

LARGEST COUNTY CIRCULATION

Near Pre-historic Malpais and Gran Quivira

OFFICIAL LINCOLN COUNTY PAPER—Under Contract With County Commissioners

CARRIZOZO OUTLOOK

OFFICIAL CARRIZOZO PAPER

Oldest Paper in Lincoln County

Published Weekly in the Interest of Carrizozo and Lincoln County

8 PAGES

VOL. XXI — NO. 51

CARRIZOZO, LINCOLN COUNTY, NEW MEXICO, FRIDAY, APRIL 5, 1940

PRICE $2.00 THE YEAR

Local Mention

Mrs. Frank Maxwell, daughter Mary and son Charles were visitors from their ranch near the Gran Quivira Monday.

Margy Melton visited relatives and friends in Tucumcari last week.

Mrs. P. C. St. John was called to Albuquerque the latter part of last week on account of the illness of her son Lell, who is now much improved.

Bang! And the waitress Cinderella woke up. For one deliciously happy week her prince charming ordered her diamonds, furs, silks, a $50,000 home and everything she asked—and then those inquisitive cops came along. Read all about this cruel hoax.

Also How, an author exile staged his own unhappy ending. The brilliant dramatist acted out his own last and mysterious chapter. Read Adela Rogers St. Johns' article in which she blames his suicide on banishment from Hollywood and his broken romance with a lovely actress.

An illustrated feature. Read both in The American Weekly magazine with next Sunday's Los Angeles Examiner.

Joe Chavez returned last Sunday evening from Tucumcari, where he spent a week with his mother, Mrs. Lola Medina and other relatives.

Mrs. Maggie Pfingsten of the Nogal Mesa returned last Sunday from Vaughn, where she had been visiting the W. M. Armstrong family.

Dr. M. G. Paden of White Oaks was a business visitor in town this Wednesday.

Miss Zane Harkey and her guest Miss Gwendolyn Bartholomew, who is her college chum, will leave for Denver Sunday to again take up their studies at the Colorado Woman's College.

Mmes. Albert Ziegler and Selma Degitz returned from El Paso, where they had been for the past several weeks during Mr. Ziegler's illness. They report his condition so well improved that they felt safe to return.

Mrs. Ira Greer, Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Cazier and Miss Ruth Barnhart were here from Tucumcari last week, Bryan going up to open his summer cottage at Eagle Creek; Mrs. Greer going to the ranch in the San Andres mountains, and Miss Ruth visiting the home folks.

Miss Betty Schafer left Sunday for Denver, to resume her studies at the Colorado Woman's College. Miss Betty's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Shafer, accompanied her to Albuquerque.

Mr. and Mrs. Winzell Rickerson will leave for Dallas Saturday to make that city their future home. Mrs. Winzell is the former Miss Pinkie Ruth Skinner, and was one of the stenographers in the office of Attorney John E. Hall.

Mrs. Lotta Eaton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Stimmel, who had been here about one month while her father was ill, left the latter part of last week for her home in Walla Walla, Washington, after being assured that Mr. Stimmel was out of danger.

Municipal Election

At the local election for Mayor and Board of Village Trustees held Tuesday, there being but one ticket in the field, the following results were issued by Morgan Lovelace, Village Clerk, on Wednesday morning:

128 votes were cast, M. U. Finkle, for Mayor, receiving 128. For Trustees—Albert Scharf, 128; Roy Shafer, 125; Daniel Chavez, 126; G. T. McQuillen, 120; Glen Dorsett, 1; Serafin (Panche) Moya, 1; Don English, 1; R. E. Berry, 1; A. J. Rolland, 1; Eugene Dow, 1.

For Clerk: Morgan Lovelace, 128. The new Board will be sworn in at the last meeting of the old Board on Tuesday, May 7, and will assume their duties for a period of two years.

Weather Report (Weekly)

Table with columns: May, Max, Min, Prec, P, W. Rows for days 29, 30, 31, A1, 2, 3, 4.

Beatrice Romero, Airway Observer.

BUSINESS MEN'S CLUB

Father-Daughter Banquet S. P. Hotel, April 10, 8:15 P. M. Frank Adams, Toastmaster

6:15 Assembly. Song by assembly. Mr. Susman, leader, Miss Snow at Piano Dinner. Welcome Address. Mr. Carpenter. Response to be announced. Violin solo, Mr. Susman, Miss Snow at piano. Vocal solo, Mrs. Kroggel. Mrs. Burns at piano. Piano solo, Dolores Peterson. Closing song by Assembly

ATTENTION!

A Mass Meeting of the Taxpayers of Carrizozo is called for Tuesday night, April 9, at the District Court Room, to formulate plans for building a new schoolhouse.

By order of Municipal School Board.

Mrs. PAUL HENRY

Field Worker and National Representative of the Federation of Women's Republican Clubs, will meet with the Republican party members in Albuquerque, April 5 at the Alvarado Hotel.

Mmes. E. L. Moulton, Fred Pyle, and Osborne Wood; Messrs. Cyrus McCormick and John Emmons will be among those attending.

Mrs. Henry will make an address on Saturday, April 6 at Santa Fe to the Santa Fe County Republican Women's Club.

Mrs. Osborne Wood passed through here yesterday on her way to attend the above-named meeting.

Mrs. Beulah Bunch and daughter Ida Dell went to Roswell Wednesday with Mrs. Mitchell.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Melton of El Paso, Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Melton of Tularosa went through here Thursday on their way to Tucumcari.

James Crews of Capitan was here this morning, Friday.

LYRIC THEATRE

(Air conditioned) R. A. Walker, Owner "The Theatre Beautiful" (Cut out and save for reference.)

Shows start promptly at 7:30

Friday & Saturday S. Toler, Cesar Romero, Pauline Moore in—

"Charlie Chan at Treasure Island"

With Treasure Island, the site of the San Francisco Fair as the setting, thrills and chills that provide smiles, pile upon one another from the time a China Clipper with a dead man aboard flies through the Golden Gate, until the final fade-out.

—Also— "Big Game Hunting" and "The Orphan Duck."

Sunday, Monday & Tuesday

Norma Shearer, Joan Crawford, Rosalind Russell with 185 women—and not a man in it!

"The Women"

The year's most uproarious comedy which made a million women laugh and a million men gasp.

—Also— "Popular Science" and "Jackpot."

Wednesday & Thursday

Robert Young, Florence Rice in—

"Miracles For Sale"

An unusual picture, based on the activities of a magician who makes a living creating and selling illusions.

—Also— "The Blue Danubs" and "The Land of Alaska Nellie."

Sunday matinee at 2:30 p.m. Sunday Night Show at 8:00.

D-A-N-C-E Captain Grade Gym Sat. April 13

Benefit Fort Stanton Girls' Softball Team Sponsored by Seamen's Social Club.

Music: Harry Knowles and His Boys.

Adm. 75c Ladies Free

Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Rentfrow of their ranch across the Malpais were business visitors in town yesterday. While here, they had some Notary work done at this office.

R. E. Kent of Oscura attended the Lyric Theatre Monday.

County Commissioner Corbin Hester of Corona is here this week attending to official business.

We are in receipt of word from Mrs. Katherine Spence Bilbo, former Carrizozo girl, who is now residing at Freer, Texas. She sends kindest regards to old friends and wants to know all about the little town in which she lived so long.

"Bubbling Over"

Following our article in last week's issue of "Bubbling Over" the play to be given on April 11 and 12, for the benefit of Child Welfare Work, the cast of characters in order of appearance are:

Tubby Potts; Ralph Pruett Robert Preston; Ralph Petty Bruce Banton; Tennis Smoot Mrs. Maxwell; Mrs. Clara B. Walker

Carol Doran; LaWana Conley Jody Tilden; Mrs. Don English Miss Doolittle; Beatrice Romero Precilla Taylor; Elizabeth Dow Washington-Wellington-Watts; Frank Adams

Miss Lively; Henrietta Degner We have six peppy, attractive chorus girls, namely: Margy Melton, Jackie Dixon, Dorothy Pruett, Josephine Dow, Jane Gallacher and Charlene Page.

The show will start with a "bang" led by the tune, "Good Morning." The chorus has charming, colorful costumes. The outstanding chorus group is the Pop Squad; the girls dressed as cheer leaders and carrying canes, with gayly colored pennants, unite to form a peppy, attractive chorus number. Fast moving steps all to the tune of "It's a Hip-hap-happy day."

The drill chorus takes the show. The song, "In God's Country," the pert Over-seas caps, the flowing red and blue silk capes, all make these girls the talk of the town.

The 5th Graders contribute their bit with a number designed for them entitled "Geography."

Added features to the show will be the "Date Bureau Applicants" in Specialist, and the Baby Contest. Adv.

Davidsons Entertain

March 30, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Davidson entertained at their ranch home with a birthday dinner in honor of Jack and Allan Davidson. There were 18 guests present; all reported a wonderful time.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Allan Davidson, Mrs. Foster and Mary Hickock of Albuquerque; Mrs. Ed Kelley and daughter Middle Ann of Tucumcari. Everyone left wishing the Davidsons brothers another happy birthday in the near future.

ST. RITA CHURCH

The Mission which is being conducted at the St. Rita Church this week by Rev. Fr. Antonio Martinez of San Antonio, has been largely attended each night. Rev. Martinez is a highly talented and convincing speaker and also an accomplished singer and musician. Those who have not heard him, should avail themselves of this opportunity tomorrow night or Sunday, when the mission closes.

Commissioner George Kimbrell of Pecos is a business visitor here this week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Petty spent a few days last week in El Paso, attending the Shriners' Celebration.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Clayton were visitors here from the Ancho country yesterday. Mr. Clayton is a prominent stockman of the Ancho locality.

A. L. Burke

The Ungratefulness of John L. Lewis

We have often heard it said, that "the more you do for some people, the more they expect" and that statement has proven true with John L. Lewis, head of the C. I. O. He was the direct cause of having the members of the C. I. O. vote as a unit for the President and besides, he caused the organization to donate enormous sums of money to the New Deal fund at both campaigns. In return for this work, the New Deal enacted many laws, some or most of which were unconstitutional in favor of labor and more especially to the C. I. O. The un-American sit-down strike wherein, the workers under the direction of Lewis, took possession of the automobile works in Detroit, forced the owners and managers out and assumed complete control of affairs, was upheld by the New Deal and also by Governor Murphy, who is now on the Supreme Court bench.

The enactment of the Wagner act, whereby everything favored the workingmen, was framed and directed by Lewis, besides other measures which had his blessing were hastily made into laws. During the Detroit strike of the automobile workers, he bluntly told the President that labor had made him President and asked his O. K. on their actions, but that was going so far, that Mr. Roosevelt kept his hands off. Now, Lewis comes out and says that if anyone is nominated, who is not wholly and solely on the side of labor, or in other words, the C. I. O., he will start a new party. While we hope he will start another "Bull Moose" party and split the New Deal vote, it does not alter our opinion that he is ungrateful for the favors received from the New Deal.

Now we come back to the saying quoted in the beginning of this article, "The more you do for some people, the more they expect."

The Next Nightmare is Fear of the Census-Taker

There never has been in the annals of American history, a time when the people of this country lived in constant fear of almost everything. In the midst of all this mess of uncertainty, comes the fear of the census-taker. According to reports from the east, where they are already at work, the dread of being put to the third degree in answering nonsense-less questions, many people have left their homes for a time in order to dodge the fiend in the form of the census-taker. We believe that there is a great deal of bologna about what we hear, but nevertheless, some of the reports must be true. But we must have a little fun while the hippodrome of fault-finding, fact-finding and back-biting in governmental affairs is taking place, all or most of which has little or no Americanism in it.

Senator Tobey said that the census-taking project is but a revival, or rather an aping of Hitlerism. He says without fear of

ATTENTION, MASONS

All Master Masons are invited to a Regular communication at Masonic Temple, on Wednesday night, Apr. 10.

Don English, W. M. R. E. Lemon, Sec'y.

The Tournament

The Hondo boys, county champions for 3 years, went down to defeat Saturday night before a large crowd of cheering fans, in a classic game with the Capitan boys. The game was hard-fought all the way, but Hondo could not penetrate the airtight defense of Capitan. Score was 12-6. Capitan defeated Carrizozo and San Pat. to reach finale, while Hondo got by Pecos and Ruidoso. Carrizozo won the consolation trophy by beating Stetson and Ancho; San Pat. defeated Pecos to win third.

In the girls' games, San Patricio dethroned Capitan's champs 36 to 17. Carrizozo won third by beating Lincoln and Hondo won the consolation trophy by defeating Stetson. Immediately after the games, Mrs. Nelle Day presented the trophies to the winning teams, and also gold and silver basketballs to the two winning teams and the all-county team, as well as several valuable prizes furnished by the Business Men's Club.

The all-county team for boys was selected by a committee of six, and is as follows: Forwards: Tolliver, Capitan; Maer, Hondo; Center: Herrera, San Pat; Guards: Salcido, Hondo, Serna, Capitan, Girls—Forwards: Werner, San Pat., Montes, Hondo, Cozens, Capitan; Guards: Miranda, Lincoln, Peralta, Capitan, Randolph, San Pat. Werner, Montes and Cozens also won honor medals for the girls; Tolliver, Herrera and Pablin for the boys.

The association chose Hondo as the place for the 1941 tourney and elected Mr. Sloan and Mrs. Joiner as Pres. and Sec'y-Treas. Lunch was served both days by the Home Ecs. Dept. Jimmy Carpenter of Colorado and Clarence Poling of Capitan were Referees.—Contributed.

