Don't miss one of the best entertainments of this fall. When? Oct. 9. Where? Lyric Theatre. Time 7:30 P. M. Admission 25c.

An interesting history of New Mexico from the time of the cliff dwellers and the time of the covered wagon. Over one hundred colored slides are used to illustrate the cliff dwellings, the Grand Canyon, Petrified Forest, Gran Quivira, Acoma, Shiprock, etc. These slides have been prepared by artists who have lived at these places and have studied the topography and landscape coloring of the southwest. This entertainment is supplemented with Indian and Spanish folk songs. Every loyal citizen of our Sunshine State should see this. They would realize more than ever why we should be proud of our state. Come Monday night to the Lyric and add some new pointers to your reason why the Sunshine State is your favorite. Rev. Brady very successfully portrays this, so be sure and come.

Cupid Busy the Last Week-end

First in line were Maurice Sandoval and Miss Esther Udeon, who were married last Friday night by Judge Elerdo Chavez. Next were Dolores Marquez and Miss S. Martinez of Claunch, who were united in marriage by Father Brady Saturday morning. Third, were Wm. R. Pfingsten and Miss Mildred Jones, who were married Sunday at noon by Rev. Lawson at the groom's home on the Nogal-Mesa. This young couple left that afternoon for El Paso, and on their return they will make their home on the Mesa. Last, but not least, were Bill Ostic and Miss Frances Villesquez of Alamogordo, who were married by Judge Chavez and attended by Mr. and Mrs. Ray Herrera.

The friends of these four couples wish them much happiness.

Attention, Masons!

Carrizozo Lodge No. 41, A. F. & A. M., will hold a Regular Communication Saturday night, Oct. 7, for the purpose of business.

A Double-Header

The great and glorious state national guard at Gallup, which has cost the taxpayers of New Mexico $130,000, distinguished itself a few days ago by forcefully dispersing a peaceful demonstration by a crowd of school children.—The new governor has made two mistakes. The first of which was when he declined to accept the resignation of General Wood and the second, when he refused to withdraw the troops from the Gallup coal fields.

The picture of Billy the Kid, the only one he ever had taken and which appeared in "Saga of Billy the Kid," has been enlarged by Miss Julia Romero and is attracting much attention at the Romero Pool Hall and cigar store.—Don't fail to see it; it's a good production in an oil painting.

Mr. and Mrs. Otho Lowe, Vincent Reil, proprietor of the City Garage and Miss Anselia Fritz were Santa Fe visitors for a day this week.

Business Men's Club

The regular good attendance was not diminished Wednesday evening at the 6 o'clock dinner of the Carrizozo Business Men's Club. The guest of the evening was Judge John Gutknecht of Chicago, son-in-law of Albert Ziegler, who gave an interesting address on "Finances," which was pronounced one of the most able addresses of that nature to which the club has listened.

Mrs. Anna Roberts was in Tucumcari last week visiting her daughters, Mesdames Asa Evans and Albert Rohde.

Mrs. Aaron Waldrip is visiting at the home of her parents at Lubbock, Tex., and will return possibly the latter part of this week.

Mrs. Champ Ferguson is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Titworth at Tinnie this week. Mrs. Titworth is the former Miss Mora Ferguson. The new baby at the Titworth home furnished the attraction for Mrs. Ferguson, the notice of which appeared in this paper two weeks ago.

NOGAL NOTES

(By "CHICO")

Mrs. Inman from Wink, Texas has been here for the past week visiting her mother, Mrs. Helms.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert May are the proud parents of a baby girl born September 23.

Mesdames Claude Smith and Peacock spent last week at Cloudercroft.

A group of young folks enjoyed a weenie roast Tuesday night up under the walnut trees.

Rich Hust says it takes all kinds of people to make the world and he's glad he's not one of them.

Mrs. Kirk Dickey and baby of Amarillo, Texas, have been visiting Mrs. Dickey's sister, Mrs. Albert May.

El Cibola Hotel

Carrizozo's new hotel, opened informally on Oct. 1. Many have called to inspect the new hotel and have expressed favorable surprise at the beautifully appointed lobby and comfortable guest rooms. The lobby is 15 by 30 feet in size; the walls are finished in a rough Spanish texture and a soft blending of colors, which harmonizes beautifully with ceiling beams in black walnut. The office counter is also finished in black walnut.

The floor covering is Deluxe Inlaid linoleum, Spanish tile design, laid over the hardwood floor. Window drapes and pictures, one of the latter which has caused much special comment, match the general scheme. Over-stuffed furniture and every accessory are tastefully arranged in the lobby. The guest rooms are modern and rooms with both as well as those fitted with lavatory only are provided. Each room in the hotel is supplied with Simmons springs and Beautyrest mattresses for the beds. Hardwood floors on all the rooms.

A new sidewalk awning has been built and two massive Spanish vases flank the front entrance. G. A. Sundquist was the general contractor; plumbing and heating by Ed Long, electrical work and fixtures by Duke LaVallee and interior decorating by Aaron Waldrip. The work throughout reflects credit to all these gentlemen and their cooperation has enabled Mr. and Mrs. Carl Jones to accomplish their desire to give Carrizozo a small edition of a big town hotel.

Horse Races

The race program for the Lincoln County Fair, Oct. 13 - 14, morning and afternoon, should prove very interesting. The Fair Association has put up $85 in purses.

To this will be added all entrance fees, and the entrance fees and the money put up by the Fair Association will be divided 60 and 40 per cent to the winning horse and the horse running second.

On the morning program will be a cow pony contest. This contest will consist of 1 - $\frac{1}{4}$ mile walk race, 2 - $\frac{1}{4}$ mile trot race, 3 - Weaving through 4 poles set 24 feet apart, 4 - Circling 4 poles set 24 ft. apart, 5 - 220-yard dash.

