Behold, One Oil King

Our Flying Army

Name It Newton

No Mother Love, No Nation

Los Angeles.—The gasoline threat that worried the big oil men a few days ago is becoming reality. Here the price has been cut as low as 10 cents, and deeper cuts are expected. This is due to disorganized production and disorganized distribution.

Any buyer who exults in the low price of today exults prematurely. He will more than make up for it later on.

Old royalty, kings, emperors, etc., are going out. In the realm of finance kings are coming in. The American government, interested in United States prosperity, might make a careful study of Sir Henri Deterding, head of the Shell Oil company.

An able Dutchman, born in Holland, knighted by the British, with his office in London, Deterding surveys the world from the oil man's point of view, literally, as an imperial conqueror.

The other day as lowest bidder he supplied the Japanese navy with oil for a year at 54 cents a barrel, the lowest price ever quoted, and probably bought it from independent California producers for 40 or 45 cents a barrel.

California produces the oil, Japan gets the oil, Deterding gets the profit; the United States sees its oil supply diminished.

On Mather field, Sacramento, Brig. Gen. William E. Gillmore directs the maneuvers of army airplanes, greatest gathering in the history of the army air corps.

One hundred and fifty-nine army planes, from small swift pursuit planes to heavy bombing machines, are taking part in maneuvers such as would be necessary in actual war.

Men that have inspected the equipment of European armies, including France and Britain, say the "provisional wing," commanded by General Gillmore, is as efficient a unit as would be found anywhere on earth.

The small new planet whose existence was asserted by the late Professor Lowell continues to agitate scientists.

Guided by Newton's law, Professor Lowell knew that disturbances in the orbit of Uranus must be accounted for by the existence of another planet.

Officials of Lowell observatory following the new wanderer on the outskirts of our solar system, say it behaves exactly as Professor Lowell would have expected.

A distinguished French astronomer says it is too small to amount to anything, but would change his mind if it shifted its course and struck the earth in the neighborhood of the Place de la Concorde.

The Geographical Society of Mexico very sensibly suggests the name "Newton" for the new planet.

Had it not been for Newton and his law of gravitation, "directly as the mass, inversely as the square of the distance," scientists could not have known of the planet's existence.

Russia, forgetting Sparta's history, plans a human society made to order. Children, taken from their mothers in babyhood, will be raised wholesale by the state. Mothers will enter factories, and otherwise work the same as men do—or, rather, as mares do, on the farm.

Russia should remember that when a mare is valuable, and a fine horse is wanted, the mare is not put to work before the colt is born, or afterward.

Sparta educated its youth; trained young men to surprise and murder the miserable Helot slaves on their way to work at sunrise, that the young men might be heroes in war. Sparta's law used iron for money, that no man might care to have much of it.

The Las Vegas Music Contest

resulted in the honor in the piano contest being awarded to Miss Ruth Kelley, which was our only victory, but being good sports, we must accept the decisions, and rejoice on Ruth's success, while we, are of course, disappointed at not receiving more.

The Las Vegas people were royal in their treatment of the visitors and Carrizozo returns her thanks. Ruth accepts her newly-made honors with becoming modesty.

Rainbow Anniversary Service

Last Sunday evening at the Methodist Church, Carrizozo Assembly, Order of Rainbow for Girls, celebrated the anniversary of the institution of the order in a most approved and befitting manner. A mixed choir sang "Onward Christian Soldiers" as the Advisory Board, led by Past Mother Advisor, Mrs. Blaney and Mother Advisor, Mrs. J. R. Green, followed by officers and members of the order, were seated in reserved places assigned to them.

A short history of the local Assembly was given by Worthy Advisor, Evelyn Grumbles and finished with a token of appreciation for the efforts of the first Advisory Board and first Mother Advisor, Mrs. R. E. Blaney, in advancing the interests of the order, after which Rev. Lawson preached a sermon full of hope and good advice to the girls and predicted that in carrying out the principles of the order, nothing short of happiness and success could follow their efforts.

He praised the Masonic and Eastern Star orders which made the existence of the Rainbow for Girls a fraternal reality.

The order was instituted May 14, 1928, by Mrs. Laura Z. Becker, Supreme Deputy, with a charter membership of 28 and on May 12, 1929, Mrs. Becker officially instituted Assembly No. 7, having complied with all necessary requirements. The membership at present is 39—and it is to be regretted that many members were absent from the meeting, the chief reasons being absence from town at the time. Again, some have moved to other places, a few have married and one has passed from this earthly abode to the end of the Rainbow, where all promises in that shining orb, are fulfilled.

