

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

Have you been attending the basketball games? From all reports they have been well worth the price of admission.

We have seven new students. The school is certainly growing. We have the largest attendance in the history of the school.

We have had several cases of flu among the students lately, but none have been serious.

Tuesday afternoon the entire school and Santa Rita school turned out for the concert given by State College students. It was a program of unusual merit.

Wednesday witnessed an interesting and unusual program presented by the Juniors. It brought forth much merriment.

Delightful Program at Auditorium Tuesday Night

Many availed themselves of the opportunity to attend the musical program Tuesday evening at the Hi School Auditorium given by a group of advanced students from State College.

The group is composed of six: Mrs. W. L. Muller, head of the piano department and accompanist for the group; the Misses Diantha Lawson, flutist; Vivian Hess, soprano; Ruthena Champion, contralto and accompanist; Jules VanDersal, tenor and musical saw soloist; Bertram Sadler, bass.

This splendid entertainment was given free of charge and much credit is due Prof. Groce and Mrs. Don English who promoted the affair and saw to the comfort of the guests during their brief stay in Carrizozo.

Messrs. Elmgren, Hermanson, Lott and Vedholm were visitors here Tuesday from Fort Stanton, staying over to attend the meeting of Carrizozo Lodge No. 20, I. O. O. F. that night.

Miss Gertrude Ayers was here from the ranch near Three Rivers Wednesday. Miss Ayers spent the holiday season with her sister, Mrs. Roy Brown at Benson, Ariz.

Mr. and Mrs. George Titworth of Capitan were visitors here Wednesday of this week; Mrs. Titworth visiting Carrizozo friends while in town and Mr. Titworth attending the regular Wednesday 6 o'clock dinner given by the Carrizozo Business Men's Club at the popular Carrizozo Eating House that night.

LOCAL MENTION

Willie Gallacher made a business trip to Socorro Tuesday, returning home in the evening.

Bill Mendenhall of Bill and his Revelers' dance band, who was mentioned in our last week's issue as being ill, has recovered, and is now performing his duties as mechanic for the Carrizozo Auto Co.

Miss Amelia Fritz of Capitan spent several days in Carrizozo the first part of the week as a guest of the Pete E. Johnson family. Amelia is the youngest sister of Mrs. Mary Fritz Johnson.

Bert Pfingsten of Hondo was a Carrizozo business visitor on Monday of this week. While in town, he paid this office an appreciated call.

A. B. Helms, who drives the mail back in the Bonito country, was a Carrizozo business visitor on Monday of this week.

Harry Gallacher has recovered from his recent spell of illness and is again the same old 'Jerry.'

Wm. J. Langston is doing some repair-work on the building belonging to Mrs. Wm. Kahler.

Mrs. R. W. Dozier and daughter Dorothy arrived here from Tucumcari Saturday, spent the week-end with Carrizozo friends and returned home Sunday evening.

William Nickels, who is teaching in the Jicarilla schools, spent the week-end here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Nickels and sisters.

Mrs. Elsie Reeder of Tucumcari was a week-end guest of her friend, Mrs. Beulah Gokey. Mrs. Reeder will be remembered as the former Mrs. Elsie Armstrong Paden, Chief operator at the local telephone office several years ago.

Mrs. George Young stopped over here Monday for a few hours while on a return trip from El Paso to Vaughn.

Mrs. J. B. French returned Monday from El Paso, where she had been for the greater portion of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gallacher and Mrs. Beulah Gokey were El Paso visitors Wednesday, staying over and returning Thursday.

Mrs. James Howard of Capitan is a patient at the Johnson Hospital this week.

On account of the Birch entertainment coming on the date of the regular meeting of the Music Drama Study Club, the meeting was held at the home of Miss Ella Brickley Monday, Jan. 15. Nineteen members and visitors were present.

Mrs. Clint Branum entertained a few close friends Tuesday evening with an enchilada dinner after which the guests spent the remainder of the evening in playing bridge.

The Ladies' Aid

White Oaks Notes

Mr. and Mrs. Henry McFadden entertained with a turkey dinner for Mrs. Allen A. Lane and children, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Sipple and family.

Mrs. White has been ill with pneumonia, but is on the road to recovery now.

Bill Kelt was a business visitor in White Oaks Monday.

Grady Doty is operating the hoist at the Old Abe coal mine.

Sam Wells, now of Capitan, who, after various struggles with the elements, feels that the brighter side of life is a little nearer by.

W. C. Dean is now staying with his mother, Mrs. Friday Sherrill and is attending the White Oaks school.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Cleghorn and Mr. and Mrs. Friday Sherrill were business visitors in Carrizozo Monday.

Dean Curbello spent Tuesday in Capitan on business.

Tommy Cook attended the I. O. O. F. meeting in Carrizozo Tuesday night.

Rev. Sloan will fill his regular appointment at the church next Thursday, Jan. 26, at 7:30 p. m. Rev. Sloan always favors us with special songs.

The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Leslie is quite ill with diphtheria and pneumonia.

The Old Blacksmith Shop

The old blacksmith shop across the street from the Carrizozo Bakery, which was torn down several months ago, was an old landmark of early days.

The old place was the scene of many happenings. Cowboys (not of drug store type) would gather there, tell stories and "rush the growler" from the old canteen which has long since vanished like the old blacksmith shop.

Nearly Twenty-Four Years Ago

In searching over old records recently, we came across a copy of the Outlook, published nearly twenty-four years ago.

At that time, George Curry was the governor of the Territory of New Mexico. It abounded with much matter of a personal nature and carried several good editorials.

Jim Woodland, carpenter; Harry Little, contractor; F. J. Sager, Insurance, at the Exchange Bank; Frank English, Architect; Hewitt & Hudspeth, Attorneys at Law, and a large ad for the Carrizozo Townsite Co.

Leo Oswald and the late Marcial St. John were the law and saw to it that the above mentioned boys return to camp with no grievances against each other.

Basketball Games

In the first game the H. S. 'B' team defeated Santa Rita 12-8. The second game was played between the Hi School 'A' and Physical Education, the Hi winning by a one-sided score.

The third game was between Hi School 'B' and Epworth League. The latter team won 14 to 18.

The Epworth League 'B' forfeited to Epworth League 'A.'

Chas. Thornton of Oscura is on the sick list at his ranch home near that place this week. old telephone pole which served him so long and which is the only reminder we have of the old blacksmith shop.

ANCHO NOTES

The Woman's Club met Saturday, Jan. 14, at the home of Mrs. Beknap. The meeting was called to order by Mrs. Henderson. After reading of the Club Collect, roll call was responded to by the advantages and disadvantages of snow.

Mrs. Norman Lamb of Gran Quivira is the guest of Mrs. Hightower.

Herbert Ellis is ill at his home near Ancho.

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Pruett were called to Pastura Wednesday on account of the illness of Mr. Pruett's mother.

The Straleys had as their guests last week, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Roscoe and Mrs. T. J. Straley of El Paso; also Mr. and Mrs. Harry Straley.

'Whit' Justice of the Peace Won by Enormous Majority

The recent Justice of the Peace election at Oscura was hotly contested. The crowds surged around the polling place and fought to get a chance to vote for their respective candidates.

L. A. Whitaker was the popular candidate, especially among the ladies. His majority was so great that it took the judges most of the night to get through with the count.

What caused Whit's enormous vote arose from the fact that he will be able to perform the marriage ceremonies more gracefully than any of the other candidates. Now in order to be a good Justice of the Peace, a man must be a good story teller, and in this important capacity, Whit excels all others.

