COUNCIL NARROWING DOWN TO BASE OF BUSINESS LINES

First Reading Toward Passage of Ordinances Recommended is Made at Monday Night's Session.

MAIN OBJECT IS A BETTER CARRIZOZO

The council met at the courthouse Monday night in adjourned session, roll call revealing the presence of Trustees Sager, Ziegler, Campbell, Vega and Mayor Lutz. Considerable business was laid over until future dates on account of absence of legal advice the council not wishing to proceed in any matters without first knowing they were on the right

Bids for the village printing were opened and read, the bid of the Carrizozo Outlook being 5 per cent below the other bid submitted. On motion of Councilman Campbell the matter of awarding the contract was tabled until next meeting.

The matter of electing a city treasurer came before the body and was discussed. Councilman Ziegler stating that he did not think there need be much worry over this matter as he believed either of the local banks would gladly act as custodian of the city's funds free of charge.

The matter of street lights was referred to a committee composed of Councilmen Sager and Campbell and Mayor Lutz, and the committee directed to report at next meeting as to cost of installation and other matters pertaining thereto.

The first reading of ordinances recommended was made by the clerk. These numbered about fifteen and covered the following: Exhibition of shows, dog licenses stray animals, tax levy, nuisances, sanitation, misdemeanors and breaches of the public peace, speed limit, curfew, riding bicycles upon the sidewalk, spitting in public places, occupation tax, vagrancy and other necessary prompt legislation. After the reading of the proposed ordinances the council adjourned to meet again next Monday night.

Farley Delivers Address

R. E. Farley, of the State Temparance League came down from Albuquerque last Sunday and delivered lectures upon the subject of prohibition at the Methodist church at 11 a. m. and 3 p. m., and at the Baptist church at 7:30 p. m. Mr. Farley's talks were said to be very interesting and were enjoyed by a fair sized audience.

Will Stock Streams

Theodore Rounault, Jr., of Las Cruces, recently appointed state game warden, is planning to to stock all New Mexico mountain streams this year with trout and place a large supply of perch, black bass, and croppies in the reservoir at Elephant Butte. Mr. Rounault says that he expects to enforce the game laws strenuously in an effort to put an end to the slaughter of deer, antelope, mountain sheep, quail and other game. He states further that the depradations of coyotes, mountain lions, wolves, and the like have been cutting down the herds of dee and antelope in New Mexico even to a greater extent than the activity of hunters.

Wetmores Return

Mr. and Mrs. Ira O. Wetmore returned Monday night from Santa Fe where they had been during the past two months, Mr. Wetmore, who is the represenative from Lincoln county, being there to attend the regular session of the state legislature which adjourned Saturday.

Minstrel Was Success

The minstrel pulled off last Friday by the boys and girls of the high school was a complete success in every way and both performances—3 p. m. and 8 p. m.—enjoyed a liberal patronage. Practically all the boys and girls of the high school were in the caste and without exception each acquitted themselves in excellent style. Professor Franklin acted as interlocutor and a number of good songs and jokes were served to appreciative audiences. A one-act comedy, entitled, "A Suffrage Convention," in black face art was put on by the girls and elicited no small amount of praise.

Employes With Wilson

423 employes of the El Paso & Southwestern railway who reside in El Paso have signed a communication addressed to President Wilson advising him that they approve of his determination to protect American lives and property on the high seas. This movement was initiated by General Manager G. F. Hawks, and it is stated that many more of the employes of the road have expressed regrets that they were not given an opportunity to sign the petition before it was sent to the president.

Rev. J. M. Gardner will preach at Capitan Tuesday, March 20th; Lincoln Wednesday, March 21st; Ft. Stanton Thursday, March 22.

LINCOLN COUNTY SCENE OF EXCITING EARLY DAY EVENTS

By Mrs. Benj. F. Nabours. (Albuquerque Herald.)

