BUSINESS MEN'S CLUB

The club attendance was heavier than usual Wednesday evening at the weekly meeting and club dinner at the S P. Hotel. There were nine visitors: Messrs. Eager, Murray, Neal, Liggett, Gallegos, Hall, Miller, Cook and Mrs. Corrigan, all of whom were guests of the club with the exception of Tommy Cook, who was the guest of Vice-Pres. J. M. Carpenter.

Pres. McQuillen being handicapped by an irritable throat trouble resembling a slight touch of the flu, extended the courtesy of introducing the visitors to Vice-Pres. James A. Carpenter, Supt. of the Carrizozo Schools and the address of welcome to A. L. Burke, editor of the Carrizozo Outlook. The visitors from out-of-town were accompanied by three cowboy musicians who played and sang at intervals during the evening period.

Mrs. Maggie Pfingsten was here yesterday from her home on the Nogal-Mesa and informed us that her daughter, Mrs. W. M. Armstrong of Duran, had spent the last week-end with her mother and other relatives on the Mesa.

The Junior Class is beginning to raise money for their class functions in connection with the next Commencement week. Junior Dance is being planned for Oct. 22. Lou Fink's orchestra will furnish the music.

A new tennis court is being built at the school grounds, the work being supervised by Messrs. Caton and Bright. Six swings will also be installed for the little folks, and a place is being arranged for baseball playing.

Mr. Carpenter announced the following memory gem, which should be committed by Freshmen and applied by all students: "You can never get ahead of a fellow if you spend your time trying to get even with him."

Fire At Nogal

A fire broke out at about 9:30 Wednesday night at the grocery owned by John McDaniel at Nogal. Unfortunately, Mr. McDaniel was in the Lyric Theatre here at the time and knew nothing of the misfortune until he was preparing to return home with his family.

The neighbors carried water in all kinds of utensils, buckets, tubs, wash boilers and everything they could find, but the fire spread, destroying not only the store, but also the residences of Robert Pfingsten and Byrl Lindsay; the latter being partially saved.

For a certain time, the filling station adjoining Lindsay's residence was threatened, but fast work of the residents, headed by Messrs. Floy Skinner and Bowen Zumwalt, fought off the flames and saved further disastrous effects. As to whether there was insurance against fire or not, has not been learned. The Carrizozo fire department made a hasty trip to the scene of the fire, but by that time the Nogalites had subdued the fire and saved the filling station and two large tanks of gasoline nearby.

Mrs. E. M. Brickley arrived home from Houston, Texas, the latter part of last week and will remain for an indefinite period.

R. E. Kent of Oscura spent the week-end in El Paso.

Frank DuBois and Mrs. Archie Perkins of Corona were visitors in town this Thursday.

Jesse May of Nogal was a business visitor here today.

Recess Convention

The Republicans of Lincoln County met in recess convention at Capitan yesterday and nominated a good county ticket as follows: Sheriff—S. E. (Ben) Greisen. Treasurer—Ernest Keyler. Assessor—Hubert Smith. County School Supt.—Mrs. Nellie Day. Commissioners—1st Dist., Geo. Kimbrell; 2nd, Corbin Hester; 3rd, Wm. Gallacher. Representative—Herrick (Heck) Johnson. Probate Judge—John Mackey. Surveyor—A. H. Harvey.

The recessing of the convention was well attended, there being about 150 delegates present. Absolute harmony prevailed.

The candidates were nominated after due deliberation and the best material placed on the ticket—therefore, the same will be placed before the people with the assurance that its election will mean a new era of economy and efficiency for the county.

We wish it were possible at this writing to give each candidate special mention, but space forbids. On the whole, and taking the candidates in a collective sense, the ticket is one of the best the Republicans of this county have ever framed up for the people's choice.

There are no professional politicians on the ticket but quite to the contrary, they are all business men and women, chosen from the ranks of those who have resided here for many years and some of whom, were born and reared in this county. For years past, it has become a chronic custom in both parties to name as candidates, only those who can prove themselves well versed in politics before they could lay any claim to public office, but a brighter day is dawning; one in which the people are clamoring for business men and women to govern their affairs and that want has been supplied in the nomination of the above ticket.

Our neighbors, the Democrats, will meet in County Convention at Ruidoso tomorrow (Saturday) and frame up a ticket with which to array itself against that which was nominated yesterday at Capitan. If it will name men and women who have not been mixed up with past political broils, the coming campaign can be waged fairly and squarely, without mud-slinging and will result in electing good material to govern our county's affairs for the next two years.

