

LOOT! ELMO SCOTT WATSON

"Good Fortunes" Bad Luck

CAPTAIN BRIGSTOCK WEAVER was not known so well as some of the other famous pirates, but it is doubtful if any of them were more successful at their trade than he.

"In August, 1722, he took a Dutch ship and out of her got 100 pieces of holland, value 800 pounds sterling, and 1,000 pieces of eight.

"Out of the Don Carlos (Lot Neekins, master) he stole 400 ounces of silver, 60 gallons of rum, 1,000 pieces of eight, 100 pistols and other goods."

"His prosperity soon came to an end, however, and in May, 1723, we learn of Weaver, dressed in rags begging from door to door in Bristol where he was telling a tale of how he was an honest seaman who had been captured by wicked pirates and had but lately escaped from them!

But this new-found prosperity seemed to his downfall. One day on the streets of Bristol he met a sea captain who claimed acquaintance with him and invited him into a tavern for a drink.

Mrs. S. Ramsdale spent New Year's Day in El Paso visiting friends.

Mrs. Maggie Wetmore, who has been in El Paso for the past two months, visiting her sister, Mrs. Allison and friends, arrived home this week.

Judge John Kimbrell, after taking the oath of office, went into his duties as naturally as though he had been accustomed to them for years.

Operator Geo. Young of the local station was an El Paso visitor for two days last week.

Train No. 11 had a goodly number of Lincoln county boys and girls on board, who were returning to school.

Curtis, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Williams, was operated on for appendicitis recently at Hotel Dieu, El Paso, is recovering nicely and came home Wednesday.

Woman's Club Notes

The most pleasant social affair given by the Carrizozo Woman's Club occurred at the home of Mrs. Albert Ziegler on December 31, 1926.

Last September, the club purchased a piano for the club and placed same in the Community Hall. Since the expense of keeping it in repair is so great and since the club pays 50 percent of the net receipts of all pay entertainments to the Finance committee of the Community Hall the club felt it only fair that a small rent be charged for the upkeep of piano.

The next regular meeting of the club will be held at the home of Mrs. H. B. Hamilton, Jan. 14, Miss Ella Brickley, Chairman of the Department of Thrift, will have charge of the program.

Robert Ransom Dies

Tuesday morning of this week.

Robert Ransom, for many years a resident and contractor here, died after an illness of several months. The last work he performed aside from small jobs, was on the Community Hall, after which he visited El Paso and consulted medical service, but the encouragement was slight and he gradually grew weaker until the end came.

The funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon with the Rev. Thos. V. Ludlow of the Methodist Church conducting the same and interment was at the local cemetery, attended by the many friends of the family in this locality, where the deceased had resided so long.

Alfredo Gonzales

Last Saturday at his home in San Patricio Alfredo Gonzales died after a lingering illness of nearly one year.

Live Wire Merchandise Evangelist Here

Bert Williamson, merchandising expert of Minneapolis, Minn., arrived here the first of this week to open and conduct a big clearance sale at the Ziegler Brothers General Store.

Miss Alene Thompson, who spent the holiday week at her home in Alvarado, Tex., returned Saturday.

Miss Mary Katherine Chandler, who spent the holidays with her parents here returned to school at Amarillo, Tex., Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Dale and son E'mo were down from their ranch near Ancho Monday, making purchases at our local business houses and returning home in the afternoon.

County Treasurer and Mrs. M. B. Paden spent the major portion of the holiday week in El Paso, visiting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Bryce Duggar, who were married here last week, spent from Tuesday to Sunday in El Paso, arriving home on the Sunday evening train.

John George was in from his farm-ranch near Walnut Monday.

Locals

Mr. and Mrs. George Dowdle, Mrs. Maggie Wetmore and Mayor G. T. McQuillen were visitors at Lincoln and other places in the lower valley yesterday.

J. C. Burkett, teacher of music in the local schools, arrived home Sunday from Abilene, Tex., where he spent the holidays visiting his parents and friends.

Word was received by Mrs. Anna Roberts from her son, Elmer (Red) Eaker and wife, who were, at the time word was received, in Fresno, Calif.

