STATE'S OUTPUT OF METAL ON INCREASE

More Than 33 Million Dollars Worth of Metals Produced in New Mexico During 1917.

BIGGEST GAIN IN OUTPUT OVER 1915 IS IN COPPER

The output of New Mexico mines for eleven months of 1916, with an estimate for December, as reported by the United States Geological Survey, Department of the Interior, indicates a yield of $1,350,000 in gold, 1,800,000 ounces of silver, 7,100,000 pounds of lead, 91,400,000 pounds of copper, and 35,500,000 pounds of zinc, valued in all at $33,469,400 as compared with a total value in 1915, for the same metals of $19,279,468.

The Mogollon district, Socorro county, continued to be the most productive district in New Mexico in the output of gold and silver. There was a great deal of development work in this district in 1916, but the yield decreased appreciably. The Socorro and Mogollon mines were active. All the ore was milled in the district by concentration, sliming, and agitation and percolation in cyanide solution, the bulk of the product being cyanide precipitates the balance being high grade gold-silver concentrates. The Elizabethtown district, Colfax county, from the Aztec mine alone, was also a very large producer of metallic gold, gold bullion, and gold concentrates.

The Cossak cyanidation mill in the Bland district, Sandoval county, closed in December 1915 was started up again in the spring of 1915, and contributed a considerable yield of silver-gold bullion. Gold bullion continued to be produced at the amalgamation mill, on the North and South Homestake mines, at White Oaks Lincoln county. The Lordsburg district, Grant county, which has also been steadily increasing its shipments of siliceous gold and silver bearing copper and dry ores, again greatly increased its tonnage shipped. The copper concentrates of the Chino Copper company containing as they do small quantities of gold, contributed to the gold yield. The continued activity of the mines and matte smelter, at San Pedro, Santa Fe county, also added an increased quantity of gold to the New Mexico yield. Shipments of copper ores from the Jarilla district, Otero county, carried some gold.

The principal metal produced in New Mexico is copper, and since 1910 the yield has been chiefly from the Chino Copper company low grade copper deposits at Santa Rita. The ore is milled at Hurley in a large concentration plant. During 1916 the largest tonnage in the history of the company was treated and the gross output was 75,500,000 pounds. The Burro

Mountain Copper company's new concentrator began operations in April and started running at full capacity June 1, 1916. Much development work has been done at this property and the reserves are sufficient to supply the mill for years. The Santa Fe Gold and Copper company's 125-ton matting plant, at San Pedro, added a considerable quantity of copper to the output. Copper ores were also shipped from the Organ Mountains district, Dona Ana county, where the Phelps-Dodge company has secured a large area which it has been developing during 1917. This district will produce all five metals. A large tonnage of low grade copper ore with calcite gangue was shipped from the Apache mine, Hachita.

The yield of lead showed an appreciable increase. Lead ores were shipped from the Central, San Simon and Pintos Altos districts, Grant county, and Cooks Peak and Victorio districts, Luna county. Considerable tonnage of lead carbonate ore was shipped from Kelly, Socorro county, the principal producing mines were the Kelley, Graphic, and Juanita. The Ozark mill was operated continuously up to the fire in August. The Kelly magnetic mill was operated from May throughout the year.

At Hanover, zinc carbonate ores, were shipped from the Hanover mines and others, and from June on, zinc sulphide concentrates were shipped from the Hanover magnetic separation mill, at Pinos Altos, was operated steadily. A mill was erected in the revived Steeplecock district, Grant county, and some shipments were made. Zinc carbonate ores were shipped from the Magdalena, Hanover, Cook Peak, Florida Mountains, Tres Hermanas and Pinos Altos districts. Shipments of zinc ore and concentrates from New Mexico were 73,900 tons of 30.15 percent grade, as compared with 41,852 tons of 36 percent in 1915.