Mrs. B. D. Garner

of Picacho, was a Carrizozo visitor on Monday of this week, and attended a meeting of the Board of Education, of which she is a member. Dr. F. H. Johnson has just completed a modern hospital by installing a Kelly-Koett X-Ray apparatus, the same being installed by T. B. Kinche-loe, technical engineer for the Kelly-Koett Company of Covington, Ky. and former Associate Roentgenologist of the Public Health Service.

With the installment of the above apparatus, the hospital is now fitted out as complete as any in this part of the state, and there will no longer be a need of people going to the expense and trouble of sending patients away from town, as Dr. Johnson is in a position to attend to all cases requiring X-Ray examinations and treatments that follow the diagnosis.

As an example, just as the device had been installed, a little girl with a broken arm was brought to him, an X-Ray examination made, and the child held here for treatment, where, had it not been for the means at hand, the parents would have been put to the expense of sending her away for such treatment.

NEWS REVIEW OF CURRENT EVENTS

Tariff Bill Passed by Senate After Months of Heated Controversy.

AFTER months of heated and acrimonious controversy the senate passed the tariff bill by a vote of 63 to 31. It goes back to the house which passed it last May and will be thrashed over in conference committees of the two houses. The result will be a compromise bill which may be expected in about six weeks.

The bill as passed by the senate represents a higher degree of protection than that afforded under the present law, but provides duties on a somewhat lower level than the bill passed by the house.

Senator Reed Smoot (Rep., Utah) told the senate that the dutiable items in the bill as passed represent the equivalent of an average ad valorem rate of 28.99 per cent, as compared with 49.54 per cent as reported from the finance committee, 43.15 per cent as passed by the house, 34.61 per cent in the present law and 21.09 per cent in the Underwood act of 1913. The senate made 1,253 amendments to the house bill, according to Senator Smoot.

Among the features of the senate bill are included many increases in rates on agricultural products over those granted in the house bill, a somewhat smaller increase in the duty on sugar than in the house bill, imposition of duties on cement and brick as in the house bill, a new duty on soft wood lumber, elimination of duties on shingles and hardwood lumber as proposed in the house bill, lower duties than in the house on aluminum, pig iron, watches and clocks, and on many chemicals and other manufactured articles.

Bitter contests in the deliberations of the conference committees of the two houses are expected over the export debenture farm relief provision and repeal of the flexible tariff which are in the senate bill. Senator Borah, who voted for the bill, indicated that he did so chiefly because of his support of these two provisions, and intimated that he would vote against any conference report that eliminated them.

On the final vote on the bill 46 Republicans and 7 Democrats voted for the bill, while 23 Democrats and 5 Republicans voted against it. The radicals split, seven of them voting for the bill and one being paired for the bill while five voted in the negative.

THE question of paying the price which France demands for joining a five-power navy reduction treaty has been passed up to Great Britain by the United States delegation. If the British government offers a security guarantee acceptable to France, the American delegation may favorably consider America's commitment to a consultative pact.

Under this plan Great Britain would be pledged to protect France against aggression. America would be pledged to consult with European powers in the event of a European war, but would not be bound to employ armed force against the aggressor. It is not clear whether the United States would be committed by implication to take sides in a European quarrel, and join any boycott proclaimed by the League of Nations. Whether the British government will make a concession in line with a security guarantee acceptable to France is the big question of the moment, and one Macdonald's cabinet must soon decide.

Since the beginning of the conference France has been trying to induce Great Britain to underwrite French security. Hitherto the British have refused to give France security guarantees, declaring against entangling military alliances. But both France and Great Britain would like to commit the United States to an understanding by which this country would not be neutral in case of a European war, but would respect any blockade declared by the League of Nations. Now the American delegation holds out promise of such an approach to commitment of a character represented by a consultative pact on the condition Great Britain will give France an acceptable guarantee.

Foreign Minister Briand of France has returned to the conference and is happy in seeing what he believes is a surrender by Great Britain and the United States to the French demand for a security pact.

THAT France has reduced her army by 44 per cent since 1913 was claimed by Senator Albert Mahieu as the senate approved the 1930 army budget. Expenditure, however, increased, owing to a boost in war material. This year France will begin the application of the one-year service act, practically all conditions now being fulfilled. One of these conditions is that a force of 100,000 permanently enlisted men should be maintained.

R. T. REV. James De Wolf Perry, bishop of Rhode Island, was elected primate of the Episcopal church at a session of the house of bishops in Chicago. He succeeds the late Bishop Charles P. Anderson of Chicago. Bishop Perry as primate or presiding bishop occupies a position in the United States comparable to that of the archbishop of Canterbury in England. Bishop Perry is a great-grand-nephew of Commodore Oliver Hazard Perry, hero of the battle of Lake Erie in 1812.

