Carrizozo Commercial Club Holds Enthusiastic Meeting Monday Night

ADOPT LIBERAL CONSTITUTION

An enthusiastic meeting of the Carrizozo Commercial Club was called to order by President A. J. Rolland at the club's headquarters on Monday evening. Owing to the holiday season there was not a large attendance but what the meeting lacked in numbers was made up in enthusiasm and the meeting was one of the best on record.

The Constitution Committee composed of Messrs. Wilson, Bell, and Chase submitted a Constitution for the consideration of the meeting which was adopted as read.

The President then appointed the several standing committees provided for, as follows:

- Publicity: John Haley, L. B. Chase and Wm. Doering.
- Finance: Frank Gursay, Chas. A. Stevens, Frank Sager.
- Entertainment: H. S. Campbell, T. E. Kelley, Jno. Dell.
- Auditing: Brent Paden, Geo. Ulrich, A. F. Roelle.

The matter of the maintenance of the gasoline lights about the streets of the town was taken up and after considerable discussion the matter was put in the hands of a committee composed of Mr. Stadman, Mr. Bell and Mr. Stevens, who will have charge of the payment of the costs of the lights and the duty was also imposed upon the committee of seeing to the upkeep of the fire engine and apparatus belonging to the town.

The question of the benefits and detriments of incorporation of the town were taken up and discussed at length. No official action was taken other than the appointment of a committee composed of Messrs. Sager, Campbell and Stevens to investigate the laws and report back to the next meeting.

A number of new members were enrolled at the meeting and a special committee will get out and sign up a number of other citizens who have not yet enrolled.

The meeting was very enthusiastic and all present manifested a spirit of unity and progress.

CHRISTMAS CAROLS A SUCCESS

On Sunday evening, December 29th, at the Baptist Church a Christmas service was rendered to a large and appreciative audience. Christmas carols were sung by the choir under the efficient leadership of Mrs. Haywood and an earnest and impressive sermon was delivered from the text: "We Have Seen His Star in the East and Have Come to Worship Him."

- The program was as follows:
- Chorus, "Silent Night," Choir.
 - Solo, "Oh, Little Town of Bethlehem," Mrs. Haywood.
 - Chorus, "Joy to the World," Choir.
 - Chorus, "It Came Upon the Midnight Clear," Choir.
 - Prayer, Mr. Salberg.
 - Male quartet, "The Riches of Love in Christ Jesus," Rev. Haywood, Luster, Roselle and Stadman.
 - Chorus, "While Shepherds Watched Their Flocks by Night," Choir.
 - Sermon, by the Pastor.
 - Chorus, "Hark, the Herald Angels Sing," concluding with one verse of "Silent Night."
 - Benediction.

GOOD ROADS MEETING

The people of Ruidoso and vicinity held a good roads meeting on December 27, 1912 at Glencoe. The minutes of the meeting have been supplied for publication.

MINUTES

Mr. A. J. Gilmore elected chairman of the meeting. The purpose of the meeting is to organize a board among the people of Ruidoso Valley to induce state commissioners, County commissioners and Forest Service to put a fair amount of money on improving roads in this section.

Moved, seconded and passed that the chair appoint a committee of three to attend all road meetings in the interest of this section. Following appointed: Mr. Geo. Coe, Mr. L. F. Avant, Mr. Lon Hunter, Mr. Bracken alternative to Mr. Hunter.

Moved, second and passed that the chair start petitions for the improvement of roads for the aforesaid committee to introduce a good roads meeting.

Mr. J. V. Tully introduced the following resolution the same being adopted:

Whereas, the Ruidoso Valley has always been used as a natural highway for inter-national and interstate, as well as local travel, it being the shortest route between Pecos Valley and Panhandle points and El Paso and Arizona.

Resolved: That the State and County highway commissioners be urged to give the Ruidoso highway the "square deal" its importance to traffic demands and appropriation of money and an engineer to develop its great actual advantages, and it is ordered that a copy of this resolution be sent to the State and County Road Commissioners.

Moved and seconded that the minutes of this meeting be sent to Lincoln County papers for publication.

Moved and seconded to adjourn. A. J. Gilmore, Chairman; Harold P. Clark, Clerk.

DOUBLE WEDDING.

Mr. Ira Greer and Miss Adalayne E. Johnson together with Mr. Walter Grumbles and Miss Katharine Channel, accompanied by Mrs. Lena Grumbles, and Miss Frieda Eckman, left at midnight December 31st, 1912, for El Paso where the two couples were united in marriage on New Year's day, at noon by a Justice of the Peace. Both couples are expected to return to Carrizozo in a few days where they will all start housekeeping, and be at home to their host of friends after February 1st. All four of the young people are among the best known of Carrizozo's younger set and have lived in the county for many years. While the marriages come as a surprise to many it is a very agreeable one, and their many friends are delighted and are extending hearty congratulations to the four happy young people.

PARCELS POST.

On January 1st, the Parcels Post system was inaugurated in the local postoffice in keeping with the ruling affecting all postoffices and already there seems to be a liveliness among the patrons of the new system. The first person to send a parcel out of Carrizozo under the Parcels Post system was Mrs. Nettie C. Funk and the first person to receive a package under the system was Postmaster A. J. Rolland. The system is bound to prove very popular among the outlying districts where it will be a great benefit.

COUNTY NEWS NOTES

News of Week from Around Lincoln County Briefly Told.

FT. STANTON NOTES.

Officers' row was a busy seen Christmas Eve and day, as there were many dinners given to friends among the officers.

Christmas night all were treated to a fine moving picture show in the Auditorium. The orchestra furnished music between pictures.

The new automobile service in carrying the mail on and after January 1st, is being looked forward to with much pleasure by all.

At number four the Christmas dinner was had Xmas eve at 6 o'clock during which Chaplain Frund was formally received and made one of them.

Chaplain Frund visited the sick in the hospital Christmas morning at 4 o'clock extending greetings and cheering those who were unable to be about. Music was furnished, and the sick were made to feel that they were not forgotten.

Dr. Lanza will leave soon for a month's vacation in the east with his relatives and friends. Everybody at the Post is anxious that he receive his well earned vacation, but that by all means he return to them as the able assistant to the Commanding Officer Dr. Smith.

Christmas celebration took place in the auditorium. The hall was crowded beyond the doors. Everybody received presents from the trees which had been tastefully decorated by Chas Babbs and assistants. The address of the evening was made by the Post Chaplain Father Frund, who spoke on the object of the great day, and what adults owe to the child for example.

Christmas morning at 4 a. m. the Post bells rang out the joyful tidings to all, and announced the services in the chapel which took place at 5 a. m. The beautiful chapel with the Grotto its many lights presented an elaborate scene such as has never been witnessed here before. Chaplain Frund officiated assisted by Mr. A. Canton master of ceremonies, while Mrs. F. A. Smith rendered some of her cultured solos. Mrs. A. E. Lovett presided at the organ. The second Mass was at 7:30 and the last at 10 a. m. at which the Commanding Officer Dr. Smith and family, with all the officers and attendants of the post were present.

ED. MASSIE FOR JUSTICE OF THE PEACE

Elsewhere in this issue will be found the announcement of Ed. Massie for the office of Justice of the Peace of Carrizozo, at the election to be held on Monday the 13th day of January.