The dance at Community Hall last Saturday night was, without a doubt, the best attended of any affair ever given here for a long time.

At the request of her many friends and admirers in Santa Fe, Mrs. W. C. McDonald, wife of New Mexico's first Governor after statehood, attended the inaugural ceremonies and ball held in that city on New Year's Day.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Jones are El Paso visitors this week.

Woof!

'Bill', the Boston Bull Pup at the Carrizozo Eating House, seems to be the King and His Majesty doesn't want for attention.

I. N. Wingfield of Ruidoso was here Monday, transacting some business matters. He said that snow is very deep in some places in his locality.

H. F. Dockery, son, Bryant, J. A. Brubaker, P. G. Peters, Billy Sevier and Selden Burkes, were visitors from Capitan on Wednesday.

Attorney and Mrs. H. B. Hamilton returned the early part of the week from a holiday visit which began with spending Christmas at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Hamilton in El Paso and ended with a visit with others of Mrs. Hamilton's relatives at Cheyenne, Wyoming.

Immigration officer H. C. Pugh, Mrs. and daughter, Loie, are here from Alamogordo, where Mr. Pugh was formerly stationed in that particular line of work, which is strictly confined to apprehending aliens who are trying to enter our ports illegally.

Stars Install and Banquet

At the Masonic Hall last night, the officers for the ensuing year were duly installed:

Worthy Matron, Mrs. Jeanette Lemon; Worthy Patron, E. M. Brickley; Associate Matron, Mrs. Elizabeth Green; Conductress, Mrs. Ula Mayer; Associate Conductress, Mrs. May English; Secretary, S. F. Miller; Treasurer, Mrs. Mollie Miller; Chaplain, Miss Charlotte Rice; Marshal, Mrs. Maude L. Blaney; Organist Mrs. Mattie Kelley; Ada, Mrs. Zoe Glassmire; Ruth, Mrs. Ina Mayer; Esther, Mrs. Carrie Kincheo; Martha, Mrs. Elizabeth Sproles; Electa, Mrs. Ophelia Williams; Warder, Mrs. Anna Stimmel; Sentinel, J. L. Bogle.

After the installation, the members and guests repaired to the banquet room, where covers were laid for seventy-five and all were taken up. The banquet room was decorated in colors emblematical of the order and coupled with the National colors, presented a sight beautiful to behold.

The meeting was highly enthusiastic and the interest being intensified by the knowledge of the fact that the building lately purchased by the Masonic order is now its home and renewed activity marks the entrance to the new year.

White Oaks Items

By Willie Kelt: Frank Haskins was a Carrizozo visitor Monday and returned to his home in Jicarilla.

Mrs. A. A. Lane and Mrs. Wm. Kelt were visiting friends in Carrizozo Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Ross were White Oaks visitors last Sunday.

John Kelt made a call on Dr. Blaney last Monday.

Jess Vandevort was down to White Oaks Sunday from his home in Ancho.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Ward moved out to their homestead last week.

Ed Haskins was in from his home in Jicarilla and reports cattle business fine.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Littell and son, Nonie, were visiting friends in Carrizozo last Sunday.

The roads have been almost impassable from White Oaks to Rabenton on account of deep snow.

H. E. Kelt was a Carrizozo visitor Monday, returning home in the evening.

Although the patrons of the school had to wade in snow about knees deep they were at the little school program and Christmas-tree Dec. 24, which we much appreciated.

Little Elmo Ward is down from the Powder plant, is staying at Mrs. Laura Sullivan's and will finish the term of school.

Ira Robinson is moving to his ranch near Oscura. He says there is too much snow here.

Mrs. Laura Sullivan made a trip to Carrizozo last Friday in spite of mud.

We are glad to state that Mrs. Laner, who has been on the sick list for some time is much improved at this writing.

Willis Lovelace, progressive stockman of Corona, who had been in El Paso and Las Cruces on business since Dec. 22, passed through here on his way to his home Tuesday.

HOWE ABOUT—

By ED HOWE

People always fuss about plumbers' bills. And there's a reason. But I do not know what the reason is; plumbers are usually poor. Is the explanation that plumbers loaf on the job, and are incapable workmen when at work? And does this explanation explain in other cases? We have many workmen who are poor, and who charge tremendous prices. Are our workmen so interested in getting big wages that they neglect good and fair work?