Every horse will be scored in each event and the horse with the highest number of points will be the winner. The entrance fee for this contest will be $6. The purse will be $25, and all entrance fees. Winner to get 60

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Renick were here last Sunday from Socorro, visiting old Carrizozo and White Oaks friends, returning home in the evening. Mr. and Mrs. Renick resided here for several years, during which time Mr. Renick conducted a cleaning and pressing business, next door to the Outlook office. Mr. Renick is in the same business at Socorro and reports business as very good.

Geo. Elmgren, scenic artist and sign painter of Fort Stanton, finished some very artistic signs this week at the Hotel El Cibola. T. E. Kelley's Sport Shop, the Carrizozo Battery & Electrical Service, D. X. LaVallee, Prop., which have both moved into new quarters in the Sweet Building, next to the Rolland Drug Store, and Mrs. A. L. Burke's Gift Shop, located the first door east of the Drug Store.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gallacher and Big Boy Bill of their Indian Tank ranch were business visitors this Monday. Billy contributed that interesting item concerning the Golf Tournament we published last week.

Miss Dorothy Arnold, the popular school teacher of Oscura, was a visitor in town last Saturday.

Harry Gallacher, ranchman of the Chupadero Mesa, was a Carrizozo business visitor Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank English and party returned Wednesday from their eastern bound pleasure trip which took them to the World's Fair and to a visit with relatives at Scranton, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Rentfrow of their ranch beyond the Malpais, were visitors in town this Wednesday. Doyle on business, while Mrs. Rentfrow called on Carrizozo friends.

Dr. R. E. Blaney is now situated in his new quarters, the first door to the left on the upper landing of the Lutz Building where up-to-date dental work may be obtained. "Doc" also buys his frijoles in Carrizozo.

Attorney and Mrs. John E. Hall and children left the first of the week for Chicago to attend the World's Fair.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Burnett of Alamogordo were Carrizozo visitors yesterday.

Mrs. J. B. French is here from Albuquerque and will remain until the first of the coming week. Mrs. French said that Mr. French is getting along nicely, so much so that he has been taking drives over the city at different times during the past few weeks.

For the past week, clouds have been passing over us, making faces at us, giving us the "high ball" and steaming westward. Yesterday, they dropped a few tears, but aside from that, there was "no ketch'em."

There will be four quarter mile races and two 3-8th mile races on the day's program. Horses are expected from Corona, Capitan, Three Rivers, Tularosa, Fort Stanton, other nearby towns and from the ranches.

EDITORIAL COLUMN

The N R A

Under the national recovery act, the pay of some of the Bernalillo County school teachers has been cut to $69.75, probably with the idea of increasing purchasing power to meet the advance in commodity prices, rents, etc.

This patriotic act, in line with the president's drive for more pay and shorter hours, will give such teachers a total stipend of $630 per year, or roughly, $1.75 a day wherewith to pay rent, buy food, clothes, one movie a month, writing paper, stamps, an ice cream soda on July 4, borrow a magazine occasionally, walk to the teachers' institute, and in general to maintain their enthusiasm, vigor, mental and spiritual zest for the task of relieving taxpayers of nine-tenths of the responsibility and annoyance of their children, and to rear intelligent and patriotic citizenship for the future.

As to medical and dental attendance, the teacher will hardly be subject to indigestion and there will be little wear and tear on the teeth from mastication.

The average teacher, we presume, has a 16-hour work day during the school term, even though some people are under the impression that her work is confined to the school room, 16 hours for $1.75. At a recent news item, coal miners were demanding $5 for a six-hour day.

Frequent NRA broadcasts for a living wage and against oppression of the worker presumably have nothing to do with this case, as the teacher so far has not had the honor of being included in the working classes. Some of those cut to $69.75 are reported to have shed tears. Of gratitude, no doubt.—Santa Fe New Mexican.

The big demand for inflation now is coming from the wheat farmers of the West and the cotton farmers of the South, who say that the prices of their products, under the NRA have not risen as fast as the things they have to buy.

They are sure that inflation is the only remedy for this condition. Whether or not this is true, remains open to question. If we once embark on inflation there is no assurance that the price of these commodities the farmer has to buy will not continue to rise as fast as the price of those the farmer has to sell. Certainly in a short time the thing would equalize itself and the farmer would be no better off compared to the rest of the country, than he was before.

And it is more than possible that he might, in the long run, be infinitely worse off, due to the disruption of general stability.

morning will be composed largely of queens' floats. Communities, organizations and individuals thruout eastern New Mexico will vie with each other in putting up the winning float on which will be riding the queen of the fair. The winner will receive $100 and the lady on the float will be the queen, the one placing second will receive $50 and the third $25. The ladies on the latter two floats will be princesses to the queen.

That's just one of the many new features of this year's fair, which has come to be an annual institution in which all New Mexico has a part. The rodeo this year, each afternoon, will be for amateurs only which means a much larger entry list with more laughs and thrills for the spectators. There will be another huge exhibit of the department of agriculture, shipped direct from Washington in a special, but it will be entirely different from last year. More cattle, sheep, hogs and horses are indicated in the agricultural department. The domestic arts department, flower show and the general exhibits promise a great deal more than ever before.

Old-Timers—those who have been in New Mexico for the past thirty years or more, will hold forth on Friday, Sept. 20, and as usual, the old-timers will have a good treat to themselves. The old fiddlers' contest has been added to the program, which will be of special interest to everybody. Carrizozo should be well represented at the Fair.

POTPOURRI

An Early Taxi-Meter
The old familiar sound of the taxi-meter isn't anything new. On the crudest kind of a public conveyance, hand drawn, used in China three centuries ago, there was a mechanical register in the form of a drum which was automatically struck by a hammer at the end of each mile.