Prof. H. E. Alden, piano tuner of El Paso, is in this vicinity for the purpose of tuning pianos. Prof. Alden will be remembered as the one-time conductor of the crack State College Band. He served as Army band leader in three wars, the Spanish-American, the encounter where the army went after Pancho Villa, and during the world war.

John Canning

Word was received Monday by Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Tiffany from Oxnard, Calif., to the effect that John Canning, former resident of Lincoln County, had passed away at the above named city, where deceased had resided for the past 25 years.

Mr. Canning came to this section of New Mexico in the year of 1886. He operated the store at Fort Stanton prior to that place being converted into a marine hospital. Leaving there, young Canning located at White Oaks, where he was associated with the grocery store owned by Jones Tallaferrro. In about 1906 Mr. Canning came to Carrizozo and operated what was known as the Carrizozo Trading Company. He also operated a store at Nogal.

About 25 years ago he moved to California, where he resided until his death.

Old-timers will readily recall John Canning. He was an active business man and also active in politics. He was a generous man and had many friends in this community. As to funeral arrangements and further particulars, more than that of his passing, we have heard nothing, but are awaiting for further information.

HEADLINES FROM THE LIVES OF PEOPLE LIKE YOURSELF!

"The Roar of Death"

HELLO EVERYBODY:
Here's a story I don't believe has ever been told before in English. It happened during the World war, and a country at war doesn't let news of its internal troubles leak out if it can help it. Strict censorship is clamped on the news and the mail. No disaster of any importance is allowed to be mentioned. That's why I don't think this yarn has ever been told over here. For it happened in Germany on July 19, 1918, and it is my guess that the event we're going to hear about was a serious blow to the German cause.

Worked in German Munitions Factory.

Margaret Loescher, who lives in the Bronx, N. Y., is today's Distinguished Adventurer. Margaret was born and brought up in Germany. During the war she worked in the munitions factory at Plauen in Saxony, and her mother worked with her.

Both of them were ambitious. They worked at piece work—were paid according to the number of finished articles they turned in at the end of the day. Now it's no sin to be ambitious. Ambition is a quality that has always been highly regarded in the civilized world. But this is one of those queer cases where Justice was caught asleep at the switch. Ambition might bring riches, and happiness, and contentment to everybody else, but to Margaret and her mother it brought only adventure—and tragedy.

Their work consisted of sewing together the powder blades that were used for gun charges. They worked at it steadily—industriously—except at such times when the alarm rang for a fire drill. Fire drills annoyed Margaret and her mother. It meant just so much valuable time taken away from their sewing, and one or two fewer powder blades to turn in at the end of the day.

Fire Was Sweeping Through the Plant!

On July 19, there was a fire drill, and the munitions workers all fled out of the factory. And the very next day the alarm rang again. It was too much for Margaret's patience to stand, and her mother felt the same way about it. For the first minute or two they remained at their work, trying to get in a few extra stitches. But this time it wasn't just a drill—it was the real thing. Somewhere in the big factory fire had started and was sweeping through the plant. And the precious minute mother and daughter had wasted made all the difference between life and death.

Clothes aflame, girls were jumping to the ground.

For a moment they sat at their benches—then a dull roar sounded somewhere at the end of the plant and the building began to quiver. They leaped to their feet then—started running toward the exit. But they couldn't run as fast as the destruction that was sweeping the factory. With the air filled with powder dust—with powder dust strewn over the floors and coating the benches and machinery, that fire shot through the whole area with a speed like that of a bullet. The two women were no sooner on their feet than a huge flame shot through their department.

Explosion Blew Her Through Window.

Margaret remembers a scream—a sharp, piercing shriek from the throats of the sixty or more girls who still remained in the room. It was a scream that Margaret joined in. The next thing she remembers is coming back to consciousness lying outside on the fire-escape platform. The terrific power of the explosion had thrown her right through an open window.

Margaret is glad, now that they had so many fire drills in that plant. When she rose to her feet, she was dazed. But habit instilled in her in previous drills guided her. Instead of falling into a panic, she let her feet carry her down the fire escape stairs. If she had started when the alarm sounded she might have escaped from the building unharmed, but now it was too late. As she neared the lower floors she was stopped by burning girls, their clothing in flames, running madly to the stairways—jumping to the ground.

