Ruidoso Merchant Has Grease Trouble

Would like to call your attention to the subject: Fats and Greases. (We are all told to save grease and fats.)
As I run a store, a lot of grease is brought to me. My first trip to Roswell (80 miles) to deliver a few 100 lbs. (It took me two hours to find someone interested) Finally I went to the Chamber of Commerce and with their help I was instructed to leave it in rear of a certain store; (perhaps someone got it), who knows?
Same story on tin cans—all washed, mashed—but try and find someone interested.
I thought a little gossip in your paper might help, so a man would not have to spend half a day trying to find someone to give it to.—O. W. McElhenny, Ruidoso, N. M.

Falls and Breaks Arm

Mrs. Ethel Willson, who had spent the winter here went over Monday to her summer home in Ruidoso to get things in readiness for the coming season. Included in her work, was putting up window shades. In her first attempt it was necessary for her to have a stand, Mrs. Willson being a lady of hardly five feet in height. She took a small table, which made the right height, but as she began the work, she slipped and fell, breaking her left arm at the wrist. She returned here Wednesday with her arm in a sling, but suffering no severe pain. She was fortunate that the accident was not more serious.

Here Is Another Chance For Dance Fans

On the night of Saturday, May 8, the Capitan Volunteer Fire Department will give another of their popular dances at the High School Gymnasium. When the Capitan Firemen announce a date for one of their dances, fans paste such announcement in their hats so as to be sure to be on hand. The Chavez orchestra, which furnishes good music, will again please the patrons. So, get on your spring bonnets and prepare for another good time with the Capitan Firemen who have justly earned the reputation for being "Royal Entertainers."

(Gov. Regulations Puzzling)
Governor Jack Dempsey is puzzled by at least two of the war-time regulations governing food, and the great number of us who are just naturally dumb when it comes to the necessity of some of the provisions laid down by the conservationists are minded to sick him on. For example the average person doesn't get the wisdom in forcing many of the small packing houses in New Mexico to close, while the best meat animals in the world are shipping to Kansas City and processed and shipped right back again. Why throttle local industry in any such a way.
For centuries the pinto bean has been the main article of food among the primitive people. It probably always will be. The justification of a rationing system to apply to the pinto bean bears most heavily upon the Mexicans and Indians, and in the course of time will cause real suffering. Governor Dempsey also knows that the pinto is an essential with a large number of Anglos in the lower wage class, and with that knowledge he is perfectly justified in asking the OPA or whatever alphabetical it is "whatell?"

Important Announcement

Roy Shafer, who recently purchased the interest of Maurice Spear in the bean elevator and storage business, wishes to advise all farmers who wish to raise beans, that their cleaning and sacking facilities will be adequate to promptly take care of all of their needs this fall. All you will need to do is to bring your beans into the warehouse at Carrizozo and they will clean, grade and sack them. The Trinidad Bean & Elevator Co. will buy your beans at top prices as soon as they are cleaned if you care to sell.
This announcement is in the face of the government's guarantee of extremely high prices for beans this fall, should be an encouragement for all farmers who possibly can, to raise more beans than they ever have before. The government classes pinto beans among the top essential commodities for food for lend lease and the armed force.

Mrs. Hilda M. Canning
Widow of John H. Canning merchant and postmaster, died at her home April 25, after a brief illness.

Mrs. Canning came to Fort Stanton as a bride in 1890 and later resided in White Oaks and Carrizozo, leaving here for California in 1911.

Mr. Canning was one of the pioneer merchants of Lincoln County, County Treasurer and one of the framers of the New Mexico Constitution.
Two children survive, Francis R. Canning of Oxnard and Helen Odell of Glendora, Cal.; also six grandchildren.—Contributed.

We are informed that Seaman 2nd class Dick Bowlin, age 18 of Carrizozo has been graduated from the Hemphill Institute of Technology in a Diesel engineering course under the Navy Training School.

Recital

A Recital by the pupils of Mrs. Ben S. Burns, assisted by Jeanne Hall, Miss Lou Collins and Jesse Petty will be given at the Methodist Church Monday, May 3rd. No admission charge, and everybody welcome.

13 Billion 2nd War Loan Drive

Opened April 12 and will close with the end of the month. Lincoln county's quota has been set at $69,000.00. Sale price of bonds. Several types of bonds are offered for this Drive and will be counted in the quota.
All persons having savings accounts and surplus money are urged to invest it in war bonds. Lend your money now and help keep down inflation. By buying bonds you are investing your money where it is needed and the bonds will give you the purchasing power that will be necessary to stabilize the economic machinery and make it function properly in this country after the war.
The government wants 13 Billion in cold cash by the end of the month. Our money is little enough to give. Buy all the bonds you can now.
—War Finance Committee.
P. S. — Lincoln county has more than two-thirds of the quota yet to make.