The historic old courthouse at the now peaceful little town of Lincoln, which is about sixty miles west of Roswell is perhaps better known and more widely celebrated as the center of stirring events and bloody battles and the spot where more bad men lost their lives with their boots on than any other part of New Mexico.

The first of these important events was the "Harrold War," the principal scenes of which were enacted in or about Lincoln.

It was in general a fued based upon race hatred. The story of the war in brief is as follows: In 1873 a family of five brothers, named Harrold, came from Lampasas county, Texas, bringing their families and stock with them, and settled on the Ruidoso about 10 miles from Lincoln.

One day while on a trip to Lincoln one of the boys, Ben, with two other white men got to drinking and brandishing their guns, which some Mexican deputies took away from them. This so angered the white men that they procured more guns and in the fight which followed the 3 Americans and one Mexican were killed. When Ben's brothers heard of this, they came to Lincoln and tried to have the Mexicans prosecuted, but as the Mexicans had only done their duty, they failed in that way, so took out their revenge on them by killing every Mexican they met. The Mexicans gave back the same thing, and many murders were committed until finally the Harrold brothers returned to Texas, where they all met violent ends.

This ended what was known as the Harrold war, but the ill feeling still slumbered for a period of about two years, when what was termed the "Lincoln county war" broke out afresh, and between the years of 1875 and 1882, Lincoln county was probably the bloodiest spot in the United States, considering its population.

Here it was that the bloody fued between the two parties of cattlemen began in the spring of 1876. The two parties were headed, one by John S. Chisum, whose attorney, Alex McSwain, was really the fighting head of this faction, and the other by Dolan and Riley. These two firms were bitter rivals to secure the contracts to furnish both cattle and other supplies to Fort Stanton, then a military post, now a government hospital for marine consumptives, 9 miles southwest of Lincoln. Each of these factions accused the other of stealing the other's cattle with which to furnish Fort Stanton with beef. Naturally the majority of the residents of the whole county were drawn to declare sides with one or the other. Numerous bad men were hired to do the gun work for these two factions.

Following is a short extract from "The History of New Mexico," which explains in brief the cause of the Lincoln county war. Alexander McSwain, who headed the faction of which Mr. Coe was a partisan, came to Lincoln about 1870, practiced law for several years and in 1873 established a partnership with John H. Tungstel in the mercantile, banking and ranch business at Lincoln, in the building now occupied by J. J. Jaffa & Co. McSwain also became attorney for John S. Chisum, the cattle king of the Pecos river, who, at this time had about 70,000 head of cattle on the range.

"Colonel Emil Fritz and Major L. G. Murphy had been post traders at Fort Stanton until the government turned out the traders and then about 1867 or '68 they came to Lincoln and continued their mercantile partnership in the building later used as a courthouse. While on a trip to Germany, Colonel Fritz died and a short time afterward, J. J. Dolan and John Riley succeeded to the firm of L. G. Murphy & Co., tho Murphy remained in the firm as silent partner.

"These two firms were bitter rivals for the contracts to supply the government posts with cattle and other supplies. The rivalry was carried on both above and below board and doubtless both sides resorted to questionable means of obtaining advantage, but it became rather generally understood that a great many of the cattle that were being turned in by the firm of Dolan & Riley were stolen cattle picked out from the —— brand herds then owned and run by John Chisum. The latter, with his attorney, McSwain, prosecuted a number of persons for the larceny of these cattle.

"This is thought to have been the entering wedge which separated the people of Lincoln county into two contending factions.

"About a year before the first act of hostility in the war McSwain, acting as attorney for Mrs. Scholan, sister of Colonel Emil Fritz, collected an insurance policy on the life of her deceased brother. McSwain, so it is alleged, had previously agreed with the sister to collect the policy at his own expense and was then to retain a certain percent of the proceeds.

"He went to New York at his own expense and compromised the case with the insurance company which had theretofore refused to pay a dollar. On his return he offered to turn over to Mrs. Scholan, as substantiated by several witnesses, the entire amount collected by him less his percentage as attorney.