Cookies for Ever-Hungry Youngsters

Home-made Goodies Delight Kiddies

SCHOOL days again. And hungry youngsters racing home and asking for "something good" to eat. If the cookie jar is kept well filled, mother will have no difficulty in satisfying the children, because these little cakes are substantial enough to satisfy the between-meal craving and still so light they will not spoil the appetite for regular meals.

While even plain cookies will appeal to nearly all children, try giving them something with a flavor they like. Cut the cookies in interesting shapes, such as stars, diamonds, and little animals! Or decorate the tops of plain cookies with some nuts, raisins, or small colored candies, and listen to the shouts of delight.

Add these to the school lunch, too, and watch the interest of the youngsters in that rather difficult meal.

Chocolate Cookies
3/4 cups sifted cake flour
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
1 1/2 teaspoons baking powder
1/2 teaspoon soda
1/2 cup butter or other shortening
1 cup sugar
2 eggs, well beaten
3 squares unsweetened chocolate, melted

1 tablespoon cream
Sift flour once, measure, add cinnamon, baking powder, and soda, and sift together three times. Cream butter thoroughly, add sugar gradually, and cream together until light and fluffy. Add eggs, chocolate, and cream, and beat well. Add flour, a small amount at a time. Beat after each addition until smooth. Chill until firm enough to roll. Roll into thin sheet on slightly floured board. Cut with floured cookie cutters as desired. Dredge with sugar, or decorate with nuts, shredded coconut, small colored candies, colored sugars, or dried fruits (raisins, currants, and thin slices citron). Place on ungreased baking sheet and bake in moderate oven (350° F.) 8 minutes. Makes 2 1/2 dozen large cookies.

Chocolate Drop Cookies

2 cups sifted cake flour
3/4 teaspoon soda
dash of salt
1/2 cup butter or other shortening
1/2 cup brown sugar, firmly packed
1 egg, well beaten
3 squares unsweetened chocolate, melted
1/2 cup milk
1 teaspoon vanilla
1/2 cup walnut meats, broken
Sift flour once, measure, add soda and salt, and sift together twice. Cream butter thoroughly, add sugar gradually, and cream together until light and fluffy. Add egg and beat well. Add chocolate and blend. Add flour, alternately with milk, a small amount at a time. Beat after each addition until smooth. Add vanilla and nuts. Drop from teaspoon on ungreased baking sheet and bake in moderate oven (350° F.) about 7 minutes. Frost with chocolate butter frosting if desired. Makes 50 cookies.

Two Million Get Jobs

Washington.—With the coming of fall and the usual spurt in commerce and industry accompanying cooler weather, two facts about the government's general recovery plans have become apparent: the NRA and agricultural adjustment programs have been yielding some benefit, but weaknesses of each program are becoming painfully evident. Full advantage is being taken of the gains registered. Whether the vulnerable spots in the programs can be fully corrected, however, remains a matter of conjecture.

There has been undoubted progress made toward recovery in a great many lines of business; there have been at least two million workers restored to jobs, and there has been an increase in income to farmers, to industry and to workers. But there has been a fly in the ointment at the same time. Despite the enthusiasm with which the recovery program has been supported, there have been some very sore spots created by mistakes on the part of government leaders as well as some rancor on the part of a limited number of industrial leaders that has come from selfishness. From all of the information available here at the seat of affairs, my conviction is there has been some bull-headedness on each side, and this condition has disclosed where the weak spots of the several programs obtain.

To make the going tougher, labor leaders have swooped down to nullify every possible advantage they can find that they may be in a better position whenever normal economic conditions prevail again. There can be no more mistaking this bit of selfishness than there can be by closing one's eyes to the attempts of some industrialists to line their own nest. The difference is that under present circumstances, and with the terms of the national recovery act to back them up, labor leaders are considerably more powerful now than are the employers.

The greatest weakness thus far evident in any of the several recovery efforts, according to the consensus I have gathered, is the attempt to make the rules of codes hidebound and inelastic. This course has resulted in handicaps being placed on some businesses that actually prohibit expansion of operation where the desired end obviously is more volume. Observers here are contending that the NRA authorities, particularly, have employed too much haste in some instances, and again haste has made waste. I am told that there are a good many codes that will have to be amended or revised or worked over in some respects in the light of experience, but the pity of this is that able men were not given the chance to have the changes included in the codes in the first instance.

Probably, the answer to these statements will be that hearings were held and each industry was given an opportunity to state its case, which is true. Yet, in all of the terrific haste and bustle that has gone on in NRA headquarters, there were influences wielded that appear to some persons here as having been tinged with selfishness. I do not seek to defend either side in such controversies as occurred over the coal code or the automobile code or some of the others, for each side rather messed up the program, but, speaking generally, the staff which General Johnson has around him was capable of doing better work than was done on most of the codes.

As to the gains resulting from the united effort, figures tell the plainest story. Official statistics show that in the majority of lines of trade, there has been a greater volume of business done since NRA and the agricultural program got going than there had been in months before. This brought new jobs and new jobs carry additional pay rolls and obviously that means greater comfort for those theretofore out of jobs. Then, there were figures on advertising. Detailed reports from twenty-five of the principal cities showed there had been 16 per cent more advertising printed by their newspapers in August than in August, 1932.

To Correct Weaknesses

Concerning the efforts to correct weaknesses in the recovery plans, perhaps the most notable is the move by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation to push money out where it will be used. The corporation is prepared to make loans to banks if those banks will make loans to private businesses, and to supply the money to the banks at 3 per cent interest if the banks will not charge more than 5 per cent when it is reloaned. In other words, the Reconstruction Finance Corporation has gone almost the whole way into the banking business, for that which it is now doing is nothing more or less than rediscounting commercial obligations.

struction Finance Corporation. Its move was designed to provide commerce and industry with money to meet the added costs entailed under the NRA scheme. Hundreds of instances were reported where firms and individuals simply did not have the resources, after three years of struggle, with which to meet the new drain. They had to be helped over the hump between the time when they assumed the new obligation of the blue eagle insignia and the day when it would produce returns to the business.