Hobbs Buys Partner's Interest in Grocery Store

Austin Patty last week disposed of his interest in the Patty & Hobbs grocery and meat market to his partner, W. L. Hobbs, who will henceforth conduct the business. Mr. Hobbs assumed control January 1st. Friends of Mr. Patty will be pleased to learn that he will remain in Carrizozo, at least for the winter, and for the next few months will still be found behind the counters of this popular store and market. Mr. Patty wishes to thank all those who have patronized the firm in the past and hopes to have the pleasure of meeting all his old friends and customers at the old stand where he will be prepared to wait on them in the same courteous and obliging manner that has characterized his previous connection with the firm.

RECALLING THE 80'S IN LINCOLN COUNTY

Writer's Comparison of Two Christmases Shows Quite a Contrast in 36 Year's of Time.

LINCOLN COUNTY THEN AS LARGE AS KANSAS STATE

Block Ranch, Dec. 25, 1916. Christmas in 1916 in little old Lincoln county! How different from a Christmas spent at White Oaks in 1880, and another spent at the Jones ranch on Seven Rivers in 1881! 36 years have passed and gone, but that same spirit of good cheer remains—even on Gov. W. C. McDonald's Block cattle ranch, where white-faced cattle roam as of yore, on a thousand hills, and where the man with the hoe is fast crowding these same white-faced cow brutes to the top of the hills.

Lincoln county of today is not what it was 33 years ago. Then she had 150 miles square of free range, and not more than ten cow brutes to the square mile. Then she only had two towns—Lincoln, the county seat, and White Oaks, a mining camp of 1000 souls. Within her borders were, also, the most daring young outlaw of the age, "Billy the Kid," and one of the most fearless law-officers, Pat Garrett, who ever trolled a shoe leather. In those days Lincoln county was almost as large as the state of Kansas. Within her then borders are now located the city of Roswell, Alamogordo, Carlsbad, Artesia, Dexter, Portales, Fort Sumner, Texico, Lovington, Carrizozo, Capitan, Corona and Tularosa. The latter was a village, and so was Roswell in the early '80's but the others were not on the map at that time.

That prince of cooks, Jack Hondo, made Christmas of 1916 come one day ahead of time by serving the turkey dinner on Christmas eve. And you can bet your bottom dollar it was some dinner. Everything one wish for was on the table. It was a feast for the gods and then some. Around the table sat Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Taylor and their little daughter, Ruby, and her chum, little Miss Long. Then there were Mr. and Mrs. John Mocho and baby girl and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Harber and their three kiddies.

The Block boys who dug into into the fat turkey and chickens were Frank Ellis, "Red" Dale, Tom Wilders and Jim Woodland, alias Jim Redman. Could you have seen the pile of turkey bones on the writer's plate you would know he, also, was present. During the afternoon Jim Woodland and the writer harked back to the hurrah days of White Oaks when we were chums together. Now that Mr. Hodo's Christmas dinner has passed and gone, and the genuine eye has come, we are fixing to take another shot at Christmas turkey. Mr. and Mrs. Taylor and daughter and Mr. Hodo go to Capitan to sample Mrs. Julian's egg-nog and dinner, while the writer will hike down to the U. S. Forest Ranger Station, Mr. and Mrs. Parks' cozy home, to fill up again. Thus, will this sanctified Christmas day pass into oblivion so far as a few of us mortals are concerned.—"Dull Knife" in Capitan Mountaineer.

Miss Adams Entertains at a New Year's Party

Most attractive in every respect was the bunco party given Monday afternoon by the Misses Erva Adams and Lorina Haley, at the Adams home. First prizes were awarded Miss Cora Cole and Wayne Hamilton. Christmas colors were carried out in the decoration of the rooms. Delicious refreshments were served.

Those present were—Misses Elsie and Viola Reynolds, Alma and Carrie Roberts, Willie Riley, Florence McKnight, Addie Mae Ferguson, Harriette Kimbell, Cora Cole, Pearl Harris, Maud Woods and Claire Adams and Messrs. Harry, John and Willie Gallacher, Wayne and Mayo Hamilton, Morgan Riley, Emuel Anderson, Tom Fitzpatrick, H. C. Franklin, Henry Lutz, Carleton Mintzer, Ernest Cole, Dewey Herron, Roy Baird and Louis Adams.