Mrs. Hennrich Passes On

Last Friday at her home in Albuquerque, Mrs. Carrie Hennrich, beloved mother of Mrs. Doyle Rentfrow, passed away after a lingering illness of several months' duration.

Mrs. Hennrich came to Albuquerque 33 years ago. At this writing, nothing definite has been learned as to when the funeral was held but we presume was Sunday or Monday.

To Mr. and Mrs. Rentfrow and the surviving relatives, the sympathy of this community is extended.

LYRIC THEATRE

Saturday - Sunday - Monday - Will Rogers in "Too Busy to Work," News Reel and "Magic Carpet."

Be sure to attend Ziegler Bros. Big Clearance Sale this week. Also take advantage of the $1 Day sale in the grocery department now in progress. Free delivery anywhere in town.

George Longo Branum

George Longo Branum, son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude A. Branum, was born Aug. 11, 1932. He died Jan. 14, 1933. Besides his parents he leaves to mourn his early passing his brother, C. A., and his grandmothers, Mesdames Veda Rustin and Nellie Branum and many other relatives.

"There is no death! The stars go down - To rise upon some fairer shore, And bright in heaven's jeweled crown - They shine forever more."

There is no death! An angel form walks o'er the earth with silent tread; He bears our best loved things away - And then we call them "dead."

He leaves our hearts all desolate; He plucks our fairest, sweetest flowers; Transplanted into bliss, they now adorn immortal bowers."

Nogal Notes

We have had a considerable amount of moisture in this district the past few days. Mostly rain in the valley and snow in the mountains.

James L. Gatewood came in home Wednesday from his work near Hondo.

Ben Stimmel of Carrizozo was a business visitor here Monday.

Ralph Emerson came down from his ranch near the Gallinas this week. Ralph is in the wood business and anticipates shipping several carloads.

Marvin Peacock and wife attended the Oscura dance last Saturday night.

Geo. Whitaker is up once more and able to stir around a little about the place.

Mrs. A. B. Graves has been quite ill this week.

The Helen Bae group of men are planning to sink the shaft deeper and drift on the main lead in the near future.

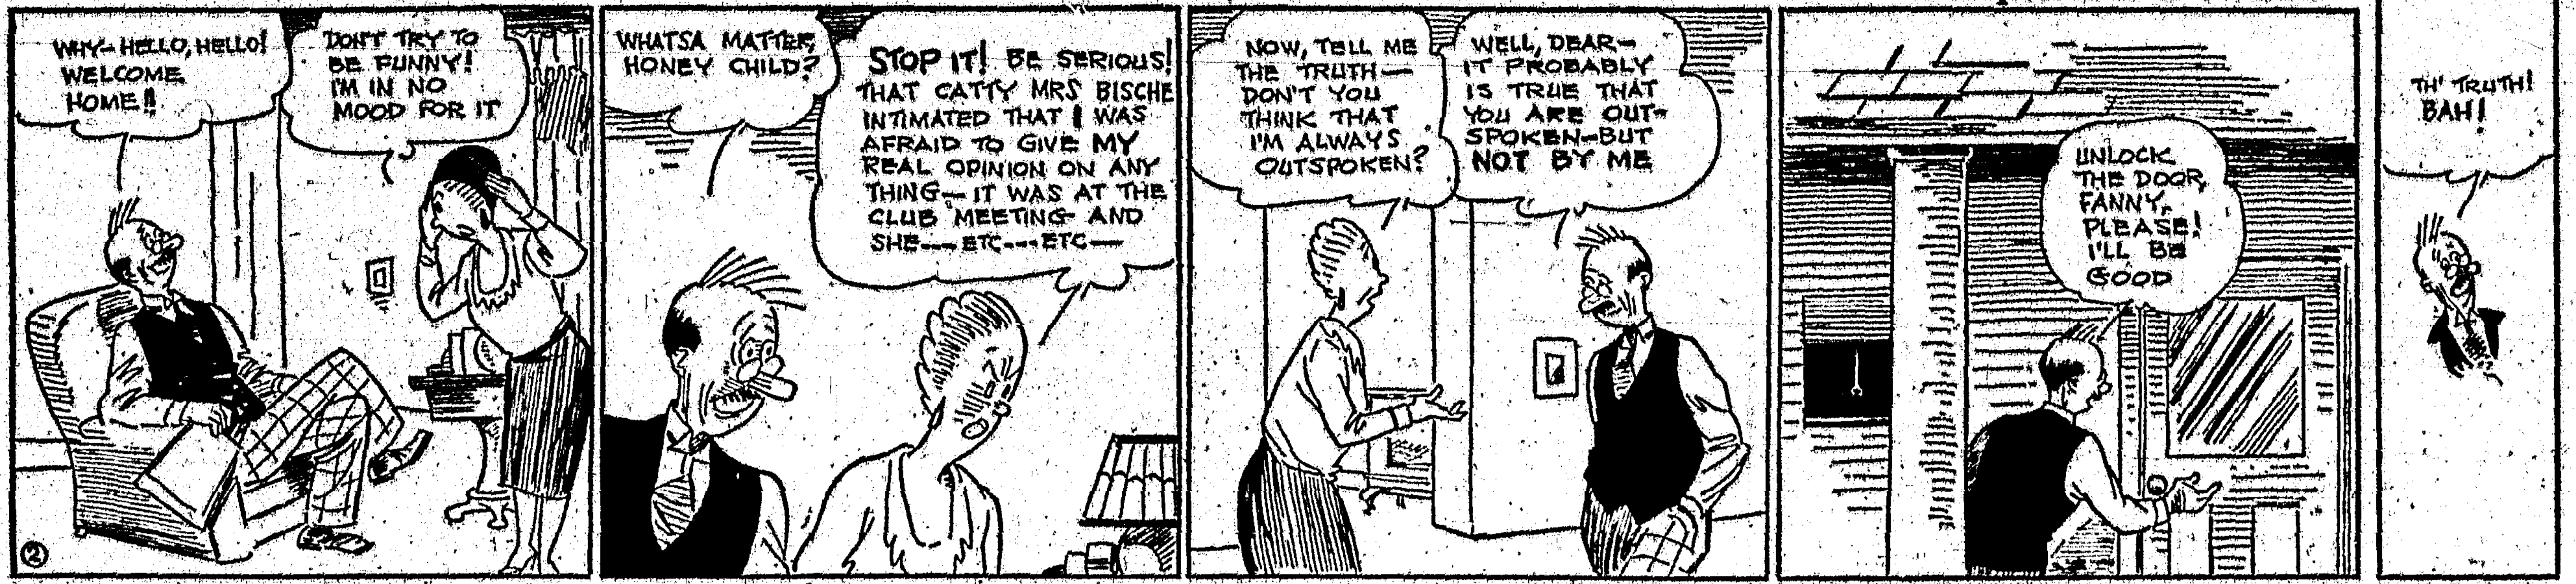

We understand that Hal Young has recently sold his ranch here at Nogal and expects to leave soon for San Antonio, Texas, to make that city his future home.

FINNEY OF THE FORCE

By Ted O'Loughlin

What an Honest Man!

HE SOAKS YOU

"Do you feel shy when you go to the doctor's?"
"No! Not until I'm leaving there."

IN THE BOUDOIR

Wife—Are you going to wear your overboots out today, dear?
Hubby—I think not, love; I'm not going to do much walking.

NO KICK

When girls that are pips, to be frank, go to swim in an indoor tank, they find all thrill lacking. And it's really nerve-racking. For with no men to look, it's just rank.