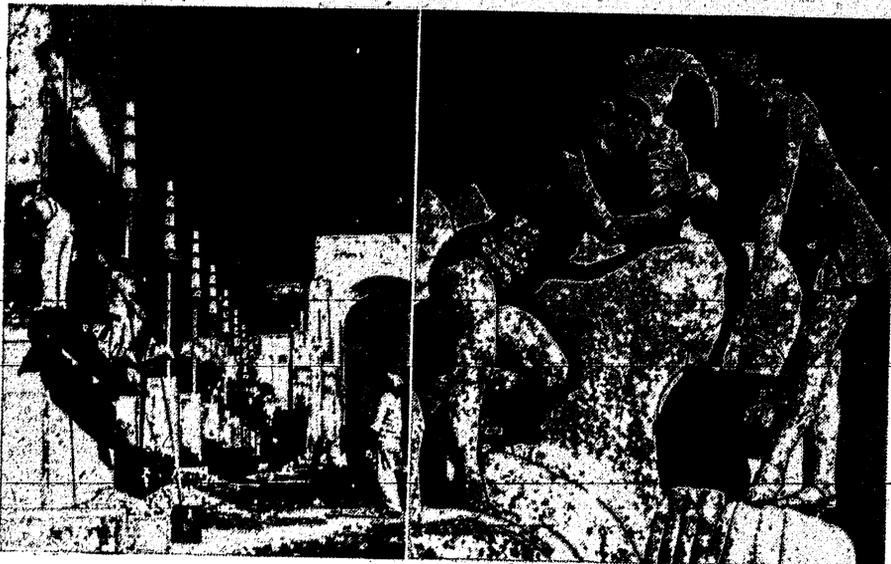

contradiction that Hitler has put that same scheme to work in Germany and we are following suit—and proves it. What is to follow is of course, a little fun, but some of the questions asked by the "taker," as far as we are led to believe are just as ridiculous.

We enter the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jones just as the census man comes in and draws his sword. He speaks—"So you are Mr. Jones, eh? How do I know who you are? Get your birth certificate. Don't look at me like that, I've met your likes before. Have you been legally married?

If so, show your certificate. There are thousands of Joneses and how do I know but what you are giving me an assumed name. Let's see your teeth—are they true or false? Do you wear long underwear—if so, what is the brand? How often do you take a bath? So you won't talk, eh? All right, we'll make you talk!

Gene Dow, Jr., is the census taker for our district and we would advise him to get a full suit of armor and provide himself with a machine gun and plenty of ammunition. That's enough! With apologies to the Duke of Paducah, "I'm going to the wagon; there shall I kill 'em!"

Golden Gate Exposition Prepares for 1940 Opening

Face-lifting operations for the 1940 Golden Gate International exposition are well under way in preparation for the opening day, May 25. Left: Workmen are pictured plastering and painting in Treasure Island's court of reflections, where an entirely new color scheme will greet first-day visitors. Right: Statuary gets a bath on the exposition grounds. Jeanette Adams and Fay Lacey do their share with this sculptured figure.

German Bombers in Action Over Enemy Territory

Typical of the men who pilot Germany's huge bombing planes are these three men pictured, according to the Nazi censor, by fellow members of the bomber's crew. Left: A youthful pilot at the controls of one of the Reich's flying fortresses. Top right: To sustain them on their long raiding and reconnaissance flights prepared pemican on the wing. Right bottom: An unusual picture showing the gunner sighting along the muzzle of his machine gun during a raid.

Where Their Fathers Fought and Died

Men of the Welsh guards, British forces in France, are treated to a cup of tea by a French woman. The soldiers stand amid the ruins of a building partially destroyed during the World war. Many of the men are sons of those who fought and died in this spot during the last world conflict.

Five-Year-Old Tries Swimming to Health

Largest device of its kind is this "many purpose tank" recently installed in the New York Orthopedic hospital. Physical therapy technician Phillip Phillips supervises the treatment of five-year-old Bart Giordano, who "bathes" for health. The machine provides underwater exercise for all joints of the body.

Builder

Miss Muriel Leal, visitor to a New York hobby show, views a model church through a magnifying glass. The church is made of thousands of burnt matchsticks.

Jewish Leader

Recent arrival in the United States is Rabbi Joseph Isaac Schneersohn, leader of the movement for the preservation of orthodoxy of the Jewish faith. He was forced to spend six weeks in a cellar in Warsaw during the German invasion of Poland.

Star Dust

STAGE-SCREEN-RADIO
(Released by Western Newspaper Union.)

RAY MILLAND would like to keep a controlling hand on the scripts of all pictures in which he appears from now on. Truth came far too close to fiction to suit him a while ago, and he hasn't quite recovered yet.

He'd finished work in "Untamed" and gone to Sun Valley for a week's rest. Mrs. Milland stayed in Hollywood, as they were expecting the arrival of their first child some weeks later. Then he received word that he'd have to race the stork if he wanted to be in Hollywood when it appeared. He started for Boise, Idaho, in a car, also in a blizzard. At Boise he chartered the only plane available, and was grounded at Salt Lake City. He telephoned the hospital, in Hollywood, and learned that he had a son.

In "Untamed" he'd braved a blizzard to reach the bedside of a sick sweetheart. If it's all the same to the scenario writers, he'd rather have less harrowing experiences.

Hollywood's most famous mixed foursome—Paulette Goddard, Ruby Keeler, Bing Crosby and Bob Hope—will probably have difficulty in sticking to picture-making if they all find themselves in the cast of "Follow Through." They played together in a charity match last autumn, and it was then that the idea of teaming them in a picture was suggested. They're all experts, and if they can resist staging a match that the script doesn't call for they'll be doing well.

BOB HOPE

Announcer Del Sharbutt intended to be a musician, but instead has become widely known as announcer for such programs as "Myrt and Marge," "Ask-It-Basket" and Lanny Ross. The musician in him has come out at last, though; he's written two songs of Hit Parade proportions within a few weeks—"The Klitten with the Big Green Eyes," and "I'd Love To."

Ginger Rogers, who has millions of fans now, had only one in 1929; he was John L. Cass, who recorded the sound of "Primrose Path," in which she co-stars with Joel McCrea. About 10 years ago RCA made a two-reeler called "Campus Sweethearts," in New York, to try out a new wide-film process. Two movie unknowns, Ginger Rogers and Rudy Vallee, were featured.

The director didn't care for the song that Ginger had been rehearsing, but Cass insisted on recording it. "She had everything, including a swell mike voice," he says. "I knew she was star dust—and how!"

Want to see what happens to winners of beauty contests? Claire James, who was runner-up in the Miss America contest last year, is playing a bit in Paramount's "The Ghost Breakers"; she appears in a restaurant scene, wearing a floor-length dinner dress.

Ben Bernie and his lads and lassies, including Dinah Shore and Lew Lehr, are moving. After 60 weeks of Sunday broadcasts they're setting up shop in a Wednesday evening half-hour, beginning April 10. Want to bet that for the first few weeks at least half of the troupe will dash to the studio on Sundays?

Cecil B. DeMille is back in character again. Now that he is directing "The Northwest Mounted Police" and goes straight from the movie studio to the radio one where he does his Radio Theater broadcasts, he shows up in his "shooting" outfit—high boots, riding breeches, and headgear ranging from sombrero to pith helmet.

If you have a harpsichord that you don't want, get in touch with Alec Templeton. Collecting unusual musical instruments is his hobby, and he has no harpsichord and he wants one. There are only 10 of these ancient instruments in the United States, four of them owned by friends of Templeton's in Chicago. They urged him to try one not long ago, he played his favorite satire, "Back Goes to Town"—and now his life won't be perfect until he is presented with a harpsichord of his own.

The Once Over

by H.I. Phillips

THE QUESTION THAT'S DRIVING US MAD

Problem Number One now facing all Americans is "How to Behave and What to Say" to the question, "Do you think Roosevelt wants a third term?"

The question is becoming irritating. It is driving many people mad to the point of violence. A survey by this department shows that more people go around asking "Do you think Roosevelt wants a third term?" than any other question, including "What time is it?" and "How is business?"

An Elmer Twitchell Poll shows the following interesting standing of leading questions as of the past week:

"Do you think Roosevelt w. a. t. t.?"	11,546,789
"Did you ever see a winter like this?"	6,785,432
"Do you think things are any better?"	5,935,824
"Do you think there is any chance of peace by spring over there?"	5,430,890
"Am I lifting my head or is it my grip on the club?"	1,450,233

The interrogation is becoming a menace. It is getting on the nerves of America. The Twitchell Poll showed that 550,634 persons interviewed last week favored bashing the head of the person asking the question; 134,588 favored throttling; 25,670 were for the use of firearms.

Mr. Twitchell thinks there will be wide bloodshed if something isn't done about the matter. Always against violence, he believes the thing to do when anybody asks the question is to stare at the person intently and make no reply at first. When the person repeats the question he would answer: "Oh, I don't know. You've got to remember that the Yanks are a terrific hitting club."

But this course has its drawbacks. It falls the questioner, but is a strain on the other party. This column has asked some leading citizens what they now say when anybody chirps, "Do you think Roosevelt, etc."

John Hamilton: "I just say, 'I'm all right; how are you feeling?'"

Al Smith: "My answer is always, 'It depends whether it's on white or rye bread.'"

Nicholas Murray Butler: "When anybody asks me 'Do you think Roosevelt will run again?' I just yawn and say, 'I don't know; I'm a stranger here myself.'"

Congressman Dies: "I just ask questions, I don't answer 'em."

Greta Garbo: "When anybody ask me if Roosevelt bare run again I always say, 'No; Jimmy no want it any more; he is satisfied to stay in Hollywood.'"

So there you are.

HOLLYWOOD CHATTER
"Looka, Marge. Here's a picture of Queen Mary."

"Whaddaya know about that! She looks just like Edna May Oliver."

"I hear M. G. M. is making a picture on 'The Life of the Bee.'"

"Yeah. But how are they going to work Tyrone Power into that one?"

Adolf, the dispatches say, has lost weight. That uniform he was never going to take off until Germany had won the war will present a serious problem. It's pretty hard to take in the slack of a pair of pants when they're still on the wearer.

When Hitler started the war he declared that he had put on his army uniform and would never remove it until Germany had won. It must be sticking to the skin a little now.

Mr. Chamberlain warns the British people that the war may start in earnest. We always had an idea this war might develop into a war.

THE REAL BLITZKRIEG
The United States has an airplane that will fly seven miles a minute and carries a cannon and four machine guns. If it only had a lady with an open umbrella it would terrorize the world.

A federal agency is investigating insurance companies. Insurance men must have stowed up a lot. If they were in old-time form they would have sold new policies to each investigator before the hearing had been under way a half hour.

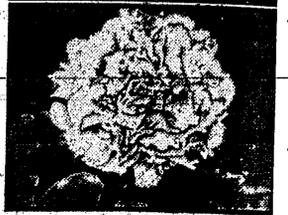

QUICK QUOTES

AIR PROGRAM

"I CAN see no reason why a nation of 135,000,000 people with unlimited national resources and with courageous youth in millions cannot so build for the future as to be able to say with undeniable emphasis, 'America Rules the Air.'"—U. S. Senator Patrick A. McCarran.

Write for Free Catalog of Hi-Quality Seeds

VEGETABLE FLOWER AND FIELD SEEDS

The Rocky Mountain Seed Co.
Box 358, Denver, Colorado

Sometimes quiet is an unquiet thing.—Seneca.

I LIKE FAST HORSES AND A SLOW-BURNING CIGARETTE! THAT MEANS CAMELS. THEY'RE Milder, COOLER, AND MORE FRAGRANT. NEVER WEAR OUT THEIR WELCOME

Peggy McManus, Expert Horsewoman

PEGGY uses plenty of horse sense in picking her horses... plenty of common sense in picking her cigarette. Like millions of others, she finds that a slower-burning cigarette gives more mildness and coolness, and smokes with a full, rich flavor and fragrance. So Peggy smokes Camels, for Camels burn slower, give more pleasure per puff and more puffs per pack.

In recent laboratory tests, CAMELS burned 25% slower than the average of the 15 other of the largest-selling brands tested—slower than any of them. That means, on the average, a smoking plus equal to 5 EXTRA SMOKES PER PACK!

FOR EXTRA MILDNESS, EXTRA COOLNESS, EXTRA FLAVOR—CAMELS SLOW-BURNING COSTLIER TOBACCO

Frock for Home Or Street Wear

THIS charming little frock has such a beguilingly flattering figure-line, and it looks so crisply tailored, that you can appropriately make it up in spun rayon or thin wool for runabout, as well as in gingham or percale for round-the-house. Its piquant simplicity looks especially attractive in gay prints and high shades, punctuated by buttons and braid. Full over the bosom, high-shouldered, with a tiny waist finished by a sash bow, pattern 1909-B is just about as new and becoming as it can be—definite proof that, be it ever so simple, everything you wear this spring has to be very feminine and pretty.

This is a particularly easy dress to make. Try it, if you haven't done much sewing, and have been wistfully wishing you could. You CAN, with these easy patterns. Detailed sew chart included.

Barbara Bell Pattern No. 1909-B is designed for sizes 12, 14, 16, 18, 20, and 40. Corresponding bust measurements 30, 32, 34, 36, 38, and 40. Size 14 (32) requires 3 3/4 yards of 36-inch material without nap; 1 1/2 yards braid. Send order to:

SEWING CIRCLE PATTERN DEPT.
Room 1324
211 W. Wacker Dr. Chicago
Enclose 15 cents in coins for Pattern No. Size

Mother's Hope

Youth fades; love droops; the leaves of friendship fall; a mother's secret hope outlives them all.—Holmes.

