VOL. II. No. 42. CARRIZOZO, N. M., OCTOBER 30, 1908 PRICE, $1.00 PER YEAR.

LARRAZOLO, THE TAX-DODGER

THE NOISY SPANIARD OWES ALMOST NINE HUNDRED DOLLARS BACK TAXES. HERE IS CONSISTENCY

The Democratic yelloy press and the supporters of O. A. Larrazolo in their campaign of abuse, slander and villification against Delegate Andrews have called him a carpet-bagger and a non-resident of the territory, without property or interests in New Mexico. They intentionally overlook the fact that Mr. Andrews built and owned a very fine residence in Sierra county which he afterward sold to a mining corporation. They also venomously and with intent to injure, overlook the fact that it was thru the individual efforts of Mr. Andrews that something over two million dollars of Eastern capital was invested in this territory in the building of the Santa Fe Central Railway and the development of coal and timber properties in connection with that railway system.

None of them have been able to inform the people of New Mexico what Larrazolo has done or expects to do for their benefit of this territory and its people. Larrazolo is particularly anxious, according to his statement, to have an honest and economical administration of finances in New Mexico, and he is so especially insistent upon economy in matters of governmental affairs that he has lived in the territory now for fifteen years, at least, and has been willing to set an example in this regard which is unique, if nothing else.

The Tax Rolls of San Miguel county show that Mr. Larrazolo has been able to accumulate a little personal property during his residence in that county, but he seems to be extremely averse to the payment of taxes for the support of the territorial and county government as indicated by the fact that his total back taxes at the present time amount to almost nine hundred dollars. Look at the official record:

The following is a statement in regard to the taxes on the Larrazolo property, taken from the tax rolls of the various years shown:

1908 Assessed in the name of Mrs. O. A. Larrazolo, not paid, published, $101.29

1908 Assessed in the name of Mrs. O. A. Larrazolo, not paid, published, $108.36

1906 Assessed in the name of O. A. Larrazolo, not paid, published, $84.06

1905 Assessed in the name of O. A. Larrazolo, not paid, in judgment, $75.46

1984 Assessed in the name of O. A. Larrazolo, not paid, in judgment, $68.47

1903 Assessed in the dame of O. A. Larrazolo, not paid, in judgment, $33.71

1902 Assessed in the name of O. A. Larrazolo, not paid, in judgment, $67.90

1901 Assessed in the name of O. A. Larrazolo, not paid, $64.45

1900 Assessed in the name of O. A. Larrazolo, not paid, $59.81

1899 Assessed in the name of Mrs. M. G. Larrazolo, not paid, $35.82

1898 Assessed in the name of Mrs. M. G. Larrazolo, not paid, $29.36

1897 Assessed in the name of Mrs. M. G. Larrazolo, not paid, $39.70

1896 Assessed in the name of Mrs. M. G. Larrazolo, not paid, $35 34

1895 Assessed in the name of Mrs. M. G. Larrazolo, not paid, $21.18

1894 No assessment.

Total taxes due as per tax rolls, less second one-half of 1908, $874.91

Eugenio Romero,
Treasurer and Collector

By R. L. M. Ross,
Deputy.

Watch the Democratic papers from this time until election day, for any special press dispatches informing the people of the territory that Mr. Larrazolo has paid his taxes before going to the polls to vote.

This is tde despicable and cowardly wind-jammer and champion tax dodger who goes about the territory, assisted by the gangsters, who are tax dodgers like himself, abusing and slandering Delegate W. H. Andrews, Governor George Curry, Chairman H. O. Bursum, National Chairman, Solomon Luna and the Republican leaders and voters generally. This is the creature whom the taxpayers, property-owners and citizens of New Mexico are asked to support and to elect to Congress, where he would be as useful as a bump on a log and as euphonious as a frog in a pond.

FINE FRUIT CROP

Nothing could be more encouraging to the people of Lincoln county than to see the immense fruit crop in the region east of the mountains. The late frost caught the trees in bloom in the higher country but down the valleys a fruit harvest is in progress that would astonish the oldest orchardist. Thousands of trees in hundreds of orchards are literally broken down with their loads. Many trees are split right down to the ground with their burden.

The quality of the apples can't be beaten if equaled anywhere. There is not a worm nor a blemish in one specimen in ten thousand pounds. Winesaps are as large as tea saucers. Yellow bellefleurs are as large as sugar bowls. There are many of the latter variety that weigh twelve to fourteen ounces. One ten year old orchard has a car load of mammoth black twig, five boxes to the tree, that would take sweepstakes premium anywhere in the world. Some specimens of these would not go into a number six hat.

