Killing Near Hondo

Sheriff S. E. Greisen said murder charges had been filed Monday against Roberto Lopez in the fatal shooting of Fred Romero, 24, of Roswell, near Hondo early Sunday.

According to the Sheriff, the Romero brothers were enroute to Roswell from Lincoln after a dance. Villescas and the Lopez brothers overtook them in another car and blocked the road.

State Musical Project For Carrizozo

Mrs. Helen Chandler Ryan, State Musical Supervisor has ordered a state musical project for Carrizozo to be sponsored by the American Legion and Auxiliary.

Lessons are to be gratis, but students are required to furnish instruments and instruction books. The object of the project is to organize a community band and orchestra for the summer seasons and to work with Mr. Susman in the school music and to organize groups of players to start now and lay plans for the musical part of our program for the Coronado Cuarto Centennial.

Alfredo Lopez will act as organizer and manager for the band, with Mr. Fink as instructor and director. It is the aim and hope of the Legion to erect a bandstand in the park, where concerts and other entertainment may be given to the people during nice weather.

Mrs. Chloe Fisher of the Fisher Lumber Company of Capitan, was a visitor here the latter part of the week, calling on Sheriff and Mrs. Ben Greisen. Mrs. Fisher is the Sheriff's mother.

Norman-LaRue

On Nov. 29, at 7 a. m., in Albuquerque, Miss Jane Norman of Carrizozo became the bride of James A. LaRue of that city. The ceremony was solemnized with High Mass at the Immaculate Conception Cathedral by Father Callaghan.

The bride and groom were attired in navy blue tailored suits with corsage and boutonniere of white bride's roses. The maid of honor and best man also wore tailored suits with salmon pink roses.

Miss Norman is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. S. Norman. She graduated from the Carrizozo High School in '37, after which she attended the University and Western Business College at Albuquerque.

The wedding was attended by the bride's parents, the groom's mother, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Krohne, Jr. of Carrizozo and a number of close friends. After the ceremony the wedding party retired to the home of Mrs. LaRue, where a lovely breakfast was served.

Thomas E. Dewey and The American Jury

Wednesday night Thomas E. Dewey, New York District Attorney, made his maiden speech to the people of this country for the nomination for President of the United States on the Republican National Ticket, speaking from Minneapolis, Minn.

Those who were fortunate enough to hear him over the radio were impressed with the calmness, coolness and deliberate manner in which he dealt with the different problems now confronting this country of ours.

In his speech to an audience of 9,000 people, Dewey tickled the New Deal in the ribs at many different times. In beginning, he said that there was little left to do, for all that remains is to divide up what we got from the Indians.

At another time, he said, "Repressive taxation and economic quackery have kept the energy of American enterprise from going to work." Again he said, "Our country's massive problems could not be wished away by singing 'Happy Days are here again.'"

He also said that the New Deal had promised everything, but had left the performance to come from the savings of the last generation achieved under Republican administrations and mortgaged the earnings of the next generation which will also be under Republican administrations.

He talked to his large, enthusiastic audience much like he would talk to a jury. His intense earnestness, his wonderful command and delivery of speech, went straight from the shoulder as he swayed the big audience from the serious to the comical portions of his speech.

Mr. Earnest operated the Lyric machine here several years ago when Mr. Trieb was manager. He is now dividing his time between the Capitan and Pecos theatres of Roswell.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Richard of Carrizozo arrived Sunday to spend several days visiting at the home of Mrs. Richard's sisters, Mrs. Ira Greer and Mrs. Bryan Casler. - Tucumcari News.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Frame passed through here Monday on their way from the Ancho country to "Dunwookin," their home on the Ruidoso. We understand that they had made a deal with Mr. George Goodson of Ancho, exchanging their property at that place for real estate in Tularosa, on which the Frames will erect a winter home. This will give our old friends the convenience and comfort of enjoying the coolness of their summer cottage in Ruidoso in the summer time, and wintering in sunny Tularosa. Miss Mary Catherine Penix, who is attending the U in Albuquerque, spent the Thanksgiving holidays at a reunion of the Penix and Frame families in Corona.

COMMENTS

Lewis Burke

Little old town, good afternoon!

May we s-n-o-w-k in? Thank! —R U Listenin?

Thirty days hath September, April, June and November— All the rest have thirty-one Until you hear from Washington.

Democrats are thicker than hair on a dog's back down in Texas. Everyone, everywhere told us so. Which prompted us to buy a treat for any Republican who stood in the hotel gathering. One old, long and lean Texas-type cowhand answered the call with the assertion that he was a "damned good Republican and proud of it." And did he take a swig? A fellow won't lose much money buying drinks for GOP-ers in Lea County. — Roy Record.

Note — Not in Lincoln county, Senor. There were nine Republicans elected at the last election on the County Ticket.

What is nicer than a fine Navajo Rug or Blanket for a Christmas gift? The Titsworth Company of Capitan has a varied assortment of these goods at reasonable prices.

