High School, 1st, Blue Ribbon—Home Economics, Commercial, Corona. High School, 2nd, Red Ribbon—Home Economics, Commercial, Capitan.

The grade exhibits were judged by grades and the high school by groups. The grade exhibits were judged also by the different kinds of work exhibited.

The Home Economics were judged as a whole and as to the character of the exhibit, whether balanced and representative of the department as a whole.

We have the following suggestions to make in regard to the judging of the exhibits another year. These are approved by the committee.

- 1. All exhibits from each school be grouped together in place of being scattered and mixed as a whole. 2. That each school be judged as a whole. 3. That somebody be in charge of the exhibits and responsible for their care during the time the exhibits are in the building in order that there shall be no destruction of them or disappearance. 4. That persons who are to act as officials elsewhere, be not placed on a judging committee. 5. That the exhibits be judged not later than the evening of first day. 6. That a score card be worked out by which all grade school exhibits are to be judged.

We respectfully submit these suggestions with regard to the judging and care of the exhibits and hope that they will be ap-

—Afterword—

1. The suggestions of the committee on school exhibits are pertinent and arrangements will be made to have this exhibit in a building where it can be locked up and on display at certain hours to be announced. 2. A score card will be arranged for the agricultural exhibit and arrangements made so that it can be more easily cared for. 3. In the report of the H. S. Reporter of the Result of the track meet of the individual points, total did not check with the total awarded each school. This was due to the fact that the relay race was not run and each school that had a team to enter was awarded one point as a forfeit. To the total

Rebekahs Initiate; Entertain

Last Friday night at the Odd-Fellow Hall, Coalora Lodge No. 15, I. O. O. F., held a big meeting at which three candidates were initiated into the mysteries of the order. A degree team from Alamogordo conferred the degree, which was done in 100 per cent perfect order.

Visitors from our neighboring town were — Bernice and Jane Bradford, Lilly Denney, Helen Wilford, J. G. Melton, Julia Martin, Elizabeth Green, Sally Jackson, Hilda Newsom, Louise Holden, Josephine Dudley, J. A. Lewis, O. G. Cady and A. J. Newsom.

Mrs. G. M. Prior of Camp Malpais and a member of the lodge at Breckenridge, Texas, was also a visitor.

The hall was filled to overflowing and after the initiation, the lodge served refreshments. Many good talks were made by the visitors and also members of the local lodge on the good and welfare of the order. Coalora Lodge wishes to thank the Alamogordo Rebekahs for their kindness and courtesies in making the trip and conferring the degree. An enjoyable evening was spent by all who attended.

Mrs. E. C. Trieb of Roswell was a Carrizozo visitor for a few days this week, and returned to Roswell by the way of Alamogordo to look over several desirable locations for a new, modern theatre. Mrs. Trieb has been in the theatre business for several years at Roswell in connection with the Princess and Capitan Theatres.

Sheriff J. E. Brady and Henry Delgado left yesterday morning for Santa Fe, accompanied by two prisoners, whom the sheriff will deliver at the state prison. Mr. Delgado will go before the State Board of Barber Examiners for an examination before they return home.

of the points won by individuals for their various schools, add 1 point and it will check with the recapitulation of points won by schools. 4. The Lutz building will not be available next year and arrangements will have to be made to get by without it. Suggestions are invited.

5 The receipts of the football game, Hondo - Carrizozo played off after the fair were $30 65. This was distributed to the four teams that participated in the fair and track meet, less the expense and was not covered into the general fund. 6. Ike N. Wingfield of Ruidoso donated $5 to the fair and track meet. Ike is in the mercantile business and is a frequent visitor to Carrizozo.

Contract Let for Big Highway Project

The contract for the big Federal Highway Project between here and Capitan was let on Nov. 3, to the Greene Construction Company. The work will be started as soon as the equipment can be brought from Hondo, where the company had recently finished work, and transferred to the place of beginning the work, which will be at Carrizozo, we understand. One thing especially in the Greene Construction Company's favoring the bidding was that the enormous expense of transporting the equipment was the means of rendering a lower bid from the fact that the equipment is already close at hand. The outcome of bidding has relieved the tension along the route, and everybody may be assured that the work will begin before the cold weather sets in and furnish employment for many idle men in Lincoln County. Let's go!

