Jeffers Is Right—He Has What It Takes

In the tilt between Rubber Administrator Jeffers and War Information Director Elmer Davis, wherein Jeffers made an attack on the Army and Navy Departments for interfering with his orders concerning tire rationing — they went so far as to say that every fifth tire belonging to civilians should be confiscated and turned in to be melted over.

Mr. Jeffers came back and said that the "loafers" in the Army and Navy should attend to their own business and quit meddling with things they knew nothing about. He even went so far as to say that interference by the Army and Navy in governmental matters had been to blame for failure to provide materials and gadgets for synthetic rubber plants.

It is true that last August, the President told members of the different departments, that they should button up their lips before airing them before the public, but Jeffers thinks the public should know about those things and that is the reason we believe he is right, at least, he has the guts to assert himself, for as he says, he has a big job and he is going to speak out in public when other people interfere with him. At any rate, he is not going to wear a gag under a red-tape political deadlock.

Under the present regime at Washington, anybody who has nerve enough to speak out and exercise his right of free speech is hovering over the axe and although being right in what he has said, we are of the opinion that he is due for a fall from the New Deal, despite the fact that the rubber controversy, which has gone on under cover for several months, has not been settled and Jeffers' bold stand may bring it to a head—let us hope so.

THE TIMID SOUL By Webster

School Board Election

Was held Tuesday. There were five candidates, but voters were instructed to vote for only two, as two vacancies were all that were to be filled.

Herman Kelt led the ticket and was followed by Mrs. Cliff Zumwalt, they being the ones who were elected.—Congratulations.

Governor Dempsey Democrat Talks Like a Republican

Governor Dempsey, much like Rubber Administrator Jeffers, is not afraid to air his views to the public. At the meeting of the wool-growers association last Friday, he criticized the handling of the war effort and said, "state government could help get the job done for 50 per cent less than it is now costing." He also criticized the handling of the farm labor and lend-lease projects and added, "This may sound like a Republican speech, but I want you to know that I am a real Democrat."

He also wanted to know if Secretary Wickard hadn't padlocked the barn after the horse was stolen. He said he was in favor of a lease-lend, but added, let's call it by its real name, for you all know that not one cent of it will ever be paid back. He also said he was against taking anything from our poor people and giving to other nations something they have never had before. Now let it be remembered that Governor said those things and not the Outlook, so it makes all kinds of difference who says anything. On account of his attack on the administration the Governor may be called to Washington to wear out some carpet for such attacks, but if he is, we believe he has the guts to stand his hand. More power to him for speaking out.

Wanted—Wood. Apply to L. A. Whitaker, Country Club.

Business Men's Club

Met at the S. P. Hotel at 6:30 p. m. Feb. 10 with a good attendance. Mr. Slaughter, grade school principal, was the guest of Supr. Manire. Minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved. The committee on soldier entertainment stated that it was still unable to report. John E. Hall outlined facts surrounding the sponsorship of the Carrizozo Woman's Club at the time of its construction. Mr. Hall said that for many years the Woman's Club has raised money for the purpose of owning their own club building only to lose out in the end through some misunderstanding. He moved that the club write off the indebtedness and interest on the $25 Carrizozo Woman's Club bonds owned by the club and return them to the Woman's Club.—Motion seconded by Mr. McQuillen and carried. Mr. McQuillen made a motion that a committee be appointed to meet with the city council for the purpose of looking into the problem of having this property title vested in the Woman's Club, seconded by T. E. Kelley and carried. John Hall, T. E. Kelley and Frank English are appointed on this committee. Pres. Kelt announced an invitation from the Missionary Society to the Club for dinner Feb. 24. Motion by John Curry that we accept, seconded and carried. The secretary is instructed to advise the Missionary Society that we accept the invitation. The Club adjourns.

Felix Ramey, Secretary.

Staff Sgt. and Mrs. Jack Harkey arrived home Tuesday night from Madford Oregon, where Jack is now stationed in the Army. They will remain here for about two weeks, Jack being on a furlough for that length of time. Jack likes the service very well.

Help defeat Hitler by calling him by his right name: Schicklgruber.

Headline: Hitler Reported Dead—Who cares?

Meet the newly elected members of the Carrizozo School Board—Mr. H. E. Kelt and Mrs. Clifton Zumwalt.—Ta-Tal (Long shord)—There's millions in it!

A woman will always cherish the memory of the man who wanted to marry her; a man, of the woman who didn't.

When a man declares: "I am sure of my wife," it means that he is sure of his wife. But when a woman says: "I am sure of my husband," it means that she is sure of herself.

