Remembered God's Promise

Deep in the jungles and swamps of New Guinea, Vern Augland, Associated Press Correspondent, wandered for six long weeks, a part of which time without anything to eat, drenched with the tropical rain storms, and what seemed, a prey to venomous reptiles and wild beasts, but through all of that suffering, he would murmur the 23rd Psalm, "The Lord is my Shepherd; I Shall Not Want."

He kept a diary although at times being delirious. At different places in his diary, he would describe his feelings and condition. At one place he made this statement: "I am unable to go farther," but in a short time he came to food of some kind, enough to keep him alive. He would find grapes, green grass and herbs of various kinds. Also would he come to clear, pure water, when he had almost been tempted to drink the poisonous swamp water, which would have soon killed him.

Vern Houghland never forgot the teachings he received at his mother's knee, among which was the 23rd. Psalm, which expresses the firm faith in God and which brought him through those trying experiences.

How many people have hung on to those words in the Psalms, which have brought them through suffering, privation and victory over death and destruction. Then let the scuffer in his pride, chose the fond faith in the heart of Vern Houghland, to scorn, but he clung to God's promise that he that believeth and has faith in God, shall not perish. On being rescued from that agonizing ordeal, he told his rescuers, that he knew he was saved by the promise of God. It will be remembered that Vern Houghland once removed his socks and gave them to one of his buddies, who had no shoes in freezing temperature.

Letters From Old Friends

Among letters received from our old friends and subscribers this week, we found one from Mrs. Izora Sparkman, who is now located at Lowell, Arkansas. In her letter, Mrs. Sparkman speaks highly of that place and sends her kindest regards to Carrizozo friends. Another was from Mrs. J. B. French, formerly located at Knoxville, Tenn., but is now in Arlington, Virginia, with her son Miller and wife Mrs. French also wishes to be remembered to her Carrizozo friends. Our mail this week contained many letters like the above mentioned.

Another was from Mrs. Agnes St. John, formerly of Oregrande, but now residing at Alamogordo. Mrs. St. John lives so close to us, that she makes frequent visits here to local friends and relatives. We also heard from our old Amigo, Mike Nalds, a Vaughn, this week.

Mrs. G. C. Kroggel has returned from a pleasant visit with her mother, Mrs. Langston at Taos, where she enjoyed her visit for two weeks.

Potatoes, Teamed With Eggs, Are a Delicious Meat-Saver (See Recipes Below.)

Meat Savers

Voluntary meat rationing is already in process. This period before the actual rationing starts...

Sugar rationing has been a challenge, but a challenge which home-makers have met. Meat rationing will be even more of a challenge...

Let's first look at the situation from the nutritional standpoint, for good health and well-being is a first goal. Meat is primarily preferred because it is what is known as a complete protein...

The sources for protein you'll tap first are fish and fowl, cheese and milk. We have excellent supplies of all these so there will be no excuse for missing out on your quota.

Now, let's get down to the business of serving these foods appetizingly and attractively. Fall is the season for many kinds of fish—and your butcher will help you out on what's a real bargain.

Fillet in Tomato Sauce (Serves 6 to 8). 2 pounds fish fillets (halibut, perch, pike, whitefish, salmon), 2 cups tomato pulp, 1 cup water, 6 whole cloves, 2 bay leaves, 6 peppercorns, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon sugar.

Lynn Says:

The Score Card: The question is being asked these days as to how much meat will actually be allowed per person in the civilian Share-the-Meat program.

Meats with little waste include the highly nutritious cuts like liver, heart, kidneys, sweetbreads and brains. Canned meat, sausage, scrapple, souse and similar products will not be subject to restrictions.

Squash, pumpkin and sweet potatoes are holding their own, and here and there peak spinach, broccoli and brussels sprouts.

- This Week's Menu: Idaho Suzettes, Stewed Tomatoes, Shredded Lettuce, Raisin, Apple Salad, Whole-Wheat Bread, Caramel Bavarian Cream Cookies, Beverage.

per. Bake or broil 15 to 20 minutes in a hot (425-degree) oven until fillets are cooked and delicately browned.

Baked shrimps in a rich dressing are a boon to any menu and pick-up for any appetite:

- Baked Shrimp Salad (Serves 6). 1 1/2 pounds fresh cooked or canned shrimps, 1 cup finely diced celery, 1/2 cup chopped green pepper, 1 1/2 tablespoons chopped pimiento, Salt and pepper, 1/4 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce, 1 tablespoon lemon juice, 1 cup mayonnaise.