Nina—You were seen with Mr. X on the night of the storm. His wife knows everything. See page 10 of the May True Story Magazine, now on sale.—Adv.

Rule Yourself In reality the greatest triumph.—Sir J. Lubbock.

ACHING CHEST COLDS

Use More Than "Hot Salts" To Relieve DISTRESS!
To quickly relieve chest cold, sore throat, muscular aches and pains due to cold—it takes MORE than "just a salt"—you need a warming, soothing "counter-irritant" like good old reliable MUSTEROLE—used by millions for over 30 years. MUSTEROLE penetrates the outer layers of the skin and helps break up local congestion and pain. 3 strengths: Regular, Children's (mild) and Extra Strong, 40¢.

Better Than A Mustard Plaster!

Bureau of Standards

A BUSINESS organization which wants to get the most for the money sets up standards by which to judge what is offered to it, just as in Washington the government establishes a Bureau of Standards. You can have your own Bureau of Standards, too. Just consult the advertising columns of your newspaper. They safeguard your purchasing power every day of every year.

Birney's Liberty Party, Formed in 1840, Was Twice Defeated but It Raised an Issue That Triumphed Twenty Years Later

By ELMO SCOTT WATSON
(Released by Western Newspaper Union)

ONE hundred years ago the United States was engaged in its most uproarious Presidential contest. It has come down in history as the "Log Cabin-Hard Cider" campaign of 1840, in which emotion almost completely replaced reason, issues were totally ignored and a tired old man, who was little fitted for the office of President, was swept into the White House on a tide of slogans and songs. When it ended, the country learned that the "singing Whigs" roaring out to the tune of "The Little Pig's Tail," this song:

What has caused this great commotion-motion-motion Our country through? It is the ball a-rolling on For Tippecanoe and Tyler, too. And with them we'll beat little Van.

Van, Van, is a used-up man, we're true prophets. For President Martin Van Buren, seeking re-election as the Democratic candidate, was indeed a "used-up man." He had captured only 60 electoral votes to 234 for Gen. William Henry Harrison, "Old Tippecanoe."

Almost forgotten in the midst of all this hurly-burly, because he had failed to win a single electoral vote and had mustered only 7,059 popular votes (compared to Harrison's 1,275,017 and Van Buren's 1,123,702), was another candidate for President. Yet he was a significant figure in American history because he stood for a principle which would provide the most important issue in American politics during the next two decades, result eventually in the greatest civil war in history and be one of the cornerstones in the foundation of a new political party which would rule this country for 50 of the next 72 years. His name was James Gillespie Birney and he was the candidate of the Liberty party, organized on April 1, 1840.

Birney was born at Danville, Ky., on February 4, 1792, the son of one of the richest men in the Bluegrass state. At the age of 11 he was sent to Transylvania college at Lexington and after finishing there studied at the College of New Jersey, now Princeton university, where he was graduated in 1810. After studying law for three years under Alexander J. Dallas, he was admitted to the bar and returned to his home in Kentucky to practice. In 1814 he became a member of the town council and two years later, although he was barely the constitutional age for membership, was elected to the lower house of the Kentucky assembly.

Birney's people were slaveholders but disapproved of the institution of slavery and were willing to emancipate their Negroes if Kentucky could be made a free state. Therefore it was only natural that the young legislator, early in his term in office should lead the movement to prevent the governor of Kentucky from entering into correspondence with the governors of neighboring states to make an arrangement for the capture and return of runaway slaves.

Moves to Alabama. Evidently Birney's action made him unpopular with the voters in his district for he did not run for the legislature again but moved to Huntsville, Ala., in 1818 and had a prominent part in shaping the constitution under which Alabama came into the Union. He was a member of the state's first legislature but wrecked his political career in 1819 by opposing the legislature's indorsement of Andrew Jackson for President.

Having run into debt, Birney was forced to return to the practice of law and was soon elected by the legislature as solicitor of the Fifth Alabama district. He next disposed of his plantation and slaves to a friend who, he was confident, would treat them kindly. By devoting all of his time and energy to his law practice he was soon prosperous again. While serving as attorney for the Cherokee Indians who occupied the northeastern part of Alabama, he began the first of the humanitarian enterprises which were to characterize his whole career. He helped the Cherokees adopt a more civilized way of life and paid the expenses of many of the Indian girls who entered the Huntsville Female seminary to get an education. To aid the movement to colonize emancipated slaves in Africa Birney raised funds for the American Colonization society and he also used his influence to secure the passage of an act by the Alabama legislature forbidding the importation of slaves into that state.

James G. Birney

In 1830 Birney organized a colonization society in Huntsville and acted as its treasurer for several years. Meanwhile he was busy with plans for uniting in one party all men, both Northern and Southern, who were in favor of preventing the extension of slavery. Finding that there was little support for such an idea in the South, he decided to move to a free state but his appointment as agent of the American Colonization society kept him in Huntsville for nearly two years longer.

Then he resigned and bought a farm adjoining his father's near Danville, Ky., declaring that that state was the best in the Union for taking a stand against slavery.

In December, 1832, he helped promote a convention in Lexington to form a society for the gradual emancipation of the slaves. But he learned to his sorrow that his old Kentucky friends were turning against him and only nine persons attended his convention. Undiscouraged by this fact, Birney next organized a society to attempt the emancipation of the children of slaves when they reached the age of 21.

He Becomes an Abolitionist. Birney's efforts to extend the membership of this society resulted in his making a thorough study of the whole problem of slavery and he reached the conclusion that its immediate abolition would be less harmful to the slave states than the gradual emancipation which he had formerly favored. To set an example, he gave free papers to his six former slaves who had remained with him and worked for wages. He also resigned his connection with the colonization society and became an out-and-out abolitionist.

During the next few years Birney devoted his time to the anti-slavery cause and traveled about the country making speeches for it. In 1835 he made the principal address at the meeting of the American Anti-Slavery society and laid down the rules for the abolitionists to observe in carrying on their work. Next he announced his intention of returning to Danville and establishing an abolitionist newspaper, the Philanthropist. But when he arrived in his native state, he found himself regarded as a renegade and the persecutions of his neighbors and officials forced him to move to Cincinnati where he promised to keep up his agitation against slavery until it was destroyed.

The mayor of Cincinnati warned him that the city authorities could not promise to protect him if he persisted in his intention of publishing an anti-slavery paper in a city just across the river from the slave state of Kentucky. Despite this warning, Birney issued the first number of the Philanthropist and immediately discovered that the mayor's warning had not been an idle one. For the pro-slavery men started a campaign of persecution against him until finally a mob formed to destroy his property and tar and feather him. Instead of fleeing, Birney boldly faced the mob and made such a stirring plea for the principle of freedom of the press and freedom of speech that the mob was dissuaded from its purpose. In 1837 Birney moved to New York to become secretary of the National Anti-Slavery society and as such was its guiding genius. Within two years he had organized 644 auxiliary societies in addition to the 1,009 which had been in existence when he became secretary of the national society. In one year he issued more than 725,000 copies of the society's publications, all spreading the gospel of abolition.

As a part of his work Birney visited every state legislature in the North to secure the passage of resolutions against the extension of slavery or to gain the right of trial by jury for those charged with breaking the slavery laws. In 1839 ex-President John Quincy Adams, who was then serving in congress, declared in favor of the abolition of slavery in the District of Columbia and Birney, seeing in this measure an entering wedge for a national abolition law actively campaigned for the election of congressmen pledged to vote for the Adams proposal.

A New Party Is Formed.

As the presidential campaign of 1840 approached and it became evident that neither the Whigs nor the Democrats would take any decisive stand on the slavery question, Birney decided that the time had come to put an anti-slavery presidential candidate in the field. Accordingly he called for a convention to be held in Albany, N. Y., in April, 1840. Delegates from six states met there and their unanimous choice for the nominee of the new Liberty party was Birney. As mentioned earlier in this article, he ran a poor third in the race with Harrison and Van Buren, polling only 7,059 popular votes and failing to get a single one in the electoral college.

Despite the poor showing made by this party in the "Log Cabin-Hard Cider" campaign which cent Harrison to the White House, Birney was not discouraged. He kept the party alive and four years later he was again its nominee for President. This time he polled 62,300 popular votes (nearly nine times the number he had received in 1840) but again failed to get a single electoral vote.

As a matter of fact he would probably have received more than 100,000 votes had it not been for the "Garland Forgery," a faked document purporting to be Birney's formal withdrawal from the race and his advice to the anti-slavery voters to support Henry Clay. After this campaign, which resulted in the election of James K. Polk, Birney withdrew from further national political activity. But the seed which he had sown had fallen on fertile ground.

In the campaign of 1848 the banner which Birney had first lifted was carried on by the Free Soil party with ex-President Martin Van Buren as the candidate for President and Charles Francis Adams, son of ex-President John Quincy Adams, for vice president. Campaigning on a platform which called for "Free Soil, Free Speech, Free Labor and Free Men" this ticket, even though it received only 291,000 votes, was sufficient to defeat Lewis Cass, the Democratic candidate, and elect Gen. Zachary Taylor, the Whig, thereby stimulating the anti-slavery forces throughout the country to renewed activity.

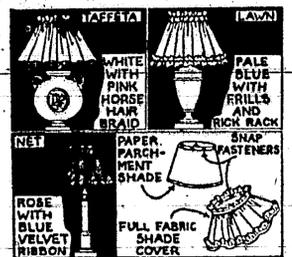

In 1852 the Free Soil party was again in the race with Sen. John P. Hale of New Hampshire as its candidate. He had quit the party over the slavery issue. Although the Free Soilers' vote dropped from 291,000 to 157,000 the issue which they had kept alive would not die. The "irrepressible conflict" with slavery was on. Four years later, by welding together all of the anti-slavery men—Free Soilers, Old Line Whigs and Know Nothings—into a new party, the Republican, the victory which Birney had foreseen was nearly in sight. For Gen. John C. Fremont, the Republican candidate, polled more than 1,000,000 votes and began sounding the death knell of slavery.

Birney did not live to see the final note sounded. He died near Perth Amboy, N. J., on November 25, 1857. Three years and three weeks later the Republican party triumphed over the divided Democratic party and sent its candidate, Abraham Lincoln, to Washington. In a little more than a month after he took the oath of office the guns in Charleston harbor heralded the opening of a conflict in whose fires slavery in the United States was destroyed forever.

HOW to SEW By RUTH WYETH SPEARS

A CHANGE of lamp shades gives any room a lift, and here is a smart, new transformation trick. You start with a plain parchment paper or bristol board shade, preferably white; then you make a full skirt of some exciting fabric to cover it. By sewing snaps inside and also to the top of the shade, it is easy to remove these for laundering or cleaning.

Taffeta, lawn, net, organdy, swiss, gingham—all are used and the imagination runs riot in trimmings. Frills or double ruchings at the top and bottom are favorites. Edges are pinked or machine stitched in heavy contrasting thread. Contrasting shirring holds the fullness at the top; and color is added by means of fancy braids, ribbons or bias tape, according to type. Sewing Book 1 and 4, contain directions for making a foundation frame, or you may use a shade that you already have.

NOTE: Each of the four booklets Mrs. Spears has prepared for our readers contains an assortment of 32 pages of curtains; slip covers; rag rugs; toys; gifts and novelties for bazaars. Books are 10 cents each—please order by number—No. 1, 2, 3, and 4—With your order for four books, you will

'Shanghaied' Pilots

About 10 times a year, pilots after guiding steamships out of New York harbor, find the ocean too rough for them to board the pilot boat and, consequently, stay on the vessels until they reach a port. For such inconvenience, the ship's company pays three dollars a day as well as expenses.

Recently three men were away at the same time, one having been carried to Panama, one to Philadelphia and one to Southampton.—Collier's.

Don—You can't save Nina now. Mrs. X knows what happened the night of the storm. Read the whole story in May True Story Magazine, now on sale.—Adv.

Idle Words As to people saying a few idle words about us, we must not mind that, any more than the old church-steeple minds the rooks cawing about it.—George Elliot.

WOMEN! Relieve "Trying Days" by taking Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription over a period of time. Helps build physical resistance by improving nutritional assimilation.—Adv.

Method in Work Method is the very hinge of business; and there is no method without punctuality.—Cecil.

receive a FREE set of three Quilt Block Patterns of Mrs. Spears' Favorite Early American Quilts. Send your order to:

MRS. RUTH WYETH SPEARS
Drawer 18
Bedford Hills, New York
Enclose 10 cents for one book, or 40 cents for four books and set of quilt block patterns.
Name

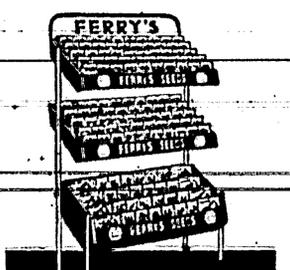

You can DUST and never RAISE a dust. Use O-Cedar on your dustcloth. Mother, here's a TIP: Use genuine O-Cedar Polish on your DUSTCLOTH. Then, it picks up the dust. You don't raise a cloud; you don't chase dust around from chairs to table to piano and back to chairs again. Instead, pick it up and dust dustlessly; add a dash of O-Cedar Polish to your cloth. Ask for:

O-Cedar Polish
MOPS, WAX, DUSTERS, CLEANERS AND O-CEDAR FLY AND MOTH SPRAY

All His Country He made all countries where he came his own.—Dryden.

