

Silent Army Honored By The Legion

American Legion Honors
Members of Golden Legion
With Testimonials and Appropriate Ceremonies Sunday Night At Lutz Hall. Patriotic Songs and Program Splendidly Carried Out.

The program arranged by Benjamin I. Berry Post No. 11, American Legion for the giving of testimonials to deceased soldiers and sailors, was appropriately carried out last Sunday night at the Lutz Hall before a large and appreciative audience. The meeting was called to order by Post Commander E. M. Brickley, with the following representatives from the several Carrizozo churches in attendance: Rev. Johnson, Episcopal Church; Rev. A. C. Douglas, Methodist Church; Rev. L. S. Smith, Baptist Church; Rev. Father Girma, Catholic Church; and Rev. Jones of Albuquerque, presiding Elder of the M. E. Church, South.

The exercises began with singing of "America" after which the audience stood for 30 seconds in absolute silence facing the West, in memory of the Golden Legion. Rev. Jones of Albuquerque invoked the divine blessing. After the preliminary remarks of the Post Commander, Miss Carrie Roberts sang, "Send Me Away With a Smile", and was followed by Post Commander Brickley, who gave an interesting review of the aims, objects and work of the American Legion together with a statement of the donations made to the library and also gave a statement of the financial condition of the Post. Miss Roberts followed by singing "Keep The Home Fires Burning" in which the audience joined heartily in the chorus, ably assisted by Mrs. D. S. Donaldson at the piano. Rev. Johnson was then introduced as speaker of the evening and gave his hearers one of the most interesting discourses, from a patriotic standpoint, we have listened to for many days. He exhorted his audience to take more interest in the workings of the Legion, as on it alone must we depend to protect in a great measure, our time honored institutions bought with patriots' blood. He warned against the element of vipers who are now gnawing at the roots of the tree of freedom and told the labor unions that the interests of their institutions and those of the Legion were identical. Nothing would be more pleasing to us, than the publication of every word uttered at this important meeting, but space forbids it. Miss Roberts then sang "The Long, Long Trail" after which the testimonials were given out as follows: Pedro Annalla, Benjamin I. Berry, Charles Walter Beaver, Leland Stanford Bond, James Dearborn, William Randolph Greer, Robert James Hagee, Roy Hamilton, Harvey Hughes, William E. Knowles, Luis Moya, Robert Cecil Morgan, Candido Montoya, Susana Sanchez, Gladney White.

Extract From Governor's Proclamation

The first Monday in the month of September of each year has been designated by our laws as "Labor Day." Long before such recognition had been given by law to labor, it already had found an honored and respected place in the hearts and minds of the great masses of the people of our country. The benefactors of our race should always find respectful consideration at the hands of the people, and certainly nothing has contributed nearly so much to uplift and dignify mankind as labor. In obedience, therefore, to the mandate of our law, I consider it a great privilege to designate, and I do hereby designate the first Monday in the month of September next, being the 6th day of said month, as and do hereby direct that all public state offices throughout the state be closed on that day; that our flag be raised on all public state buildings, including school houses, all over the state. I respectfully invite the ministers of the Gospel in all the churches in New Mexico to hold special services on that day, as a fitting and deserved honor and tribute to labor, and in remembrance, as well, of the great citizen of France, who so nobly and disinterestedly assisted so materially in securing our national independence; and further, that on that day thankful acknowledgments be given to Almighty God for the successful efforts of the French armies in effectually stopping the onward march of the Germans upon the soil of the country to which we justly owe a debt of gratitude. I invite the people of our state to devote that day to rest, and to the holding of such public exercises as should properly be held as a tribute of love and respect to labor.

Done at the Executive Office in the City of Santa Fe, State of New Mexico, this 27th day of August, A. D. 1920.
Witness my hand and the Great Seal of the State of New Mexico.
O. A. LABRAZOLO,
Governor.
MANUEL MARTINEZ,
Secretary of State.

Mrs. Maude L. Blaney

Among the political announcements in this issue of the Outlook appears the card of Mrs. Maude L. Blaney, for the nomination for County School Superintendent to succeed herself subject to the decision of the coming Republican County Convention. No word of recommendation is necessary in order to call the attention of the people of Lincoln county to the knowledge of her qualifications in asking their support for a second term. Her active administration at the head of the county's educational interests, her painstaking, vigilant watch and care over the many schools throughout the county which is an open book to all, and her two years of service in which she has successfully safeguarded the interests of the people as a whole, speaks for itself. In consideration of these facts and in justice to a trusty and deserving lady official, her many friends have urged her to again announce herself for the position and she solicits the support of the delegates who attend the convention of her party. Her announcement appears under the proper head.

Masonic Communication

The regular communication of Carrizozo Lodge No. 41 A. F. & A. M. took place last Saturday night at the Masonic Hall. Work was exemplified in two degrees. The attendance of home members was exceptionally good and a gratifying number of Master Masons from neighboring towns were registered. Interest increases and petitions for membership are multiplying. Work which must be performed in the near future, will necessitate at least one special meeting.

Three Planes With Whisky From Canada Land Near Omaha

Omaha, Neb., Aug. 31.—Three airplanes bringing whisky from Canada landed in this vicinity today, two near Omaha and the third one near Council Bluffs, Iowa, according to Gus Hyers, chief prohibition agent. The planes which landed near here were met by an automobile driven by girls. The police captured the automobile and the liquor, but the girls fled. They also found a map of the border line of Canada and the states of North and South Dakota. Cross marks on the map are believed to be landing fields for whisky carriers. The plane which landed in Iowa was also met by a truck driven by a girl. Several farmers reported that they saw it. Authorities believe whisky planes arrive daily and they are preparing to begin an air police service and mount anti-aircraft guns to break up the practice.

Of Interest to Republican Women

The 19th amendment to the Federal constitution, granting suffrage to the women of the United States, has finally been ratified by thirty-six states. On the 26th of August, 1920, the secretary of state, Bainbridge Colby, signed the proclamation announcing officially that the suffrage amendment had been ratified.

Women for many years have taken a keen interest in all matters affecting women, children and their own communities. Now that women are enfranchised in every state in the Union, all women taking an intelligent interest in the affairs of the state in which they live, as well as of the nation, will inform themselves thoroughly on all political and economic questions and the processes through which women may make their influence tell where it is needed. Of course, the first thing in which women should take active interest is the present campaign, beginning with the local primaries, the county conventions and the state convention.

