DR. PADEN HURT

Last Saturday evening Dr. Paden received a call to go to Jicarilla and attend a Native who had been cut up in a fight at that place on Christmas night.

The Doctor hitched up and started to see his patient after supper and was near Raventon, at about eleven o'clock, when he struck an obstruction in the road. His horses became frightened and Dr. Paden lost control of them. They ran some distance when he was thrown from the buggy, lighting on his head and left shoulder.

He was rendered unconscious and laid for quite a while where he was thrown but later rallied and was taken on to Jicarilla, where he gamely attended his patient, whom he found to be suffering from an even dozen knife wounds, on various parts of the anatomy, and all more or less severe.

The Doctor arrived home early in the week, and while he is very sore about the left shoulder and his facial features show evidence of rough usage, he is about attending his duties as usual now.

From last accounts the victim of the cutting affray is doing very well, and no serious results are anticipated.

NEW TOWNSITE MAN

With the departure of Mr. George Roslington this week for Albuquerque, N. M., where he goes to accept a position as an official in charge of the home office of the Occidental Life Insurance Company, Carrizozo has lost one good, live and enterprising real estate man, but it is fortunate enough to have another gentleman of enterprise and integrity step in and take his position.

Mr. Roslington, who has for a long time been promoting the Highland Addition, as well as extensively dealing in other town property, has disposed of his Highland property to Mr. F. E. Theurer, and that gentleman will from now on have charge of same.

We regret the loss of Mr. Roslington from our midst, yet we sincerely wish for him a world of success in his new position, and are truly glad of Mr. Theurer's advent in local real estate circles.

JOHNSON-KELSEY

On Christmas Eve another one of Carrizozo's popular young ladies became a bride. Mr. Samuel Kelsey, teacher of the schools at Bonito, was the young gentleman to secure the prize this time, and he is entitled to, and has our congratulations upon his marriage to Miss Lou Ann Johnson.

They were married by Squire Koonz, of Nogal, and have already gone to housekeeping at Bonito.

Mr. Kelsey is a most estimable young man and his bride one of the most highly liked and generally popular young ladies of the valley. We wish for them a long, happy and prosperous lifetime. May every joy be theirs.

CHINAMEN CAUGHT

Eleven Chinamen were caught at Duran on last Friday night. The chinks were discovered hidden away in a fruit car that had been billed through from California to Chicago, but the supposition is that they had entered the car, with assistance, while it was in the yards at El Paso.

We are informed that Conductor Chavel first discovered them and they are now in the Alamogordo jail awaiting action on the part of the immigration authorities.

Notice—I take this means of informing my patrons add friends that after the First of January I will be found at my new location, corner of Fifth street and Alamogordo avenue—

J. K. Martin.

CHRISTMAS DANCE

This dance given at Wetmore's Hall on Christmas night by the boys of "The Pastime Club" was a decided success. They succeeded in assembling what was undoubtedly the largest crowd that ever attended a ball in Carrizozo, and the enjoyment of the evening corresponded with the number present.

Quite a number our "young" men had just learn to dance and this was their first public attempt, and it is due them to say that they acquitted themselves with credit.

The forty dollar phonograph given away to the holder of the lucky ticket was won by Eph Cavender, this young man who drives Ziegler Bros. delivery wagon.

The prize given for the best dancers was won, after an interesting contest, by Mr. Sebe Grey and his sister, Mrs. Williamson.

The music was furnished by an orchestra of a high class, and the gentlemen in charge of the affair are entitled to much praise upon their great success.

LITTLE LOCAL ITEMS

MATTERS OF INTEREST TO THE PEOPLE OF THE COMMUNITY

The county officers are all in Lincoln to-day taking the oath of office.

Engineer Harris is back here on duty again. He has his old engine No. 213.

James Hubbert, night car inspector, accompanied by his wife are spending a few days in Alamogordo.

Attorney A. H. Hudspeth, of White Oaks, was in attendance at the New Years Ball at Wetmore's Hall last night.