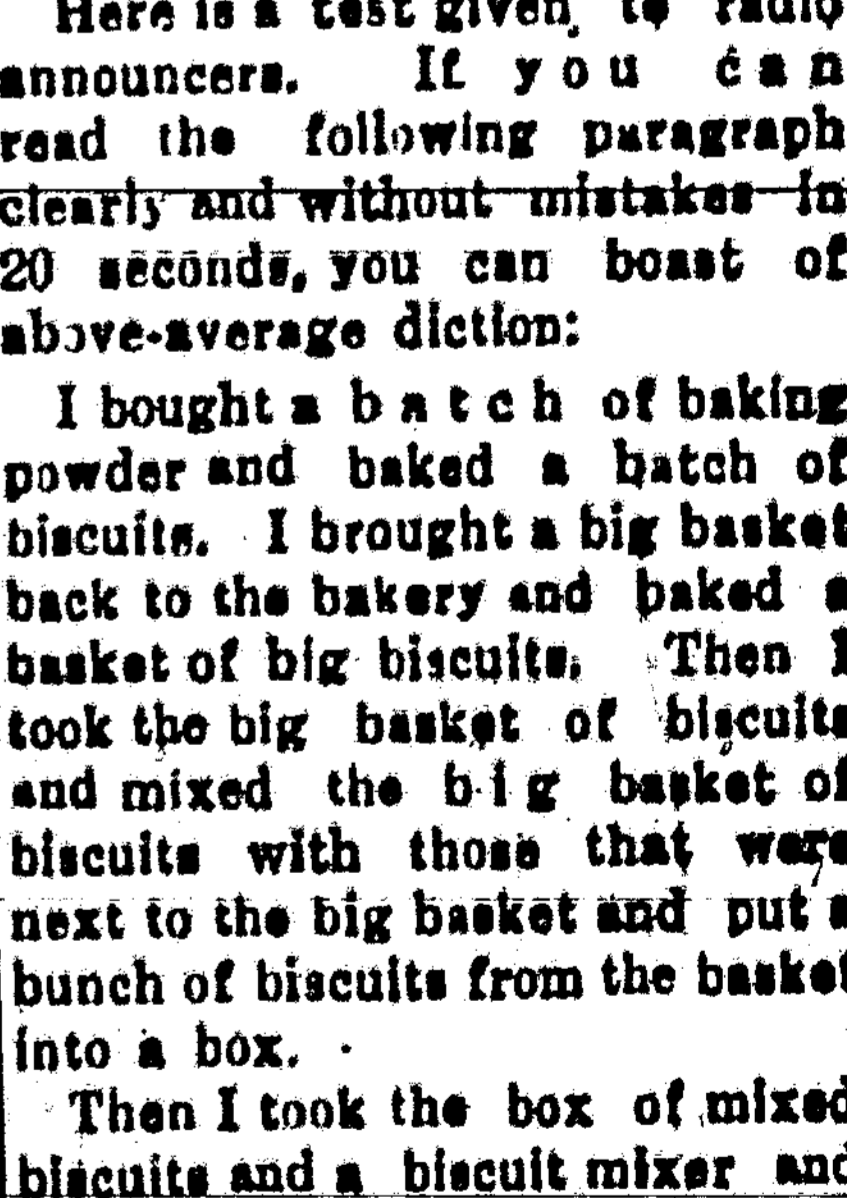

The nine-year-old son of the Commander of an American Legion Post listened open-eyed to his Sunday school teacher's vivid description of the nailing of Christ to the Cross. In the ensuing pause, with flushed face and clenched fists he shouted—"Well, where in hell were the Marines?"

Germany can be bombed to defeat—but only if enough American and British bombers fly together toward the same targets at the same time, says an exchange.

Here is a test given to radio announcers. If you can read the following paragraph clearly and without mistakes in 20 seconds, you can boast of above-average diction:

I bought a batch of baking powder and baked a batch of biscuits. I brought a big basket back to the bakery and baked a basket of big biscuits. Then I took the big basket of biscuits and mixed the big basket of biscuits with those that were next to the big basket and put a bunch of biscuits from the basket into a box.

Then I took the box of mixed biscuits and a biscuit mixer and biscuit basket and brought the basket of biscuits and the box of mixed biscuits and the biscuit mixer to the bakery, and opened a tin of sardines.—Reader's Digest.

POINT RATION EFFECTIVE MARCH 1st

Rationing of commercially canned, bottled and frozen fruits and vegetables, including juices, all soups, and dried fruits, under the point system will begin Monday, March 1. It was announced by Wm. W. Gallacher, chairman of the local War Price and Rationing Board.

Retail sales of the foods to be rationed will be suspended as of midnight Saturday, Feb 2 and registration of the civilian population for War Rationing Book Two will be conducted during the six days beginning Monday, Feb. 22nd.

The first ration period will cover the month of March. Each holder of War Board Book Two, except those possessing more than the allowable maximum of five cans, will have 48 points to "spend" for the rationed foods when retail selling resumes on Monday, March 1.

These 48 points will be represented by blue stamps bearing the serial letters "A," "B" and "C." This gives each person 8-point stamps, 8 5-point stamps, three 2-point stamps and three 1-point stamps for succeeding months will be used in alphabetical order, but the exact number of points to be allowed will not be disclosed until the preceding month.

JESUS HEALS A MAN BORN BLIND

LESSON TEXT—John 9:1-38. GOLDEN TEXT—"One thing I know, that, whereas I was blind, now I see."—John 9:25.

The love of Christ is seen in its full beauty against the background of man's hatred and unbelief. Last week we saw Him coming away from the stones with which his enemies sought to kill him...

An experience like that is impossible to deny. The healing of the soul of man in regeneration is also a stubborn fact which deniers of God's Word and God's grace are unable to meet and overcome.

II. Assurance (vv. 24-34). The appeal of the Jews in verse 24 based on their statement: "We know that this man is a sinner," reminds us that there is no knowledge so absolute (and so absolutely wrong) as that of ignorance backed by self-conceit.

Even as the stupidity and stubborn willful unbelief of our Lord's enemies grew step by step, so also did the healed man's assurance grow as he testified. First he called the Lord "a man called Jesus" (v. 11); then "a prophet" (v. 17), and then at last, "the Son of God" (v. 35-38).

III. Fellowship (vv. 35-38). He did not know Jesus. He had heard His voice, but he was blind then and had not seen Him. He probably did not know where to find Him. Then, too, he was now an outcast under the disfavor of the authorities, and even his friends would fear to be seen with him.

But Jesus sought him. Ah, that's the glorious difference between our Lord and those who look at the outward appearance of things. He went to find the man who now needed fellowship, instruction and encouragement.

He had sought the man out to heal him, now He sought him again to help him spiritually. We need to learn of our Lord that we are not to wait until the sin and suffering of men force themselves upon our attention and force us to do something.