Six O'clock Dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira O. Wetmore entertained at a 6 o'clock dinner, at the Gurney hotel, New Year's day. Covers were laid for six. Hand painted place cards adorned each plate and a splendidly appointed dinner was served. The guests were, Dr. and Mrs. Lucas and Mr. and Mrs. John E. Bell.

Heart Party.

Last Friday, December 29th, Mrs. Frank Miller, assisted by Mesdames Will Laughroy and Lorene Shulda, entertained with a heart party in honor of Miss Florence McKnight. Miss Erva Adams won first prize and Miss Harriette Kimbell the booby prize. A most delightful afternoon was spent.

Drizzling Rain Brings Mud to Carrizozo and County

The first rain of the season fell over this section of the country Saturday afternoon and night when a shower of snow which started about twelve o'clock quickly turned into a sharp drizzling rain. It is estimated that the precipitation amounted to about an inch which thoroughly soaked into old Mother Earth, leaving the surface in a state which called mud chains into service once more.

SAYS COUNTY DIVISION IS NOT PRACTICAL

Another East-Sider Opposes Plan to Create New County of Eastern Portion of Lincoln.

SUGGESTS UNITY AND ALL BOOST FOR GOOD ROADS

Dr. S. M. Johnson, of Ruidoso, was in Carrizozo Tuesday on business. Dr. Johnson is another one of the East Siders who is against the movement to divide Lincoln county. He points out that one-third of the taxes are paid by the railroad company and that the new county which is being advocated would have no railway line to help them support the county government and thus the taxation on the people of the proposed new county would be much heavier than it now is.

Dr. Johnson suggests that instead of the division that there be unity of action and that all pull together and construct a system of good roads leading to the county seat. This can be done by voting for the bond issue for roads. If the bond election carries, it will provide the money, dollar for dollar, for the roads the Federal government will be expected to help build. This will release a considerable amount of the general road funds of the county to apply to other needed roads, so that in a year or two, by united effort, every community in the county could be connected with the county seat by a good road.

Sermon to Boys and Girls is Feature at Methodist

According to announcement of Rev. Arthur Marston, pastor of the Methodist church, one Sunday in each month will be devoted to a special service for the boys and girls. Last Sunday was the first under the new arrangement and Rev. Marston's sermon to the little men and little women was highly enjoyed and promises to become a very popular feature during the coming months. All the Sunday school classes remained for the church services.

Escaped Lincoln Prisoner Returns to Penitentiary

Santa Fe, Dec. 31.—Lorenzo Torres, reported to have escaped from the Tijeras canyon road camp, walked 50 miles to the New Mexico penitentiary thru snow. Torres said relations were not congenial between himself and another prisoner in the road camp. Torres was cold, hungry and tired when he reached the penitentiary today. He is 25 years old and is serving a short sentence for larceny of cattle, imposed by the court of Lincoln county.

Santa Fe, Dec. 31.—Lorenzo Torres, reported to have escaped from the Tijeras canyon road camp, walked 50 miles to the New Mexico penitentiary thru snow. Torres said relations were not congenial between himself and another prisoner in the road camp. Torres was cold, hungry and tired when he reached the penitentiary today. He is 25 years old and is serving a short sentence for larceny of cattle, imposed by the court of Lincoln county.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

NEW JUVENILE HEROES.

Buffalo Bill has been superseded as a hero of boys' fiction by Captain Koenig. "Deadwood Dick" furnishes not nearly so much excitement and interest for a juvenile reader as the captain of a Zeppelin. The master of a "tank" crawling its way over a hill and vale has the inside track over any Captain Cutlass of the modern narrative.

There in substance are the discoveries of Professor Stockton Baker, who has learned that the narratives of the reign of piracy on the high seas and the wild west Indian days of America have been displaced among the youthful readers.