Buttered bread crumbs. Toss together all ingredients, lightly so as not to break shrimps. Place in buttered shells or individual casserole dishes.

Cheese will be a blessing for many of the days on which you find yourself short and slim on meats.

Cheese-Macaroni Loaf (Serves 6). 3 egg yolks, 3 egg whites, 1 cup grated American cheese, 1 cup milk, 1 cup soft bread crumbs, 1/2 cup macaroni, broken, 2 tablespoons butter, 1 teaspoon minced onion, 1/2 cup pimiento, minced, Salt and pepper.

Cook macaroni in boiling, salted water about 15 minutes or until tender. Rinse in cold water. Cook onion in butter. Beat yolks, fold in all remaining ingredients, and last mix in stiffly-beaten egg whites.

Eggs smuggling in the flaky white folds of the baked potato are a smart supperside item—and an excellent meat stretcher. This is the way to do it:

- Idaho Suzettes (Serves 6). 6 medium-sized Idaho potatoes, 1/2 cup hot milk, 2 tablespoons butter, 6 tablespoons buttered crumbs, Salt and pepper, 1 tablespoon grated cheese, 6 eggs.

Select medium-sized potatoes, scrub and bake at 450 degrees. When done, remove a piece of skin from side of each potato to make it boat-shaped.

Squash, pumpkin and sweet potatoes are holding their own, and here and there peak spinach, broccoli and brussels sprouts.

With less food to choose, the smart homemaker will season to the best of her ability those she has. There is mustard grown here in our own country, and paprika, too. Cayenne from Louisiana, and chili, American-grown, are earning a fine place on the cook's spice shelf.

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL Lesson

By MAROLD L. LUNDQUIST, D. D., Of The Moody Bible Institute of Chicago (Released by Western Newspaper Union.)

Lesson for November 22

Lesson subjects and Scripture texts selected and copyrighted by International Council of Religious Education; used by permission.

MOTIVES THAT STRENGTHEN FAMILY LIFE

LESSON TEXT—Exodus 2:1-4; Joshua 24: 14, 15; Ephesians 5:22-31; 6:1-4. GOLDEN TEXT—Love never faileth.—I Corinthians 13:3.

Last week we saw the things which mar the life of the family, now we turn to those things which give strength to the home and to daily life.

I. Recognition of God in the Home

Failure at this point is without question the great mistake of our day. Christianity touches every phase of life, but nowhere is its blessed influence of greater importance than in the home.

Our lesson suggests that this is to be done in two ways in our homes.

1. By Faith in God (Exod. 2:1-4). The story of the birth of the babe who was to be Moses, possibly the greatest civic, social and religious leader of all time, reminds us that the Jewish people, who had found favor in the eyes of the Pharaohs in Joseph's time, were now being persecuted.

Here were two parents faced with the awful fact that their baby boy was condemned to death. Did they weep in fear and despair? No, they trusted God and sent the little one forth on a venture of faith, the charming story of which follows the verses of our lesson.

2. Service for God (Josh. 24:14, 15). Joshua, who followed Moses as the God-appointed leader of Israel, was giving his last admonition to his people.

He pleads with them to turn to the one true God, but notice that his plea is made effective by the fact that he and his house were serving the Lord.

Every one of us has a sphere of influence, and our family life counts for or against God in our own community and among our own friends.

II. Regard for One Another in the Home

It is pure hypocrisy for the family to parade an outward show of religion which does not effectively touch the relationships within the home.

What then does Christianity do for the home itself? It determines, directs, sweetens—yes, glorifies the relation between—

21. Husband and Wife (Eph. 5: 28-31). This passage puts marriage on the highest plane, comparing it to the relationship between Christ and the church.

This means that the husband cherishes his wife as his own body, against which no man would do any harm, and for which he makes every possible provision for its comfort, health, usefulness and attractiveness.

It will set the pattern for the right relation between 2. Parents and Children (Eph. 6: 1-4). The first, and one might almost say the only, law of childhood is obedience.

Notice too, that the parent has an obligation to deal intelligently and kindly with the child. We need a great deal of improvement, and perhaps instruction, at that point.

Above all, there is to be a divine nurture, a guiding of the tender child life in the ways of God. Here is life's greatest opportunity and its mightiest challenge.

Remove? Plaster that can be softened by soaking with plain water, and can then be removed with a wire brush.

FIRST AID TO THE AILING HOUSE by Roger B. Whitman

Roger B. Whitman—WNU Features. CARE OF GARDEN POOLS

SMALL garden pools can be left empty during the winter. Generally speaking, larger pools should be left filled, so that the pressure of the water will offset the pressure of the earth against the sides.