Besides apples there are worlds of quinces, pears and peachrs. Some fine October peaches still hang on the trees. There are also lots of late pears large as a teacup still ungathered to tempt the fruit hungry traveler. Thousands and thousands of pounds of windfalls lie under the trees. Many of these will not be picked up. The orchardists are simply swamped in their efforts to save the crop.

If ever a railroad is built up the Hondo River there will be one solid orchard from Roswell to the White Mountains. Transportation is the crying need of these valleys. These fruit growers are learning the value of honest and scientific sorting and packing and in the near future will recieve large reward for their labors.

The Ruidoso valley is one of the cleanest and most productive farm regions in New Mexico. Some of the best ranches have been purchased by thrifty energetic farmers who are coining money on irrigated lands. The water supply is always reliable, the fields free from noxious weeds, many of the farm buildings good substantial structures, the stock range is rich and accessible, the grade of cattle is good.

ACCIDENTAL KILLING

A fatal accidental shooting occured at Bonito on last Monday evening in which R. J. Kester, saloon keeper at that place, lost his life. While Mr. Kester and John F. Greer, a young man of that community who bears a good reputation, were holding a friendly conversation, the matter of fire-arms was mentioned and Mr. Greer took a 45-calibre gun from his pocket and started to show it to Mr. Kester They were about four feet apart and in some manner the gun was exploded and the bullet entered Mr. Kesters Stomach, he dieing in about 45 minuets.

Walter Land was an eye-witness to the occurance and according to his evidence rendered at the inquest held by Judge Koonce Tuesday it was an accident. Another fact supporting the theory of its being unintentional was the dieing statement of Mr. Kester that he knew Mr. Greer did not do it on purpose.

On Wednesday morning Mr. Greer was in Judge Koonce's court in Nogal charged with carrying fire arms and was fined $52.00 on conviction.

The occurance is one greatly deplored by all concerned and while recognized as accidental, and having happened among friends, is another forcible argument against the custom of carrying weapons.

A hunting party composed of Chas. McMasters, Art Rolland, Dr. Reynolds and Frank Nelson left town Sunday and went to the Carrizozo mountains for deer. The cold snap caught them and made it a little too chilly for comfort and they came in Monday night. Chas. McMasters killed the only deer they got but the rest of the boys are willing to try again.

There will be a big grand ball at Wetmores Hall tomorrow night given under the auspices of the Republican club. Everybody, Americans and Mexicans are invited to be present and enjoy the pleasure of the evening. A full orchestra will furnish the music and a fine time is promised. Jose Serano, Chairman of Committee on Arrangements.

George Spence and T. B. Meek were out in quest of deer for a few days during the past week, but as they havn't been saying much we suppose they had but little luck.

Miss Maggie Gallacher, of White Oaks, returned to her home on Monday after spending several days with friends in Carrizozo.

George Coe, Republican candidate for Commissioner from the Third District, was in Carrizozo for a few days the first of the week.

Mr. Gurney, proprietor of the Railroad Hotel was in El Paso for a day or two during the present week.

Attorney G. W. Hall was in Roswell on business a few days during this week.

Miss Helen Canning will entertain some of her friends at a Halloween Party tomorrow night.

E. R. Keiley has been in Kansas City during the past week on business. He will purchase quite a bit of goods for his store while there.

Howard Hall has been in Oscuro during the past week. He is going several miles west of Oscuro to survey a pipe line for Thos. McDonald.

Chas. Read and family returned home from Capitan on Monday. They had been over there visiting Mrs. Read's parents for a week.

Several of the dance lovers of Carrizozo will attend the masquerade ball to be given at White Oaks tonight.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Fred are anticipating the arrival early in the coming week of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pearce, of Stroudsberg Penn., Mrs. Fred's brother and his wife, who will spend the winter here.

Dr. Frick, of Fort Stanton was in Carrizozo last Tuesday.

A WEEKLY NEWSPAPER DEVOTED TO THE INTERESTS OF LINCOLN COUNTY
PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY BY ERNEST O. FRED

SUBSCRIPTION PRICE

One Year (in advance) $1.00
If not paid within six months $1.50

Mr. Voter, on next Tuesday you are asked to vote for County officials who are to run our affairs of a public nature for the ensuing two years. You are given this chance of exercising this right of franchise and you are expected to assist in the selection of the best men for the various offices. You owe it to yourself, to your friends and to your country to vote for the man you deem best fitted for the position. Party lines should be cast aside, and the ability to handle the position should be the one qualification you should investigate. Men, and not politics, should influence your action. Why should you vote for a man who will neglect or violate the duties of his office simply because he has succeeded in securing the nomination from your party. Because a man is a "good fellow" or that you have known him "for years" is no good reason for your voting for him. If his opponent can probably fill the position better you should cast your ballot for the latter. Be a man and vote for a man. Don't let those old political affiliations you inherited from your daddy influence your better judgment.