PROPOSALS to pay World war veterans a portion of the face value of their adjusted compensation certificates in cash received a death blow in a letter from Secretary Mellon to Representative Hawley, chairman of the house ways and means committee. Under a bill fathered by Representative Cochran the $635,000,000 now held to the credit of the adjusted compensation fund would be made available for the payment to certificate holders of 25 per cent of the face value of the certificates.

In his letter Secretary Mellon pointed out that the Cochran proposal is based on the false assumption that all of the $635,000,000 reserve is immediately available.

The fact is that in order to finance the scheme it would be necessary to increase taxes or authorize a bond issue for the purpose, he wrote, thereby increasing the public debt with a consequent disruption of the orderly program upon which the government is proceeding.

THE Department of Agriculture announces that a 25 per cent increase in the acreage of corn this year, a 15 per cent decrease in that of durum wheat, and a 1 per cent increase in the acreage of all other spring wheat, as compared with last year's harvest acreage, were indicated by farmers' intentions on March 1 to plant this spring.

The report was based on returns from about 50,000 farmers and was intended to furnish information which would enable farmers to make such adjustments in their plans for this year's plantings as may seem desirable.

THE Canadian house of commons, by a vote of 173 to 11, passed Prime Minister King's bill to ban liquor exports to the United States.

The galleries were crowded for the final commons scene in connection with the bill. Senators, who will now have the bill in hand in the upper chamber, crowded their railed sanctum overlooking the commons floor, following the vote with keen interest. The 173 to 11 majority recorded for the bill is one of the largest on commons records, and the total vote of 184 out of a possible 344 votes indicates a remarkably large attendance of members.

HIGH treasury officials express confidence that the 1 per cent income tax reduction granted by congress for the year 1929 can be continued this calendar year. Income tax collections for March have exceeded expectations thus far, and the financial outlook for the government for the remainder of the fiscal year 1929 is bright.

Revisions from income taxes for the fiscal year that ends June 30 now total $1,700,000,000, or $134,000,000 more than was collected for the corresponding period last year. This collection has given the treasury books a paper surplus of $101,957,270, despite a falling off of customs receipts for the year of $26,000,000.

Treasury experts hold that with settlement of the pending tariff bill the custom duty collections will expand.

Federal actuaries believe the heaviest drain on the treasury will come from the federal farm board. Congress has just appropriated an additional $100,000,000 for the board. How much the board will be forced to draw from the fund is dependent upon the agriculture situation.

THE great North German Lloyd liner Europa broke the world's record on her maiden trip, to the United States. She smashed the record held by her sister ship, the Bremen, by 18 minutes, and could easily have bettered the mark by several hours. The official time from Cherbourg breakwater to Ambrose Lightship was 4 days, 17 hours and 6 minutes. It took the Bremen 18 minutes longer. So the crown of the fastest liner in the world goes to the Europa.

CHAIRMAN ALEXANDER LEGGE of the federal farm relief board has put himself emphatically on record as opposed to the development of any new irrigation and reclamation enterprises by the government. So long as the farm board is striving to reduce the acreage of wheat and other agricultural commodities the opening of new lands which would increase surpluses is "unwarranted and absolutely contrary to common sense," Mr. Legge asserted. He added that he has had conversations with Interior department officials on the subject and that more active steps by the board may follow.

"Certainly," the farm board chairman continued, "we will stand squarely against all bills in congress that would give us more farms and farmers at this time."

THE national business survey conference has received reports from 27 lines of business for the four months following the stock market crash which indicate that American business, in general, is firm and showing steady improvement.

Although the reports "indicate both strong and weak spots" some of the early retarding factors, partly psychological, "appear to have been gradually overcome," according to Julius H. Barnes, chairman of the conference, who made public a summary of the reports. This view was borne out by the reports themselves, three-fourths of which were optimistic.

"The reports indicate that the importance laid upon construction as an influence in restoring industrial balance has not been over emphasized," Mr. Barnes asserted. "They show that for a revival of construction in its manifold forms a first requirement is adequate and reasonably priced credit."

There is no cause, whatever for alarm over the country's construction program, according to Mr. Barnes, as utilities of all kinds contemplate such expenditures this year as to aggregate $3,250,000,000, as against $2,963,000,000 last year.

REPORTS made to William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor, show that unemployment decreased slightly in the first two weeks of March for the first time since August.

Reports from trade unions in 24 cities for the first half of the month indicated that 21 per cent of their membership was unemployed, as compared to 22 per cent in February. Based on these statistics, Mr. Green declared definitely that "the rise in unemployment has been checked."

Golfers Had Had Other

Shots Before That One

Four golfers, relates London Tit-Bit, were resting at the ninth green, which was behind a mound, when a battered ball came over the rise and rolled into a sandy trap. The player was not in view.