Great sheets of flame were shooting from the lower windows. It was impossible to get past them and reach the ground. Margaret looked back up the fire escape. Flame was coming out of the windows above her, too. She was trapped on the metal stairway—and already the railings and the iron treads were red hot, just a few feet above and below her!

Flames Were Closing In on Her.

Inch by inch the cherry-red glow of hot metal was closing in on her. Sooner or later it would reach the spot where she was standing. But she would never know about that. The overpowering heat would get her first. Already her head was spinning. She reeled and scorched her hands when she grasped the hot railing to hold herself up. The soles of her shoes were smoking. Another blast of hot air smote her body and she could feel herself going. Then, things went black before her eyes.

Margaret doesn't know what happened after that, and she was never able to find out. When she next awoke she was in the hospital, and the horrors she witnessed in her ward were worse than those of the fire. The big room was jammed with dying girls, fearfully mutilated and suffering the most terrible pain known to man. Twice during that stay in the hospital Margaret went to sleep at night and awoke in the morning to find that she was the only one of 36 girls still alive.

It was in the hospital, too, that she first learned of the death of her mother. She was one of the 400 or more victims who died in the fire and the explosion. And Margaret still carries scars on her body that serve as a terrible memento of the tragic adventure, and a grim reminder that all of the war's injured do not get their wounds on the battle front.

Vaseline an Ancient Product
Lined oil was used in varnish-making by monks as far back as the Twelfth century. Vaseline-making, along the lines of the later day product, dates from the time of Theophrastus, although protective finishes were manufactured as long ago as the days of the Pharaohs.

The Big Wind in Ireland
The Big Wind occurred in Ireland on the night of January 6, 1839. In Limerick, Galway and Athlone, hundreds of houses were blown down and hundreds more were buried by the spreading of fire.

Acquiring Freckles
Most people acquire freckles after exposure to strong sunlight—on other faces the spots just grow. Red-haired persons are generally endowed with very fair skins, tend to freckle most easily.

George Washington's mother, Mary Ball, was not born in England. She was born on her father's estate in Lancaster county, Virginia, in 1704. Her father, Joseph Ball, had four children, Joseph Jr., Susie, Mary, and the name of the fourth one is unknown.

Art of Making Honey
A bee pushes its tongue into a cosmos for nectar. It converts this into honey by buzzing its wings over the fluid to evaporate the water. It takes 30,000 bees to bring in enough nectar for one pound of honey.

The first book to mention transportation on the snow was Xenophon's "Anabasis," which tells of Armenians who put enlarged shoes on their horses while traveling in the mountain passes.

Lesson for October 16

REVERENCE FOR GOD

LESSON TEXT—Exodus 20:2; Matthew 5:33-37; 12:33-37.
GOLDEN TEXT—Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name.—Matthew 6:9.

Character reveals itself through the words and deeds of a man. He may try to conceal his real spiritual condition and may assume an outward appearance of piety but he need not say many words, nor meet many of life's problems, before his true condition is revealed.

Our lesson for today touches primarily on the matter of the words of men—presenting first God's command that in speaking we are to show reverence for His name, and then leading up to the expression of that reverence in abstinence from swearing and from idle talk.

I. Reverence Commanded (Exod. 20:7).

The forbidden thing is the taking of the name of the Lord "in vain." Our use of the word "vain" carries the meaning of "useless, without purpose or meaning." This is part of what is in mind in this commandment, for the name of Jehovah is sacred and is to be revered as standing for the eternal God. It is never to be used carelessly, or for a frivolous purpose. All too often we tell jokes or stories which have no real purpose or meaning except to elicit a laugh and in them we use the name of God. We all need to exercise care at that point.

The Hebrew word translated "vain" has the additional meaning of "evil" and "falsehood." Men are so bold that they may even use the name of God to support themselves in a lie. God hears and will in no wise hold them guiltless.

II. Swearing Forbidden (Matt. 5:33-37).

The Sermon on the Mount (so-called), from which this portion of Scripture is taken, is difficult to interpret to the satisfaction of all. Some disregard its evident application to the kingdom and attempt to apply it in the midst of an ungodly generation, fall into such inconsistency that they abandon the effort and regard the teaching of the passage as impossible idealism. Others, who rightly interpret the passage as presenting the laws and principles of life in the kingdom of God when it shall be fully set up on earth with Jesus as King, fail to make any application of those principles to the life of those who are now living in this world—though not of it—but rather have their citizenship in heaven. This is also an unfortunate error.