The state chairman, Mrs. Otero Warren and the organization, are working together to have a big delegation of the Republican women at the state convention. Every county chairman of the women's organization is expected to be there. The women's Republican organization of Bernalillo county is planning to entertain the visiting women during the convention, and it will be a kindness if the different county chairmen will inform the state chairman, Mrs. Otero Warren as to the number expecting to go to the state convention.

Commissioners Meet

The Honorable Board of County Commissioners met in special session Monday to appoint members of the registration boards over the County and to transact other business, the particulars of which will appear in the next issue of this paper.

Floyd Skinner, who is suffering from a serious ailment, was taken to El Paso for a more thorough examination.

Closing Scenes At The Dream City

Last week the season closed at the little city in the Eagle Creek Canyon. The inhabitants of the 12 cabins where Carrizozo members of the Southwestern Fish, Game & Forest Protective Association and their families have experienced such an enjoyable season, fittingly ended the season with entertainments of different kinds after which they packed up and journeyed homeward to make preparations for the fall and winter comfort and to turn their attention to business affairs which has to a large extent been neglected to give themselves a much needed rest and recuperation.

At "Ravencrest," the George Dingwall family entertained the residents of the Dream City together with several visitors from Carrizozo and Roswell, and Mr. and Mrs. J. B. French entertained in a like manner with a card party. The entertainment at the Dingwall cottage consisted of card playing, singing, recitations, etc., during which luncheon was served, aside from the regular towns folks: Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Nash, Mrs. Swain, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Wetmore, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Wetmore of Roswell, and the game parties were guests at the "Idlewild," the cottage of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. French on Saturday evening at a bridge party. At these entertainments, the guests reviewed the enjoyment of the fading season, each expressing the hope that they would meet after the winter snows are gone and the "Sportsmen's Paradise" with the little "Dream City" will again be alive with pleasure seekers. Many of the cottages have not been named, but so far, here is the line-up: J. B. French, "Idlewild"; H. S. Campbell, "Pine Cone"; George Dingwall, "Ravencrest"; S. L. Squier, "Grand View"; R. R. Sale, "Fir Cottage"; E. P. Strayer, "The Cricket."

Mrs. J. E. Farley, Hostess

Mrs. J. E. Farley entertained at a bridge party Wednesday evening at which 11 tables were arranged and an enjoyable time was spent by the many guests that thronged the Farley home. Mr. A. J. Rolland captured first prize for gentlemen and Mr. L. T. Bacot second. For the ladies, Mrs. T. A. Spencer received first prize with Mrs. R. C. Pitts second. Refreshments of ice cream, cake and punch were served. Mrs. John Gutnecht, of Chicago, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Ziegler was among the guests and left for her home on Thursday. Carrizozo residents are coming in from the pleasure resorts which abound in the neighboring mountains and the fall season for society events has begun.

Messrs. O. T. Nye and Wm. A. Franklin of Los Angeles are staying over for a few days, after spending some time in Chicago on business.

Entertains Governors At Home

Next President Entertains
Ten Governors, Some of Whom Were Keenest Rivals
for the Nomination.
Lowden Heads Delegation.
Empires Can be Governed
From Capitol But Not Republics, Says Lowden.

Marion, Ohio, Aug. 31.—Ten state governors, two of whom were Senator Harding's keen rivals for the Republican nomination, together with several candidates for governor, were front porch pilgrims today.

The delegations were led by Governors Frank O. Lowden of Illinois and William C. Sproul of Pennsylvania, both aspirants for the nomination at Chicago, Governor Lowden introduced the state executives and in a brief speech praised the conduct of the front porch campaign and the fact that "reckless charges against the opposition" had not been resorted to by the candidate. The Republican party is progressive, he said, "but it stands for evolution and not revolution."

The tendency in the past eight years has been to centralize government at Washington, Governor Lowden said.

"It is conceivable that an empire can be governed from its capital city, but not a great republic," he said. "We feel that we have had too much government operation in recent years and too little co-operation."

"Hot Sands" at Tucumcari

A goodly number of Shriners and Masons who are to cross the "Hot Sands" journeyed to Tucumcari Thursday morning on No. 2 to take part in the ceremonies. Messrs. S. F. Miller, Frank Gurney, R. R. Sale and others of the Shriners accompanied the "tenderfoot" in order to be in at the "killing." Messrs. George Ferguson, W. C. Wack, H. B. Hamilton and several more of Carrizozo Masons are on the list to make the journey over the historic "Hot Sands" which will better enable them to meet the future trials and temptations of this vale of tears. The Shriners will have the keys to the city of Tucumcari, Thursday and Friday and a big time is in store for all who attend.

Airplane, Ahoy!

No longer can our friends in neighboring towns point with the finger of scorn at us, we are now in style. The first airplane to pay us a visit came in Wednesday and made its landing south of town. The plane is in charge of Major George Puflea of the Airplane Transportation Co., and is demonstrating the Lincoln Standard airplane, carrying passengers and taking orders. The plane holds two people and the flight which is limited to 30 minutes may be experienced for the sum of $25.00. A flight was made this morning over the city and in the afternoon all who may desire will have the opportunity of viewing their neighbors from the sky. The airplane will be here for about three days.

Resolved, that we express our disapproval of the past four years of National administration as conducted by President Wilson, particularly, his advocacy of the so-called League of Nations and his system of one-man methods of government.

That we heartily approve of the state administration of Governor Larrazolo, the policies of Congressman E. C. Hernandez, Senator Albert B. Fall and others who have carried out principles of the Republican party.

That we disapprove in the most emphatic terms of the manner in which the Government has handled the disabled soldiers from overseas and that we welcome, recommend and pledge our hearty support to all measures of relief which may be advanced or recommended by the American Legion.

Railroad Rates and The Family Purse

(The Manufacturer)

Frank H. Fayant, assistant to the Chairman, Association of Railway Executives, states that if the cost of living is raised more than 2 per cent by the $1,200,000,000 increase in freight charges, it will be plain evidence that middlemen and retailers are taking an unfair advantage of the public. We have passed the peak of war inflation. It is reasonable to believe, therefore, that prices will fall rather than rise after the new rates are in effect.

The fact is that in the production of most articles of common daily consumption, the transport charge is so small that an increase in rates has no appreciable effect in the family budget. In bulky articles like coal or lumber, where transportation is a very large part of the process of production and distribution, an increase in freight rates necessarily means higher prices. But even these comparatively large increases in particular commodities may be absorbed as a result of other forces working for lower prices.