"Let's make him think he did it in one," said one of the golfers. So they picked up his ball and put it in the hole.

Presently a weary player walked over the mound and looked about for his ball. The four men rose at him, shouting, "Did you hit that ball? Bravo! You've done it in one, old man. Look! It's in the hole!"

The player looked bewildered. "Here's how it rolled," they said, tracing a course across the green. "A perfect shot! The right angle and the right strength! Bravo!"

"The weary player pulled out a tattered score card. "Good," said he; "that makes it 30 for this hole!"

Most Northern Church

The world's northernmost church will be erected during the summer at Cape York, native settlement on the northwestern tip of Greenland, it has been announced in Copenhagen. The original fund for the construction of a church building was established two years ago through the sale of several fox skins which brought a total of $1,050. Additional contributions from the native pariah-men and public-spirited Danes have increased the amount materially and the so-called Thule committee, headed by the great explorer, Dr. Knud Rasmussen, has agreed to erect a parsonage out of its own funds. Cape York is situated on the western point of Hayes peninsula at 77 degrees north latitude, approximately 900 miles from the North pole.

Probation Officer L. J. Kinney of Placer county, California, is through censoring dances to enforce an ordinance passed limiting attendance at public dances to persons more than eighteen years of age after midnight. Kinney says he recently tapped a dancing damsel on the shoulder and asked her if she knew about the law. She led him to the dressing room, where two young babes were sleeping on a cot. "Those are my grandchildren," she scornfully informed him.

Snowy linens are the pride of every housewife. Keep them in that condition by using Red Cross Ball Blue in your laundry. At all grocers.—Adv.

Well! Mother—Geraldine's boy friend seems sort of put out about something. You haven't said anything to him, have you?

Father—Not a word. As a matter of fact I haven't even seen him since I handed him the bill for reupholstering the sofa.

All the world's a stage, but some don't like play-acting and become hermits.

Bride Tells Her Secret

"FOR a young bride of twenty-one to lose her vitality and pop is disastrous, almost a sacrifice," says Mrs. George E. Pillow, of Franklin, Va. "That, however," she continues, "is just what I did."

"I had only been married a few months to an athletic husband, who went everywhere and did everything. I tried to keep up with his pace, and simply collapsed under the strain. I never was really ill; just yellow-skinned, depressed, and listless. Swimming, dancing, golf, I just couldn't face them. When I began to lose my clear complexion, I was desperate."

"Then one day a girl friend came to pay me a visit. In the bottom of her little bag of clothes lay a crystal-clear bottle—Nujol! A short woman-to-woman talk—a telephone call to a neighboring drug store—and my future happiness was settled."

"That was a year ago. Now I too am never without Nujol, which has brightened and cleansed my body like a cake of pure soap. I eat, sleep, swim, and hike with the enthusiasm of a child. My complexion is all it used to be—and best of all—I am my husband's little pal again!"

The wonderful thing about crystal-clear Nujol is that it is not a medicine; it contains no drugs—it cannot hurt even a baby. It is simply the natural internal lubrication which

THE CHILD AND THE KINGDOM

LESSON TEXT—Matthew 18:1-14: 18: 13-14.

GOLDEN TEXT—Suffer little children and forbid them not to come unto Me: for of such is the kingdom of heaven.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Jesus, the Children's Friend.
JUNIOR TOPIC—Jesus the Friend of Girls and Boys.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Growing in the Kingdom.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The Sin of Neglecting and Misguiding Children.

I. The Greatest in the Kingdom of Heaven (vv. 1-4).

1. The disciples' question (v. 1). The prominence given to Peter in connection with the announcement of Christ's purpose to build the church and the payment of tribute with the money in the fish's mouth, provoked jealousy on the part of the other disciples. The transfiguration scene revealed the divine person and the program of His kingdom. Seeing that the kingdom was to come to realization despite the tragedy of the cross, disciples wished to know their place of rank in the kingdom.

2. Jesus' answer (vv. 2-4).

He taught them by placing a little child in their midst.
(1) Condition of entrance into the kingdom (v. 3). The great question, was as to whether they were really in the kingdom. Their behavior revealed the fact that they needed conversion. Before they could even see, much less enter into, the kingdom, they must be born from above (John 3:3, 6). (2) Whosoever possesses childlike humility is the greatest (v. 4). The child is dependent, lowly and modest. Those who have been born again, or converted, have these characteristics.

II. The Lord's Identification With His Believing Ones (vv. 5-9).

1. Receiving the believer in Christ's name is receiving Christ (v. 5).

Through faith in Christ we become God's children and so completely in our life interwoven with His that His regard's treatment of us as treatment of Himself.