Mr. Massie is the present incumbent of the office for this precinct and we believe that he has conducted the office in an impartial non-partisan way dispensing justice in a capable and efficient manner. We have not heard of any complaints as to his fairness nor his interpretation of the law and the fact that three appeals, which were taken to the District Court were all decided in confirmation of the decision of Mr. Massie in the Justice court, all goes to show that Mr. Massie is a careful, thorough officer and deserving of re-election to the office that he seeks.

His candidacy is not based on any political grounds and he is announced as an independent candidate and respectfully solicits your vote at the polls on January the 13th.

CIVIC LEAGUE MEETING.

There will be a very important meeting of the ladies of the Civic League on next Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Commercial Club headquarters (next to Rolland's drug store). All members are urgently requested to attend the meeting at which time matters of much importance will be taken up.

Last week through a typographical error it was stated that the French house had been robbed when it should have read Fish.

STARTS FEBRUARY 1ST

Roswell-Carrizozo Automobile Mail Line will Not Start Until Feb. 1st.

DELAY OWING TO OLD MAIL LINE

The Roswell-Carrizozo mail line was not started in operation on January 1st, as at first announced owing to complications arising over the cancellation of the old Vaughn-Roswell mail line. In order to avoid the payment of a month's extra contract prize the new contract will not go into effect until the first of the coming month.

It appears that there is a clause in the old contract which requires a thirty day notice of the discontinuance of a contract and thus it was found necessary to delay the institution of the new service.

Preparations are going steadily forward for the new line and on the first of the coming month all will be in readiness for the best kind of service.

HOME MISSION ELECTION.

The ladies of the Home Mission society of the M. E. church held a regular meeting at the home of Mrs. A. E. Long on January 1st, at which time the officers for the ensuing year were elected and installed and plans for the coming year discussed. The officers elected are: President, Mrs. Stanley Squier; Vice-President, Mrs. Geo. L. Ulrich; Second Vice-President, Mrs. Arthur J. Rolland; Treasurer, Mrs. Samuel C. Miller; Secretary, Mrs. E. B. Walker.

ONE DOLLAR UNTIL FEBRUARY 1st, 1913.

New subscriptions and renewals to THE OUTLOOK will be received until February 1st, at the rate of $1.00 per year. Any subscriber in arrears may pay his subscription at the rate of $1.00 per year and new names will be received until the first of next month at this reduced rate. After February 1st, the rate will be as formerly $1.50 per year and continue at this rate throughout the year.

With the increase in the cost of getting out a first-class paper and giving the people of the County, ALL THE NEWS ALL THE TIME, it is necessary that subscriptions be paid up. We trust that our subscribers will avail themselves of this opportunity of securing Lincoln County's leading paper at reduced cost and enable us to retain our lead and maintain our circulation which is the largest in the county.

The advertising rates will remain the same as before with an anticipated increase in circulation, the rate as formerly will remain.

"Yes," said he, "my wife isn't bad at that sort of thing. We were having some people to luncheon on Sunday last spring, and just at an hour when all the delicatessens were closed she discovered that she needed some mustard and didn't have a grain of it in the kitchen. And she isn't the sort that will borrow from people next door that she doesn't know. It was a bad fix, all right. But she got mustard enough."

"Went to the delicatessen man's house and routed him out, I suppose?" suggested a member from the Bronx. "Not much. Just went to the medicine closet, got down a box of ready-made mustard plasters, put 'em to soak, and squeezed enough of the hot stuff out."

"Good night," said the man from the Bronx.

What She Meant.

"So you think I smoke too much?" he asked, just to keep up a conversation that seemed to be languishing. "Not at all," she answered, not very skillfully concealing a yawn. "You said you thought so." "Pardon me. I don't think you are smoking too much."

"Didn't you say that I'd die if I didn't quit it?"

"Yes—that's what I said."

It took him a long time to get it, and then he was quite angry.

Dangerous Ground.

It was in the church yard. The morning sun shone brightly and the dew was still on the grass. "Ah, this is the weather that makes things spring up," remarked the passerby casually to an old gentleman seated on a bench.

"Hush," replied the old gentleman. "I've got three wives buried here."

"Yesterday," complained the Sunday school superintendent, "you boys sat through a twelve-inning game and you showed no signs of uneasiness. Yet here you cannot listen to me for thirty minutes without becoming restless. I can't understand why the ball game receives more serious attention."

"Because," came in a stage whisper from a seat of husky boys, "they change pitchers occasionally."—Judge.

All the Luxuries.

"In our country poor people have luxuries. They wear good clothes and you will frequently see them at the theater sitting in seats just as good as those of the rich."

"Sure, I know a landlady who bought her daughter a minor count for his beard and lodging."

Knew She'd Be Caught.

"You think she loves you?"

"I am sure of it. She told me last night that I might have a kiss if I could catch her."

"But wasn't she permitted you to catch—"

"Nah! She had on a hobble skirt!"

He Had a Name.

Patrick, lately over, was working in the yards of a railroad. One day he happened to be in the yard office when the force was out. The telephone rang vigorously several times and he at last decided it ought to be answered. He walked over to the instrument, took down the receiver and put his mouth to the transmitter, just as he had seen others do. "Hello!" he called.

"Hello," answered the voice at the other end of the line. "Is this eight-six-one-five-nine?"

"Aw, gwani! Phwat d' ye tink O' am? A box car?"

Equal to the Occasion.

"We insist," said the suffragist speaker, her eyes flashing fire, "that we women have a natural and inalienable right to say who shall govern us, as men have!"

"Pooh! Pooh!" exclaimed a rough looking man in the audience.

"Which only shows," rejoined the suffragist, her stern features softening into a smile, "how true the scriptures are in saying that the poorer we have always with us."

Would Never Do.

An actor, being unable to find work on the stage and needing his meals, finally obtained the promise of a conductor's job on the street-car lines.

"When do I report?"

"At 4 a. m. sharp," said the manager.

"Shades of Booth!" exclaimed the Theatopian. "I couldn't stand such hours. The fines would offset the salary. Why, I'd be late for rehearsal every day."

Remember Watch Faces.

"Ah! an old friend," said the pawnbroker, as the young man handed him his watch.

"I never hooked that watch before," declared the young man.

"Maybe you have not, but somebody has."

"How do you know it's the same timepiece?"

"Because I have an excellent memory for faces."

POINTED WAY TO SALVATION

Preacher's Advice Was All Right but His Friend Also Had Something Wise to Say.

Senator Samuel A. Eitelson, speaking recently at a banquet, told the following:

"A colored preacher stood up on a Sunday and said: 'My text this morning, brothers and sisters, am 'What Shall I Do to Be Saved?' To me there seems only one way to be saved, and that am to quit this here extravagant living. Back to the simple life, say I. There am going to be no chance for you to be saved so long as you keep up this high living. If there is anything that is going to kill our race it is these here luxuries. Better go hungry and cold like the wolf. Go out and face the rains and fight the storms. Go wide with the crane. You will grow rugged and you will grow tough, but you'll walk like a man. Yes, sir, that am de way to salvation, that am de way to get saved."

"Just then a tall colored man, rising from his pew in the rear of the church, interrupted the preacher, shouting: 'This am no way to be saved. You just jump right through that back window and run just as fast as your legs will carry you, for the county sheriff am here with a warrant for your arrest for stealing them chickens from Massa Martin's coop last Friday night.'"—Chicago Tribune.

