Election returns were received over a special wire at Wetmore's hall on last Tuesday night.

Yesterday we received a letter from one of our Republican friends who had been a candidate at Tuesdays election. He writes: "Stung, Bill, Stung." Nuf Ced.

Young ladies desiring an industrious and energetic young man should not pass Ray Hall by. He prints all day and nails on lath half the night. Investigate girls.

Robt. Rhea has moved his tayloring and cleaning establishment from the Stokes building, on ElPaso avenue, to the front room of the Grand View Hotel.

The new school-house is nearing completion and it is hoped will be ready for use at an early date.

Things are going along smoothly again at this office. "Happy" the devil, has returned after a weeks vacation on the farm.

Bert McQueen is night call boy for the E. P. & S. W. here now.

A special train was run over the Capitan branch road on Wednesday of this week for the purpose of inspecting the bridges.

Walker Hyde took Brent Paden and Oscar Bamberger with their lady friends to White Oaks last Friday night to attend the mask ball.

Geo. Spence, Chas. Spence and wife and Frank Sager and wife left yesterday for a few days hunting trip across the mal pais.

Several of the Carrizozo young folks were in attendance at the mask ball given in White Oaks on last Friday evening.

E. R. Kelley returned home on Monday morning from a business trip to Kansas City where he bought a car load of furniture for his store.

Rev. D. B. Jackson of Estancia, was in Carrizozo last Sunday and preached two sermons for the Baptists.

Carrizozo's new depot is rising upward at a lively rate and it wont be long until the new quarters will be occupied.

Chas. Wingfield, who was one of the successful Democratic candidates for County Commissioner, was in Carrizozo bright and early Wednesday morning and was wearing the "smile that won't come off."

G. B. Greer, the fruit tree man, of Parsons, was in town for a few days during the first of the week.

Geo. T. Hosier and family, who were for a couple of weeks on their homestead near Perry, returned Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank English, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Dawson and Mr. and Mrs. Clay VanSchoyck spent last Sunday in the mountains, and although they got but little game, all report having had a fine time.

ELECTION NOTES

It took the last returns to tell which party was successful in several of the races. Chas Wingfield and Geo. Coe were either a good bet right up to the wire. The victor only had the best of it by a few votes.

Andrews came out of Lincoln county with a majority reduced to 25, but we are still in the good old Republican Line.

Judge Hewitt led his ticket in this county with Bro. Haley a creditable second. The Judge is somewhat aged and John a trifle fat but "gee" they can run.

Bob Taylor won a nice race and will continue as a county commissioner. We didn't vote for him but here's congratulations, and hoping we can beat him next time.

Charley Stevens is built like a Kildeer and runs just like one. He led the county ticket and if we don't miss our guess he will prove to be one of the very best officers we have ever had in Lincoln county. Even if such a good man as Bob Coe was running against him his election will prove a wise act on the part of the voters.

Dow and Riggle ran a close election and the winner was in deep doubt until Las Palas, the last precinct to be heard from, is in, neither is assured of election.

The election of Dr. T. W. Watson was by only a slight margin, but the doctor don't need to feel concerned on account of that fact. Mr. Penfield is a fine young man and has a host of friends in each party, and to defeat him by even the smallest margin possible is a matter to be proud of.

Frank Thieren won over his man by a nice majority and is entitled to feel a bit cheeky. But, like all the Dutch, Frank is a sure winner.

Hewitt carried Carrizozo precinct by 142 majority and the balance of the Democratic ticket had from 40 to [illegible] majority, except for the office of Sheriff and Surveyor, in which Stevens and [illegible] made fine showings, demonstrating very vividly the fact that ones popularity and friends are the real thing when it comes to election.

The whole election was close and hard-fought but not a sign of trouble occured throughout the entire county so far as we have heard. In Carrizozo both parties were out en masse with their workers, but friendly feeling was everywhere evidenced.

Andrews has been elected by a fair majority and Larrazolo has again taken down a lemon. Had the latter been elected the chances for statehood would have gone glimmering. As it is now we can rest reasonably sure that we will soon be "one of 'em."