NOT ALWAYS FLYING

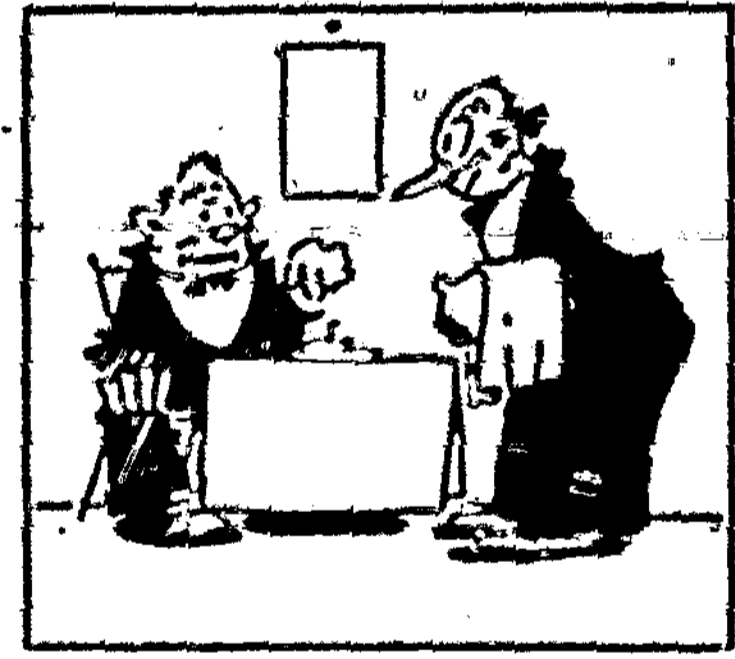

"The fish-hawk is always flying, isn't he?"
"No; he frequently lights on a perch."

BOTH OUT OF LUCK

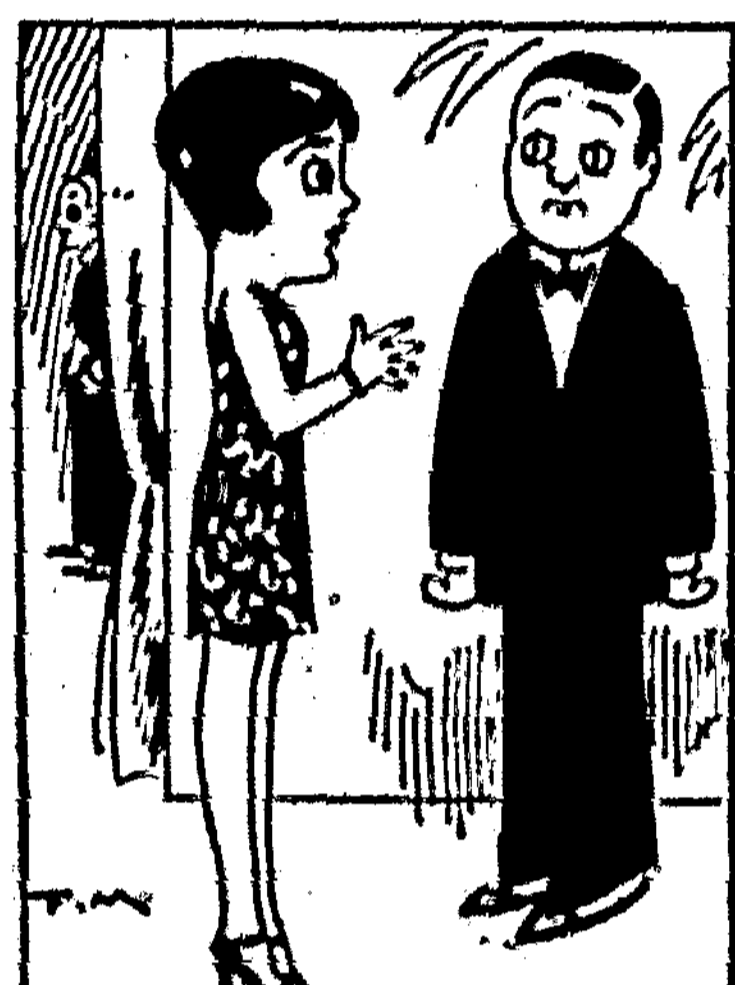

Lobster—No use me going to any more fish balls. The girls won't dance with me, they say I pinch them.
Eel—They won't dance with me either, because I wriggle so!

OLD CHEESE

Diner—Walter, there's a gray hair on this cheese.
Walter—Well, sir, didn't you ask for old English cheese?

HAD A CLUB FOOT

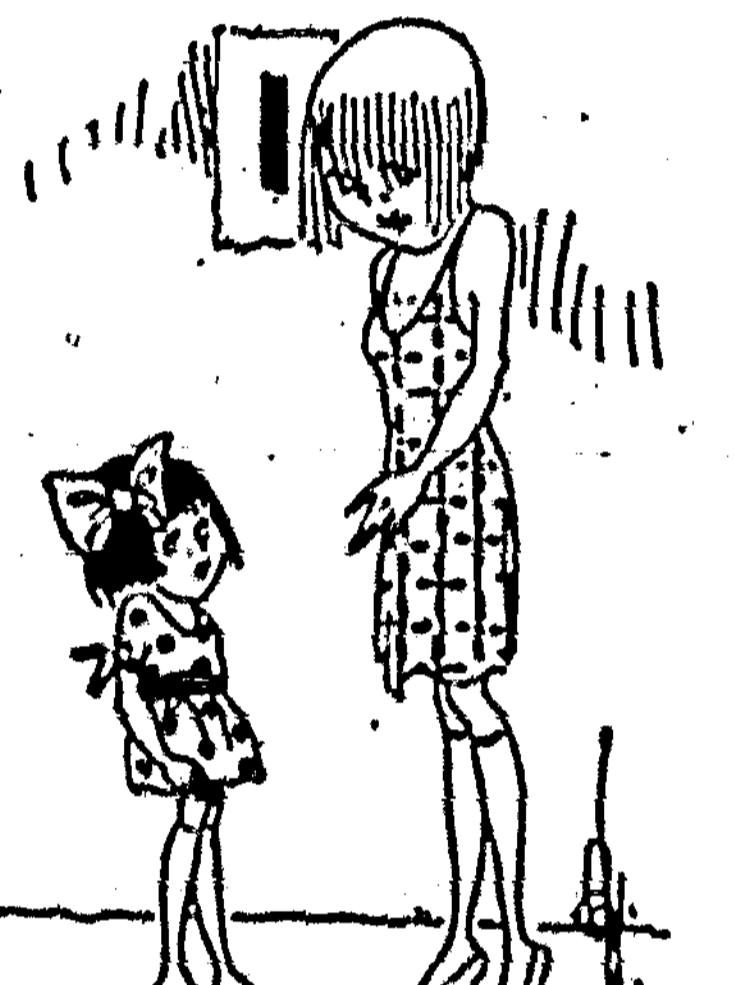

She—Your brother seems to have no trouble at all stepping into swell social organizations.
He—No, he has a club foot.

CHEAPEST IN THE END

Mr. Pester—Mah jong at five dollars a lesson? I learned the game just by playing it with friends.
His Wife—But think of the money your friends won from you while you were learning it.

SHE NOSE NOW

Big Sister—Why are you sniffing so much? Have you a cold?
Little Sister—No, I've been poking my nose in other folks' business, I guess.