2. The peril of causing a believer to stumble (vv. 6-9).

To cause to stumble means to give occasion for a moral fall. The particular reference was to the carnality and selfishness which were expressing themselves in their contention for pre-eminence. Their behavior was not only an injury, but a stumbling block to others. Everything causing one to stumble, though it be as vital as hands and feet, should be removed.

III. Believers Are Specially Cared for by the Heavenly Father (vv. 10-14).

1. They are under angelic guardianship (v. 10).

So precious is the believer in God's sight that angelic messengers are provided (Heb. 1:10). These angelic messengers have access to the very throne of God, even beholding His face. So high is the honor bestowed upon believers that the highest angels are sent to guard them.

2. The Son came especially to save such from their lost condition (vv. 11-14).

The Heavenly Father does not will that any one of these should perish. They are objects of the Father's seeking love. The salvation of the humble believer has been secured by the incarnation and the sacrifice of the Good Shepherd.

IV. Jesus Receiving Little Children (Matt. 19:13-15).

We should carefully note the setting of this text. Jesus had been speaking of the sanctity of marriage, which is the bulwark of the home. Into the sacred enclosure of the home comes childhood to complete and ennoble it.

1. Children brought to Jesus (v. 13).

Doubtless they were brought by their parents. Many parents today who are careless as to themselves, desire to bring their children into touch with Jesus Christ.

2. Rebuked by the disciples (v. 13).

They regarded children as too insignificant to engage the Lord's attention. Christ places high value upon children.

3. The disciples rebuked by Christ (v. 14).

These words uttered by the Lord have placed a peculiar dignity upon the child. It is Christlike to care for children and no service in the world pays such large dividends.

4. Christ laid His hands upon the children (v. 15).

Condemning Others

The upsets of Children

All children are subject to little upsets. They come at unexpected times. They seem twice as serious in the dead of night. But there's one form of comfort on which a mother can always rely; good old Castoria. This pure vegetable preparation can't harm the tiniest infant. Yet mild as it is, it soothes a restless, fretful baby like nothing else. Its quick relief soon sees the youngster comfortable once more, back to sleep. Even an attack of colic, or diarrhea, yields to the soothing influence of Castoria. Keep Castoria in mind, and keep a bottle in the house—always. Give a few drops to any child whose tongue is coated, or whose breath is bad. Continue with Castoria until the child is grown! Every drugstore has Castoria; the genuine has Chas. H. Fletcher's signature on the wrapper.

Shampoo the CUTICURA way

What a delightful and healthful shampoo it gives! Anoint the scalp lightly with CUTICURA OINTMENT; then make a strong suds with CUTICURA SOAP by dissolving shavings of the SOAP in hot water. Wet the hair thoroughly, then shampoo with the suds and rinse, several times, finishing with tepid or cold water. This will keep your scalp in a healthy condition, and your hair will be soft and lustrous.

Shrimp—Aren't you relieved to have your daughter married?
Lobsterpot—Yes, of about $500.

No???

"Naw, not when I was a kid."

Three Mothers Agree

When mother is tired, nervous or ill the whole home is upset. For her family's sake, every mother wants to be well and strong. These three women tell how Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound helps them to care for their families.

Mrs. H. Dolhonde, 6318 York St., New Orleans, Louisiana
"Before my last baby was born, I started taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I got such good results that I named her Catherine Lydia. I have six older children and five grandchildren, too. I am now taking the Vegetable Compound again because of my age. I eat and sleep better and I do all my housework, and my washing. I will do my best to answer letters."

Mrs. Harold Goodnow, 36 Cane St., Fitchburg, Massachusetts
"I cannot praise your medicine enough. After my baby came I was rundown. I had to go to bed often through the day. I took three bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I felt like a different woman. If any mother has those tired feelings I advise her to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."

Mrs. Lloyd R. Blasing, 115 So. Ohio St., Anaheim, California
"After my baby came I was so nervous and tired that I felt miserable. One day a booklet was left at our door and after reading it I decided to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I am now on my fourth bottle and I feel much stronger. It has helped me in every way and I feel sure that other women in rundown condition will pick up if they will only take a few bottles."

Baseball, Hurrah!

There will be a game of real baseball next Sunday, at Athletic Park between the Hi School team and the East Stars. As this will be the first game of the season, we should all turn out and encourage the boys in their initial game. As the warm sunshine greets us, it makes us smell the dust of the diamond, and old, though some of us may be, it makes us feel like boys again. Probable line-ups are:
HI SCHOOL - EAST SIDE
Mose Lewis - C. Antonio Lopez
Ray Markey - P. Antonio Lopez
Hazen Davis - 1B. M. C. St. John
Tom Cook - 2B. Art Chavez
G. Kampala - 3B. Joe Chavez
A. Brady - SS. C. Martinez
M. Chavez - 1B. M. Garcia
G. Young - CF. D. Chavez
B. Lewis - RF. Nick Vega

There will be a game of 25c to provide a fund to buy baseballs. You will never miss the two bits and it will help the boys to get a start, at least to purchase a few balls and bats. Game called at 2:30. Come out!