Gout is caused by heavy liquor drinking; rheumatism by heavy eating of rich food. There isn't much difference between gout and rheumatism. . . . I visited lately in a small town, and was given an enormous dinner. It damaged me more than would a drunk in a big town. . . . Sip in a small town runs more to eating than to drinking; country town snobs have rheumatism as generally as big-town sinners have gout.

I read in a local paper the other day of a preacher attending a dance; it was not an accusation, but a social item. And it shocked me; when I was a boy, and connected with the church through being the son of a preacher, dancing was looked upon as a pronounced sin. . . . Treas going was also prohibited. My father ran a country newspaper, and refused to insert the advertisement of the coming of a circus. He refused me permission to attend, and commanded that I work all day. You know what I did: I ran away, and took the risk. . . . Later a menagerie came to town, and we advertised that. Father was given a ticket for "Henry Howe and Family," and even I was shocked at the great number of neighbors he took in on that ticket.

Court House News

A good sized crowd assembled at the courthouse Monday, it being the date for the incoming of the new county officials and the outgoing of the old. The list, as mentioned in our last issue, was sworn in and by the noon hour, everything was going on as usual. The old board of county commissioners transacted their business and turned matter for future deliberation over the new board, the proceedings of which, together with other doings of the board, will be found in the Commissioners' Proceedings. Assessor John L. Bryan is being assisted by Mrs. Bryan, for the present time, at least, Treasurer M. B. Paden will be assisted by Mrs. Robert Penge, who was also deputy to Judge Hulbert in the past term. County clerk, Mrs. Lotah Miller, will still be assisted by Mrs. Zoe Glassmire and Miss Mary Fritz, county school superintendent will retain her former deputy, Mrs. Lorene Ferguson. Sheriff Kelsey, who has been on the sick list for the greater part of the week, will announce his appointments later.

Announcement

The next regular meeting of the Chamber of Commerce will be held Jan. 28, at the Community Hall. In addition to the regular business the members will meet with the heads of the other organizations of the town and plans will be discussed with regard to the programs to be given, the dates and the plan of each organization as to their efforts to raise funds for the Community Hall. Program will be announced later.

Executive Committee, Chamber of Commerce.

Mrs. Ben S. Burns, O. I. Norton and Frank Bodine of Three Rivers were here yesterday, spending a portion of the day and returning home in the afternoon.

EDITORIAL COLUMN

Another Smith-McAdoo Hippodrome?

National Press Service:

Democratic willingness to stage another Al Smith-McAdoo bull fight in 1928 is having a curious reaction in certain political centers, namely to the effect that if the performance is as good as its preliminary advertising, that the 1928 Presidential battle will result in so overwhelming a Republican victory that the identity of the Republican candidate becomes of small moment. There is some justification for this point of view, and even if the political Democratic jugglers should succeed in substituting Reed of Missouri, Vic Donahoy of Ohio, or the genteel Ritchie of Maryland for McAdoo or Smith the Democratic party would still have a racial and religious issue on its hands.

It would be most unfortunate, nevertheless, if the Republicans for their part, assuming they were entering a walkaway instead of a race, should become careless or indifferent in their legislative activities or in the selection of a candidate. We have all witnessed contests which at the beginning were so one-sided that the feeling became current as they have it in political phrasing, that a yellow dog could win. We also have the remembrance of the surprises which have been turned out of the bag on election day when the people have upset all these earlier predictions. No matter how clear the skies, no matter how promising the prospect, the obligations and the reputation of the Republican party as the servant of all the people without distinction must be preserved, and this above all times is the poorest time to think of campaigning with indifference.

His Swan Song

In speaking of the inauguration of Governor Dillon, the Santa Fe New Mexican of Jan. 1, says: "A tone that was regarded by many who heard it as one of mingled disappointment and bitterness marked Governor Hannett's swan song. It had more of the ring of a stump speech made in the heat of a campaign than a farewell address. Making references to 'slinking partisan slander-mongers' and the owned press," the retiring governor poured cold water on the jubilant crowd by the bucketful.