SAVING ENERGY

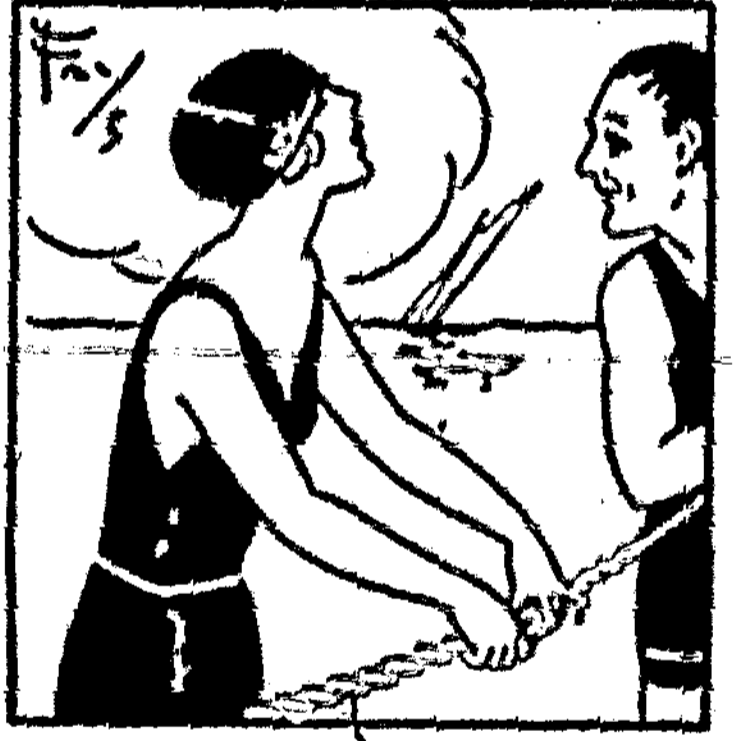

He—A hug in time saves nine.
She—Nine what?
He—Nine attempts.

NOT SO LUCKY

"Why, my dear man, I've never had to pay a doctor's bill in my life!"
"Well, somehow or other they all sue me."

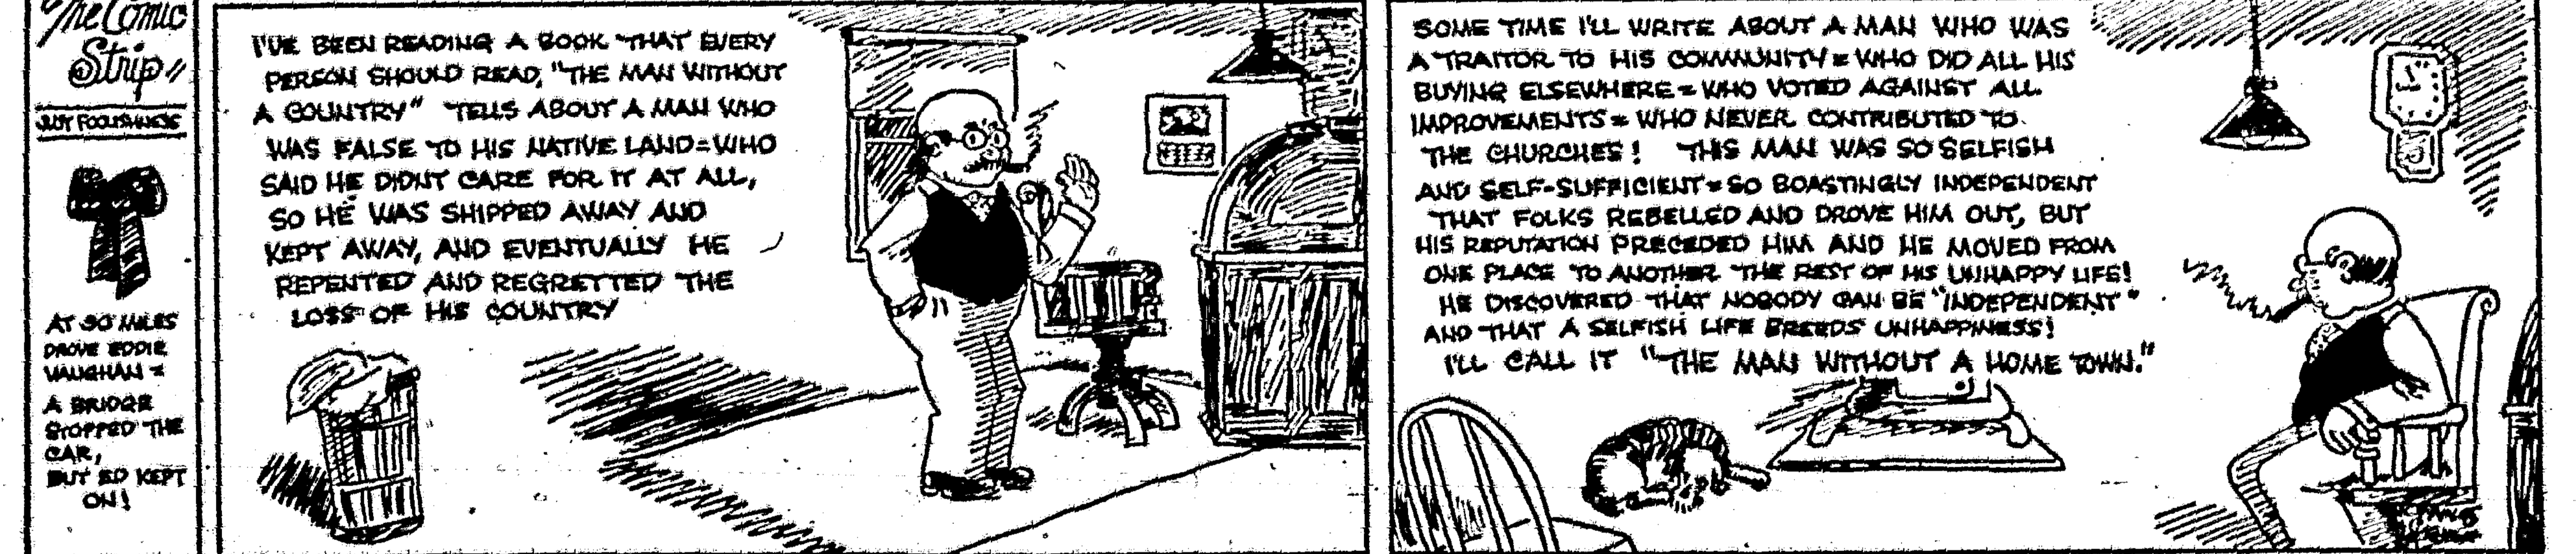

ALL OF THAT

She (taking long breath)—'Tho at's like wine.
He—Yeh, quite one-half of one per cent.

EDITORIAL COLUMN

The Philippines

There seems to be a decided difference of opinion over what should be done with the Philippines. It is probable there is unanimous opinion that we do not want them, but in taking them we seem to have grabbed hold of something it is easier to get than get rid of.

Many observers believe that our dropping the Philippines will throw them into a deplorable condition and will be followed by a war that may involve not only the United States but other nations, a world war in the Pacific. Japan wants the Philippines, of course. She wants China and is taking China. She would try to take the Philippines once we are out of the islands, and she may try to take them whether we leave them or not.

Japan has shown that she cares nothing for world opinion and that the only thing that restrains her is physical force superior to her own.

The Japanese have grown so rapidly in numbers since they have become civilized and have absorbed western methods.

They live in a comparatively small collection of islands. The habitable area is not large. Yet the Japanese have grown to forty or fifty millions of people. If they continue to grow in numbers they must have more territory.

