greatest general prosperity?

12. During whose administration was it found that American citizens, untrained in the arts of war could be transformed in a few months into better soldiers than men of Europe who had been trained for years in standing armies?

13. During whose administration did America achieve for herself and aid in achieving for Europe the greatest victory over autocracy ever known in the history of the human race?

14. During whose administration did the American nation become the greatest influence for good and reach its highest peak of leadership in international affairs wherein the object was liberation of the human spirit from the domination of monarchy and caste rule?

To all of these questions there can be but one answer, it differs not how bitterly partisan the man may be to whom the question is put.

Think first and then vote. Republican prosperity the past two years has been featured by many strikes of working men, much unemployment, and general depression throughout the country. Do you want more of it?

A Serious Accident

Leora Taylor, the pretty 13-year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Taylor, met with a very serious accident Tuesday evening while delivering milk to customers at the north end of town. In getting out of the Ford truck, which was driven by her brother, she slipped and fell. A milk bottle which she held dropped on the side walk and was broken. Her left arm, in falling, came in contact with the broken glass, cutting a deep gash, and severing some minor arteries, and the ligaments which control the three first fingers. The injury was about three inches above the hand. She was immediately taken to the Paden hospital, placed under an anesthetic, and had the arteries tied and ends of the ligaments drawn together and stitched, and the hand and arm placed in splints. Notwithstanding the ugly nature of the injury, and the amount of blood lost, she was able to leave the hospital the following day, and is now able to be up.

It is believed, on account of her youth, the ligaments will grow, and that she will have full use of her fingers, with a possibility of one of them being a little stiff, depending on the ligaments not pulling apart.

She is a stout, athletic girl, with perhaps too much confidence in her ability to jump on and off a car. All those who know her deeply sympathize with her and her parents.

The Raventon Murder

There has been no new developments in the Raventon murder case, further than the arrest of two men, who are believed to know more about the tragedy than they will admit. Their names are Vicente Aragon and Melcor Martinez. They have been interviewed individually, by District Attorney Newell, who set September 9 as the date for their preliminary hearing. The sheriff's office has been busy the best part of the week working on the case. Sheriff Harris left this morning for Capitan on a new lead.

Democratic Chairman Geo. H. Hunker states that his tour of the state convinced him that the people are anxious for a change in administration. Reduction in taxes and elimination of waste in public offices, will be campaign issues.

U.B. Thrifty says

Pay roll robbers furnish a strong argument for payment by check.

Adversity teaches precaution.

The farmers of this community who are developing the stock-raising and dairy ing industries, are to be commended.

WE LEND MONEY on these enterprises because we have faith in them and the men behind them.

Feel free to call on us.

The Exchange Bank

CARRIZOZO, N. M.

"The Bank for You in 1922."

You Can Get it at Our DRUG STORE

Don't forget that we are up-to-the minute druggists. We pride ourselves on the fact that we keep our goods on the move, thereby giving you the best, freshest goods that can be had. Our prices are within keeping with what any reliable store would ask. Come in any time. It will be a pleasure to wait on you.

COME TO US FOR IT.

Rolland Bros. Pharmacy

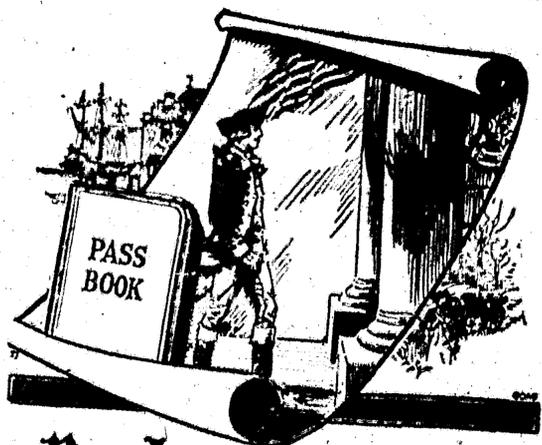

The Law of Progress

IS AS UNCHANGEABLE AS THE LAWS OF THE GREEKS AND PERSIANS.

THE INDIVIDUAL WHO SPENDS MORE THAN HE EARNS—OR, AS IS OFTEN THE CASE, SPENDS ALL BEFORE HE EARNS—TRAVELS IN A HOPELESS CIRCLE. HE CANNOT ADVANCE, AND "HE WHO DOES NOT ADVANCE, RECEDES."

The person who saves before he spends inevitably registers progress. Why not put the principle to the test?

FIRST NATIONAL BANK

Be Independent!

The way to become independent is to save a part of the money you earn and deposit it regularly in the bank.

Saving money will encourage you to work harder. Industry insures promotion and higher pay.

While you are saving your money and when you go into business you will need a bank and we invite you to come in and see us.

WE WILL WELCOME YOUR ACCOUNT.

THE INDIAN DRUM

By William MacHarg and Edwin Balmer

Copyright by Edwin Balmer

CHAPTER XVII

Mr. Spearman Goes North.
The message, in blurred lettering and upon the flimsy tissue paper of a carbon copy—that message which had brought tremor to the offices of Corvet, Sherrill and Spearman and had called Constance Sherrill and her mother downtown where further information could be more quickly obtained—was handed to Constance by a clerk as soon as she entered her father's office. She read it; it already had been repeated to her over the telephone.

"4:05 a. m. Frankfort Wireless station has received following message from Number 25: 'We have Benjamin Corvet, of Chicago, aboard.'
"You've received nothing later than that?" she asked.
"Nothing regarding Mr. Corvet, Miss Sherrill," the clerk replied.
"The crew?"
"Yes; we have just got the names of the crew." He took another copied sheet from among the papers and handed it to her, and she looked swiftly down the list of names until she found that of Alan Conrad.

Her eyes closed. Blinding her, as she put the paper down, and began to take off her things. She had been clinging determinedly in her thought to the belief that Alan might not have been aboard the ferry. Alan's message, which had sent her father north to meet the ship, had implied plainly that some one whom Alan believed might be Uncle Benny was on Number 25; she had been fighting, those last few hours, against conviction that therefore Alan must be on the ferry, too.

She stood by the desk, as the clerk went out, looking through the papers which he had left with her. What she was reading was the carbon of the report prepared that morning and sent, at his request, to Henry, who was not yet down.

The last message read: "6:40, Petooskey is calling Manitowoc. Signals from Number 25 after becoming indistinct, failed entirely about 5:45, probably by failure of ship's power to supply current. Operator appears to have remained at key. From 5:25 to 5:45 we received disconnected messages, as follows: 'Have cleared another car . . . they are sticking to it down there . . . engine room crew is also sticking . . . hell on ear deck . . . everything smashed . . . they won't give up . . . sinking now . . . we're going . . . stuck to end . . . all they could . . . know that . . . hand it to them . . . have cleared another car . . . sink . . . 8 O . . . Signals then entirely ceased.'
Constance had not realized, until the reports of the wireless messages told her that he was gone, what companionship with Alan had come to mean to her. She had accepted it as always to be existent, somehow—a companionship which might be interrupted often but always to be formed again. It amused her to find how firm a place he had found in her world of those close to her with whom she must always be intimately concerned.

The telephone switchboard beside Constance suddenly buzzed, and the operator, plugging in a connection, said: "Yes, sir; at once," and through the partitions of the private office on the other side, a man's heavy tones came to Constance. That was Henry's office, and in timbre, the voice was his, but it was so strange in other characteristics of expression that she waited an instant before saying to the clerk, "Mr. Spearman has come in?"

The clerk hesitated, but the continuance of the tone from the other side of the partition made reply superfluous. "Yes, Miss Sherrill."
Constance went to Henry's door and rapped. He made no answer and no move to open the door; so, after waiting a moment, she turned the knob and went in.

Henry was seated at his desk, facing her, his big hands before him; one of them held the telephone receiver. He lifted it slowly and put it upon the hook beside the transmitter as she watched her with steady, silent, aggressive scrutiny. He did not rise; only after a moment he recollected that he had not done so and came to his feet. "Good morning, Connie," he said. "Come in. What's the news?"

The impulse which had brought her late this office went from her. She had not seen nor heard from Henry directly since before Alan's telegram had come late yesterday afternoon; she had heard from her father only that he had informed Henry; that was all. "I've no news, Henry," she said. "Have you?" She closed the door behind her, moving closer to him. "How did you happen to be here, Constat?" he asked.

She made no reply but gazed at him, studying him. The agitation which he was trying to conceal was not entirely consequent to her coming in upon him; it had been ruling him before. It had underlain the lowliness and abuse of his words which she had encountered. That was no casualness without, or deeper or imitation; it had some cause impression to herself. When she had opened the door and come in, he had looked up in dread, as though preparing himself for whatever she might announce. Now that the door shut upon her alone, he approached her with arms outstretched. She stepped back, instinctively avoiding his embrace; and he stopped at once, but he had come quite close to her now.

As she stared at him, the clerk's voice came to her suddenly over the partition which separated the office from the larger room where the clerk was receiving some message over the telephone.

She Made No Reply but Gazed at Him, Studying Him.

telephone. Henry straightened, listened, as the voice stopped, his great, finely shaped hand sank between his shoulders; he fumbled in his pocket for a cigar, and his big hands shook as he lighted it, without word of excuse to her. A strange feeling came to her that he felt what he dreaded approaching and was no longer conscious of her presence.

She heard footsteps in the larger room coming toward the office door. Henry was in suspense. A rap came at the door. He whitened, and wet his lips.

"Come in," he summoned.
One of the office girls entered, bringing a white page of paper with three or four lines of purple typewriting upon it which Constance recognized must be a transcript of a message just received.

She started forward at sight of it, forgetting everything else; but he took the paper as though he did not know she was there. He merely held it until the girl had gone out; even then he stood folding and unfolding it, and his eyes did not drop to the sheet.

The girl had said nothing at all but, having seen her, Constance was athrill; the girl had not been a bearer of bad news, that was sure; she brought some sort of good news! Constance, certain of it, moved nearer to Henry to read what he held. He looked down and read.

"What is it, Henry?"
His unocular reaction, as he read, had drawn the sheet away from her; he recovered himself almost instantly and gave the paper to her.

"8:35 a. m., Manitowoc, Wis.," she read. "The schooner Anna S. Solwerk has been sighted making for this port. She is not close enough for communication, but two lifeboats, additional to her own, can be plainly made out. It is believed that she must have picked up survivors of No. 25. She carries no wireless, so is unable to report. Tugs are going to her."
"Two lifeboats!" Constance cried. "That could mean that they all are saved or nearly all; doesn't it, Henry; doesn't it?"

He had read some other significance in it, she thought, or, from his greater understanding of conditions in the storm, he had been able to hold no hope from what had been reported. That was the only way she could explain to herself as he replied to her; that the word meant to him that men were saved and that therefore it was dismaying to him, could not come to her at once. When it came now, it went over her first only in the flash of incredulous question.

The telephone buzzed under his desk sounded; she drew closer as he took up his receiver.
"Manitowoc," he said. "I want to know what you've heard from the Solwerk. . . . You hear me?"
The man the Solwerk picked up. You have the names yet?"

"The Benton?"
"Oh, I understand! All from the Benton. I see. . . . No; never mind their names. How about Number 25? Nothing more heard from them?"
Constance had caught his shoulder while he was speaking and now clung to it. Release—release of strain was

"The steamer Number 25 ramméd proved to have been the Benton," he told her. "The men are all from her. They had abandoned her in the small boats, and the Solwerk picked them up before the ferry found her."
He was not asking her to congratulate him upon the relief he felt; he had not so far forgotten himself as that. But it was plain to her that he was congratulating himself; it had been fear that he was feeling before—fear, she was beginning to understand, that those on the ferry had been saved.

Horror and amazement flowed in upon her with her realization of this in the man she had promised to marry. For an instant she stared at him, all her body tense; then, as she turned and went out, he followed her, calling her name. But, seeing the seamen in the larger office, he stopped, and she understood he was not willing to urge himself upon her in their presence.

"I'm willing to go home now, mother, if you wish," she said steadily.
When they had gone down to the street and were in the car, Constance leaned back, closing her eyes; she feared her mother might wish to talk with her.

Toward three o'clock, the office called her, but only to report that they had heard from Mr. Sherrill. He had wired that he was going on from Manitowoc and would cross the straits from St. Ignace; messages from him were to be addressed to Petooskey. There was no other report except that vessels were still continuing the search for survivors, because the Indian Drum, which had been beating, was beating "short," causing the superstitious to be certain that, though some of the men from Number 25 were lost, some yet survived.

Constance thrilled as she heard that. She did not believe in the Drum; at least she had never thought she had really believed in it; she had only stirred to the idea of its being true. But if the Drum was beating, she was glad it was beating short. It was serving, at least, to keep the lake men more alert.

A little later, as Constance stood at the window, gazing out at the snow upon the lake, she drew back suddenly out of sight from the street, as she saw Henry's roadster appear out of the storm and stop before the house.

She waited in the room where she was. The strain he was under had not lessened, she could see; or rather, if she could trust her feeling at sight of him, it had lessened only slightly, and at the same time his power to resist it had been lessening too.

"I thought you'd want to know, Connie," he said, "so I came straight out. The Richardson's picked up one of the boats of the ferry."
"Uncle Benny and Alan Conrad were not in it," she returned; the triumph she had seen in him had told her that.

"No; it was the first boat put off by the ferry, with the passengers and cabin maid and some injured men of the crew."
"Were they—alive?" her voice husked tensely.

"Yes; that is, they were able to revive them all; but it didn't seem possible to the Richardson's officers that anyone could be revived who had been exposed much longer than that; so the Richardson's given up the search, and some of the other ships that were searching have given up too, and gone on their course."

"I see; how many were in the boat?"
"Twelve, Connie."
"Then all the vessels up there won't give up yet?"
"Why not?"
"I was just talking with the office, Henry; they've heard again from the other end of the lake. The people up there say the Drum is beating, but it's beating short still!"

Were They—Alive? Her Voice Husked Tensely.