Taft has followed the example of McKinley and Roosevelt and given Bryan his spasmodic quietus. It's the fashion for Bryan to win in September October, but November seems to be his hoodoo month.

REPUBLICANS GIVE DANCE

On last Saturday evening, Jose Serano, on behalf of the Republican county candidates, gave a big dance at Wetmore's Hall. Probably the largest crowd ever in attendance at a dance in Carrizozo was present and a highly enjoyable time was had by all. Americans and Mexicans all danced together and the large hall was packed to the walls.

A GOOD TIME

Last Saturday night was Halloween, and a party suitable for the occasion was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ira O. Wetmore. Among the young folks present were the following: Misses Georgia Lee, [illegible] Nellie McMains, Nettie Lee, Mollie Kahler, Gertrude Kelly, Abbie Meak, Marguerite Prude, Bonnie McGill, May Seeager, Mrs. J. [illegible] Bell and Mrs. Ranal[illegible]. Messrs. J. E. Bell, Chas. W[illegible]ters, "Phoebe" Guthrie, Jas. Hart, Prof. D. S. Collins and Ray Hall.

The games of the evening were unique and highly entertaining, odd and peculiar. The ancient custom or belief of witchery was exemplified, giving one the idea of ye olden times.

Lunch, consisting of candies, cakes, fruits, nuts and other good things was served on the "help yourself" plan from a large pumpkin in the center of the table and coffee was served in tin cups.

From all reports the affair was highly enjoyable and long to be remembered.

MISS CANNING ENTERTAINS

On last Saturday night Miss Helen Canning entertained about thirty-five of her young friends at a Hallow'een Party. The usual games and pranks suitable for such an occasion were played and a fine little lunch was served around a large bonfire. Among those present were the following:

Misses Edna Baird, Mildred Peters Ruby and Sibyl Perry, Gussie Kahler, Lea and Olivia Kennedy, Ida Grumbles, Kittie Reily, Esther Sager, Ida Hall, Midge Bourne, Anita Lung, Bernice Lane, Bettie Bythewood, Annie Kirby and Allie Adams.

Messrs. Roy Grumbles, Morgan Reiley, Roy Baird, Laurie Bourne, Roy Skinner, Pete Johnson Jr., Maytie d Lane, Russel Bythewood, and Wallace Winfield.

DEMOCRATIC RALLY

The Democrats of Carrizozo held a rally and dance at the skating rink on last Monday evening and had a big crowd. The speakers of the evening were Judge Wharton, of Alamogordo, and Hon. A. H. Hudspeth, of White Oaks. Each of the above gentlemen were accorded a generous applause and their addresses seemed to please their listeners. After the speaking was over, dancing was indulged in by quite a crowd, music being furnished by the Mexican orchestra.

THE OUTLOOK

Entered as second class matter January 4th, 1907, at the postoffice at Carrizozo, New Mexico, under the Act of Congress of March 3rd, 1879.

A WEEKLY NEWSPAPER DEVOTED TO THE INTERESTS OF LINCOLN COUNTY
PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY BY ERNEST B FRED

SUBSCRIPTION PRICE

One Year (in advance) $1.00
If not paid within six months $1.50

Owing to the precautions and action taken by Governor Curry, who was strongly supported in his course by the district attorneys and by the sheriffs of the various counties, very little disorder and strife were noticed Tuesday in the 500 voting precincts of this vast section, called on the map, New Mexico: The governor had instructed the law and peace officers under his control to exercise every legitimate and lawful means for the preservation of the peace, the holding of fair elections and the making of a just and honest count and the declaration of the same according to law in every precinct, city or county. His instructions which were strict and concise were carried out and hence the peaceful condition of the territory Tuesday, which must be considered a great compliment when it is remembered some of the voting precincts are far apart and isolated and that in some of them there is a voting element that is not fond of law and that would like to make trouble if it dared. Another good mark for New Mexico's peaceable and law abiding citizens.