Just now they are grabbing territory from China and will continue to grab it. But China has an immense population hundreds of millions. Japan must have more room for expansion.

And the Philippines are near. -Rowell Record.

AIR EXPRESS TO S. A. CARRIES EVERYTHING; SHIPMENTS INCREASE

New York.—Despite depressed conditions affecting foreign trade, airplane shipments between South America and the United States show steady increases—in both volume and variety of cargo.

Cargo carried by Pan American Airways during the first nine months of 1932 was 56 per cent more than for the same period of 1931. The year 1931 showed an increase of 43 per cent over 1930. The Republic of Colombia, where commercial aviation was taken seriously as far back as 1919, and where facilities are second to none in the Spanish America, furnishes some interesting answers to the question "who ships what by air?"

The variety of strange shipments between Colombia, the aviation gateway to South America, and the United Giant Pan-American Air-Liner En Route Between Colombia and the U. S.

States includes, in addition to samples of the finest coffees for which that country is noted, a great number of living cargoes—monkeys, wags, bees, chicks, ducklings and macaws, orchids, gold, platinum and precious stones, all Colombian in origin, are on the list. Other items vary in size and weight from machine needles to a 700-pound crankshaft. During October, 1932, the shipments destined for Colombia from New York included hub caps, biscuits, silk stockings and dresses, mops, thread and essence for making soap.

All Pan American airplanes entering Colombia carry air mail and they make direct connections with interior airlines, reaching 21 countries. The 17-ton "Clipper" ships with a wing span of 114 feet, largest planes on any airline in the world, are powered with four motors, and carry 44 passengers and a crew of five men. Other 22, 12 and 8 passenger ships, all carrying a pilot, co-pilot and steward, fly between Colombia and other Central and South American countries.

News Review of Current Events the World Over

Nation Mourns Death of Former President Coolidge—Japan Again Attacks China—Democrats Push Domestic Allotment Bill Through House.

By EDWARD W. PICKARD

CALVIN COOLIDGE, former President of the United States, has passed away, and the whole country mourns his going. Thursday noon he was found dead by Mrs. Coolidge at their home in Northampton, Mass. He had not been seriously ill, and his demise was a terrible shock to his family and friends. Swiftly as the wires could carry them, messages of condolence came from President Hoover, President-Elect Roosevelt, countless other men and women of prominence, and the governments of many foreign nations.

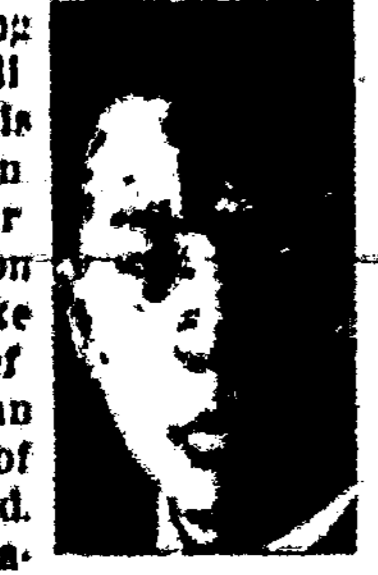

Calvin Coolidge

Funeral services, simple and unostentatious, were held Saturday in Northampton, President Hoover and many other dignitaries attending, and the body was taken by automobile to Plymouth, Vt., and laid in the Coolidge plot in the old cemetery.

The grief of the nation was expressed by the President in a proclamation ordering 30 days of public mourning.

Mr. Coolidge, who was sixty years old last July, had been in the public service nearly all of his adult life, advancing from councillor of Northampton in 1899 to the highest position in the nation in 1923, when he succeeded to the Presidency after the death of President Harding. He was elected President the following year, and declined to be a candidate for a second elective term. He first became nationally prominent while serving as governor of Massachusetts, which place he held for two terms; he was then chosen Vice President on the Harding ticket. Though never considered "brilliant," Mr. Coolidge was one of the ablest and wisest of our Presidents and was unflinching in his devotion to his high duties. Since leaving the White House he had engaged in the insurance business but also had found time to act as head of the commission named to study the problems of transportation, especially the railroads.

JAPAN has resumed its ruthless course against China, and the rest of the world thinks it can do nothing about it except to express regrets. As a matter of fact there is little or nothing that can be done. Military intervention is out of the question and financiers, merchants and munition makers would make loud and probably effective walls if an economic boycott of Japan were proposed. The League of Nations has already demonstrated its comparative helplessness in such international emergencies.

Chang Hsueh-liang

Resumption of hostilities between the two Oriental nations began at Shanhai-kwan, the gateway city between China and Manchuria at the end of the Great Wall. Marshal Chang Hsueh-liang, former war lord of Manchuria, according to the Japanese, was gathering there troops, arms and munitions and transporting them thence into Jehol province, which Japan intends to add to Manchukuo. Furthermore the Japanese conveniently found two bombs in their general store in Shanhai-kwan. This was enough excuse for them, so they first bombed the city from airplanes and then occupied it after making three assaults by sea and land. Chang's troops resisted bravely but were forced to retreat after losing from 500 to 1,000 men. Large numbers of civilians also were killed or wounded and the city was badly battered. The Japanese losses were officially reported as eight dead and 13 seriously wounded.

Marshal Chang reformed his soldiers at Changli under protection of three armored trains and defied the Japanese. He advised their commander at Tientsin, General Nakamura, to address all communications to Nanking, not to him, rejecting the Japanese contention that the Shanhai-kwan fighting was a local incident that could be settled by local negotiation.

Quo Tai-chi, Chinese minister to Great Britain, announced in London that the Chinese delegates to the League of Nations would deliver an ultimatum demanding a league verdict on Japan's action. If this is insisted upon Japan may carry out its threat to withdraw from the league.

IN ILLINOIS, too, warfare long smoldering was resumed, this conflict being between the United Mine Workers and the rebel union known as the Progressive Miners of America. The scene of the encounter was a coal mine at Kincaid, a small town near Taylorville. A body of Progressive miners met an equal number of United Mine Workers coming from the shaft and in the resulting clash a machine gun, rifles and revolvers were used freely. Two persons were killed, one a United miner and the other a woman. The wounded were numerous. The superintendent of the mine insisted that operations would not be suspended, and the authorities were expecting further trouble there and at other points in the coal belt. The new union is strong in that particular locality, though it has not made much headway in the southern Illinois coal fields. The fighting broke out again the second day, two men being wounded. The sheriff of the county ordered picketing stopped and forbade public meetings of the Progressive union. Five companies of state troops were sent to the scene.

FARM relief as conceived by the Democratic majority of the house was being hurried to a vote in the house. It was in the form of the domestic allotment bill introduced by Marvin Jones of Texas, chairman of the committee on agriculture, and in plain language it calls for a sales tax on necessities for the benefit of the farmer and, according to its sponsors, of the nation at large. Its four main provisions are:

1. To levy on the Marvin Jones four basic farm commodities of wheat, hogs, cotton, and tobacco, and on silk and rayon a manufacturers' sales tax which, in the case of wheat, will amount to 200 per cent of the present farm price and which, in the case of hogs, will amount to nearly 50 per cent of the current price of pork.

2. To give power to the secretary of agriculture to fix the prices of the four commodities by determining their "fair exchange value" and to determine the "fair exchange allowance" necessary to restore the purchasing power of the commodities to their 1909-14 level.

3. To bring about inflation by handing to the farmer in the shape of "adjustment certificates" a negotiable certificate of government indebtedness secured by the tax revenues and redeemable by the government.