With this, the last issue of the "Outlook" that will appear before the election, we wish to once more ask our readers to look the political situation square in the face and allow themselves to recognize just how matters stand—not to allow political prejudicies to warp their judgment.

Without a shadow of a doubt the matter of statehood is the predominating issue before the people. That at least nine out of every ten of our people desire statehood is a fact almost beyond dispute. Aside from a very few exceptional cases every one realizes the advantages to be had from statehood and very few, if any, will argue against such.

Now allowing that such is the desire of the majority, let us reason, and ask ourselves which of the candidates for Representation to Congress would be most likely to be able to further our cause. Which of the two would be the more valuable as a messenger to bear our message.

The Democrats have Larrazolo up as their choice. Larrazolo is a young lawyer, who has been only moderately successful in the practice of his chosen profession and absolutely unknown outside his own baliwick. He is an orator of what is probably above the average ability. He is good looking and has some ability as a politician in local matters but has never had the least bit of experience outside of local affairs.

The Republicans have nominated Andrews as their candidate. He is an old man. He has grown old playing politics. He has been a highly successful one. He gets what he goes after in politics because he knows the game. Over thirty years of schooling at the political school has not been wasted. When Andrews goes after any certain measure he lands it as a rule. He knows where to go and who to go to with his request.

He has for two and a half years been our Representative at Washington, and in that time has done more for the Territory than has any other Delegate we have ever had. And the things he has brought to a satisfactory end are not all he has been doing, either. He has been working for statehood. He has been working for that one thing above all others. But that is no small matter, and it can't be accomplished in a day, or a week, or a month, or a year. It is a big undertaking and it requires a vast amount of work. We people here in New Mexico know we are capable of self-government and should have it. We know we are numerous enough, we know we have wealth enough, we know we are in every way qualified to make a fine showing as a state. But, the people of Maine and Vermont don't know this. Neither do the people of Florida and Georgia. Our surroundings and abilities are unknown to the people of Washington and Oregon. These people must be enlightened and made to understand what sort of a people we are, and when they do understand, and not until then, will they pay attention to our pleas. Andrews has been schooling them. He has been dispensing New Mexico talk and boosting our advantages all the time. He has got to a point where he can talk intelligently to the Senators and the Congressmen who are in Washington representing the various states of the Union and they are now able to more clearly understand just what we are. In fact Senator Andrews has so far advanced with his class as to have extracted a promise from them that they will act favorably upon his request that New Mexico be granted statehood.

Senator Beveridge, of Indiana, Chairman of the "Committee on Territories," has promised to report favorably upon the bill. The lower house, through Speaker Joe Cannon, has seen fit to assure Mr. Andrews of their favorable attitude, the Senate has voiced a willingness to help along the good work by their sanction of the measure, and President Roosevelt has several times, in writing and verbally, voiced a sincere desire to sign the statehood bill before his term of office expires next March.

This, in brief, is where we stand at this time, and if Mr. Andrews can go back to Washington next month and ask Senator Beveridge to make good his promise, and in reply to the latter's query, "Were you re-elected?" say "I was," the gentleman from Hoosierdom will, in all probability make good. Congress will do the same, and the Senate will deliver its quota. Then Teddy will sign it, and on July Fourth, next, New Mexico will be "One" of "The States."

But, if Larrazolo should be elected and New Mexico show evidence of being Democratic, we are gone for several years. Mr. Beveridge would inform Mr. Andrews that Congress had all the Democratic timber in its makeup that it desired. The Senate, sure to be Republican for at least six years yet, will never vote statehood for us when by so doing they know that two more Democratic members will be added to their numbers, and regardless of what Mr. Roosevelt would like to do, he would never have the opportunity of signing a statehood bill for New Mexico. As to whether or not we are entitled to the honor or not, as to our fitness to handle our own business, as to merit, or anything else, not one of these points enter into the case. Its "Politics," and if you are at all hopeful of New Mexico becoming a state at any time during the next six years, (Remember the United States Senate,) vote for Andrews, work for his election, for with Larrazolo elected at this time our chances go glimmering, and the good efforts of Andrews toward that end are thrown away. Its up to the voters. Election, Tuesday, November 3, 1908. Andrews and victory. Larrazolo and obscurity. Which?