Peeling Paint on Bathroom Walls Question: The paint on our bathroom walls is peeling badly; we should like to repaint but are afraid that the same thing might happen again.

Wallpaper Patch Wallpaper of the same pattern can be used to cover a marred place on a papered wall. The paper should not be cut, for the edges would show up in a strong light.

Ink on Wallpaper Question: How can ink be removed from yellow wallpaper? Answer: Try ink eradicator, which can be obtained at a stationery or drugstore.

Damp Bedroom Question: The room where my two children sleep has no cellar under it and the floor always is damp. What can we do?

Linoleum on Tile Question: We have a white tile floor in our bathroom but would like linoleum instead. Must the tile be taken out, or can the linoleum be put over it?

Answer: The tile will not have to be removed, but if there are any irregularities in the surface your linoleum contractor will have to level off the high spots first; otherwise, there will be excessive wear at these points.

Who Must File Income Returns

A man came to the office of the Alamogordo News-office this week to ascertain if he would have to file an income tax report for 1942. Thousands of Americans will have to report income for 1942, who never before did so.

The point in income where one has to pay income tax is not so low but there should be some funds available to pay to the government. A person who slips out of paying a just income tax seems as much of a slacker as if he fudged on the Selective Service.

Every single person must file a Federal income tax return (report) whose gross income for the 1942 from all sources was $500 or more; that is $462 per week. Widowers, divorcees, and persons separated by mutual consent, are classed as single persons.

The FBI has urgent need for women employees for assignment in Washington, D. C. It is not necessary that they possess either stenographic or typing ability; however, they must be high school graduates. Upon employment at Washington, the FBI will assist all new employees in securing comfortable living quarters.

NAVY RECEIVING APPLICANTS

SANTA FE.—Selective Service registrants in the 18-35 age group may now volunteer for service in the Navy by applying at their local Boards nearest Navy Recruiting Stations.

This has been announced by Lt. E. G. Manley, officer in charge of the Main Navy Recruiting Station for New Mexico and Southwest Texas.

The new procedure, which will continue in effect at least until February 1, allows registrants to choose the Navy as their branch of service, without waiting to be drafted.

Men entering the Navy under this method will be known as "Selective Volunteers."

To join the Navy under the new system, a registrant may apply either at his local draft board or at his nearest Navy Recruiting Station. Unless he is considered an essential defense worker, he will be permitted to carry out his enlistment in much the same way that was in effect before President Roosevelt's proclamation of December 5.

Seventeen-year-olds and men of 28 and over may still enlist in the Navy without going through Selective Service.

Lt. Manley emphasized that the new procedure for men of 18 to 28 was quite similar to the former method of enlistment.

Bessie

"All right, Bessie," said the boss of the little factory which was making jackets for soldiers. "Did you want to see me about something?" The thin middle-aged woman stood up from the chair in the outer office and looked earnestly at the boss with her huge, grave gray eyes.

"Oh, that's all right, Bessie," the boss said. "I'd been meaning to speak to you about that. We don't expect you to pledge ten percent of your pay for War Bonds like the others are doing. We know you have a hard time making ends meet since Jake died. Eleven kids, isn't it? That's quite a lot of mouths to feed. Let's see, you make $25.50 a week including overtime, don't you?"

"Yes, sir, but..." The boss smiled. "Don't give it another thought, Bessie. You've got your hands full now. Uncle Sam knows you haven't got a penny to spare. Don't let it worry you. We understand." The boss turned to go back into his private office.

But what I wanted to say was... Bessie raised her voice and the boss looked around. "I wanted to say, would a dollar a week be too little? You see, after we get the living expenses paid, there's just about a dollar a week left. Would they be willing to accept a dollar a week?"

"They'd be more than willing," the boss said quietly. "They'd be proud."

Bessie looked relieved. "All we have to do is scrimp a little," she said. "I'd feel just terrible if we couldn't give something."

Back in the boss's office a representative of the Treasury Department was waiting. The boss shut the door and sat down. "I've just seen the greatest single sacrifice I know of," the boss said. "Listen, if you want to hear what American women are made of..."

WOMEN NEEDED AS CLERICAL HELP IN THE FBI

D. A. Bryce, Special Agent in Charge, Federal Bureau of Investigation, El Paso, Texas, announced today that the FBI has need for clerical personnel, and is now affording an opportunity for women between the ages of 18 and 40 to do their part in the war effort by entering the service of the FBI at Washington, D. C.

The work of the FBI is extremely vital to the war effort, as it is the investigative and coordinating agency for matters pertaining to National Defense, such as espionage, sabotage, and subversive activities.

"That such is their deliberate desire and design," Father Ryan said, "is indicated by certain significant events: The declarations of the National Association of Manufacturers; the attitude and utterances of the majority of the metropolitan papers; the pronouncements and performances of the most powerful of the farm organizations; and the reactionary attitude of the majority of the recently elected to Congress."

NOTED CHURCHMAN WARNS LABOUR OF PERIL: Were it not for two obstacles—the Senate and President Roosevelt—all the important gains of labor would be swept away within six months. It was asserted last week by Monsignor John A. Ryan, director of the Dept. of Social Action of the National Catholic Welfare Council and internationally known economist. Father Ryan warned the nation's workers that a concerted drive against them amounting almost to a conspiracy, has been launched by "the dominant economic groups and their associates and satellites."

Civilian Defense

In order that we may be prepared in the future to cope with the rationing program to be in effect by March 1st, the Council of Civilian Defense has been called upon to institute the Block Plan to enlighten the housewives on different phases of the rationing necessity and also in the future we will need this immediately means of contacting the homes. It is planned so as to not work a hardship on any one or certain few, but there are sufficient number of zone leaders appointed so one will canvass a certain number of homes.