RASH ON FACE FOR 2 YEARS

Sioux Falls, S. D.—"My trouble of skin disease started merely as a rash on my face and neck, but it grew and kept getting worse until large scabs would form, fester and break. This was just on the one side of my face, but it soon scattered to the other side. I suffered a great deal, especially at night, on account of its itching and burning. I would scratch it and of course that irritated it very much. This rash was on my face for about two years, sometimes breaking out lots worse and forming larger sores. It kept me from sleeping day or night for a couple of months. My face looked disgraceful and I was almost ashamed to be seen by my friends."

"A friend asked me to try Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment. I would bathe my face with hot water and a lot of Cuticura Soap, then I would put on the Cuticura Ointment. In less than two days' time, the soreness and inflammation had almost entirely disappeared, and in four weeks' time you could not see any of the rash. Now my face is without a spot of any kind. I also use them for my scalp and hair. They cured me completely." (Signed) Miss Fanny Hutchins, Feb. 6, 1912.

WOMEN CONVICT WOMAN.

Fair Jurors Go Home to Fix Meal, Return and Give Verdict.

Twin Falls, Idaho.—The first jury of women in Idaho found one of their sex guilty of threatening a man with a revolver, but recommended her to the mercy of the court.

The defendant, Mrs. Edward Butts, was on trial in the Probate Court charged with drawing a revolver on Arthur Requa.

The hearing was adjourned while the jurors prepared the midday meal for their families, and when the evidence was in they reached their verdict in less than one hour.

Blow in Eye Restored Eyesight.

Oklahoma City, Okla.—A bit of tin foil slipped from a rubber band by a child is declared responsible for the restoration of the eyesight of Rev. G. G. Rupert, pastor of a local church, who had been blind for twenty-eight years. The missile, fired at random by a grandchild of the minister, hit him in the eye, and wet clothes were applied. The applications were continued and practically normal vision returned.

LEAVES $3,000 TO CHARITY.

Teamster's Friends Thought He Did Not Have Enough to Bury Him.

Grand Junction, Colo.—The will of Thomas Wienn was filed for probate and shows that he left an estate of $4,000. He was an illiterate teamster, and signed his testament with an "X." He gave $1,000 to St. Mary's hospital, Grand Junction; $1,000 to St. Joseph's Catholic church, Grand Junction; $1,000 to St. Malachi's Catholic church in Fruita, and $1,000 to Mrs. Mamie Cuddy, wife of William Cuddy. He designated Mrs. Cuddy as "my dear friend."

Wienn was eighty-five years old. He died five weeks ago and it was thought he did not even leave enough means to bury him.

THE PARCEL POST LAW.

Some Interesting Features About Measure Effective Jan. 1.

Washington.—The new parcel post law takes effect Jan. 1. The law permits the mailing of packages weighing not more than eleven pounds, which must not be more than seventy-two inches in length and breadth combined. Up to four ounces there will be a flat rate of 1 cent per ounce, or part thereof, regardless of distance. For packages weighing more than four ounces the rates vary with the distance, which the following table will explain.

"Place One on Every Package," Is Good Motto to Follow.

Thanksgiving Day, eighty million Red Cross Christmas seals were placed on sale in the United States. Of this number, two million were allotted to Colorado. The seals sell for one cent each and the money thus raised is used in a general fight against the spread of tuberculosis. The seals are purchased and placed on Christmas letters and packages. They are very beautiful and carry with them a message of Christmas cheer. They are on sale in almost every postoffice and general store in every town in Colorado. This novel way of spreading Christmas good wishes and at the same time of raising a fund for the benefit of the unfortunate sick was adopted some years ago and has proved immensely satisfactory throughout the entire world.

"Place one on every package" is a good motto for all people to follow.

VISION OF TITANIC

Great Disaster Pictured by W. T. Stead in 1886.

Enormous Loss of Life Predicted by the Distinguished English Journalist in His Own Newspaper.

London.—An investigator, searching for material for a biography of W. T. Stead, the Englishman who went down with the Titanic, has discovered a strange prediction of his own doom made by Mr. Stead in the Pall Mall Gazette on March 22, 1886.

This article, written by Mr. Stead, was headed, "How the Mail Steamer Went Down in Mid-Atlantic."

The article appeared a couple of days after the Oregon was lost, and purported to give a description of the scene of horror that ensued on the then biggest Atlantic liner, when at last the passengers realized the ship was doomed. In a footnote, Stead wrote:

"This is exactly what might take place and what will take place if the liners are sent to sea short of boats."

Here are some extracts from Stead's grim prediction:

"From below there came a queer sucking sound, with an occasional long gurgle, and I saw that the ship seemed to 'hang' as the seas met her."

"The boats were made fast to stand heavy weather, and only skilled sailors could launch them."

"I calculated that, by loading all the eight boats down to the water's edge and by packing the children along the bottom boards, we might accommodate 300 people. We were carrying 916 altogether."

"A loud crack, followed by a wallowing noise like a thunder, rendered all other sounds insignificant, and a captain who was going out to New York, said: 'The bulkhead's gone. We must take our chance.' The ship stopped nearly dead, and began to tremble curiously, but it was only the river of water pouring aft, and we soon saw the firemen driven up like rats from a burrow. 'Stand by the boats.'"

"The order was given, and the boat-swain's call rose in a long, tremulous wailing cry. One of the starboard boats was successfully launched, and the officer stood, revolver in hand. 'Women first here.' Thompson, you will steer her. Take four men and no more.' The young English lady was lowered down, although she clung to her father and begged him to let her stay. 'No, darling, goodbye. Be happy,' he said, and then stood composedly amid the hurly-burly."

By an extraordinary coincidence Stead describes the girl as "a dark beauty, about eighteen years of age." One could almost fancy that he saw as in a glass darkly the then yet unborn Mrs. John Jacob Astor.

"At last only one light boat remained, and still there were over 700 of us jammed in the narrow space left by the awful list. The captain has dropped his hands—he could do no more. One sailor said: 'We've stood it long enough, Tom. Let's have our turn.'"

"And he, with three sturdy Swedes, managed to get at the davits. They were just in time, for the steamer began to sway as they floated, and they were all but swamped by the charge and leap of a crowd who flung themselves into the water. Then I was left with a great multitude, whose agonized clamor stunned me."

"I felt a mighty convulsive movement, then the sea seemed to flash down on me in one mass, as if the wall of water fell from a high crag. Then I heard a humming noise in my ears, and with a gasp I was up amid a blackened, wriggling sheet of drowning creatures."

"A boat came past me and I struck out lustily. I raised myself to the gunwale. 'Shall I hit his fingers?' said a man. 'No, let him come,' and I laid, sick and dizzy, on the bottom boards of a crowded boat. You know that we were picked up after a nasty time."

The great journalist's friends would have wished that last sentence of his vivid forecast could have applied to his own case, when the mammoth White Star liner's "great multitude" were hurried to their ocean tomb.

U. S. HORSE DECLARED FIRST

Fico, Ridden by Lieutenant Adair, Leads Big Field in Broad Water Jump.