4. To give to the secretary of agriculture power to control the production of wheat, hogs, cotton, and tobacco by granting him authority to determine the percentage of production required for domestic consumption; to disburse adjustment certificates only to those farmers who cut production 20 per cent; to decide how this curtailment of production shall be determined, and to decide what use the farmer shall make of lands so taken out of production.

Dairy products were not included in the measure, though a hard fight for this was made in committee. It is provided that the measure be in effect for one year, with the President given authority to continue it for an additional year.

President Elect Roosevelt, as is well known now, is opposed to a general sales tax, but the domestic allotment bill suits him. The manufacturers affected have insisted that their industries cannot absorb the tax called for and that it must be passed on to the consumer and the farmer.

MR. ROOSEVELT, having turned the state of New York over to Governor Lehman, is devoting most of his time to preparations for assuming the office of President. Thursday evening he conferred in New York with the Democratic leaders in congress and a program for balancing the budget was decided upon. The Treasury department figures fixing the 1933 deficit at 492 millions were accepted and it was agreed to effect an additional saving in the budget estimate of 100 millions, to exact a beer bill estimated to produce 125 millions, to continue the gasoline tax 1 cent per gallon to produce 137 millions, and to increase the income tax rates to produce 150 millions.

PRESIDENT HOOVER'S program for reorganization of the federal government is being absolutely blocked by the house Democrats, who intend that Mr. Roosevelt shall be empowered to make such changes as he thinks fit after his inauguration. This development angered the President and on his return from Florida he told the correspondents that all recent reorganization moves on the part of congress were merely make-believe and the proposals of the Democratic leaders a backward step. He asserted that any real reorganization "sensibly carried out" will sooner or later embrace the very executive orders which he issued lately and which the Democrats in the house planned to veto. These would regroup 53 separate agencies into nine divisions. Chairman Cochran of the house expenditures committee was unmoved by Mr. Hoover's protest. He said it would be "unjust and most unfair" to Mr. Roosevelt to make so many changes only a few weeks before he takes office.

CONGRESS was asked by President Hoover to provide another $150,000 for the American delegation at the Geneva disarmament conference. In this connection it is interesting to read, in the current issue of the Electoral Review, an interview with Prof. Albert Einstein and by Konrad Bercevic shortly after the famous mathematician had unexpectedly appeared in Geneva. Einstein bitterly denounced the conference as a farce and as "the greatest tragedy of modern times." He said it was "a travesty of justice and of the will of the peoples of the world. It is not only that this conference of peace is a failure, but that these delegates have come here under the guise of peace to foster war."

Prof. Einstein

"If you want peace in America," he continued, "then you must join us in Europe, and together we shall ask the workers to refuse to manufacture and transport any military weapons, and also to refuse to serve any military organization. Then we will have no more conscriptions; we will have no more war! Governments could go on talking from now to doomsday. The militarists could lay any plans they wish."

"I have absolute information that if a war should break out today anywhere in Europe so many conscientious objectors would throw away or refuse to shoulder arms that one-half of every army would be busy putting down the revolt of the other half before going to fight the enemy."

Dr. Carlos Armenteros, Cuban delegate to the League of Nations, has reported to his government that the disarmament conference is a complete failure, for the present at least.

SEVERAL hundred angry farmers of Plymouth county, Iowa, gathered in Le Mars and by force prevented a farm mortgage foreclosure sale, seizing the judge and sheriff and threatening to hang an attorney who was bidding in the property as representative of the New York Life Insurance company, holder of the mortgage. The lawyer had offered only $30,000, considerably less than the total debt of the owner of the farm, but saved his life by obtaining from the insurance company authority to increase the bid. The judge sent to Governor-Elect Herring a message urging that the legislature enact laws to remove foreclosure suits from Iowa court jurisdiction until measures for relief can be taken.

AFTER three years of thorough investigation the President's research committee on social trends has made its report, and Americans found that its conclusions are not widely different from those of technocracy that have caused such ardent debate, though the committee does not predict the total collapse which the technocrats profess to foresee. Instead, it sees no imminence of failure of civilization, but rather a gradual readjustment to a new scale of living. But this report and that of technocracy has advanced at such a startling speed that the development of social and cultural factors has been left far behind, and neither offers any definite remedies. Many of the country's ills are attributed in the report to a "cultural lag," or the failure of changes in economic life, education, government, religion and science to move forward at the same rate. The great problem is for the man to catch up with the machine.

New inventions, the committee believes, are at hand that will be factors in creating employment; the electric eye, the electron tube, light weight storage batteries and other devices may duplicate the part played by the automobile, the radio and the movies a few years ago in making jobs for workmen.

On the other hand, the committee declares that there is no assurance that "violent revolution and dark periods" can be averted "unless there can be a more impressive integration of social skills and fusing of social purposes that is revealed by recent social trends."

Dr. Wesley C. Mitchell, professor of economics at Columbia university is chairman of the committee, and Dr. William F. Oxburn, professor of sociology at the University of Chicago, is its director of research. The committee had the aid of more than 500 investigators.

PRESIDENT ALESSANDRI of Chile has fulfilled expectations by ordering the liquidation of the Conach nitrate combine, a $375,000,000 concern that controlled the world's largest nitrate plant. The principal private owners of Conach are the Guzman family interests in the United States. It is understood they agreed that the liquidation was necessary.

SELLS FINE GOWNS AT SECOND HAND

Woman Finds Customers for Discarded Finery.

The business of selling second-hand clothing, long in disrepute, has been "glorified" by a New York woman, Mrs. Genevieve Berkeley, who is making a success of a shop where she displays only "discarded wardrobes." She calls her store "The Dressing Room," and has made a commercial as well as artistic success of the venture.

She buys her stock from wealthy New York women who do not care to be seen in the same gown at society affairs more than a few times, or from those who, having had a dress made for them, finally realize that the color is definitely unbecoming, or from actresses who feel that their wardrobe must be kept as up-to-date as the morning's newspaper, despite the resulting depletion of the bank account.

Mrs. Berkeley is fortunate in having a wide acquaintance among such women; as a matter of fact, she was an actress herself when she decided to start her novel business. She has never had any difficulty in locating clothes of the type she needs; the trouble has been, she says, to refrain from taking certain of the dresses her wealthy patrons wish her to take.

"I make it a rule," she writes in the American Magazine, "always to call personally at the homes of the people who wish me to sell their dresses and to examine each garment carefully to determine whether it is likely to have a quick turnover. If I think not, nothing will induce me to handle it."

As a result of this careful "editing" there are hanging on her racks no extreme creations that would have an appeal only to a few whose taste is especially unconventional. But there are many beautiful evening wraps, sports ensembles, gowns and coats, obviously expensive and bearing the most fashionable labels, all priced at a fraction of their original cost.

HOW TO STOP A COLD QUICK AS YOU CAUGHT IT

A New Method Doctors Everywhere Are Advising

Take 1 or 2 Bayer Aspirin Tablets.

Drink Full Glass of Water.

If throat is sore, crush and dissolve 3 Bayer Aspirin Tablets in a half glass of warm water and gargle according to directions.

Almost Instant Relief In This Way

If you have a cold—don't take chances with "cold killers" and nostrums. A cold is too dangerous to take chances on.

The simple method pictured above is the way doctors throughout the world now treat colds.

It is recognized as the QUICK-EST, safest, surest way. For it will check an ordinary cold almost as fast as you caught it.

That is because the real BAYER Aspirin embodies certain medical qualities that strike at the base of a cold almost INSTANTLY.