Henry feared? Alan had described the man to her; that description had not had meaning for her before; but now remembering that description she could think of Henry as the only one who could have been in that house! Henry had fought with Alan there! Afterwards, when Alan had been attacked upon the street, had Henry anything to do with that?
Henry had lied to her about being in Duluth the night he had fought with Alan; he had not told her the true cause of his quarrels with Uncle Benny; he had wished her to believe that Uncle Benny was dead when the wedding ring and watch came to her—the watch which had been Captain Stafford's of the Milwaukee! Henry had urged her to marry him at once. Was that because he wished the security that her father—and she—must give her husband when they learned the revelation which Alan or Uncle Benny might bring?
At Petooskey she went from the train directly to the telegraph office. If Henry was in Petooskey, they would know at that office where he could be found; he would be keeping in touch with them.
Mr. Spearman, the operator said, had been at the office early in the day; there had been no message for him; he had left instructions that any which came were to be forwarded to him through the men who, under his direction, were patrolling the shore for twenty miles north of Little Traverse, watching for boats.
Constance crossed the frozen edges of the bay by sledge to Harbor Point. Her distrust now had deepened to terrible dread. She had not been able before this to form any definite idea of how Henry could threatgan sounding last night, and that at first it sounded for only two lives; it's kept on beating, but still is beating only for four. There were thirty-nine on the ferry—seven passengers and thirty-two crew. Twelve have been saved now; so until the Drum raises the beats to twenty-seven there is still a chance that someone will be saved."

Constance watched him with wonder at the effect of what she had told. The news of the Drum had shaken him from his triumph over Alan and Uncle Benny and over her. It had shaken him so that, though he remained with her some minutes more, he seemed to have forgotten the purpose of his visitation with her which had brought him to the house.

She did, or made pretence of dining, with her mother at seven. Her mother's voice went on and on about trifles, and Constance did not try to pay attention. Her thought was following Henry with ever-sharpening apprehension. She called the office in mid-evening; it would be open, she knew, for messages regarding Uncle Benny and Alan would be expected there. A clerk answered; no other news had been received; she then asked Henry's whereabouts.

"Mr. Spearman went north late this afternoon, Miss Sherrill," the clerk informed her.
"North! Where?"
"We are to communicate with him this evening to Grand Rapids; after that, to Petooskey."

Constance could hear her own heart beat. Why had Henry gone, she wondered; not, certainly, to sid the search. He had gone to—hinder it?

CHAPTER XVIII

The Watch Upon the Beach.
Constance was throbbing with determination and action, as she found her purse and counted the money in it. She never in her life had gone alone upon an extended journey, much less been alone upon a train overnight. If she spoke of such a thing now, she would be prevented; no occasion for it would be recognized; she would not be allowed to go, even if "properly accompanied." She could not, therefore, risk taking a handbag from the house; so she thrust nightdress and toilet articles into her muff and the roomy pocket of her fur coat. She descended to the side door of the house, gained the street and turned westward at the first corner to a street car which would take her to the railway station.

The manner of buying a railway ticket and of engaging a berth were unknown to her—there had been servants always to do these things—but she watched others and did as they did. She procured a telegraph blank and wrote a message to her mother, telling her that she had gone north to join her father. When the train had started, she gave the message to the porter, directing him to send it from the first large town at which they stopped.

Constance could not, as yet, place Henry's part in the strange circumstances which had begun to reveal themselves with Alan's coming to Chicago; but Henry's hope that Uncle Benny and Alan were dead was beginning to make that clearer. She lay without voluntary movement in her berth, but her bosom was shaking with the thoughts which came to her.

Twenty years before, some dreadful event had altered Uncle Benny's life; his wife had known—or had learned—enough of that event so that she had left him. It had seemed to Constance and her father, therefore, that it must have been some intimate and private event.

Uncle Benny had withdrawn himself from men; he had ceased to be active in his business and delegated it to others. This change had been strangely advantageous to Henry. Henry had been hardly more than a common seaman then. He had been a mate—the mate on one of Uncle Benny's ships. Quite suddenly he had become Uncle Benny's partner. Henry had explained this to her by saying that Uncle Benny had not trusted Henry; he had been suspicious of him; he had quarreled with him. How strange, then, that Uncle Benny should have advanced and given way to a man whom he could not trust!

Uncle Benny had come to her and warned her not to marry Henry; then he had sent for Alan. There had been purposes in these acts of Uncle Benny's; had they meant that Uncle Benny had been on the verge of making explanation—that explanation which Henry feared—and that he had been prevented? Her father had thought this; at least, he had thought that Uncle Benny must have left some explanation in his house. He had told Alan that and had given Alan the key to the house so that he could find it. Alan had gone to the house— in the house Alan had found someone who had mistaken him for a ghost, a man who had cried out at sight of him something about a ship—about the Milwaukee, the ship of whose loss he one had known anything about by the conditions—

Henry feared? Alan had described the man to her; that description had not had meaning for her before; but now remembering that description she could think of Henry as the only one who could have been in that house! Henry had fought with Alan there! Afterwards, when Alan had been attacked upon the street, had Henry anything to do with that?
Henry had lied to her about being in Duluth the night he had fought with Alan; he had not told her the true cause of his quarrels with Uncle Benny; he had wished her to believe that Uncle Benny was dead when the wedding ring and watch came to her—the watch which had been Captain Stafford's of the Milwaukee! Henry had urged her to marry him at once. Was that because he wished the security that her father—and she—must give her husband when they learned the revelation which Alan or Uncle Benny might bring?
At Petooskey she went from the train directly to the telegraph office. If Henry was in Petooskey, they would know at that office where he could be found; he would be keeping in touch with them.
Mr. Spearman, the operator said, had been at the office early in the day; there had been no message for him; he had left instructions that any which came were to be forwarded to him through the men who, under his direction, were patrolling the shore for twenty miles north of Little Traverse, watching for boats.
Constance crossed the frozen edges of the bay by sledge to Harbor Point. Her distrust now had deepened to terrible dread. She had not been able before this to form any definite idea of how Henry could threat-

Henry feared? Alan had described the man to her; that description had not had meaning for her before; but now remembering that description she could think of Henry as the only one who could have been in that house! Henry had fought with Alan there! Afterwards, when Alan had been attacked upon the street, had Henry anything to do with that?
Henry had lied to her about being in Duluth the night he had fought with Alan; he had not told her the true cause of his quarrels with Uncle Benny; he had wished her to believe that Uncle Benny was dead when the wedding ring and watch came to her—the watch which had been Captain Stafford's of the Milwaukee! Henry had urged her to marry him at once. Was that because he wished the security that her father—and she—must give her husband when they learned the revelation which Alan or Uncle Benny might bring?
At Petooskey she went from the train directly to the telegraph office. If Henry was in Petooskey, they would know at that office where he could be found; he would be keeping in touch with them.
Mr. Spearman, the operator said, had been at the office early in the day; there had been no message for him; he had left instructions that any which came were to be forwarded to him through the men who, under his direction, were patrolling the shore for twenty miles north of Little Traverse, watching for boats.
Constance crossed the frozen edges of the bay by sledge to Harbor Point. Her distrust now had deepened to terrible dread. She had not been able before this to form any definite idea of how Henry could threat-

Henry feared? Alan had described the man to her; that description had not had meaning for her before; but now remembering that description she could think of Henry as the only one who could have been in that house! Henry had fought with Alan there! Afterwards, when Alan had been attacked upon the street, had Henry anything to do with that?
Henry had lied to her about being in Duluth the night he had fought with Alan; he had not told her the true cause of his quarrels with Uncle Benny; he had wished her to believe that Uncle Benny was dead when the wedding ring and watch came to her—the watch which had been Captain Stafford's of the Milwaukee! Henry had urged her to marry him at once. Was that because he wished the security that her father—and she—must give her husband when they learned the revelation which Alan or Uncle Benny might bring?
At Petooskey she went from the train directly to the telegraph office. If Henry was in Petooskey, they would know at that office where he could be found; he would be keeping in touch with them.
Mr. Spearman, the operator said, had been at the office early in the day; there had been no message for him; he had left instructions that any which came were to be forwarded to him through the men who, under his direction, were patrolling the shore for twenty miles north of Little Traverse, watching for boats.
Constance crossed the frozen edges of the bay by sledge to Harbor Point. Her distrust now had deepened to terrible dread. She had not been able before this to form any definite idea of how Henry could threat-

Henry feared? Alan had described the man to her; that description had not had meaning for her before; but now remembering that description she could think of Henry as the only one who could have been in that house! Henry had fought with Alan there! Afterwards, when Alan had been attacked upon the street, had Henry anything to do with that?
Henry had lied to her about being in Duluth the night he had fought with Alan; he had not told her the true cause of his quarrels with Uncle Benny; he had wished her to believe that Uncle Benny was dead when the wedding ring and watch came to her—the watch which had been Captain Stafford's of the Milwaukee! Henry had urged her to marry him at once. Was that because he wished the security that her father—and she—must give her husband when they learned the revelation which Alan or Uncle Benny might bring?
At Petooskey she went from the train directly to the telegraph office. If Henry was in Petooskey, they would know at that office where he could be found; he would be keeping in touch with them.
Mr. Spearman, the operator said, had been at the office early in the day; there had been no message for him; he had left instructions that any which came were to be forwarded to him through the men who, under his direction, were patrolling the shore for twenty miles north of Little Traverse, watching for boats.
Constance crossed the frozen edges of the bay by sledge to Harbor Point. Her distrust now had deepened to terrible dread. She had not been able before this to form any definite idea of how Henry could threat-

Henry feared? Alan had described the man to her; that description had not had meaning for her before; but now remembering that description she could think of Henry as the only one who could have been in that house! Henry had fought with Alan there! Afterwards, when Alan had been attacked upon the street, had Henry anything to do with that?
Henry had lied to her about being in Duluth the night he had fought with Alan; he had not told her the true cause of his quarrels with Uncle Benny; he had wished her to believe that Uncle Benny was dead when the wedding ring and watch came to her—the watch which had been Captain Stafford's of the Milwaukee! Henry had urged her to marry him at once. Was that because he wished the security that her father—and she—must give her husband when they learned the revelation which Alan or Uncle Benny might bring?
At Petooskey she went from the train directly to the telegraph office. If Henry was in Petooskey, they would know at that office where he could be found; he would be keeping in touch with them.
Mr. Spearman, the operator said, had been at the office early in the day; there had been no message for him; he had left instructions that any which came were to be forwarded to him through the men who, under his direction, were patrolling the shore for twenty miles north of Little Traverse, watching for boats.
Constance crossed the frozen edges of the bay by sledge to Harbor Point. Her distrust now had deepened to terrible dread. She had not been able before this to form any definite idea of how Henry could threat-

Henry feared? Alan had described the man to her; that description had not had meaning for her before; but now remembering that description she could think of Henry as the only one who could have been in that house! Henry had fought with Alan there! Afterwards, when Alan had been attacked upon the street, had Henry anything to do with that?
Henry had lied to her about being in Duluth the night he had fought with Alan; he had not told her the true cause of his quarrels with Uncle Benny; he had wished her to believe that Uncle Benny was dead when the wedding ring and watch came to her—the watch which had been Captain Stafford's of the Milwaukee! Henry had urged her to marry him at once. Was that because he wished the security that her father—and she—must give her husband when they learned the revelation which Alan or Uncle Benny might bring?
At Petooskey she went from the train directly to the telegraph office. If Henry was in Petooskey, they would know at that office where he could be found; he would be keeping in touch with them.
Mr. Spearman, the operator said, had been at the office early in the day; there had been no message for him; he had left instructions that any which came were to be forwarded to him through the men who, under his direction, were patrolling the shore for twenty miles north of Little Traverse, watching for boats.
Constance crossed the frozen edges of the bay by sledge to Harbor Point. Her distrust now had deepened to terrible dread. She had not been able before this to form any definite idea of how Henry could threat-

Henry feared? Alan had described the man to her; that description had not had meaning for her before; but now remembering that description she could think of Henry as the only one who could have been in that house! Henry had fought with Alan there! Afterwards, when Alan had been attacked upon the street, had Henry anything to do with that?
Henry had lied to her about being in Duluth the night he had fought with Alan; he had not told her the true cause of his quarrels with Uncle Benny; he had wished her to believe that Uncle Benny was dead when the wedding ring and watch came to her—the watch which had been Captain Stafford's of the Milwaukee! Henry had urged her to marry him at once. Was that because he wished the security that her father—and she—must give her husband when they learned the revelation which Alan or Uncle Benny might bring?
At Petooskey she went from the train directly to the telegraph office. If Henry was in Petooskey, they would know at that office where he could be found; he would be keeping in touch with them.
Mr. Spearman, the operator said, had been at the office early in the day; there had been no message for him; he had left instructions that any which came were to be forwarded to him through the men who, under his direction, were patrolling the shore for twenty miles north of Little Traverse, watching for boats.
Constance crossed the frozen edges of the bay by sledge to Harbor Point. Her distrust now had deepened to terrible dread. She had not been able before this to form any definite idea of how Henry could threat-

Henry feared? Alan had described the man to her; that description had not had meaning for her before; but now remembering that description she could think of Henry as the only one who could have been in that house! Henry had fought with Alan there! Afterwards, when Alan had been attacked upon the street, had Henry anything to do with that?
Henry had lied to her about being in Duluth the night he had fought with Alan; he had not told her the true cause of his quarrels with Uncle Benny; he had wished her to believe that Uncle Benny was dead when the wedding ring and watch came to her—the watch which had been Captain Stafford's of the Milwaukee! Henry had urged her to marry him at once. Was that because he wished the security that her father—and she—must give her husband when they learned the revelation which Alan or Uncle Benny might bring?
At Petooskey she went from the train directly to the telegraph office. If Henry was in Petooskey, they would know at that office where he could be found; he would be keeping in touch with them.
Mr. Spearman, the operator said, had been at the office early in the day; there had been no message for him; he had left instructions that any which came were to be forwarded to him through the men who, under his direction, were patrolling the shore for twenty miles north of Little Traverse, watching for boats.
Constance crossed the frozen edges of the bay by sledge to Harbor Point. Her distrust now had deepened to terrible dread. She had not been able before this to form any definite idea of how Henry could threat-

Henry feared? Alan had described the man to her; that description had not had meaning for her before; but now remembering that description she could think of Henry as the only one who could have been in that house! Henry had fought with Alan there! Afterwards, when Alan had been attacked upon the street, had Henry anything to do with that?
Henry had lied to her about being in Duluth the night he had fought with Alan; he had not told her the true cause of his quarrels with Uncle Benny; he had wished her to believe that Uncle Benny was dead when the wedding ring and watch came to her—the watch which had been Captain Stafford's of the Milwaukee! Henry had urged her to marry him at once. Was that because he wished the security that her father—and she—must give her husband when they learned the revelation which Alan or Uncle Benny might bring?
At Petooskey she went from the train directly to the telegraph office. If Henry was in Petooskey, they would know at that office where he could be found; he would be keeping in touch with them.
Mr. Spearman, the operator said, had been at the office early in the day; there had been no message for him; he had left instructions that any which came were to be forwarded to him through the men who, under his direction, were patrolling the shore for twenty miles north of Little Traverse, watching for boats.
Constance crossed the frozen edges of the bay by sledge to Harbor Point. Her distrust now had deepened to terrible dread. She had not been able before this to form any definite idea of how Henry could threat-

