Our Opinion of the Republican Candidates

Well the Republican County Convention is over and the candidates for the various offices have been chosen. To say that a good ticket, a strong ticket, a representative ticket, a worthy ticket has been selected is a fact of which the Republicans can earnestly and conscientiously tell the people. The ticket is composed of men, who, singly or as a whole, the party can well feel proud of. Every office has a candidate in whom the affairs of the office will find a suitable and efficient incumbent in case of election. There is not a weak spot in the entire ticket, and not a nominee on whom the least suspicion or distrust can rest. In fact the ticket, from top to bottom, is composed of men more than worthy the trust that has been put in them. Take them singly and compare them in every way you care to, in any respect you wish, with all the exactness you can conceive or think of, and you can but admit of the wisdom of the selection of each man.

Start, for instance, as did the convention, with the office of Probate Clerk, the office which holds the records of the of the business of the county. James G. Riggle, was selected as the unanimous choice of the convention as the man most ably qualified to fill this position. He had no opposition, but this was not because no other Republican in the county wanted the place. It was not because of gratitude, nor was it because of political wisdom that "Jimmy" slid in without an opponent. It was because of the fact that in his selection the very best and most popular move that could take place was happening, and the very best man for the place was recognized. It was Riggle with every one and every one with Riggle. There's no use for us to say a word here in his behalf. He's too well and popularly known for the necessity of anything of the kind.

Next came the selection of Probate Judge. Here again a unanimous approval of a single candidate was voiced, and Domitio Lucero, of Las Palas, was nominated, and the intense approval of his selection by his native people and that of his friends and acquaintances was all that one needed to witness to be convinced of his eligibility and popularity. He is considered by those who know him best as highly fitted to fill the office. After the disposal of the two above offices came up the nomination of a Sheriff. Realizing the great importance of this office, remembering that the incumbent of this position was responsible for the good order of the county, and that in him the law and order of the county has its dependant, the convention took particular pains to select a suitable man, and one in whom the various duties of legal and civil matters that may come up to the office would be judiciously handled.

After several ballots, in which the four nominees, Stevens, Hightower, Brady and Gonzales, were each generously supported, the convention selected Mr. Charles Stevens, of Bonito. To attempt here to give the reasons that justify the people in voting for Charley Stevens would require more space and time than we can give at this time. He has more good traits and commendable qualifications than we can cover at this time, and we can only say that, in our estimation, Mr. Stevens is the very best man in Lincoln county for the office of Sheriff, (regardless of politics.) We are sure of his integrity, sincerity and desire to give the office the best kind of service. He is all that could be asked for. After the matter of choosing a sheriff had been dispensed with, came the selection of a commissioner from Districts No. 2, and No. 3. While, as a rule, it is hard to find men who are qualified and willing to accept this position. The salary being so insignificant and the duties so arduous, business men and busy men, the only kind at all desirable for the position, have always heretofore been hard to find. But for once, and as an evidence of the great sacrifices our good Republicans will make, we have secured two candidates far and away above the average men in point of efficiency.

In District No. 2 they have succeeded in having Mr. Nabor Ortiz, of Corona, accept the nomination. Mr. Ortiz is peculiarly qualified to give the office, one of the most important in the county, good service and wise attention. He is not only one of the largest sheep owners in the county, but is a business man par excellence. He was for quite a time financial and business man for the Holzman Mercantile Co., at Corona, has had several

REPUBLICAN CONVENTION

LINCOLN COUNTY REPUBLICANS MEET AT LINCOLN AND NOMINATE A STRONG TICKET

The most business like convention ever conducted in Lincoln County was held by the Republicans last Tuesday. The delegates began to arrive in Lincoln on Sunday evening and the last delegation finally came into town at nine o'clock on Tuesday morning. Candidates had been busy all day Monday till late into the night sitting from group to group of the statesmen who had been honored by being sent up to the county capital to represent their several precincts. The ears of a delegate were continually beset by the buzzing of candidates and their friend as well as by the bee in his own bonnet.

The buzz must have been associated with a honied odor and no hint of a sting for all went into caucus with smiling faces. After one hour in caucus from which candidates were banished the doors were thrown open and proceedings moved forward to the accompaniment of music by the band and cheers from the people. The keynote of peace and good will had been sounded and harmony prevailed throught the day.

Temporary chairman Mr. J. H. Canning, made a ringing speech which thrilled all hearers. His oldest acquaintance were surprised at the fluency and eloquence with which the gentleman expressed himself. Without any attempt at oratory he made a rousing, earnest and telling speech of about twenty minutes that would have been a credit to any political speaker in this Territory.