Mr. Dillon, who in a few minutes was to become governor, smiled while his predecessor painted a gloomy picture of what, he indicated, would be likely to happen to him. Referring to the tradition that no governor has ever succeeded himself, a precedent which he tried unsuccessfully to break, Governor Hannett said the man who occupies the gubernatorial chair is always the target for the 'disappointed job hunter and the rebuked or disappointed politician.' He said history has been that the cheering supporters of a new governor turn to bitter enemies and carping critics before the end of the year.

Amazing Price Reduction On Chevrolet Cars

Co-incident with the introduction of a new line of cars, the Chevrolet Motor company today, announces a substantial price reduction, effective immediately. On the closed car line, the reductions range from $20 to $50. The new open car price is $525, with balloon tires and disc wheels as standard equipment, whereas the former open car price was $510 without balloon tires and disc wheels. New and old prices of Chevrolet cars are as follows:

	NEW	OLD
Coach	$595	$645
Coupe	625	645
Sedan	695	735

Landau 745 765
Touring or Roadster, with balloons (new) $525; without balloons (old) $510; with balloons (old) $535.

A seventh model, the sport cabriolet, equipped with a rumble seat and added to the line this year, is listed at $715. The half-ton truck price is now $395. Last year, without balloon tires and other advances made this year, the half-ton model price was $375. The one-ton truck price remains unchanged at $495. All prices f. o. b. Flint, Mich. The new truck line incorporates the same improvements that have been embodied in the passenger car line, including the addition of an air cleaner and an oil filter.

CAPITAN - NEW MEX.

A good cold weather starter now more dependable than ever

Probably no single feature of Dodge Brothers Motor Car has been more widely talked about and commended than the power and promptness of the starter.

The new two-unit starting and lighting system now advances Dodge Brothers leadership in this important respect still further.

There are now no moving starter parts when the car is in motion—no starter chain—no noise—no wear. The new starter is even more DEPENDABLE than the old, and far simpler and more compact in construction.

Many other major improvements have been added during the past twelve months, all vitally affecting performance and increasing value far beyond the apparent measure of current Dodge Brothers prices.

Beautiful
 CHEVROLET
 in Chevrolet History

TRULY the most beautiful Chevrolet in Chevrolet history! Truly an achievement which must immediately change all existing ideas as to what the buyer of a low priced car has a right to expect for his money!

Here is the irresistible appeal of unbroken, flowing body lines—of modish new Duco colors, fashionably striped—of notable smartness—of that flawless silhouette regularly associated with the costliest of custom-built creations.

Here are score after score of advancements in design, literally too numerous to list completely—but typified by one-piece full-crown fenders, bullet-type lamps, coincidental steering and ignition lock, and large 17-inch steering wheel.

Here is definite assurance of longer life, more satisfactory operation and even greater economy—for all models are equipped with a new AC oil filter and an improved AC air cleaner!

Such features as these are usually found only on cars costing up into the thousands. They are marks of distinction on the world's finest automobiles. Yet these are now offered on The Most Beautiful Chevrolet because the spectacular growth of Chevrolet popularity has sent Chevrolet production to tremendous volume—and only the economies of tremendous volume plus inspired engineering make possible the manufacture of so fine a car to sell at Chevrolet prices.

We urge you to come in for a personal inspection. And we ask you to come, not in the customary casual mood—but actually anticipating the revelation you would expect when the world's largest builder of gearshift automobiles announces a completely new line of cars whose truly great value is based on irresistible beauty and a host of improvements including:

SCHOOL DAYS

Mother's Cook Book

If never a sorrow came to us, and never a care we know; If every hope was realized, and every dream came true; If only joy were found on earth, and no one ever sighed, And never a friend proved false to us, and never a loved one died, And never a burden bore us down soul-sick and weary, too, We'd yearn for tests to prove our worth and tasks for us to do. —Edgar Guest.

EVERYDAY GOOD THINGS

A NICE way to cook ham, and one not very well known, is: Baked Ham Steak.