Henry feared? Alan had described the man to her; that description had not had meaning for her before; but now remembering that description she could think of Henry as the only one who could have been in that house! Henry had fought with Alan there! Afterwards, when Alan had been attacked upon the street, had Henry anything to do with that?
Henry had lied to her about being in Duluth the night he had fought with Alan; he had not told her the true cause of his quarrels with Uncle Benny; he had wished her to believe that Uncle Benny was dead when the wedding ring and watch came to her—the watch which had been Captain Stafford's of the Milwaukee! Henry had urged her to marry him at once. Was that because he wished the security that her father—and she—must give her husband when they learned the revelation which Alan or Uncle Benny might bring?
At Petooskey she went from the train directly to the telegraph office. If Henry was in Petooskey, they would know at that office where he could be found; he would be keeping in touch with them.
Mr. Spearman, the operator said, had been at the office early in the day; there had been no message for him; he had left instructions that any which came were to be forwarded to him through the men who, under his direction, were patrolling the shore for twenty miles north of Little Traverse, watching for boats.
Constance crossed the frozen edges of the bay by sledge to Harbor Point. Her distrust now had deepened to terrible dread. She had not been able before this to form any definite idea of how Henry could threat-

Henry feared? Alan had described the man to her; that description had not had meaning for her before; but now remembering that description she could think of Henry as the only one who could have been in that house! Henry had fought with Alan there! Afterwards, when Alan had been attacked upon the street, had Henry anything to do with that?
Henry had lied to her about being in Duluth the night he had fought with Alan; he had not told her the true cause of his quarrels with Uncle Benny; he had wished her to believe that Uncle Benny was dead when the wedding ring and watch came to her—the watch which had been Captain Stafford's of the Milwaukee! Henry had urged her to marry him at once. Was that because he wished the security that her father—and she—must give her husband when they learned the revelation which Alan or Uncle Benny might bring?
At Petooskey she went from the train directly to the telegraph office. If Henry was in Petooskey, they would know at that office where he could be found; he would be keeping in touch with them.
Mr. Spearman, the operator said, had been at the office early in the day; there had been no message for him; he had left instructions that any which came were to be forwarded to him through the men who, under his direction, were patrolling the shore for twenty miles north of Little Traverse, watching for boats.
Constance crossed the frozen edges of the bay by sledge to Harbor Point. Her distrust now had deepened to terrible dread. She had not been able before this to form any definite idea of how Henry could threat-

Henry feared? Alan had described the man to her; that description had not had meaning for her before; but now remembering that description she could think of Henry as the only one who could have been in that house! Henry had fought with Alan there! Afterwards, when Alan had been attacked upon the street, had Henry anything to do with that?
Henry had lied to her about being in Duluth the night he had fought with Alan; he had not told her the true cause of his quarrels with Uncle Benny; he had wished her to believe that Uncle Benny was dead when the wedding ring and watch came to her—the watch which had been Captain Stafford's of the Milwaukee! Henry had urged her to marry him at once. Was that because he wished the security that her father—and she—must give her husband when they learned the revelation which Alan or Uncle Benny might bring?
At Petooskey she went from the train directly to the telegraph office. If Henry was in Petooskey, they would know at that office where he could be found; he would be keeping in touch with them.
Mr. Spearman, the operator said, had been at the office early in the day; there had been no message for him; he had left instructions that any which came were to be forwarded to him through the men who, under his direction, were patrolling the shore for twenty miles north of Little Traverse, watching for boats.
Constance crossed the frozen edges of the bay by sledge to Harbor Point. Her distrust now had deepened to terrible dread. She had not been able before this to form any definite idea of how Henry could threat-

Henry feared? Alan had described the man to her; that description had not had meaning for her before; but now remembering that description she could think of Henry as the only one who could have been in that house! Henry had fought with Alan there! Afterwards, when Alan had been attacked upon the street, had Henry anything to do with that?
Henry had lied to her about being in Duluth the night he had fought with Alan; he had not told her the true cause of his quarrels with Uncle Benny; he had wished her to believe that Uncle Benny was dead when the wedding ring and watch came to her—the watch which had been Captain Stafford's of the Milwaukee! Henry had urged her to marry him at once. Was that because he wished the security that her father—and she—must give her husband when they learned the revelation which Alan or Uncle Benny might bring?
At Petooskey she went from the train directly to the telegraph office. If Henry was in Petooskey, they would know at that office where he could be found; he would be keeping in touch with them.
Mr. Spearman, the operator said, had been at the office early in the day; there had been no message for him; he had left instructions that any which came were to be forwarded to him through the men who, under his direction, were patrolling the shore for twenty miles north of Little Traverse, watching for boats.
Constance crossed the frozen edges of the bay by sledge to Harbor Point. Her distrust now had deepened to terrible dread. She had not been able before this to form any definite idea of how Henry could threat-

Henry feared? Alan had described the man to her; that description had not had meaning for her before; but now remembering that description she could think of Henry as the only one who could have been in that house! Henry had fought with Alan there! Afterwards, when Alan had been attacked upon the street, had Henry anything to do with that?
Henry had lied to her about being in Duluth the night he had fought with Alan; he had not told her the true cause of his quarrels with Uncle Benny; he had wished her to believe that Uncle Benny was dead when the wedding ring and watch came to her—the watch which had been Captain Stafford's of the Milwaukee! Henry had urged her to marry him at once. Was that because he wished the security that her father—and she—must give her husband when they learned the revelation which Alan or Uncle Benny might bring?
At Petooskey she went from the train directly to the telegraph office. If Henry was in Petooskey, they would know at that office where he could be found; he would be keeping in touch with them.
Mr. Spearman, the operator said, had been at the office early in the day; there had been no message for him; he had left instructions that any which came were to be forwarded to him through the men who, under his direction, were patrolling the shore for twenty miles north of Little Traverse, watching for boats.
Constance crossed the frozen edges of the bay by sledge to Harbor Point. Her distrust now had deepened to terrible dread. She had not been able before this to form any definite idea of how Henry could threat-

Henry feared? Alan had described the man to her; that description had not had meaning for her before; but now remembering that description she could think of Henry as the only one who could have been in that house! Henry had fought with Alan there! Afterwards, when Alan had been attacked upon the street, had Henry anything to do with that?
Henry had lied to her about being in Duluth the night he had fought with Alan; he had not told her the true cause of his quarrels with Uncle Benny; he had wished her to believe that Uncle Benny was dead when the wedding ring and watch came to her—the watch which had been Captain Stafford's of the Milwaukee! Henry had urged her to marry him at once. Was that because he wished the security that her father—and she—must give her husband when they learned the revelation which Alan or Uncle Benny might bring?
At Petooskey she went from the train directly to the telegraph office. If Henry was in Petooskey, they would know at that office where he could be found; he would be keeping in touch with them.
Mr. Spearman, the operator said, had been at the office early in the day; there had been no message for him; he had left instructions that any which came were to be forwarded to him through the men who, under his direction, were patrolling the shore for twenty miles north of Little Traverse, watching for boats.
Constance crossed the frozen edges of the bay by sledge to Harbor Point. Her distrust now had deepened to terrible dread. She had not been able before this to form any definite idea of how Henry could threat-

Henry feared? Alan had described the man to her; that description had not had meaning for her before; but now remembering that description she could think of Henry as the only one who could have been in that house! Henry had fought with Alan there! Afterwards, when Alan had been attacked upon the street, had Henry anything to do with that?
Henry had lied to her about being in Duluth the night he had fought with Alan; he had not told her the true cause of his quarrels with Uncle Benny; he had wished her to believe that Uncle Benny was dead when the wedding ring and watch came to her—the watch which had been Captain Stafford's of the Milwaukee! Henry had urged her to marry him at once. Was that because he wished the security that her father—and she—must give her husband when they learned the revelation which Alan or Uncle Benny might bring?
At Petooskey she went from the train directly to the telegraph office. If Henry was in Petooskey, they would know at that office where he could be found; he would be keeping in touch with them.
Mr. Spearman, the operator said, had been at the office early in the day; there had been no message for him; he had left instructions that any which came were to be forwarded to him through the men who, under his direction, were patrolling the shore for twenty miles north of Little Traverse, watching for boats.
Constance crossed the frozen edges of the bay by sledge to Harbor Point. Her distrust now had deepened to terrible dread. She had not been able before this to form any definite idea of how Henry could threat-

Henry feared? Alan had described the man to her; that description had not had meaning for her before; but now remembering that description she could think of Henry as the only one who could have been in that house! Henry had fought with Alan there! Afterwards, when Alan had been attacked upon the street, had Henry anything to do with that?
Henry had lied to her about being in Duluth the night he had fought with Alan; he had not told her the true cause of his quarrels with Uncle Benny; he had wished her to believe that Uncle Benny was dead when the wedding ring and watch came to her—the watch which had been Captain Stafford's of the Milwaukee! Henry had urged her to marry him at once. Was that because he wished the security that her father—and she—must give her husband when they learned the revelation which Alan or Uncle Benny might bring?
At Petooskey she went from the train directly to the telegraph office. If Henry was in Petooskey, they would know at that office where he could be found; he would be keeping in touch with them.
Mr. Spearman, the operator said, had been at the office early in the day; there had been no message for him; he had left instructions that any which came were to be forwarded to him through the men who, under his direction, were patrolling the shore for twenty miles north of Little Traverse, watching for boats.
Constance crossed the frozen edges of the bay by sledge to Harbor Point. Her distrust now had deepened to terrible dread. She had not been able before this to form any definite idea of how Henry could threat-

Henry feared? Alan had described the man to her; that description had not had meaning for her before; but now remembering that description she could think of Henry as the only one who could have been in that house! Henry had

DENVER BUSINESS DIRECTORY

SPECIAL RUSH SERVICE secured if you mention this paper when writing firms below.

DIAMONDS AND WATCHES.
HORN-ALLEN JEWELRY CO.
Mfg. and Repairing. All orders promptly attended to. Est. 1878. 14th & Champa.

CLEANING AND DYERS.
GRUND DRY CLEANING
DENVER'S EXPERT DYER
Established TWENTY FOUR YEARS
GRUND BUILDING, 17TH & LOGAN

ARMY AND NAVY GOODS—Everything in clothing, shoes, boots, harness, saddles, bridles, blankets and camping equipment. Anderson Bros., 1625 Arapahoe St. Denver—Ft. Collins, Colorado and Cheyenne, Wyoming

TO ALL SCHOOL BUS PURCHASERS
We have a very fine, absolutely new 30-passenger school bus that was ordered by a customer who made a large deposit and was unable to complete payment and accept delivery. We are willing to sell same at an enormous sacrifice and will be glad to answer inquiries and show same.
Call on or write
THE HEISER CO.
799 BROADWAY DENVER
Attention, Mr. Samuels

McMURTRY PAINTS AND VARNISHES
DENVER, COLO.
Sold by Leading Dealers

Would You Like a POSITION in DENVER?
In deciding upon a business school it is more than training you want—you want a position. If you would like a Denver position—acquire your training in Denver school. The Barnes School is the largest in this section; 35 teachers and lecturers for coming year. We will fill more than 1,000 positions this year. Write today for 50-page catalog.
Barnes COMMERCIAL SCHOOL
1425-45 Champa St. Denver, Colo.

INFORMATION DEPARTMENT
Commercial inquiries answered and information gladly furnished without cost. Address any firm above.

Typheon Disaster $0,000.
Amoy, China.—Swatow's death toll in the typhoon of Aug. 2 is conservatively estimated at 60,000, according to latest reports. The storm was one of the worst disasters which ever visited this part of the globe. The property damage will run into many millions, the Standard Oil Company alone suffering a loss of $100,000. No foreigner was seriously injured in the storm, which almost obliterated the native section of Swatow.

El Paso Toll Collector Freed.
El Paso, Texas.—Adolph Dieterich, El Paso street railway bridge toll collector, who was arrested in Mexico after being reported missing with approximately $1,000, has been released on orders from Mexico City. Dieterich told friends he had made arrangements to go to Mexico City. He steadfastly refused to tell what had become of the money, which was classed as United States government funds.

National Troops Occupy Killarney.
Dublin.—Killarney, the last position of importance in County Kerry held by the Irish irregulars, has been occupied by national army troops.

We have helped thousands. Let us help you. Write for catalogue.
Parke's Business School
Colfax and Corona, Denver, Colo.

Colorado Crops Increase in 1922.
All farm, garden and orchard crops in Colorado this year will have a farm value of slightly more than $100,000,000, according to present indications, at present prices and what apparently will be prevailing prices at market time. Production of most of the major crops grown in the state apparently will be somewhat larger than last year and production of potatoes, fruits and market garden crops will be considerably higher than for 1921. Prices of staple field crops are much the same as those of 1921, but prices of potatoes and late orchard crops are not yet established.

Wheat again holds first place among Colorado crops in acreage, with nearly 2,000,000 acres planted. Reports of county assessors to the State Immigration Department show more than 1,500,000 acres of winter wheat and about 450,000 acres of spring wheat, and the reports are not complete. It is not possible to estimate accurately at this time what part of this has been or will be harvested. Hay ranks next to wheat in total acreage, when all varieties of hay are taken together. Corn holds third place.

U. S. Purchases Embassy Building.
Mexico City.—The United States government has purchased the embassy building which it has been occupying for some time and adjacent land for the erection of embassy offices and the extension of gardens. This is taken as a sign that recognition is not far off. It is stated semi-officially that Minister of the Interior Calles, the strongest man in the Obregon cabinet, will resign shortly because of the great reaction against the American presence in Mexico.

A WORKINGMAN'S SOLILOQUY

By CLINTON BANCROFT

I am the blind giant.
I am a part of the incomprehensible mind of the universe.
I am the man who first conceived the plow.
My hands fashioned its rude shares of wood and with it turned the soil.
I raise the grain that feeds the armies of the world.
And I walk to and fro throughout the land seeking a Master.