The public will pay $1,500,000,000 of additional freight and passenger revenue. The recent wage award in Chicago gave to the railroad employees an additional $625,000,000 a year or an average of more than $300 each. During the two years of government operation of railroads, the Railroad Administration raised wages by more than $1,000,000 a year. The total increase in wages, therefore, since May 1918, when the Lane Wage Board made its first award, is more than $1,600,000,000 a year, or considerably more than the new freight and passenger rates will produce. Practically all of the additional revenues of the roads will go directly to the 4,000,000 railroad workers.

Antonio M. Vega

In this issue of the Outlook will be found the announcement of Antonio M. Vega, who, at the request of his many friends, has entered the race for the nomination for County Sheriff, subject to the decision of the coming Republican County Convention. Mr. Vega is 38 years of age and has lived every year of his life in Lincoln County, therefore, he is widely known as a Lincoln County product whose qualities are of the very best. He has had almost six years of experience in the sheriff's office, under Sheriffs Chavez, Hyde and the present incumbent, Sheriff R. A. Duran, and on these qualifications he now seeks the nomination at the request of his friends and wishes the same to be known throughout the county. He is a staunch Republican and this together with his qualifications should show to a marked degree in the convention. He solicits the support of the delegates who may be identified with that body.

The Nineteenth Amendment

The signature of Secretary Colby accompanied by the great SEAL of the United States of America in which the Secretary explains that he performed a "simple duty." makes woman suffrage the nineteenth amendment to our constitution. Shameful as the delay on this important measure has been, causing it to be the center firing from a squad of evil designing politicians, whose greed to forever keep women under foot and deprive them of God given rights with men, the agony is over.

Historic accounts of victories won in different parts of the world where victors are mentioned and their portraits have adorned the halls of fame, would have been differently recorded had it not been for the assistance of heroic women. Take for an example, the late war; recount if you will, the many noble and holy sacrifices the women of our land made with whole-souled intentions and with eyes single to the mark of the high calling—Victory. In all ages, women have contributed to every movement for the public good, even to the sacrifice of life itself, in order that principles of right and justice might be upheld. Can we wonder at this, when we consider the power of women's love? Volumes have been written on women's love, Mothers of great men. Glorious achievements of women, and yet, when it came to the question of their right to suffrage, they have been refused.

In consideration of the fact that the struggle has been so hard, the proclamation declaring women the right to vote should have been heralded with parades and bonfires. There should be celebrations all over the land. There is no danger of women taking undue advantage of their newly made powers. They will exercise the right and employ the same to the best and greatest good that may be gained by it, and we can depend on one thing: What they vote for, will be the just, right, honorable, and pure. Mother love will lead in all things, as it has in all ages.

Corona Notes

G. Z. Mellen left last week for an extended visit through Colorado and Wyoming.

The Chautauqua has come and gone after three days of the best entertainment that Corona has had for some time. All of the numbers were exceptionally good and much appreciated by all that attended them. And we are glad to say that we are going to have an other one next year. The contract was made while the manager was here.

Geo. Clements and wife came up from Carrizozo last week to visit the Kersey family and to take in the big doings.

There has been quite an epidemic of colds in these parts the last week, nearly every one in town is bothered to some degree.

The Corona Lead and Silver Mining Co. shipped a car of ore to El Paso last Monday.

Ruben Boone and wife motored over from Capitan to spend a few days with friends and relatives in these parts.

Another real estate transaction was made here last week. Dr. R. R. Davis purchased the old Pablo Chavez building next to his present location. He is going to put in an up-to-date drug store and confectionery, and we do not hesitate to say that he will have one of the best in this end of the country.

H. M. Henry and T. M. DuBoise made a business trip to Carrizozo last Tuesday returning the same evening. The trip was made in Mr. Henry's car.

L. R. Craig left last week for Carrizozo where he is to work for the Southwestern, he was relieved here by Max Penix an old timer in this country who has just returned from Seattle, Wash.

"Bill" Lyons and wife, our genial and accomodating clerk returned from an extended visit through the East last week.

Did we have a good dance last week? Well you tell'em we did. We had one of the best dances that this country has seen since the United States went dry. The only "fly in the ointment" was the fact that the Orchestra had to return to Carrizozo on No. 1, cutting us short on our dancing.

Mrs. Irene Smith of Cloudcroft is visiting friends here.

Coal Areas of Lincoln County

We are pleased to notice that several of our neighboring weeklies have published the report of Inspector of mine, Mr. Jo. Sheridan, which he offered to Governor Larrazolo not long before his death. We are glad to see this report in print and it would be well if the same could be kept constantly before the people. The Outlook was the first paper in Lincoln County to publish it, which we did in our issue of February 6, 1920, being furnished with a copy of the same through the courtesy of Judge Y. Hewitt of White Oaks. The reason we speak of this matter is, that we were questioned a few days ago, as to why we did not run the report, the friend in question thinking of course, that the report would be something new to us, and also that we would be somewhat behind, if we failed to run it. We are simply giving these facts for the benefit of our inquiring friend, in answer to his question.

"VOTES FOR WOMEN IN 1920" WINS

Washington and Tennessee Legislatures Ratify the Susan B. Anthony Amendment, Thus Giving the Necessary Thirty-Six States Out of Forty-Eight.

Victory Crowns Seventy Years of Persistent Struggle by Devoted Champions—Some Notable Features of the Long Fight for Equal Suffrage Through Amendment of National and State Constitutions—Some Names Made Immortal by the Contest.

Washington.—"Votes for women in 1920" wins. Washington and Tennessee have ratified the Susan B. Anthony amendment. This gives the 36 necessary states.

March 22 the legislatures of the states of Washington and Delaware met in special session, having been convened to pass upon the ratification of the Susan B. Anthony amendment to the Constitution—so called because it is the same form in which she drafted it in 1875, as follows:

"The right of citizens of the United States to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any state on account of sex."

Woman suffragists expected prompt ratification by Washington, and hoped to win in Delaware after a fight.

When these two legislatures met the facts of the ratification situation were as follows:

Ratification necessary by the legislatures of three-fourths of the 48 states of the Union.

Amendment ratified by 34 states, beginning with Wisconsin, June 10, 1919, and ending with West Virginia, March 10, 1920. Ohio ratification before the Supreme court.

Amendment defeated by six states between September 2, 1910, and February 17, 1920, as follows, in the order named: Alabama, Georgia, Mississippi, South Carolina, Virginia, Maryland.