Chas. M. Stokes and wife returned yesterday from Westville, Oklahoma, where they had been on a week's visit to Mr. Stokes' parents.

Invitations are out for a New Years dance on Thursday night of this week. They are fathered by the T. and J. Club, whatever that is.

A public Christmas tree was held at Wetmore's hall on Christmas Eve. Quite a nice crowd was in attendance and a pleasant time is reported.

J. K. Martin will be in his new Shop on Alamogordo Avenue, one square south of Ziegler Bros. store by the first of the week ready for business.

Prof. C. L. Davis, principal of the White Oaks schools, spent the holidays here. He returns there on Sunday and the schools will resume on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Harvey on New Years Day turkey-fed Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Campbell and son Carlton Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Pearce and Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Fred.

We are informed that work is rapidly progressing on the pipe line, there being three gangs at work and it is hoped that the line will be completed within six months.

E. L. Simpson, one of the machinists in the railroad shops took a lay off on Tuesday and Wednesday and spent the time erecting a tower and windmill on his homestead.

On Thursday evening of last week, Christmas Eve, Squire Koonz, of Nogal, pronounced the wedding ceremony for Miss Lukey Cochran and Mr. William Hust, two well-known and popular young folks of that little town.

Johnnie, Willie and Harry Gallacher and sister Maggie, were down from White Oaks last night and were in attendance at the T. and J. Club dance at Wetmore's Hall.

Business is picking up on the E. P. & S. W. and several old faces, missing for the past few months, are again to be seen in our town. We are glad to see the boys coming back.

W. K. Collier, clerk to General Foreman Kimbrell in the local railroad shops, is expected home from Childress, Texas, today. Mr. Collier has been spending a vacation there with relatives and friends.

Ziegler Bros. ask us to inform the people that while they enjoyed a fine Christmas business they still have some fine winter goods on hand and preparatory to taking invoices will make highly interesting prices on same.

Charles A. Stevens, our incoming County Sheriff, was in Carrizozo on Monday arranging his bond. Chas. takes hold of the office with the first of the year. He has not moved his family, to Lincoln as yet on account of the prevalence of Scarlet Fever at the county site.

Miss Francis McDonald has had as her guest during the Christmas holidays, Miss Pauline Suremgard, of Devil's Lake, N. D. Miss Suremgard is a classmate at the college in Denver with Miss Francis, and they will return there in a few days to resume their studies.

The New Years Eve dance at Wetmore's Hall last night proved to be a very enjoyable occasion to the host of young folks (and others) who attended. The crowd was not nearly so large as that of Christmas night, but was as large as the hall could comfortably accommodate.

Passenger train No. 2 was wrecked on last Tuesday night at a point east of Santa Rosa. The tender jumped the track and caused a delay of about four hours but fortunately no one was injured. The above mishap was cause for No. 3 being several hours late in reaching this point on Wednesday.

Little Roy Shaeffer, the 10-months old son of Conductor Eugene Shaeffer, fell from a chair at the home of his parents in the Bush Terrace on last Saturday morning and suffered a severe cut over one of his eyes. Dr. Walker was called and took two stitches in the little fellow's eye. The child is getting along all right now.

An order that came as an absolute surprise and at the last moment was received by General Foreman Kimbrell on Thursday evening. It was to the effect that he was to let every man in and around the railroad shops off for January 1, 2, and 3, only keeping those at work necessary to handle the engines too, and from the roundhouse.

The Christmas tree exercises held by the Methodist Sunday School at the school house on last Thursday night was a great success. While the bulk of the presents went to the children the little fellows were not the only ones to enjoy the evening, as some of the older ones seemed to be in the fun all the way through.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. McDonald have been entertaining during the holidays Mrs. McDonald's son, J. J. McCourt, wife and children and Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Parker and wife, and children, of El Paso. Mrs. Parker is a daughter of Mrs. McDonald. The visitors left on No. 3 today for their homes in El Paso.

A. A. DeCamp, of Beggs, Oklahoma, an old friend of Attorney Wm. F. A. Clerke, has been in Carrizozo for the past week or ten days and may decide to locate here permanently. Here's hoping.