New York.—The United States won the international broad water jump at the horse show and Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt won the Nata challenge cup contest for the third year in succession with his Sir James, thereby taking possession of the trophy, valued at $850. The latter event was confined to amateurs driving their own horses attached to rigs. William P. Kearney, driving his splendid black stallion, Triumph, was given second prize, the reserve ribbon.

Fico, ridden by Lieut. H. R. Adair of the Tenth United States cavalry, outclassed thirty-five other horses, including several foreign entries, in the first named event by jumping eighteen feet. Second prize went to Spes, ridden by Lieut. G. H. Labouchere of the Royal Holland Hussars, and the third to Deceive, exhibited by the United States Mounted Service school.

JURORS ARE GIVEN KISSES

Wife of Defendant in Tacoma Case Embraces Woman Who Returned Verdict.

Tacoma, Wash.—Hugs and kisses for three woman jurors and handshaking for the men made up the final picture in the trial of J. Matthew Murray, an attorney charged with defrauding an ignorant client. The attorney's young wife gave the kisses, and they followed a verdict of not guilty, capping the climax of a day in court made sensational by the defendant's personal appeal to the jury, in which he broke down and wept, the women on the jury doing likewise. A second charge, the result of the bar inquiry, is on the docket against Murray.

CREW COMMITS HARA-KIRI

Six Japanese Sailors on British Bark Helipate End Lives When Mikado Dies.

Behavans, Java.—The British bark Helipate, Captain Steers, arrived here from the north Borneo coast manned by an island crew of natives picked up by the skipper after his former crew, six Japanese, had committed hara-kiri upon the deck of the vessel after learning of the death and burial of the mikado.

Captain Steers says that he was proceeding from Pelori Island to Zamara on the Borneo coast to complete his cargo of copra when he was hailed by the British barkentine Clyde Town, from the master of which he received a number of items of news, among them being the information of the Japanese emperor's death and burial.

Without realizing what it might mean, Captain Steers gave the tidings to the crew, and immediately they were as stricken, raving about the ship and engaging in loud lamentations. When he remonstrated with them for allowing the bark to drift aimlessly they threatened his life and he said no more to them until he saw them gathered on the deck, each with a knife in his hand and stomach bared. The captain thereupon realized what was about to happen and came forth from his cabin with a repeating rifle, but the men paid no heed to him and upon a signal each killed himself.

The Helipate, the captain alone alive on board, drifted helplessly, but finally made Hadjona bay without serious injury, and here Captain Steers succeeded, after some days, in prevailing upon enough natives to man his ship and sail it to this port.

COMFORT IN KITCHEN

MODERN INNOVATIONS DO AWAY WITH MUCH LABOR.

Time-Saving Appliances Have Been Introduced and Become General—Fireless Cook Stove Proves Genuine Boon.

Nowadays the men who make things have turned their attention to providing the home, and especially the kitchen, with as efficient labor and time saving appliances and tools as an up-to-date factory can boast. The modern kitchen can be a thing of beauty and a joy even to the woman who works in it, so great have been the improvements made.

Take, for instance, the evolution of the fireless cook stove, a miracle working contrivance which banishes heat, steam, smells and standing over the stove—watching the slow, tedious cooking process.

Lined with seamless aluminum, rust-proof, tarnish proof and durable utensils to use with it, and a cunningly contrived steam valve attachment which allows the roasting of meats and fowl, the baking of bread and pies, as well as boiling and stewing. It is indeed a wonderful convenience.

All that is necessary is to heat the soapstone radiators either on a gas or electric stove. Then the food, meats, vegetables, or whatever is to be cooked—cooks just as it is, and it is forgotten until the clock says it should be done.

It probably isn't known that every branch and variety of the cooking art can be successfully employed with the fireless cook stove.

The earlier models of these cookers showed a very cumbersome box that took up a lot of space in a small kitchen, but they have now been reduced to occupy waste space, and some of the later designs show them swinging on hinges under the kitchen table, where they may be pushed out of sight and out of the way while the rest of the meal is being prepared.

Another innovation for kitchen efficiency is a porcelain table with rounded corners and edges, which is seamless, unbreakable and unchippable, and at once becomes a molding board for pie baking or a meat board or bread board for cooking and slicing.

This is far superior to the old wooden table tops which became the "catch-all" for grease and other substances, owing to the surface being scored from knife blades while preparing meals.

The best thing of all about a kitchen table of this kind is that it can be kept spotlessly clean—really hygienically clean—by wiping off with a hot wet cloth.

Squash Pie Without Eggs.

Use dry squash (the Hubbard or others of same quality). Cut in suitable pieces and cook in a steamer only just long enough to soften so it can be pressed through a sieve. Too long cooking will make it watery and spoil it for a pie. Now heat milk to the boiling point only and turn immediately on the strained squash—using just enough to make a thick mixture—much thicker than when eggs are used. Add salt and sugar to taste; flavor with ginger or pure extract of lemon is good for a change. In deep plates this pie will take an hour for baking. Remove from oven when it ceases to bubble in center. Oven should be quite hot.

Stock Pot Handy.

The stock pot is the main spring of a well-managed kitchen. In it should be collected bones, poultry, carcasses, trimmings and vegetables, for any scrap is welcome. A piece of shin beef may sometimes be added for extra strength. There will be no lack of soup, gravy and sauces if this is kept constantly going; it is the foundation for them all.

Italian Celery Soup.

Melt two rounding tablespoons of butter in a saucepan; add a small onion sliced and two cups of celery cut fine. Cook together until beginning to yellow, cover with water and cook the celery until soft. Press through a sieve and add two cups of cream. Beat the yolks of two eggs with a tablespoonful of milk; add to the soup, carefully keeping it under the boiling point. Serve the soup with croutons and grate a little Parmesan cheese over the top the very last thing before serving.

Apricot-Apple Pie.

Line your pie plate as usual with nice crust, put in a scant layer of halved apricots (canned), then fill the pie with sliced apple and finish as usual and bake. The mingled flavor of the two fruits is very nice and appetizing.

Iron Wrong Side.

When ironing between buttons on a shirtwaist place the buttons down on a folded towel and iron on wrong side. The result will be very pleasing to both ironer and wearer.

TROUBLE IN DINING ROOM

Little Mixup Between Ladies Accepted Philosophically by the Torpidville Landlord.

"At one time yesterday it looked like we was going to have a little trouble here in the dining room, but it didn't come to nothin' much," related the landlord of the Torpidville tavern. "Maxine and Sylphie, the young ladies that are waitin' table, got to squabblin' about a pint of etiquette, or the merits of their respective fellers, or something that-a-way, as ladies is everlastin' doin'; and Sylphie, I reckon it was, told Maxine, or mebbe Maxine told Sylphie—anyhow, one told the other that she wasn't no better than she ort to be. And Maxine, or Sylphie, whichever it was, got sorter fussy about it, and answered that she was too, and she didn't care who knew it! And then they kind o' tied in on each other and went 'round and 'round as it were, and it took 'em quite a while after it was over to wash the ketchup and broken glass out of their coffers, as they call their hair. But that's all it amounted to, and there's no use in firin' 'em, for ladies will be ladies and there ain't no help for it."

NEVER TIRES

Of the Food That Restored Her to Health.

"Something was making me ill and I didn't know the cause," writes a Colo. young lady: "For two years I was thin and sickly, suffering from indigestion and inflammatory rheumatism."