Halloman—Condar

At the Baptist parsonage Wednesday morning with Rev. Jordan performing the ceremony, J. B. Halloman of Roswell and Miss Belva Condar of Alto were united in marriage. The young couple will make their home in Roswell, we understand.

Ernest Dingwall spent a few days in El Paso this week.

Albert Kimbrell, son of our County Assessor, landed a big buck down on the Malpais last Friday, just one day before the season closed. It was a monster, too.

Dr. F. H. Johnson spent Monday in El Paso on professional business.

Larry Dow, deputy county assessor, is back at his duties after a slight illness.

Lower Court Affirmed

Judgment of the lower court today was affirmed by the supreme court in quashing a writ of mandamus which would have compelled the Carrizozo board of trustees to call an election on an electric franchise. The trustees refused to call an election and the realtors, two of them applicants for the franchise and three taxpayers, got an alternative writ commanding the board to act. In the district court, the alternative writ was quashed and the realtors appealed. "Only clear legal rights are enforceable by mandamus," the Supreme Court says.

OSCURA OBSERVATIONS

The Halloween dance and box supper was a delightful affair. The prize dance was won by Lillian Brown and Jack Brazel.

Mmes. Dixon and Edwards are attending the Teachers' Convention at Santa Fe this week.

Mr. and Mrs. George McDonald are visiting Mrs. Tom McDonald this week.

Delbert Donohoe and wife and Cody Frankbonner, who are making an extended tour of the western states and Canada, stopped here for a brief visit with Mr. and Mrs. George Donohoe.

William Keene was over from Carrizozo this week, visiting his brother Lewis.

Judge Seth F. Crews returned from El Paso Monday.

Chas. Thornton was a Carrizozo business visitor Tuesday.

Lost For Four Days and Nights

On Wednesday of last week, Pat Withers started from his father's ranch across the Malpais with 11 head of horses, which he intended to take to the Flying H ranch about 30 miles to the southeast of Hondo. He followed the highway as far as Hondo, then took the open country toward the Flying H.

He wandered about for four days and the same amount of nights before he came to a place where he recognized having been before, and that was about 20 miles from Roswell. Now having his bearings, he journeyed on to Artesia, where he managed to get to his sister's home, so weak from exposure and fatigue that he could not speak above a whisper. Most men would have perished under such circumstances, but Pat made it and three cheers for him. He ought to get a job in a museum.

George Shields Dies at Los Angeles

Last Friday, Oct. 30, George Shields, brother of Mrs. Minnie Zimmerman, died at the home of his sister at Los Angeles after an illness of several years. This is the third death in the family during 1931.

Last January, Mrs. Susan B. Barber, aunt of Mrs. Zimmerman, died at her home in White Oaks; in May, another brother of Mrs. Zimmerman's, Curtis Shields, died, and the passing of George, makes the third.

Thus has the year of 1931 contained much sorrow for Mrs. Zimmerman. The community here, where she is so well known, will extend its sympathy to her in her bereavement.

Mrs. Claud Branum Entertained

in the dining room of the Carrizozo Eating House last Friday evening from 7:30 to 9:30 with a 4-table luncheon. Halloween decorations were displayed in abundance, and the affair was one of the most pleasant and unique of any given at this particular time of the year.

Mrs. Dixon won the high score at bridge and Mrs. Rentfrow captured the consolation prize. The guests, 12 in number, pronounced Mrs. Branum a royal entertainer and a charming hostess.

ANCHO NOTES

J. C. Brickley has returned from Howard, Pa., where he spent a month's vacation.

George Goodson left Monday morning for the S. P. hospital at San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Carroll York Belknap of New York are enroute to Bermuda where they will spend their vacation. Mr. Belknap is a son of Mrs. C. C. Belknap and a former resident of Lincoln County.

John Dale, Jr., has been on the sick list for the last few days.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Gipson were in El Paso this week.

Allen Kile left Sunday morning for Douglas, Arizona, after a brief visit here.

Pete Frame is home from Colorado.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Roscoe and Miss Kate Berry were here last week from El Paso.

Mrs. R. E. P. Warden and children are spending this week in Santa Fe.

