"MASSA LAFITTE" SYNOPSIS. Under the name of "Captain Sazarac" and disguised, Jean Lafitte, former freebooter of Barataria, proscribed, returns to the city of New Orleans.

Sazarac to his host. "It is enough to say I had no hand in this. Come, throw the doors wide, Johanness!"

Sazarac arose. The old baritone was scratching his sword. Then he sprang to the great windows and drew the silken curtains.

"The woman?" Sazarc eyed her keenly. "Who said she was dead?" "Find they find the markets. They had on the bare shadings. All that they knew was that she was dead.

"Your name?" Sazarc asked Johanness. "Your name?" Johanness asked Sazarc. "What is your name?" Sazarc asked Johanness.

Captain Roche glanced impatiently at the tall black hats of his dragoons glistening in the twilight. "Well, then! A cordon of troops on the back plantation roads. The man will be taken before morning!"

CHAPTER VII. In the Old Haunts. "Now, see—the captain!" roared old Johanness, snaking the pole support of the palmetto thicket in his treacherous hand.

"Your name?" Sazarc asked Johanness. "Your name?" Johanness asked Sazarc. "What is your name?" Sazarc asked Johanness.

HEAD-HUNTING A RELIGION

Abolition Leaves Natives of Solomon Islands Nothing to Live For. Smug self-satisfaction usually characterizes the attitude of the white man in his dealings with so-called backward peoples.

The actual head-hunting expedition only lasted a few weeks, and the actual fighting often only a few hours, but this was the culmination of a process lasting over years.

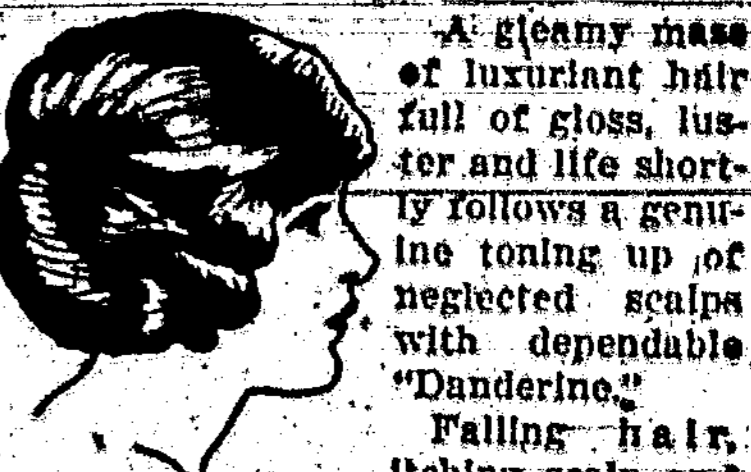

The process of cannibalizing was accompanied by rites and feasts, which not only excited the liveliest interest, but also acted as stimuli to various activities of horticulture and pig-breeding.

It is estimated that from 15,000,000 to 20,000,000 shooting stars enter the earth's atmosphere every 24 hours.

Was Homicide. A Tartar citizen bought a pool of barley, proffered a large banknote in payment and got back a peck of smaller notes in exchange.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Attorney and Mrs. H. B. Hamilton returned Monday from El Paso.

Robt. H. Taylor was confined to his home the first of the week from a severe pain in the head, thought to be due to a severe cold.

Attorney Hudspeth returned Monday from Santa Fe. He returned via El Paso, otherwise he might be storm bound on the northern route.

Basila Bros., who conducted a dry goods store here the past year, shipped their stock of goods to Alamogordo yesterday where they will open for business.

A boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Paul Tibbets Wednesday. Mother and babe are doing well. Paul has been connected with the Star Cafe the past two years.

There were more than frozen securities in this section Monday and Tuesday of this week. Automobiles, water pipes and a few other things succumbed to Jack Frost.

Chas. F. Grey, postmaster and merchant at Ocho, was here yesterday. He reports heavy snow, heavy wind and very disagreeable weather in his section, but said they had less snow than here.

Mrs. J. H. French returned Monday from El Paso, where she has been with her husband since his operation. Mr. French is reported to be improving right along and hopes to be able to return home soon.

Henry Luttrell returned Tuesday night from Washington, D. C. to which point he had gone two weeks ago. He says he had a very delightful trip and very pleasant weather until reaching into the big storm as he approached home.

Rich Hunt had an experience Monday that he doesn't care to repeat. He started for Carrizozo to his turkey farm, from his home above Nogal, and stuck in a snow drift a few miles this side of Nogal. He abandoned his car, and made his way to a ranch house where he spent the night, and walked into town the next morning to get assistance. Rich says she was a bad one.

George J. Weishar came down Saturday from Jicarilla. He left to return home on No. 4 Sunday afternoon, but to reach his mountain retreat had to go overland from Ancho the following day, but the storm, no doubt, kept him marooned at Ancho several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Greer and baby came up on No. 4 Monday from Three Rivers, to which point they had driven in the big storm from the Greer ranch in the San Andres mountains. Mrs. Greer and baby are suffering from primate poisoning, and are being treated at the Johnson hospital.

Green-McDonald

Mr. Cecil Green and Miss Emma McDonald were married Saturday night, December 8, at the home of Dr. and Mrs. R. E. Blaney, the Rev. W. R. McPherson, pastor of the Methodist church, officiating.

The groom is a ranchman of Mocking Bird Gap country, and has lived in that section for a number of years. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom McDonald, residents of Mocking Bird Gap. The news joins their friends in extending best wishes.

The Harding Memorial

Senator E. M. Brickley has supplied the following article on the "Harding Memorial," which contains the announced purpose of the organization and the names of the individuals who will have charge of the collection of funds in their several communities:

It is my desire that those in charge of this campaign; that every man, woman and child in Lincoln county be given an opportunity to contribute something for a memorial to the late President Harding. No undue pressure is to be put on anybody, but everyone should be given this opportunity to donate whatever they wish.

The quota for New Mexico is $10,000.00.

President Coolidge is National Chairman; Governor Hinkle Honorary State Chairman, and E. M. Brickley has been appointed the Chairman for Lincoln county.

On account of the extremely bad weather, the campaign could not get under way; therefore the State Chairman has authorized me to extend it, and it will be extended to the 20th of December. By that time all donations must have been turned in.

Mrs. Louise H. Coe, County School Superintendent, has delegated each teacher of the county a committee of one to solicit from the pupils, and the pupils will be asked to bring the matter to attention of their parents or guardians.

All donations made by the schools should be turned into Mrs. Coe on or before the 20th of December.

The following District Chairmen have been appointed:

- Lincoln, E. H. Miranda
- San Patricio, John C. West
- Glencoe, J. V. Tully
- Pueco, B. D. Garner
- Carroll, Daniel Vigil
- Carrizozo, A. L. Burke
- White Oaks, W. Van Schoyck
- Nogal, O. C. Davis
- Cofesa, Mrs. W. R. Lovelace
- Rabonito, Augustin Chavez
- Alto, B. L. Luck
- Parsons, W. A. Givens
- Aratela, L. Pacheco.