Now that the battle of ballots is over and the verdict rendered let us go to work and boost for a more prosperous future. Let every man put on a smile; convince himself he lives in the best part of the world; have faith in his community and in himself; become a worker for the cause and do all in his power to make our town and our surrounding country go forward. With the return of good times through the country thousands of northern and eastern people will visit New Mexico with a view of settling and taking up a home. Our valley has just as much reason to expect a share of these new people as has any other community and can get them if it will make the proper overtures. There is no just reason why Lincoln county should not have 500 new families inside its borders within the next twelve months, and if we people will do our duty to ourselves we will have them. And not only should this be the case but our mining interests should now open up and in so doing give employment to many men at good wages.

Well let us dump a lot of stuff into the rubbish heap. First and foremost let the Roosevelt campaign letters be consigned to oblivion, let them be forgotten as quick as possible and let the participation of a president in a presidential campaign be rembered as one of the nightmares of politics. We might set aside the Standard Oil can, not condemn it to the ash barrel, for it must be kept handy for future use. Only next fall it must be dragged out and used in the New York municipal campaign. Let us forget about Haskell for a time and if possible let Sheldon and Dupont go with him. There are other things in life so much more useful and cheerful There will be "echoes" of the campaign for some time to come, but let us hope that much which appeared as campaign material will be considered dead enough not to "echo" very loud.

Now that the election is over and even though, so far as we are personally concerned, the blamed thing went wrong in some respects, let us all get together and boost for a greater Carrizozo, a more prosperous Lincoln County and a mighter and more advanced New Mexico. While we are willing to admit we are sore from our friends defeat there are some of our wounds cauterized by the knowledge that we can't all be successful and that good men have been chosen. This is not the first nor do we expect it to be the last time politics have gone against us, and while we would have had it otherwise we are not so narrow or so dense as to make a "holler." From now on until another election we will be found lined up again for our choice. Meantime we congratulate the successful candidates on the Democratic ticket, and hope for each and every one of them a pleasant, a successful and a harmonious reign.

From all indications, and from a compilation of the figures obtainable at this time, (Thursday) it looks very much as if the following candidates had been elected: Republican s; Stevens, Sheriff; Watson, Treasurer; Riggle, Clerk; Lucero, Probate Clerk: Theurer, Surveyor. Democratic: Taylor, Commissioner; Wingfield, Commissioner; Chavez, Assessor; Haley Superintendent of Schools. Andrews has carried the county by a majority of about 25, and Judge Hewitt has carried the county over Henry Luts by about 25 for the Legislature. Las Palas precinct sealed its ballot box without keeping out the count in that precinct and no complete returns can be had until after the Commissioners meet and open the ballot boxes next Monday.

From now on we shall be busy making up a cabinet. There are nine members to select and while the president-elect must give his final sanction to the choice, it is well known that we are all going to take a hand in making the selection and pointing out the available men for the place. A great many of us will have an opportunity to criticise the proposed selection of cabinet men and as American citizens will probably not hesitate to say what we please. One thing is to be hoped: That there will be little or no cabinet juggling or efforts to make the cabinet play politics in its make-up.

Taft has been elected by an immense majority and the "people will rule." Ohio adds another name to her already long list of native sons who have occupied the Presidents chair. The nation is assured of four years more of sane and safe government. New Mexico will in all probability be granted statehood, and taken as a whole the affairs, nationally speaking was a "huge success."

Incomplete returns from over the Territory signify the election of Andrews by a majority of from 1000 to 1200, and show conclusively that the Legislature will be overwhelmingly Republican. So far as is reported no serious charges of fraud are made by either party and the election seems to be void of any such stench as accompanied by that of two years ago.

Chatauqua and Lecture Course secretaries are respectfully requested to address him at Lincoln, Nebraska. Dates open from now on until the fall of 1912.