We who follow the Lord Jesus are not to swear by either things sacred or things that might be called secular. Perhaps He has in mind that our lives should be so true that men will not need to have any kind of an oath to be assured of our sincerity and honesty. Some believe that all oaths even in court are forbidden, while others, with due respect for the feelings of those who hold this view, regard the taking of oaths in official matters as not being in mind. All would agree that the careless and almost sacrilegious use of God's name in administering oaths would be taking His name in vain.

Swearing is also entirely beyond the pale with Christian men and women. It is all too common with both men and women. A great church has organized a "Holy Name Society" to keep its members from using the name of the Lord in profanity. What a telling comment on the times in which we live!

III Judgment Assured (Matt. 12:33-37).

Jesus had cast out a demon who had possessed a man and made him blind and dumb. The Pharisees could not deny the miracle but attributed it to the power of Beelzebub, prince of the demons. Jesus closed their mouths by pointing out that Satan did not work against himself, and went on to speak solemn words regarding their and our responsibility for what we say.

A day of judgment is coming, when we shall answer for the idle and wicked words which we speak. While we would not bring condemnation upon those who indulge in the innocent pleasantries of life by making too severe an application of these words, neither should we destroy their evident import by failing to apply them to our daily conversation. One need but listen to the casual small talk of men and women in public places to realize that we need to give attention to the matter of elevating not only the conversation of others but our own as well to a nobler and more helpful level. Surely Christians should speak for the glory of God on every occasion and in each circumstance of life.

The way to accomplish this worthy purpose, and the only way, is to have the heart and life filled with the good treasure of God's Word, for verily out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh. What do your words and mine indicate to others regarding what is in our hearts?

It Must Be Admitted Waiter Was Not Tactful

The customer was raging and fuming as the manager came up. "What is the matter, sir?" asked the manager. "Discharge that waiter at once!" demanded the diner. "Regarding the boiled egg which had been served, the manager said: "I'm very sorry about this egg, sir, but I can't discharge the waiter for that. After all, he wasn't to know that there was a chicken in it."

"Perhaps not," snapped the customer. "But when I told him there was, he needn't have taken away my spoon and brought me a knife and fork."

Norse Seamen

Hardy, indeed, are Norway's seamen. Though Norway ranks but forty-seventh in population among the major nations, her merchant marine is fourth largest in the world. Since the days of the Vikings, Norwegian seamen have specialized in long ocean trips: Even today they carry most of the cargoes from America's Gulf states to Europe. In the days of sailing ships, too, Norwegian skippers began taking their families to sea because ocean voyages took many months. The sailors' superstition that women are bad luck to a ship never bothered them.

'Hill-Climbing' Boats

A unique steamship service operates between the East Prussian towns of Elbing and Deutsch Eylau; a distance of 40 miles. Part of the trip is made on a canal and part on a railroad, whose specially-designed trucks pick up the little vessels and quickly carry them over four long hills. These "hill-climbing boats" have rendered unnecessary the construction of 20 locks.—Collier's Weekly.

Most anyone will agree that it is wise to use only the very best motor oil in an expensive car. Buy it does not follow that cheap oil should be used in lower priced cars. The experience of millions of owners of Ford, Chevrolet and Plymouth cars proves that Acid-Free Quaker State Motor Oils makes their cars run better, last longer.—Adv.

How Women in Their 40's Can Attract Men

Here's good advice for a woman during her change (usually from 35 to 50), who fears she'll lose her appeal to men, who worry about hot flashes, loss of pep, daisy spots, upset nerves and moody spells. It helps Nature build up physical resistance, thus helps give more vivacity to enjoy life and avert alarming jittery nerves and disturbing symptoms that often accompany change of life. Sentinels of Health

Don't Neglect Them!
Nature designed the kidneys to do a marvelous job. Their task is to keep the flowing blood stream free of an excess of toxic impurities. The act of living—life itself—is constantly producing waste matter the kidneys must remove from the blood if good health is to endure. When the kidneys fail to function as Nature intended, there is retention of waste that may cause body-wide distress. One may suffer lagging backache, persistent headache, attacks of dizziness, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes—feel tired, nervous, all worn out. Frequent, scanty or burning passages may be further evidence of kidney or bladder disturbance. The recognized and proper treatment is a diuretic medicine to help the kidneys get rid of excess poisonous body waste. Doan's Pills. They have had more than forty years of public approval. Are endorsed the country over. Issued on Doan's Gold at all drug stores.