Connecticut and Vermont have no regular session until 1921. Govs. Marcus H. Holcomb of Connecticut and Percival W. Clement of Vermont had refused to call special sessions.

Florida and Tennessee cannot vote in 1920 because of constitutional provision requiring election to intervene between submission of amendment and action on it.

Louisiana legislature was to meet in May; no hope of ratification.

North Carolina, scheduled to meet in special session in July. Gov. Thomas

When Miss Anthony began talking in public of "woman's rights" she was derided and hissed by the men in her audiences as a "freak of nature." Undismayed, she carried the campaign to congress and to the states. During the Civil war she demanded that women be given equal rights with the newly enfranchised negroes. The answer she got was: "This is the negro's hour." For several years after the Civil war Miss Anthony endeavored to secure an interpretation of the fourteenth and fifteenth amendments which would allow women to vote. Finally, in 1872 at Rochester, N. Y., she tried to force an interpretation by voting at the polls. She was arrested and fined. She refused to pay the fine, but was not sent to jail.

In 1875 Miss Anthony drafted the amendment to the Constitution which has now been ratified. In 1878 the amendment was introduced in the senate by Senator Sargent of California. It was defeated in 1887 and thereafter was not even debated in congress until 1914.

During the years the constitutional amendment campaign was making no progress the women won many victories in the states. They secured full suffrage in Wyoming (1890), Colorado, Utah and Idaho (1894), Washington (1910), California (1911), Kansas, Arizona and Oregon (1912), Montana and Nevada (1914), New York (1917), Oklahoma, South Dakota and Michigan (1918). They won presidential suffrage in Illinois (1913), Nebraska, Rhode Island and North Dakota (1917), Iowa, Wisconsin, Indiana, Maine, Minnesota, Missouri and Tennessee (1910) and Kentucky (1920). Partial suffrage prevails in many of the states. In Illinois, for example, women vote for candidates for all offices not mentioned by the state constitution.

The National American Woman Suffrage association in 1912 opened headquarters in Washington and began an active campaign for the passage of the amendment. In 1916 it established branch headquarters there which were devoted entirely to the amendment campaign.

The National Woman's party, organized in 1910 by Alice Paul, established Washington headquarters in 1913 and introduced the militant into the campaign. Alice Paul—the third Quakeress to immortalize herself—is the spectacular figure of the struggle. She is a practical politician and developed the deadliest card index on members of congress than practical politics has ever seen. Pretty soon she was serving notice through the White House pickets that the president was the "man higher up." The arrest of nearly 600 of these pickets and the imposition of jail sentences had no effect. Incidentally Miss Paul herself served seven terms in jail.

The amendment was beaten three times in the senate and once in the house before it was finally passed by the Sixty-sixth congress June 4, 1919, by the necessary two-thirds majority.

The resumption of woman suffrage work after the Civil war was marked by the organization in 1800 of two national organizations: National Woman Suffrage association, with Mrs. Stanton and Miss Anthony leaders and headquarters in New York; American Woman Suffrage association, with Mary A. Livermore, Julia Ward Howe and Lucy Stone leaders and headquarters in Boston. The line of division was this: The former wished to concentrate on the passage of a constitutional amendment; the latter was in favor of obtaining the suffrage through amendments to state constitutions. In 1900 the two organizations were united under the name of National American Woman Suffrage Association, and work was pushed along both lines of endeavor. Mrs. Stanton was president until 1892, Miss Anthony served until 1900, resigning at the age of eighty. Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt was its head, 1900-1904. Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, recently deceased and possibly best loved of all the leaders—a woman of transcendent gifts and eloquence—was president until 1915. Mrs. Catt was then again chosen. Mrs. Frank Leslie left a large legacy to Mrs. Catt to be used in the work.

The National association made arrangements at the St. Louis convention of 1913 to dissolve its organization and become the League of Women Voters. These arrangements became effective at the Chicago convention in February last.

Southwest News From All Over New Mexico and Arizona

Western Newspaper Union News Service.

The Florence, Ariz., city council has extended the corporate limits of the city to include the new addition of Florence Heights. This was done to insure the residents of that district the city water and light at an early date.

According to reports of the county agent of McKinley county, New Mex., there is a greater acreage of grain crops this year than has ever been known. The early spring was favorable for dry farming, and as the rainfall in June was above the average, the production will probably be about normal.

The United States Public Health Service, now in charge of the big hospital at Fort Bayard, New Mex., reports that the number of patients has now reached 500. This is the third largest public health service hospital in the country, Greenville, S. C., being the largest and the one at Houston, Texas, ranking second.

According to reports received from Santa Fe officials, a modern depot will soon be erected on the west side of the tracks in Socorro, New Mex. With the erection of the new depot many other improvements will be made and both the main line and side tracks in the local yards will all be raised about four feet.

First sales of 1920 Pima long staple cotton, used extensively for tire fabric and airplane cloth, have been made at Phoenix. A buying firm with Boston connections announces the purchase of 200 bales for October delivery at 35 cents a pound. This was said to be the highest price ever paid for Pima cotton at the season's opening. The Arizona crop has been estimated at 80,000 bales.

Mexican laborers should receive a minimum wage of 35 cents an hour for ten hours' work and time and one-half for overtime, according to the report of the special investigating committee consisting of Abelardo B. Sabarzo, representing the state of Sonora, Mexico, and J. H. Pattee, named by Governor Campbell to represent the state of Arizona, assisted by Eduardo G. Gonzalez, Mexican consul at Phoenix.

