Quart of Water Cleans Kidneys

Take a Little Salts If Your Back Hurts, or Bladder Is Troubling You

No man or woman can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Eating too much rich food creates acids, which excite the kidneys. They become overworked from the strain, get sluggish and fall to filter the waste and poisons from the blood. Then we get sick. Rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, dizziness, sleeplessness and urinary disorders often come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys, or your back hurts, or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, begin drinking a quart of water each day, also get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast and in a few days your kidneys may act fine.

This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to flush and stimulate the kidneys; also to help neutralize the acids in the system, so they no longer cause irritation, thus often relieving bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to help keep the kidneys clean and active and the blood pure, thereby often avoiding serious kidney complications.

Good Health Not Won Without Self-Denial

Dr. W. H. Pound, superintendent of the department of health, said at a dinner in New York:

"John D. Rockefeller at forty-five was a dyspeptic wreck, and today he is the healthiest man for his age in the world."

"How did he bring about the miraculous change? The same as he brought about Standard Oil—by endless perseverance, by the exercise of an iron will, by terrific self-denial."

"Most dyspeptics, you know, are like Dashi."

"Dashi, the multimillionaire, was about to order supper at a night club. With his eyes fixed on the menu, he sighed, and said:

"When I was young I could eat anything and afford nothing. Now I can afford anything and eat nothing. Hello! Bring me, waiter, a grilled lobster, a welsh rabbit, bottle of champagne and half a hot cherry pie."

STRAWBERRY OMELET

4 eggs, 4 tablespoons water, 1/2 teaspoon salt, pepper, 1/2 teaspoon Calumet Baking Powder. Beat yolks until thick, add rest of dry ingredients. Fold in whites, beaten stiff. Pour in frying pan. Cook on top of stove until brown on bottom. Place in hot oven spread strawberry jam over cooked omelet and serve while hot.

Argument Bothered Him

It was during a trial in an Ohio city some time ago that one of the jurors suddenly rose from his seat and precipitately fled from the courtroom. He was arrested in his flight before he had left the building, and brought back.

"What do you mean by running off that way?" asked the judge, who knew the man to be a simple, honest farmer. "It's like this, your honor," said the man earnestly. "When Mr. Hibbert finished talking, my mind was all clear, but when Mr. Carter began all was confused again, and I said to myself, 'I'd better leave at once, and stay away till he's done, for to tell the truth, I didn't like the way the argument was going, your honor.'—Exchange.

Does Weakness Detract From Your Good Looks?

Hokendville, Okla.—"I had no appetite and could not sleep—was always nervous. I doctored with one doctor, then another, with no relief, until I tried Dr. Pierce's medicine. I took six bottles of the 'Favorite Prescription' and three of the 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and now my pains have all left me and I am as well as any woman. My complexion is clear, too. Before using Dr. Pierce's medicines I was skin and bones. I am well now and can do my own work without a dread. I feel like a new woman."

Lesson for March 11

JESUS FEEDS THE MULTITUDE

LESSON TEXT—Mark 8:1-10. GOLDEN TEXT—I am the bread of life; he that cometh to Me shall never hunger, and he that believeth on Me shall never thirst.

PRIMARY TOPIC—An Unusual Meal. JUNIOR TOPIC—A Hungry Crowd Fed. INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Jesus Meeting Every-Day Needs. YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Jesus' Compassion for Human Needs.

1. Jesus' invitation to the Weary Disciples (vv. 1-3).

The apostles had just returned from an evangelistic tour in Galilee with a report of what they had done and taught. Their ministry occasioned no little stir. Besides, Jesus Himself continued to preach. As a result of their combined ministry, the commotion was so great that there was no opportunity for resting or eating. In such a time of need Jesus invited His disciples to retire from the crowd and rest. In order to do this they departed privately by ship for a desert place. Periods of withdrawal from the crowd in fellowship with the Lord are necessary after evangelistic campaigns. They serve a double purpose.

1. To get the eyes of the ministers off themselves and their work. 2. To prevent dependency for their failures.

II. Jesus Teaching the Ignorant Multitude (vv. 33, 34).

1. Thronged by the people (v. 33). The wonderful words and works of the Lord and His disciples brought the multitudes to them. To escape the throng they took their departure for a desert place (v. 32). Seeing the Lord and His disciples depart, the people from the surrounding cities anticipated their landing place, and, proceeding thither, welcomed the ship upon its arrival.

2. The Lord moved with compassion (v. 34).

Instead of becoming irritated by the intrusion of the crowd His heart was moved with pity. His personal interests were forgotten as the needs of the shepherdless sheep pressed upon His notice, therefore He began to teach them many things. Jesus is now the same compassionate Savior, touched with the feelings of our infirmities (Heb. 4:15).