Peace Bought by Pieces of Nation Likely to Last Only for 'A While'

Much in Situation in Central Europe Has Not Been Told; Roosevelt and Hull Handled Affair With Fine Ability; Versailles Treaty Blamed for Trouble.

By WILLIAM BRUCKART
WNU Service, National Press Bldg., Washington, D. C.

WASHINGTON.—It appears that the world is going to be spared a general European war for a while, and yet it should be recognized that the period of peace that has been bought with pieces of a nation is likely to be only "a while." From all of the information available in Washington's diplomatic corners combined with the judgment of men who know European politics—and European human nature—it seems that the balance is so delicate as to permit a powder keg being fired by an inconsequential firecracker.

Nevertheless, there is much that has not been told about the situation. Little has been said, for instance, about the basic problem in the center of Europe, nor has there been real frankness about the part which American representatives had in the original setting of the present day grief. American political conditions—domestic politics—obviously constitute one reason why there has been only infrequent references to the underlying causes of the trouble. A more important reason, however, is that if there had been much talk about our original interest, there would have been many more suggestions from abroad that Uncle Sam should come in and act as arbiter. Surely, there was no one in this country willing that President Roosevelt should do that. Mr. Roosevelt foresaw that possibility early; so he confined American efforts to earnest pleas for avoidance of war, for use of common sense methods of settlement.

I think that Mr. Roosevelt and Secretary Hull of the state department handled the extremely delicate situation with fine ability. The pleas which went out to contending forces carefully avoided possibility of entanglements; yet, even the bulk-headed Hitler must have felt the pressure that was represented by them. Pressure, as whatever machinery within him that he calls his mind and heart. More than that, public appeal by the United States certainly gave added courage to the Europeans who were trying to solve the problem without paying ten million lives and billions of money.

Root of All the Trouble Lies in Versailles Treaty

But let us quit kidding ourselves about the European situation. Why dodge around the bush concerning the underlying facts and the blame that attaches, including such blame as belongs to us?

We must recognize these facts: 1. The root of all the trouble is imbedded in the Treaty of Versailles. In that treaty, written in 1919, there were injustices that could only lead eventually to a head-on collision. It was in the Versailles peace negotiations after the World War that President Wilson coined the phrase, "self-determination of peoples." It was in those negotiations, too, that Lloyd George of England, Clemenceau of France, and Orlando of Italy, traded Mr. Wilson out of everything before they would agree to his idealism, founding of the League of Nations. No one can say that Woodrow Wilson lacked sincerity; and it was this deep sincerity, ironically, that was preyed upon by the other three victorious nations. Mr. Wilson yielded when a majority of Americans knew at the time that he was being trapped.

2. Europe has been made, by fate, the abiding place of many racial and human types. They are races and types which have characteristics and traits, training and tradition that never have mixed, and never will mix. Central Europe is a melting pot, where nothing ever has melted. "Self-determination of peoples" would mean the segregation of each and every type and race. It is a possibility, of course, to segregate them as Mr. Wilson theorized, but it is not at all probable. Mr. Wilson supplied those people with a new idea and then allowed the "big three" of the Versailles conference to capitalize on his aims. There has been some measure of fighting about it ever since.

Greed and Vengeance Short-Sighted Policy

3. The greed of the allied powers and the vengeance which they sought to wreak on Germany now is proved, as it was charged in 1919, to have been a short-sighted policy, capable of establishing peace only until Germany recuperated and regained some strength. Of course, the victors were determined to prevent Germany ever again from attempting to destroy the world and promote her own selfishness, but their efforts in that direction displayed only the tendencies of hate, none of the indications of caution or far vision. Even though it be another generation and new leaders, no virile nation, including our own, would fail to fight back if the opportunity ever presented. Germany has been seeking, therefore, only a restoration of some kind. It appears that the buried hate among them has been extinguished and made to live again in the demagoguery of Hitler. He has used it for his selfish ends, to maintain his own power, to satisfy an ego that some folks regard as approaching an unbalanced mentality.

4. The German people have been and continue to be a people requiring inflexible leadership. Hitler supplies it. He promised them new life, and he apparently has made good on just enough of his promises to provide him with continued power. Most people who have been able to study Hitler's programs at close range declare the whole house of cards eventually will collapse. But for the moment, there is "action," and the hope and the desires and the expectations of the German people provide fertile ground for the dogmas and the demagoguery of a dictator. They will not be "subjugated."