The Master rubs the Lamp.
I build factories and mills and palaces for him.
My children toil and sweat in his service; we live in a hut.
I delve deep in the earth and mine the coal and iron that give mankind dominion over brutes.
I build roads of stone and steel, and bridge the torrents and chasms that divide the mountains.
I build great ships and sail them o'er the seas, then bring them safely into port laden with treasure and merrily lay it at the Master's feet.
Without my loyalty to Mastership, ignorance and poverty would vanish from the earth.
And still I feel the good
Of human needs and bend beneath my load.

The Master rubs the Ring.
I fight the battles of the king.
At his command, I wound and slay my fellow worker without cause.
I dive beneath the waters of the sea and sink and destroy that which I have built.
The fabled powers of Jove are mine; the zephyr, my easy pathway to the skies.
I drive my car among the clouds and mount above the storm.
Beside me the grim reaper sits and grins
As I haul thunderbolts of death and fire
Upon the children of the land—for hire.
I lay back on earth, crossing and crawling
By dyke and trench, a thing of fish and slime,
I wait the dreaded hour to slay forth and kill.
Set with scenes of carnage and suffering the torments of the damned,
I envy the felon his prison life and easy death.
I am a creature who feels
Upon his neck the crush of iron heels.

I have made the lightning my messenger and conquered time and space.
I speak across continents and seas with tongues of fire and herald the Pantocrot of War.

Listen! a message to you, O fellow workman!
"Thy brother's blood crieth unto me from the ground."
Listen! a message to you, ye rulers of the world!
"Thou shalt not kill."
And above the awful raging of the storm of war and battle,
I hear voices saying, "Peace, be still."
'Tis the weeping of the Mothers and the children;
'Tis the broken-hearted sisters crying peace;
But when I speak the word, war shall forever cease.
The scales are falling from my eyes;
I think I see a light arise.

—Denver Labor Bulletin.

WAGE EARNERS BENEFITED BY LAWS ENACTED

Annual Summary by Labor Law Association Shows Continued Extension of Safety and Health Measures in the Interest of the Workers.

New labor laws enacted by congress and more than forty states show continued gains in the protection of the safety and health of wage earners, although on the pressing issue of unemployment the legislative record is practically blank, according to a summary of the year's labor legislation issued by the American Association for Labor Legislation.

"Of particular import is the progress made during the year in federal-state co-operation for maternity protection and for vocational rehabilitation of industrial cripples," says Secretary John B. Andrews. "Passing by congress of the Sheppard-Towner bill for maternity and infancy protection, crowning for victory a three-year intensive campaign, found six states prepared for immediate action, having accepted in advance the federal aid now available. This advance acceptance of the federal act is in several instances based upon the bill for state action prepared by the Association for Labor Legislation. Twenty-three additional states in 1921 enacted legislation accepting the new federal act for vocational rehabilitation, making a total of 30 that have adopted this significant development in workmen's compensation legislation.

"Acute unemployment continued throughout the year," he states, "yet congress and more than forty states met in legislative session and adjourned with apparent indifference to the immediate need for adopting a constructive program of legislation for permanently combating the disastrous results of industrial depression. California, alone, took a forward step in enacting a law for long-time advance planning of public works by the state to help in preventing unemployment. The Kenyon bill, in congress, aimed to set the federal government upon a similar course of distributing public works intelligently. The nation-wide interest in this legislation, as reflected in the press, gives promise of state action that may open the door to an era of statesmanship in America in dealing with unemployment."

The President's conference on unemployment is referred to in the statement as the outstanding official development of the year in relation to unemployment. Emphasis is placed upon the importance of the conference in settling unemployment before the country in an official way as primarily a problem of industry. Its program of emergency relief, it is stated, is in line with and strongly reinforces the "Standard Recommendations" as formulated by the Association for Labor Legislation in 1915 with the co-operation of more than 300 organizations in 115 different communities and reaffirmed and republished, together with the results of the association's unemployment survey of 1921, in the American Legislative Review.

Social Insurance.
Thirty-one states and congress amended the existing compensation laws, extending the acts to cover more persons and industries.

al diseases. Missouri passed a new act to replace the one repealed by referendum, but it is suspended, until November 1922, by a new referendum petition. The federal vocational rehabilitation act was accepted by 22 states, bringing the total number of states having accepted the act, to 30. The Sheppard-Towner act was passed by congress, creating a board of maternity and infant hygiene and appropriating money for state and federal use. Six states have accepted the act. Safety and Health.

New Mexico enacted child-labor legislation for the first time and school attendance and minimum work age requirements were extended in 13 states and Porto Rico. The lifting by women of receptacles weighing 75 pounds or over was forbidden by California; a mining code was created in Illinois; and a new law regulating tenement manufacture was enacted in Wisconsin.

Hours.
Women's hours were restricted for the first time in New Mexico, the eight-hour day being extended to factories, laundries, hotels, restaurants and places of amusements. Hours and standard working conditions for women determined by the industrial welfare commission of California were made legal requirements for all industries.

Employment.
Free employment services were created for the first time in Nebraska, North Carolina and North Dakota; and in Illinois they were extended to towns and villages. The California state board of control was directed to arrange for the extension of public works to relieve unemployment in times of emergency.

Immigration.
Immigration was restricted by congress in a law limiting the number of aliens of any nationality who may be admitted to the United States in any year to 3 per cent of the number of foreign-born persons of that nationality resident of the United States, according to the census of 1910.

Administration.
Departments of labor and industrial relations were created, and the various existing commissions and bureaus consolidated or abolished, in California, Minnesota, Montana, Ohio and Washington. The New York labor law was redefined, completely reorganizing the department of labor.

Every advance of labor marks an advance in the education of employers.
The constructive ability of the movement is called upon to the utmost to bring the full flood of life back to our industries under conditions of freedom, with the democratic ideal dominating everywhere.
We will not be driven back. We will go forward. The light that has come into the life and work of our people can never be shut away from them. There must be more, and more, and more—more tomorrow than today, more the next day than tomorrow, and more for every coming tomorrow.
The times of today are severely trying. They are not of our making, but they are for our redemption.

A. F. of L. Forty-One Years Old.
The American Federation of Labor dates from November, 1861, when the Federation of Organized Trades and Labor Unions of the United States and Canada was formed. The American Federation of Labor as such did not come into existence until 1894, but its

FOR REAL ECONOMY In the Kitchen

USE CALUMET The Economy BAKING POWDER

A Big Time and Money Saver

When you bake with Calumet you know there will be no loss or failures. That's why it is far less expensive than some other brands selling for less.

BEST BY TEST Don't be led into taking Quantity for Quality

Calumet proved best by test in millions of Bake-Day contests. Largest selling brand in the world. Contains only such ingredients as have been approved by U. S. Pure Food Authorities.

The World's Greatest Baking Powder

MADE NO SORT OF APPEAL EVIDENTLY HER UNLUCKY DAY THAT WAS ASKING TOO MUCH

Colored Messenger Couldn't See Where the "Sport" Came In In That Kind of Fishing.

In a government office in Washington one day a Californian was discoursing on the sport of fishing off the Pacific coast.

"We all get out in small motor-boats," said he, "and fish with a long line baited with flying fish. Anything less than a hundred-pound tuna isn't considered good sport."

A colored messenger had been listening with great interest to this conversation.

"Excuse me, boss," he said, wide-eyed, as he stepped up to the group, "but did I understand you to say that you were fishin' for hundred-pound fish in a little motorboat?"

"Yes," said the Californian, "we go out frequently."

"But," urged the messenger, "ain't you all afear'd you might fetch one?"

—Pittsburgh Dispatch.

A Much Tried Man.

A Chicago man, whose hobby is the clipping and collecting of humorous advertisements, especially those appearing in the "want" columns, has recently added the following to his collection, an advertisement that appeared in a paper in that city:

"WANTED—A loud, second-hand phonograph for repairs."

Two to Consider.

"Be mine and I shall be the happiest of mortals." "No, I'll remain as I am. I also want to be happy."

Woman Probably Convinced That at That Moment Her "Jinx" Was Strictly on the Job.

I was very busy upstairs with some necessary writing, and, glancing out the window, beheld Mrs. "Stay-Forever," a neighbor, coming up the walk. Calling my small daughter, I told her to tell the visitor I was not at home. She descended the stairs to do my bidding and I tipped softly to the top of the stairs to hear the conversation.

"Mother home?" inquired Mrs. Neighbor.

"No, ma'am," said my faithful child. At this unfortunate moment the heavy blue beads I wore around my neck broke and rattled down in the hall like a heavy hailstorm. My small daughter glanced at the dancing glass particles and, looking up in consternation, cried, "O, mother you broke your pretty blue beads!"

—Chicago Tribune.

The Princess Threatens.

The friend of a New York girl who, some years ago, became a European princess, tells of an incident in the royal household.

The friend was just entering the princess' dressing room when she chanced to overhear this colloquy between mistress and maid:

"The Maid—But, ma'am—"

"The Princess—If I catch you and my husband kissing again, one of you will have to go—Exchange."

Fred Probably Knew.

"I notice you don't use a lip-stick?"

"No, Fred said it was very bad taste."

Bishop Probably Had Read That "Much Shall Be Forgiven," but Really, Professor Jones!

An English clergyman now visiting this country tells a story of an eminent Church of England ecclesiastic now dead, who on the occasion of the gathering of the British association, invited the members to an entertainment at his place. But he sent no card to one member of the association, who, thinking that he was the victim of an oversight, mentioned the matter to a mutual friend.

"I will speak to the bishop and make that right," said the friend. "It was a mere accident."

He did speak to the bishop, to this effect:

"By some mischance, Professor Jones has not been invited to the entertainment. Of course you mean him to come?"

"No, indeed, I do not," said the bishop. "Nothing can induce me to ask under my roof a man who has defended the execution of Socrates!"

—Pittsburgh Ledger.

Just Dimly Remembered.

I had not seen my friend and her small son for a year, so when I saw him playing in his grandmother's yard I said: "Aren't you Charles Smith?"

"Yes, I am," said Charles.

"My, how you've grown!" I said.

"It was at your house the night the stork brought you to your mamma."

"Oh, yes," he nodded, gravely, "and you stayed all night. I can just barely remember it."

—Exchange.

Let's disarm the thermometer

MEATS and starches for the body are like fuel for the furnace.

Why not adopt for breakfast or lunch, Grape-Nuts with cream or milk and a little fresh fruit—and turn off the internal heat? Here's complete nourishment, with cool comfort.

Grape-Nuts contains all the nourishment of whole wheat flour and malted barley, including the vital mineral elements and bran "roughage," and it is partially pre-digested in the long baking process by which it is made.

There's a wonderful charm for the appetite in the crisp, sweet goodness of this ready-to-eat food, and fitness and lightness afterward, which meet summer's heat with a smile.

Your grocer will supply you with Grape-Nuts!

"There's a Reason" for Grape-Nuts.

Made by Postum Cereal Co., Inc., Battle Creek, Mich.

NOTICE OF SALE

Pursuant to a judgment of the District Court of the Third Judicial District of the State of New Mexico, for the County of Lincoln entered on the 28th day of July, 1922, in that cause known as Exchange Bank, a corporation, plaintiff, vs. Thomas W. Watson, defendant, No. 3208 on the docket thereof, the same being a suit by attachment, wherein it was adjudged that the defendant was indebted to the plaintiff in the sum of Eight Hundred eighteen and 8-100 Dollars, with interest thereon at the rate of 8 per cent per annum, and costs, and the foreclosure of plaintiff's lien decreed on the hereinafter described real estate under the writ of attachment levied thereon on the 13th day of May, 1922, and on which judgment a special execution was issued and placed in my hands on the 9th day of August, 1922, commanding me to sell said real estate or so much thereof as may be sufficient to raise the sum due plaintiff, I, the undersigned sheriff of said Lincoln County, State of New Mexico, will, on Friday, the 8th day of September, 1922, at the hour of ten o'clock in the forenoon of said day at the front door of the county court house in the Village of Carrizozo, Lincoln County, New Mexico, offer for sale at public auction and sell to the highest and best bidder for cash all the right, title and interest of the said defendant, Thomas W. Watson, in the following described real estate, to-wit: Lots numbered Seventeen and Eighteen in Block numbered Eighteen and Lots numbered Thirty, Thirty-one and Thirty-two in Block numbered Nine of the original Townsite of Carrizozo, County of Lincoln, State of New Mexico, or so much thereof as may be necessary to satisfy said judgment, which on the date of sale will amount to $825.35, together with $21.53 accrued costs and the cost of advertising and sale.

8-11-4 E. W. HARRIS, Sheriff.

NOTICE OF SHERIFF'S SALE UNDER EXECUTION

Whereas, in that certain cause lately pending in the District Court of Lincoln County, N. M., wherein G. W. McConnell is plaintiff, and the Willow Springs Coal Company, a corporation, is defendant, and numbered 3012 on the docket of said court, being a suit to recover on three certain promissory notes, each for the sum of $5,000 and the interest thereon, and attorney's fees provided to be paid in the event or suit to enforce the collection thereof, the said G. W. McConnell as such plaintiff, on the 1st day of May, 1920, recovered a judgment against the said Willow Springs Coal Company, as defendant, for the sum of $15,112.50, the amount of principal and interest of said promissory notes, and the further sum of $1,511.25 attorney's fees, together with interest thereon at the rate of 6 per cent per annum from the first day of April, 1920, upon said principal sum and the costs of said suit, and interest thereon upon said amount of attorney's fees and said costs, from the date of said judgment; and

Whereas, on the 12th day of July, 1920, a writ of execution issued out of said court in said cause, upon said judgment directed to the sheriff of Lincoln County, New Mexico, commanding him that of the goods and chattels, the lands and tenements of said Willow Springs Coal Company, he cause to be made the amount of said judgment; and upon demand made by him upon said defendant, the said Willow Springs Coal Company failed to pay the same, and finding no personal property in his said county out of which to make said judgment, and by virtue of said execution, on the 13th day of July, 1920, he did levy upon all the right, title and interest of the defendant, the Willow Springs Coal Company, in and to the following described lands and real estate, situate in Lincoln County, New Mexico, to-wit:

The East half of the Southeast Quarter (SE 1/4) and the Southwest Quarter of the Southeast Quarter (SW 1/4) of Section Four (4), and the Northeast Quarter of the Northeast Quarter (NE 1/4) of Section Nine (9) South, Range Ten (10) East, N. M. P. M., as described in the United States Patent No. 286,706, dated December 4th, 1911, issued to Harriet M. Melvers; and also the Southeast Quarter (SE 1/4) of Section Three (3), in Township Nine (9) South, Range Ten (10) East, N. M. P. M., as described in United States Patent No. 285,794, dated December 4th, 1911, issued to W. H. Melvers, and said property having been conveyed to the said Willow Springs Coal Company by deed filed for record August 9th, 1918, and recorded in Book A-1 at page 210 of the deed records of Lincoln County, New Mexico, in the office of the county clerk of Lincoln County, New Mexico; also one engine, boiler and old boiler.