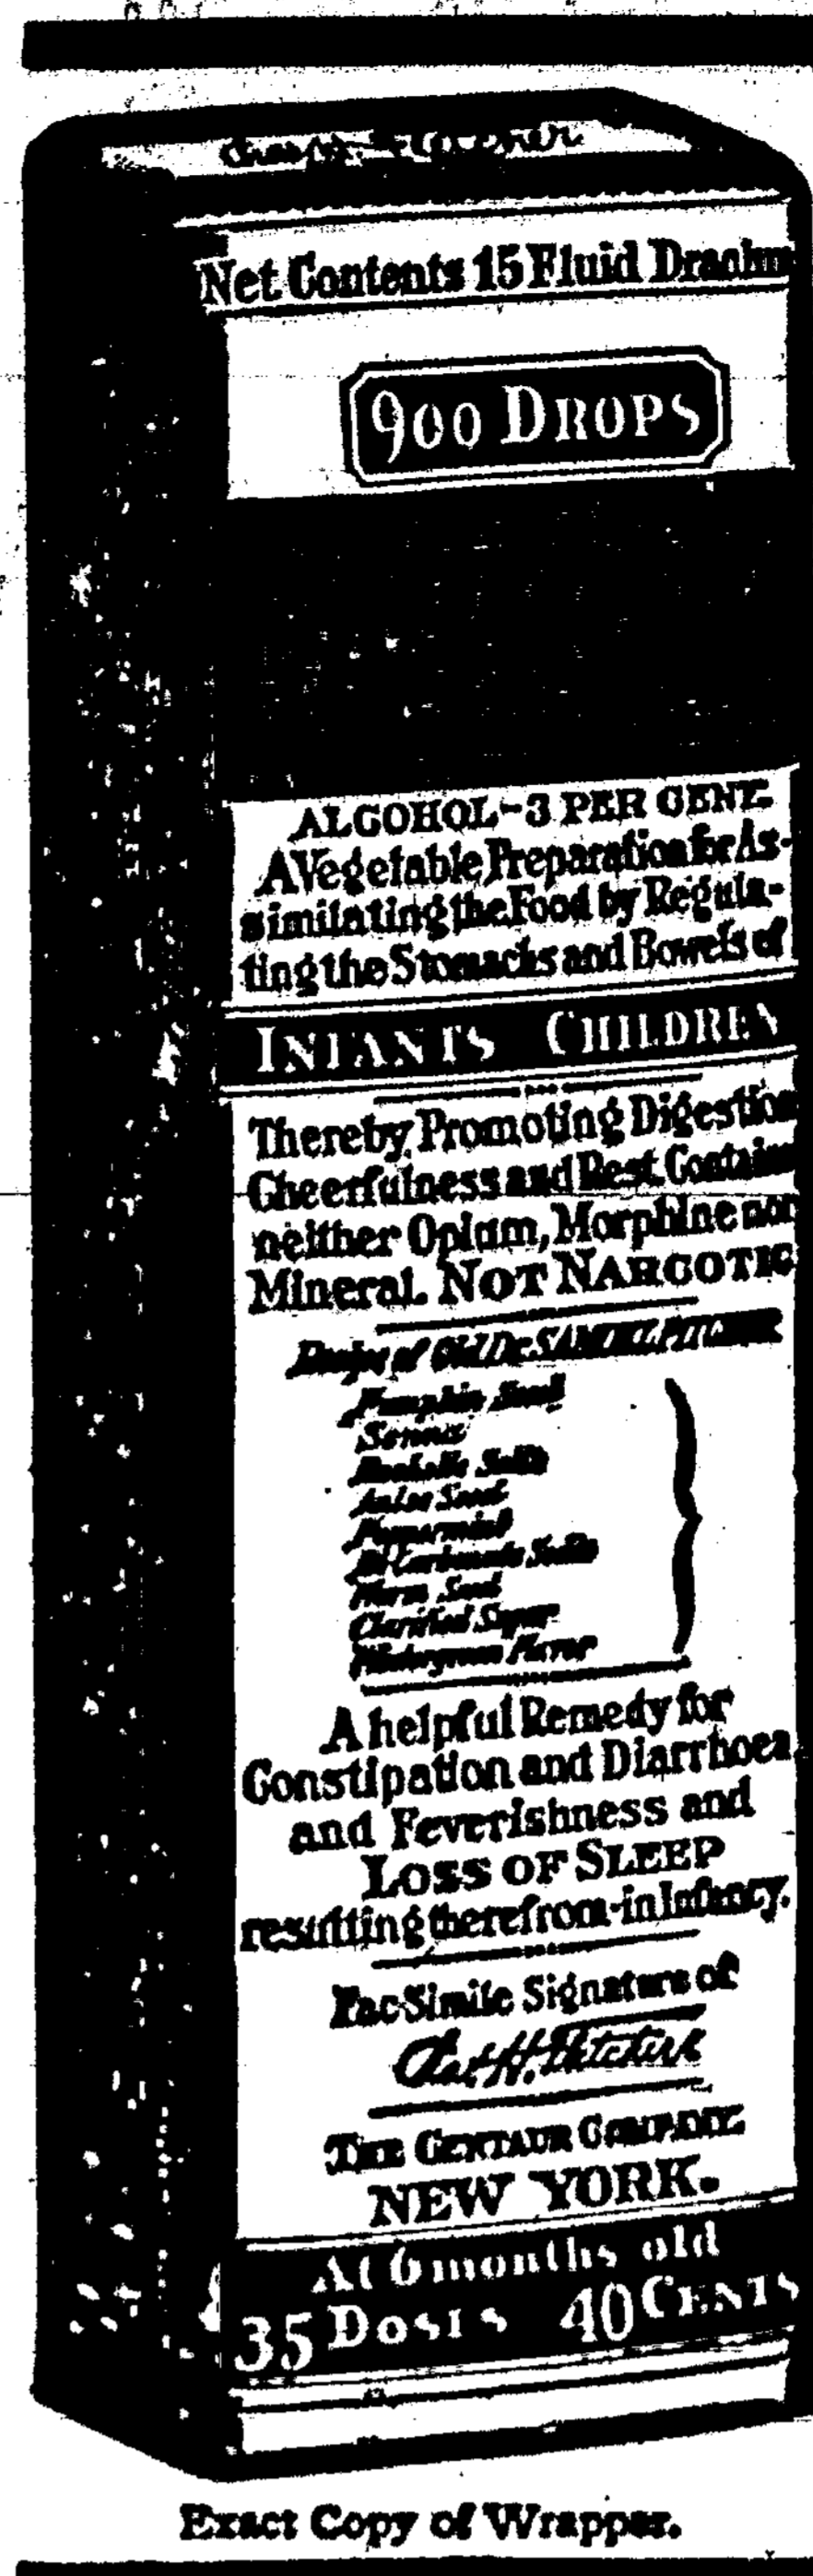

Mrs. J. F. Brasfield of Santa Rita was fatally injured and Mrs. Warren Kiner and Mrs. T. L. Harris were painfully injured when the automobile in which they were riding rolled down a steep embankment near Hanover. The party was en route from Plerro to Santa Rita, and when the car was about half way up the hill the engine went dead, and the brakes failing to hold, it backed off from the road and turned over twice.

There is likely to be an inundation of Navajo blankets this winter, according to the statement of Governor Campbell of Arizona on his return from a tour, which included a part of the Navajo reservation. For several years, or almost ever since the price of wool went up, the Indians have almost abandoned the ancient art of blanket weaving. There was much more profit in selling the wool than putting it into blankets, and besides it was much easier.