"Mrs. Sholan, acting under advice of Murphy, Dolan and Riley, refused to accept this money and demanded the entire collection less the personal expenses. McSwain refused and Mrs. Scholan commenced legal action to recover the insurance money. In this suit an attachment was levied on the mercantile firm of Tungstel & McSwain and upon all the cattle on the ranch owned by Tungstel on the Felix river in Lincoln county.

"When the deputy sheriff and his posse arrived at the ranch to serve the writ they found there John H. Tungstel, Richard Brewer his foreman and William H. Bonney, later famous as Billy the Kid. Mr. Coe states that the parties were friendly while at the ranch and that after levying the attachment on the cattle the deputy sheriff permitted Tungstel, Brewer and Bonney to set off for town with all the ranch horses. When about twenty miles from the ranch the latter party discovered a bunch of turkeys in what is now known as Tungstel canyon and stopped to hunt them. While hunting the sheriff's force came upon them. According to the statement of Brewer and Bonney, Tungstel rode toward the possee. Arriving within 15 to 20 feet they ordered him to throw up his hands which he did, dropping his gun and everything, and they shot him while his hands were over his head.—Continued next week.

MUCH ENTHUSIASM SHOWN OVER HIGH SCHOOL POSSIBLITY

Subject is Prominently Mentioned at Meeting of Parent-Teachers' Association Last Monday Night.

MUSICAL SELECTIONS GREATLY ENJOYED

The Carrizozo Parent-Teachers Association, or Patronss' Club of the local schools, held their monthly meeting at the Crystal theatre Monday night at which time considerable discussion and favorable mention was made of the Wetmore bill which would enable Carrizozo to get a full and accredited high school in the near future.

One feature of the evening was a paper by Principal Mrs. Ethel V. Jewett of the high school in which she plainly set forth the existing conditions of the local high school department. This was followed by an able address by County Superintendent J. E. Koonce. Attorney W. C. Merchant led a general discussion and several interesting impromptu talks were made by different members of the audience.

Vocal duets by Mrs. Stanley Squier and Miss Garvin, accompanied by Mrs. McCurdy, were excellently rendered and highly enjoyed. Selections by the male quartet, composed of Rev. Arthur Marston, R. T. Cribb, H. C. Franklin and Professor McCurdy, and a very commendable piano solo by George Ferguson completed the musical program for the evening. The attendance, although not of large proportions, was very enthusiastic.

ORIGIN OF ST. PATRICK'S DAY.

This day is supposed to have been celebrated by the Irish since 1092 A. D. Shamrock is worn for the following reason: When the saint preached the gospel he illustrated the doctrine of the Trinity by showing them the tri-foil or 3-leaved Shamrock. St. Patrick was born in Wales in the year 373 A. D. His original name was Maenwyn, the name of Patricius was given him by Pope Celestine by whom he was sent to convert the Irish. There is an ancient tradition that not only did he introduce Christianity but he also drove the snakes out of Ireland.

The price of radium has fallen until it is now only $36,000 per gram. At this rate a pound of it can be purchased for $3,214,080,000 and we shall buy a cigar box full along about next Monday—Monday being weekly pay day.

A California farmer says the carrot has its uses, however much we may scorn it. Sure. The carrot is fully as useful as the "h" in "rhetoric."

The German government, caught in an attempt to have Mexico and Japan attack the United States, calmly admits its perfidy and hypocrisy, and pleads justification. The kaiser's government, while falsely pretending friendship for the United States, was secretly attempting to have it attacked and dismembered, and, caught red handed, regrets only that it has been caught, and shows a total loss of honor by pleading justification. A government so false and so savage deserves dismemberment for itself.

It is to be hoped that the states which are misrepresented by the 12 filibustering friends of Germany in the senate will take seriously President Wilson's classification of them, as "representing nobody but themselves." They should be retired to private life, including LaFollette, who of late years has degenerated from a reformer and a progressive into a scold and an obstructionist. Their action lacked both sanity and patriotism and the sooner they are placed in well earned obscurity the better.