After the selection of committees the convention took recess till one o'clock when a large audience assembled and listened to a telling speech by Hon. J. M. Hervey, Attorney General of the Territory. The burden of his remarks was a plea for statehood and an exhortation to electors to vote for W. H. Andrews for Delegate to Congress as the best means of attaining that object. He earnestly urged voters to support the Republican legislative ticket and the county ticket to be nominated then and there, urging harmony and loyalty in order to succeed.

When it came down to the real work of naming candidates nominations went off like hot oaks. Riggles Lucero, Coe and Ortiz were nominated with a celerity and unanimity calculated to astonish the natives. The first tug of war was on the office of sheriff. Four candidates were placed in nomination in spirited speeches with heavy seconds, and the third ballot named Stevens, the man who had announced his candidacy in the newspaper and had been longest before the people as a candidate. This was the only office requiring more than one ballot.

To the surprise of everyone including the nominee, himself, we believe, Robert Hurt was nominated on the first ballot. He had developed unexpected strength by Corona's instructed delegation favoring him and his name went though like a whirlwind.

Dr. T. W. Watson was nominated for another race as Treasurer and Collector. C. L. Davis was the successful man for Superintendent of Schools. Frank Theurer was named as the candidate for County Surveyor.

After each nomination the candidate was called forward and required to speak. In some cases the speaking was done under considerable embarrassment. Several of the defeated candidates followed their successful rivals with congratulatory talks avowing their unflinching loyalty to the Republican party and its candidates. Such speakers were soundly applauded as showing real moral courage and true party loyalty.

The Lincoln string band dispensed stirring music at every full in the proceedings and taken all in all the day's doings were a pleasant duty happily and successfully performed. A good ticket from top to

DEATH OF MRS. BOURNE

Mrs. Julia A. Bourne died at her home near Capitan on last Sunday, September 20, aged 72 years, 2 months and 20 days.

Mrs. Bourne was one of the pioneer citizens of the county, having been a resident here for more than thirty years, and was loved and highly respected by all who knew her. She came to this country from Virginia and is survived by her husband and a family of forty-nine immediate relatives. What is peculiar in the case being the fact that every one of these relatives was within distance of telephone call, and every one of them being present at the funeral, which was held on Tuesday, the interment being made in the Carrizozo cemetery.

Mrs. Bourne was sick for seven weeks, and suffered much pain. Her husband, aged 76 years, survives her, as well as a large family of children, the eldest of which is Mrs. H. Shi...

years experience as bookkeeper in the National Bank of Commerce at Kansas City, and is one of the best mathematicians in the territory. He has business sagacity and discretion, he is honest and straightforward, he is capable. His superior for the office could not be found.

In District No. 3 the selection of George W. Coe, of Glencoe, was indeed a wise one. A citizen for thirty years or more, he knows the county like a book. He has for many years past been one of the substantial old standbys of the county, and has done much to advance its interests. He is a good Republican, has the welfare of the county at heart, and will do as much to make our community go forward in great strides as any man we could find. To those who know him he needs no introduction, to the few who do not "The Outlook" unreservedly recommends him in the highest and most emphatic terms as being the man most needed to fill the office.

Next came the nomination of Assessor. Here arose a predicament. With that good old Republican, W. R. White, better known as "Solly," one of the best boosters for the party that ever wore a shirt, and Ed Comrey, another old timer, who, with his brother, Harry, has for years been found in the Republican ranks of the county and always doing their best to help the party, boys who always were loyal and true, and Robert Hurt, it was a three cornered for an important office, and the race sure to terminate in favor of an A No. 1 man no matter how it went. Mr. Hurt was nominated and with his nomination came joy for Lincoln county Republicans were sure that their ticket here was well provided for. "Bob" has been there before. He has served as Assessor for two terms several years ago, and is acquainted with the business. He has always been found in the right position and always shows his ability to judiciously handle affairs of the office. With Mr. Hurt as Assessor, the finances of the county will have a good assurance of being well regulated.

After the Assessor's selection, the convention went into the nomination of a Treasurer. Dr. T. W. Watson, of Lincoln, was finally chosen, and his being on the ticket will prove advantageous. The Doctor is a good man in any position, but his selection for Treasurer was a ton-strike. He is a courteous, affable, accommodating gentleman, experienced in the office, having been deputy under John H. Canning, when the latter gentleman was county Treasurer. He is well and favorably known, and has risen from obscurity, when he came into the county a few years ago, to a place of respected prominence and a lucrative practice as a physician entirely through his own efforts and worthiness. Dr. Watson, if elected, will make an ideal Treasurer for Lincoln County.