"I had tried different kinds of diet, and many of the remedies recommended, but got no better."

"Finally, Mother suggested that I try Grape-Nuts, and I began at once, eating it with a little cream or milk. A change for the better began at once."

"To-day I am well and am gaining weight and strength all the time. I've gained 10 lbs. in the last five weeks and do not suffer any more from indigestion, and the rheumatism is all gone."

"I know it is Grape-Nuts alone that I owe my restored health. I still eat the food twice a day and never tire of it." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

The favour of Grape-Nuts is peculiar to itself. It is neutral, not too sweet and has an agreeable, healthful quality that never grows tiresome.

One of the sources of rheumatism is from overloading the system with acid material, the result of imperfect digestion and assimilation.

As soon as improper food is abandoned and Grape-Nuts is taken regularly, digestion is made strong, the organs do their work of building up good red blood cells and of carrying away the excess of disease-making material from the system.

The result is a certain and steady return to normal health and mental activity. "There's a reason." Read the little book, "The Road to Well-Ville," in pkgs.

PRUSSIA TO TAX BACHELORS

All Getting $750 a Year Up Will Be Specially Assessed for Remaining Single.

Berlin.—The Prussian diet is now giving its formal official consideration to a project for taxing bachelors. The original bill has been amended so as to make the tax effective only in the case of unmarried men whose income exceeds $750 a year.

Such men will be called upon in case the bill passes to pay a tax of from ten to twenty per cent higher than married men with corresponding incomes.

The bachelor tax will take the form of an income sur-tax. The idea of the legislators who are backing the bill is that men who have to support wives or children ought not, in justice, be compelled to pay as much toward the support of the state as men who are leading the care-free, irresponsible lives of bachelors.

The project is favored by the conservatives of the diet and has every prospect of becoming a law.

SMILES

RESOURCEFUL

In the club they were comparing the resourcefulness of their wives in difficult social situations. The man who lives in a Harlem flat had been a good listener, but he finally found an opening.

"Yes," said he, "my wife isn't bad at that sort of thing. We were having some people to luncheon on Sunday last spring, and just at an hour when all the delicatessens were closed she discovered that she needed some mustard and didn't have a grain of it in the kitchen. And she isn't the sort that will borrow from people next door that she doesn't know. It was a bad fix, all right. But she got mustard enough."

"Went to the delicatessen man's house and routed him out, I suppose?" suggested a member from the Bronx. "Not much. Just went to the medicine closet, got down a box of ready-made mustard plasters, put 'em to soak, and squeezed enough of the hot stuff off."

"Good night," said the man from the Bronx.

What She Meant

"So you think I smoke too much?" he asked, just to keep up a conversation that seemed to be languishing.

"Not at all," she answered, not very skillfully concealing a yawn.

"You said you thought so."

"Pardon me. I don't think you are smoking too much."

"Didn't you say that I'd die if I didn't cut it down?"

"Yes—that's what I said."

"It took him a long time to get it, and then he was quite angry."

Dangerous Ground

It was in the church yard. The morning sun shone brightly and the dew was still on the grass. "Ah, this is the weather that makes things spring up," remarked the passerby casually to an old gentleman seated on a bench.

"Hush," replied the old gentleman. "I've got three wives buried here."

HIS SUGGESTION

Wife—Henry, what shall I give up during Lent?

Hubby—Well, Grace, I wish you would give up coaxing me for an auto, but I know you won't.

"There is one thing queer in British politics."

"What's that?"

"They bring out their whips for their own party when they want to beat the other one."

Broke the Monotony

"Yesterday," complained the Sunday school superintendent, "you boys sat through a twelve-inning game and you showed no signs of uneasiness. Yet here you cannot listen to me for thirty minutes without becoming restless. I can't understand why the ball game receives more serious attention."

"Because," came in a stage whisper from a seat of husky boys, "they change pitchers occasionally."

All the Luxuries

"In our country poor people have luxuries. They wear good clothes and you will frequently see them at the theater sitting in seats just as good as those of the rich."

"Sure. I know a landlady who bought her daughter a minor count for his board and lodging."

Knew She'd Be Caught

"You think she loves you?"

"I am sure of it. She told me last night that I might have a kiss if I could catch her."

"But unless she permitted you to catch her."

"Yeah! She had on a hobble skirt!"

He Had a Name

Patrick, lately over, was working in the yards of a railroad. One day he happened to be in the yard office when the force was out. The telephone rang vigorously several times and he at last decided it ought to be answered. He walked over to the instrument, took down the receiver and put his mouth to the transmitter, just as he had seen others do.

"Hello," answered the voice at the other end of the line. "Is this eight-six-one-five-nine?"

"Aw, gwan! Phwat d'ya think of am? A box car?"

Would Never Do

An actor, being unable to find work on the stage and needing his meals, finally obtained the promise of a conductor's job on the street-car lines.

"When do I report?"

"At 4 a. m. sharp," said the manager.

"Shades of Booth!" exclaimed the Thespian. "I couldn't stand such hours. The fines would offset the salary. Why, I'd be late for rehearsal every day."

Remember Watch Faces

"Ah! an old friend," said the pawnbroker, as the young man handed him his watch.

"I never hooked that watch before," declared the young man.

"Maybe you have not, but somebody has."

"How do you know it's the same timepiece?"

"Because I have an excellent memory for faces."

POINTED WAY TO SALVATION

Preacher's Advice Was All Right but His Friend Also Had Something Wise to Say.

Senator Samuel A. Ettelson, speaking recently at a banquet, told the following:

"A colored preacher stood up on a Sunday and said: 'My text this morning, brothers and sisters, am 'What Shall I Do to Be Saved?' To me there seems only one way to be saved, and that am to quit this here extravagant living. Back to the simple life, say I. There am going to be no chance for you to be saved so long as you keep up this high living. If there is anything that is going to kill our race it is these here luxuries. Better go hungry and cold like the wolf. Go out and face the rains, and fight the storms. Go wade with the crane. You will grow rugged and you will grow tough, but you'll walk like a man. Yes, sir, that am de way to salvation, that am de way to get saved."

Just then a tall colored man, rising from his pew in the rear of the church, interrupted the preacher, shouting: "This am no way to be saved. You just jump right through the back window and run just as fast as your legs will carry you, for the county sheriff am here with a warrant for your arrest for stealing them chickens from Massa Martin's coop last Friday night."—Chicago Tribune.

RASH ON FACE FOR 2 YEARS

St. Louis Falls, S. D.—"My trouble of skin disease started merely as a rash on my face and neck, but it grew and kept getting worse until large scabs would form, fester and break. This was just on the one side of my face, but it soon scattered to the other side. I suffered a great deal, especially at night, on account of its itching and burning. I would scratch it and of course that irritated it very much. This rash was on my face for about two years, sometimes breaking out lots worse and forming larger sores. It kept me from sleeping day or night for a couple of months. My face looked disgraceful and I was almost ashamed to be seen by my friends.

"A friend asked me to try Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment. I would bathe my face with hot water and a lot of Cuticura Soap, then I would put on the Cuticura Ointment. In less than two days' time, the soreness and inflammation had almost entirely disappeared, and in four weeks' time you could not see any of the rash. Now my face is without a spot of any kind. I also use them for my scalp and hair. They cured me completely." (Signed) Miss Pansy Hutchins, Feb. 6, 1919.