If there were a foreign army landed on the shores of America, doubtless "Baking Powder Bill" Stone, who unfortunately is at the head of the senate committee of foreign affairs, and William J. Bryan, who is preparing to push his "peace at any price" propaganda over the chautauqua circuit at $250 a day the coming season, would still be spouting eloquence to embarrass the president in his efforts to defend the country. All such tories as these ought to be interned before the situation gets more acute.

Did British-Americans hang back on the numerous occasions when the United States has been embroiled with Great Britain? Not a bit of it. Are German-Americans going to hang back because the foreign power we are in controversy with happens to be Germany? Again, not a bit of it. We are all keeping house together in the American republic, and all assailants of our rights look alike to all of us when it comes to the point of paramount loyalty to our own flag and country.

Having recently found deserving Democrats for the postoffices of New York and Chicago, the president contemplates putting all the postmasters under the classified civil service rule.

The Nobel prize for peace will not be given this year. Like the dove of peace, it has gone temporarily into cold storage.

"There will be no rise in stogies," protests a contemporary. Then why has cabbage gone up?

Care in Tuberculosis.

Living with a case of tuberculosis is not particularly dangerous if the patient and those around him will exercise proper care. Sputum cups or paper napkins should be used for all discharges of the nose and throat, as well as for matter coughed up from the lungs. Handkerchiefs should not be used, since it is an expensive matter to destroy them, and washing them is not safe unless the soiled handkerchief is boiled immediately after use.

Safeguarding the Nation's Money.

The bureau of engraving and printing, at Washington, D. C., where all paper money, postage and revenue stamps and valuable documents are printed, is one of the most carefully guarded buildings in the world. It is protected by some of the most modern electrical burglar alarms, and 60 armed night watchmen patrol the plant.—Popular Science Monthly.

Not Our Truth.

The truth which another man has won from nature or from life is not our truth until we have lived it. Only that becames real or helpful to any man which has cost the sweat of his brow, the effort of his brain, or the anguish of his soul. He who would be wise must daily earn his wisdom.—David Starr Jordan.

Always Conscious of Wrong.

To act is easy, to think is hard; to act according to our thought is troublesome. No one knows what he is doing while he acts aright, but of what is wrong we are always conscious.

Adds to the Difficulties.

Another thing that upsets the equilibrium of the situation is that there are so many men who would rather spend ten hours at night trying to win $1.45 at poker than to spend eight hours a day working for a $10 note.

An Arab Custom.

The Arabian head-dress is really a Manchester table cover folded diagonally. The Arabs do not take their headcloth off when they enter a house. They uncover their feet instead. The Arabs do a number of other things contrary to our custom. They shave their heads but not their faces. When they beckon to a person to come to them, they do not turn their fingers upwards as we do. No, they turn them down, and then the Arab knows that he is wanted.

One or T'other.

A man believed to be a burglar was arrested in New York and in his possession was found a map giving the situation and description of numerous country residences of prominent New Yorkers. If not a burglar, then perhaps a social climber?

Playing Possum.

When caught, the possum will feign death, all the while looking out of the corner of an eye, watching an opportunity to escape. And from this comes the well-known expression, "playing possum." It should be said, however, if one is lucky enough to get a Kentucky dressed possum in the market, there is no danger of its escaping. It has then arrived at a period in its career when possum play has ended.

Good Cider.

Many persons who have orchards use any and all kinds of apples both for cider and vinegar; but if one is at all particular about "quality" of such things, all wormy and rotten apples should be fed to the hogs, or otherwise destroyed.

IS CHILD CROSS, FEVERISH, SICK

Look, Mother! If tongue is coated, give "California Syrup of Figs."

Children love this "fruit laxative," and nothing else cleanses the tender stomach, liver and bowels so nicely.