Banking authorities are not certain that the plan will work. From banking authorities, I learn that there is a better chance of some benefit accruing under the Reconstruction Finance Corporation plan in the West and South, agricultural areas, than in the East, where manufacturing predominates. Money rates seem to be higher in the West and South than in the districts where a larger volume of money is handled. It may be, then, that a maximum rate of 5 per cent will cause borrowings to take place that have been held back by banks which seek to hike the interest charges too high.

From our own war on the depression, it seems to me we ought to turn our eyes a moment to conditions abroad that depict to many observers a state of "war-mindedness" that has not been evident since the end of the world conflict in 1918. One can gain little satisfaction from interviews among our own government officials, respecting the potentialities of the foreign situation, because remarks from officials of the Washington government at this time would simply add fuel to the flame. Nevertheless, it does no good to ape an ostrich and hide one's head in the sand. The most untrained observer can see the potential dangers once the facts are made known.

In France, in Italy, in Germany, and even in Switzerland, that little republic that always has been a barometer of international relationships, there is evidence of war planning. Even in our country, attention can be called to the program for building up the navy. Our government says it wants a navy of the strength allowed by the London and Washington treaties, and by building it now, work is made available for the unemployed. England alone, of all of the major powers, seems to be making few steps toward arming.

Interest has centered in a gigantic fortification along its frontier that the French government has constructed. No one knows what it has cost, or will cost when ultimately paid for; it is known only that there has been constructed a veritable concrete and steel system of subterranean fortresses, passageways, munitions depots and supply bases along the frontier for about one hundred miles, and that these one hundred miles roughly constitute the boundary between Germany and Italy on the one hand and the French on the other.

But the operations of the other powers should not be overlooked. The Italian government lately has put 100,000 men through maneuvers in a territory that might naturally be the locale from which a "putch" into France would be attempted, and little Switzerland doubled the size of the army it annually calls out for maneuvers. This action was explained as "training in the defensive" for the army, but at least it was a bit unusual.

The Germans, under Adolf Hitler's direction, lately have completed and opened for business what is said to be one of the largest airports on the European continent. It is located almost on the border between Germany and Austria, and some qualified observers maintain it was placed there because of the growing pro-German sentiment in Austria. Their thought is that Hitler expects some time to have control of Austria, and he assured the pro-Germans of Austria that he is looking after their interests by providing an air fortification where it will be of assistance to them in event of trouble from outside of the two nations. In other words, the implication is that Germany is gradually coaxing Austria back into an alliance such as existed under Kaiser Wilhelm.

In addition to these things, one cannot overlook the Hitler assertions that are strongly anti-French, nor the Mussolini declarations indicating he will have more territory, nor the fact that the French have 680,000 men under arms this year. Likewise, it cannot be passed as insignificant that Britshers are reported to be steadily disposing of French real estate holdings, investments that have been heavy in years past. It may be only hot-headedness on the part of the statesmen, so-called, now in power in those several nations, or it may be that there are grievances that are real instead of fancied. Whatever the underneath condition may be, or is, it is apparent there are potentialities of war obtaining in Europe now that have not been visible in a decade, and in thinking of a European war, it is well to remember the course of that conflict which raged from 1914 to 1918.

From our own war on the depression, it seems to me we ought to turn our eyes a moment to conditions abroad that depict to many observers a state of "war-mindedness" that has not been evident since the end of the world conflict in 1918. One can gain little satisfaction from interviews among our own government officials, respecting the potentialities of the foreign situation, because remarks from officials of the Washington government at this time would simply add fuel to the flame. Nevertheless, it does no good to ape an ostrich and hide one's head in the sand. The most untrained observer can see the potential dangers once the facts are made known.

Dresses of Spun Glass

Glass slippers are not new, but it has been left to 1933 to produce an evening gown of the same material. Dressmakers like to experiment with new fabrics, and this latest one certainly gives them plenty of scope. But it requires careful handling. It is spun glass, and the very delicate threads would be broken if a sewing machine were used in making garments from it. Everything must be done by hand. The stuff can, however, be cut with ordinary scissors.

And the dresses made from it? They are no heavier to wear than a good taffeta, and their shimmering surface makes them fascinating to look at. They can even be washed, though naturally not quite in the ordinary way. They are cleaned with a cloth soaked in petrol, or rubbed, very gently, with soapuds.

Will they catch on? That, perhaps, is not so easy to answer. Women are always interested in dress novelties, but that doesn't necessarily mean that they want to buy and wear them. On the other hand, if a few prominent people lead the way, there may be a keen demand for the glass dresses.

Does Your Mirror Reflect Rough, Pimply Skin?

Then Use Cuticura and have a clear skin. Anoint the affected parts with Cuticura Ointment. Wash off after a short time with Cuticura Soap and hot water and continue bathing for several minutes. Pimples, rashes and all forms of skin troubles quickly yield to this treatment. Write for special folder on the merits of Cuticura. Address: "Cuticura," Dept. 145, Malden, Mass.

Why Liquid Laxatives are Back in Favor

The public is fast returning to the use of liquid laxatives. People have learned that the properly prepared liquid laxative will bring a perfect movement without any discomfort at the time, or after.

The dose of a liquid laxative can be varied to suit the needs of the individual. The action can thus be regulated. A child is easily given the right dose. And mild liquid laxatives do not irritate the kidneys. Doctors are generally agreed that senna is the best laxative for every body. Senna is a natural laxative. It does not drain the system like the cathartics that leave you so thirsty. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a liquid laxative which relies on senna for its laxative action. It has the average person's bowels as regular as clockwork in a few weeks' time. You can always get Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin at any drugstore, ready for use. Member N. R. A.