Is Hitler Through With Demands? Is the Question

5. We must not be too confident about the purity of purpose of those who guided the affairs of Czechoslovakia. The glory that was Czechoslovakia was stained more, I am afraid, than most of us Americans know. It is hard to believe all of the things, all of the methods of oppression, charged against the Czechs. Information concerning their treatment of the Sudeten Germans in Czechoslovakia was distorted by the Germans. There can be no doubt that, because the propaganda machine of Dr. Goebbels was working overtime. There was enough leaked through, however, to show that the Prague government was guilty of some harshness. It may have been that the Sudetens, themselves, brought it on. Of that, there can be only a guess. On the other hand, we have seen enough of the pulling and snarling, the sniping and trickery of other minorities, to have a reasonably good idea of what could have gone on within the confines of Czechoslovakia during its 20 years of life.

What of the settlement? Is Hitler through with his demands? Are there other underlying motives and conditions yet to be dealt with, and outside of the desires of the German minority to get back to the Reich? The answers to these questions explain why I said at the outset that the peace appeared only for "a while." The Czechs probably have been "sold down the river" to save the continent of Europe. I have no faith in the man, Hitler; almost as little faith in Mussolini, the other dictator. The Czechs are going to be unhappy a long time; they will be resentful, and maybe they will start something. Hitler doubtless still wants the German colonies taken away by the Versailles treaty. It would be strange, likewise, if he did not want "the Polish corridor" restored to Germany. Each ambition constitutes a festering sore.

Hitler Plans to Make Germany Self-Sufficient

Underneath all of the problem, too, lies Hitler's program to make Germany self-sufficient, to make the nation independent of foreign sources of supply. The Rumanian oil fields, rich and productive, are coveted by more than one nation. England and English oil interests maintain a rather definite control, but it is a control that can be broken easily. On the other side of Rumania is the dictator, Mussolini, who displayed the true character of his soul by his rape of Ethiopia. Put these things together and draw your own conclusion, mindful always that to the north lies a great Russian bear, governed by an individual with different concepts, ruled by a steel boot, a people who can be fired with hatred for the Hitler type of government. Some say even that Stalin is only awaiting an opportunity to jump astride Hitler's neck. Anyway, just remember that Stalin is over there, too.

Finally, in Britain and in France, there are differing groups. Prime Minister Chamberlain, Daladier. I wonder if two men, especially, with regard to Chamberlain, ever carried a greater burden when they went to meet Hitler; when they were seeking to prevent a catastrophe by what the Czech partisans called, "selling the Czechs down the river?" Politically, both Chamberlain and Daladier will have to fight for their lives within their respective nations of England and France. One or both may sink into oblivion as a result of the courage shown. And who knows what underlying motives existed in addition to a fear of a general war? Their trip to Munich on September 29 was a fateful trip, one which we in the United States may have to wait several years fully to understand.

And so, the final question is: can Hitler bring his own people back from the brink of war, from the fever of war preparation, to the life and economy of peace? That is a very real problem.

A Slim Waist for Glamour

HERE are two charming new designs that give you the tiny, Victorian waistline—almost an hour-glass effect—that's so fashionable right now. Both accentuate it, too, with perked-up sleeves and full skirts. Both give you a most feminine and appealing look! And it's so easy to make these carefully simplified designs. Each includes a detailed sew big buttons down the bodice, Victorian sleeves and (a highlight of charm!) the shirred waistline that looks so delightful on young and 'supple figures. For this, choose challis, silk print, taffeta or cashmere—preferable in some of the new, rich, warm, lively colorings.

The Patterns.
1498 is designed for sizes 14, 16, 18, 20, 42 and 44. For long coat, size 16 requires 4 3/4 yards of 39 inch material. For short, 4 1/4 yards. 1 3/4 yards grosgrain ribbon to trim.

1617 is designed for sizes 12, 14, 16, 18 and 20. Size 14 requires 3 1/2 yards of 39-inch material. 3/4 yard for contrasting collar, if desired. 1 3/4 yard braid to trim. 1 1/4 yard ribbon for sash belt.

Fall and Winter Fashion Book.
The new 32-page Fall and Winter Pattern Book which shows photographs of the dresses being worn is now out. (One pattern and the Fall and Winter Pattern Book—25 cents.) You can order the book separately for 15 cents. Send your order to The Sewing Circle Pattern Dept., Room 1020, 211 Wacker Dr., Chicago, Ill. Price of patterns, 15 cents (in coins) each.

chart that carefully explains every step of the way.