And whereas, said sheriff was heretofore enjoined by said court from making said sale under said levy, and which order enjoining said sale has been set aside and held for naught; and

Whereas, on the 10th day of June, 1922, a writ of Venditioni exponere issued out of said court in said cause upon said judgment, directed to me, the undersigned sheriff of Lincoln County, New Mexico, commanding me that I cause to be sold said goods, chattels, lands and tenements, effects and credits of said Willow Springs Coal Company, heretofore levied upon under said writ of execution; therefore,

Notice is hereby given that in order to make the amount of said judgment and to satisfy said execution, I, the undersigned sheriff, will sell at public auction, to the highest and best bidder for cash, at the front door of the court house of Lincoln County, in Carrizozo, N. M., on Saturday, the 9th day of September, 1922, at the hour of ten o'clock, a. m. of said day, all the right, title and interest of the defendant, the Willow Springs Coal Company, in and to the said property above described and so levied upon by said sheriff by virtue of said writ of execution.

Dated this 10th day of August, 1922.

ED. W. HARRIS, Sheriff of Lincoln County, N. M. Jackson, Lassels & Freyer, and E. L. Medler, Attorneys for Plaintiff, El Paso, Texas.

FOR SALE—Some 11-4 inch

Pure Honey

WE CATER TO PARTICULAR PEOPLE

FOUR REASONS WHY YOU SHOULD BUY HEDSTROM HONEY

1. We use Queen Excluders; these separate the eggs and young bees from the HONEY. You get the PURE HONEY with the true flavor only.
2. We leave the HONEY on the hive and let the bees ripen it. This gives the HONEY the best flavor and will keep its true flavor. We let artificial ripening alone.
3. We extract our HONEY by machinery; this insures absolute cleanliness.
4. We make prompt deliveries, at LOW PRICES for this high grade HONEY.

ADD POSTAGE IF HONEY IS TO GO BY MAIL

Five pound Pail $.75 Shipping Weight 7 lbs.
Ten pound pail $1.40 Shipping Weight 11 lbs.
60 pound Case $7.00 By Express or Freight

SEND IN YOUR ORDER, TODAY

R. J. HEDSTROM TULAROSA, N. M.

WESTERN LUMBER COMPANY, Inc.

(Successor to Foxworth-Galbraith Co.)

Dealer in

Lumber, Shingles, Doors, Sash, Mouldings, Hardware and Building Material generally.

With a large stock and lower prices, we solicit the trade of the people of Lincoln County.

CARRIZO Western Lumber Co., Inc. NEW MEX.

Phone 39

D. R. STEWART, Manager.

Skinner's Shoe Hospital

Boots Made To Order

Style of Work Shoes in Stock

Old Shoes Made as Good as New

Return Charges Will be Paid on Parcel Post Orders

LOOK!

Can You Beat This?

A Suit made to your measure, with an extra pair of Pants, For $25.00

AT THE Oklahoma Tailor Shop CLEANING AND PRESSING A SPECIALTY

Special Facilities For Banquet and Dinner Parties.

Carrizozo Eating House

E. H. SWEET, Manager

Table Supplied with the Best the market affords.

FEED YARD

HAY AND GRAIN IN CAR LOTS

All Competition Met in Prices on These Commodities

Roomy Yard - Stalls - Water

Coal and Wood

Wm. Barnett EL PASO AVENUE

Phone 86

WHOLESOME BREAD

delicious biscuit, cake and pastries that melt in your mouth—that is the reputation we enjoy. All we want is to have you try us once. We know what the result will be. And you will like it.

Pure Food Bakery C. H. HAINES

Republican View of Tariff Crimes

In the progress of the debate on the Fordney-McCumber tariff bill Republican Senators one after another have described particular rates of the measure as "injustices," "extortions," and "outrages." Senator Smooth (Utah) brought the crescendo of hard words to the highest pitch by calling the rates on dyes "a crime."

What starts the flow of vituperation from the lips of these Republican Senators is not the intrinsic wrong of the rates or of the principle of taxing the millions for the benefit of hundreds. Not at all. Their objections spring from the knowledge that some of these rates are bad politics—for them. Every one of these Republican Senators is willing enough to hurt any one else in the country, but not himself.

For example: Senator Smoot is the author of the scheme to cut down the supply of Cuban sugar in order to give the Sugar Trust a field to extort from the American people prices of 7 to 10 cents a pound for its product. That is good business for the Sugar Trust and good politics for Mr. Smoot. Ergo, it isn't a "crime." A tariff "crime" in Mr. Smoot's lexicon appears to be any act likely to harm one of his pet interests or impair his own political future.

The 'Eors Have It

Madison, Wis., Aug. 28 "I am opposed to tax revision for buccaneers, to a tariff for the profiteers, to a ship subsidy for the privateers and to senate seats for the auctioneers."

With this statement Miss Martha Rily, Democratic candidate for congress from the third congressional district, summed up her platform, announced today.

Miss Rily, the only woman aspirant from Wisconsin for a seat in the lower house of congress, says that she favors a "people's bloc" in the national congress, instead of a "millionaires' bloc."

Her platform denounces the Fordney-McCumber tariff, urges immediate reduction in the army and navy looking to complete world disarmament, repeal of the Esch-Cummins railroad law, federal restrictions against child labor and a merchant marine policy without subsidies.

New Mexico Democrats Are Very Hopeful

B. O. Beall, secretary of the New Mexico state Democratic central committee, was in El Paso today en route to Albuquerque to attend the state convention. Mr. Beall is from Roswell and is boosting J. F. Hinkle, former state senator, for the gubernatorial nomination. "The Democrats of New Mexico view the coming election with more hope than any time since the first state election, when they swept everything," he said.

"FRIEND MEETS WITH FRIEND"

Of That Spirit Is Born the Hospitality Which Should Go With Thanksgiving Day.

Richest of all the spirits of Thanksgiving day is the spirit of friendly hospitality. Preach about prosperity and millions all you like, but certain it is that a man and woman without real old-fashioned friends is poverty stricken.

Money will not buy friends. It does attract beggars and parasites. Only the sincere, honest heart makes friends who will stand by one in the hour of need, and warm one to hope and courage in the time of trouble. They may not have a penny to their names, but they have the richer treasure—friendship.

And now, when you are thinking of Thanksgiving day, remember the old friends, those who live alone, whose families are gone. The turkey may be too high priced, but a table spread in the spirit of a feast will have merriment and joy and turkey will not be interred.

Thanksgiving day is here. Let us try to revive its spirit and hospitality and come together to cherish the flowers of friendship. Many there are whose souls are dying in these days of unrest. There are no neighbors to turn to, few friendly congregations where everyone shares the joys and sorrows of all. The fire on the altar must be lighted afresh. Whatever the task, let us do our parts gallantly and forget not acquaintances who are struggling against the current and who have seen better days.

Then the Thanksgiving day will be a reality and a true festival in our broad land of America, where with freedom we are striving to maintain the blessings of peace and equal opportunities for all.

PROFESSIONAL CARDS.

W. T. BROTHERS ATTORNEY-AT-LAW Practice in State and Federal Courts Law Office—Next Door to Exchange Bank Carrizozo, New Mex.

A. H. HUDSPETH ATTORNEY-AT-LAW Office: Exchange Bank Building Carrizozo New Mexico

GEO. B. BARBER ATTORNEY-AT-LAW Carrizozo New Mexico

FRANK J. SAGER FIRE INSURANCE Notary Public Office in Exchange Bank Carrizozo.

R. E. BLANEY DENTIST Office in Exchange Bank Bldg. Upstairs

Carrizozo Lodge, No. 41, A. F. & A. M.

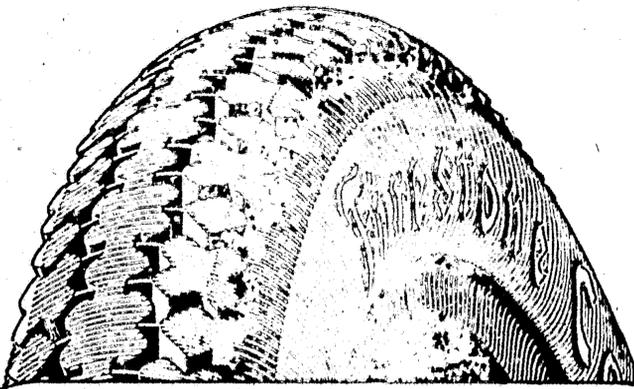

Regular Communications of Carrizozo Lodge No. 41, A. F. & A. M., for 1922: January 5, February 11, March 11, April 11, May 6, June 3, July 5, August 5, Sept. 1 & 10, Nov. 4, Dec. 3 and 27. O. P. MURPHY, W. M. H. P. MALLON, Secretary.

I. O. O. F. Carrizozo Lodge NO. 30 Carrizozo, N. M. Regular meeting nights, 1st and 3rd Tuesdays in each month.

AUSTEN WOOTEN, N. G. WM. J. LANGSTON, Sec'y.

Cement & Concrete Work Plastering, Pebble Dashing, Etc. A. L. V. NILSSON Phone 114 Carrizozo, N. M.

L. W. ADAMS GLENCOE, N. M. Agent for Stark's Nursery Products Finest Fruit Trees

A Triumph for Value

IN the past two months Firestone has built and marketed more tires than in any similar period in its history.

This steadily increasing public preference is proof of the recognition by car owners of the greater values offered by Firestone. It is a tribute to Firestone men—all stockholders in the company—all actuated by the operating principle of Most Miles per Dollar.

The high average performance of Firestone Cords is without equal in the annals of tire making and is reflected by the general tendency to specify Firestone for hard service. Taxicab and bus lines, buying tires by the mile, are universally equipping with Firestone Cords.

There are many reasons for the high quality of Firestone tires but chief among the special manufacturing processes are double gum-dipping, thus eliminating internal friction by insulating each cord strand, and air-bag cure, insuring a well-balanced and perfectly shaped product.

Don't speculate in tires—you will find the right combination of price and quality in Firestone. Come in and let us tell you about the service these Cords are giving other car-owners whom you know.

Firestone GUM-DIPPED CORDS

Sold by

Your Skin is so Fragrant and Smooth

Rain water and pure soap is a sensible combination for a lovely complexion. Because of its rare purity and fragrance, beautiful women for three generations have selected

COLGATE'S Cashmere Bouquet Soap

Large size 25c Medium size 10c

Luxurious Lasting Refined

Women Succeed as Aviators.

The United States has had many women aviators. Katherine Stinson was the first of her sex to fly in this country, being a contemporary of Lincoln Beachey and many other of the early aviators who learned at the Wright field, near Dayton. Now Chicago has produced our first negro girl aviator in Beale Coleman, who is abroad at present receiving additional training in France, Holland and England, where she has given many demonstrations of skill.

Compensation is the law of existence the world over.

Labor's worst enemy is the working man who won't work.

KILL RATS TODAY

By Using

STEARNS' ELECTRIC PASTE

It also kills mice, sphinx, prairie dogs, coyotes, wolves, cockroaches, water bugs and ants. A 50c box contains enough to kill 100 rats or mice. Get it from your drug or general store dealer today.

READY FOR USE—BETTER THAN TRAPS

Western Canada Offers Health and Wealth

It has brought contentment and happiness to thousands of home seekers and their families who have started on their F.R.E. homesteads or bought land at attractive prices. They have established their own homes and secured property and independence. In the great grain-growing sections of the prairie provinces there is still to be had on very favorable terms.

Fertile Land at $15 to $30 an Acre

Land similar to that which through many years has yielded from 20 to 45 bushels of wheat to the acre, oats, barley and flax also in great abundance. Wide ranging forests, cattle, sheep and horse raising profitable. Hundreds of farmers in Western Canada have raised crops in a single season worth more than the whole cost of their land. Healthful climate, good neighbors, churches, schools, rural telephone, excellent markets and shipping facilities. The climate and soil offer inducements for almost every branch of agriculture. The advantages for

Dairying, Mixed Farming and Stock Raising make a tremendous asset to industrious settlers wishing to improve their circumstances. For certificate entitling you to reduced railway rates, illustrated literature, maps, description of farm opportunities in Manitoba, Saskatchewan, Alberta and British Columbia, etc., write

W. V. BENNETT
800 Pacific Building
Omaha, Neb.

160 ACRES FARM FREE

Stop Laxatives

Which Only Aggravate Constipation

Nujol is a lubricant—not a medicine or laxative—so cannot grip.

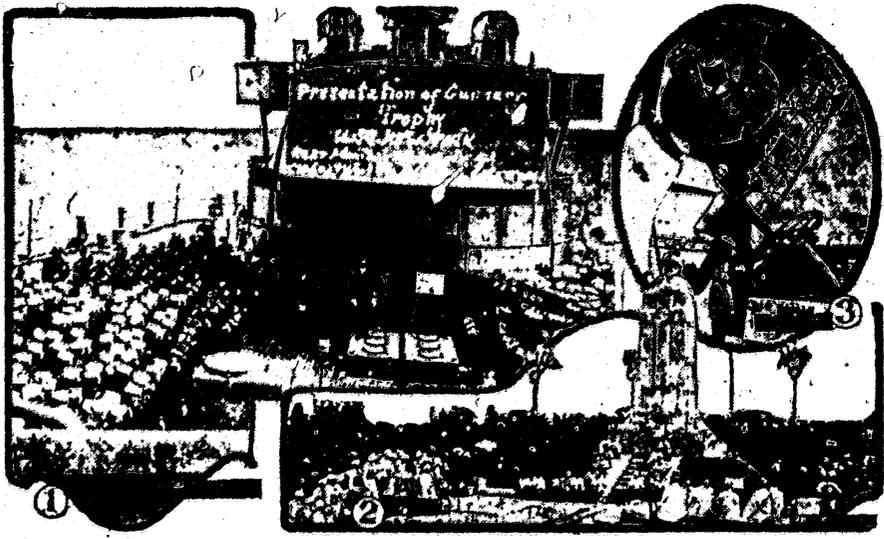

When you are constipated, not enough of Nature's lubricating liquid is produced in the bowel to keep the food moving soft and moving. Doctors prescribe Nujol because it acts like this natural lubricant and thus replaces it. Try it today.