The Carrizozo Council of Civilian Defense has appointed Mrs. Ben S. Burns Chief of the Block Leader Service, who in turn will make her appointments, of Zone Chiefs, to be assisted by Section Chiefs, all working under the leadership of the Chief of the Block Leader Service.

The organization of this plan in carrying it out is a very important factor in helping to do each and everyone's part in the effort at home,
Local Civilian Defense Council.

Mr. John R. Curry of the Farm Security Administration has recently been appointed by the County U. S. D. A. War Board as the authorized loan representative for this area. For further information see Mr. Curry, or a member of the War Board,

Obituary of Mrs. Joyce B. Howell

Funeral services for Mrs. Virginia Dorris (nee Dabney) Howell, wife of Mr. Joyce B. Howell, Air Base, Colorado Springs, Col., were held last Saturday at 8 o'clock p. m. at Evergreen Cemetery, Carrizozo, under the direction of the Kelley Mortuary, with Rev. Roger Sherman of Roswell officiating. Mrs. Howell died February 3, 1943 at Presbyterian Hospital, Albuquerque, after a brief illness.

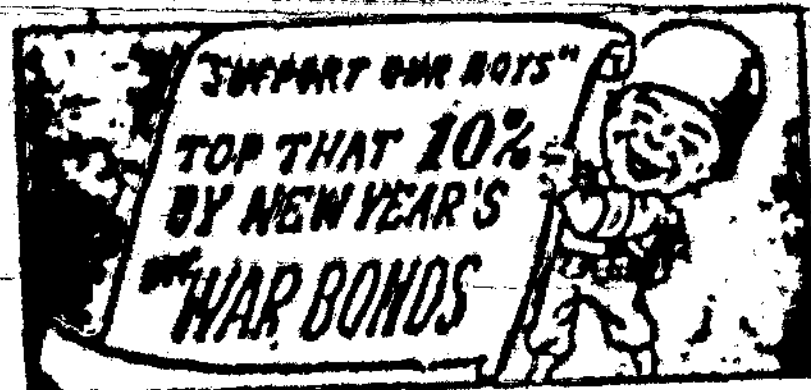

Mrs. Howell was born March 1912 in Cisco, Texas. She attended the University of Texas, where she was a member of, Chi Omega National Sorority, and was affiliated with the Presbyterian church.

Before going to Colorado Springs, she lived with her husband and daughter at Maryneal, Texas. Besides her husband, she is survived by her daughter Carolyn, and parents Mr. and Mrs. Guy Dabney, ranchers, who live near Carrizozo.

The pall bearers were Messrs. A. J. Rolland, J. W. Harkey, Andrew Gilliland, Lewis Ferris, F. A. English and L. A. Whitaker.

Methodist Church.

The Rev. Dr. I. Morgan, District Superintendent of the First Methodist Church, delivered the sermon at Carrizozo church Sunday morning. Doctor Morgan said that while there is a shortage of ministers the country over, that he will fill the vacancy here as quickly as a minister is available for placement. A visiting minister will occupy the pulpit here next Sunday.

A World Record

Where does sense end and nonsense begin. One might well ask that question about the rules and regulations that apply to buying and selling by American merchants.

How can the average storekeeper find the time to read and digest the rules and regulations that apply to ten-thousand-and-one items that his shelves and counters contain?

The marvel is that they have been able to adjust themselves and at the same time furnish the customers uninterrupted service.

No branch of business or industry has cooperated more closely with the government in its anti-inflation plans than have the local merchants, but the service they render the people is largely taken for granted, like air and water.

When industries building battleships and planes and cannon are in the spotlight and getting the flags and citations for doing war work, it is only fair to speak a word in behalf of the local merchants who render an indispensable service to every war worker who takes for granted the store will have what he wants when he wants it.

The headaches behind the counters of the local merchants are many today, and they get no medals for doing the most remarkable merchandising job at the lowest turnover profit the world has ever seen.—Industrial News Review.

Backing Them Up

In every one of our telephone exchanges there is a service emblem dedicated to the *621 men and women who worked beside us until they went into Uncle Sam's armed forces to fight for liberty and freedom.

Our prayers and hopes go with them wherever they are.