CHEAP FERTILIZER

Phosphoric acid is one of the world's most important acids—used in the preparation of baking powders, self-rising flours, water softeners, fertilizers, rustproofing compounds, soft drinks, etc. It is now being produced to the extent of 179 tons a day in a plant at Nashville, Tenn. The plant closely resembles an iron blast furnace and uses as its raw materials phosphate rock, sand, coke, and water. By this method it is said, a concentrated fertilizer can be manufactured which will save much money to the farmers. A synthetic rock suitable for building roads is obtained as a by-product.

ANOTHER $10,000 CASH FREE

FOR ANSWERING JUST ONE SIMPLE QUESTION ON A SUBJECT EVERY HOUSEWIFE KNOWS BY HEART

IF YOU'RE A HOUSEWIFE YOU'VE A BETTER CHANCE TO WIN THAN A COLLEGE PROFESSOR!

HERE'S HOW TO WIN

Winning is just as simple as ABC! You don't need a dictionary; you don't need a word book; you don't need to study and wrack your brains to win this contest! Here are the kind of statements that'll win the money. Read them over—see how simple they are! Five minutes at your own desk in your own home—a few words just as simple as these—and you may easily win any one of the cash prizes! Enough for a glorious European trip—a four-figure bank balance—an education for your child—new clothes; new furnishings for your home, or an automobile to enjoy for years. Now read the statements which will guide you in what to say to win any one of the 488 big cash prizes!

What Is The Biggest Reason So Many Women Are Changing to OXYDOL?

- "Because Oxydol's the one soap that soaks clothes clean and yet is really easy on them—and on our hands, too."
- "Because I found Oxydol is even faster than the granulated soap I'd been using. My wash is 50% whiter, too."
- "Oxydol's the only soap that will hold its suds in my machine straight through washing time."
- "My pretty cotton and ging-ham dresses are washed clean in 15 minutes—and in more than 30 washings not one has faded."
- "Oxydol is easier than bar soaps—faster than flakes—and never fades things like other granulated soaps will do."
- "Quick, long-lasting suds that work fast in hard water—and won't harm colored things! At least, that's why I changed to Oxydol."

HOW would you like to open your mail box each morning and find a check for $1,000? Enough to put your child through school; to pay up your mortgage, and leave some over for a brand-new fur coat or a lovely rug, perhaps!

Well then, just write a few simple words telling us what you think is the biggest reason so many women are changing from other kinds of laundry soaps to Oxydol. You may win a thousand dollars in cash or any one of 488 other big cash prizes!

Five minutes at your desk may do this for you. For this is a new and simple and Amazingly Different kind of contest. You don't have to pore over the dictionary; you don't have to make up words; you don't have to wrack your brains for trick advertising slogans.

If you ever washed clothes, you have a perfect chance to win money in this contest. Writing, spelling, grammar are not important—as a matter of fact, they don't count at all! To win, just tell us in your own words what you think is the biggest reason for so many thousands of women discarding bar soaps, flakes, chips and old-style granulated soaps in favor of Oxydol! Here is a description of Oxydol that will help you.

What Oxydol Is—How It Works

Oxydol is a new-type granulated soap. The latest, improved scientific discovery of Procter & Gamble experts. It cuts washing time 25% to 40%. And thus saves hours of labor.

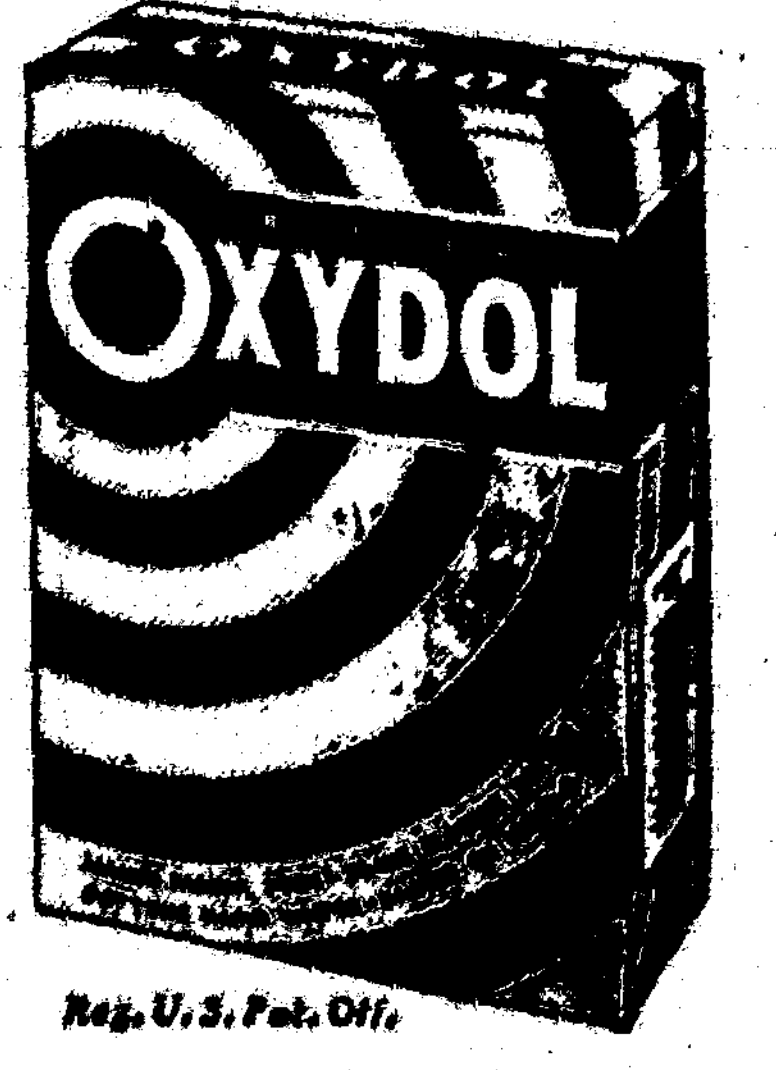

It works without back-breaking rubbing, without scrubbing. For it works by dissolving dirt.