Mrs. E. W. Sears, who has been here for the past ten days visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hosier, left Thursday morning for a few days visit with Mrs. T. J. Haddy, at the Vera Cruz mines. Preparations are under way for a big feed at the mines next Sunday and quite a number of the Carrizozo young folks will be on hand to partake of the goodies.

George Roslington left Wednesday for Albuquerque, where he has accepted the position of Assistant General Manager of the Occidental Life Insurance Company for New Mexico. Mr. Roslington has become known as one of the leading insurance men of the Territory, and we feel confident will rise still higher in the managerial ranks of his company. We congratulate him upon his success and wish him much more of it.

An auction sale of a team of good heavy work mares, a big farm wagon, a set of good harness, a milk cow and a yearling steer was held on the streets here yesterday afternoon. Mr. Clarence Spence bid in the horses for $62.00 and the harness at $17.00. Mr. W. C. McDonald took the wagon at half price, paying but $30.00 for it. J. K. Martin annexed the cow for $16.50 and the steer brought $10.00.

The sale was a forced one and the purchasers all got more than value received for their money.

It isn't often that the Carrizozo papers are able to chronicle the report of a theft in our little town but this week is an exception. Some thief entered an outbuilding at the home of Mr. A. H. Harvey on Monday night and stole a good saddle and blankets as well as something over a dozen of Mrs. Harvey's chickens. It seems as though saddles were a hobby with our friend of the light fingered gentry as there have been two or three missing lately, it being but last week when the report of one being stolen at Capitan was given us.

What proved to be a very pleasant little New Year's Eve party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Saner, three miles northeast of town last night. Games were indulged in until about midnight and from that time on until a much later hour dancing was the all predominant form of amusement.

Will Kirby and family returned one day this week from a visit with relatives in Texas.

Attorney Wm. F. A. Clerke is in Lincoln for a few days on business.

We extend to all our numerous customers

The Compliments of the Season

and thank one and all for their liberal patronage during the past year.

We will endeavor to merit your confidence the coming year.

Replying to Bryan's statement that he did not know how it happened, the Chicago Tribune remarks that it didn't happen; that the American people did it deliberately. — El Paso Herald. Yes, and with aforethought.

Just at this season of the year the railroad officials are remembering each other with annual passes, but poor mortals who work for a living, like us newspaper guys, as well as congressmen and members of the legislature, will still have to pay fare.

If you have a claim in the Carrizozo valley it is incumbent upon you to break up some land and next spring do some seeding. Paint hasn't never won a fair lady, nor will you make anything off your land unless you first put something in it. Go to work and start something. Be a "booster." Put in some seed and don't set around waiting to see if I or somebody else raise a crop. Do your share, and when the harvest comes get your share of the returns.

If you own a town lot in Carrizozo and are trying to sacrifice it you want to take a brace on yourself. We may not be booming just at present, but it's a pretty good bet that property in Carrizozo is a good investment. It isn't many years in the distance until our little burg will be a town of considerable size and importance. Give it time. Don't expect a town two years old to be like El Paso or Kansas City. What did either of them amount to at our age? We don't profess to believe we will ever see the day that Carrizozo will be in their class, but we do believe she will make a good, live town of several thousand people in a very few years.

Over in Roosevelt county, in the country surrounding Clovis, an organization has been formed among the farmers to further the cultivation, in that community of Irish potatoes. From results attained there last season the fillers of the soil are sanguine that they have ground highly suitable for the profitable raising of "spuds" and a number of them have gotten together and each agreed to put out a certain acreage of them next year. There is no gainsaying the fact that Roosevelt county has some hustling citizens within her borders, and this is but one more of the many traits of "hustle" they have evidenced. If the newcomers here will give our land a trial we are confident that the results would compare favorably with those attained in Roosevelt county or elsewhere, but to do anything of a profitable nature necessitates labor and care, and plenty of each.