SATISFACTION HEADQUARTERS

FERRY'S SEEDS are dependable. They come up to your expectations. Buy from your dealer's display today. It's convenient! Actual color photographs on packets help you plan your garden.

FERRY'S Dated SEEDS

THERE IS A DIFFERENCE IN CORN FLAKES!
Kellogg's have been America's favorite for 34 years

MADE BY KELLOGG'S IN BATTLE CREEK
SWITCH TO SOMETHING YOU'LL LIKE!
COPY, 1946 BY KELLOGG COMPANY

BEACONS OF SAFETY
Like a beacon light on the height—the advertisements in newspapers direct you to newer, better and easier ways of providing the things needed or desired. It shines, this beacon of newspaper advertising—and it will be to your advantage to follow it whenever you make a purchase.

THE OUTLOOK

Published Weekly in the interest of Carrizozo and Lincoln County, N.M.

A. L. BURKE, Editor and Publisher

Largest Circulation in The County

SUBSCRIPTION RATES

Six months, in advance $1.00
One year, in advance $2.00

Entered as second-class matter January 6, 1911, at the post office at Carrizozo, New Mexico, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

Advertising forms close Wednesday at noon. News columns close Thursday night. If you do not receive your paper regularly, please notify the Publisher. Advertising rates on application.

MEMBER
FIRST NEWSPAPER SYNDICATE IN AMERICA
WNU
Office Phone No. 24

FOREST NOTES

The fire season is coming earlier this year due to a shortage of winter moisture. Winds have dried up vegetation to the point where fire will burn with considerable intensity. To early pickers and farmers, who are clearing ditches and burning the weeds and trash, we ask to please observe the following rules:

Campfires—Rake back any inflammable material before starting a fire. Be sure it is dead out before leaving.

Burning debris—Be sure it is away from trees. Rake a fire line around the area before starting a fire. Do not burn more than you can handle at one time. Burn small fires and watch them until they are dead out. Report all fires to the nearest forest officer or telephone operator.

G. J. Gray, Forest Ranger.

MISS SHIRLEY FINK

Of Kansas City, Mo., arrived in Carrizozo on Monday to direct the Home Talent play "Bubbling Over".

The American Legion and Auxiliary are sponsoring this play for the benefit of Child Welfare.

A big parade will be staged on Saturday, April 6. Prizes of free tickets will be given for the best decorated bicycles.

Watch for the Beaux and Belles of the 1957 contest.

Christian Science Services

Sunday, April 7, 1940

"Unreality" is the subject for next Sunday. Golden Text is: "Truly in vain is salvation hoped for from the hills and from the multitude of mountains; truly in the Lord our God is the salvation of Israel." Citation from Bible: "And the world passeth away and the lust thereof; but he who doeth the will of God abideth forever." Passage from Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "If the disciple is advancing spiritually, he is striving to enter in. He constantly turns away from material sense and looks towards the imperishable things of Spirit."

Statement of Ownership and Management of the Carrizozo Outlook, For Apr. 1, 1940

State of New Mexico
County of Lincoln
Before me, a Notary Public in and for the County aforesaid, personally appeared A. L. Burke, who, being duly sworn deposes and says that he is Editor and Publisher of the Carrizozo Outlook, a weekly newspaper published in Carrizozo, N.M.; and that the owners of the publication are M. M. and A. L. Burke and that there are no trustees thereof.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 1st day of Apr., 1940.
Tennis Smart,
Notary Public.
My commission expires May, 1, 1942.

Many Uses for Alcohol
Alcohol is used in the manufacture of candy, hair tonic, cement, tobacco, straw hats, toilet water, ketchup, vinegar, toothpaste, typewriters, perfumes, pajamas and many other ordinary commodities.

New Shoe Shop

B. B. MANCHA, Prop.

Now Located in Old Stand Across Street From Economy Grocery.

—Half Soles & Heels—

Men's Shoes—$1.25

Cowboy Boots—$1.25

Ladies' Half Soles & Taps—75c

Prompt Attention on Mail Orders
All Work Guaranteed!

Methodist Church

H. L. Wheeler, Minister
Church School at 10 a. m.
Sunday Evening Service at 7
Sunday Morning at 11 a. m.

CHURCH OF CHRIST

We beseech you to worship with us at the feet of Jesus Christ, Whose Church and worship is taught and authorized by the New Testament. Bible study and preaching each Lord's Day, 10 to 12 M. and 7:30 P. M., in Oddfellows' Hall.

—R. L. Allen, Minister.

Baptist Church

Sunday School 10 a. m. Preaching at 11. Evening worship 7:00. Prayer meeting Wednesday at 7:00. You will receive a hearty welcome at the Baptist Church. Come and worship with us. Choir practice Wednesday 6:30

L. D. Cochran, Pastor.

Santa Rita Church

Rev. Fr. Salvatore, Pastor.
Sunday Masses Carrizozo at 8 and 10

For Sale Building Sites $75 And Up

SKINNER'S BONITO FARM

N. L. PHILLIPS

Read His Column in This Paper.

In the Probate Court

State of New Mexico, ss. County of Lincoln. In The Matter of The Last Will and Testament of Telesforo M. Gonzalez, Deceased.

No. 496

Notice Of Appointment of Executors Notice is hereby given that on the 4th day of March, 1940, the undersigned were appointed executors of the Last Will and Testament of Telesforo M. Gonzalez, deceased, in the above named Court, and having qualified as such, anyone having a claim against said estate is hereby notified to file the same within six months from March 15, 1940, and make proof as required by law.

Porfirio Gonzalez,
Rube Gonzalez,
Executors.

John E. Hall,
Carrizozo, New Mexico,
Attorney for executors. M15-A5

New Ford Tractor

The New Ford Tractor is on display at the Carrizozo Auto Company. — See it!

Guthrie, a Leather Galuchat is a leather of superior quality and durability made from the hide of the black

HOW BANKS SERVE

For Your Eyes Alone

Do you have personal papers which you'd like to keep in a place accessible to yourself only? If so, rent a safe deposit box in our vault. In addition to day and night protection against the usual hazards of fire, theft and loss, you will have strict PRIVACY for your belongings. The cost is only a few cents a week. Come in and rent a box without delay.

Lincoln County Agency Citizens State Bank of Vaughn Carrizozo, N. M.

Member Federal Deposit-Insurance Corporation.

THE WORLD'S GOOD NEWS will come to your home every day through THE CHRISTIAN SCIENCE MONITOR

An International Daily Newspaper
It records for you the world's clean, constructive change. The Monitor does not exploit crime or sensation; neither does it ignore them, set death incorrectly with them. Features for busy men and all the family, including the Weekly Magazine Section.

The Christian Science Publishing Society
One, Newbury Street, Boston, Massachusetts
Please enter my subscription to The Christian Science Monitor for a period of:
1 year $12.00 6 months $6.00 3 months $3.00 1 month $1.00
Saturday issue, including Magazine Section: 1 year $2.00, 6 issues $2.00

Name _____
Address _____
Simply Copy and Return

Scientist Proves There's Magic in Mud

Using crude Wyoming clay, Dr. Ernest Haeuser, Massachusetts Institute of Technology scientist, has developed a new substance which is impervious to the strongest acids and alkalis and is fire, oil and water proof. The substance may be processed to be made as pliable as silk. The clay is mined in Wyoming, California and many other places.

Boy Scout Notes

The Explorer patrol of the older Boy Scouts took their first spring hike last Sunday. The climbing of Nogal peak from Nogal Canyon was the object of the hike. Those attending were Allen Beck, Paul Woodward, Ben Barnett and Bob Shafer. The boys plan to repair their overnight camp in Nogal Canyon. A new leave-toe, fireplace and dam at the spring are to be built.

Doing Good Work

The intensive highway safety program inaugurated by Traffic-Safety Engineer Eccles is producing results. The low record of but 7 fatalities in March and a reduction of accidents speaks for itself. "Widening of roads, removal of obstructions impairing visibility on curves, center-striping, addition of hundreds of road-signs and splendid cooperation by the State Police were contributing factors to the March record," said Eccles. Excessive speed accounts for about 8% of all motor accidents according to statistics released by the National Safety Council.

U.B. Thrifty says

He who makes a plunge on the stock market is very likely to get soaked

Hearing and Talking
"A man that believes all he hears" tells all he knows," said Uncle Eben. "He talks to wish he had been born deaf and dumb."

The Gateway Hotel COFFEE SHOP

You'll enjoy a stop at the Gateway Hotel... the friendly, congenial atmosphere... the comfort of your room and of the newly enlarged lobby.

GARAGE FACILITIES

All Rooms With Bath

$1.50 and $2.00

EL PASO

Cowboy Boots

&
Shoe
Repairing

ZOZO BOOT SHOP

G. H. DORSETT
Prop.

See the new Ford Cars for 1940 on display at the Carrizozo Auto Company Showrooms.

New Line Of

Coats, Suits, Dresses & Millinery
That You'll Buy for Now and for Later
All Types and Styles

NEW LINE OF
Children's Dresses - All Sizes - Styles

THE BURKE GIFT SHOP

Miller Service Station
Highway 880—West of
City Limits
Standard Oil Products—RPM Oil

Native Wines
PINT 25c QUART 50c
At Harry Miller's

EL PASO - PECOS VALLEY

Motor Truck Lines

Dependable Express Service to Carrizozo from El Paso & Alamogordo
-3 Times Weekly-

--J. A. O'KELLY, Agt

Try Our FOUNTAIN SERVICE

Quality Drugs and Sundries

Novelties—Magazines—Scenic Postcards
CIGARS and CIGARETTES OF ALL KINDS
SILK HOSIERY for LADIES & MEN
PRESCRIPTIONS Carefully Compounded

Rolland's Drug Store

Carrizozo, N. M.

STRUTWEAR Spring Hosiery

"MADE TO BE SEEN"

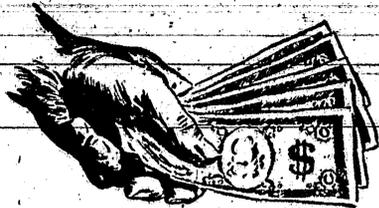

Newest Colors
"For the Better Dressed Woman"

Lowest prices

BURKE GIFT SHOP

Bring Your Clothes Here And Save Time And...

"All Work Guaranteed!"

NU-WAY CLEANERS

"RIDE THE BUSES"

DAILY SCHEDULES AT CARRIZOZO

EAST Ar. 8:15 A. M. WEST Ar. 5:00 P. M.
BOUND Lv. 8:30 A. M. BOUND Lv. 5:10 P. M.

Roswell-Carrizozo Stage Lines

General Office Ph. 16

Ticket Office Ph. 20

Geo. Harkness, Mgr.

"SHIP BY TRUCK"

ROSWELL-CARRIZOZO TRUCK LINES

Carrizozo Ph. 16

Roswell Ph. 23

Lv. Carrizozo-Tues.-Thurs.-Sat. 8 A. M.
Ar. Carrizozo-Mon.-Wed.-Fri. 5 P. M.

Under Same Management

If You Want Coca-Cola Or Any of a Dozen Other Delicious Flavors Phone 16 Geo. Harkness, Agent.

Soviet Oil for Hitler's War Machine

At Przemyśl, town which was once well in the interior of Poland, but which is now on the dividing line between Russia and Germany, oil from Soviet railway tank cars is transhipped to German cars to be washed for military use. The photograph was passed by the German censor possibly to refute British claims of having effectively strangled the Reich oil supply. Russian tank cars are pictured on the left.

Carrizozo Home Laundry

Satisfaction Guaranteed

Work Called For and Delivered

Phone 50

Carrizozo, N. M.

RCA-Victor Radios And Easy Washers Delco Light Plants Philco Radios Frigidaires Kelvinators Electrolux (Gas) USED RADIOS

Radio Repairing Easy Terms

ARTHUR CORTEZ San Patricio, N. M. White Cat Bar

LODGES

CARRIZOZO LODGE No. 41 Carrizozo, New Mexico A. F. & A. M. Regular Meetings 1939 Second Wednesday of Each Month

Don English, W. M. R. E. Lemon, Sec'y.

COMET CHAPTER NO. 29 ORDER OF EASTERN STAR Carrizozo, New Mexico.

REGULAR MEETING First Thursday of each month.

All Visiting Stars Cordially Invited.

Marbry Burns, W. M. Jeanette Lemon, Sec'y

COALORA REBEKAH LODGE NUMBER 15 I. O. O. F.

Meets first and third Saturdays of each month.

Virginia Pierce, N. Grand Birdie Walker, Secretary Carrizozo - New Mexico

Carrizozo Assembly No. 7 Order of Rainbow for Girls

Worthy Advisor Mary Lou Phillips

Recorder-Agnes Degner Mother Advisor-Mrs. Vena Elliott.

Meetings-2nd & 4th Fridays CARRIZOZO LODGE No. 30, I. O. O. F.

Carrizozo, New Mexico. Howard Barnes Noble Grand W. J. Langston Sec'y Treas. Regular meetings every Tuesday night

FOR SALE-Two-wheel Trailer in good condition Apply at this office.

HOLLYWOOD SLACKS See the new line of Ladies' & Misses' SLACKS at the Burke Gift Shop.

Try the Nu-Way Cleaners for that Nifty Appearance.

Phone No. 24 Outlook Office

When you have a news item for publication.

We Thank You.