It makes clothes 4 to 5 shades whiter than old ways. Yet it cannot fade or injure either fabric or color.

It is as kind to the hands as the finest toilet soap. For it is created by America's largest soap makers—the makers of gentle "Ivory."

What You Do To Win

Nothing could be simpler or easier than this Oxydol Soap Contest. You write your letter,

Cookies for Ever-Hungry Youngsters

Home-made Goodies Delight Kiddies

SCHOOL days again! And hungry youngsters racing home and asking for "something good" to eat. If the cookie jar is kept well filled, mother will have no difficulty in satisfying the children, because these little cakes are substantial enough to satisfy the between-meal craving and still so light they will not spoil the appetite for regular meals.

While even plain cookies will appear to nearly all children, try giving them something with a flavor they like. Cut the cookies in interesting shapes, such as stars, diamonds, and little animals! Or decorate the tops of plain cookies with some nuts, raisins, or small colored candies, and listen to the shouts of delight.

Add these to the school lunch, too, and watch the interest of the youngsters in that rather difficult meal.

Chocolate Cookies
2/3 cups sifted cake flour
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
1 1/4 teaspoons baking powder
1/2 teaspoon soda
1 cup butter or other shortening
1 cup sugar
2 eggs, well beaten
3 squares unsweetened chocolate,
melted
1 tablespoon cream
Sift flour once, measure, add cinnamon, baking powder, and soda, and sift together three times. Cream butter thoroughly, add sugar gradually, and cream together until light and fluffy. Add eggs, chocolate, and cream, and beat well.

Add flour, a small amount at a time. Beat after each addition until smooth. Chill until firm enough to roll. Roll into thin sheets on slightly floured board. Cut with floured cookie cutters as desired. Drizzle with sugar, or decorate with nuts, shredded coconut, small colored candies, colored sugars, or dried fruits (raisins, currants, and thin slices citron). Place on ungreased baking sheet and bake in moderate oven (350° F.) 8 minutes. Makes 2 1/2 dozen large cookies.

Chocolate Drop Cookies

3 cups sifted cake flour
1/2 teaspoon soda
dash of salt
1/2 cup butter or other shortening
1/2 cup brown sugar, firmly packed
1 egg, well beaten
3 squares unsweetened chocolate,
melted
1/2 cup milk
1 teaspoon vanilla
1/2 cup walnut meats, broken
Sift flour once, measure, add soda and salt, and sift together twice. Cream butter thoroughly, add sugar gradually, and cream together until light and fluffy.
Add egg and beat well. Add chocolate and blend. Add flour, alternately with milk, a small amount at a time. Beat after each addition until smooth. Add vanilla and nuts. Drop from teaspoon on greased baking sheet and bake in moderate oven (350° F.) about 7 minutes.
Frost with chocolate butter frosting if desired. Makes 60 cookies.

From all of the information available here at the seat of affairs, my conviction is there has been some bull-headedness on each side, and this condition has disclosed where the weak spots of the several programs obtain.

To make the going tougher, labor leaders have swooped down to nail fast every possible advantage they can find that they may be in a better position whenever normal economic conditions prevail again. There can be no more mistaking this bit of selfishness than there can be by closing one's eyes to the attempts of some industrialists to line their own nest. The difference is that under present circumstances, and with the terms of the national recovery act to back them up, labor leaders are considerably more powerful now than are the employers.

As was stated above, whether such moves as this will serve the purpose of correcting weaknesses in the recovery plans, no one can say accurately. It is to be remembered that the prime purpose of the NRA was to boost prices, raise wages and make more jobs. Undoubtedly, some of that general objective has been achieved, else there would have been no need for the proposition advanced by the Recon-

In other words, the implication is that Germany is gradually coaxing Austria back into an alliance such as existed under Kaiser Wilhelm.

In addition to these things, one cannot overlook the Hitler assertions that are strongly anti-French, nor the Mussolini declarations indicating he will have more territory, nor the fact that the French have 650,000 men under arms, this year. Likewise, it cannot be passed as insignificant that Britishers are reported to be steadily disposing of French real estate holdings, investments that have been heavy in years past. It may be only hot-headedness on the part of the statesmen, so-called, now in power in those several nations, or it may be that there are grievances that are real instead of fancied. Whatever the underneath condition may be, or is, it is apparent there are potentialities of war obtaining in Europe now that have not been visible in a decade, and in thinking of a European war, it is well to remember the course of that conflict which raged from 1914 to 1918.

Dresses of Spun Glass

Now Costume Novelty
Glass slippers are not new, but it has been left to 1933 to produce an evening gown of the same material. Dressmakers like to experiment with new fabrics, and this latest one certainly gives them plenty of scope. But it requires careful handling. It is spun glass, and the very delicate threads would be broken if a sewing machine were used in making garments from it. Everything must be done by hand. The stuff can, however, be cut with ordinary scissors.

And the dresses made from it! They are no heavier to wear than a good taffeta, and their shimmering surface makes them fascinating to look at. They can even be washed, though naturally not quite in the ordinary way. They are cleaned with a cloth soaked in petrol, or rubbed, very gently, with soapuds.

Will they catch on? That, perhaps, is not so easy to answer. Women are always interested in dress novelties, but that doesn't necessarily mean that they want to buy and wear them. On the other hand, if a few prominent people lead the way, there may be a keen demand for the glass dresses.

KEEP IN THE OPEN

It is no use for one to stand in the shade and complain that the sun does not shine upon him. He must come out resolutely on the hot and dusty field, where all are compelled to antagonize with stubborn difficulties, and, pertinaciously strive until he conquers, if he would deserve to be crowned.—Exchange.