Nujol

A LUBRICANT—NOT A LAXATIVE

Frankies Positively Removed

Do you have those annoying little insects in your hair? They are sure to be there if you have not used Frankies. They are sure to be there if you have not used Frankies. They are sure to be there if you have not used Frankies.

1—Presentation of gunnery trophy for excellent marksmanship to U. S. S. New York at Seattle. 2—Dr. J. S. Plaskett, director of astrophysical observatory at Victoria, B. C., and 73-inch reflector telescope through which he recently discovered and measured twin suns of immense size. 3—Dedication of monument on Argonne battlefield to those who perished there.

NEWS REVIEW OF CURRENT EVENTS

Strike of Bituminous Miners Settled Temporarily and in Feeble Manner.

BOTH SIDES CLAIM VICTORY

Negotiations Between Railway Executives and Shopmen Resumed—Violence by Strikers Exasperates the Public—France Ready to Enforce Sanctions Against Defaulting Germany.

By EDWARD W. PICKARD

ONE of our great strikes—that of the bituminous miners—was settled last week, partially, temporarily, and after a fashion. The agreement reached at Cleveland by the miners' officials and operators representing perhaps 60,000,000 tons annual production means there will be enough coal to get through the fall and winter, though conservation and rationing probably will be necessary. But the old wage scales and working conditions are to continue in effect until March 31, 1923, which means the high prices for coal that have prevailed for several years will be maintained by the miners, if they can do it, and also that next April the disputes and probably the strike will begin all over again. To be sure, the agreement provides for the creation of machinery to avert further strikes and to bring some order into the chaotic coal industry, but the public must not count too much on this.

Both the miners and the operators claim to have won a victory at Cleveland, the former because their wages and work conditions are unchanged, and the latter because the miners signed agreements with individual operators and also because the tribunals to be set up solve the issues revolving around the question of arbitration, which the miners oppose.

The agreements were with operators of all the bituminous states except Illinois and Indiana, but the prospects for resumption of mining in those two states also was excellent.

Already the coal profiteers are getting in their work. Senator Borah of Idaho called this to the attention of the federal fuel committee and announced his intention of seeking legislation to check them. At the same time Fuel Distributor Spencer asked the railroads to refrain from competitive bidding for coal, the result of which had been to force the price above the limit set by Secretary Hoover. It was stated in Washington that President Harding would ask congress to pass legislation giving the federal fuel committee legal powers to control the distribution and regulate the price of coal as a safeguard against hardship and profiteering. It is quite evident that unless the government does come to the rescue, the settlement of the coal strike will be an expensive thing for the consumer.

HIS final suggestion for settling the strike of railway shopmen having been rejected by the union, and only accepted by the railway executives with reservations, President Harding lost nearly all the wonderful patience with which he has been dealing with that problem.

On Friday the President laid the whole matter before congress. After declaring the right of employer and employee alike to conduct their business must be recognized, he said he was "resolved to use all the power of the government to maintain transportation and sustain the right of men to work." He said the Bach-Cummins act was inadequate and recommended action to make the railway labor board's decisions "enforceable and effective against carriers and employees alike." He scolded severely the strikers for their acts of brutality and their contempt for law, and announced his intention to invoke laws, civil and criminal forbidding conspiracies hindering interstate commerce and requiring safety in railway service.

The President, asserted a national investigation of the coal industry was necessary and recommended a federal commission to advise as to fair wages and conditions.

In discussing coal the President referred to what he termed the "shocking crime at Herrin, Ill., which so recently shamed and horrified the country," and added the incident was "butchery of human beings outright in madness."

WARNINGS of brotherhood officials that alleged faulty equipment and the employment of armed guards would result in many sporadic strikes of members of their unions were fully justified. Engineers, firemen and trainmen in numerous instances abandoned their trains and service, especially in the Far West, was badly crippled. Passengers were marooned for days in small towns in the desert regions and women, children and invalids suffered greatly from heat and lack of milk and ice. In some cases the sending of relief trains was prevented or delayed by the strikers. The government, the railway heads and the entire American public were thoroughly exasperated by these methods, and the brotherhood chiefs, realizing the great mistake they were making, ordered them back to work. The heads of the "big four" still insist that equipment is so de-generated that the lives of the trainmen are endangered, and they were pleased to read that President Harding had written to Chairman McChord of the Interstate commerce commission insisting that the federal laws relating to inspection of rolling stock and safety appliances must be strictly enforced, regardless of the public inconvenience which might ensue.

As for the employment of armed guards, the striking shopmen and their sympathizers have by their actions demonstrated completely the argument of the unions. They have mobbed, killed and maimed many nonunion shop workers in most cowardly fashion; they have set fire to shops; they have torn up tracks, they have bombed trains, and they have blown up at least one railway bridge. Wherever railway property and workers are not well protected by armed guards or state troops, acts of violence are perpetrated, over and over again, in scores of places, the striking shopmen are proving themselves to be brutes and cowards. Their only excuse—if it be an excuse—lies in the statement of Attorney General Daugherty that Ted Aglitors and L. W. W. leaders are exceedingly active in fomenting troubles.

IN ACCORDANCE with its arranged plan, the senate voted Saturday on the tariff bill devised by its committee on finance, accepting it by a fair majority, and the measure is now in conference. During the final days of debate several important amendments were adopted, one of them authorizing the establishment of foreign trade zones in American ports where foreign goods may be brought in without payment of duty to be stored, exhibited, mixed with domestic products and re-exported. Logs of fir, spruce, cedar and western hemlock were transferred to the free list, and so were scientific instruments for educational purposes. The Democrats failed to get a reduction of the rates on aluminum, and Senator Harrell (Rep., Okla.) lost his fight for duties on crude petroleum and fuel oil.

MISSISSIPPI Democrats staged a pretty contest Tuesday in their senatorial primaries. The real fight was between former Senator James K. Vardaman and Hubert D. Stephens. A third contestant was Miss Belle Kearney. She polled only about 17,000 votes, but that was enough to prevent Vardaman from getting the required majority; he received over a thousand more than Stephens. Under the state law it is necessary to hold a second primary on September 6 to determine which of the two men shall be the nominee. Some time ago former President Wilson stated that he hoped Vardaman would not be sent to Washington again.

UNABLE or unwilling to recede from the position he had taken regarding Germany's failure to pay, Poincare returned to Paris and the allied conference in London broke up.

mentous one of a rupture of the treaty of Versailles. The French premier summoned his cabinet and it unqualifiedly endorsed all he had done and said in London. It also decided the government was competent to handle the situation without convening parliament, unless conditions become much worse. Though fully prepared to put into force the French sanctions against Germany, the cabinet decided to await the action of the reparations commission concerning a moratorium. Germany meanwhile defaulted in the war debts due on Tuesday, declaring in a note to the allies that this was due to the demand for foreign currency to pay for urgently needed necessities of life and to the fall in the value of the mark. The reparations commission was trying to devise some way of tiding over the situation until November or December when, it believes, another meeting of the allied premiers will have to be held to consider the whole question of German debt and finances and the interrelated war debts.

The break-up of the London conference caused another great decline in the value of the mark, and at the same time came a series of farm strikes throughout the country led by the communists and seriously threatening the harvest. Chancellor Wirth, in a statement to press correspondents, said:

"Germany cannot pay in gold. Ten million gold marks, paid this week, were drawn from money set apart to buy wheat this month. The first duty of the German government is to give bread to our sinking people."

THOUGH expected for some time, the death of Lord Northcliffe, the famous British journalist and leading publicist of the world, came as a real shock. America feels the loss only less than Great Britain, for he was often in this country, knew thoroughly its people and its ideals and was the greatest force in the promotion of close friendly relations between the two nations. His power in British politics was tremendous, and there is no one to fill his place. Viscount Northcliffe was buried in Westminster Abbey Thursday with all the honors that could be bestowed. Eminent persons, including many ambassadors, filled the edifice and the humber folk thronged the streets outside.

IRISH insurgents, having been almost totally routed in the South, broke into renewed activity in the North and among other exploits captured Dundalk in a surprise attack. But they were unable to hold the place more than a few days. When the regulars recaptured it they took hundreds of prisoners. Regular riverboat service has been re-established between Cork and Queenstown and normal conditions almost restored in that district. The Marconi radio station at Clifden on the coast north of Galway has been rescued from the rebels.

The new Irish Free State lost one of its wisest and strongest supporters in the death of Arthur Griffith, president of Dail Eireann, on August 12. Irish and English alike mourned him and his funeral in Dublin was the occasion of a very remarkable demonstration.

OVER in China a peace parley actually was begun, the agents of Gen. Wu Pei-Fu, war lord of the North; and of General Chang, dictator of Manchuria, and Sun Yat-Sen, former head of the southern government, getting together in Shanghai. Representatives of President Li and others also were present. Doctor Sun, who reached Shanghai from Canton via Hongkong, said he had no personal ambitions and would offer parliament and respect to all.

Southwest News
From All Over
New Mexico and Arizona

The hunting season for doves opens in New Mexico Sept. 1.

Sheriff John O. Peck and deputy, J. E. Zumwalt arrested C. G. Beatenbow of near Elkins, whom they charged with the larceny of a beef.

Organization of a dairy and poultry products shipping association is being formed in Roosevelt county under the direction of the farm bureau of the county.

Federal troops under Gen. Angel Flores, military commander of the west coast of Mexico, are striving to capture alive the rebel chieftain Juan Carrasco.

D. J. Thomas, banker of Holbrook, Ariz., died suddenly a few days ago. The deceased and family were for many years residents of Gallup, where he practiced law.

A reduction of almost $2,000,000 in the assessed valuation of Cochise county taxable property was made by the State Tax Commission in session in Phoenix recently.

The New Mexico Normal University of East Las Vegas has recently added to its faculty ex-President James M. Cook of the Baptist Montezuma College of Las Vegas.

John Perry Waldron, 83 years old, who had been lost in the hills near Crow King, Ariz., for seven days, was found unconscious lying near the road eighteen miles from his camp.

D. V. Kinney was instantly killed and six others seriously, but not fatally, injured when two work trains on the Santa Fé collided at a point seventy miles east of Kingman, Ariz.

Construction of 750 miles of electrified railway in Arizona with a main line passing through Casa Grande and a branch railway connecting with Tucson, is proposed in the near future.

Deputy sheriffs arrested Antonio Lovato of Escobosa, N. M., on the charge of unlawfully killing meat cattle, following reports coming to their office from the cattle sanitary board officers.

While neighboring states have had high death rates from smallpox, New Mexico has had only one in 1921, and none in 1922, so far, Dr. George S. Luckett, public health director, said.

J. Farrell, who gave his home address as Elgin, Ill., was taken into custody by federal and county officers near Naco, charged with smuggling drugs across the international line.

Restoration of the employees bonus, discontinued Dec. 10, 1920, was announced recently by Gen. J. C. Greenway, general manager of the Catumet and Arizona Mining Company at Bisbee.

Just when the September term of Federal Court will open at Santa Fé with a jury has not been announced. But there will be no jury, grand or petit, during the Santa Fé fiesta, Sept. 4, 5 and 6.

Orders for the structural steel to be used in the construction of the new 5,000-ton concentrator of the New Cornelia at Ajo, Ariz., will be placed in September, according to General Manager Greenway.

A branch office of the federal Bureau of Public Roads, which approved plans for federal aid roads submitted by the State Highway Department, has been opened in Santa Fé, in room 8, Federal building.

The state highway from Vail to Tombstone has been overhauled by a maintenance crew and all the "corrugations" removed so that it is now as good as the balance of the road from Tombstone to Tucson.

Major E. L. N. Glass, Tenth cavalry, Fort Huachuca, Ariz., has been detailed as assistant military attache in the American embassy at Mexico City.

Plans for the new building of the Silver City, N. M., lodge of Elks, have been completed by Trost and Trost of El Paso, and formal action will be taken at the next meeting of the members of the organization.

The Nogales Chamber of Commerce received word from the United States employment service in Phoenix announcing the need of several hundred laborers in the Salt River valley for the cotton picking season which opens Sept. 1.

Delegates from the tea chapters of the state organization of the American Association of Engineers will meet in Prescott Aug. 31 under the chairmanship of George H. Farnett, mining engineer of the Arizona Bureau of Mines at Tucson.

H. D. Osborn, president of the Miners Valley Growers' and Cannery's Association, states that he will can the tomatoes from eighty acres this fall at Honadal, N. M. An effort will be made next year to secure sufficient acreage to run the DeWing plant.

Robert G. Stockdale, county farm agent, and W. F. Thrupp, a director of the Rio Grande Valley Dairy Association, made a tour of the Rincon and Mesilla valleys, to ascertain how much financing is necessary to place more dairy cows on farms in the district.

WORN OUT AFTER SHE COOKED A MEAL

Took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—Read the Result

Cincinnati, Ohio.—"I suffered for a year with nervous troubles and irregularities before I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. My back pained all the time and I was unfit for housework. I was worn out if I cooked a meal, and was unable to do my washing. My girl friends and my sister told me if I would take your Vegetable Compound and Liver Pills I would be relieved. After taking the first bottle I felt better, and neglected it awhile, but found I could not do my work until I was stronger. So I took the Vegetable Compound again and now I am the mother of a 19 months old boy. He is fat and healthy and I am sure I could never have carried him if it had not been for your Vegetable Compound. I recommend your medicine to all women although I am young to be advising some one older."—Mrs. CHARLES PETEROFF, 218 W. Liberty St., Cincinnati, Ohio.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound contains no harmful drugs and can be taken in safety by any woman.

Her Reason. Mary Louise and her little friend had had a falling out. Explanations were hard to obtain, but the trouble finally came out.

"What was the trouble between you and Hazel?" Mary Louise's aunt asked her.

"Aw, Hazel flirted with a boy in the park," replied Mary Louise.

"I'll bet you flirted, too," said the aunt.

"No, I didn't, either. Mamma was along."

Important to Mothers. Examine carefully every bottle of CASTORIA, that famous old remedy for infants and children, and see that it bears the Signature of W. D. Hoagland in Use for Over 30 Years.

Children Cry for Fletcher's Castoria.