Have a slice of ham (one and one-half inches or two is not too thick) from the center of the ham, trim it nicely and place in a baking pan. Sprinkle lightly with mustard and thickly with brown sugar. Around the ham lay six cloves, a bay leaf, one-fourth of a cupful of carrot cut fine, and one-half of a cupful of celery cut into bits. Add one-half cupful of hot water, cover and cook an hour, then uncover and cook until tender. Serve on a hot platter and garnish with small mounds of cooked seasoned peas, carrots, string beans and glazed turnip.

Glazed Turnips. Pare white turnips and cut into balls with a French cutter. Cook them in boiling salted water until tender, then drain. Put two tablespoonfuls of butter in a frying pan and when melted add one tablespoonful of sugar, then the turnip balls and fry them until well browned.

Black Walnut, Cheese Sandwiches. Mix one cream cheese with enough cream to moisten nicely, add one-half cupful of chopped black walnut meats, season with salt, cayenne and a bit of black pepper. Serve on buttered rye bread. Serve with hot cider for a night lunch.

Fried Apples and Onions. Take green apples cut into thin slices, cut onions into slices and cook them for a few minutes before adding the apples. Use butter or bacon fat to fry them. Serve hot as a garnish to pork or sausage.

Chicken Salad Eclairs. Have ready fresh eclairs (they may be bought at any bakery). Remove a slice from the top of each and fill with chicken salad. Replace the top, insert a small piece of crisp lettuce in each end allowing them to curl slightly over the top. Sprinkle with paprika and serve with olives, salted nuts and coffee at a bridge party.

GIRLIGAGS

"Every dilemma has two horns," says Meditative Meg. "The chap who steps at railroad crossings is liable to get bumped in the rear by somebody who doesn't."

PEOPLE OF NO IMPORTANCE.

By DOUGLAS MALLOCH

PEOPLE of no importance, people like you and me, People the proud will push aside, the fawners fall to see, People who bear the burdens, people who write the songs, People to whom no heaped-up wealth, to whom no crown belongs— Once in a while we wonder, once in a while we ask, We who toil with the pick and pen, we with the humble task, Just why the good Lord made us, why we were born to earth, When, in the minds of the fawning few, only the great have worth.

Well, I will make you answer, well, I will write a rhyme, Just for the folks like you and me who never the heights will climb, People with saw and shovel, people with pick and pen, People who sweep the kitchen floor, the servants of serving-men, Yes, I will make you answer, answer not you, but them, All who worship the golden calf or kneel to a diadem, Yes, I will shout the answer, answer them loud and clear— Maybe they scoff at the humble man, but maybe our God will hear:

Here is a house of splendor, here is a castle grand, Here is a ship that sails the seas, hurrying land to land, Here is the frowning fortress holding the foe at bay, Here are the churches fine and fair where even the great must pray, Here is the level highway stretching to towns afar, Here are the bright and shining rails, here is the speeding car, Here are the carving, gliding, high on the marble wall— People of no importance builded them, after all.

Painters have painted pictures, poets have written lines, Some one has melted iron or brass or labored among the pines, People of no importance, people like you and me, People the proud will push aside, the fawners fall to see, This is, I know, the answer, this is the true reply: God made poets and God made men, and this is the reason why— People of no importance, yes, even the fool who sings, Are the people of most importance in the final scheme of things. The Hotel Stenographer

"WHO'S the guy?" asked the House Detective. "Mine," answered the Hotel Stenographer. "I am as proud of him as if he was my own child. I reformed him, Kelly. He used to be a taxi cab driver carting around joy riders. I met him at a dance and got interested in him and he has quit and is now chauffeur a hearse for an undertaker. It is much more respectable, and besides he never has to work nights and not often in the forenoon, and while he has a lot of plate glass to polish, there isn't much mud to clean off, as there are good roads everywhere, to cemeteries at least. He must be making money, for he brings me flowers almost every time he comes to the house.

"I have been thinking about having him take a correspondence course in undertaking. There is a lot of money in it, although an undertaker is the last person I want to spend money with. But a lot of people do spend money with them, and all the undertakers I ever knew seemed mighty nice fellows.