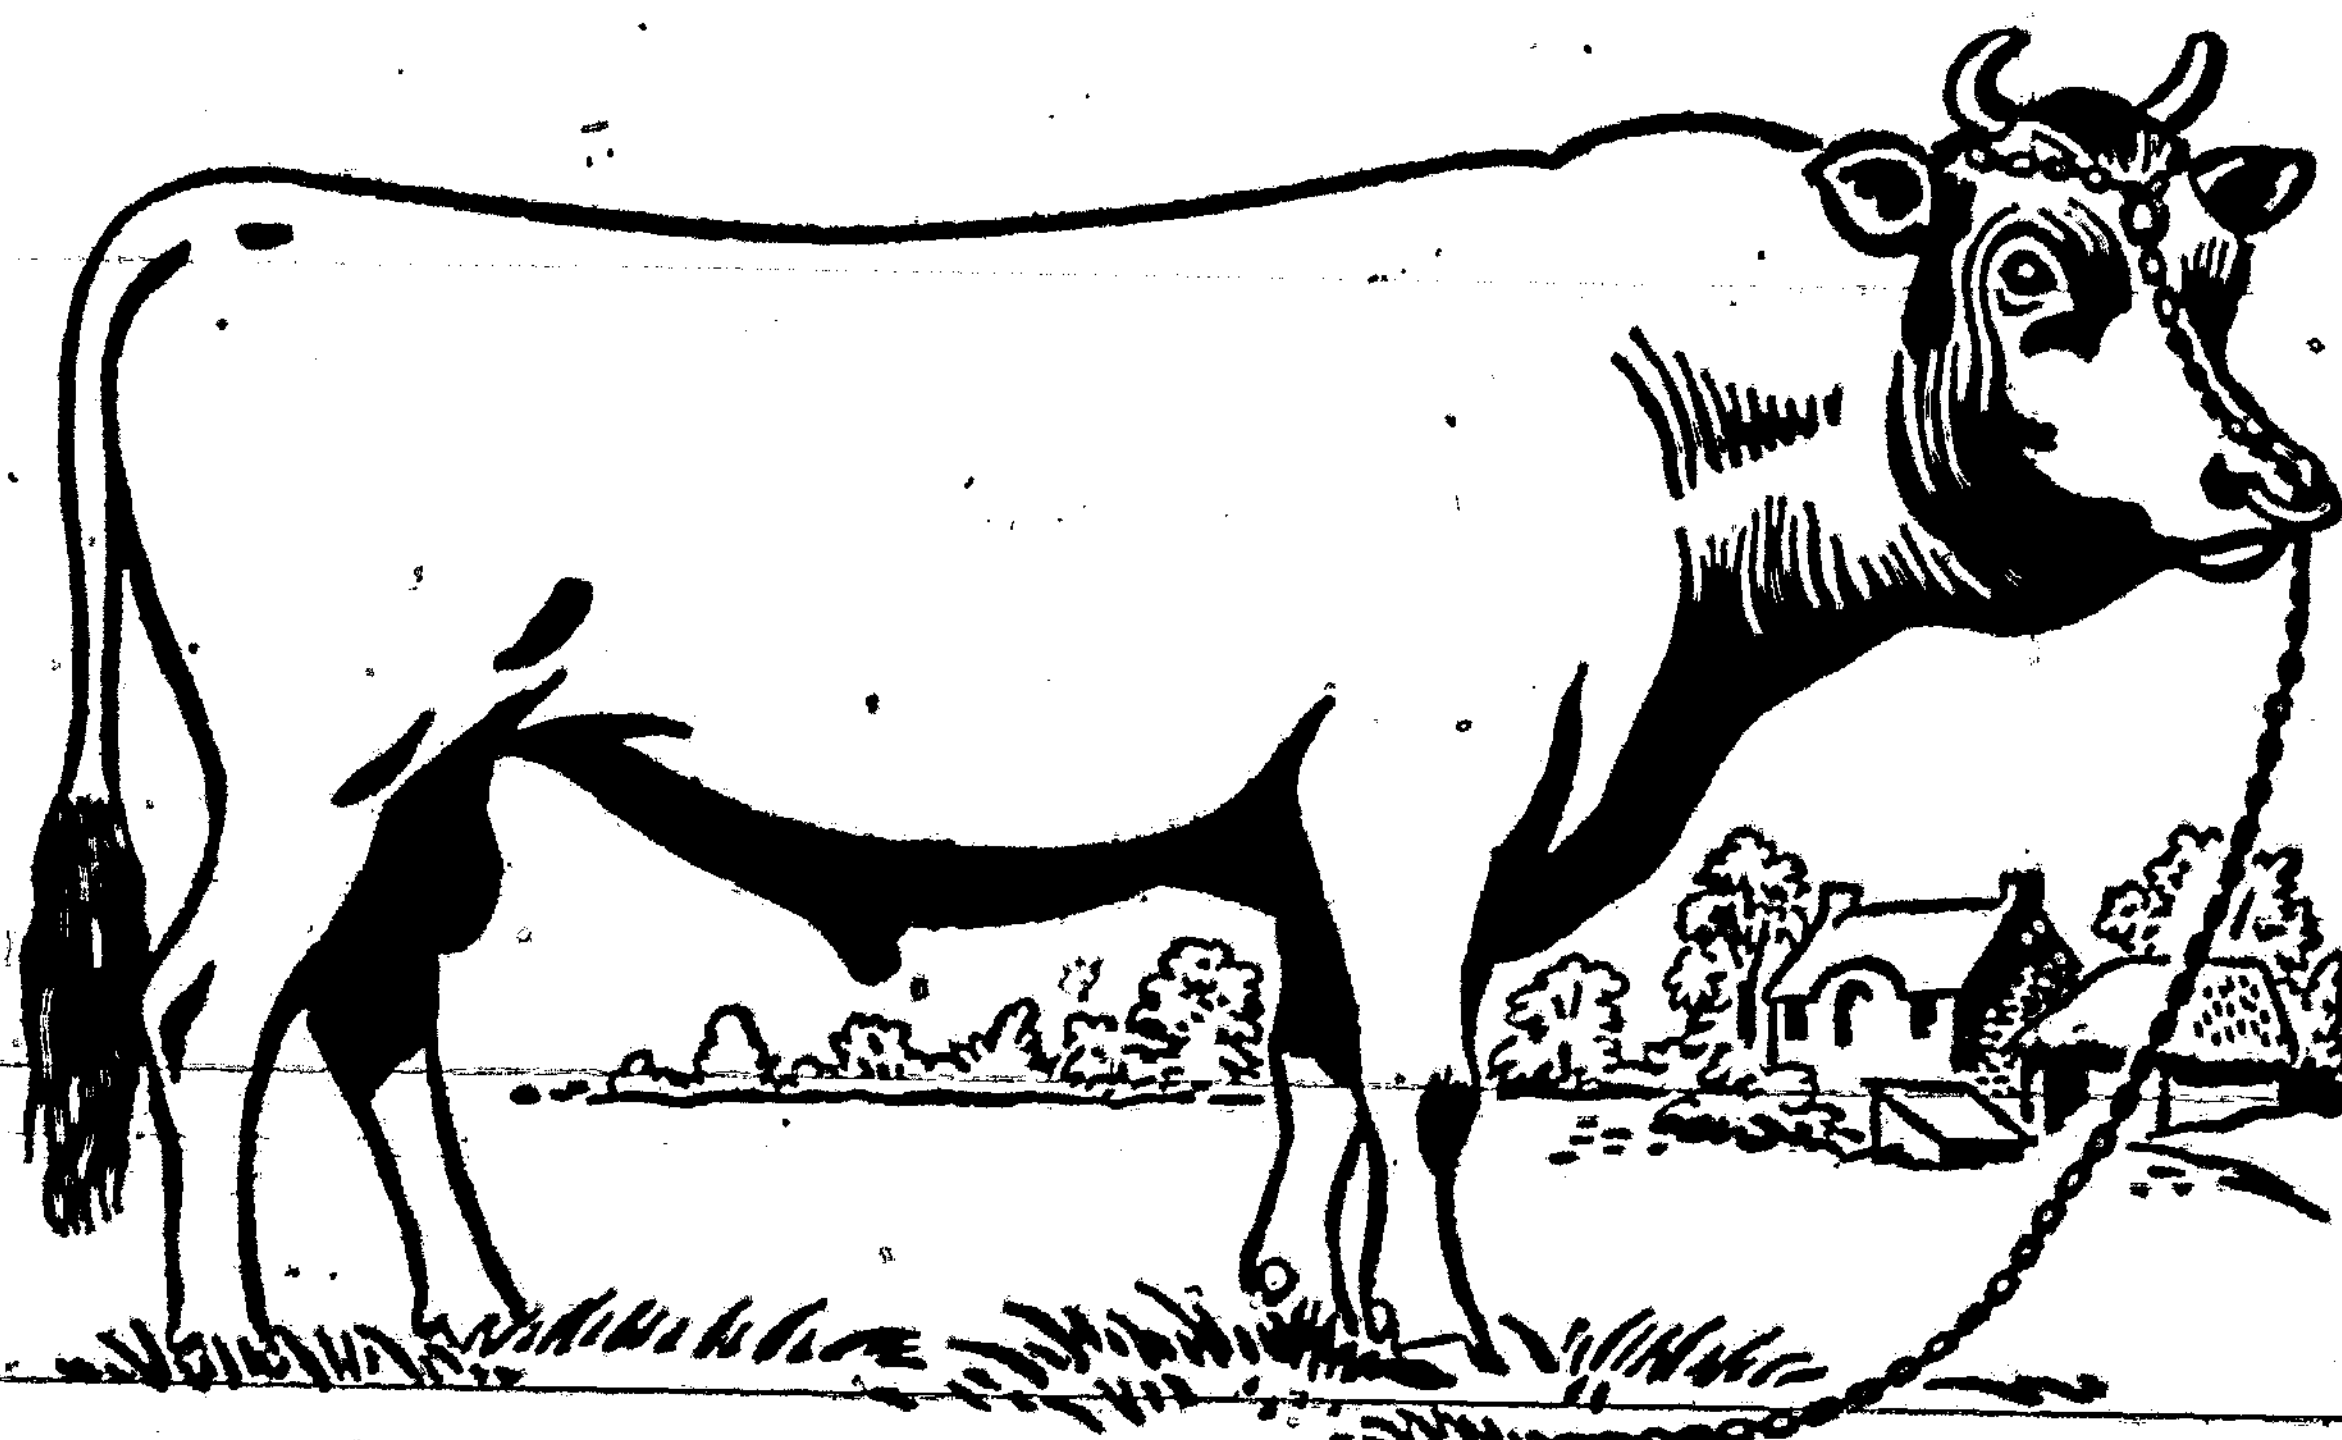

We who remain on the job, speeding an increasing volume of vital war messages from one corner of the nation to the other, are backing them up to the best of our ability.

We all look forward to that thrilling day when the telephone wires will sing with the message, "Ours is the Victory," and our folks and yours will be coming home again.

THE BULL THAT WILL NEVER GET TO AMERICA

His name is Rajah of Oaklands. Last we heard of him, he was on the Island of Jersey, a little spot of land in the Channel between France and England.

He's a great bull and breeders over here wanted him. He probably would have been imported except that one day the devils that "Heil Hitler" gobbled up the Channel Islands. Where is the bull and the fine Jersey cattle? Fate unknown. And the people—everything that they have labored for is in the hands of a devouring Germany.

This story repeats itself again and again in the wake of Axis conquest.

We must remember it in the coming weeks and months in so many, many ways. One of the ways is by buying U. S. War Bonds.

You buy Bonds today for two important reasons. First, to help your Government win this war. Second, to help yourself. For they are an investment that never depreciates in value. They increase in value every year up to maturity, when they pay a third more than original cost. And you can always cash them any time after sixty days if you want to. Buy Bonds—at your bank or post office.

If Gen. George Washington and President Abraham Lincoln Were Living Today...

What Would They Say to Their America as It Enters Second Year of a Great War?

By ELMO SCOTT WATSON

THIS month, which finds America entering the second year of the greatest war in her history, also finds her honoring again the memory of her two greatest sons...

What were their prospects of victory as they entered the second year of those conflicts—the War for American Independence and the War Between the States?

"If George Washington and Abraham Lincoln were alive today," what message would they give to the embattled America of 1943?

When the second year of the Revolution began George Washington found himself commander-in-chief of what was little better than a "rabble in arms."

Washington little realized then how soon "some unlucky event should happen" nor what a long succession of such misfortunes would befall him for the next six years.

The smallness of his army was, however, only one of his many problems. Not only were the soldiers poorly armed, poorly clothed and poorly fed...

Morale among the officers was not much better, for in their attitude toward each other they reflected all the jealousies and suspicions which had prevented unity of the English colonies in the struggle with the French and Indians.

"Washington had to face not only wholesale desertions and furious mutinies among the private soldiers, but also the most exquisitely embarrassing feuds among his officers with threats of wholesale resignations."