Every new country that has ever been opened up in the United States has been afflicted with a more or less per cent of "Doubting Thomases," who were just about as valuable to the advancement of the country as a deaf and dumb inmate of the county farm. They occupied a place quite similar to a wart on an old maid's cheek. They were out of place for any use, and too homely for an ornament. They are the people who are ever skeptical as to the ability of the more enterprising of their neighbors to make good in their particular section. Such was the case when our forefathers came "west" to Illinois and Iowa. They made good. The same element was found in generous numbers a few years later when the Dakotas and Montana began to attract attention. The Dakotas and Montana are surely not in doubt now. The same knock-out had his little say when Kansas first attracted attention, but the Jayhawkers have shown them. Oklahoma was of no account for anything but as a place to sink your money—according to our "D. T.s." but Oklahoma has done very well, thank you. New Mexico has the same plague but she will ere long give these calamity howlers the merry ha ha, and once more show them where to head in. New Mexico is all right. She is going to show the world so in a very few years. If you have a chunk of her in your name hold on to it. Cultivate it. Have confidence in it. If you haven't got yours yet, "do it now." Don't wait until the man from Illinois, Kentucky, Wisconsin, Michigan or somewhere else on the other side of Halifax comes in and takes it out from under your nose. That's what is being done every day and it won't be a great while until you will see your error.

The following editorial was clipped from the columns of the El Paso News and has some good stuff in it:

The coming year augurs well to become the greatest in the history of the United States in the way of colonization of the southern and western sections of the American empire. The horizon of the great move on the part of the eastern section of the United States is beginning with a gigantic proposition to start with, at the head of which appears James J. Hill, noted as the greatest factor in the colonization of the northwest, and who is to be the recipient of this great plum—but the great state of Texas is the coming greatest power in the form of state government in the American union.

It is one more powerful lesson to us El Pasoans that what it takes to do these things successfully is to resort to compact organization, such as is in the hands of Mr. Hill and others like him; and what they can do as corporate entities can be done by city and county communities.

The plan reported as about to be floated by Mr. Hill and his associates consists to begin with of 7,000,000 acres of land, to which will be added many millions of dollars for development, as the one cannot improve without the assistance of the other.

Now when we El Pasoans can look at our own situation and consider our very limited amount of land we may understand the powerful ability of that land to produce, and the multiplied increase of business to the merchants of the city through the production of that land; and, last but not least, the enriching of the public commonwealth in the way of increased valuations to the county and the city at even a more rapid growth of per cent than the remarkable increase we have had in the last seven years. In view of this it would seem a very little matter indeed for all these elements to get together and join with their corresponding mite and build a little trolley line that is now being promoted and advanced the irrigation system, reclaiming those lands that have already been started. It is after all the always easily comprehensible problem; and that is to help ourselves mutually; and everybody will be the winner and no one the loser.

Let us not forget this living truth and shake off the last vestige of hindrance, making a firm resolution with the beginning of the New Year to stand and push together and conquer every part of the world within our grasp.

 "New Land" is the cry that is going through the northern part of New Mexico this week, for there has been opened to the white man a tract of land amounting to about 505,560 acres of the best land of the state. This now becomes public domain and as such is opened to entry and settlement. This land is a part of the tract which was not long ago added to the Navajos Indian reservation, when it was extended into the northern countries. The visit of Gov. Curry to Washington last summer was made partly in the interests of the counties from which this grant had been taken and his work there material y hasten the restoration to the public domain of this vast tract. The executive statement in connection with the matter given out in Washington follows:

"The restoration to the public domain of a part of the extension to the Navajo Indian reservation, in New Mexico, established by executive orders dated November 9, 1907, and January 28, 1908, will include all that part of the extension lying east as the first guide meridian west except approximately 92,450 acres.

"The area within the present extension to the reservation lying east of the first guide meridian west includes approximately 599,040 acres of which 75,040 acres have been allotted and 17,440 acres have been selected for allotments by Indians, leaving 506,560 acres to be restored to the public domain and subject to settlement and entry. The lands selected for allotments will be reserved by the executive order restoring the lands to the public domain."

School will resume next Monday and it will be "back to the books" with the kids for another month.