Deceived. "What a lot of antique furniture the Scabbys have." "Not nearly so much as they think they have."

Double chins are considered a masculine charm when the cleft is in the middle and perpendicular.

Summer Find You Miserable?

Is a lame, achy back torturing you? Does the least exertion leave you tired, weak, all worn-out? You should find the cause of your trouble and try to correct it. More than likely it's your kidneys. Miserable backaches with headaches, dizzy spells and annoying urinary disorders are common signs of kidney weakness. There is danger in delay. Begin using Doan's Kidney Pills today. Doan's have helped thousands. They should help you. Ask your neighbor!

A Colorado Case. Mrs. E. J. Edwards, 408 Petroleum Ave., Florence, Colo., writes: "I walk on account of the lameness in my back and I'm 45 years old. Every time I am tempted to move, sharp cutting pains run through my back and sides. I used Doan's Kidney Pills and they helped me. I would do it fully. Doan's have never failed to rid me of an attack of kidney trouble."

Get Doan's at Any Store, 60c a Box
DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS
POSTER-MILBURN CO., BUFFALO, N. Y.

BETTER DEAD

Life is a burden when the body is racked with pain. Everything worries and the victim becomes despondent and downhearted. To bring back the sunshine take

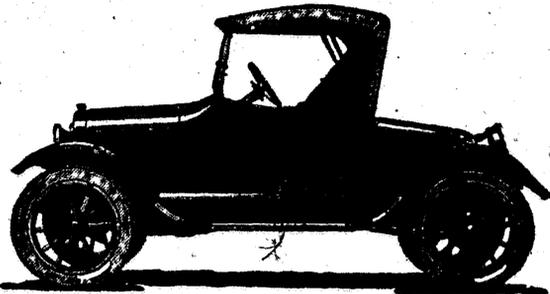

GOLD MEDAL HAARLEM OIL

The National Remedy of Holland for over 200 years! It is an enemy of all pain, swelling from kidney, liver and uric acid troubles. All druggists, three places. Look for the name, Gold Medal on every box and accept no imitations.

DIARRHOEA

Quickly Relieved by Wakefield's Blackberry Balsam

For 74 years Wakefield's Blackberry Balsam has been the surest and quickest remedy for Diarrhoea, Dysentery and all loose bowel troubles in adults, children and babies. While it is quick and positive in its action, it is harmless and does not constipate. It checks the trouble and leaves the stomach and bowels in their natural, regular condition. Every home should have a little ready for sudden attack. It is a little ready for sudden attack. It is a little ready for sudden attack. It is a little ready for sudden attack.

The Lowest Priced QUALITY Roadster

$ 510 f. o. b. Flint, Mich.

The Chevrolet Roadster is a car that can be used purely for business, purely for personal service, or in an ideal combination of both.

It is intensely practical as a business car. For salesman it will serve splendidly to multiply earning power, making possible the covering of a much larger territory and more calls in a given time.

It has the fine appearance that carries prestige, which is another point in its favor as a business car. And then it is the cheapest in price of any car in America, quality and equipment considered.

And because it is the car of lowest operating cost, it becomes the cheapest in cost per year of service of any car in the world.

Comparisons Sell Chevrolet

- | | |
|---|---|
| Consider What Chevrolet Equipment Means: | pressure gauge, lighting and starting switch, and choke pull. |
| Standard Rear Axle Construction—strong, quiet Spiral Bevel Gears. | Standard Type of Carburetor, with exhaust heater—one reason why you get most miles per gallon of gasoline with a Chevrolet. |
| Standard Transmission—three speeds forward and one reverse. | Powerful, Valve-In-Head Motor. The same type as used in successful cars selling at much higher prices. |
| Standard Braking System—foot service brake, hand emergency brake. | Demountable Rims—with extra rim. |
| Standard Electrical System: Starter, storage battery, Remy ignition. | Many Other Advantages which will be noticed on inspection, comparison and demonstration. |
| Standard Cooling System—pump circulation, large, honey-comb radiator and fan. | |
| Standard Instrument Board, containing speedometer, ammeter, oil | |

Chevrolet Motor Company, Detroit, Michigan
Division of General Motors Corporation

PRICES F. O. B. Flint, Michigan
Touring, $525
Roadster, $510
5-Passenger Sedan, $860
4-Passenger Coupe, $680
Light Delivery, $510
Commercial Coach, $475

World's Largest Manufacturer of Low-Priced QUALITY Automobiles
There are 5,000 Chevrolet Dealers and Service Stations Throughout the World

Dealers and Parts Depots Wanted
in all territory not adequately covered. Address—

Chevrolet Motor Company
1833 Wazee Street, Denver, Colorado

Explaining It.
"Insect" he hellowed. "Why do you call me insect?"
His wife smiled sweetly.
"Because when I married you I got stung."

Cuticura Soap
The Velvet Touch
For the Skin
Soap 25c, Ointment 25 and 50c, Tablets 25c.

IF YOUR VETERINARIAN
Uses "Cutter's"
Serums and Vaccines
The Cutter Laboratory
Berkeley, California

West Texas Military Academy
E.O.R.G. San Antonio, Texas 30th Year
Affiliated with the University of Texas, West Point, Annapolis and leading institutions of the United States. Army officers detailed by War Department. Uniforms equipped by Government. Separate Junior School. Swimming Pool. Athletic Field. Champions of Football and Baseball. Open Sept. 8. Write for new illustrated catalogue. J. TOM WILLIAMS, Supr.

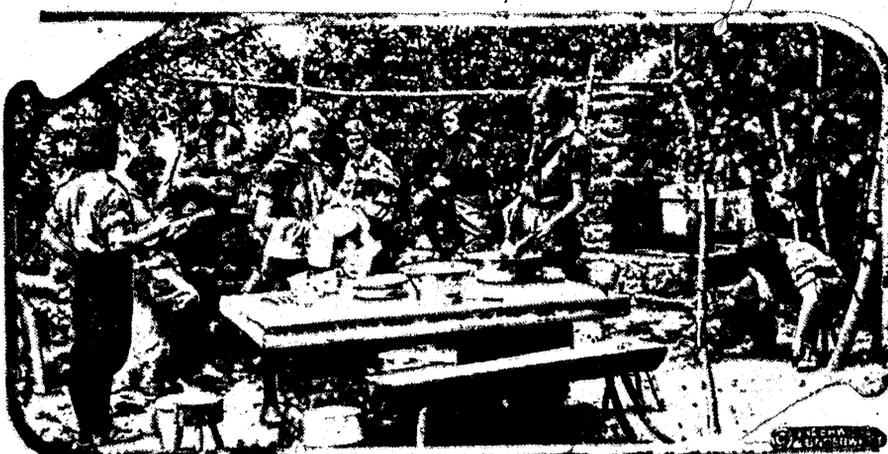

YOU CAN
color your hair easily, quickly and safely by using the new Hair Color Remover. Safe to use as water. Makes you look young again. At all good druggists, 75 cents, or direct from HENCO-KILLIS, Catalina, Memphis, Tenn.

DI-C-O-L-O
FOR BURNS, CUTS, ITCH, SORES
75c at stores; 85c by mail. Address: New York Drug Concern, New York

"Miss Lily White will please stand up!"
But Phoebe upward wriggled;
"I'm Lily White—with Faultless Starch."
And all the Pupils giggled.

FAULTLESS STARCH

These Girl Scouts Rather Like K. P. Duty Now

Washing dishes is a pleasure for the girl scouts at Camp Andree Clarke, Briarcliff Manor, N. Y., for their fellow scouts serenade them during the "ceremony."

Paris Mecca of Divorce Hunters

Americans and Other Foreigners Are Taking Advantage of Easy French Laws.

SECRECY IS THE CHIEF FACTOR

American Lawyer in Paris Declares the Whole Divorce Situation in France an Abuse and Scandal—Grounds for Decree.

Paris.—The increasing number of divorces obtained in Paris by prominent Americans and other foreigners seeking relief from matrimonial infidelity has led to many inquiries as to why the French capital apparently has become such a European Reno for discontented spouses.

The chief magnet appears to lie in the fact that divorce proceedings may be brought in French courts with silent ease and completed without even friends and acquaintances becoming aware, at least through the medium of French newspapers, that there has been the slightest ripple on the sea of domesticity. Publication of such proceedings by native newspapers is a criminal offense, on the ground of lowering public morals. The newspapers may print the names of those involved, if they can obtain them, and the fact that a divorce has been granted, but nothing more.

UNIVERSITY OF FLYING PLANNED

Advanced School Soon to Be Established in Texas.

Newest Form of Training in Air Service to Be Provided by United States Army—Ninety Listed in Initial Class.

San Antonio, Tex.—Development of one of the largest flying bases of the government air service at San Antonio is expected by air service officials with the transfer of the primary and observation schools to this point recently. The latest development of the flying base here is the establishment of an advanced flying school.

The opening of the advanced school, designated by air service officers as a "flying university," is the newest form of training in the air service, according to Maj. John N. Reynolds, officer in charge of the new courses. The school is located at Kelly field. Thirty cadets and 60 officers have entered the initial classes, and it is expected this number will be increased greatly with the opening of the fall term in September.

The advanced instruction offered in the "flying university" is divided into four branches—bombardment pursuit, observation and attack, the primary groups of the air service. Embryo flyers will be graduated from the primary school, just removed from Carlstrom field, Florida, to Brooks field here, and then advanced to the higher training. The two schools will bear the same relation as high school and university, air officials state.

Burglars Use Acid Test On the Family Silverware

A literal application of the acid test was made by burglars who ransacked the home of J. A. Gillies, Hamden, Conn., during the family's absence. The burglars carried acid with them to test the quality of the family plate and, after discarding such silverware as did not measure up to their standard, took tableware valued at $3,000. Fur coats and sealskin garments were taken at their face value.

WONDERFUL RELICS FROM EGYPT

Interesting New Discoveries on View in London.

Graves of Courtiers and Royal Servants at Abydos Belong to Date as Unbelievably Remote as 5,000 Years B. C.

London.—Most intensely interesting are the relics brought back by Prof. Flinders Petrie, the great Egyptologist, and his colleagues from the tombs near Abydos. The precious fruits of last winter's search are on view at University college.

The graves at Abydos were those of courtiers and royal servants of the first dynasty kings, and the treasures that were buried with them belong to a time when the world was in its infancy.

Paris Mecca of Divorce Hunters

Americans and Other Foreigners Are Taking Advantage of Easy French Laws.

SECRECY IS THE CHIEF FACTOR

American Lawyer in Paris Declares the Whole Divorce Situation in France an Abuse and Scandal—Grounds for Decree.

Paris.—The increasing number of divorces obtained in Paris by prominent Americans and other foreigners seeking relief from matrimonial infidelity has led to many inquiries as to why the French capital apparently has become such a European Reno for discontented spouses.

The chief magnet appears to lie in the fact that divorce proceedings may be brought in French courts with silent ease and completed without even friends and acquaintances becoming aware, at least through the medium of French newspapers, that there has been the slightest ripple on the sea of domesticity. Publication of such proceedings by native newspapers is a criminal offense, on the ground of lowering public morals. The newspapers may print the names of those involved, if they can obtain them, and the fact that a divorce has been granted, but nothing more.

UNIVERSITY OF FLYING PLANNED

Advanced School Soon to Be Established in Texas.

Newest Form of Training in Air Service to Be Provided by United States Army—Ninety Listed in Initial Class.

San Antonio, Tex.—Development of one of the largest flying bases of the government air service at San Antonio is expected by air service officials with the transfer of the primary and observation schools to this point recently. The latest development of the flying base here is the establishment of an advanced flying school.

The opening of the advanced school, designated by air service officers as a "flying university," is the newest form of training in the air service, according to Maj. John N. Reynolds, officer in charge of the new courses. The school is located at Kelly field. Thirty cadets and 60 officers have entered the initial classes, and it is expected this number will be increased greatly with the opening of the fall term in September.

The advanced instruction offered in the "flying university" is divided into four branches—bombardment pursuit, observation and attack, the primary groups of the air service. Embryo flyers will be graduated from the primary school, just removed from Carlstrom field, Florida, to Brooks field here, and then advanced to the higher training. The two schools will bear the same relation as high school and university, air officials state.

Burglars Use Acid Test On the Family Silverware

A literal application of the acid test was made by burglars who ransacked the home of J. A. Gillies, Hamden, Conn., during the family's absence. The burglars carried acid with them to test the quality of the family plate and, after discarding such silverware as did not measure up to their standard, took tableware valued at $3,000. Fur coats and sealskin garments were taken at their face value.

WONDERFUL RELICS FROM EGYPT

Interesting New Discoveries on View in London.

Graves of Courtiers and Royal Servants at Abydos Belong to Date as Unbelievably Remote as 5,000 Years B. C.

London.—Most intensely interesting are the relics brought back by Prof. Flinders Petrie, the great Egyptologist, and his colleagues from the tombs near Abydos. The precious fruits of last winter's search are on view at University college.

The graves at Abydos were those of courtiers and royal servants of the first dynasty kings, and the treasures that were buried with them belong to a time when the world was in its infancy.

ALMOST WRECKED STATES R. R. MAN

Stomach Trouble, Had Him Nearly Past Going, Declares Mowrer.

"Tanlac has helped me to gain ten pounds," said J. E. Mowrer, 157 Park St., Akron, O., well-known railroad man.

"My stomach was in such bad fix that for several days at a time I could hardly retain any food. I had no appetite and often the very sight of food made me sick. I was intensely nervous, too, could not rest at night, felt tired and worn out all the time, and lost weight and strength until I was almost a wreck.

"Tanlac has made me feel like a different man. My appetite is enormous and I haven't a sign of indigestion left. I never felt stronger. Tanlac certainly does the work."

Tanlac is sold by all good druggists.—Advertisement.

Why and Where.
Relieving Officer (to applicant who is slightly deaf)—And where did you marry your wife?
Applicant—I'll be hanged if I know, sir.

Relieving Officer—What! Don't know where you were married?
Applicant—Beg pardon, sir. I thought you said why.—London Tribunes.

Cuticura Soothes Baby Rashes
That itch and burn, by hot baths of Cuticura Soap followed by gentle anointings of Cuticura Ointment. Nothing better, purer, sweeter, especially if a little of the fragrant Cuticura Talcum is dusted on at the finish. 25c each.—Advertisement.

No Pleasure Without a Partner.
A man would have no pleasure in discovering all the beauties of the universe, even in heaven itself, unless he had a partner with whom he might share his joys.—Cicero.