A child simply will not stop playing to empty the bowels, and the result is they become tightly clogged with waste, liver gets sluggish, stomach sours, then your little one becomes cross, half-sick, feverish, don't eat, sleep or act naturally, breath is bad, system full of cold, has sore throat, stomach-ache or diarrhea. Listen, Mother! See if tongue is coated, then give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the system, and you have a well child again.

Millions of mothers give "California Syrup of Figs" because it is perfectly harmless; children love it, and it never fails to act on the stomach, liver and bowels.

Ask at the store for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Adv.

OLD PRESCRIPTION FOR WEAK KIDNEYS

A medicinal preparation like Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, that has real curative value almost sells itself. Like an endless chain system the remedy is recommended by those who have been benefited to those who are in need of it.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is a physician's prescription. It has been tested for years and has brought results to countless numbers who have suffered.

The success of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is due to the fact that it fulfills almost every wish in overcoming kidney, liver and bladder diseases, corrects urinary troubles and neutralizes the uric acid which causes rheumatism.

Do not suffer. Get a bottle of Swamp-Root from any druggist now. Start treatment today.

However, if you wish first to test this great preparation send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle. When writing be sure and mention this paper.—Adv.

Seis horas después de haber obtenido su permiso de divorcio del juez Colin Neblett, retornó á Santa Fé la Señora Moude H. Saenza para casarse de nuevo con su marido, un empleado de la escuela india de los Estados Unidos.

Se efectuó el funeral del Gen. B. J. Viljoen en Las Cruces.

El Administrador de los Estados Unidos y el escribano de condado en Silver City ambos han estado demasiado ocupados en registrar las demandas para concesiones de tierras en conformidad con la nueva ley de 640 acres.

Falleció en East Las Vegas después de una enfermedad muy larga, el Señor Rafael Gallegos, miembro de la legislatura de estado de Nuevo Mexico varios años hace, y que fué un ministro de la iglesia bautista y más tarde abogado.

M. R. Paradis de Colorado Springs, Colo., procuró cometar suicidio en la cárcel de la ciudad de Albuquerque tomando un polvo venenoso á él dado por E. M. Clayton, médico de la ciudad, para tratar una muñeca herida. Se restablecerá.

William J. Black, director de tráfico de pasajeros del sistema del Santa Fé, anuncia que ha habido un aumento de 50 por ciento sobre el año p. pasado en la demanda de viajeros turistas de invierno para camarotes reservados y salones.

STOMACH MISERY GAS, INDIGESTION

"Pape's Diapepsin" fixes sick, sour, gassy stomachs in five minutes.

Time it! In five minutes all stomach distress will go. No indigestion, heartburn, sourness or belching of gas, acid, or eructations of undigested food, no dizziness, bloating, or foul breath.

Pape's Diapepsin is noted for its speed in regulating upset stomachs. It is the surest, quickest and most certain indigestion remedy in the whole world, and besides it is harmless.

Please for your sake, get a large fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin from any store and put your stomach right. Don't keep on being miserable—life is too short—you are not here long, so make your stay agreeable. Eat what you like and digest it; enjoy it, without dread of rebellion in the stomach.

Pape's Diapepsin belongs in your home anyway. Should one of the family eat something which doesn't agree with them, or in case of an attack of indigestion, dyspepsia, gastritis or stomach derangement at daytime or during the night, it is handy to give the quickest relief known. Adv.

Don't Call on Pneumonia Patient.

"Kissing a pneumonia patient is almost as hazardous as to kiss a diphtheria or scarlet fever patient," Health Officer J. H. Landis asserts in an editorial in the weekly bulletin of the health department, in which he declares that "pneumonia is a communicable disease and that contact is an important factor in its spread." He declares that "numerous physicians have referred to the unusual prevalence of the disease and the severe type that prevails."

"Visitors have no business calling on a pneumonia patient," Doctor Landis states.—Cincinnati Times-Star.