Following the sensational strike at the Shea at Jerome, Ariz., the vein has widened to eight feet and the content continues the same as that opened recently. The tunnel is now at a point immediately below the shaft and a station is being cut for the raise which will be begun at once to connect the tunnel level with the shaft 200 feet above. In the meantime, the tunnel will be advanced with all possible speed to cut the ore body developed on the 325 level west of the shaft.

Plans are now under way to insure a large delegation of New Mexico people for meetings of the Southwestern Tuberculosis Conference and the American Public Health Association in San Francisco from Sept. 9 to 18. Dr. C. E. Waller, commissioner of health, probably will head the delegation of state health workers.

The raising of wheat in the Portales valley in New Mexico is no longer an experiment, and the crop this season will be the best ever raised in that section. Much of the wheat has already been harvested, and the yield in many places has run better than thirty bushels to the acre. It is expected that the acreage will be greatly increased during the coming year. The largest fumigation house in the world may be built soon on the Arizona border. This was revealed by O. D. Deputy, chief of border inspection, Federal Horticultural Board. Mr. Deputy also indicated that the border inspection service will station an inspector at Douglas if the traffic through this port expands sufficiently to justify it. The proposed big fumigation house on the Arizona border would be located at Nogales.

MISTAKEN IN HIS SURMISE FAMOUS OLD BOSTON ABODE

Mr. Brown Somewhat Hasty in Blaming the Gramophone for Those Unearthly Sounds.

Perfect peace reigned in the Browns' household. The head of the family, his day's work over, was reading, in blissful anticipation of the evening meal which Mrs. Brown was busy preparing in the kitchen.

The gentle stillness was suddenly broken by eerie sounds, apparently coming from the next house—a weird moaning, developing into heart-rending wails and howling shrieks.

Mr. Brown jumped up. "It's Mrs. Wood's confounded gramophone playing Tosti's 'Good-by'!" he cried. "Lizzie"—to his oldest daughter—"go and implore her to stop it! Tell her I'm ill—tell her we're all ill, anything you like, only make her leave off!"

The child obediently hurried out, and two minutes later came rushing back.

"It's not Mrs. Wood's gramophone, dad," she said. "It's the Murphys down the street opening a tin of corned beef!"

Easily Remedied.

"So the race was called off because there was not breeze enough to fill the yacht's sails."

"That was queer. With Sir Thomas Lipton spending $1,000,000 on the effort to lift the cup, he ought to be able to raise the wind."

Province House, Once One of the Most Famous Colonial Mansions, Has Been Partially Preserved.

There stands today on Bosworth court in Boston but a portion of the old Province house, a most interesting relic of colonial days; and the rest of the court is lined with modern office buildings. But in 1820 it was considered a very genteel part of town. Oliver Wendell Holmes lived in the old Province house for 18 years.

At the farther end of the court stands an iron-wrought archway, decorative of design, which was used in the early part of the nineteenth century as an entrance to the governor's garden, a part of the Province house grounds. This has been carefully preserved, as have the stone steps which lead to the lower level. The Province house was immortalized by Hawthorne in his "Twice-Told Tales."

The historic staircase now is gone, and only a portion of the exterior of the house is left. It was built in 1697 by Peter Sargent, a wealthy London merchant, and was considered one of the handsomest residences in town. During the days of its popularity the governor gave many balls there.

Fair Enough.

"I will examine you for $10," said the specialist.

"All right, doctor," replied his patient. "If you find it, I'll give you half."—Boston Transcript.

Susan B. Anthony.

W. Eckett had declared his intention of asking for ratification.

Washington ratified as expected. Delaware and Louisiana voted "no." Governors of Connecticut, Florida and Vermont refused to call special sessions. The Ohio ratification was upheld by the United States Supreme court. Under this decision Tennessee called a special session.

It is 70 years since the organized movement for woman suffrage was begun in the United States.

In 1848 Lucretia Mott and Elizabeth Cady Stanton called a woman suffrage convention at Seneca Falls, N. Y., which launched a "Declaration of Sentiments" and passed a resolution demanding equal suffrage.

These are two immortal names in American history. Lucretia Coffin Mott (1793-1880) was born in Nantucket, Mass., of Quaker parents. After teaching, she became "an acknowledged minister" of the Friends. She married James Mott, who worked with his wife against slavery.

Elizabeth Cady Stanton (1815-1902) was born in Johnstown, N. Y. Her father was a justice of the state supreme court. She married in 1840 Henry B. Stanton, a journalist and antislavery speaker.

Susan B. Anthony (1820-1906) joined with Lucretia Mott and Elizabeth Cady Stanton in organizing the woman suffrage movement. She became in time the real leader of the movement; certainly she was its militant suffragist. Born in Adams, Mass., she came of Quaker stock and early devoted herself to "temperance" (the prohibition of those days) and to the abolition of slavery.

School Notes

(By Supt. E. E. Cole)

School opens next Monday Sept. 6.

We are pleased to notice the apparent disposition on the part of all the pupils to enter school on the very day of school. This is fine and it is the very best thing to do. It pays to make a good beginning. It tends to keep up the interest. It enables a student to keep up with the work more easily.

Mrs. L. M. Scott recently gave about fifty books to the schools. Some of these are standard high school books, some are just what we need for the library, and the larger part are what can be used to advantage in the grades. We here extend our thanks to Mrs. Scott and wish her a very pleasant life in El Paso, her future home.

Charles Scott will attend school at the Agricultural College. "Scotty" was one of the best students of the Carrizozo high school and we predict for him a very successful year at the "Aggy."

A large percentage of the old teachers, meaning of course, those who were in the Carrizozo schools last year, will be with us this year. They are: Bryan Cazier, Verda Neff, Mrs. E. A. Gumm, Mrs. Bessie E. Vaughn, Lucile Lindsay, Mrs. Nora Massie, Rachel Hughes, Ivy Lindsay, E. E. Cole.

The new teachers are: Fannie Fordon, Ellen Herron, Martha Layer, Marie Johnson, Mayme Humphrey, Vinnie Burton, Mrs. Emma Craddock.

Mrs. Craddock will have the primary room on the east side, Miss Burton the first grade on the west side.

The third grade pupils will go to the second story of the Humphrey store; this grade will be taught by Miss Mayme Humphrey.