SMART, new Ladies' Spring Coats & Millinery just in. - See them at the Burke Gift Shop.

Eddie Long INSURANCE Fire-Bonds-Casualty CAPITAN, NEW MEXICO

TYPEWRITER PAPER -at Bargain Prices-

500 Sheets BOND, $1 -at Outlook Office

PROFESSIONS

JOHN E. HALL Attorney & Counsellor at Law Lutz Building Carrizozo, - New Mexico

T. E. KELLEY General Director & Licenses Embalmer Residence Phone 38 Carrizozo - New Mexico

DR. R. E. BLANEY, Dentist - Lutz Building - Carrizozo - New Mexico

A. L. BURKE -Notary Public at Carrizozo Outlook Office Carrizozo, New Mexico Entries made of all Legal Transactions

SEE the beautiful line of Ladies' Coats, Suits, Dresses and Accessories at the Burke Gift Shop.

FOR SALE-Tuition in Campbell's Academy of Beauty Culture at Roswell. Reasonably priced. - Apply at this office.

"Strutwear" Hosiery

For Ladies and Misses. "As Colorful as an Autumn Day." Popular prices. All Sizes. - At the Burke Gift Shop.

In The Probate Court

State of New Mexico) ss. County of Lincoln) In the Matter of the Estate of William F. Clark, Deceased No. 500

Notice of Appointment of Administrator

Notice is hereby given that on the 8th day of March, 1940, the undersigned was appointed administrator of the estate of William F. Clark, deceased, in the above named Court, and having qualified as such, anyone having a claim against said estate is hereby notified to file the same within six months from March 22, 1940, and make proof as required by law.

John E. Hall, Carrizozo, New Mexico, Administrator.

IN THE THIRD JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT OF THE STATE OF NEW MEXICO WITHIN AND FOR LINCOLN COUNTY

Jacobo Baca, Plaintiff, VS Juanita Miranda Baca, Impleaded with the following named defendant against whom substituted service is hereby sought to be obtained, to wit: Juanita Miranda Baca, Defendant, No. 4744 Civil

NOTICE OF PENDENCY OF SUIT

The State of New Mexico to the above named defendant, GREETING:

Notice is hereby given that there is pending against you in the above named court and cause, a Complaint filed by Jacobo Baca as plaintiff; that the general object of said action is for an absolute divorce from you on grounds of desertion.

You are further notified that unless you enter your appearance in said cause on or before May 10, 1940, judgment will be rendered in said cause against you by default.

That the name of plaintiff's attorney and his postoffice address is John E. Hall, Carrizozo, New Mexico.

Witness my hand and the seal of said Court this 26th day of March, 1940, Edward Penfield, District Court Clerk.

M 29-A 19 (Seal)

"The FIRESIDE PHILOSOPHER" BY ALFRED BIGGS

When honor goes, all is gone.

Don't do it if you can't do it right.

If it isn't the truth, don't repeat it.

A good life is better than a long one.

Prudence and haste can't live together.

Good health, plus good sense, make a full life.

There's more greatness in goodness than goodness in greatness.

Pappers and photographs are equal to death.

Ask for a demonstration ride in the new Ford for 1940 at the Carrizozo Auto Company.

ALLURING READY-TO-WEAR LOVELY NEW Spring Frocks

Chic Spring Coats & Suits

Smart Millinery

Just unpacked

Lowest Prices

Burke Gift Shop

CAMPBELL ACADEMY OF BEAUTY CULTURE

New Class Now Starting

Reasonable Tuition-One Year to Pay

J. P. WHITE BLDG. - ROSWELL, N. M.

For your next printing order try the Carrizozo Outlook

We Specialize in LETTERHEADS and ENVELOPES, CALLING CARDS, STATEMENTS, RULED FORMS, BUSINESS CARDS, HAND-BILLS, ALL KINDS of LEGAL BLANKS, ETC.

This Weeks Thought

VOICE OF EXPERIENCE

Patronize Home Merchants

Mining Location Blanks Lode or Placer Carrizozo Outlook Office

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS BY JOSEPH W. LABINE

Congress Flees New Tax Issue After Boosting Farm Budget; Look Covetously at Treasury

(EDITOR'S NOTE—When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of the news analyst and not necessarily of this newspaper.)

CONGRESS:

Morgenthau's Misery

Clad in an expensive new Easter suit, the 1940-41 farm appropriation bill was sent back to the house.

Only a few weeks earlier, dressed in threadbare tatters, the house had sent it to a big-hearted senate.

Blown to kingdom come was the self-righteous economy program which featured congress' earlier weeks.

TREASURER MORGENTHAU

the opre of too much spending appeared simultaneously before congress and Secretary of the Treasury Henry Morgenthau.

One possibility was the $2,000,000,000 currency stabilization fund.

Another possibility was to take the $300,000,000 farm bill increase out of the treasury's working balance.

Frankly worried, Treasurer Morgenthau protested again when congressmen hinted that the 31.2 per cent gain in income tax collections might preclude new taxes.

While Treasurer Morgenthau sweated, the senate, which had wreaked all this havoc, began discussing the reciprocal trade treaty bill and headed for a close vote.

EUROPE:

Haymakers

Late March found neither European belligerent paying much attention to actual warfare.

NAMES in the news...

At Gibraltar, British authorities stopped the Costa di Savio bearing Underscretary of State Sumner Welles home from Europe.

At Paris died Dr. Edouard Branly, 96, credited by many with discovering the principles of wireless telegraphy.

The Allies. Premier Paul Reynaud, appointed when Edouard Daladier's French cabinet resigned, got off to a humble start when the chamber of deputies gave him only a one vote majority in the first ballot.

France's political crisis had apparently passed, but Britain's was just beginning to brew.

The Dictators. Turkey, only Balkan friend of the allies, was busy trying to patch up an agreement between London, Paris and Moscow,

Germany, with the most to gain, worked for a "reapprochement" between Italy and Russia.

DEFENSE:

Warplane Tempest

Ever since World War II began last fall isolationists have argued that sale of U. S. warplanes abroad is (1) blocking expansion of our own airforce;

By late March this tempest seemed headed for a showdown. Both house and senate military affairs committees planned hearings on the subject.

He advocated mass sale of U. S. planes abroad to build up production channels.

Then came the blow. At Washington, British trade officials announced that United Kingdom purchases of American cotton must be curtailed to save foreign exchange.

Unhappy, agriculture department officials predicted the U. S. would again be asked to advance large loans on unmarketable surpluses.

Also received was talk of a new export subsidy program next fall.

TELETYPE: Eastern telegrams were delayed and radio stations found their transmission distance cut to 50 miles or less.

European cables were completely "out" and long distance telephones barked with static.

Most of the old Gas House Gang have left the scene. They are scattered far and wide.

Only a few years ago at Bradenton there were the two Deans, Jimmy Wilson, Rip Collins, Leo Du-rocher, Bill Hallahan and several others.

Baseball has seen better teams, but none with so much color. There was the time when Jimmy Wilson, the crack Cardinal catcher, began missing his silk shirts from the locker.

At Los Angeles, pretty, 17-year-old Joan Aveline Lawrence complained because she thought mass bathing in her high school gymnasium shower room was "immoral."

At St. Louis, Circuit Court Judge Thomas Rowe took under advisement a contempt citation against the Post-Dispatch and three staff members whose editorials and cartoons criticized the dismissal in Judge Rowe's court of defendants in an extortion case.

At Berlin another son was born to Prince Louis Ferdinand, grandson of ex-Kaiser Wilhelm, and the former Russian Grand Duchess Kira, daughter of the late Czarist pretender.

At Tokyo, Jap authorities convicted James B. Young, U. S. writer, on charge of "spreading false rumors."

At Berlin another son was born to Prince Louis Ferdinand, grandson of ex-Kaiser Wilhelm, and the former Russian Grand Duchess Kira, daughter of the late Czarist pretender.

POLITICS:

Farley's Inning

Most important political announcement of the year was Postmaster General Jim Farley's statement in Boston that his name would go before the Democratic national convention this year—"and that's that."

'ANY MINUTE NOW'

terminals will be incensed if Farley is nominated or Farley will take a walk if Franklin Roosevelt or his personal candidate is chosen.

In late March, just as New Dealers were beginning to fear Farley's tremendous following among Democratic state and local leaders, Watching these goings-on, many another Democratic hopeful became worried. Indiana's Sen. Frederick Van Nuys, a staunch supporter of Candidate Paul McNutt, suggested frankly that Jim Farley should retire as Democratic national chairman.

They mention the fact that Davis, Warneke and Weiland are no longer kids—that most of the younger pitchers have yet to prove their place—and that Pepper Martin can't retain the iron in his system and the flame in his soul forever.

They also bring out the fact that Joe Medwick hasn't been any too happy under the St. Louis setup for some time.

They mention the fact that Davis, Warneke and Weiland are no longer kids—that most of the younger pitchers have yet to prove their place—and that Pepper Martin can't retain the iron in his system and the flame in his soul forever.

They mention the fact that Davis, Warneke and Weiland are no longer kids—that most of the younger pitchers have yet to prove their place—and that Pepper Martin can't retain the iron in his system and the flame in his soul forever.

They mention the fact that Davis, Warneke and Weiland are no longer kids—that most of the younger pitchers have yet to prove their place—and that Pepper Martin can't retain the iron in his system and the flame in his soul forever.

They mention the fact that Davis, Warneke and Weiland are no longer kids—that most of the younger pitchers have yet to prove their place—and that Pepper Martin can't retain the iron in his system and the flame in his soul forever.

They mention the fact that Davis, Warneke and Weiland are no longer kids—that most of the younger pitchers have yet to prove their place—and that Pepper Martin can't retain the iron in his system and the flame in his soul forever.

They mention the fact that Davis, Warneke and Weiland are no longer kids—that most of the younger pitchers have yet to prove their place—and that Pepper Martin can't retain the iron in his system and the flame in his soul forever.

They mention the fact that Davis, Warneke and Weiland are no longer kids—that most of the younger pitchers have yet to prove their place—and that Pepper Martin can't retain the iron in his system and the flame in his soul forever.

They mention the fact that Davis, Warneke and Weiland are no longer kids—that most of the younger pitchers have yet to prove their place—and that Pepper Martin can't retain the iron in his system and the flame in his soul forever.

They mention the fact that Davis, Warneke and Weiland are no longer kids—that most of the younger pitchers have yet to prove their place—and that Pepper Martin can't retain the iron in his system and the flame in his soul forever.

They mention the fact that Davis, Warneke and Weiland are no longer kids—that most of the younger pitchers have yet to prove their place—and that Pepper Martin can't retain the iron in his system and the flame in his soul forever.

They mention the fact that Davis, Warneke and Weiland are no longer kids—that most of the younger pitchers have yet to prove their place—and that Pepper Martin can't retain the iron in his system and the flame in his soul forever.

They mention the fact that Davis, Warneke and Weiland are no longer kids—that most of the younger pitchers have yet to prove their place—and that Pepper Martin can't retain the iron in his system and the flame in his soul forever.

They mention the fact that Davis, Warneke and Weiland are no longer kids—that most of the younger pitchers have yet to prove their place—and that Pepper Martin can't retain the iron in his system and the flame in his soul forever.

They mention the fact that Davis, Warneke and Weiland are no longer kids—that most of the younger pitchers have yet to prove their place—and that Pepper Martin can't retain the iron in his system and the flame in his soul forever.

They mention the fact that Davis, Warneke and Weiland are no longer kids—that most of the younger pitchers have yet to prove their place—and that Pepper Martin can't retain the iron in his system and the flame in his soul forever.

They mention the fact that Davis, Warneke and Weiland are no longer kids—that most of the younger pitchers have yet to prove their place—and that Pepper Martin can't retain the iron in his system and the flame in his soul forever.

They mention the fact that Davis, Warneke and Weiland are no longer kids—that most of the younger pitchers have yet to prove their place—and that Pepper Martin can't retain the iron in his system and the flame in his soul forever.

They mention the fact that Davis, Warneke and Weiland are no longer kids—that most of the younger pitchers have yet to prove their place—and that Pepper Martin can't retain the iron in his system and the flame in his soul forever.

ST. PETERSBURGH, FLA.—The Red Bird engraved upon the shirts of the St. Louis Cardinals has turned into a hawk, seeking its prey.

A year ago these Cardinals were not sure whether they might finish second or fifth.

They caught your eye in this sun-flooded city that now lays claim to the World Series training spot.

It was in the shade of a sheltering oak, ash or palm tree that Branch Rickey advised me to pick the Reds for 1939 and the Cardinals for 1940.

"We have quite a number of young fellows," he said, "who need just one more season. The Reds will get the jump on this young team but we won't be far away in the stretch. It will be different next year."

This happens to be the "next year" mentioned by Mr. Rickey. If he is as sound a prophet in 1940 as he was in 1939, the Cardinals are already in.

They have that year's experience stuck under their belts and they have the same speed and the same spirit.

It has both quantity and quality. From the nine pitchers mentioned Ray Blades should be able to get at least five moving briskly along, which is well above the average.

There are those around who will advise you not to climb too far towards the end of the limb in this Cardinal matter.

They mention the fact that Davis, Warneke and Weiland are no longer kids—that most of the younger pitchers have yet to prove their place—and that Pepper Martin can't retain the iron in his system and the flame in his soul forever.

They mention the fact that Davis, Warneke and Weiland are no longer kids—that most of the younger pitchers have yet to prove their place—and that Pepper Martin can't retain the iron in his system and the flame in his soul forever.