"Three Trees Club"

Since Rev. J. B. Skinner started the movement to encourage the planting of at least three trees in front of residences, a goodly number of citizens have planted three trees and some have planted more.

Here are some of them: Henry Lutz, Dr. Johnson, B. L. Stimmel, Ben Sanchez, S. O. Spoles and J. V. Hobbie. These mentioned are the ones we have heard from, while others whom we will make mention of later, have ordered trees and will have them planted before this paper comes out again.

This would seem like a small beginning, but more than one good movement that has proved successful had a small beginning. More along this line next week.

It's wise to choose a SIX!

After all, it is a perfectly simple matter to decide which automobile to buy in today's market. Only two questions must be answered to your satisfaction—

First: Which car gives the most for my money?

Second: Which car represents the soundest investment in satisfaction and pride of ownership?

Six-Cylinder Motor

In buying a low-priced car consider the following facts:

It is wise to choose a six-cylinder motor—for six cylinders are necessary to take out vibration and roughness. Six-cylinder smoothness will save the motor, the chassis, the body, the passengers and the driver.

The Chevrolet is a six. And yet it sells at a price that anyone can afford to pay.

This very low-priced car lasts longer, not only because of fine materials and oversize parts, but also because it is a six. Its big, smooth, 58-horsepower six-cylinder engine is always "taking it easy." There is no feeling of strain.

With all its six-cylinder smoothness and power the New Chevrolet Six uses no extra gasoline or oil. Efficient design makes this possible—overhead valves—high compression power from any fuel—very latest carburetor—close-fitting, long-wearing pistons—crankcase ventilation—air cleaner. You can really have extreme economy and still satisfy your ideal of truly modern transportation.

Chevrolet economy is also the mark of Chevrolet sincerity in manufacture. To illustrate:

Chevrolet valves are readily accessible and adjustable. This saves replacing valves, and also makes it possible to preserve the efficiency of the engine.

Fully Enclosed Brakes

A similar example is found in Chevrolet's molded brake lining—reducing the necessity of frequent replacement, and consequent expense.

ROADSTER OR PHAETON

Furthermore, there is a rear axle inspection plate on the Chevrolet.

This makes it unnecessary to take the axle apart to examine or clean it.

The new Chevrolet Six is full of such evidence that true motor car economy comes from modern advancement and refinement.

Like the finest cars, the Chevrolet Six provides the comfort and protection of four springs controlled by hydraulic shock absorbers. They are mounted lengthwise, in the direction of car travel, and self-adjusting spring shackles maintain quiet.

Delco-Lovley Shock Absorbers

With low suspension and extra wheelbase, the Chevrolet Six has excellent proportions.

Its impressive front view is distinguished by the genuine honeycomb radiator, another mark of modern cars.

Safety Gasoline Tank

The gasoline tank is in the rear, for safety and finer appearance.

Chevrolet beauty instantly says "Body by Fisher"—costly car style, with the permanent quiet of Fisher composite steel-and-wood construction.

Body by Fisher also gives you a genuine non-glare windshield, adjustable driver's seat, more space, deeper and wider cushions, clearer vision, finer fabrics and fittings.

There is just as much extra value everywhere in the car. BY ANY STANDARD the Chevrolet Six is the greatest value in the low-price field.

It is wise to choose the Chevrolet Six with its six-cylinder valve-in-head motor... with full scientific equipment... with its Body by Fisher... with four long semi-elliptic springs, long wheelbase, low suspension, rear-mounted gas tank, honeycomb radiator and all the other features of this day and age.

See your nearest Chevrolet dealer today and drive a Chevrolet Six. Ten minutes at the wheel will show you what a difference six cylinders make.

Seeing Big League BASEBALL

By BILLY EVANS
Sportswriter, Big League Umpire and General Manager of the Cleveland Indians

I have seen Ed Walsh, greatest of all spitballers, a real "iron man," pitch many remarkable ball games. I recall a no-hit game he pitched against Boston for Chicago, the only man to reach first base getting a base on balls. The count was three balls and two strikes on the batter, when I walked him. I was much relieved when the fourth ball was so wide of the plate there could be no doubt as to how it should be called. It was a ticklish situation for me.