You can combat nearly any cold you get simply by taking BAYER Aspirin and drinking plenty of water every 2 to 4 hours the first day and 3 or 4 times daily thereafter. If throat is sore, gargle with 3 BAYER Aspirin Tablets crushed and dissolved in a half glass of warm water, repeating every 2 or 3 hours as necessary. Sore throat eases this way in a few minutes, incredible as this may seem.

Ask your doctor about this. And when you buy, see that you get the real BAYER Aspirin Tablets. They dissolve almost instantly. And thus work almost instantly when you take them. And for a gargle, Genuine Bayer Aspirin Tablets dissolve with sufficient speed and completeness, leaving no irritating particles or grittiness. Get a box of 12 or bottle of 100 at any drugstore.

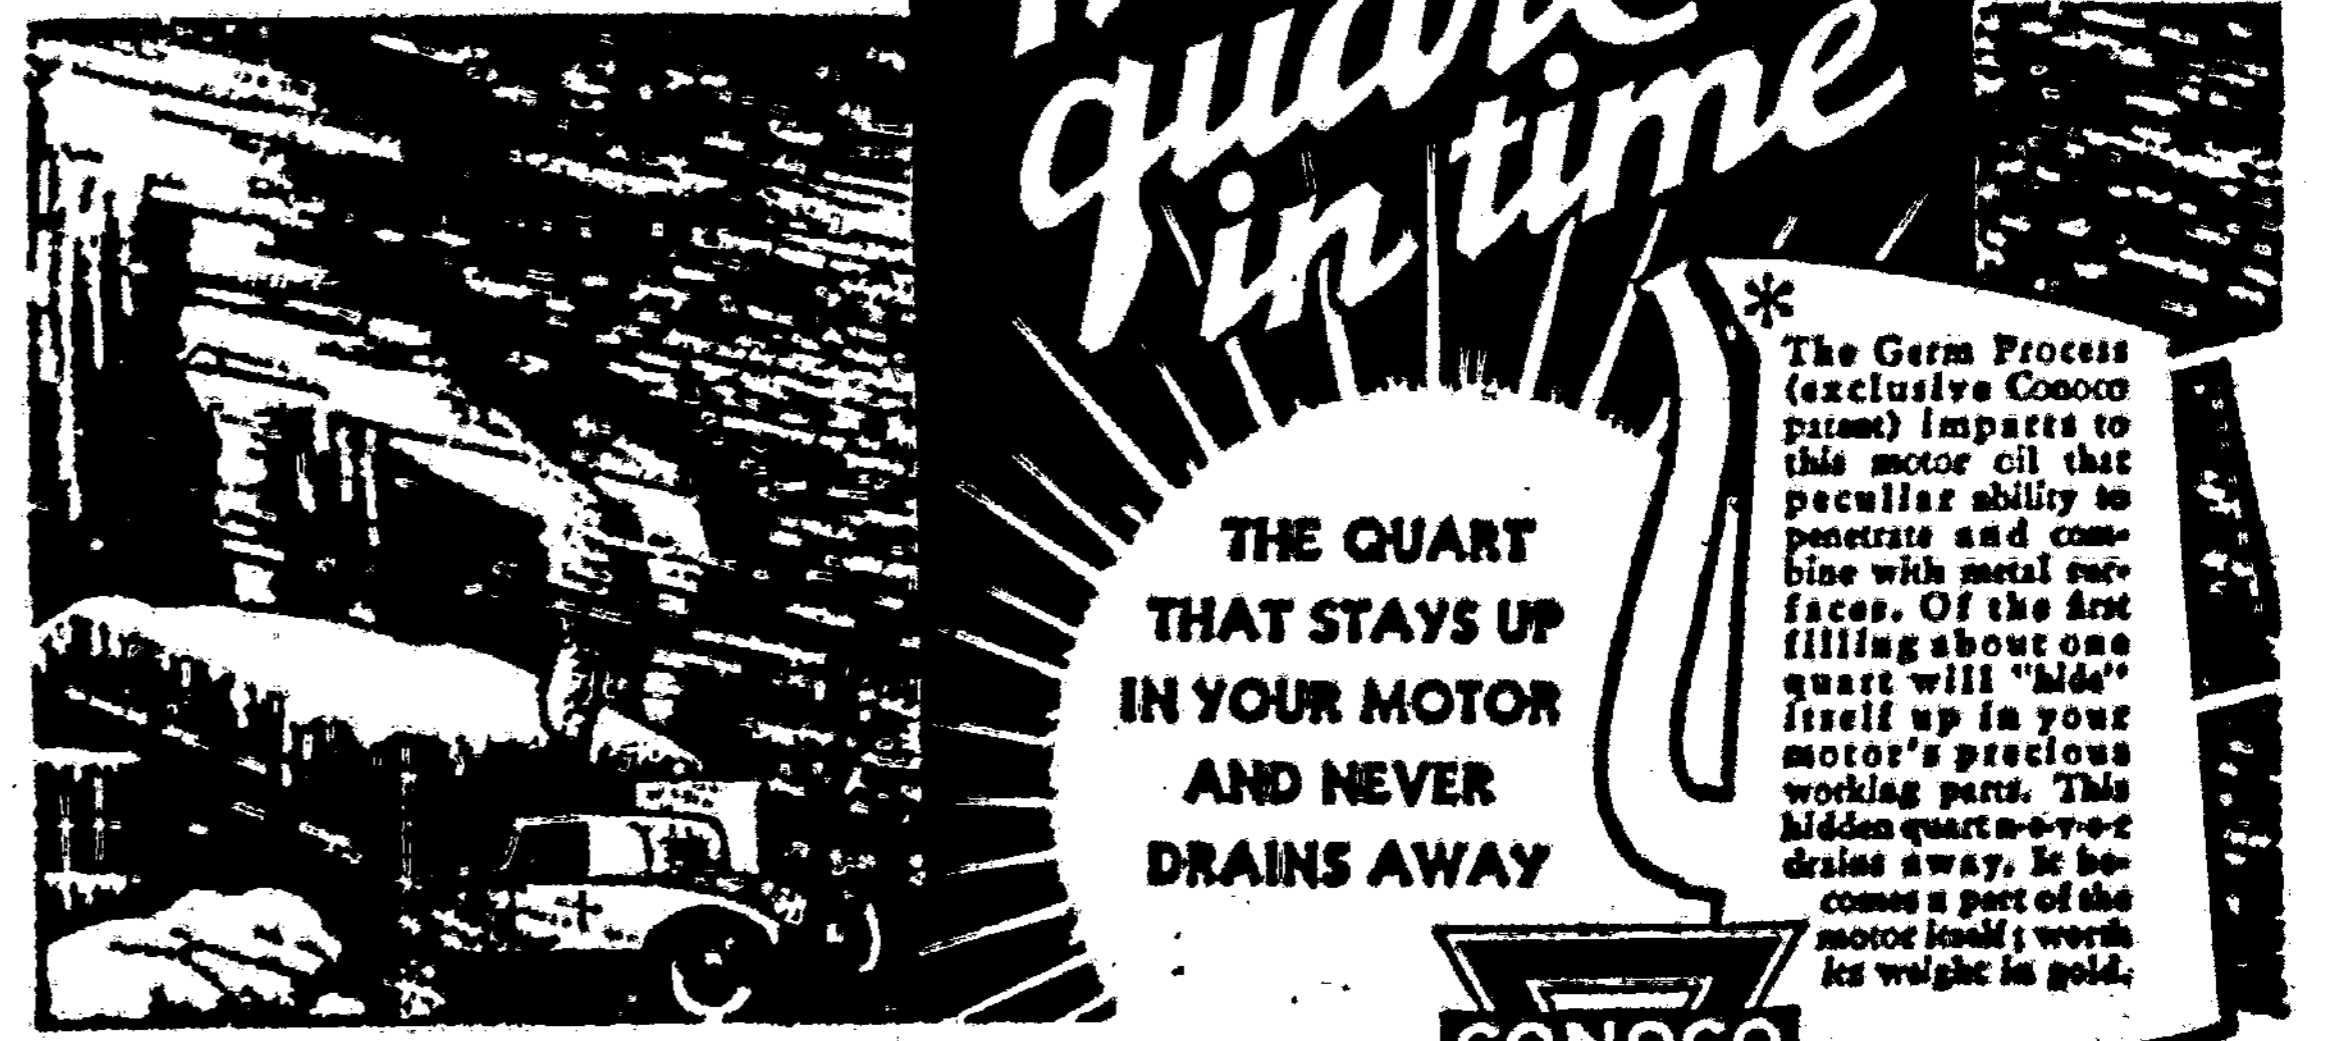

NO TABLETS ARE GENUINE BAYER ASPIRIN WITHOUT THIS CROSS

WINTER PLOTS A WICKED CRIME

THE VICTIMS: Those Motors Using Ordinary Oil that Drains Away from Heated Working Surfaces.

THE TIME: Those Cold Starting Minutes While Precious Motor Parts Must Run Dry at Working Speed Until Oil is Pumped from Below.

The One Oil that Gives You Perfect Protection for Winter's Worst Days Ahead

Drip! trickle! drip! through long night hours, ordinary oil drains away. When the pump quits, ordinary oil quits, leaving the motor's parts high and dry. You touch the starter. The motor roars. The pump strains at the sluggish oil. It is only a few minutes till circulation is completed. But, in the meantime, working surfaces only partly lubricated are in contact, while the motor makes three to five thousand revolutions. This causes 50% of all motor wear.

Prevent this loss. Choose not merely a quick oil, but an oil that never leaves. Choose the oil with the "hidden quart" that penetrates and combines with the metal surfaces of the motor itself. In the emergency of an empty crankcase, users have driven many miles, without damage, on this "hidden quart" alone. This proves that your motor need never suffer while waiting upon the pump. Don't remain in doubt. Drain and refill with the "hidden quart" oil today.

William M. Lovelace

Last Saturday morning a man by the name of Randall Mixon, riding the range on the Seja Dulce ranch north of here, stopped off at the cottage occupied by Wm. M. Lovelace, 63, and on entering, found him dead in his bed. Mixon notified the owner of the place, W. R. Lovelace and the body was brought to Carrizozo where it was cared for by undertaker Kelley and the funeral took place Monday afternoon, attended by many friends of the deceased who had known him for many years.

The cabin being in an out-of-the-way place, the body had lain for a day previous to the finding by Mixon. Of the many people who knew William Lovelace, none have anything to say of him but the very best. Old range riders who met him from time to time, all tell of his generosity and kind-heartedness. Simple in his manner of living, doing good to all instead of evil to anyone, who can say but what he has found the rainbow of promise on the other side of the range. Few men can be found who have no enemies, but as far as can be learned, Wm. Lovelace had none and that fact, alone, is a shining credit to his memory which money cannot buy.

On Monday evening about the hour of 4:30 o'clock, Juanita Barrios, a young girl, who makes her home with her sister, Mrs. Martin Medina on the east side of the track, made an attempt at suicide by taking a quantity of some poisonous drug.