WOMEN CONVICT WOMAN

Fair Jurors Go Home to Fix Meal, Return and Give Verdict.

Twin Falls, Idaho.—The first jury of women in Idaho found one of their sex guilty of threatening a man with a revolver, but recommended her to the mercy of the court.

The defendant, Mrs. Edward Butts, was on trial in the Probate Court charged with drawing a revolver on Arthur Regus.

The hearing was adjourned while the jurors prepared the midday meal for their families, and when the evidence was in they reached their verdict in less than one hour.

Blow in Eye Restores Eyesight

Oklahoma City, Okla.—A bit of tin foil clipped from a rubber band by a child is declared responsible for the restoration of the eyesight of Rev. G. G. Rupert, pastor of a local church, who had been blind for twenty-eight years. The missile, fired at random by a grandchild of the minister, hit him in the eye, and wet cloths were applied. The applications were continued and practically normal vision returned.

LEAVES $3,000 TO CHARITY

Teamster's Friends Thought He Did Not Have Enough to Bury Him.

Grand Junction, Colo.—The will of Thomas Wienn was filed for probate and shows that he left an estate of $4,000. He was an illiterate teamster, and signed his testament with an "X." He gave $1,000 to St. Mary's hospital, Grand Junction; $1,000 to St. Joseph's Catholic church, Grand Junction; $1,000 to St. Malachi's Catholic church in Fruita, and $1,000 to Mrs. Mamie Cuddy, wife of William Cuddy. He designated Mrs. Cuddy as "my dear friend."

Wienn was eighty-five years old. He died five weeks ago and it was thought he did not even have enough means to bury him.

THE PARCELS POST LAW

Some Interesting Features About Measure Effective Jan. 1.

Washington.—The new parcels post law takes effect Jan. 1. The law permits the mailing of packages weighing not more than eleven pounds, which must not be more than seventy-two inches in length and breadth combined. Up to four ounces there will be a flat rate of 1 cent per ounce, or part thereof, regardless of distance. For packages weighing more than four ounces—the rates vary with the distance, which the following table will explain.

Table with columns: Rural Route and City, First Pound, Additional Pounds. Rows include 50-mile zone, 100-mile zone, 150-mile zone, 200-mile zone, 250-mile zone, 300-mile zone, 350-mile zone, 400-mile zone, 450-mile zone, 500-mile zone, 550-mile zone, 600-mile zone, 650-mile zone, 700-mile zone, 750-mile zone, 800-mile zone, 850-mile zone, 900-mile zone, 950-mile zone, 1000-mile zone, Over 1000 miles.

"Place One on Every Package" is Good Motto to Follow.

Thanksgiving Day, eighty million Red Cross Christmas seals were placed on sale in the United States. Of this number, two million were allotted to Colorado. The seals sell for one cent each and the money thus raised is used in a general fight against the spread of tuberculosis. The seals are purchased and placed on Christmas letters and packages. They are very beautiful and carry with them a message of Christmas cheer. They are on sale in almost every postoffice and general store in every town in Colorado. This novel way of spreading Christmas good wishes and at the same time of raising a fund for the benefit of the unfortunate sick was adopted some years ago and has proved immensely satisfactory throughout the entire world.

"Place one on every package" is a good motto for all people to follow.

VISION OF TITANIC

Great Disaster Pictured by W. T. Stead in 1886.

Enormous Loss of Life Predicted by the Distinguished English Journalist in His Own Newspaper.

London.—An investigator, searching for material for a biography of W. T. Stead, the Englishman who went down with the Titanic, has discovered a strange prediction of his own doom made by Mr. Stead in the Pall Mall Gazette on March 23, 1886.

This article, written by Mr. Stead, was headed, "How the Mail Steamer Went Down in the Atlantic."

The article appeared a couple of days after the Oregon was lost, and purported to give a description of the scene of horror that ensued on the then-greatest Atlantic liner, when at last the passengers realized the ship was doomed. In a footnote, Stead wrote:

"This is exactly what might take place and what will take place if the liners are sent to sea short of boats."

Here are some extracts from Stead's grim prediction:

"From below there came a queer sucking sound, with an occasional long gurgle, and I saw that the ship seemed to 'hang' as the rear met her."

"The boats were made fast to stand heavy weather, and only skilled sailors could launch them."

"I calculated that, by loading all the eight boats down to the water's edge and by packing the children along the bottom boards, we might accommodate 300 people. We were carrying 518 altogether."

"A loud crack, followed by a wallowing noise like a thunder, rendered all other sounds insignificant, and a captain who was going out to New York, said: 'The bulkhead's gone. We must take our chance.' The ship stopped nearly dead, and began to tremble curiously, but it was only the river of water pouring aft, and we soon saw the firemen driven up like

"The order was given, and the boat-swall's call rose in a long, tremulous scream. One of the starboard boats was successfully launched, and the officer stood, revolver in hand. 'Women first here. Thompson, you will steer her. Take four men and no more.' The young English lady was lowered down, although she clung to her father and begged him to let her stay. 'No, darling, goodbye. Be happy,' he said, and then stood composedly amid the hurly-burly."

By an extraordinary coincidence Stead describes the girl as "a dark beauty, about eighteen years of age." One could almost fancy that he saw as in a glass darkly the then yet unborn Mrs. John Jacob Astor.

"At last only one light boat remained, and still there were over 700 of us jammed in the narrow space left by the awful list. The captain has dropped his hands—he could do no more. One sailor said: 'We've stood it long enough, Tom. Let's have our turn.'"

"And he, with three sturdy Swedes, managed to get at the davits. They were just in time, for the steamer began to sway as they floated, and they were all but swamped by the charge and leap of a crowd who flung themselves into the water. Then I was left with a great multitude, whose agonized clamor stunned me."

"I felt a mighty convulsive movement, then the sea seemed to flash down on me in one mass, as if the wall of water fell from a high crag. Then I heard a humming noise in my ears, and with a gasp I was up amid a blackened, wriggling sheet of drowning creatures."

"A boat came past me and I struck out frantically. I raised myself to the gunwale. 'Shall I hit his fingers?' said a man. 'No, let him come,' and I laid, sick and dizzy, on the bottom boards of a crowded boat. You know that we were picked up after a nasty time."

The great journalist's friends would have wished that last sentence of his vivid forecast could have applied to his own case, when the mammoth White Star liner's "great multitude" were hurled to their ocean tomb.

U. S. HORSE DECLARED FIRST

Fico, Ridden by Lieutenant Adair, Leads Big Field in Broad Water Jump.

New York.—The United States won the international broad water jump at the horse show and Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt won the Nata challenge cup contest for the third year in succession with his Sir James, thereby taking possession of the trophy, valued at $50. The latter event was confined to amateurs-driving their own horses attached to rigs. William P. Kearney, driving his splendid black stallion, Triumph, was given second prize, the reserve ribbon.

Fico, ridden by Lieut. H. R. Adair of the Tenth United States cavalry, outclassed thirty-five other horses, including several foreign entries, in the first-named event by jumping eighteen feet. Second prize went to Spes, ridden by Lieut. C. H. Labouchere of the Royal Holland Hussars, and the third to "Reveille," exhibited by the United States Mounted Service school.