They mention the fact that Davis, Warneke and Weiland are no longer kids—that most of the younger pitchers have yet to prove their place—and that Pepper Martin can't retain the iron in his system and the flame in his soul forever.

They mention the fact that Davis, Warneke and Weiland are no longer kids—that most of the younger pitchers have yet to prove their place—and that Pepper Martin can't retain the iron in his system and the flame in his soul forever.

They mention the fact that Davis, Warneke and Weiland are no longer kids—that most of the younger pitchers have yet to prove their place—and that Pepper Martin can't retain the iron in his system and the flame in his soul forever.

They mention the fact that Davis, Warneke and Weiland are no longer kids—that most of the younger pitchers have yet to prove their place—and that Pepper Martin can't retain the iron in his system and the flame in his soul forever.

They mention the fact that Davis, Warneke and Weiland are no longer kids—that most of the younger pitchers have yet to prove their place—and that Pepper Martin can't retain the iron in his system and the flame in his soul forever.

They mention the fact that Davis, Warneke and Weiland are no longer kids—that most of the younger pitchers have yet to prove their place—and that Pepper Martin can't retain the iron in his system and the flame in his soul forever.

They mention the fact that Davis, Warneke and Weiland are no longer kids—that most of the younger pitchers have yet to prove their place—and that Pepper Martin can't retain the iron in his system and the flame in his soul forever.

They mention the fact that Davis, Warneke and Weiland are no longer kids—that most of the younger pitchers have yet to prove their place—and that Pepper Martin can't retain the iron in his system and the flame in his soul forever.

They mention the fact that Davis, Warneke and Weiland are no longer kids—that most of the younger pitchers have yet to prove their place—and that Pepper Martin can't retain the iron in his system and the flame in his soul forever.

They mention the fact that Davis, Warneke and Weiland are no longer kids—that most of the younger pitchers have yet to prove their place—and that Pepper Martin can't retain the iron in his system and the flame in his soul forever.

They mention the fact that Davis, Warneke and Weiland are no longer kids—that most of the younger pitchers have yet to prove their place—and that Pepper Martin can't retain the iron in his system and the flame in his soul forever.

They mention the fact that Davis, Warneke and Weiland are no longer kids—that most of the younger pitchers have yet to prove their place—and that Pepper Martin can't retain the iron in his system and the flame in his soul forever.

They mention the fact that Davis, Warneke and Weiland are no longer kids—that most of the younger pitchers have yet to prove their place—and that Pepper Martin can't retain the iron in his system and the flame in his soul forever.

They mention the fact that Davis, Warneke and Weiland are no longer kids—that most of the younger pitchers have yet to prove their place—and that Pepper Martin can't retain the iron in his system and the flame in his soul forever.

They mention the fact that Davis, Warneke and Weiland are no longer kids—that most of the younger pitchers have yet to prove their place—and that Pepper Martin can't retain the iron in his system and the flame in his soul forever.

They mention the fact that Davis, Warneke and Weiland are no longer kids—that most of the younger pitchers have yet to prove their place—and that Pepper Martin can't retain the iron in his system and the flame in his soul forever.

They mention the fact that Davis, Warneke and Weiland are no longer kids—that most of the younger pitchers have yet to prove their place—and that Pepper Martin can't retain the iron in his system and the flame in his soul forever.

They mention the fact that Davis, Warneke and Weiland are no longer kids—that most of the younger pitchers have yet to prove their place—and that Pepper Martin can't retain the iron in his system and the flame in his soul forever.

Speaking of Sports

3-Count 'Em-3 DiMags Join in Baseball Wars

By ROBERT McSHANE (Released by Western Newspaper Union.)

CONTRARY to rumor, there is no ruling to the effect that every major league baseball club must include at least one DiMaggio on its roster.

The public unconsciously has been misled by the frequency with which the name appears in the "public prints. The ball-playing members of the clan are not numbered by the dozen. In fact, there are only three of the former fisher lads now in big time baseball.

Joe DiMaggio, veteran of the tribe, is not unknown to baseball addicts. He commanded a considerable degree of attention when he made a runaway of the race for individual batting championship of the American league last season, hitting at a distinctly passable clip of .381.

Though Dominic still has to wear glasses with thick lenses, he hits the ball hard—had the second highest batting average on the West coast, .361, led in total hits and runs scored, and was among the leading home run hitters.

Dom started playing ball with the Monterey Presidio team. From there he jumped to the San Francisco Seals, where he hung on in spite of a couple of bad starts.

Brother Vince DiMaggio, now the property of the Cincinnati Reds, is the oldest but least known of the illustrious trio. It was Vince who first went to the baseball wars.

While a junior high school student he was picked as a member of a San Francisco all-star team. Before he went to high school he was picked up by the Seals. Father Giuseppe DiMaggio wasn't at all enthusiastic. He argued, "All the DiMaggios had been fishermen. Vince's liking for the game won out.

It was Vince who brought Brother Joe into the game. Late one season, when Vince was with the Seals and when all contests for place in the Pacific Coast league had been decided, Augie Galan, the shortstop, asked to be excused from a game to go on a barnstorming tour.

The manager said he could go if he would find somebody to play shortstop. Vince DiMaggio dug up his brother Joe. That was the start of the greatest DiMaggio career.

Largely on the strength of Joe's reputation, Vince went to the Boston Bees. He couldn't hit major league pitching, and in 1933 led the National circuit in strikeouts. He was sent to Kansas City. There he began to hit home runs, gained confidence and removed a bothersome hitch in his swing.

Despite the fact that Vince struck out 12 times in 14 times at bat during last year's pennant fight, Manager Bill McKechnie still has faith in him. Now the oldest of the DiMaggios is getting probably his last chance to make good.

There you have the DiMaggio family—Joe, king-pin slugger of the world champion New York Yankees; Dom, highly touted minor league star getting his golden opportunity with the Red Sox; and Vince, whose big—and undoubtedly last—chance is with the Reds.

Unquestionably they are the most widely publicized family in baseball history. Many authorities hold that Joe is a handicap to both Vince and Dom. They have too big a name to live up to. They just can't get Joe off their minds. The number of DiMaggios left in big league baseball will be determined in the next few weeks.

Manager McKechnie wouldn't mind a bit if Vince's last name was Smith, Jones or Johnson—anything but DiMaggio. Then the spotlight of publicity wouldn't be focused so sharply upon him.

They mention the fact that Davis, Warneke and Weiland are no longer kids—that most of the younger pitchers have yet to prove their place—and that Pepper Martin can't retain the iron in his system and the flame in his soul forever.

They mention the fact that Davis, Warneke and Weiland are no longer kids—that most of the younger pitchers have yet to prove their place—and that Pepper Martin can't retain the iron in his system and the flame in his soul forever.

They mention the fact that Davis, Warneke and Weiland are no longer kids—that most of the younger pitchers have yet to prove their place—and that Pepper Martin can't retain the iron in his system and the flame in his soul forever.

They mention the fact that Davis, Warneke and Weiland are no longer kids—that most of the younger pitchers have yet to prove their place—and that Pepper Martin can't retain the iron in his system and the flame in his soul forever.

They mention the fact that Davis, Warneke and Weiland are no longer kids—that most of the younger pitchers have yet to prove their place—and that Pepper Martin can't retain the iron in his system and the flame in his soul forever.

They mention the fact that Davis, Warneke and Weiland are no longer kids—that most of the younger pitchers have yet to prove their place—and that Pepper Martin can't retain the iron in his system and the flame in his soul forever.

They mention the fact that Davis, Warneke and Weiland are no longer kids—that most of the younger pitchers have yet to prove their place—and that Pepper Martin can't retain the iron in his system and the flame in his soul forever.

They mention the fact that Davis, Warneke and Weiland are no longer kids—that most of the younger pitchers have yet to prove their place—and that Pepper Martin can't retain the iron in his system and the flame in his soul forever.

They mention the fact that Davis, Warneke and Weiland are no longer kids—that most of the younger pitchers have yet to prove their place—and that Pepper Martin can't retain the iron in his system and the flame in his soul forever.

They mention the fact that Davis, Warneke and Weiland are no longer kids—that most of the younger pitchers have yet to prove their place—and that Pepper Martin can't retain the iron in his system and the flame in his soul forever.

They mention the fact that Davis, Warneke and Weiland are no longer kids—that most of the younger pitchers have yet to prove their place—and that Pepper Martin can't retain the iron in his system and the flame in his soul forever.

They mention the fact that Davis, Warneke and Weiland are no longer kids—that most of the younger pitchers have yet to prove their place—and that Pepper Martin can't retain the iron in his system and the flame in his soul forever.

CLASSIFIED DEPARTMENT

REMEDY A NEW DISCOVERY FOR STOMACH GASES, heartburn and constipation. Write SCIO FERN CO., 8210, OREGON.

Ask Me Another

A General Quiz

- The Questions 1. What country in Europe has always been at peace? 2. Why will not asbestos burn? 3. How much does a cubic foot of solid gold weigh? 4. What is a horse opera? 5. Do barking frogs have a tadpole stage? 6. Diamonds and coal are both carbon. What is the difference? 7. What is the oldest example of printing still in existence? 8. How many geese must be plucked to obtain one pound of feathers?

The Answers

- 1. The Republic of Andorra, located in the valley of the Pyrenees between France and Spain. It was declared independent by Charlemagne in 800 A. D. 2. Being a mineral, asbestos is noncombustible. 3. A cubic foot of gold weighs 1,204 pounds. 4. Movie pictures known as "Westerns" are sometimes referred to as "horse operas." 5. Development into adulthood of the barking frog takes place within the egg. 6. Coal is impure carbon. Diamonds are pure carbon crystallized. 7. A Buddhist prayer printed in 756 A. D., owned by the Art Institute of Chicago. 8. About six geese.

Half-Time Kings

Natives of Dahomey in Africa have a new idea of kingship. They consider the job so important that the king must be on duty every hour of the day.

John—Don't listen to her. Tragedy is sure to result. Read "A Girl and Her Husband" in May True Story Magazine and be warned. It's on sale now.—Adv.

Love is strong as death. Many waters cannot quench love, neither can the floods drown it.—The Song of Solomon.

LOST YOUR PEP?

Here is Amazing Relief of Conditions Due to Stomach Bowls. Natures Herbs... Without Risk... Get NR Tablets today.

Cause Makes Martyr

It is the cause, not the death, which makes the martyr.—Napoleon.

WOMEN IN '40s

Read This Important Message! Do you dread those "trying years" (35 to 52)? Are you getting moody, cranky and nervous? Do you feel hot flashes, weakness, dizziness, and other "menopausal" symptoms? Get "Women's Health" today.

Justified Cruelty

To the earth the plow seems cruel.

That Nagging Backache

May Warn of Disordered Kidney Action. Modern life with its hurry and worry, frequent habits, improper eating and drinking—the risk of "powers and inflexion"—throws heavy strains on the work of the kidneys. They are apt to become overworked and fall to their knees and other important functions from the life-giving blood.

DOANS PILLS

The Honorable Uncle Lancy

By ETHEL HUESTON

© Della Maxwell Co.

WNU Series

THE STORY THUS FAR

Left orphans by a tragic automobile accident which claimed the lives of their mother and father, three sisters, Helen, Adele and "Limp," are visited by their Aunt Olympia, politically minded wife of Senator Alencos Delaporta Slophire, with them. In addition to loving the girls, Aunt Olympia knows they will be a terrible political asset. Senator Slophire has as his political opponent one Brother Wilkie, a minister, whose political campaign is furthered by seven "unspeakable" and the Senator, kind and loving, nevertheless knows that their three pieces will mean votes for the Senator. Senator Slophire, a pleasantly foggy individual who depends on the astuteness of his wife, prepares for their coming. Though Limp, the youngest, is 16, and Helen, the oldest, is 21, the Senator buys them all the toys they meet their "Uncle Lancy," as he is to be known, the girls take him to their united home. Soon Adele, most beautiful of the sisters, meets Len Hardesty, publicity man for Brother Wilkie. Though it is Len's job to help defeat the Senator, he promptly falls in love with Adele.

CHAPTER IV—Continued

The Senator coughed deprecatingly. "She's joking, Adele. This is pre-election stuff. Before election day, she'll be telling me, with forceful, if inelegant, expletives, that if I ever run for anything again she'll divorce, and probably de-neck, me. This is before-the-campaign stuff."

"My very words," said Aunt Olympia complacently. "I forgot my quotes," admitted Uncle Lancy.

"What a cocky little fool I was, Brick," Helen wrote home to Iowa, "to think I could learn this racket in one year. Aunt Olympia's been in it right from the cradle—or at least from the marriage altar—and she says it's still so much haywire to her. It seems to be mostly luck and 'getting the breaks,' and of course, seizing Opportunity before the Opposition gets hold of it. Aunt Olympia says if she didn't watch every breath the Senator draws, he'd get himself impeached before breakfast. But I am learning a little, I think."

"There's one thing I've learned, and this is important. We've got to get over that provincial feeling that political opponents are social lepers, to be snubbed and ostracised and passed by on the other side. Aunt Olympia says it is a sign of superiority to hobnob with the Opposition—except at the polls, of course. She says it is only little-try who carry political animosities further than the Congressional Record. And I must say, she lives up to her philosophy. I've met quite a number of Republican wives and they are very nice. We and ask me to their meetings and teas, and Aunt Olympia encourages me to go. Sometimes she goes with me."