III. Jesus Feeding the Hungry Multitude (vv. 35-44).

1. Conference with the disciples (vv. 35-38).

(1) The disciples request that the multitude be sent to the surrounding villages to buy bread (v. 30). According to Matthew, Christ made the proposition that the multitude be fed (Matt. 14:16). (2) Jesus commands them to feed the multitude (v. 37). (3) The disciples' perplexity (v. 37). They began to calculate as to the amount of provisions required. They asked the Lord whether they should go and buy two hundred pennyworth of bread. Their perplexity was due to the fact that they were depending upon their own resources. Instead of Christ. To be face to face with the humanly impossible has a threefold benefit. (a) It makes us realize our dependence upon Christ; (b) Drives us to Him for help in our need; (c) Leads us to give Him the glory for the results. Though our ability to teach, preach or to give, be meager, when coupled with the Lord's ability, it is equal to any demand.

2. Jesus' method in feeding the multitudes (vv. 39-44). (1) The Lord's part. This was to issue instructions as to the method of procedure and to create the provision. Though they had but five loaves and two fishes He so increased them that the need of the hungry multitude was met.

(2) The disciples' part. They were to have the people sit down in companies so as to facilitate distribution. They then took that which the Master had blessed and distributed it to the people. The disciples' responsibility was not for the creation of the provision, but for its distribution to the people. (3) The people's part. Their part was not to create, nor distribute, but obediently to sit down and partake of the provision. Even after the bread had been blessed by the Lord and distributed by the disciples, they would have famished with hunger had they not partaken of the food. Unless the people receive Jesus Christ and the salvation which He has provided they shall eternally starve. The Lord has done His part. The disciples are under solemn obligation to do their part and the final responsibility rests upon the people.

Obedience—Obedience is the secret. Not slavish obedience, but sympathetic, loving, eager obedience. May the law of holiness be to me welcome as the light, sweet as the flowers, more to be desired than much-fine gold.—W. L. Wilkinson.

A Brother's Keeper—A genuine brother's keeper is more concerned with his brother's peril than his own pleasures.—Christian Observer.

Helpless—These are hard times. Why, I heard of a man the other day who couldn't raise money even on government bonds. "Indeed! What was the reason?" "He didn't have the bonds."—Montreal Star. When a man's temper is ruffled his brows are usually knitted.

Small Wonder Charge Made Her Indignant

Mayor Thompson of Chicago, congratulated on the 95 per cent crime reduction that he effected in three months, laughed and answered: "Why, boy, it's enough to make us all as conceited as the film star, isn't it?"

"A millionaire, you know, married a film star, and he found he could never drag her away from the looking glass. There she'd sit, hour after hour, day after day, looking at herself. 'Gosh,' he said one night, 'stop looking at yourself, for goodness' sake. If I was as conceited as you are I'd—'"

"But the film star interrupted him. 'I'm not conceited!' she shrieked. 'Me conceited! Why, I don't think I'm half as beautiful as I really am.'"—Detroit Free Press.

Less and Less

Mrs. Christine Frederick of New York, author of the epigram, "The woman of today is no longer a cook, she's a can-opener," was talking about modern fashions. "We older people complain about them," she said, "and yet we have less and less to complain about every year. Where it's going to stop?" Mrs. Frederick shrugged, then she continued:

"A young girl went into her mother's bedroom the other evening and growled:

"I'm dining downtown tonight, and I can't find my new dinner gown anywhere." "Look again, dear," her mother said. "Maybe you've got it on."

New Jail

Ralph Clark, age six, accompanied his father to Indianapolis recently. They entered the city on Road 31 and were driving along the canal toward Meridian street.

The steel frame of one of the new buildings at Fairview attracted Ralph's attention and he said to his father: "Look, daddy! I guess they are building a new jail. It takes a big one for Indianapolis, don't it, dad?"—Indianapolis News.

Profit in Pine Seedlings

The North Carolina conservation service reports success from the venture of furnishing pine seedlings to farmers. A Johnson county farmer planted 350 long-leaf pine seedlings, with a loss of only 11. Similar reports show that the long-leaf pine may be regarded as a crop.

TEMPTING

Put one of those wonderful Calumet Cakes on the table and see how quickly it disappears. So good it is gone before you know it. Fine food for children. Nourishing, healthful, easy to digest, and easy to make, when leavened with Calumet.

Has Many Applications—There are three different meanings to the word "yukkee." It was first applied to natives or citizens of the New England states, particularly those of old New England families. Then it was applied by people of the Southern states to all the people of the Northern states, in general. Lastly, it is applied by the people of other countries to all citizens and inhabitants of the United States.

No Such Combination—"I want a servant girl who is honest, sober, industrious, and neat." "Then, madam, you had better take four." We always keep some of our illusory. One of them is that we are fat and just.