JURORS ARE GIVEN KISSES

Wife of Defendant in Tacoma Case Embraces Women Who Returned Verdict.

Tacoma, Wash.—Hugs and kisses for three woman jurors and handshaking for the men made up the final picture in the trial of J. Matthew Murray, an attorney charged with defrauding an ignorant client. The attorney's young wife gave the kisses, and they followed a verdict of not guilty, capping the climax of a day in court made sensational by the defendant's personal appeal to the jury, in which he broke down and wept, the women on the jury doing likewise. A second charge, the result of the bar inquiry, is on the docket against Murray.

Babe Born With Gray Hair

Whiteburg, Ky.—Pine Creek, a farming community, is agog over the birth of a baby boy with a full growth of gray hair. Mrs. John H. Craft, wife of a prosperous farmer, is the mother, were as stricken, raving about the ship and engaging in loud lamentations. When he remonstrated with them for allowing the bark to drift aimlessly they threatened his life and he said no more to them until he saw them gathered on the deck, each with a knife in his hand and stomach bared. The captain thereupon realized what was about to happen and came forth from his cabin with a repeating rifle, but the men paid no heed to him and upon a signal each killed himself.

The Helgama, the captain alone alive on board, drifted helplessly, but finally made Haddonsa bay without serious injury; and here Captain Steers succeeded, after some days, in prevailing upon enough natives to man his ship and sail it to this port.

CREW COMMITS HARA-KIRI

Six Japanese Sailors on British Bark Helgama End Lives When Mikado Dies.

Rehavana, Java.—The British bark Helgama, Captain Steers, arrived here from the north Borneo coast manned by an island crew of natives picked up by the skipper after his former crew, six Japanese, had committed hara-kiri upon the deck of the vessel after learning of the death and burial of the mikado.

Captain Steers says that he was proceeding from Palori Island to Zamara on the Borneo coast to complete his cargo of opium when he was halted by the British barkentine Clyde Town, from the master of which he received a number of items of news, among them being the information of the Japanese emperor's death and burial.

COMFORT IN KITCHEN

MODERN INNOVATIONS DO AWAY WITH MUCH LABOR.

Time-Saving Appliances Have Been Introduced and Become General—Fireless Cook Stove Proves Genuine Boon.

Nowadays the men who make things have turned their attention to providing the home, and especially the kitchen, with as efficient labor and time saving appliances and tools as an up-to-date factory can boast. The modern kitchen can be a thing of beauty and a joy even to the woman who works in it, so great have been the improvements made.

Take, for instance, the evolution of the fireless cook stove, a miracle working contrivance which banishes heat, steam, smells and standing over the stove watching the slow, tedious cooking process.

Lined with seamless aluminum, rust-proof, tarnish proof and durable utensils to use with it, and a cunningly contrived steam valve attachment which allows the roasting of meats and fowl, the baking of bread and pies, as well as boiling and stewing. It is indeed a wonderful convenience.

All that is necessary is to heat the soapstone radiators either on a gas or electric stove. Then the food, meats, vegetables, or whatever is to be cooked—cooks just as it is, and it is forgotten until the clock says it should be done.

It probably isn't known that every branch and variety of the cooking art can be successfully employed with the fireless cook stove.

The earlier models of these cookers showed a very cumbersome box that took up a lot of space in a small kitchen, but they have now been reduced to occupy waste space, and some of the later designs show them swinging on hinges under the kitchen table, where they may be pushed out of sight and out of the way while the rest of the meal is being prepared.

Another innovation for kitchen efficiency is a porcelain table with rounded corners and edges, which is seamless, unbreakable and unchippable, and at once becomes a molding board for pie baking or a meat board or bread board for cooking and slicing.

This is far superior to the old wooden table tops which became the "catch-all" for grease and other substances, owing to the surface being scored from knife blades while preparing meals.

The best thing of all about a kitchen table of this kind is that it can be kept spotlessly clean—really hygienically clean—by wiping off with a hot wet cloth.

Squash Pie Without Eggs

Use dry squash (the Hubbard or others of same quality). Cut in suitable pieces and cook in a steamer only just long enough to soften so it can be pressed through a sieve. Too long cooking will make it watery and spoil it for a pie. Now heat milk to the boiling point only and turn immediately on the strained squash—using just enough to make a thick mixture—much thicker than when eggs are used. Add salt and sugar to taste; flavor with ginger or pure extract of lemon is good for a change. In deep plates this pie will take an hour for baking. Remove from oven when it ceases to bubble in center. Oven should be quite hot.

Stock Pot Handy

The stock pot is the mainspring of a well-managed kitchen. In it should be collected bones, poultry, carcasses, trimmings and vegetables, for any scrap is welcome. A piece of shin beef may sometimes be added for extra strength. There will be no lack of soup, gravy and sauces if this is kept constantly going; it is the foundation for them all.

Italian Celery Soup

Melt two rounding tablespoons of butter in a saucepan; add a small onion sliced and two cups of celery cut fine. Cook together until beginning to yellow, cover with water and cook the celery until soft. Press through a sieve and add two cups of cream. Beat the yolks of two eggs with a tablespoonful of milk; add to the soup, carefully keeping it under the boiling point. Serve the soup with croutons and grate a little Parmesan cheese over the top the very last thing before serving.

Apricot-Apple Pie

Line your pie plate as usual with nice crust, put in a scant layer of halved apricots (canned), then fill the pie with sliced apple and finish as usual and bake. The mingled flavor of the two fruits is very nice and appetizing.

TROUBLE IN DINING ROOM

Little Mixup Between Ladies Accepted Philosophically by the Torpidville Landlord.

"At one time yesterday it looked like we were going to have a little trouble here in the dining room, but it didn't come to nothin' much," related the landlord of the Torpidville tavern. "Maxine and Sybil, the young ladies that are waitin' table, got to squabblin' about a pint of etiquette, or the merits of their respective fellers, or something that-a-way, as ladies is everlastin' doin'; and Sybil, I reckon it was, told Maxine, or mebbe Maxine told Sybil—anyhow, one told the other that she wasn't no better than she ort to be. And Maxine, or Sybil, whichever it was, got sorter lussy about it, and answered that she was too, and she didn't care who knew it! And then they kind o' tied in on each other and went 'round and 'round as it were, and it took 'em quite a while after it was over to wash the ketchup and broken glass out of their coffers, as they call their hair. But that's all it amounted to, and there's no use in firin' 'em, for ladies will be ladies and there ain't no help-for-it!"

NEVER TIRES

Of the Food That Restored Her to Health.

"Something was making me ill and I didn't know the cause," writes a Colo. young lady. "For two years I was thin and sickly, suffering from indigestion and inflammatory rheumatism."

"I had tried different kinds of diet, and many of the remedies recommended, but got no better."

"Finally, Mother suggested that I try Grape-Nuts, and I began at once, eating it with a little cream or milk. A change for the better began at once."

"To-day I am well and am gaining weight and strength all the time. I've gained 10 lbs. in the last five weeks and do not suffer any more from indigestion, and the rheumatism is all gone."

"I know it is to Grape-Nuts alone that I owe my restored health. I still eat the food twice a day and never tire of it." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

The flavor of Grape-Nuts is peculiar to itself. It is neutral, not too sweet and has an agreeable, healthful quality that never grows tiresome.