Theresa Lucille, new member of the Lee Simpson family, was given a shower last Thursday afternoon by several friends of her mother.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Frame were hosts Wednesday evening to the Bridge Club, making a charming Halloween party of the regular meeting. The spirit of the season was carried out in tallies, decoration and refreshments. High score was made by Mrs. S. J. Pruett.

The school children are enjoying a 3-day vacation due to the fact that the local teachers are attending the State Teachers' Convention at Santa Fe.

A large number of guests accepted the hospitality of the Woman's Club at a Halloween dance at the schoolhouse Saturday night, Oct. 31. The auditorium had been lavishly decorated with Halloween colors and motifs, following a plan elaborated by Mmes. Henderson and Frame, who were assisted by Mmes. S. J. Pruett, G. Pruett, Belknap, Kile and Miss Caldwell.

J. M. Frame had his Atwater Kent installed and other music was donated by Messrs. Drago, Barnes, Mmes. Warden, Gilliam and Frame, accompanying Alex Hubbard, Mr. and Mrs. Ward and Charley Hilburn of Torrance, to all of whom the club wishes to express its appreciation. A gay time was enjoyed by everyone and at a late hour refreshments of sandwiches, pumpkin pie and coffee were served.

Mrs. Blaney and Miss Davis Entertain the Teachers

At the home of Dr. and Mrs. R. E. Blaney last Friday evening, Mrs. Blaney and Miss Davis entertained the Carrizozo teachers with cards, after which refreshments were served. A pleasant evening was experienced by the teachers, all of whom attended.

Mmes. Albert Ziegler, Chas. Coplin and children spent the week-end at El Paso.

Mrs. J. M. Week Entertains

the Carrizozo Bridge Club at her home Saturday afternoon.

Don't Be a Hessian!

(Charlotte, Mich., Republican-Tribune)

In 1776 there was a man in a whole lot of trouble. The man's name was George Washington. He had been trying to get money with which to feed and clothe the army. He couldn't borrow any. He had to make some kind of a success, and he didn't know what in the world to do. Along about Christmas time he happened to be somewhere along near Trenton on the other side of the river.

On the opposite side was a bunch of Hessians kept there to lick him by George III. The river was full of ice, and nobody could get across. The Hessians were in very large numbers, and if they could get across the river, they could have beaten George Washington, and the Revolutionary War would have been lost.

But the Hessians, when they found that nobody could get over, and that George Washington's army couldn't cross over to them, decided to celebrate Christmas Eve.

They laid off, because business was dull. They made the mistake of thinking everybody would lay off. But George Washington had to get across that river. He said "This is the time to get those guys when they're all drunk and laying down on the job." He got across, and got his army across and surprised the Hessians, who were too drunk to fight, and took 1,000 prisoners and put the rest to flight.

"Business is dull now. The river is full of ice, and no one can get across. So let's take it easy. Let's stop our advertising and ease up on our salesmen, cut down our output, and lay off some of our workpeople." That's what the Hessians are saying.

But there are a few George Washingtons. They know it in dull—the river is full of ice. But they have got to get across. They keep things going, advertise, push sales, keep up production.

Will you delay your attack until the river is clear of ice, and the Hessians are drawn up in line of battle on the other bank, or will you cross now and smite them before they wake up?

Largest Deer of Season?

In the Gallinas mountains, near Corona, L. R. Richards killed a deer which weighed 227 pounds immediately after dressing. When carried to town, it weighed 219. Would this be due to a natural shrinkage, or due to the difference between the scales of the hunters' and merchants? Anyway, Richards claims the distinction of having killed the largest buck of the season—and it had 11 points.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE— WITHOUT CALOMEL

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

If you feel sour and sick and the world looks pink, don't swallow a lot of salt, mineral water, oil, laxatives or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine. For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just dumps in the bowels. (See block up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul. Acid often breaks out in blotches. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.)

In the Saxon Alps
When you are in Dresden, says a traveler, take the 45-minute ride to Rathen, a lovely little village on the Elbe, where Saxon Switzerland begins.
The highest "mountains" in this section are only about 400 feet from the base, but many a climber who has conquered Mont Blanc has had to be-told before them. The Germans are fond of testing their skill on the Saxon Alps, and come in large numbers every year. Perpendicular cliffs provide very few ledges for feet and hands, and the usual mountaineering technique is useless. But because of the coarse granitic rock, a soft shoe and a clutching hand hold firmly to the flat surface—it is this trick which makes such a sport of climbing in Saxony.