"Really, Brick, they are amazing, Uncle Lancy and she. Take Len Hardesty for instance. He is here half the time, mooning over Adele mostly, but always showing up at the dinner table and the cocktail tray. And last week who should breeze in unexpectedly but Brother Wilkie, the Governor, running against Uncle Lancy. He phoned and Auntie asked him to dinner and he came. They were lovely to him and Aunt Olympia asked him to ask the blessing."

Aunt Olympia was far deeper in the campaign than either the girls or the Senator realized. She spent two hours every morning carefully coming the important dailies from home and making notes of things to be attended to; cards of congratulations from herself and the Senator to everyone having babies or getting married; condolences for illness and death; approval of the activities of clubs and church organizations, with pertinent suggestions and offering co-operation; and she painstakingly, with well-concealed bitterness, received every constituent who happened to be in Washington and telephoned or called.

By the first of April Olympia had completed plans for the campaign: entourage; deciding on a motor trailer to insure the domesticity of the family, with beds, kitchen and cozy dinette.

"We won't have to eat there much," she assured the girls kindly. "Just enough to get good photos of how domestic and homely we are, with you girls tripping prettily around at your work. We'll have Hilda send us a crate of cooked food every day."

"Doesn't she campaign with us?" "Oh, no!—Except in the Scandinavian districts, where she sits at the table with us. . . . Not in the rest of the state. The average voter thinks if a Senator can afford a maid he's getting too much money."

There would be a sound truck for the Senator's speeches and in addition to their own big car, a couple of secondhand Fords for the staff, visiting reporters, et al. She fretted a good deal over the sound truck, having ideas of her own on that important matter. It must have microphones both inside and on the driver's seat; on the driver's seat to show the Senator off in good weather and inside "for rain; the Senator catches cold if he gets wet."

After consulting and personally inspecting every make of trailer and sound truck on the market, she decided to buy—from some home dealer, of course—old, run-down, antiquated cars that could be rebuilt.

"I suppose I'm to go bareheaded," said Adele. "No, no, darling! Not quite. Teeny black and white something or other, with a bit of a veil and my only regret is that Len Hardesty won't be there to see it. He'd strangle the brats with his bare hands!"

Helen did not follow the preliminary campaign activities as closely as her sisters. Studying the political racket kept her fairly busy. She read the Congressional Record conscientiously, if boredly. She spent hours visiting the Senator's committees and trying to make heads and tails of things which didn't make sense to an average intelligence like hers. She hung over the gallery of the House as if she had become a fixture there.

Aunt Olympia at last reached a stage of her preparations where she felt impelled to ask the Senator's advice. "Del, how about a publicity man for our campaign?"

"Why, we're going to have Dave Cooper. He's the best we can get, since Len's tied up. I've already spoken to him about it. He's working on it now."

"Yes, of course, for you," she said significantly. "But how about the girls here?"

The Senator wisely said nothing, but the girls rose to it.

"For us!" "We've had enough publicity to last us a lifetime!" "Heavens, Auntie, do we rate a publicity man?"

"Oh, he'll only be an assistant to Dave Cooper, but we'll need someone to handle our end of it. Dave'll be pretty busy. . . . We need someone more sentimental. For sob stuff. Heart interest. Human appeal. Let me see—um—ah! Del—what would you think of—say—someone like—Cecil Dodd?"

The Senator came to with a snap. "Cecil Dodd! . . . Cecil Dodd, my dear!" The Senator put on an extra pair of glasses to regard her more covertly. "Why, Ollie, Cecil Dodd doesn't know the first thing about politics. He'd never get to first base. In fact, he'd never even get to bat. He's never been in a campaign in his life. Cecil Dodd—well, Cecil Dodd is what I call a sofa-sitter. But I've heard it expressed more forcibly and perhaps with more truth."

"Oh, he's not so dumb," Olympia rose to the argument. "He's chock-full of human appeal; full of adjectives; why, he knows adjectives I've never even heard of! He's the loudest exponent of youth and beauty in Washington. Do you remember those articles he wrote when Sissy Graves was killed in an airplane accident? A dozen people were killed—and some of them important—but he wrote about Sissy with so much heart appeal that everybody forgot all about the rest of them and made it her exclusive fatality. I know it brought tears to my eyes."

"I don't go in for tears in a campaign," he said, more on the defensive than the girls had ever seen him. "There isn't going to be anything milksoop about this campaign. It's going to be muddy."

"He's a fine dancer; he rides horseback and plays tennis and golf and has taken prizes for swimming and diving. Del, try to forget your personal, political aspirations for once in your life, and think of these poor dear children! Don't you want them to have any amusement? Do you expect them to listen to you make speeches and shake hands for six months with no exercise, no fresh air and no young companionship?"

This put a different light on the matter. The Senator took off both pairs of glasses and set to wiping one. "That's so," he assented. "I didn't mean to be selfish, my dear. The children come first, of course. . . . But I don't suppose we can get him. I don't think he could tear himself away from the sofas long enough."

"I've already spoken to him—just tentatively, you understand; asking why he didn't get into the political end of it and he said he wanted to but never got the breaks. We can get him." A happy smile rosied her face. "Wait till Len Hardesty hears this!"

Len Hardesty was not long hearing it. He dropped in on them the next night.

"Had to fly down," he said cheerfully. "Got to fly back, too. The Governor's going tightwad on me."

"I'm glad you came, Len," said Olympia heartily, almost fondly. "I want to ask your advice about something."

A guarded expression settled over his face. "Oh, you do eh? Then you're up to something I'm against." He braced himself to receive it. "All right. Let's have it. It's dead, wrong and you know it."

Olympia laughed happily. "Oh, it's really nothing or I shouldn't be asking your advice. It's a mere detail. It's about a publicity man for the campaign. You know those publicity gangsters better than we do."

Len, who had thought he was prepared for anything, was genuinely surprised. "Publicity man! Why, you dumb cluck, aren't you having Dave Cooper?"

"I wouldn't suggest anybody. I'd suggest putting the girls in jail till I get rid of the Governor. They don't need an escort. Dave Cooper can handle them. True, he's no Don Juan! He's forty and fat and married and chews tobacco. But he can give you all the publicity you need and more than you merit."

"I was thinking of someone like—well, how about Cecil Dodd?"

"Cecil Dodd! Lord, Ollie, if you upholster your trailer in purple duvety and silken cushions you'll elect the Governor!" Cecil Dodd! . . . Ollie, we've had our occasional differences but I've always admired you as a straight shooting, shoulder-to-shoulder old trooper. . . . Cecil Dodd! . . . Do you want to shatter a young man's fondest illusions? . . . Cecil

"Do you want to shatter a young man's fondest illusions?"

Dodd! You're not taking him to play politics. You're taking him to gum up my works."

"He writes very beautiful and touching articles, Len Hardesty, and you can't deny it. . . . But I admit I want him especially as a sort of a companion—a sort of chaperon for the girls. . . . When they do their playing. . . . I can't keep my mind on them every minute and run this campaign at the same time."

"Not so you save your calloused conscience by giving them this silk pajamaed pariah as a watchdog. . . . Well, if that's what you're up to, you count Adele out. She can't go. I put my foot down on that. You can sick him onto your innocent Helen and trusting little Limpy if you like—if that's your idea of Christian duty to young orphans—but I've got King's X on Adele and she can't go."

"Well, I'm glad you approve," said Olympia beamingly. "Have a drink, Len? Your seal of approval relieves me a lot. I wasn't quite sure about it in my own mind, but you've settled my doubts."

"Aw, Ollie, be a sport! Give a fellow a break, won't you? Remember what pals we've always been! Remember the life I'm going to lead with the brats and the trumpet yawping at me from every angle! (TO BE CONTINUED)

er? If you're not, you'd better get him and get him quick. He's tops." "Don't be silly, Len. Of course we're having him. . . . For the Senator. . . . But we've got to have an assistant. You see, there's going to be quite a cavalcade of us—what with the trailer and the tent and the sound truck and three cars. We don't want anybody to work day and night for us. We're not like some candidates, who expect a poor publicity man to live, move and have his being with seven brats and a trumpeting beldame."

"I smell a rat," said Len Hardesty. "You never gave me an assistant."

"But we're a much larger party this year, you silly dunce. . . . No, definitely, I am for you laboring classes and I will not have poor old Dave imposed on, and worked to death, not even for the Senator. But we'll expect his assistant chiefly to handle our end of it, mine and the girls', when the Senator and Dave are off on their flying junkets and we're cooped up in the trailer. We'll need someone rather young and fairly presentable, don't you think? So he can be a sort of companion to the girls when they're dancing and riding and swimming? And you know yourself, Len, that fairly-presentable publicity men are hard to get. I don't know that I've ever seen one."

"I'm sorry I spent the money to fly down," he said grimly. "If I'm to pick out a man for you, seems to me you ought to pay the bill out of your expense account."

"Unfortunately we haven't a percentage club, like the Governor," she disclaimed quickly. "Besides, darling, I don't expect you to pick him out."

"That's what I was afraid of," he admitted gloomily. "Now let's get this straight, Ollie. You speak of your cavalcade of cars. What's it to be? A campaign for re-election, or a specially conducted young ladies' tour with a presentable escort?"

"The election comes first, of course. But after all, the Senator—Uncle Lancy—and I cannot overlook our responsibility to these poor dear children. We must provide for them as best we can, even in the exigencies of a campaign. Who would you suggest?"

"I wouldn't suggest anybody. I'd suggest putting the girls in jail till I get rid of the Governor. They don't need an escort. Dave Cooper can handle them. True, he's no Don Juan! He's forty and fat and married and chews tobacco. But he can give you all the publicity you need and more than you merit."

"I was thinking of someone like—well, how about Cecil Dodd?" "Cecil Dodd! Lord, Ollie, if you upholster your trailer in purple duvety and silken cushions you'll elect the Governor!" Cecil Dodd! . . . Ollie, we've had our occasional differences but I've always admired you as a straight shooting, shoulder-to-shoulder old trooper. . . . Cecil Dodd! . . . Do you want to shatter a young man's fondest illusions? . . . Cecil

"Do you want to shatter a young man's fondest illusions?"

Dodd! You're not taking him to play politics. You're taking him to gum up my works."

"He writes very beautiful and touching articles, Len Hardesty, and you can't deny it. . . . But I admit I want him especially as a sort of a companion—a sort of chaperon for the girls. . . . When they do their playing. . . . I can't keep my mind on them every minute and run this campaign at the same time."

"Not so you save your calloused conscience by giving them this silk pajamaed pariah as a watchdog. . . . Well, if that's what you're up to, you count Adele out. She can't go. I put my foot down on that. You can sick him onto your innocent Helen and trusting little Limpy if you like—if that's your idea of Christian duty to young orphans—but I've got King's X on Adele and she can't go."

"Well, I'm glad you approve," said Olympia beamingly. "Have a drink, Len? Your seal of approval relieves me a lot. I wasn't quite sure about it in my own mind, but you've settled my doubts."

"Aw, Ollie, be a sport! Give a fellow a break, won't you? Remember what pals we've always been! Remember the life I'm going to lead with the brats and the trumpet yawping at me from every angle! (TO BE CONTINUED)

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By HAROLD E. LUNDQUIST, D. D., Dean of The Moody Bible Institute of Chicago, (Released by Western Newspaper Union.)

Lesson for April 7

Lesson subjects and Scripture texts selected and copyrighted by International Council of Religious Education; used by permission.

AMOS PLEADS FOR JUSTICE

LESSON TEXT—Amos 5:1, 10-15, 21-24. GOLDEN TEXT—Hate the evil, and love the good, and establish judgment in the gate.—Amos 5:15.

Social justice, though much spoken about in recent times, has been the concern of right-thinking men ever since sin entered the world and started man's inhumanity toward man. In the prophet Amos we find the eloquent and plain-spoken voice of one crying out against such conditions almost 800 years before Christ.

This lesson is one which is of utmost importance because in our present-day struggle with social injustice we have come to assume that it is primarily a political or economic question. Amos and all other Scripture rightly gets at "the focus of infection," which is sin. Sin in the heart leads to sinful actions, and these inevitably involve others, and thus bring about social problems. Let us learn from Amos to cure our social ills by bringing man to God.

I. Lamentation—In the Midst of Prosperity (v. 1).

From the little village of Tekoa and out of the wilderness in which he had been a herdsman came Amos, the man of God, to hurl his prophecy of disaster upon the heads of the complacent people of Israel and to take up a lamentation over those in Israel living in luxury and prosperity.

True it was that the common people were being ground under the heel of cruel oppression, but who cared about the poor as long as they could be squeezed for taxes to support the luxurious comforts and pleasures of the rich? A prosperity which does not reach the homes of the poor is not a real prosperity at all. When in addition thereto it encourages the "haves" to oppress the "have-nots" it becomes a grave danger, a real cause for lamentation.

II. The Reason—Sin Which Hates Reproof (vv. 10-13).

Sin is always a horrible thing, but when men who have fallen into sin are responsive to correction and ready to repent and forsake their sin, there is hope. The thing which made Israel's state so serious in the sight of God and of His prophet was that they had only hatred for those who were bold enough to reprove them or to live among them according to God's standards (vv. 10, 13). "They who will endure no criticism have slammed the door in the face of truth. When we get to the place where we cannot endure having our faults pointed out, we are on the way to moral collapse" (Douglass).

The sin which had thus hardened their hearts showed itself in social inequality and injustice which was built upon greed, oppression, corruption in the courts, etc. The shocking picture which Amos paints bears a surprising similarity to conditions in our world today. Let us face the problem and seek its solution.