Why Liquid Laxatives are Back in Favor

The public is fast returning to the use of liquid laxatives. People have learned that the properly prepared liquid laxative will bring a perfect movement without any discomfort at the time, or after.

The dose of a liquid laxative can be varied to suit the needs of the individual. The action can thus be regulated. A child is easily given the right dose. And mild liquid laxatives do not irritate the kidneys.

Doctors are generally agreed that senna is the best laxative for everybody. Senna is a natural laxative. It does not drain the system like the cathartics that leave you so thirsty. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a liquid laxative which relies on senna for its laxative action. It has the average person's bowels as regular as clockwork in a few weeks' time.

You can always get Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin at any drugstore, ready for use. Member N. R. A.

CHEAP FERTILIZER

Phosphoric acid is one of the world's most important acids—used in the preparation of baking powders, self-rising flours, water softeners, fertilizers, rustproofing compounds, soft drinks, etc. It is now being produced to the extent of 170 tons a day in a plant at Nashville, Tenn. The plant closely resembles an iron blast furnace and uses as its raw materials phosphate rock, sand, coke, and water. By this method it is said, a concentrated fertilizer can be manufactured which will save much money to the farmers. A synthetic rock suitable for building roads is obtained as a by-product.

What Is The Biggest Reason So Many Women Are Changing to OXYDOL?

- "Because Oxydol's the one soap that soaks clothes clean and yet is really easy on them—and on your hands, too."
- "Because I found Oxydol is even faster than the granulated soap I'd been using. My wash is 50% whiter, too."
- "Oxydol's the only soap that will hold its suds in my machine straight through washing time."
- "My pretty cotton and gingham dresses are washed clean in 15 minutes—and in more than 30 washings not one has faded."

"Oxydol is easier than bar soaps—faster than flakes—and never fades things like other granulated soaps will do."

"Quick, long-lasting suds that work fast in hard water—and won't harm colored things! At least, that's why I changed to Oxydol."

You May Win $1,000 in Cash or Any One of 487 Other Cash Prizes Just For Answering This One Simple Question

"What Do You Think Is The Biggest Reason So Many Women Are Changing From Old-Style Granulated, Bar and Flake Soaps to OXYDOL?"

Why This Amazing Cash Prize Offer:

All You Do To Compete For One of The 488 Prizes!

1. Tear the top off a package of Oxydol and write your name and address and your grocer's name and address on it. Note—We ask you to do this because grocers who show the most skill in displaying and selling Oxydol for the contest, also will be awarded prizes. $5,000 in cash prizes to grocers and $5,000 in duplicate prizes to their favorite grocers, $10,000 in all.
2. Write us in your own words, your answer to the question: "What do you think is the biggest reason so many women are changing from old-style granulated, bar and flake soaps to OXYDOL?"
3. Send your answer, with box top enclosed, giving your own and your grocer's name and address, to Oxydol, Post Office Box Number 1901, Cincinnati, Ohio.
4. In event of a tie for any prize offered, No Procter & Gamble employees in their solefied are eligible.

Identical prizes will be awarded to tying contestants. Entries judged on truthfulness and advertising value of statements. Judges will be Mrs. Christine Frederick, Household Editor, American Weekly; Mrs. Ida Migliaro, Editor, Household Magazine; and Neil B. Nichols, Household Editor, Women's Home Companion. The opinion of the judges must be accepted as final in all matters pertaining to the contest.

All entries must be postmarked before midnight, Oct. 14th, 1933; prize winners will be notified by mail as soon as possible after contest closes.

If unable to obtain Oxydol from your grocer, a free sample of exact facsimile of the box top will be accepted in lieu thereof.

Contest subject to all provisions of Federal, State and Local Regulation.

THE PROCTER & GAMBLE COMPANY, CINCINNATI, OHIO

HOW would you like to open your mail box some morning and find a check for $1,000? Enough to put your child through school; to pay up your mortgage, and leave some over for a brand-new fur coat or a lovely rug, perhaps!

Well then, just write a few simple words telling us what you think is the biggest reason so many women are changing from other kinds of laundry soaps to Oxydol. You may win a thousand dollars in cash or any one of 487 other big cash prizes!

Five minutes at your desk may do this for you. For this is a new and simple and amazingly different kind of contest. You don't have to pore over the dictionary; you don't have to make up words; you don't have to wrack your brains for tricky advertising slogans.

If you ever washed clothes, you have a perfect chance to win money in this contest. Writing, spelling, grammar are not important—as a matter of fact, they don't count at all! To win, just tell us in your own words what you think is the biggest reason for so many thousands of women discarding bar soaps, flakes, chips and old-style granulated soaps in favor of Oxydol! Here is a description of Oxydol that will help you.

What Oxydol Is—How It Works
Oxydol is a new-type granulated soap. The latest, improved scientific discovery of Procter & Gamble experts. It cuts washing time 25% to 40%. And thus saves hours of labor.

It works without back-breaking rubbing, without scrubbing. For it works by dissolving dirt.

It makes clothes 4 to 5 shades whiter than old ways. Yet it cannot fade or injure either fabric or color.

It is as kind to the hands as the finest toilet soap. For it is created by America's largest soap makers—the makers of gentle Ivory.