Such was the situation as the year 1776 opened. Up in Canada Benedict Arnold's forces had settled down to their fruitless siege of Quebec.

It was a victory for the Patriot cause, of course, but it was far from decisive. For Howe's army was still intact and there was no telling where it would strike next.

Meanwhile, outside of Quebec, Arnold's army was rotting away with cold, hunger and smallpox and by the middle of June its shattered remnants had been chased out of Canada.

While this was taking place, the

"The time is now near at hand which must probably determine whether Americans are to be Free-men, or Slaves, whether they are to have any property they can call their own, whether their Houses, and Farms, are to be pillaged and destroyed, and they consigned to a state of wretchedness from which no human efforts will probably deliver them.

Continental congress was debating independence from the Mother country and on the immortal Fourth of July it took the decisive step. Up to this time Washington had been leading a fight for the rights of himself and his compatriots as Englishmen.

That danger seemed perilously near soon after Washington had his troops drawn up on parade and the Declaration of Independence read to them. Up the bay came a British armada—400 transports and 32,000 soldiers, conveyed by 10 battleships and 20 frigates, manned by more than 10,000 sailors.

Then followed the series of disasters which was to make the "Year of Independence" one of the blackest years in the whole struggle for liberty. In August General Putnam's army was cut to pieces at the Battle of Long Island and narrowly escaped capture.

In October he was defeated at the Battle of Red Bank. In November the British captured Fort Mifflin, one of the chief defenses of the Hudson, and forced the American of a "house divided against itself" but, even in his own "family" there was dissension and disunity.

When the war began many Democrats, among them Stephen A. Douglas, steadfastly supported the President but others violently opposed a war which they declared had resulted from the election of a Republican President.

Stormy as was the political situation when the second year of the war began, the military situation was more encouraging. In the West Fort Henry had fallen, "Unconditional Surrender" Grant had taken Fort Donelson, and Farragut had captured New Orleans.

In March, General McClellan, the Union commander, had begun his Peninsular campaign "which for numbers engaged and losses suffered surpassed any previous operation in North America."

In October he was defeated at the Battle of Red Bank. In November the British captured Fort Mifflin, one of the chief defenses of the Hudson, and forced the American

PRIVATE PURKEYS SYMPATHIZES WITH THE HOME FRONT

Dear Mom.—Well I heard on the radio a broadcast of news from the United States and it made me almost as much worried about you and dad as you are about me.

Remember away back, mom, when you was just worried that I would not have enough comforts in the army and when you was always so afraid I would not be able to keep warm?

I guess them rules about jalopies is making it hard for you, although I know you ain't the kind to squawk. I hear you can't use the flivver for nothing now except in case of sickness, but I bet the rules make pop sick enough to have a good alibi if he decides to take a ride.

It looks to me like between reading automobile rules, checking tire numbers, doping out new rashing systems, trying to keep warm, and keeping track of new rulings on what you can eat, Mom, you ain't having no picnic.

I am well and strong if a little muddly. I wood feel better if I knew who was on the level over here and who was not.

Well, I see there's a ruling you can't send me no more packages unless I ask for them and get the brasshats to okay it which makes me sore. It makes me feel silly making out a list of things I wood like and reading it to a officer like I was asking Santa Claus for some presents.

The brasshat I wood have to ask is a scorpuss. He wood not okay nothing for me so I am going to tell him I want a player-piano, a barrel of beer, catcher's mitt and a polo pony from my folks. I got nothing to lose.

TIP TO SQUAWKERS ("Five sons of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. Sullivan of Waterloo, Iowa, were lost on the cruiser Juneau.")