When she disclosed to her sister of having committed the act, Dr. Johnson was summoned immediately and after working over her was pronounced as having a good chance for recovery.

The motive for her despondency was not revealed, but it is indeed sad that young girls should follow such course over mere trifles.

Card of Thanks

We wish to thank our many friends for their many acts of kindness and consoling words during the illness and death of our beloved baby, George Longbranam; also for the beautiful floral offerings of love and esteem. Respectfully,
Mr. and Mrs. C.A. Branum

County Surveyor and Mrs. L. E. Hunt of White Oaks were Roswell visitors the first of this week.

Mrs. Lorena Ferguson came down from her home on the Nogal-Mesa Tuesday and was a guest of her sister, Mrs. Albert Snow, leaving for home yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Hightower were here from their ranch near Ancho yesterday, doing some shopping and returning home late in the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Long of Capitan were visitors yesterday and stayed over for the entertainment at the Lyric Theatre last night.

Heard in the big audience at the magician's show last night—"I request that when I croak, 'Chuck' Hale, Manny Chavez and Vaden Elliott wield the magic hammers over my coffin before they lay me away in my last 'roasting' place."

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Burks of Capitan attended "Birch, the Magician" entertainment at the Lyric Theatre Thursday night.

At the Lyric Theatre

Birch, the Magician, lived up to all requirements when he performed his stunts in that fine to the biggest audience we have seen at a paid attraction for many years past.

Aside from the things which appeared and vanished with the magic word, "Buttered Toast," the feature of the evening was the xylophone artist, Miss Mabel Sperry, who delighted the audience with her big concert instrument, as she tripped gracefully from one end of the xylophone to the other as she gave selections, some of which in their rapidity kept the little artist dancing over the keyboard, like a fairy. The vanishing pony was the finale to the evening's entertainment which was staged by the Carrizozo Hi School for the benefit of the Community Hall.

BOUNDARY TREATY SIGNED, BROKEN, MAY BRING WAR TO SOUTH AMERICA

Right—Signing the Treaty, March 19, 1928. Below—Breaking the Treaty, September 1, 1932.

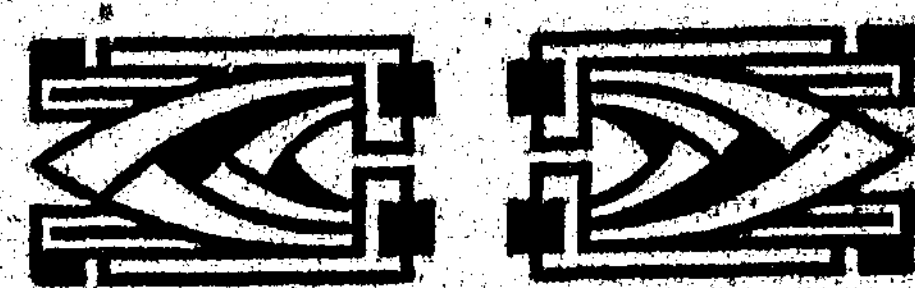

A grave situation exists in South America which may result in a war between Peru and Colombia and involve other nations unwillingly in the conflict.

On March 19, 1928, Dr. Celso G. Pastor, Peruvian Minister at Bogota, the Colombian capital, and Dr. Carlos Uribe, Colombian Minister of Foreign Affairs, signed the Salomon-Losana Treaty which established the Amazon River town of Leticia as Colombian for all time. At dawn of September 1, 1932, armed Peruvians seized Leticia and hoisted the Peruvian flag over the town. Colombians protested that this violated the boundary pact. But Peruvians continue to occupy Leticia and have fortified it, constituting what Colombians term a flagrant invasion of their country.

Sentiment at Bogota runs high with determination to retain Leticia, legally Colombian, even if it means war. A $10,000,000 defense fund has been subscribed and units of the Colombian army and navy stand in readiness, awaiting developments. "What security is there for international amity if solemn treaties are after all, merely scraps of paper?" is the question Colombians are asking.