Leaking Chimney. Question: My brick chimney goes through the attic at a slant, but is straight above the roof.

Hardwood Floors. Question: Last year my hardwood floors were sanded, filled and given three coats of varnish.

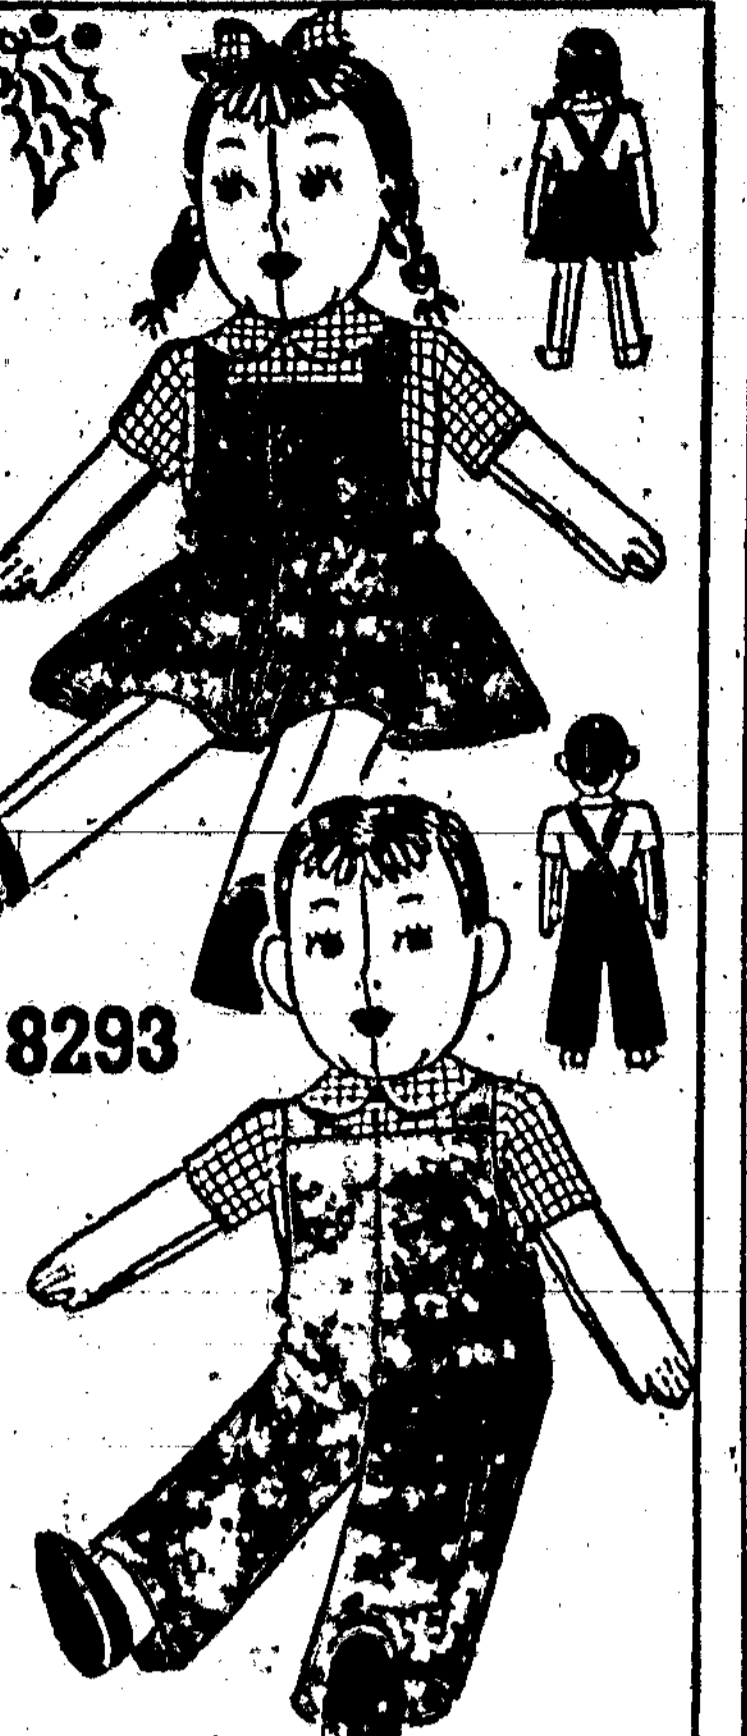

Gas Pipe. Question: The closed end of a gas pipe protrudes from my basement ceiling above the furnace.