No Place Like Home.
Rub—I get so tired of eating at restaurants.
Dub—I'm married, too!

If Walla Walla says so, it must be so

No law of limitations blocks justice in this case

All the way from Walla Walla comes a communication that we believe holds some interest for the general smoking public. At least, it gave us a thrill which we want to pass on if possible.

Walla Walla County Attorney's Office
Walla Walla, Washington, Va.
Larus & Brother Co., Richmond, Va.
Dear Sirs:
If a gentleman owes a debt he pays it, or, lacking the ability to do so, he at least admits that he owes it.

For many years I have been indebted to you, and up to the present time have made no acknowledgment, counting from the time that the obligation was first incurred it has long since been outlawed, but this has not constituted a continuing obligation, and the statute of limitations does not run against a gentleman's debt.

I was past fifty when I first knew the astounding claim of the great God Nicotine and for a year or two I floundered around among all sorts of brands of tobacco before I found the right one and settled down. Now when my friends ask for a pipeful I hand over my pouch and they say, "Edgeworth" and I grin and say "Oh-huh."

As I write, a pipeful of Edgeworth is going up in smoke, and for that reason I feel a little more kindly towards my fellow man.

With best wishes, I am,
Yours sincerely,
(Signed) A. J. Gillis.

As you see, it isn't so much that another smoker has found that Edgeworth just suits his taste as it is that this veteran prosecuting attorney, way out in Walla Walla should postpone duties to his State, his family, and his private affairs to sit down and write us a note of appreciation.

We liked his letter and are proud of the tobacco that inspired him to write it. Almost every mail brings us grateful letters from Edgeworth smokers—unsolicited, and unexpected.

Perhaps it is too much for us to believe that Edgeworth smokers as a whole are generous, big-hearted fellows who never miss an opportunity to boost their fellow men. Perhaps it isn't.

At any rate, if you aren't an Edgeworth smoker, we want to put you in a position to qualify as one. We should like to send you free samples—generous helpings of both Edgeworth Plug Silos and Ready-Rubbed.

Just jot your name and address down on a postal and we will send the samples immediately. If you will also include the name and address of your tobacco dealer, we shall appreciate your courtesy.

Edgeworth is sold in various sizes to suit the needs and means of all purchasers. Both Edgeworth Plug Silos and Edgeworth Ready-Rubbed are packed in small, pocket-size packages, in handsome tin humidor, and also in various handy in-between sizes.

For the free samples address Larus & Brother Company, 44 South 21st Street, Richmond, Va.
To Retail Tobacco Merchants: If your dealer doesn't supply you with

ALMOST WRECKED STATES R. R. MAN

Stomach Trouble, Had Him Nearly Past Going, Declares Mowrer.

"Tanlac has helped me to gain ten pounds," said J. E. Mowrer, 157 Park St., Akron, O., well-known railroad man.

"My stomach was in such bad fix that for several days at a time I could hardly retain any food. I had no appetite and often the very sight of food made me sick. I was intensely nervous, too, could not rest at night, felt tired and worn out all the time, and lost weight and strength until I was almost a wreck.

"Tanlac has made me feel like a different man. My appetite is enormous and I haven't a sign of indigestion left. I never felt stronger. Tanlac certainly does the work."

Tanlac is sold by all good druggists.—Advertisement.

Why and Where.
Relieving Officer (to applicant who is slightly deaf)—And where did you marry your wife?
Applicant—I'll be hanged if I know, sir.

Relieving Officer—What! Don't know where you were married?
Applicant—Beg pardon, sir. I thought you said why.—London Tribunes.

Cuticura Soothes Baby Rashes
That itch and burn, by hot baths of Cuticura Soap followed by gentle anointings of Cuticura Ointment. Nothing better, purer, sweeter, especially if a little of the fragrant Cuticura Talcum is dusted on at the finish. 25c each.—Advertisement.

No Pleasure Without a Partner.
A man would have no pleasure in discovering all the beauties of the universe, even in heaven itself, unless he had a partner with whom he might share his joys.—Cicero.

No Place Like Home.
Rub—I get so tired of eating at restaurants.
Dub—I'm married, too!

If Walla Walla says so, it must be so

No law of limitations blocks justice in this case

All the way from Walla Walla comes a communication that we believe holds some interest for the general smoking public. At least, it gave us a thrill which we want to pass on if possible.

Walla Walla County Attorney's Office
Walla Walla, Washington, Va.
Larus & Brother Co., Richmond, Va.
Dear Sirs:
If a gentleman owes a debt he pays it, or, lacking the ability to do so, he at least admits that he owes it.

For many years I have been indebted to you, and up to the present time have made no acknowledgment, counting from the time that the obligation was first incurred it has long since been outlawed, but this has not constituted a continuing obligation, and the statute of limitations does not run against a gentleman's debt.

I was past fifty when I first knew the astounding claim of the great God Nicotine and for a year or two I floundered around among all sorts of brands of tobacco before I found the right one and settled down. Now when my friends ask for a pipeful I hand over my pouch and they say, "Edgeworth" and I grin and say "Oh-huh."

As I write, a pipeful of Edgeworth is going up in smoke, and for that reason I feel a little more kindly towards my fellow man.

With best wishes, I am,
Yours sincerely,
(Signed) A. J. Gillis.

As you see, it isn't so much that another smoker has found that Edgeworth just suits his taste as it is that this veteran prosecuting attorney, way out in Walla Walla should postpone duties to his State, his family, and his private affairs to sit down and write us a note of appreciation.

We liked his letter and are proud of the tobacco that inspired him to write it. Almost every mail brings us grateful letters from Edgeworth smokers—unsolicited, and unexpected.

Perhaps it is too much for us to believe that Edgeworth smokers as a whole are generous, big-hearted fellows who never miss an opportunity to boost their fellow men. Perhaps it isn't.

At any rate, if you aren't an Edgeworth smoker, we want to put you in a position to qualify as one. We should like to send you free samples—generous helpings of both Edgeworth Plug Silos and Ready-Rubbed.

Just jot your name and address down on a postal and we will send the samples immediately. If you will also include the name and address of your tobacco dealer, we shall appreciate your courtesy.

Edgeworth is sold in various sizes to suit the needs and means of all purchasers. Both Edgeworth Plug Silos and Edgeworth Ready-Rubbed are packed in small, pocket-size packages, in handsome tin humidor, and also in various handy in-between sizes.

For the free samples address Larus & Brother Company, 44 South 21st Street, Richmond, Va.
To Retail Tobacco Merchants: If your dealer doesn't supply you with

Edgeworth is sold in various sizes to suit the needs and means of all purchasers. Both Edgeworth Plug Silos and Edgeworth Ready-Rubbed are packed in small, pocket-size packages, in handsome tin humidor, and also in various handy in-between sizes.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Mrs. Paul McFarland has been on the sick list recently.

FOR SALE—Money Strain Barred Rock and pure-bred S. C. White Leghorn Cockerels—$3.00 each—see Mrs. D. D. Tiffany Carrizozo New Mexico.

Mrs. D. A. Saunders and children are visiting in El Paso this week.

Albert Ziegler, who has been spending his vacation on the Pacific Coast, is expected home about the first of the week.

Mrs. E. O. Prehm and children are visiting at Alamogordo, and enjoying the cool shade and mountain breezes, for which that town is famous.

FOR RENT—A 3 room apartment on Tularosa Ave., close to court house. See E. O. Prehm at Ziegler Bros.

Mr. and Mrs. Shirley Phipps returned Tuesday from their trip to California.

An interesting article in "Educational Notes," has been held over, owing to being received too late for this issue.

Monroe Howard, his son and son's wife came over from Capitan Saturday afternoon enroute to Albuquerque, where the younger Howards make their home.

NOTICE—School Books will be sold for cash only.
8-25-2 PADRNS DRUGSTORE.

Mr. A. B. Hamilton and family are selling out to move to Coalinga Calif., the home of Mrs. Hamilton's parents. They plan to leave next Sunday.

FOR RENT—Good 5-room frame house, close in; private garage, electric lights and other conveniences. W. W. STADTMAN, Agt.

The Sunday school Board of the Southern Baptist Convention has donated a library to Montezuma Baptist College at East Las Vegas.

FOR SALE—Parke Davis & Co's. Blackleg Aggrassin.—THE FITSWORTH CO., Inc. 1-20

Mrs. R. H. Kelly, one of the new teachers, and her daughter, Creola Ward, have engaged an apartment in the Wetmore building.

H. E. Stewart of the Corona Maverick while in town yesterday, made this office a fraternal call. He stated that while they had more rain there this summer, than we had here, farming prospects were not bright. The bean crop in the Corona district is almost a complete failure. There will hardly be enough raised for seed.

J. E. Koonce passed through here Tuesday enroute from Capitan to El Rito. Mr. Koonce spent his vacation at his old home at Capitan and now returns to El Rito where he will resume his position in the Spanish-American Normal, a position he has filled the past three terms. His old Lincoln county friends rejoice at his continued success, and wish him well in all his undertakings.

Dr. E. E. Cole, superintendent of Carrizozo schools, returned Monday, and is busy this week arranging for the opening of school Monday. Dr. Cole has been absent since June 1, spending two months in Las Vegas where he held down a chair in the New Mexico Normal University's summer session. From there he went to Michigan to join Mrs. Cole in a visit with relatives and friends. Mrs. Cole will visit her daughter in Washington before returning.

Baptist Church

(T. M. BLACKLOCK, PASTOR, PHONE 42)
Preaching service at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. each Sunday.

Conference of the church each first Wednesday which will be next week.

Sunday School at 10 a. m., C. H. Haines, Superintendent.

B. Y. P. U. each Sunday at 7 p. m., James Roselle, President. Prayers meeting each Wednesday at 8 p. m.

We cordially invite the new teachers and pupils of the school, and the old ones who are returning to worship with us. A reception is being planned for Sept. 8. Come and have a good time with us.

The 'Entertainers' Sept. 8

"Lady Godiva" a sensational motion picture, will be shown at the Crystal next Friday evening. The press reports endorse this picture as one of the best productions of the film world, and we predict that seats at the Crystal next Friday evening Sept. 8, will be at a premium.

E. A. Anderson

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Anderson are rejoicing over the arrival of a baby girl, born at Roswell Sunday night. The Andersons live at Tucumcari where Mr. Anderson has a position with the railroad company.

"The Sheik"

"When an Arab sees a woman he wants he takes her." So runs the proverb, and it will be tellingly on the screen at the Crystal Wednesday night, September 6. Rudolph Valentino plays the goddess that catches the "Sheik's" eye, and her beauty arouses a possessive desire, and the Arab proverb is immediately put into practice. The maiden is caught on the desert, abducted in true Arab style and conveyed to the cavernous recesses of the "Sheik's" stronghold. The captive fights in vain for freedom and finally succumbs to the wiles of cupid. This picture has enjoyed big runs in our large cities and has been acclaimed by thousands as a most wonderful production.

Crystal Theatre

Sat. Sept. 2—"Hurricane Hutch episode 14" (Playlet) "Angel Factory" featuring "Helene Chadwick" (Comedy) "Just Dropped in" featuring "Harold Lloyd."

Mon. Sept. 4.—This will be a western picture. (W. W. Hedkinson)

Tue. Sept. 5—"Where Lights are Low" featuring "Sessie Hayakawa" (Robertson Cole)

Wed. Sept. 6—"The Sheik" featuring "Rudolph Valentino" and "Agnes Ayres" This picture will be shown, one night only. Admission 25c and 50c. (Paramount).

No show Thursday Sept. 7th.

Fri. Sept. 8.—"Lady Godiva" shown by the Carrizozo Entertainers" Admission 25c and 50c.

Sat. Sept. 9.—"The last of "Hurricane Hutch."

Baptist Association

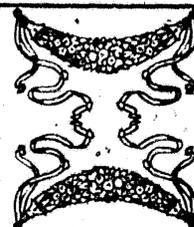

The thirty-fifth annual session of Lincoln Baptist Association convened with the Tularosa church Wednesday evening, Aug. 23. In the absence of Rev. A. N. Porter of Alamogordo, who was on program for the annual sermon, but who was detained on account of sickness, Rev. J. B. Newborn, the new pastor at Capitan, was selected for the sermon. Rev. T. M. Blacklock of Carrizozo was elected as moderator, Rev. J. W. Johnson of Mountain Park, clerk, and C. E. Haynes of Tularosa, treasurer. Editor Wm. Park of the Baptist New Mexican and Rev. S. S. Bussell, State Sunday School Secretary, were present from the state headquarters. The usual business was attended to, and the session closed Friday evening with a sermon by Pastor T. M. Blacklock of Carrizozo. The next session will meet with the Carrizozo church. Pastor W. J. Pace of the entertaining church and former treasurer of the body was unable to be present on account of sickness. Carrizozo people to attend were Rev. and Mrs. T. M. Blacklock, and Mrs. R. H. Kelly and her daughter, Creola Ward.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 31.—The four billion dollar soldiers' bonus bill was passed today by the senate and now goes to conference. The proponents of the bill view action of Harding with

TO THE PUBLIC
SPECIAL NOTICE

In order to Make Room for our Immense
Fall AND Winter STOCK
We Are Offering
YOU
EVER' THING

In Our
Store at Greatly Reduced Prices!

Come in and Convince Yourself

The Carrizozo Trad. Co.
We Clothe the Whole Family

ANNOUNCEMENT

Ziegler Bros. Wish to Announce Arrivals of 1922 Fall Styles 1922

New Models of Ready-to-Wear
Are Coming in Daily.

Dresses in Serges, Crepes, Satins now on Display

A Shipment of new fall Hats for Ladies and Misses now in.

Visit this Dept., see the new Styles

Silk Blouses and Sport Sweaters; Kayser
Silk Hose and Kayser Underwear. Every Department is filled with new fall goods.

We Invite You To See Us.

ZIEGLER BROS.

Here is real economy for you!
Saves money
Insures wholesome perfect
food

Contains No Alum

Dr. Price's is the greatest baking powder value on the market. Of unvarying high quality, it produces food of the finest texture and flavor. Never leaves a bitter taste.

Your grocer may have some cans of Dr. Price's left at the extraordinary special sale price recently offered. Ask him about it.

Send for the "New Dr. Price Cook Book." It's Free. Price Baking Powder Factory, 1601 Independence Boulevard, Chicago.

Large can, 12 ounces, only 25c