III. The Cure—Seek Good Not Evil (vv. 14, 15).

God's Word condemns sin, but it always presents a remedy. In Christ we have the perfect, final, and complete answer to the sin question. Amos, speaking centuries before Christ, admonished Israel to repent and to turn away from the evil which they had cultivated with such assiduity and to be equally zealous about doing good, in the hope that "it may be that the Lord God of hosts will be gracious" (v. 15). How favored we are to be permitted not only to urge people to turn from evil to good, but to offer them the One who is the way, the truth, and the life.

Israel did not repent, but in folly depended on their religious ceremonies to satisfy an offended God. The prophet therefore declares that

IV. Religion Is Not a Substitute for Justice (vv. 21-24).

God had no pleasure in their religious observances and rites, because they were presented with unrepentant hearts and by hands which were soiled by the oppression of their fellow man.

Mark it well, God has no delight in the attendance upon church services, beautiful though they may be, does not listen to the sweet strains of sacred music, nor does He accept the rich "offerings" of those who live in unrepentant sin and who pay for magnificent church buildings and beautiful church services with money gotten by crooked dealings and social injustice. God is righteous and God's Word always cuts right through the hypocrisy of men. Let us heed the plea of Amos, that righteousness should run through our personal and national life "as a mighty stream," and then we shall be ready both as individuals and as a people to worship Him aright.

A Gracious Lord His work is honorable and glorious; and his righteousness endureth forever. He hath made his wonderful works to be remembered; the Lord is gracious and full of compassion.—Psalm 111:3-4.

Crocheted Squares For That Tablecloth

2441

Everyone will admire your skill when you use a cloth crocheted in this lovely pineapple design. The handy squares make grand pick-up work, too! Pattern 2441 contains directions for square; illustrations of it and stitches; photograph of square; materials required; Send order to:

Sewing Circle Needlecraft Dept. 82 Eighth Ave. New York Enclosed 15 cents in coins for Pattern No. . . . Name . . . Address . . .

Nina—I know the truth about you and my husband. You'll find out what I'm going to do on Page 10 of the May Issue of True Story Magazine—now on sale. Adv.

Wealth Not Worth A man of wealth is dubbed a man of worth.—Pope.

INDIGESTION

Sensational Relief from Indigestion and One Dose Proves It. If the first dose of this pleasant-tasting little black tablet does not bring you the relief and most complete relief you have ever known, we will refund your money. . . .

Health in Health Better a healthy peasant than a sickly king.

WOMEN

Here's amazing way to Relieve 'Regular' Pains

Dr. C. C. Linn's "Pain Expeller" is a new, powerful, and safe remedy for all kinds of menstrual pain, cramps, headaches, and backache. . . .

The Risk Honey is sweet, but the bees sting.

Hybrid SEED CORN TRU-KROST Best for the West. A superior yield corn that gives larger yields of uniform growth Highest feed value. TRU-KROST Hybrid Seed Corn is unsurpassed We supply TRU-KROST adapted to your zone Write for free details. At Leading Local Dealers. WESTERN SEED CO., Denver.

Only GOOD MERCHANDISE Can Be CONSISTENTLY Advertised BUY ADVERTISED GOODS.

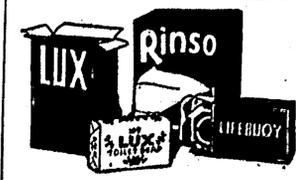

We Are Headquarters for Feed

WE CARRY IN STOCK:

Cotton Seed Cake & Cubes Shorts Millrun
 Millrun Bran Corn Corn Chops
 Oats Barley Kaffir Milo
 Kaffir & Milo Chops

Special Prices Made On Quantities

Garden Tools
 Garden Seeds
ONION SETS
 Lime--Cement
 & Plaster

The Titsworth Co., Inc.
 Capitan, N. M.

Economy UNMATCHED FOR YOUR GROCERY NEEDS

Special!
 Fancy--Patent
 (All Purpose Flour)
 48 lb Sack
 $1 15
 Every Sack Guaranteed!

Fancy Baby Beef
 Steaks, Roasts, Chops
 Young Pork--Chops
 Roasts
 Lamb, Hens, Fish
 & Cured Meats

ECONOMY Cash Grocery & Meat Market

J. F. PETTY, Prop.

Phone 62

Carrizozo Auto Company

SALES SERVICE

See The New

FORD

For 1940

22 Important Improvements

Also The NEW Ford Tractor

Modern Photo Finishing

Developing -- Printing -- Enlarging -- Copying
 24-Hour--Service--24-Hour

Burns Studio

Pratt Bldg. Next Door to Citizens Bank

COMMENTS

Lewis Burke

Little old town, good afternoon!
 R U Listenin'?

CONGRATULATIONS!

To Mayor - elect M. U. Finley, Town Trustees - elect Albert Scharf, G. T. McQuillen, Roy Shafer, Dan Chavez, and Town Clerk Morgan Lovelace, who were elected unanimously in the Municipal election held April 2.

The following item was given to the writer this week:

Three Englishmen, all slightly deaf, were motoring to London in a noisy old auto. As they were nearing that metropolis, one asked "I say, old chappie, is this Wimberly?" "No, old thing, replied, the second gentleman, "this is Thursday." "By jove, so am I," chirped the third man. "Let's stop in and have one."

JEFFERSON ON THIRD TERMS

As the New Deal machine moves along in its engineering of a third term nomination for President Roosevelt, the background of the two-term precedent established by George Washington and Thomas Jefferson is not to be forgotten. Jefferson is the father of the Democratic Party. In 1803 history recites that he could easily have been re-elected for a third term. But his words in declining a third term might well be studied today and contrasted with the ambitions of the President.

Columnist:

The New Deal majority in Congress is giving the Republicans a break. By extending the Hull Reciprocal Trade Act it is providing the GOP with a real issue in the 1940 campaign.

-Z. Y. W.

How come no blonde beauty in a bathing suit has been Miss WPA?

Answer--Why ask me?

COURT HOUSE WORK

Continues. Foreman Garrison and his WPA crew have torn down the garage, etc., on the east side of the building and are doing other work about the building.

VOTED STRAIGHT

"It's the first time I ever voted a straight ticket in my life," Carrizozo Voter at Municipal election held April 2.

JOHN L. LEWIS FOR PRESIDENT?

Monongah, W. Va. -- John L. Lewis said to a Convention of Miners Monday that unless the Democratic party nominates a candidate for President or adopts a platform satisfactory to Labor and the common people, he will call a convention of various groups "to formulate a program that each and every American can support. Lewis told them "nothing had been done to solve the problems of unemployment."

TODAY'S OPPORTUNITY

(Personal--Sat. Review of Lit.) WOMAN (Thirtyish) fond of open spaces, freeds, stimulating conversation--would like to hear from a man not superlatively clever. Box 481-D. -- Ted Cook in the Los Angeles Examiner.

--Helen la Vite, from L. A.

Your Eyesight Is Important

Careless neglect of eyes has resulted in bad vision or blindness in many cases. You are only going through the world once and eyesight is more valuable than all other faculties added together, and you can't get any more eyes. See the specialist with a proven reputation for handling complicated defective vision and who has served citizens of this section for over 15 years with satisfaction. DR. FRED R. BAKER, Optometrist, will be at the El Cibola Hotel, Wednesday and Thursday, April 10 and 11 only. Scientific eye testing equipment and all styles in spectacleware. It

The popular Lions' Club of Ruidoso will give a big dance on Saturday night, April 6, and a good time is guaranteed to all who come. The "Break o' Day" Orchestra of Carrizozo will furnish the music.

Probate Judge John Mackey of San Patricio was here this week discharging his official duties.

Mr. and Mrs. Nick Vega and children spent last Sunday visiting relatives at Tularosa.

The Past Matrons' Club will have a Baked Sale at the Carrizozo Hardware Co., Saturday, April 18. Come.

J. R. Jenkins of Corona went through here last Sunday evening on his way to El Paso for medical treatment.

Lou Fink and E. O. Prehm returned from El Paso Monday, after attending the Shriners' Convention.

Billy Ferguson of the Nogal Mesa was a visitor in town this Wednesday.

Mrs. Barney Barnovsky, Mrs. Glen Tom and Bobby, daughter Oleia were here from Anita this Tuesday.

Mrs. B. V. Trevino and son Fred arrived Saturday from a trip to Colorado. While there, they visited Mr. and Mrs. Reyes Lucero and other relatives.

L. R. (Rich) Hust of Nogal was a Carrizozo visitor this Wednesday.

Roy Skinner and Jack Payne of the Skinner Bonito Farm visited relatives and friends here this Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Luckey and small daughter Martha Sue of their ranch near Nogal were here Tuesday of this week.

A. F. (Allie) Stover of Hondo was a business visitor in town this Tuesday.

L. A. Whitaker, who has been confined at the Turner Hospital with a severe attack of illness, is now able to be up and around.

Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Hall of Ancho were here Saturday.

Saturday Specials!

- Fresh Fruit and Vegetables
- Bananas 6 lbs. 25c
- Salt Pork 9c lb.
- Sugar 10 lbs. 59c
- 100 lbs. Flour 2.45
- (Every sack guaranteed)
- Giant Oxydol 50c
- Bread 3 large loaves 25c
- Candy 6 bars for 25c
- Fresh Eggs 16c doz.
- Service Broom, 5-strand 29c
- No. 3 Tub 79c
- 2 lbs. Soda Crackers 18c

Every Day is Bargain Day when you trade at Prehm's

Pharm Department Store
 CARRIZOZO, NEW MEXICO

Carrizozo's Best Shopping Place

Ziegler Bros.

MEN!
 Here's a Perfect Shirt!

A Longer-Wearing Collar Looks better. Is more comfortable. Perfect fits. Easier to Iron. 3 - Buttonhole. X-Act fit feature.

An unusual Value at

$1.65, 1.95 & 2.25

Ziegler Bros.

The Leading Dry Goods, Clothing and Grocery Store.

SCHOOL NEWS

The Seniors are rehearsing on their play "Let's Go Somewhere," which will be staged April 19.

Students absent due to illness were Mary Pruett, Bradley Moberly, Joe McBrayer and Albert Sanchez.

Be sure to vote for your favorite Carnival Queen

The Home Ec. Dept proved their usefulness when they served over 150 basketballers during the tournament. We don't mind cooking, say the future homemakers, but washing pots and pans is work.

The faculty and students wish to thank all business concerns and patrons who so kindly contributed to the success of our school carnival.

Class rings were selected on Tuesday by the Juniors.

The regular 6-weeks' exams are now in progress.

The Biology menagerie has 12 soft, pink albino rats. Large numbers of grade pupils make daily visits to see the new arrivals.

The Spanish Cafe

Invites you to a Genuine Mexican Supper, Saturday, April 6.

MENU--Tamales, Enchiladas, Tacos, Chile con Carne.

--Luis Casillas, Mgr.

LINCOLN - HONDO ROAD

Contract for completion of the Lincoln-Hondo highway will be let in the very near future, we plan to spend $150,000 for the improvement of the unpaved section of 880, between San Antonio and Carrizozo. We are still mindful of the condition of U. S. 64 and will continue to do all that is possible to hasten the improvement of this road.

Very truly yours,

B. G. Dwyre,
 State Engineer.

54 ASSN. MEETS IN TUCUMCARI

U. S. Highway 54 Association and New Mexico 54 Association will hold a joint meeting in Tucumcari on April 15.

--Dr. R. E. Blaney,
 President.

Mrs. J. M. Beck took her son Billy to the Tingley Hospital at Hot Springs this week.

In the Third Judicial District Court of the State of New Mex.

Within and for Lincoln County

John Martin Shelton, Plaintiff, vs.

Unknown Heirs at Law of David P. Barry, Deceased; Impleaded with the following named defendants against whom substituted service is hereby sought to be obtained, to-wit: Unknown Heirs at Law of David P. Barry, Deceased; and Unknown Heirs at Law of William Matticks Barry, Deceased; all Unknown Claimants of Interests in the Hereinafter Described Premises, Adverse to the Estate of the Plaintiff-- Defendants.

NOTICE OF PENDENCY OF SUIT STATE OF NEW MEXICO:

To each of the above named defendants against whom substituted service is hereby sought to be obtained,

GREETING:

You and each of you are hereby notified that a certain cause wherein you and each of you are defendants, and John Martin Shelton is plaintiff, being Civil cause No. 4747 on the Civil Docket in the above named Court, is now pending against you.

The general object and purpose of said suit is to establish and quiet the plaintiff's title in and to the real estate and property described in the Complaint in said cause, the same being in the County of Lincoln, State of New Mexico, and in Sections 4, 5, 9 and 10 of Township 8 South, Range 14 East, N. M. P. M.

against the adverse claims of you and each of you, and anyone claiming by, under, or through you or any of you, and to forever bar and estop you and each of you from having or claiming any lien upon, or right of title to, or interest in said real estate and property.

You are further notified that unless you enter your appearance in said cause on or before the 17th day of May, 1940, judgment will be rendered in said cause against you and each of you by default.

That the name of plaintiff's attorney and his postoffice address is John E. Hall, Carrizozo, New Mexico.

Given under my hand and the seal of the Third Judicial District Court of the State of New Mexico, this 4th day of April, 1940.

(D. C. Seal) Edward Pengold,
 District Court Clerk.

By Bryan Hendricks,
 Deputy.

A6-26 Harry Straley of his ranch in the Ancho country was a Carrizozo business visitor Wednesday.

Miss Helen Parker of the Virginia Beauty Shop was a week-end visitor at Roswell.