Hearthside Coat.
You can relax so thoroughly in this charming design. It will give you the inward peace that comes of knowing you look particularly pretty. The fitted-in waistline, the sweep of the full skirt, are too flattering for words! Make it of taffeta, flannel, challis, moire or velveteen—choosing colors that do nice things to your eyes and hair. This pattern is perforated for short length, too.

Daytime Dirndl.
Of course you want a fall into winter version of the flattering dirndl—and here's the way to make it. With a tailored collar,

But It's Difficult to Know One may disregard a prejudice if he knows it to be such.

To determine upon attainment is frequently attainment itself. People sometimes have to believe a pessimist, although they hate to.

Absent-mindedness is no help to forgetting things you want to forget. Hustle to Make Their Own Those who become famous do not study too long the footprints of others in the sands of time. We need critics or this world would be a piece of futile mush and gush.

There is one good thing about the man with trouble on his mind. He never breaks into your office humming jazz tunes.

Second Choice
"You smoke the same cigars as your boss?"
"Yes. He smokes the first half."

New version: A fool and his honey are soon parted. But the old version is right, too. He usually parts with his money first.

KEEPING UP

"Jones talks and talks, but never works—how does he keep afloat?"
"Hot air!"

Helpful
"Can you let me have a book, please?" asked the woman of the library assistant.

"Certainly," was the reply. "Do you want something light?"
"It doesn't matter a bit," said the customer, "I have my car with me."

The Singing Convention

Before an estimated crowd of over 300, singers from New Mexico and Texas last Sunday held the Lincoln County Singing Convention at Capitan.

The feature attraction of the convention was the Lubbock Quartet, West Texas representatives of the Stamp-Baxter Music Co., of Dallas.

The quartet was present Saturday night and all day Sunday, which speaks well for the county organization, as these men are constantly in demand by larger conventions than our own.

Representatives from Roosevelt, Quay, Curry, Guadalupe and Torrance counties were present and contributed to the program.

New officers were elected for the coming year: Mrs. Don English succeeds Mr. Meek of Fort Stanton as president; Colonel Jones was elected vice-president and W. J. Ferguson remains as secretary.

Next meeting will be held at Carrizozo on the fourth Sunday of March, 1939. Plans are being made for the largest and best program of gospel music this county has ever had.

American Legion Auxiliary

of Carrizozo met for their regular monthly business meeting Thursday night, Oct. 6, at the Legion Hut. Members present were Misses Walker, West, Carl, Graesen, Rely, Peters, Scharf, Bamberger and Conley. After the minutes, came the report from our treasurer, Mrs. Walker. Mrs. Rely was elected chairman of the membership drive which starts this month. A motion was made toward the purchase of a cookstove for the Hut. Motion carried. The ladies decided to meet and have a covered dish luncheon every 3rd Thursday of the month and sew for charity purposes. Plans are being swiftly carried out to complete the furnishing of the Legion Hut. We want to especially mention the sponsoring of the young folks' recreation night, one night each week in the Hut. They will be chaperoned by Legionnaires and Auxiliary members. Tentative plans were discussed for the coming dance and a possible program Nov. 11. We want everybody to come and help us celebrate on this date. Watch papers for further details.—Rance-ize.

Grid Heroes Of '37 Factor In New Teams

By HERB ROGERS

IN TRYING to dope the winners in 1938's football picture, a yardstick as accurate as any is the gridiron accomplishments of 1937 players and teams.

Let's then consider the caliber of some of this season's players who made names for themselves in '37, and also the kind of assistance the individual player will get from his 1938 teammates.

'Whizzer' White

fourth and fifth place. "Whizzer" White, the Colorado flash, Wolikowski, Fordham; King, Minnesota, all averaged over 42 yards per kick, but they have passed on to the alumni ranks.

Passing

David O'Brien, Texas Christian's 160-pound quarterback, completed more forward passes than any other player in the country last year. He made 234 attempts and completed 94 of them.

Of the players returning for 1938 varsity work, Sam Boyd, Baylor, caught the greatest number of passes. The record shows that he accounted for 23 of them.

Yardage

For yardage gained by running plays, two Texas Tech boys led the returning gridiron heroes. They were Elmer Tarbox and Bobby Holmes.

Although Pingel of Michigan State led the nation in individual kicking, St. Mary's led the country as a team.

For yardage gained by running plays, the University of Colorado earned first team honors with 2,480 yards total for the season which gave them an average of 310 yards per game.