However, the greatest exhibition of pitching I ever saw Walsh give was crammed into one crucial ninth inning. Walsh has since told me that he virtually ended his major league career as a star in that one inning. Something snapped in his arm as he pitched the final strike of the game. His arm went lame. Despite all kinds of medical attention it never regained its strength. He pitched some good balls but only spasmodically.

But to get back to that all important inning. Chicago was playing at St. Louis in the opening game of the season. Bill Lange was the Chicago pitcher. For seven innings he went along in fine style, holding a one-run margin.

It was a cold day. The Chicago reserves were huddled together on the bench, bundled up in their sweaters, trying to keep warm. Despite the fact that Lange was wavering it was hoped he would be able to finish the game.

Lange started the ninth inning badly, walking the first batsman on four pitched balls. Two more passes and the sacks were loaded; defeat for Chicago was imminent. Then I heard one of the Chicago players yell time. Looking toward the Chicago bench I saw Ed Walsh place a slippery elm tablet in his mouth and take a drink of water. Walsh, a spitball pitcher, used slippery elm to increase the flow of saliva, thereby helping him in making the ball break more deceptively. Then he started for the pitcher's box, removing his sweater as he went, handing it to Lange, as that player walked out of the box.

Swinging his arm around in a circle to loosen it up, then throwing the five balls permitted a relief pitcher, Walsh settled down to his work.

Walsh threw just ten balls in that inning to retire the three St. Louis batters on strikes. At seven of his pitches, the opposing hitters swung and missed, two were called strikes and one a ball. No so much as a foul was made off his delivery.

Absolutely cold, with the bases filled, no one out and working on a one-run margin, Walsh retired three of the best hitters of the St. Louis club on strikes. Walsh, as was his custom, once noting Lange in distress, had not waited for anybody to tell him to go to the rescue. He took command of the situation himself.

Willingness to work at all times and under all conditions soon told on even a pitcher with so powerful a physique as Walsh. He paid the penalty by shortening his big league career at least five years.

Today there are two Ed Walshes on the Chicago club. One is Ed, manager, now a White Sox coach. The other is Ed, Jr., a chip off the old block. He looms as a real prospect but I seriously doubt if he ever soars to the heights, reached by his illustrious "Dad." Pitchers like Ed Walsh and Walter Johnson are the decided exception.

Trusted His Speed

James Callahan, playing at Kansas City, was credited with pulling one of the fastest trick plays ever seen in baseball. Callahan was pitching with an exceptionally fast runner on second base. He was trying to keep this player from stealing third. Feeling as though about to deliver the ball, as the runner started to steal, he whirled around, sprang to second base and actually touched the runner out.

FAITH IN DEMOCRACY PASSING

By DR. JOSEPH BARTHELEMY, Member Institute of France.

THE existence today of eight so-called dictatorships in Europe is proof that the Old world no longer has faith in democracy, for although the outward forms of these dictatorships may vary, they all have a common origin which is in the failure of previous parliamentary systems to cope successfully with exceptional difficulties following the World war.

The crisis which has broken out in the institutions of so many countries exists everywhere in the minds of men. We have more republics than in 1914, but nevertheless the democratic idea was stronger then than now. In 1914 the future seemed to belong to democracy. Today we no longer have the same certitude. In any case faith in democracy is dead. Who are those today who would die for parliamentary government?

The modern dictator is essentially a socialist. He is the result of the struggle of the egregious interest of the masses against the moral, social, political individualism, which since the outbreak of the French revolution in 1789, has animated the entire development of democratic civilization. All the foundations of our old beliefs, in which we trusted for a century and a half, are endangered.

It is an old dogma that democracy signifies peace, and there is a reason to fear that the present crisis of political liberty in Europe may jeopardize the peace of the world.

BIBLE NEGLECTED BY STUDENTS

By A. E. ANDERSON, University of California.

People in general, including university students and graduates, know less about the Bible than almost any other masterpiece of the world's literature. Of course everybody knows that the Bible is an important book. But how many have ever read it critically, alertly, appreciatively, as they would any other book?

The Bible is not a single book. It is a library; in fact an entire literature; the literature of the ancient Hebrews. And being so varied in its contents and its sources, it contains an astonishing diversity of literary types, subjects and points of view.

But not only is the Bible the masterpiece of Hebrew literature. In its English translation it has been the most influential work in our own literature. Our poetry and prose are full of references to it. It has directly inspired some of our greatest writers. Our entire literature is saturated with the Bible. In fact, it contains such a wealth of what is entertaining, of what is elevating, of what is instructive, of what is essential to a complete education, that no one can afford to be ignorant of it.

And yet our students are more familiar with the gods of Greece and Rome, who, as William Lyon Phelps put it, "would all be in jail if they were alive today!"