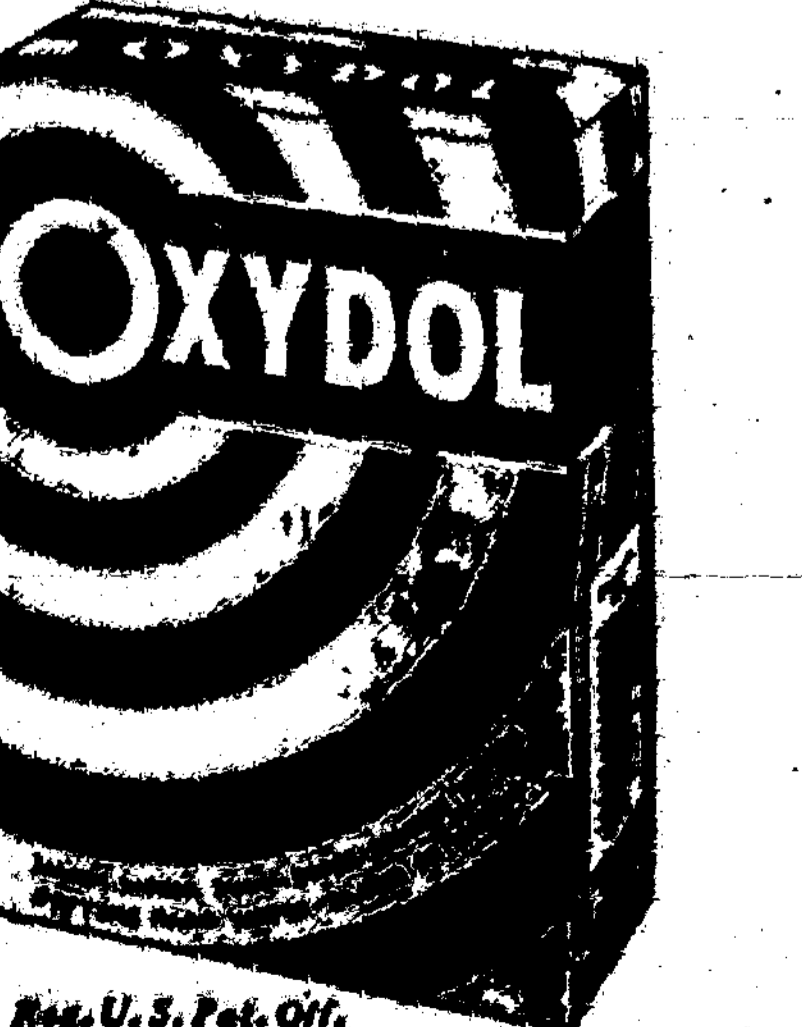

What You Do To Win
Nothing could be simpler or easier than this Oxydol Soap Contest. You write your letter, telling why you think so many women are changing to Oxydol. Write one just as short, simple, and direct as the samples printed above. Then put the letter in an envelope with an Oxydol box top (or a reasonably exact facsimile thereof) on which you've written both your own and your grocer's name and address. Address the envelope to Oxydol, P. O. Box 1901, Cincinnati, O., and drop it in the mail box by October 14th. That's all there is to it. And you may win any one of the 488 Cash Prizes!

Enter Contest Now—Wash With Oxydol

Enter this $10,000 contest now. Remember, a housewife is the one who will win. Society women and college professors won't know how. A phrase written in lead pencil on tablet paper is just as good as one that's type-written or on dollar stationery. So write without delay. You may win $1,000 in CASH. Or—one of 487 other CASH prizes.

And—you'll find in Oxydol a far easier, far safer and far surer way of getting perfect laundry results. When your wash is on the line and you see how fresh and white it looks, that alone will make you feel it's worth while asking for Oxydol every time!

High School Notes
(By Helen Strauss)

Last Friday our football team played at Weed. We were the victors with a score of 14-7. Saturday the team goes to Alamo. Let's have a crowd of home town people there to yell for them.

Tuesday evening the side of Willow Hill was lighted by numerous bonfires. All fires were in use to roast weiners for some 75 or 80 High School students. After supper a large group gathered about the fire and the air was filled with the music of well known songs. We all came away thinking it one of the best picnics given.

We are privileged to report that the following students have been elected by the teachers to the Honor Society this semester: Helen Strauss, Leo Sanchez, and Thelma Shaver.

Thursday it fell to the Sophomores to entertain the assembly. A unique "one word" play was presented accompanied by some mysterious (a Soph contributed the adjective) dialogues.

Washington School Notes

Reporters: Wanda Groce and Dorothy Hoffman.
(Omitted last week for lack of space)

Wanda has a little baby sister. Her name is Velma. She has 7 teeth and more coming in. She can walk a little bit. She can not go to school. She is too little.

Dorothy has a baby sister, too. Her name is Mildred. She is too little to go to school. She plays with her dolls.

We made dolls today. We made Dick and Jane. We made them stand up. Now we must make a house for them.

Wanda has a dog. Her name is Queen. Her leg was shot. It is almost well now. Queen is a police dog. She is a big dog.

Wanda and James told the best stories this time. We will put them in our newspaper.

"One day I was out watering the flowers and grass. The nozzle came off the hose and the water went all over me. I cried, 'Help! Help!' Mother came out. She turned the water off. I put on my bathing suit and cap. Then mother turned the water on and I had a fine time."
—Wanda Groce.

"One day I was out playing. I was sitting on a piece of tin. Doyle tied the cow to the tin. Then the cow began to run and I fell off. Doyle laughed and I laughed. I laughed, too."
—James Miller.

Judge John Gutknecht came in from Chicago last Friday to join Mrs. Gutknecht, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Ziegler for several weeks past. Mr. and Mrs. Gutknecht were El Paso visitors for a few days this week.

Mrs. Manuel Marquez is here this week from Alamogordo visiting her mother, Mrs. P. C. St. John, the Andy Padilla, Lell and Marshall St. John families.

Attorney E. M. Barber made a business trip to Albuquerque the first of the week and while there, he visited the Kappa Sigma Fraternity House, he being a member of that fraternity.

Mrs. J. M. Beck entertained the Wednesday Bridge Club and will entertain the Carrizozo Bridge Club tomorrow afternoon.

Stockmen Brack Sloan and R. E. P. Warden returned Wednesday night from Colorado, where they spent about ten days on a business trip.

Marion Huat of Oscura was a Carrizozo business visitor Wednesday from his ranch near that place.