Perhaps the most distressing tale that has ever come the way of our good ear is the one about the maid who worked for a high-brow family, and simply wore herself to a frazzle dashing back and forth between the keyhole and the dictionary.

And the most comforting thing about an election ordinarily is that only one of the candidates can get in. — Dunkirk (Ind.) News.

Another indication of Roosevelt's desire for a third term lies in the fact that he has an overwhelming desire to "debunk" American traditions, says the Tucumcari News. He succeeded in shuffling Thanksgiving around until it became an international joke.

But if Mr. Roosevelt really wants a third term, as there seems every reason to believe he does, the American people would appreciate it more if he would come right out and say so. And if he doesn't want it, then he is surely getting no place fast with his coy gags. — Tucumcari News.

A little tot asks if we are going to have two Christmas holidays this year.

WON BUM LUNG OPINES Confucius say — When man argue with woman he has two strikes.

"Mucho Calor" (very warm) in Carrizozo this week. It seems as if we are going to have a nice, warm day this Christmas.

A typical sign in a tavern in New Jersey: "The U. S. is neutral — so are we. To avoid fights and arguments, do not discuss the war on these premises."

Billy MacDonald

Last Sunday morning at an Albuquerque hospital, the curtain went down on the life of another picturesque character of the southwest, Wm. MacDonald, who passed away after a brief illness. Billy was born in the province of Nova Scotia, in 1874. He came from a long line of MacDonalds who for the past centuries had conducted foundries over the province, mining the products, smelting the ore and manufacturing various useful articles for factories and homes.

In view of that fact, it was no more than natural that Billy should become a mining man, following in the footsteps of his ancestors. After graduating from several colleges in the study of mineralogy, he came to New Mexico 30 years ago, drifting from one place to another, finally settling in Lincoln County, where he operated mines in White Oaks, the White mountains and the old Vera Cruz mine. Billy was a man well informed, not only in mining, but exceptionally so on public affairs and current events of importance to state and nation.

He was generous, conservative, pleasant in conversation and ready with information to those who sought his advice. He was well known in the mining industry from New Mexico to the Pacific coast. His remains were cremated and sent to Nova Scotia for interment.

Lupe Gabaldon, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Martinez were visitors from Claunch last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Gallegos, Gregorio Pino, Albino Guebara, Florencio Vega, Benny Sanchez and Melquiades Gonzales were here from their ranches on some business the first of the week.

Leandro and Frank Vega and their families were Albuquerque visitors last Saturday, returning home Sunday afternoon.

Manuel Chavez returned last week from Albuquerque and Bernadillo, where at the last named place, he visited his brother Sat, who has a good position there and also plays with the town orchestra.

Following the death of Jack Dabbs at Riverside Camp in the lower valley, particulars of which we published last week, official advices from Roswell are that the gun in the hands of his wife was accidentally discharged and caused his death.

Turkey Shoot at Country Club next Sunday from 9 a. m. on.

Mmes Fred and Maggie Pflingsten, Misses Mary and Margaret Kalkon, granddaughters of Mrs. Fred Pflingsten, were here Saturday and returned with the candy premiums from the Outlook of Dec. Thank you ladies for your mail and your lasting friendship.

FSA NEWS

There is a steady decrease on thousands of small farms throughout the country in the amount of land planted in cash crops, according to a recent survey by the FSA among its borrowers. The FSA makes loans to low-income farm families who cannot obtain credit elsewhere, and follows these loans with advice and supervision. Farm Security advises its borrowers to raise their own feed for livestock and to grow as much food as they can for homes, as it is much cheaper than buying it.

According to G. Melvin Waters, Lincoln County Rural Rehabilitation Supervisor, the net worth of the families surveyed has increased more than $2 1/2 million, or an average of $200.47 per family since their adoption of improved management principles indicated by the study.

LETTERS TO OUTLOOK

Nice letters have been coming in to this office from our old subscribers and also from new ones, who have been added to our subscription list since the candy premium campaign began. We have mailed candy to points all over the United States. Among the letters received this week: From E. J. Dodge of Inlay, Nev., Mr. Dodge was the former manager of the local S. P. Hotel; one from Leon D. Smith, Printer, who is now in the employ of the Dupkirk, Ind., News. Mr. Smith was at one time employed by the Lincoln County News. He entered his subscription to The Outlook, and ordered the candy premium sent to his old home in Bowling Green, Ohio.

We received word Wednesday from Miss Belle Ashbrook of St. Joseph, Mo., who praises the candy and sends us news from the writer's old home town. Another was from Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Sowder, at one time residents of Carrizozo, but now at Fort Sumner, N. M.

Other letters came in the latter part of the last and first part of this week from satisfied subscribers, who have taken advantage of our extraordinary premium offer.

The two-pound boxes of this fine candy are going fast, folks—be sure to get yours. We want to serve everybody on the list!