The matter of County Superintendent of Schools was the next to engage the attention of the convention. Realizing the vast responsibility and intense importance of the office, the Republicans had already concluded to possess themselves of a man, who, if elected, could and would fill the position in a manner befitting its station. That the future of our children of today was, to a great extent, dependant upon a suitable selection here was appreciated, that a man far above the ordinary in point of learning was demanded, was acknowledged by all, and the fact that the nominee has every requisite for the position, any why you can ask, is an assured fact.

Prof. Charles L. Davis, of Carrizozo, a man who has more high grade certificates, more real and valuable experience as an instructor, than any other man in the county, was chosen. And a wise selection it was. Prof. Davis is a teacher far above the average, he is an attorney, he is an abstractor, an architect and a draftsman. He is a business man. Prof. Davis will make positively the best, the most efficient Superintendent of Schools Lincoln county has ever had, and we say this with no reflection toward any of the past incumbents.

The last, but not least important, nomination taken up by the convention was for the office of surveyor. Frank E. Thuerer, of Carrizozo, was unanimously chosen by the party and again demonstrated the wisdom of the Republicans. The only thing against Frank is the fact that he's Dutch, but as we are too, we forgive him for that. He is an experienced man and a capable one. He has been employed in the past by the P. V. & N. E. railroad, by the Mexican Central railroad and by other lines. He is a gentleman of learning and intelligence. He is honest and fair in all dealings, speaks English, Spanish and German fluently, and if elected, will be an official that will do much for the county. Frank Thuerer is in every way entitled to your vote and should be elected.

Now look over the above list and ask yourself if this isn't a good, strong, clean, efficient, deserving lot of men, and a ticket, when headed by Hon. W. H. Andrews, that will be hard to beat.

Harry Galacher, of White Oaks, was in town on Tuesday of this week.

Mrs. J. H. Templeton, wife of day round-house foreman, has been quite ill for a few days this week.

George Sharp returned to work at the shops, on Tuesday after a months vacation.

Engineer C. V. Cook, went to Tucumcari on business the first of the week.

On Saturday last Brent Paeden and Art Rolland took the auto to White Oaks, to attend a dance given at that place.

Mr. Gurney, manager of the Railroad Hotel, left on Wednesday for El Paso, on business.

On Monday morning, George Johnston, employed at the Carrizozo Trading Company's store, met with what might have been a very serious accident. While riding on his bicycle he struck a ditch which his pedal came in contact with and threw him with much force to the ground. Dr. Suggs was called and dressed the wound, which resulted in sprained wrist. Mr. Johnston returned to work the same day.

On Tuesday next the fans and rooters of Carrizozo will have a real treat bestowed on them. The locals through their manager Bro. Haley have made arrangements to cross bats with the "Boston Bloomer Girls." Yes they are real girls, and they are also ball players. Don't think that the locals will have something easy, like the Statton's, for these girls have records that are hard to beat. The Bloomer girls were originally organized in Boston, the seat of learning, seventeen long years ago and have continued under the management of J. E. Gaul since that time. They have played all the principal cities in the United States and have always attracted large crowds of fans.

This season they opened at Worcester, Mass., on April 1st, and up to date have played 173 games, winning about 40 per cent of them. While the line up of the team has changed several times in the 17 years that the team has been in existence, the aggregation has been stronger each season and the mademoiselles are reported to be ball tossers of considerable ability.