Beethoven Proud of Piano
In 1818 Beethoven received a present of a splendid piano from some English makers and beside the keyboard the leading British virtuoso had scratched their names, Robert Haven Schaufler writes in the Outlook. Beethoven was delighted. In his most elegant French he wrote a letter of thanks, promising to regard the piano
"as an altar on which I shall present to the divine Apollo the highest offerings of my spirit."
When told it was out of tune he replied with the characteristic suspicion of the deaf: "That's what they all say. They would like to tune it and spoil it; but they shan't touch it."

London Police Weapon
A wooden truncheon, or-staff, made of cocug wood, 15 inches long, with a leather strap to secure it to the wrist, is the traditional weapon of the Metropolitan police of London. Revolvers are kept only at the stations, to be issued in special cases where there is reason to believe that encounters with armed criminals are likely to occur. Mounted police have long er truncheons. The Metropolitan police orders provide that truncheons are to be used only in extreme cases, and whenever used by a constable must be submitted to the station officer for subsequent inspection.

Awkward
A weak-looking little man called in a physical culture expert for advice as to how to strengthen his arm muscles. The expert gave him a chart of exercises, and said as he pocketed his fee: "All these exercises for increased strength must be done in front of the open window."
The little man looked doubtful.
"That's rather difficult," he said.
"You see, I want the increased strength first so that I can open the darned window!"

Blacks Have Odd Ideas
of Personal Adornment
There should be a good market for cosmetics and chewing gum in Africa.
Not only are the women possessed of an urge for personal beautification, but the men as well. They anoint their bodies with outlandish and evil-smelling mixtures to improve on nature and give themselves color and glow. A favorite is a low-grade fat obtained from the bodies of cows, horses or goats and mixed with red earth, with which "cold cream" they smear themselves from head to foot.
Others use fish oil or vegetable oil.
The natives of southwest Africa smear their hair with a similar mixture and make an Egyptian-styled coiffure.
The gum and tobacco chewers of Africa have their counterpart in Africa. The habit is betel nut chewing.
"There are more than 10,000,000 blacks in Nigeria, almost every one of them a betel-nut chewer," an American Druggist article says. The effect of the practice is seemingly harmless, although as a spectacle it is no prettier than that afforded by the rows of gum chewers in a subway train.
However, the betel-nut stains the teeth of the chewer a deep red, thus destroying the principal beauty of the native."

Old Superstitions Find
Firm Belief in Sicily
Sicily is still a land of superstitions, most of them worthy of the Middle ages. The traveler who believes that a country loses its individuality when superstition succumbs to schools and sewers, will find in Sicily an adherence to the old beliefs unequalled in Europe, except, possibly, in the Balkans. Your Sicilian peasant would regard an American fundamentalist (if he ever had heard of one) as an advanced radical. E. J. Cooper writes in the Mentor-World Traveler.
All Souls' day, celebrated more or less throughout Christendom, is a day of particular significance in Sicily. On the night of All Souls' day—the dead leave their graves, and one who is near a graveyard after nightfall is likely to see the departed of his village, the purified souls in white, the condemned in black, and the ghosts of those murdered in robes of red.
Arriving at their former homes, these spirits change themselves into cats in order to creep into the houses. To guard against their presence the Sicilian closes every door and window of the house. Apparently some Sicilians believe that the dead are abroad every night, for throughout the year doors and windows are tightly closed at nightfall.

HEARD ABOUT TOWN

Mr. and Mrs. M. U. Finley left last Saturday for Roswell to see to their grandchildren and their cotton crop. They returned Sunday, accompanied by their little granddaughters.

Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Phillips and daughter were here from their home near Angus Saturday. Pete brought in some fine pears which he raises every year in his orchard. The fruit is now on the market and his ad in this issue will tell you about it.

W. S. Armstrong was down from his home near Coyote Monday, attending to some business matters, and returning home in the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Silva, Sr., daughter Susie and son Fred were Carrizozo visitors last week from their home in the Tucson mountains.