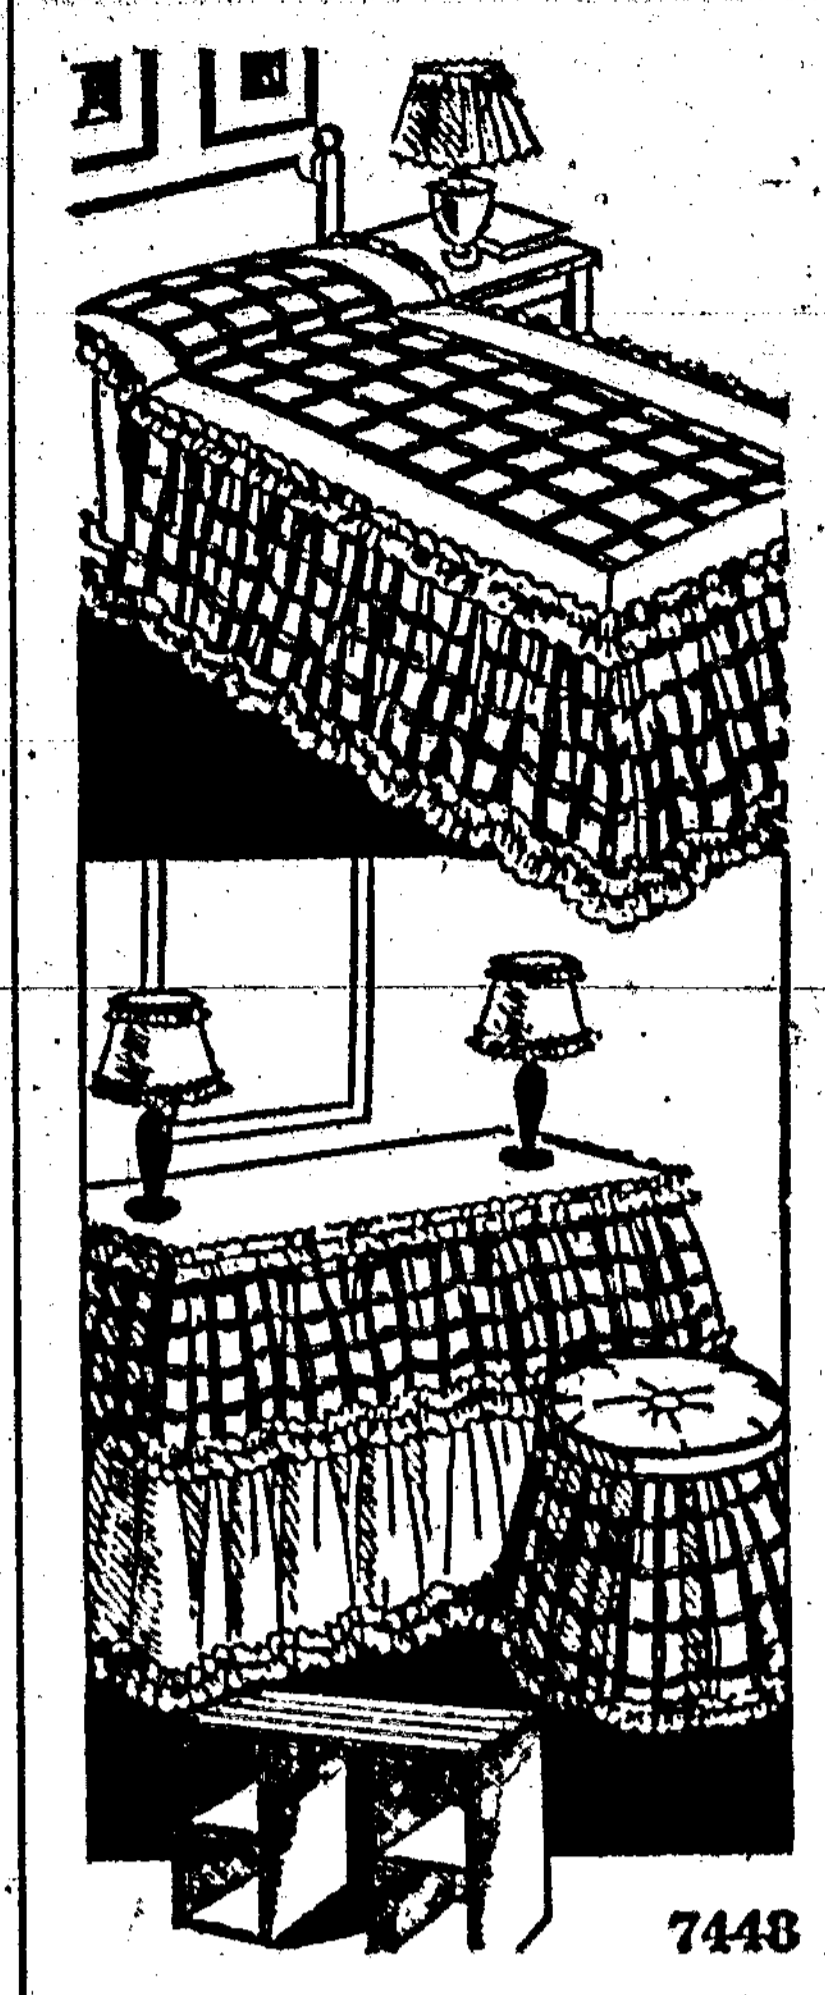

"The auto-car dealers, admitting that many autoists had called about selling their autos, said that they wanted fortunes for them."

An OPA official announces that baloney will soon be but a memory. Well, we just don't believe it. You can deprive us of a lot of things, but you will have the united opposition of the entire congress when you try to limit baloney.

Elmer Twitchell says a soldier in this war has to be between 18 and 25 in order to stand all the changes of climate.

Well, the ban on automobilism certainly gives the last laugh to the fellow who always said the auto hadn't come to stay.

Save Tin To Win

Some time this month the ration point system will begin to operate. The general public will make smaller purchases in canned foods. Make every moment count for our tin salvage program. Tin is a vital material for war needs. Much of our war machinery depend upon tin. There is no substitute. Plans are being formulated for shipment of tin cans out of New Mexico. It is your job to save tin cans and have them ready when the collection program starts. 'SAVE TIN TO WIN.'

SCHOOL NEWS

The Sophomore Class is sponsoring a box supper on February 13, at the Community Hall. The public is invited, and the auctioning begins at 7:30. Mr. Beavers or Mr. Gallacher will play from 7:30 until 8:45. Sounds like fun, so lets all be there.

"Aunt Susie Shoots the Works", the junior Class play, will be presented in the high school auditorium on Feb 26, 1943, at 8 o'clock. The play, by Feed Caldwell, is not just the usual play the average amateur group produces. It is a most extraordinary play, combining all of the qualities of a thrilling mystery play and containing a veritable tornado of laughs. The lines in "Aunt Susie Shoots the Works" are so clever that they are bound to be heard around town the morning after the presentation.

Let's all turn out and have an evening of fun when "Aunt Susie Shoots the Works!"

Mr. D. C. Slaughter is the new coach and home room teacher of the eighth grade. He graduated from Highland University in Las Vegas, majored in History and Social Science and minored in English and education. Coach Slaughter is an amateur musician, a singer and likes horses. These three things are his hobbies. Mr. Slaughter is expecting his wife and seventeen year old son, who is a senior in high school, to arrive here the last week of February. His daughter is teaching in Arkansas.

Nance R. Carothers will be at the meeting of the Woman's Club on March 19, to explain the rationing system.

In latest mail, we had a nice letter from Mrs. R. L. Hoffmyer, formerly of White Oaks, the family now residing at Duncan, Arizona. R. L. "Red," as he was known here in baseball circles, was one of our best pitchers and won many good games for us. He is now working as a mechanic in the mines at Morenci, a short distance from Duncan.