One of the sources of rheumatism is from overloading the system with acid material, the result of imperfect digestion and assimilation.

As soon as improper food is abandoned and Grape-Nuts is taken regularly, digestion is made strong, the organs do their work of building up good red blood cells and of carrying away the excess of disease-making material from the system.

The result is a certain and steady return to normal health and mental activity. "There's a reason." Read the little book, "The Road to Well-ville," in pkgs.

PRUSSIA TO TAX BACHELORS

All Getting $750 a Year Up Will Be Specially Assessed for Remaining Single.

Berlin.—The Prussian diet is now giving its formal official consideration to a project for taxing bachelors. The original bill has been amended so as to make the tax effective only in the case of unmarried men whose income exceeds $750 a year.

Such men will be called upon in case the bill passes to pay a tax of from ten to twenty per cent higher than married men with corresponding incomes.

The bachelor tax will take the form of an income sur-tax. The idea of the legislators who are backing the bill is that men who have to support wives or children ought not, in justice, be compelled to pay as much toward the support of the state as men who are leading the care-free, irresponsible lives of bachelors.

The project is favored by the conservatives of the diet and has every prospect of becoming a law.

SCHOOL NOTES

Miss Brockway of Picacho spent her holidays at Fort Stanton.

Miss Edith Ticknor of Hope school, Corona, spent the holidays with the home folks at Aneho Corona school had a very pleasant program at the entertainment before Christmas. One week of holidays was given the pupils.

Mrs. Winnie Carson of the local school was ill on her returned from Columbus, N. M., her home. Mrs. Gumm substituted in her room.

Miss Covington and Dorothy Stevens returned from Alamogordo and El Paso where they enjoyed the brief vacation.

Mrs. G. de Nilsson spent several days in Carrizozo the past week. One day was devoted to examination on professional work that she has been taking by correspondence.

Mrs. Fannie Jones who has been teaching at Nogal writes that she is now located in Hermosa where every view brings mountains or plains that are white with snow.

All of the pupils of the Carrizozo school are sorry to hear of the accident of Earl Haykey who was very badly burned. Last report is that he is better.

The mid-winter examination, January 10-11, will begin at eight o'clock at the Carrizozo school house. Paper and ink will be furnished.

S. H. Moss teacher at Arabela was a town visitor during the vacation. He reports the school at Arabela and Blue Water doing well. Both districts ask for longer terms than were contracted by Mr. and Mrs. Moss.

LINCOLN COUNTY NOTES
CAPITAN MURMURS.
(Too late for last week)

Capitan is on the map to stay.
Between twenty-five and thirty-families have located homes in the territory tributary to Capitan within the past six months.

Mrs. Charles C. Belknap of Os-curo is visiting Mr. Belknap who is the local agent of the E. P. & S.
W. system at this place.

The local merchants report a larger Christmas trade than ever before in the history of the town, which speaks well for the country.

Albert H. Davsey and Robert F.
Barton each filed on 320 acres of Lincoln county's fertile soil near Richardson this week.

John W. Owen, former sheriff of this county and political prototype of T. R. the "broncho buster," will spend Christmas with his friends in Capitan.

The Fisher Lumber Company is delivering a large consignment of lumber to the public health and Marine Hospital Service at the Ft.
Stanton sanatorium this week.

Capitan will in all probability have an up-to-date newspaper before the end of January. A Mr.
Daniel of Texline, Texas, having made preparations to start one.

W. H. Evans with his family arrived on Monday's train from Childress, Texas, and moved onto their homestead ten miles southwest of Capitan. Mr. Evans came here last October and filed on his land, and now has brought his family and will remain and grow up with the country.

Watt Gilmore, Roland Box, Marshal West, Henry Avent, Dave Parker and Monroe Howard all successful farmers of the Mesa county south of Capitan were doing their trading in Capitan holiday week.

The above is only a partial list of the prosperous folks from that section, as your correspondent failed to remember the others.

Mrs. W. H. Fisher who is spending the winter at Corpus Christi, Texas, writes that she has not seen the sun for a week, and while the people living in that locality think nothing unusual of such weather, Mrs. Fisher having resided in the "Sunshine State," for several years thinks it very strange and disagreeable.

Doctor J. W. Laws of Lincoln and Dr. D. R. Scott of Capitan performed an operation for appendicitis, on the son of Carl Warnock of Nogal last Tuesday. The patient is now about able to return to his home on the flats, the operation having been entirely successful if not attended with any bad results.
These physicians has shown great skill in a number of like operations performed by them in the past.

Frank Zumwalt met with a very bad accident last Thursday, resulting in a broken leg. While driving a bunch of cattle through town his horse fell in some way that caught
Mr. Zumwalt's leg under him breaking that member below the knee.
The fracture was set by C. D. Wilson, who was near at hand and Mr.
Zumwalt was taken to his home
four miles north of town.

Dr. D. R. Scott was called to Sayers, Crockett's ranch five miles west of Capitan Thursday morning to attend the injuries resulting to one of Mr. Crockett's little boys who was kicked by a horse. The doctor found that the child's right leg was broken above the knee and the bones protruding through the flesh. He set the broken bones and made the little sufferer as comfortable as possible.

NOTICE OF CONTEST

Department of the Interior,

U. S. Land Office

Roswell, N. M., December 9, 1912

To E. Deschand of Osuro, N. M. Contestee:

You are hereby notified that Tom N. Moody, who gives Osuro, N. M. as his post-office address, did on November 22, 1912 file in this office his duly corroborated application to contest and secure the cancellation of your H. E. Serial No. 014200 made February 29, 1908, for S. E. 1/4 Section 10, Twp. 9, E, Range 9 E, N. M. P. Meridian, and as grounds for his contest he alleges that E. Deschand is not known to any person in this vicinity, and that he has not been a resident upon said land for three years last past. There is no house on the claim nor any indication of any settlement in any manner or form.

You are, therefore, further notified that the said allegations will be taken by this office as having been confessed by you, and your said entry will be canceled thereunto without your further right to be heard therein, either before this office or on appeal, if you fail to file in this office within twenty days after the FOURTH publication of this notice, as shown below, your answer, under oath, specifically meeting and responding to these allegations of contest, or if you fail within that time to file in this office due proof that you have served a copy of your answer on the said contestant either in person or by registered mail. If this service is made to the contestant in person, proof of such service must be either the said contestant's written acknowledgment of his receipt of the copy, showing the date of its receipt, or the affidavit of the person by whom the delivery was made stating when and where the copy was delivered; if made by registered mail, proof of such service must consist of the affidavit of the person by whom the copy was mailed stating when and the post office to which it was mailed, and this affidavit must be accompanied by the postmaster's receipt for the letter.

You should state in your answer the name of the post office to which you desire future notices to be sent to you.

Notice the Ironing on Studebaker Gears Proper ironing of Studebaker gears gives them strength where needed.

Axles, hounds and bolsters are firmly held together by heavy iron clips supplemented by dowel or Key pin—no chance for parts racking or becoming loose and out of line—axles are trussed and hounds are securely braced—that's why Studebaker gears carry loads that would crush other wagon gears.

There's a Studebaker on our floor that will "show you" It will pay you to see it.