CALLS MRS. GRUMBLES A CATTLE QUEEN

MEMPHIS PAPER CONTAINS STORY OF CARRIZOZO WOMAN WHO RUNS A RANCH

Writing in the Memphis Commercial Appeal, Mary Abarr tells of the success Mrs. R. Grumbles has made in ranching near Carrizozo N. M. The article says in part:

Mrs. R. Grumbles of Carrizozo N. M., is a resourceful little woman, a good mother, an immaculate housekeeper, a business woman, a ranch owner and "the cattle on a thousand hills" bear her mark and brand. Her ranch home is five miles north of the town. It is a beautiful little home in the valley, nestled at the foot of the mountains, where the odor of the cedar floats through her cool rooms, lending additional restfulness to the place. Virginia creeper and bitter sweet vines shade the gallery and a sweet eglantine brier grows close to the door. Other roses thrive and the "salt cedar" waves its long plumes of pink flowers gracefully to the mountain breeze.

Mrs. Grumbles went to New Mexico twenty years ago with her husband, and seventeen of these years have been spent at her Carrizozo ranch. She was left a widow twelve years ago with seven children, five daughters and two sons. The youngest daughter is now 12 years old—a typical western girl. She goes with her brothers to drive the cattle sometimes and on these occasions wears a khaki-colored divided skirt with tan stockings and russet shoes a comfortable blouse and a sun bonnet. She can ride like a fairy and her rosy cheeks and blue eyes are witching in the extreme.

The day it was the writer's pleasure to visit there she was seated demurely embroidering a centerpiece.

The walls of her home are hung with pictures. There is an organ a graphophone and other musical instruments and Indian relics gathered from the mountains and from the ruins of ancient dwellings.

Would we stay for dinner? Of course we would. The long table was draped in white and was laden with a wealth of good things. There was a nice roast of home killed beef, potatoes and sweet corn and for desert the most luscious peach preserves and cake. Then was the good, sweet butter and milk.

Mrs. Grumbles finds good sale for her butter and keeps a large pen full of cows in the pasture nearby for their milk. Once a week she has a beef butchered and sells it in town.

OSCURO ITEMS

The Dividend Mining and Milling Co., of Estey City shipped a car load of copper from Oscuro, November 1st to the El Paso Smelter. There is considerable activity west of Oscuro in the mining line at present, both in development and assessment work.

Eugene Jones brother-in-law and wife have been visiting him the past week, they like the country and expect to locate here.

Twenty odd voters left Oscuro in numerous rigs and conveyances and journeyed to Carrizozo to vote Election day. Showing their spirit in spite of their failure to get a voting precinct here, which they were justly entitled too. Carrizozo committeemen of both parties treated the Oscuroites right royally all enjoying the trip immensely.

Charley Thornton is building an adobe house on his homestead near the Ellis ranch.

Harvey Wells has a hunting party in the White Montains after big game.

J. V. Edwards and family and M. I. Jackson spent last week in the San Andras after deer and had good luck.

Lee B. Chase is working assessments in the Oscuro mountains for the Inter-state Mining Company.

A ranch cow killed a fine mare belonging to Wm. Martin a few days ago in his pasture.

Charley Stenson is assisting Robert Young to fence his three hundred and twenty acres.

Victor Lucier is working assessments in Taylor Canyon.

Both Messrs. Thomas and Castle of Chicago arrived here the past week with car loads of household goods and are now occupying their respective homesteads. They are certainly welcome additions to our little community.

Mart Goodwin is reported to be progressing nicely under our Dr. Rankers' care.

A. E. Hamilton, of the Kentucky Mining Co., is in town preparing to start work on their Red Canyon properties, several stock-holders accompanied him. Bob Cox will have charge of their work.

Mr. Raffety is in Magdalena on Mining business, he will open up his new hotel to be called the Mal Pais, January first.

Alex McCallum returned to Chicago this week on business.

Sunday-school and evening meetings are every Sunday in Oscuro.

Ralph McNutt is pushing the coal proposition just north of town. He has succeeded in driving a tunnel about two hundred feet and expects the now twenty inch vein to develop into the large body at a near point.