Leather Upholstery. Question: What can I use to clean a red leather armchair? What kind of paint or stain can be used to touch up the arms where the color has rubbed off?

Match Scratches. Question: How can I remove scratches of brimstone matches from a window pane?

Removing Plaster Stains. Question: Plaster was dropped on a new cement porch. How can it be removed?

Freakish Styles

Shoes with pointed toes one to two feet long were favorites with English men during Edward IV's reign. The points were tightly stuffed with hay or moss.

Shoes were two feet wide in 18th century England, and large enough to shelter an entire family in a rainstorm.

COLDS' MISERIES PENETRO

For colds, coughs, nasal congestion, muscle aches get Penetro—modern medication in a mutton suet base, 2¢, double supply 35¢.

Treat Constipation This Gentler Way!

Many folks say that almost as bad as constipation are harsh cathartics and purges. That's because many medicinal laxatives work this way: they either prod the intestines into action or draw moisture into them from other parts of the body.

To clean out a burnt pan add one teaspoon of soda to each cup of water needed to fill the pan, cover and simmer 20 minutes.

The parings from five large apples will make one tall glass of apple jelly.

BANKS AND THE WAR

Welcome Words from the White House

The Commander in Chief of wartime America has paid banks the highest of compliments. "The Bankers of America" president Roosevelt wrote, "... have answered the call to service joyfully and with stout hearts... a record of accomplishment of which you all may be justly proud." Welcome words, indeed. They should give banks everywhere added strength and courage to tackle the still greater job that lies ahead.

Retired machinist back in harness puts 20% in War Bonds

Oscar used to be a first-class machinist. Five years ago he retired to live out the rest of his life on a pension.

The other morning he showed up again at his old plant, which now makes war equipment, and asked for his old job back. When payday came, he signed up with the Payroll Savings Plan to put 20% of his pay in War Bonds.

Seems Oscar's boy was on Bataan.

Porter-Phillips

Miss Margaret Porter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Porter and Joe E. Phillips, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe E. Phillips of Carrizozo, New Mexico, were married last evening at 8 o'clock in the First Baptist Church with the Rev. Arthur A. DuLaney officiating, before a small assemblage of relatives and friends.

The altar was decorated with palms and floor baskets of chrysanthemums. Miss Hannah Anthem at the organ played "Song to the Evening Star" (Tannhauser) and also accompanied Miss Mary Louise Unrein when she sang "I Love You Truly" (Carrie Jacobs Bond) and "Because" (D'Hardelot). The traditional wedding marches were used.

The winsome young bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a street length two-piece crepe frock of turquoise blue made with petal-packets trimming the long blouse which buttoned down the back with large buttons. A wide black veiled hat and black accessories completed her costume. She wore a shoulder corsage of gardenias.

Maid-of-honor was Miss Vivian Drury who was gowned in blue velvet with which she wore a brown veiled turban. Miss Alice Marie Fowler and Miss Mary Frances Wilcoxon were bridesmaids. They wore blue frocks of wool and small felt hats. All the attendants wore shoulder bouquets of gardenias. Miss Pruitt, Miss Unrein, Miss Drury, Miss Fowler and Miss Wilcoxon are all schoolmates of the young bride at Roswell High School. Private Q. B. Willingham, Roswell Army Flying School, served as best man.

Mrs. Porter, mother of the bride, wore a silk crepe of military blue with matching hat and a gardenia corsage. The groom's mother wore black crepe, small black felt hat and a shoulder bouquet of gardenias.

The bride is a senior at Roswell High School and has lived all her young life in Roswell. She is a popular member of the High School social group.

The groom was born and reared in Carrizozo where he was graduated from the public schools there. He was a star basketball player on the Carrizozo team, having been named on the all-district mythical basketball team and also on the state team.—Roswell Record.

Marvin Burton, our old reliable wood and coal man, has closed his place of business and gone to work at Tucumcari. He gives for his reason for closing the fact that he cannot buy either coal or wood—so what!

Janey

Janey closed the bedroom door and locked it. Alone at last! She threw back her head and heaved a deep sigh. Then she peeked out of the corner of her eye at the mirror to see whether she really did look like Hedy LaMarr. Quite a lot, she decided.

And now to business. She drew forth from the bottom of her top bureau drawer the sheet of pink writing-paper and the envelope that she had been saving for this day. She sat down at the table by the window and dipped the pen into the bottle of green ink that her sister Rose was such a pig about. She wrote, with beautiful arabesques, "Dear Mr. Morgenthau," and held her head back to admire this effort of the best pupil in penmanship class.