Teachers were harder to get this year than ever before, even though much better wages are being paid. This seems strange when we thought that higher salaries would solve the problem. Some of us, though, know the reasons. The insecurity of the position, scarcity of houses and rooms, high freight, fickleness of public opinion, injustice of school boards, drive teachers out of the profession. Many a successful teacher quits teaching saying: "I would rather starve than teach." One teachers' agency had 14,000 registrations last year and only 4,000 this year.

Harold P. Clarke

Harold P. Clarke, who announces himself in this week's issue of this paper as a candidate for the office of County Commissioner, subject to the decision of the coming Republican County Convention, needs no introduction to the Lincoln County people, as he was a candidate for the same office two years ago at which time he made a remarkable run considering the fact that at that particular time he was in a large measure, a new man in this community. The election together with the advantages he has had since that time have been of much importance to Mr. Clarke and he is now known throughout the county fully as well as most of our people who have lived here the better portion of their lives. In this his second attempt, he is coming again before the people at the request of his many friends and in consideration of the fact that his popularity has increased to such an extent during the past two years, his showing will be strong in the convention and if nominated, the same forces should make their showing at the election. He solicits the support of the Republican convention.

Plain Statement
Glencoe, N. M., Aug. 23, 1920

Editor "Outlook", Carrizozo, N. M., Dear Sir:—
I see a few points in regard to Taxation of Copper Mines and wish to mention them.
1. The Copper Mine interests in this State are evading the payment of their just proportion of the State's Taxes.
2. The Arizona tax on Copper Mines, which is paid promptly and without protest by Arizona mines, is six and two-thirds times the New Mexico assessment on the net.
3. The next ten years will see the exhaustion of the Chino Copper Co. ore deposits, and then they will be beyond reach of our tax commission, with a loss to the State of a Million dollars a year, which they now evade.
4. The next session of the Legislature must take notice and remedy this bad condition or be Slackers.
5. The Governor is only doing his plain duty in agitating the matter at this time and should be supported by all good citizens regardless of party ties.
J. V. TULLY.

There is more Cataract in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a fatal disease and prescribed fatal remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with their treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Cataract to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's

Fighting Storm High Up in Air

Navigator in Plane Tells of Thrilling Experience During a Fierce Cyclone.

BREAKS WITHOUT WARNING

Hail and Rain Lash Machine Mercilessly, Making It Toss From One Side to the Other Like a Cork on Surface of Sea.

New York.—An observer in an airplane describing an experience in a storm thousands of feet above the earth writes:

"The sky was strewn with the remnants of a morning cirrus, as the climb was made carefully but swiftly on the wings of a warm wind. Eight thousand feet was reached with the merest effort. The salient features of the countryside could be picked out without glasses. The air had a milky tinge, but it was such as the eye could 'speak' through, and it gave no impression of the moisture with which it must have been heavy. It seemed warm and brilliant, and as the machine throbbed its way through it two warm slip streams flowed back over the wind screen.

"Some time must have elapsed before the pilot, in twisting the craft round to a new direction, caught a glimpse of a livid purple-gray bank of clouds which had crept up from the south. It had come quite unheralded by thunder, but although the sight was not attractive there seemed neither cause for alarm nor need for a premature descent. Even the growling rumble of thunder at a great distance, which came at last, failed to disconcert, and the airplane soared on with bracing wires singing and the engine in deep, full-throated roar.

"Then, without further warning, the storm broke in full fury. A mighty crash of thunder, which seemed to deafen and almost shake the machine out of the skies, was accompanied by a wild burst of hail and rain which lashed the machine mercilessly and made it toss from one side to the other like a cork on the surface of the sea. In a steaming cloak of rain and mist it was impossible for the eye to see the ground.

"Peal after peal of thunder followed in swift succession between vivid flashes of furious summer lightning. The heavens had opened to pour forth the accumulated passion of centuries. At nearly 7,000 feet up it would be suicidal to descend into the unknown and unseen. Which was safer—air or land? To the pilot, anxious almost beyond endurance, came the thought, common to every flying man, of fire in the air, and as if to confirm this horror a flash in a moment illuminated the whole machine as though it were caught in the probing beam of a searchlight at night. The sky was rent from vault to horizon by a vivid streak of electric fire. The indicating fingers on the navigation instruments oscillated wildly.

Like Wounded Bird.

"It seemed the last moment; but it passed, and still the machine was air-worthy. The hail still tore fiercely at the fabric of the planes; the machine was becoming more and more unstable; but it still hummed on. Down below a cloud of vapor made it impossible to see the earth or to sight a stretch of ground whereon to land. The thunder broke with unabated fury at regular intervals, and at each onslaught the machine quivered like a wounded bird.

"If the pilot continued to fly on it could only be a matter of moments before all control of the craft would be wrenched from his hands. It was equally hazardous to plunge down into the sea of mist in total ignorance of the lie of the land beneath. But to the latter course only could a shred of hope cling. The engine therefore was suddenly shut off and the nose of the machine dropped.

"By the altimeter, watched feverishly, the descent of a few thousand feet seemed to take many minutes. In the thick of a swirling mist a sudden and violent contact with the earth was momentarily expected. But down—down;

Shoe Heels Solid Gold, Corset Bones Costly

She was trying to smuggle bullion into France.

Cattle Ranges Fast Disappear

For More Than Year Average Raiser Has Been Losing Money in Middle West.

HERDS ARE BEING DIMINISHED

Everywhere Feeders Are Quitting Operations in Discouragement—Land Over Which Cattle Roamed Being Turned Into Wheat.

Sioux Falls.—The cattle industry is admittedly in a bad way. For more than a year the average raiser has been losing money. The herds are being diminished. More beef is sent to market direct from the grass, corn being too costly for fattening at the present live stock quotations, which means more waste and less meat per head.

More land over which the cattle roamed is being turned into wheat, and this also adds to the depopulation of America's herds. But in the butcher shops of the hamlets and villages, the smaller cities and the great centers, the consumer finds Old Doc High Cost has as strong a clutch as ever. Out here in regions where the raw material is raised the traveler finds the price of beefsteak and pork chops over the counter is as much a problem for the family budget as it is in the big cities.

Cattle Question Important.

Some gloomy prophets say if the reduction of the herds continues at the present rate steak may jump to 90 cents or $1 a pound within a year. They may prove wrong or they may prove right, but in any event the cattle question is one of deep concern. At every stop that has been made in six states, the farmers have talked with emphasis.

Everywhere evidence was presented that feeders are quitting operations in sheer discouragement.