The New Deals

Plans for baseball's 1938 campaign already have set in and foundations laid for off-season deals. Alva Bradley fired the first broadside of the winter campaign in announcing that several of his Indians, including Earl Averill, Lyn Lary and Sammy Hale were definitely on the trading block.

Colorful Champ

THEY'RE calling Patty Berg, new queen of the American links, the "Walter Hagen" of women's golf.

The freckle-faced, snub-nosed miss puts on an act reminiscent of the great "Haig" when he was the idol of golf-crowds and knocking over tournaments as fast as they could set 'em up.

She paces up and down, rubs her hands, goes into a huddle with her caddy, then selects a club only to discard it in favor of another. But when she hits the ball, it's no act.

Here and There

Net profit from all athletic activities at the University of California for the fiscal year 1937-38 was $205,591.70, which included a net of $80,109 from the Rose Bowl game with Alabama.

The All America team of the most popular players in baseball, chosen by fans in a nationwide voting contest, offers plenty of room for argument.

The hurriers for the honor team listed in the order in which baseball followers ranked them are Ruffing,

Yankees; Hubble, Giants; Vander Meer, Red; Grove, Red Sox, and Bridges of the Tigers.

Table listing baseball players and their teams, including names like Gehrig, Coghlan, and Cronk.

The contest was not based upon a player's ability, but solely upon his popularity with the baseball public.

Break for Ducks

Free use of the Canadian government's vast system of water storage projects, created to relieve drought in the prairie provinces, has been offered to Ducks Unlimited.

HEALTH

Difference in individuals makes ideal laxative hard to find; none are panaceas.

By Dr. James W. Barton

MANY individuals are seeking the "ideal" laxative, something that will cause a bowel movement daily, that will not upset the stomach nor inflame the bowel.

Most health writers advise the use of foods containing roughage or fiber, because the rough fiber by irritating or stimulating the muscles of the bowel cause the wastes to move downward through the bowel.

Fiber Important. For the sluggish and the normal individual some rough foods every day are advisable.

Green Vegetables for Iron. Fruits and vegetables supply varying amounts of practically every mineral element the body requires.

Vegetables for Vitamin A. We usually think of milk and other dairy products as our most important sources of vitamin A.

Underweight Child Presents Problem. The youngster may be returning to school after holidays spent outdoors and despite his improved appetite and eating more food, there has been little or no gain in weight.

However, younger children just reaching school age should be gradually increasing in weight; if not, parents should try to find the reason.

What About Canned Foods? I frequently receive letters from readers who question the merits of canned foods.

WHAT to EAT and WHY

C. Houston Goudiss Discusses Significance of Fruits and Vegetables; Tells the Truth About Canned Foods

By C. HOUSTON GOUDISS

A GENERATION ago, except in mid-summer, fruits were a luxury that only appeared, with nuts, at the end of a festive meal.

Foods That Safeguard Health. In addition to providing nutrients that are indispensable for buoyant health and normal growth, they possess another important virtue—the indigestible cellulose or bulk yielded by the fibrous framework of the leaves, stems and fruits of plants.

Green Vegetables for Iron. Fruits and vegetables supply varying amounts of practically every mineral element the body requires.

Vegetables for Vitamin A. We usually think of milk and other dairy products as our most important sources of vitamin A.

the moment their rich nourishment is sealed in cans. Similarly the fruits and vegetables designed for canning are allowed to mature on tree or vine.

Fallacies Disproved. Canned foods will keep indefinitely without spoilage, as long as nothing occurs to make the can leak.

Thus canned fruits and vegetables are not only "as good as" fresh ones, but are often superior in food values.

Children's Garments.—Children's clothing that is too heavy or improperly balanced may cause rounded or sloping shoulders.

COMMENTS

Lewis Burke

—And R U Listenin'?

Pollitx sho am beginning to get hot here.

A contingent of State Democratic speakers were entertained Wednesday night by the Carrizozo Business Men's Club. Not so Democrats, but as friendly visitors.

The group of speakers went to the Community Hall after dining at the S. P. Hotel, where they told the large crowd they'd continue to save the state, and "make the country safe for the Democrats."—As they saw it.

When the Demos speaking was nearly over, a shrill siren rent the air. "Where's the fire?" everybody exclaimed.

Fire Chief J. M. Beck and his boys made a speedy trip to Nogal, where they found that there was a serious fire. Particulars elsewhere in this issue.