Couldn't Remember.

"Before we were married," sobbed Angelina, "did you not always call me your little drop of cream?"

"Well, you know," answered Harold, "cream turns sour if you keep it long enough. I was a fool when I married you."

"And didn't you tell me you had plenty of money behind you?" asked Angelina.

"That was correct. I lived in front of a bank," the wily Harold replied.

"And you never take me out now," said the wee wife.

"Not since you took me in," was Harold's cold rejoinder. "I used to enjoy single life, but now I'm that miserable I don't know myself until I feel in my empty pockets; then it's easy to remember who I am."

TAKES OFF DANDRUFF HAIR STOPS FALLING

Girls! Try This! Makes Hair Thick, Glossy, Fluffy, Beautiful—No More Itching Scalp.

Within ten minutes after an application of Danderine you cannot find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

A little Danderine immediately doubles the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable luster, softness and luxuriance.

Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any store, and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—that's all—you surely can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you will just try a little Danderine. Adv.

MOTHERHOOD WOMAN'S JOY

Suggestions to Childless Women.

Among the virtues of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the ability to correct sterility in the cases of many women. This fact is well established as evidenced by the following letter and hundreds of others we have published in these colums.

Poplar Bluff, Mo.—"I want other women to know what a blessing Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been to me. We had always wanted a baby in our home but I was in poor health and not able to do my work. My mother and husband both urged me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I did so, my health improved and I am now the mother of a fine baby girl and do all my own house work."—Mrs. ALLIA B. TIMMONS, 216 Almond St., Poplar Bluff, Mo.

In many other homes, once childless, there are now children because of the fact that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound makes women normal, healthy and strong.

Write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for advice—it will be confidential and helpful.

In the great march of improvement some people even seek a labor-saving religion.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription makes weak women strong, sick women well, no alcohol. Sold in tablets or liquid.—Adv.

PREFER TALKING TO READING

Writer Asserts That Southerners Excel In One Way the Most Charming of Accomplishments.

Fifteen years ago, of thereabouts, I heard a publisher describe the South as "the home of the paper-covered novel and the ten-cent magazine." Since the demise of Poe's Southern Literary Messenger, no magazine of any large significance or popularity has been edited in Dixie. Today, there is no great publishing house in the South.

But the aristocrats of Dixie, the fine, cultured, delightful Southerners one knows—how comes it that they confess to an utter and absolute indifference toward reading? Come here and live and you will soon see. It is because of talk. They are the most charming talkers on earth. Instead of burying their noses in books when the sun goes down, they sit about and chat. Match them at that if you can. A subject will last from dinner to bedtime. They turn it over and over and inside out and illumine it with the quaintest observations, the most comical stories. By comparison, reading becomes odious because at once toilsome and solitary.—Rollin Lynde Hartt in Boston Transcript.

Unmarried and Cross!

"Pa, what is poetic license?"

"It's the tacit permission given to poets to live, my son."—Boston Evening Transcript.

Instant Postum

School teachers, doctors and food experts agree on two points—that the child needs a hot drink, and that the drink shouldn't be coffee.

Postum fills the need admirably and its very extensive use among thoughtful parents, coupled with the child's fondness for this flavory, nourishing food-drink, show how completely it meets the requirement.

GERMANY TRY TO JUSTIFY PLOT AGAINST U.S.

Admits All but Wonders How Secret Was Learned.

The German government's plan for involving Mexico and Japan in war with the United States was defended before the reichstag by Foreign Secretary Zimmermann, as quoted in a Reuter dispatch from Amsterdam. Replying to a Socialist member, Dr. Zimmermann said:

"We are looking out for all of us in the event of there being a prospect of war with America. It was a natural and justified precaution.

"That Germany looked about for allies, in the event of the outbreak of war with America is a natural and justified foresight.

"For the transmission of this dispatch the safest way was chosen which was at our disposal at that time. How the Americans came into possession of the text which went to America in special secret code we do not know. That these instructions should have fallen into American hands is a misfortune."