During the last year after buying cattle from the grass, then feeding them corn at $1.50 to $1.80 and upward a bushel, they have sent their stock to market, only to receive for the finished product far less than it cost them.

Snake Victim Goes Insane

Boy in Hospital at Poughkeepsie "Strikes," Then Writhe Like a Serpent.

Poughkeepsie, — George Swenson, 19, who was in the hospital five days ill from the bite of a rattlesnake, became violently insane.

The boy, suddenly threw himself through the air, as a snake would strike, crashing from his chair to the floor, where he crawled on his stomach, imitating the motions of a snake. The nurses were terrified and called doctors.

The physicians there say it is too early to determine whether his condition is due to the bite of the rattler or is the outcome of a former mental state.

Lightning Bolt Kills Chickens.

Pontiac, Mich.—When a bolt of lightning killed 40 chickens in the yard of Smith Ames of 104 Forest street it laid them all out nearly with their heads pointed in the same direction. Mr. Ames says he appreciates the orderliness of nature, but he wishes the bolt had plucked the feathers off also.

WARN OF INJURY BY CHINCH BUGS

Spring Flight of Insect Continued Over Much Longer Period Than Usual.

HARM TO CORN APPREHENDED

Department of Agriculture Urges Steps Be Taken to Check Infestation—Kerosene Emulsion Will Stop March of Pests.

Warning messages from Missouri, Indiana and Illinois state that the chinch bug is appearing locally in the southern portions of these states and somewhat farther north in Indiana. The spring flight of the bug continued over a longer period than usual, and for that reason the infestation has been extended to larger areas. The bureau of entomology, United States department of agriculture, apprehends severe injury to the corn crops later on unless steps are taken to check the infestation, and is assisting to the extent of its ability toward putting control measures into effect.

Where Bugs Hibernate. The bureau of entomology offers the following information: The chinch bugs spend the winter in clumps of bunch grass and under dead leaves and rubbish. In the spring they emerge and fly to fields of young wheat, where they lay their eggs on the wheat stems and roots. When the wheat commences to ripen and dry, the young bugs leave the wheat fields in armies and walls—for most of them cannot fly—to the cornfields, where they do the greatest damage. The fact that they make the migration from the wheat to the corn by walking gives the farmer his opportunity to check the invasion by pouring road oil along the bottom of a shallow furrow dug across the line of march. Deep holes should be dug every 25 feet along the furrow on the side nearest the wheat to trap the bugs.

Spray Infested Corn. Corn already infested may be sprayed with kerosene emulsion along the first rows to prevent the bugs from going farther. Some corn will be injured by the spray, but the balance will be safe from the bug. As a preventive measure, burn all trash and dried grasses, especially such as grow in clumps like "broom sedge" during early winter or early spring. Roadsides and pastures should receive most thorough treatment of this character.

VEGETABLES REQUIRE PROPER VENTILATION

Plan Outlined for Securing This in Storage Room.

Lacking Essential Can Be Overcome by Providing Air Duct of Wood, Metal or Terra Cotta, Fitted in One of the Windows.

It is necessary to have good ventilation if food and vegetables are to be kept safely in storage. In many cellars under dwellings the lack of ventilation is the only essential that is lacking. However, this can usually be easily overcome by providing an air duct constructed of wood, metal or terra cotta, which, fitted in one of the windows, is desirable, as it permits the cool air to enter at the bottom of the room. Two or more joints of 6-inch stovepipe, one with a damper, and an elbow may be used. A piece of board with a hole the size of the pipe is fitted in the window in place of one of the panes of glass. Another pane of glass may be removed from

Details of construction for the ventilation of a storage room in a basement. The air duct may be made of wood, terra cotta, or metal and installed in place of a pane of glass, thus avoiding cutting through the cellar wall. A hinged door the size of another pane of glass may serve as an outlet for the warm air.

the sash and a small hinged door fitted in its place, which when open allows the heated air to escape. In cold weather both the hinged door and the damper in the stovepipe must be closed. The windows in the storage room should be darkened in order to protect the vegetables from the light.

Barrels, crates, boxes, or bins may be used as containers for the various vegetables, but movable containers are preferable to built-in bins, as it is possible to remove them for cleaning. It is advisable to construct shelves or a slat floor to keep the crates, boxes, baskets, and other containers off the ground. This is highly desirable to insure a free circulation of air and to prevent the containers from harboring mice, rats, and other vermin. The shelves for canned goods along one side of the room need not be more than 6 inches wide.

Control Potato Blight. Bordeaux mixture is a reliable spray to use in controlling potato blight.

HELP CORN PRODUCTIVENESS

Yield May Be Greatly Increased by Continued Careful Selection of Seed in Planting.

Corn productiveness may be greatly increased through continued selection. For 14 seasons this has been studied on a 3,000-acre farm in Ohio with 10-acre plots of corn; on these small plots seed selected from department co-operative improvement have been contrasted with the farm yields of the same variety of corn less rigidly selected and grown under identical cultural conditions. During the first seven-year period the fields planted with department seed yielded 13.3 bushels per acre more than the farm fields, while for the second seven years the increase averaged 21.8 bushels per acre.

Essentials for Turkeys. Turkeys must have fresh air; turkeys must have clean food and clean water from vessels scalded each day, and turkeys must have fresh ground on which to forage.

GREEN MANURES AND ACIDITY

Decided Benefit Obtained in Virginia Experiments by Turning Under Green Crops.

The plowing under of green crops does not result in any permanent increase of soil acidity as commonly supposed. There may be a slight increase for possibly a week or two after turning under a green manure, but the net result is a decrease. Virginia experiments support these statements, and show decided benefit from the practice of turning under green crops. A Rhode Island farmer, Horace W. Tinkham, says one crop is as good as another, rye giving as beneficial results as clover.

Grass Clover for Cows. Grow protein in the form of clover and avoid the necessity of paying out cash for this product, so essential to heavy milk production.

Sunflower Silage. Sunflowers mature earlier than corn and yield more tons of silage per acre.

Wilkes-Barre, Pa. — Accompanied by Mary Lynnek, ten years old, of Bear Creek, Pa., John Tomski, twenty-two made application for a marriage license at the courthouse at Wilkes-Barre. In refusing to grant the license because of the age of the girl, the license clerk brought the case to the attention of Judge N. M. Frens. The girl was accompanied by her father, who swore she was more than fifteen. It was later learned the girl was only ten. The father is to be arraigned for perjury, according to the judge's instructions.