The boys no longer are interested in the grotesque and distorted tales of Captain Kidd or "Wau Bill." There are enough real heroes created every day out of the news to lend them new interest and enthusiasm for their reading and playing. Then when they find these personages placed between the pasteboard covers, they seize with avidity the newer contributions.

Truly the present age has offered more heroes in reality than the fictions have ever before been able to suggest in fancy. In such an age of actually "delivering the goods" it is not strange that the boys should find their greatest pleasure in the present rather than the past.

News note says in darkest Africa an umbrella may be exchanged for a girl; but, judging from pictures of African belles we have seen, the umbrella would be badly needed as a windshield.

A kind-hearted man over at Amarillo agreed to impersonate Santa Claus for a business firm in that city and distribute gifts to the children. His arrival by train had been widely advertised, and a great crowd of boys and girls were at the station to greet him. The train was two hours late and the children grew restless, and to show their displeasure at having to wait, when Santa Claus did finally step from the train he was pelted with snowballs; large, hard, icy snowballs. Now he has joined the society for the suppression of fake Santa Clauses, of which we are a charter member, having impersonated the saint once with much the same result.

THE NATION'S SEED BED.

A contented rural population is not only the measure of our nation's strength, and assurance of its peace when there should be peace, and a resource of courage when peace would be cowardice, but it is the nursery of the great leaders who have made this country what it is.

Washington was born and lived in the country.

Jefferson was a farmer.

Henry Clay rode his horse to mill through the slashes.

Webster dreamed amid the solitude of Marshfield.

Lincoln was a rail splitter.

Ben Hill walked between the handles of the plow.

Brown peddled barefoot the product of his patch.

Stevens found immortality under the trees of his country home.

Tooms and Cobb and Calhoun were country gentlemen, and, afar from cities' maddening strife, established the greatness that is the heritage of their people. The cities produced very few leaders. Almost every great man in our history formed character in the leisure and deliberations of our village or country life, and drew his strength from the drugs of the earth even as a child draws his from his mother's breast.

You can scarcely blame Carrizozo and Lincoln county for blowing their own horns when you consider how well they sound.

Personally, we have no animosity against Santa Claus, but, as usual Christmas morning our stocking looked as if he was mad at it the night before.

Newspaper men don't escape many of the ills of life, but there is one exception—they know about the income tax only from what they have heard.

Man who wrote "Procrastination is the Thief of Time" didn't invent the alarm clock; so there's that much to his credit. Probably the only reason he didn't was because he was so plagued with insomnia that he had to write poetry about it.

One difference between an editor and a preacher is that a preacher gets a "shower" occasionally while an editor gets only thunder.

HOW LADIES "CUSS."

A very nice lady was speaking in our presence a few days ago of the wickedness and profanity of some of our boys and in the course of her conversation used the word "Gee" a number of times. It never occurred to her that this was taking the Lord's name in vain, and the chances are that hardly any of the people who indulge in this sugar-coated profanity have any idea that they are swearing. But "Gee" is nothing more than a mild term of "Jesus" started by some one who was wicked enough but not brave enough to say it. "Dear Me" comes from the Latin "Deo Meo" (My God); "For Goodness Sake" is only for "For God's Sake." "Drat It" is "God Rot It." "Judas Priest" and "Jimmie Christmas" or "Jesus Christ" "Golly," "Glory," etc., are only corruptions of God.

WHILE good storekeeping demands clean stocks at all times, yet this is particularly true at the close of the business year. So true, in fact, that sharp losses are frequently taken to dispose of all odd lots, broken lines, discontinued numbers, etc. And the public, as well as ourselves, gain immeasurably by the compelled reductions. Economical shoppers will find it to their advantage to shop while these special low prices prevail at this store. Exceptionally good values await you throughout the house. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. Mr. Kelley is well known here, having for some time been associated with his father and brother, E. R. and T. E.