"Here are my stamps for a bond, $18.75. I started last Christmas when I got $3.00. Not counting 50 cents, I have earned all the rest, working one or more days a week at a local grocery store, and I'm quite proud to say I worked hard to get it."

Janey stared out-of-the-window-at Peterson's house and beyond at the big yard where the kids were playing football. She held her pen elegantly in air.

"Sitting here looking out the window, I see a peaceful little town, and I wonder how the world can be in such a turmoil and the people of this world can have such hate for their fellow men. So I'm proud to send these stamps because I know I'm helping to make the whole world peaceful again like our little town."

She signed her name with an important flourish, not forgetting a conspicuous "Miss" in front of the "Janey." After she had sealed the letter she went on staring out of the window. It really was awfully peaceful. Overhead she heard a plane go humming by through the sunny afternoon air.

Then the voice of her best friend, Betty, called from outside—"Janey!" In an instant Janey was on her feet and tearing downstairs and out. She was not Hedy LaMarr nor a deep philosopher any more, but exactly twelve years old.

(Letter from an actual communication in the files of the Treasury Department.)

Grown-ups and children alike should all help the "breadwinner" of the family to budget for War Bonds. Let's all join a payroll savings plan and "top that 10% by New Year's."

Not everybody with a dollar to spare can shoot a gun straight—but everybody can shoot straight to the bank and buy War Bonds. Buy your 10% every pay day.

When Gasoline Rationing Comes—

When gasoline rationing comes, you will probably have to stop driving long distances, and you may be planning to travel by train instead.

Ordinarily, of course, any railroad would be delighted at the prospect of a lot of new customers, but these are not ordinary times, and we are frankly worried about what the consequences of gasoline rationing may be.

We are carrying hundreds of thousands of troops, and there has already been a big increase in civilian travel because of the war.

So far we think we have done a pretty good job. But there is a limit to our present capacity, and we cannot buy new passenger cars because of the shortage of critical materials.

SO WE SUGGEST:

1. Please do not travel unless you feel you have good, sound reasons for doing so.
2. Travel during the middle of the week instead of on week-ends.
3. Please buy your rail and Pullman tickets well in advance of the day you leave.
4. If plans change, please cancel your Pullman space promptly so somebody else can use it.
5. Use Pullman space to its maximum capacity. If you reserve a bedroom, compartment or drawing room, share it with friends or business acquaintances (and share the expense).
6. Buy round trip tickets. Make your return reservations at the same time.
7. Travel light, and take into the train with you only the luggage you actually need on the train. Check the rest.

If we all cooperate, it will help to avoid any necessity of rationing train travel, too.

S.P.

The War Bonds you buy now will help pay for a new home after the war.

To Our Customers:

We will discontinue distributing Saturday Special circulars for the present. Our action in this matter is due to the scarcity of numerous staple articles and the uncertainty of being able to keep up our stock in many lines.

Lucky Deer Hunters

As far as we have been able to find out were—Sam Welsh, Rev. James, R. B. Moore, Homer McDaniel and Albert Snow.

Former Sheriff Ben Greisen, who has been employed by the government in Santa Fe, made this office a friendly call this Wednesday, enroute to Capitan, to visit his wife and mother.

Our old friend and former baseball fan, John Miller is here this week from Muskogee, Okla. for a visit with old Carrizozo friends. John looks well.

Donald Pashcal is here visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Marshall. He is a member of the torpedoed Merchant Marine ship with Mr. Marshall.

Mrs. Laura Sullivan is here from Roswell, as a tonic at the bedside of her father John Behar, who is recovering from an illness. — You can't keep a good man down, like John.

YOU GIRLS WHO SUFFER Distress From PERIODIC FEMALE WEAKNESS

And Want To Build Up
Red Blood!

Take heed if you, like so many women and girls, have all or any one of these symptoms: Do you on such days suffer dizziness, headache, backache, weak nervous system, chills, or "irregular" periods of the blood—due to functional weakness of the blood? Buy a bottle of Pinkettes' Compound TABLETS (with added Iron)—made especially for women. Pinkettes are famous not only for relieving monthly pain, but also accompanying weak, nervous condition of the system. They are known as the "soothing stool softener."

ONE OF WOMEN'S MOST IMPORTANT CARES: Build up regularly—Pinkettes' Tablets help build up resistance against such symptoms. Thousands upon thousands have reported benefit. Buy them from health food stores or give them through Pinkettes' Dealers. They are also a fine stomachic tonic! Follow label directions.