Saves Life of Pet Dog

Last week in New York City, the incoming Long Island morning train was 15 minutes late and people wondered what was the cause, but on being questioned, the engineer said a small dog made its appearance after he left the Rego Park station and with all the blowing of the whistle, he still insisted on running in front of the engine and barking back at it, absolutely refusing to leave the track. This was the cause of the delay and the kind-hearted engineer decided it would be better to delay the train than to kill a pet dog belonging to some child. This is still a great country.

CHRIST'S CHARGE TO PETER

LESSON TEXT—John 21:15-17. GOLDEN TEXT—Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.—John 15:13.

Breakfast for a hungry fisherman—that is what our loving and thoughtful Lord had provided on the shore of Galilee. He wanted to talk to Peter, but He knew this was needful first. There are some folk who think that following Christ is a doleful matter, devoid of every pleasure. Jesus never taught any such thing. He attended weddings and dinners even in the homes of those despised by men. But remember that He always did it for their spiritual good, not merely for His own enjoyment; and that He always brought the gathering up to His own spiritual level, rather than stooping to any worldly or wicked standards.

Here we find Him with a glowing fire upon which fish is broiling, and with bread ready for these hungry men. It was just like Him thus to meet in most delightful and satisfying fellowship those who serve Him. Draw up to the fire, Christian friends who are standing afar off. You may be so timid that, like the disciples, you will not dare to call Him by name (v. 12), but if you will come, you will find that the precious fellowship will soon warm your heart.

With the meal over, Christ turned to Peter and in their conversation we find the latter required to

L. Face Responsibility (vv. 15-17).

With kindly persistence our Lord brought Peter face to face with his responsibility of full-hearted devotion to Him. Before service can be rendered there must be a right relationship to the Lord.

Three times Peter was asked to declare his love for Christ. Such a public confession was quite in place, before the man who had thrice denied his Lord was restored to a place of leadership. The words "more than these" (v. 15) indicate that Jesus was asking of him a high measure of devotion. It is no more than He has a right to expect of us.

The conversation after breakfast that morning was a very profitable one. One is reminded, by contrast, that few of our mealtime discussions are very useful. Many (perhaps most) after-dinner speeches and conversations yield little profit. Here is an occasion when such was not the case. One wonders whether we would not be wise to take the suggestion and turn our thoughts and those of our dinner guests to spiritual things. Surely it should be so among Christian friends and in a Christian home.

II. Feeding Christ's Flock (vv. 15-17).

We review the same verses to point out that an expression of love to Christ means nothing except as it manifests itself in service. Like Peter, we are to be diligent about feeding His flock, whether they be the young and inexperienced lambs, or the mature sheep of the fold.

We tend to specialize. Even in soul-winning some give themselves to child evangelism while others reach only adults, and would hardly think of dealing with a child. True it is that we have varying gifts, and one does one type of work better than another. But let us avoid over-specialization. Every needy soul is a challenge to us as we present the gospel.

The word "feed" should be stressed. Here again the church has frequently failed. Men and women are won to a decision for Christ, and then forgotten. Sheep must be fed if they are to grow. A teaching ministry must accompany the evangelistic effort. They belong together, and to neglect either is to fail, at least, in that measure.

III. Follow Him to the End (vv. 15-24).

Endlessly ingenious are the devices of Satan. He who had sifted Peter like wheat (Luke 22:31) and had rejoiced in the weakness of his denial of Christ, now saw him stepping out into victorious living. He heard the prophecy of the martyr's death of Peter. So he put into his heart a question. Why should he suffer? What about John? What was the Lord going to do for him?

When our enemy cannot trip us up with temptation to personal sin, he resorts to the device of jealousy. Many promising Christian workers have become useless because they have taken their eyes off Jesus and put them on the persons and work of other Christians. Doing a work which was difficult and unnoticed but very important to God, they have felt the urge to quit because someone else seemed to have the easier task and receive more recognition. The answer of Jesus in verse 22 plainly states that it is not the place of one disciple to judge the course of life of another, nor to gauge his own devotion to Christ by another's place or service.

The word of Christ to us is the same as to Peter: "Follow me." We have all we can do to live our own lives in a manner well-pleasing to our Lord.

SNAPPY FACTS ABOUT RUBBER

Street cleaners and pedicabs bind each of the four wheels to the bumpers of a Traction, H. J. was a car when the Paris is in the streets of night. It was not until 1916 that the U. S. made its first annual appropriation for Federal aid highways. Good roads, good automobiles and good drivers comprise necessities in modern motoring. It is generally believed that an average motorist spends $100 per year, whether from or near, are not particularly dangerous for other drivers, other things being equal. Another good reason for keeping to the rubber-tyred 35 mph limit. In return for their stimulated rubber growing and collecting activities the United States has secured in pay South and Central American countries from 23 to 45 cents a pound for rubber until the end of 1944 at least. Before government price freezing, rubber was selling in the U. S. at 22 1/2 cents a pound.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

If a little piece is chipped off walnut furniture, touch up the spot with iodine applied with a piece of cotton, then go over the surface with furniture polish.