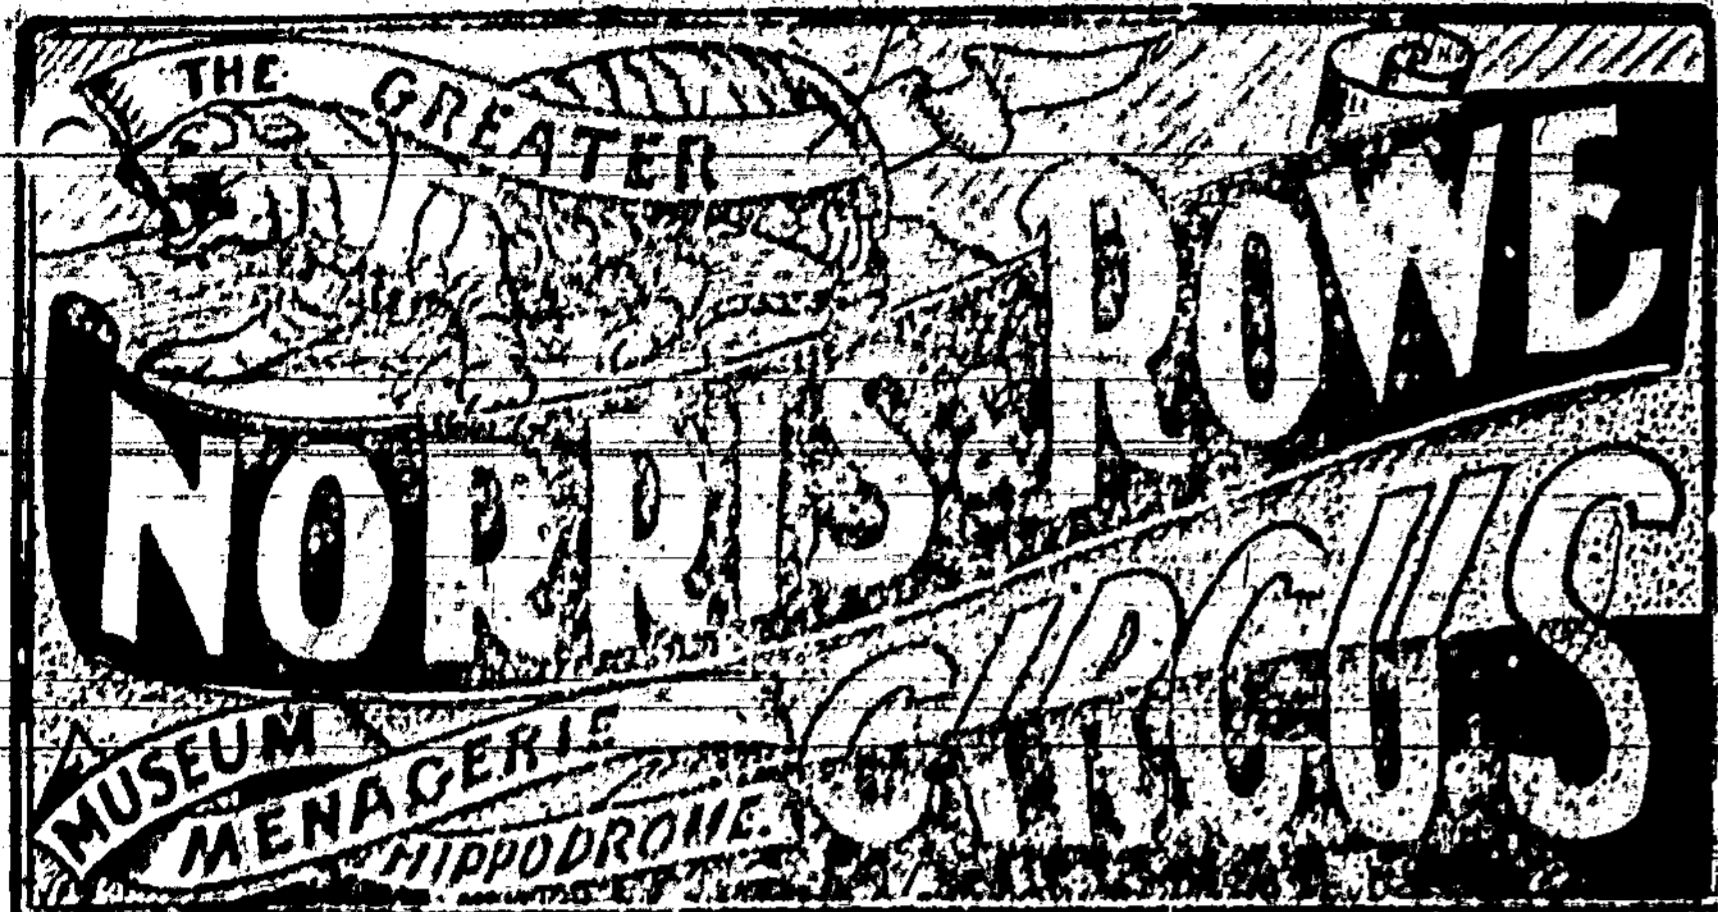

Attorney General J. M. Hervey, who made an address before the Republican Convention, at Lincoln on Tuesday, was through Carrizozo Tuesday night on his way to Alamo-gordo to attend court.

The Democrats held their primaries at Wetmore's hall on Wednesday night and selected delegates to represent precinct 14 at the Democratic convention to be held at Lincoln tomorrow. The affair was a warm one and much feeling was shown. The gentlemen selected to go over the mountain were: W. C. McDonald, Walker Hyde, C. S. Laster and Dr. Ranlyon, of Ocuero.