WOMEN'S PART IN POLITICS

By NELLIE TAYLOR ROSS, Former Governor of Wyoming.

We deplore, but we cannot refute, the charge that the decade since the suffrage amendment has made no appreciable advance in ethics. Some women are accepting their responsibilities, but there is a far larger number whose political consciousness is altogether unawakened. Enfranchised women in other countries are outstripping us in many directions—certainly in achieving the outstanding positions where they can mold political life and thought. In England 68 women stood for the house of commons at the last election and 13 of them were elected.

We are going to have to make political activity fashionable. Countless women won't embark unless they are quite certain it will be regarded as "the thing to do."

From the background of my experience as organizer of the women of the Democratic party, I would make these two assertions: If the political parties were smart enough to have women shape some of their policies their whole tone would be elevated and women could restore the idealism that has been merged in materialism.

SOVIET CHALLENGE TO FAITH

By BISHOP H. S. LONGLEY, Iowa (Episcopal).

A government founded solely on idealism does not supply the individual citizen with the stamina necessary to meet the moral crises of life. On the surface it might seem that the Soviet is within its rights in setting up an anti-religious government. So long as only those who desire this form of government are affected, it is all right; but the trouble lies in the fact that not only are there large numbers of fundamentally religious Russians, but also it is impossible to have in existence a government of this sort without its effect being felt in Christian nations throughout the world.

Virtually all the older generation in Russia is religious at heart, but they dare not speak. The younger generation is not religious because the Soviet forbids that they be told of religion until they are eighteen years old. By then their character is formed.

I certainly believe that a diplomatic protest should be made by the nations of the world even though it lead to bloody conflict.

RELIGION AND DAILY LIFE

By REV. DR. BOVARD, Methodist Board of Education.

The rescue of religion from the confines of the church and the Sabbath day and putting its influence into everyday life is the present interest of the board of education of the Methodist Episcopal church.

This is not a warfare of education against no education. It is rather an interest of purposeful education versus a conglomerate of educational forces undirected. Newspapers, pictorials, magazines, moving pictures, radio, even ordinary conversation, are confronting us constantly. How much character forming education do they contain?

Our problem, then, is to provide for simple, unobtrusive Christian living in all the social groups which the enterprises of present day life present, rather than getting formal recognition for text books on religion and types of public worship.

We must rescue religion from the confines of the church and Sabbath day and bring it into unison with the basic ideals of common daily life

ONLY A DOCTOR KNOWS
WHAT A LAXATIVE
SHOULD BE

Danger lies in careless selection of laxatives! By taking the first thing that comes to mind when bad breath, headaches, dizziness, nausea, biliousness, gas on stomach and bowels, lack of appetite or energy warns of constipation, you risk forming the laxative habit.

Depend on a doctor's judgment in choosing your laxative. Here's one made from the prescription of a specialist in bowel and stomach disorders. Its originator tried it in thousands of cases; found it safe for women, children and old folks; thoroughly effective for the most robust man. Today, Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, as it is called, is the world's most popular laxative. It is composed of fresh herbs and other pure ingredients. You can get it, in generous bottles and ready for use, at any drugstore.

of the U. S. Internal Revenue Service, is here this week canvassing and investigating local livestock men for delinquent income tax returns for the period covering 1927 to 1929 inclusive. Mr. Roberts' office has completed a check of the records of the New Mexico Cattle Sanitary Board and made transcript records of every head of livestock shipped from this state, they are also checking county and bank records for information on delinquents. The law requires that every livestock man reporting on a cash receipts base must make a return if his annual sales amount to $5,000.00 or over. It will be greatly to the advantage of every livestock grower that has not made an income tax return to check back over his sales and operations for several years past and find out exactly what he has done. If he has failed to comply with the requirements of the Income Tax law and makes a voluntary report to Mr. Roberts of such facts, he will meet with consideration, courtesy, and excellent co-operation on adjustment of the matter.

Lupe Gabaldon

was here from the new town of Claunch, N. M., Friday. The town is situated in the midst of the bean belt, being about 16 miles from Mountainair. A new postoffice has been established there and the town is growing nicely. Lupe has a ranch near the town and while this section is well suited to the growing of beans, it is a good stock country, as well. One of our old Carrizozo boys, Alfredo Lopez, is teaching school at Zacate Canyon, near Claunch.

George Elmgren

and Stanley Bahash were over from Fort Stanton Saturday. Stanley has lately arrived from Fort Bliss and is an added help to the baseball team, as he was one of the stars at Fort Bliss last year.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Atkinson formerly of Corona, leaving here about 5 months ago and settled in Arizona, have changed their location and are now in Silver City, Utah, one of the thriving young towns of that section.