To keep tacks handy, drill a three-eighth inch hole, two or three inches deep, in the handle of your tack hammer. Fill this with tacks and plug the end with a cork.

To remove fresh paint, wash fabric with soap and water. If the stain is old, soften it with lard or sponge with turpentine. Then launder. If material is nonwashable, sponge with turpentine or spot remover.

Brooms and other sweeping brushes should be hung up when not in use. For hanging, use ordinary picture wire. It wears indefinitely and being stiff will catch on hooks more easily than string.

BANKS AND THE WAR

RATION BANKING
ANOTHER WARTIME SERVICE

The government has called upon all commercial banks to help in the enormous job of handling ration coupons within trade channels. The service is known as Ration Banking. Under the plan, only merchants are concerned. They open ration coupon accounts, make coupon deposits and draw coupon checks when ordering from their supply firms. Banks handle all the accounting and transfer details. The public is not affected directly, but indirectly you benefit through smooth and efficient handling of ration procedure.

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...

"A lot of storekeepers in town are worrying about being able to get help these days. Judge. Men are mighty scarce and gettin' more so all the time."
"I know. Even the big companies are having quite a job getting them. Yep, and they need 'em too. Take the beverage distilling companies for example... they need a lot of manpower. Though they're not making whiskey any more, they're doing a 24-hour-a-day job of turning out alcohol for gun powder and synthetic rubber for the government."

"Makes me think back to the days before repeal when a powerful number of people were making liquor, too... only they were a bunch of law-busting criminals doing it behind closed doors. And the government wasn't collecting a billion dollar excise tax either. Ever stop to wonder where the government could get all its war alcohol today if it weren't for the beverage distillers?"

THE 2ND WAR LOAN DRIVE IS ON!

It's Ten Minutes to Midnight!

Wake Up, Americans... Your Country's Most Fateful Hour Is Near

THE hour when the final die is cast, when decisive victory hangs in the balance. The hour which will decide the future of you and your children... a future of joyous freedom or a future of endless serfdom.

Yes, it is ten minutes to midnight. And when the first stroke of that fateful hour begins to sound, it will be too late to throw your weight into the fight. The time to do that is NOW.

Now, when your dollars can keep the production lines humming. Now, when your dollars can buy the tanks and guns and planes and ships our soldiers need to fight a winning war... the only kind of a war we can afford to fight. Now, while there are still ten minutes before midnight.

Your country is asking you to lend your dollars in greater amount than ever before. It is asking for 13 billions of dollars extra this month... 13 billions for the weapons of war to make sure that it is our side which dictates the peace:

If we do not win, the money you fail to lend now will be worse than useless to you. If we win, as we must, the money you lend now will be returned with interest... for you to spend on the good things of life... for you to enjoy in a free and safe world.

So dig down, Americans. Answer the challenge by buying War Loan securities this month with every idle dollar you have except what you need for the barest necessities of life.

Don't wait for the War Loan Volunteer. Beat the gun by going to your bank, investment dealer, broker, Post Office, or bond booth today.

Have your money in your fist... the fist that can deliver the knockout blow to the Axis. But hurry...

For it is ten minutes to midnight...

The hour that can strike the knell of doom—or the blessed song of freedom.

Your dollars can call the tune.

While Congress has seemed to be playing politics with Gen Douglas MacArthur — probably from fear he may become a candidate for the presidency—MacArthur has been grieving for the enslaved Filipinos he promised to rescue. It was a bitter lament that he made on the anniversary of the fall of Bataan in behalf of the 16,000,000 people who had believed in him and his country.

"I was the leader of that lost cause," he said, "and from the bottom of my stricken heart I pray that a merciful God may not delay their redemption too long, that it be not again too late."

For the sake of the loyal Filipinos and for the sake of MacArthur himself and the great job he is doing in the Pacific now, he should get a better break. The victories he has won in that area, with so little in the way of men and materials, have been almost miraculous. So far, he and a comparative handful of men have done the best job since the United States entered the war.

For what he has accomplished, and for what he can do against the enemy in that area if he has full support in Washington, surely two things should be done. He should have more help for the job, and the scolding should stop.—Carloped Current-Angus.

What Is Inflation?

Do you have excess cash? You will answer, "No." But the fact remains that you do. For almost every wage earner these days has an income, in checkbook or pocketbook, well above the cost of his living, taxes, insurance and debt payments.

You never actually "bid" against anybody for a better house steak, but when you take the spending of all average Americans as a group, it's a different story. So it is important that excess money be saved rather than used collectively to bid up prices. If it is spent, instead of saved, prices soar. . . That's inflation.

Ideally, it should be invested in Government securities during the Second War Loan. "They give their lives. . . You lend your money."