Dad Jolly of Corona was a business visitor here Tuesday. See his ad above.

Mr. and Mrs. George Young, who recently moved from here to Vaughn, were Carrizozo visitors Tuesday. Mrs. Young is now permanently located in her new Beauty Shoppe and likes her new location very well.

Mr. and Mrs. Justo Padilla and family arrived here Wednesday from Scholle, N. M., to visit for about ten days with the Saturnino Chavez, Gregorio Pino and Benigno Gallegos families. Mr. Padilla is a nephew to Sat and Joe Chavez and a cousin to Mrs. Gallegos and Mr. Pino.

Mrs. F. L. Skinner of Nogal and daughter, Mrs. Sam Cox of Fort Stanton were Carrizozo visitors Tuesday morning.

Manny and Saturnino Chavez, Jr., made a business trip to San Patricio last Sunday, returning Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Thomas and daughter LaVerne were down from Corona Tuesday. They told about the American Legion's Annual Whoopee Party, to be held in the Corona Gym., Wednesday, Nov. 11, music to which will be furnished by Scott Bros.' String Band of Lubbock, Texas. In addition to dancing, there will be an old fiddlers' contest, with three cash prizes and the entrance free.

Estanislao Belio, the everlasting smiling woolgrower was in from Claunch Tuesday for the first time in several months. After transacting some important business, he returned home late in the afternoon.

High School Notes

Oh! These stunts! Thursday was the Juniors' day in assembly and they did a pretty good job of portraying what some of our classes must look like. Euda Roberts at the teacher's bench did an excellent job of imitating our two well-known disciplinarians, Misses Davis and Mejaas, especially the latter. At the end of this period of foolishness and fun, the Juniors accepted the Seniors' challenge, and a football game for Friday evening was arranged. When the Seniors elected Brooks Lewis as captain, we knew they couldn't lose and Friday evening they marched out and 'skunked' 'em 25 to 0. The Juniors tried, but the Seniors, as usual, were just too 'mooch' for them.

On Monday, came a great event in assembly! Jack Aguayo gave a thrilling account of his exploits in the big game country, telling us all about how he killed his share of venison this year.

Tuesday, the local editor of that well-known sheet, The Outlook, Mr. Burke, gave us a vivid picture of his opportunities and trials in getting his grade school education 60 years ago—he told us that himself or I would never have believed it; and then showed us what we, the school children of today, have that he did not. Mr. Burke's address was greatly appreciated.

And the football boys got a very nice surprise Tuesday morning. Mr. Freeman of Hondo has kindly invited them to come over to Capitan Friday and be his guests at the Hondo-Capitan game. The boys have accepted Mr. Freeman's invitation and will be there 15 strong.

There will only be 3 days of school this week, on account of the State Teachers' Meeting at Santa Fe. We all look forward to a grand and glorious time, with 4 whole days to have it in. All the H.S. teachers and Mmes. Blaney, Snyder and Miss Herrington of the grades will attend the meeting.—H. S. Reporter.

Dual Birthday Party

Tuesday afternoon from 2 to 5, Mrs. Brack Sloan entertained at a dual birthday party in honor of her daughter Joyce and Mrs. S. H. Nickles, whose birthdays fell on the day above mentioned.

There were forty-six children present and the afternoon was spent in games and various kinds of amusements to please the little folks. The hostess served refreshments, and the affair was unique in its nature—one that will long be remembered by those who attended.

The "Gloom Chasers"

gave another of their popular dances Saturday night at White Oaks which was a record-breaker for attendance and entertainment. Bill Wettstein is the new addition to the orchestra, and those who attended are surely booging the music.

Their next dance will be given at the Lutz Hall next Saturday (tomorrow night.) Don't forget the time and place, and of course, you can't afford to miss the good time.

Hallowe'en Party

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Falcona Brown last Saturday, Mrs. Brown entertained for the young folks in honor of her daughters, Yvonne and Edna Mae, at a Hallowe'en party. As is customary in events of this nature, children's games of various kinds were played and the hostess served refreshments.

The guests were: Margaret and Betty Shafer, Ruth and Mildred Barnett, Laura and Thelma Letcher, Dixie and Daisy Harmon, Alice, Agnes and Louise Degner, Margaret Elliott, Mary Nell Rustin, Evelyn Claunch, Oney McPherson, Wilma Lorraine Snow, Thelma Adams.

Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Groce of Corona, parents of our local school superintendent, spent Sunday with their son's family.

H. G. Garrard was a weekend visitor at El Paso, Hot Springs and Hatch, returning home Sunday evening.

The Carrizozo Bakery is making a large portion of its own candy and it's very good. Try it.

Mmes. Edens Brown and Aleck Hubbard of Ancho were visitors here Tuesday and made this office a pleasant call.

Attorney John E. Hall has rented the office rooms upstairs over the Carrizozo Hardware Company in the northeast corner and the rooms formerly occupied by Attorney H.B. Hamilton.

The rooms are being remodeled to suit the tenant and will be ready for occupancy by the first of the coming week. Those wishing to consult the attorney will be served at his old stand until he moves, after which they may see him at his new quarters. See the change of address in his professional card.

Mrs. Madames Morgan Lovelace and J.B. French spent the weekend in El Paso, visiting Mr. French and El Paso friends.

Mrs. J. E. Farley came up from Alamogordo Monday to visit Mrs. Elsa Charles, who has been ill this week. She returned home Wednesday.

Mrs. Elsa Charles, chief clerk at the local postoffice, has been ill this week, but her condition now shows a marked improvement.

Mr. Wright was a business visitor in Carrizozo from his home in White Oaks Tuesday of this week.

Morgan Lovelace has been assisting at the local postoffice this week, during the absence of the chief clerk Mrs. Elsa Charles, who has been ill.

Baptist Church

(L. D. Jordan, Pastor)
R. V. Shaw, Sunday School Supt.

10 a. m.—Sunday School
The pastor will preach at Ancho next Sunday.

Prayer defeats sin—We are beaten by sin, not because it overwhelms us with its superior strength, but because it surprises us. It catches us off balance. We seldom stop to take account of our probable strength and weakness. We begin the game like bewildered blunderers. We are dazed by the sudden, brilliant maneuvers of our foes. Our signals become confused. We recoil, breathless, at varied and unanticipated thrusts. We have no reserves ready. The contest becomes a riot.

Of course, we are vanquished, and that notwithstanding the best intentions, the highest resolutions, the finest courage we can muster. We fail because we have not spent enough time preparing ourselves in the gymnasium of prayer.—Bernard C. Clausen.

Methodist Church

100 children, young people and grown-ups enjoyed the Children's Party at the Community Hall Friday night.

The party was given in honor of the children in the Sunday School in observance of National Childhood and Youth week. On Sunday morning, during the Sunday School hour, a short program will be given in further observance of the occasion.

Regular preaching service next Sunday morning and evening. "When th' frost is on th' pumpkin an' th' fodder's in th' shock." And these are glorious fall days. Taken day in and day out the whole year 'round, California's climate, nor any other, can compare with this which we enjoy right here.

We get the sun an hour earlier than California and keep it just as long. Depression has not hit our weather conditions, and the afore mentioned pumpkins are ready for pies. Fat cattle are

Notice of Contest
Department of the Interior
United States Land Office
Las Cruces, N. M.
Oct. 25, 1931

Ancho, New Mexico, nearest to land; To Juan S. Martinez of Carrizozo, N. M., Contestee:

You are hereby notified that Peter M. Johnson, who gives Carrizozo, New Mexico, as his postoffice address, did on Oct. 5, 1931, file in this office his duly corroborated application to contest and secure the cancellation of your homestead entry No. 055224, Serial No. 88824, made Aug. 16, 1923, for all Section 19, Township 5 S., Range 18 E., N. M. P. M., and as grounds for his contest he alleges that said Juan Martinez never established residence on the land; that the said Juan Martinez never placed any improvements on the land.

You are, therefore, further notified that the said allegations will be taken as confessed, and your said entry will be canceled without further right to be heard, either before this office or on appeal, if you fail to file in this office within twenty days after the FOURTH publication of this notice, as shown below, your answer, under oath, specifically responding to these allegations of contest, together with due proof that you have served a copy of your answer on the said contestant either in person or by registered mail.

You should state in your answer the name of the postoffice to which you desire future notices to be sent to you.