"All women, Kelly, feel it is their business to reform every man they meet. I am certainly proud of that guy who just went out. The only trouble is that as soon as they get all made over to suit you, they expect you to marry them, and, Kelly, that's too high a price for any girl to pay for a remodeling job. After all, a man who has no more strength of character than to let a woman make him over will make a mighty poor husband." (© by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate, Inc.)

CLOTH GOWNS GAYLY TRIMMED; LUXURIES FOR EVENING MODE

A DRESS of navy twill, strictly tailored, is all-right for practical wear, but a frock of navy twill glorified with red and gold embroidery entwining cunningly contrived sleeves and collar is a different story—a story of an intriguing gown, handsome as handsome can be for smart afternoon occasion. Look at this picture and decide for yourself, as to the effectiveness of just such a navy cloth dress for informal daytime wear. What is true of this model is true of hosts of other cloth frocks this season—embroidery is "the touch that tells" their chic and charm. Thus through the medium of fanciful-sleeve and discreet touches of gay stitchery of the bejeweled heels of her slippers must receive due mention. In short, resplendent accessories are playing an important role in the program of evening costumes. A trio of pretty accessories such as the stilet considers indispensable for a perfect ensemble in admirably displayed in this picture. First, there is the metal lace headband, soft as a bodour cap. The manner of fitting the broad ribbon of gold or silver cloth, it matters not which, snug about the forehead is fashion's latest whim. As to the ostrich fan, it either must blend into the color scheme or else it must boldly contrast. The one in the picture is pale pink.

Shoulder bouquets! More chapters could be written on that subject. A huge rose-pink carnation, its gauzy petals bespangled with wee rhinestones, was selected to complete the color symphony of the costume in this picture. This boutonniere might well have been of tinted metal tissue, for gorgeous gold or silver flowers are very fashionable. Later than the chrysanthemum, which has become a "popular" choice, is the carnation; also dahlias of every color. Orchids, too, are much in favor.

simple cloth frock will take on when fancifully sleeved. Perhaps you have a "perfectly good" yet somewhat passe cloth straight-line frock on hand and are wondering what to do with it. Try the effect of a new pair of sleeves in this dress. Designed after the unusually attractive bell sleeves in this picture they will moderate most any frock as if by magic. Of course the collar must show a bit of embroidery to match that on the sleeves.

Wanted, a vocabulary of super-

Striking Exquisite Accessories.

Wanted, a vocabulary of superlative adjectives, for if one is to faithfully record the exquisite loveliness of the accessories which complement milady's evening costume this season, a word picture, however boldly drawn, will still fall short of doing the subject justice. There is the glittering headdress of exotic splendor, which crowns her permanent wave, the handsome flower so entrancingly positioned on her left shoulder, the mammoth ostrich fan she waves to and fro with languid grace, the gorgeous costume jewelry she wears, the ropes and ropes of pearls which encircle her throat, the scintillating rhinestone bag dangling from her slender wrist, even the splen-

The purpose of this notice is to allow all persons claiming the land adversely, or desiring to show it to be mineral in character, an opportunity to file objections to such landowners or selections with the Register of the United States Land Office, at Las Cruces, N. M., and to establish their interests therein, or the mineral character of the land.

The Misses Brower, Woods and Delph, teachers in our schools, who spent the holidays in California, have returned.
The Misses Woods and Brower
returning on New Year's Day and Miss Delph on Monday.
They all report having an enjoyable trip and a pleasant time.

W.P. Loughrey was here from Alamogordo last Sunday. Tex has been on the A. & S.M. since last summer and said that since his stay in that locality, has gained 20 pounds. Railroad men wishing to put on an additional amount of averdupois, will clip this article and paste it in their hats.

Mr. and Mrs. John Baughman of Leavenworth, Kas., stopped over last Sunday on their way to California, and were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Kelley.
Messrs. Kelley and Baughman are old friends and the meeting was one of extreme pleasure for both families. After an extended trip through the Golden State, the Baughmans will return to their Kansas home.

Mrs. H. S. Brickley and daughters, Marjorie and Hazel, left last Sunday for their home in Tucson after spending the holiday season with Messrs. E.
M. John, and the Misses Ella and Ruth Brickley of Carrizozo.