SPARK FROM BODY CAUSES GARAGE FIRE

Electrical Contact Explodes Can of Gasoline.

When a resident of Dubuque, Iowa, wearing a fur coat and rubber boots, walked hurriedly to his garage on a cold morning recently, he did not realize that his movements were storing up a dangerous amount of electricity in his body. But the fact was that the friction of his arms against the coat caused a certain amount of static electricity to be generated, and this was stored in the man's body because it was insulated from the ground by his rubber boots. When he sought to prime the motor of his car with a mixture of gasoline and ether, using a metal squirt can—probably of copper, which is a good conductor of electric current—the can was brought so close to the motor that a spark was produced between it and the priming cup, igniting the gasoline. The can exploded, throwing the flaming liquid over both man and car. The man escaped with severe burns, but the car and garage were completely destroyed.—From Popular Mechanics Magazine.

Block to Success.

Most people would succeed in small things if they were not troubled with great ambitions.

The True Test.

Only what thou art in thyself determines thy value; not what thou hast elsewhere.

Rich Roumania.

Roumania is one of the richest parts of Europe. After the United States and Russia it is the largest grain-growing country in the world. It is one of the world's chief oil fields. Its middle class is probably the richest to be found anywhere.

And Gets Scorched.

Many a man mistakes notoriety for fame and gets scorched trying to climb into the spotlight.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

Amending the Constitution.

To amend the federal Constitution a two-thirds vote in house and senate and ratification by three-fourths (not two-thirds) of the states is necessary. A national law, of course, supersedes state law in conflict. A federal amendment adopted by three-fourths of the states becomes the law in all the states—those voting against it included.

Condition of Friendship.

"If you want me to feel friendly to you, you must talk to me," says Doc Frank Crane. If you want us to feel friendly to you, you must let us do some of the talking.

Java's Coca Trade.

For many years the Dutch colony, Java, has controlled the market for cinchona bark, at least so far as the material used in the manufacture of quinine is concerned. On a much larger scale, this fertile island has, of late, been supplying the demand for coca leaves, the raw material from which cocaine is derived.

Platonic Friendship.

"Do you believe in platonic friendship?" "Well, not altogether. My personal opinion is that I'd believe more in platonic friendship if it were carried on with the full knowledge and consent of the husband of the one and the wife of the other."—Detroit Free Press.

Preventing Disease.

The only way to prevent such diseases from spreading is for every child who has a cold, a cough or a sore throat or feels out of sorts to be very careful not to put in its mouth or to cough over or to handle anything which other children are to use. A child who is not absolutely well should be particularly careful to keep away from babies, because babies are so much more likely to suffer seriously if they catch disease.

Peculiarity of the Brain.

Tending to bear out the claim that the human brain is so constructed that it can bear great ills better than lesser ones oft repeated, is the fact that a traveler in the wilds of Central Africa will face the tragedy of a surprise by savage man or beast with intelligent courage, and yet be driven to the delirium of madness by the insistent attacks of minute insects.

Calisthenics of Speech.

It is better to be able to turn your hand to anything than to put your foot in it.

That's So.

If everyone would mind one, all would be minded.

Golden Rule and the Telephone.

When the line is busy for 30 or 40 minutes you shouldn't say those things. How would you like for someone to talk that way about your womenfolks?

A Hint to Snorers.

If you are the object of continual jibes from your family on the score of snoring, try fastening vertical strips of isinglass plaster over the lips.

Of Course.

"Why do you always have to be examined by a doctor before you can get life insurance?" "I presume the company is anxious enough to carry it."

Book Ends.

You can make your own book ends by joining two pieces of metal or wood and then covering it with a cover made of green linen, heavily embroidered in a conventional design.

Impotent Life.

The only utterly impotent life is the loose life, the life that has no center, no rest, no point of obligation, no link of enslavement.
