The Whirlpool of Unusual Happenings

By A. L. BURKE

If you want to see an unusual freak of a tree, go to the third Chinese elm between the fish pool and the windmill at the city park. In some mysterious manner, one of the limbs has grown into another one and the freak is so perfect that it resembles some mechanical device made with human hands. Don't try to pull it out, because you can't do it; it is there to stay.

It happened in New York, that Lena Galland, deaf mute, sued her husband, also a mute, for absolute divorce, on the grounds that the spouse called her a dummy and said she couldn't talk straight. She told the Judge that no man, even her husband, could talk that way to her. After all efforts towards reconciliation failed, she went to live with Hannah Vetterlein, another deaf mute. Several witnesses were put on the stand during the trial, none of whom could neither hear nor speak.

The recent fiery controversy between Vice President Wallace and Secretary of Commerce Jesse Jones, recalls an amusing incident which happened a short time ago, when Mr. Wallace decided to make his Victory Garden an example to others who were engaged in the same important undertaking. He had a nice garden which excited the admiration of his neighbors. In the center of the garden, he had a large pile of manure with which he had been fertilizing the spot and to be sure that people would know it was his garden, he had his picture taken standing on the pile of manure with a pitchfork in his right hand. One of his neighbors remarked that he had seen many pictures of the Vice President, but that was the first time he had seen him pictured standing on a New Deal platform.

The latter part of last week, manager Dukeminier of the local telephone station, accompanied by Albert Snow, made a trouble trip to the San Andreas mountains, which took them nearly two days to iron out. In the afternoon, when going up a canyon, they spied a badger and after giving him a chase, finally landed him. They brought him to the truck and after a lively fight, finally got him into a tool sack. Night coming on, they left him in the truck, but he gnawed a hole in the sack and escaped, but was still in the bed of the truck, where he remained until they started home. Thinking him secure, they paid no more attention to him until they made a stop and found the truck empty. Anyone losing a wild, fierce badger will please notify manager Dukeminier or Albert Snow and they will tell him just where Mr. Badger "ain't".

We had a nice letter this week from Mrs. Barney Wilson of the Ancho country, who had just returned from an Albuquerque hospital, where she had received treatment for a slight illness, from which she is gradually recovering. Mrs. Wilson told us of her son, Sgt. Walton Wilson being located in the army service at Fort Ord, Calif., and ordered the Outlook sent to him.

CAPITAN ROPER'S RODEO A SUCCESSFUL AFFAIR

Last Saturday and Sunday were banner days for our neighboring town of Capitan, July 3-4, those being the dates for the big Rodeo, given by the Roper's Club of that place.

The club has purchased 35 acres of ground two miles of Capitan, where they have a large area and a grandstand that will hold 1000 people.

At the rodeo, on July 3, the attendance was over 2000 and on the 4th, the attendance numbered over 4000. A big barbecue feeding the enormous crowds and nobody went away dissatisfied. The events which consisted of calf and goat roping, Bronc riding, steer riding, bareback riding and team-tieing, began each day at 1:30 p. m. and ended at 5. Prizes were given to the amount of $500.00 to the winners and all contests were conducted in neighborly manner, good sportsmanship prevailing throughout the entire affair. Outstanding among the ropers were, Roland Allen, Lincoln, Bill Stover of Carrizozo and Gerald Tully of

ABANDONS "NEW DEAL"

(By Will Robinson in Roswell Record)

For thirty-six years, the Clayton News has been the outstanding figure in Union County democracy, much of this time under the editorial direction of J. E. Staley, than whom there is not a cleaner or better man in the state. This latter statement is so well known that this hired man has little patience with the yapping that has resulted from Mr. Staley's announcement that hereafter the News will be "independent" in politics.

It is plainly apparent that Mr. Staley has definitely squared on the "New Deal", and does not mean to be a further party to the continuance of the policy. While according to his own lights, he concedes to all who think differently a perfect right to do as they like, he, and of course the chief owner of the paper, J. Allen Wikoff of Raton, insist upon the same privilege for themselves.

There are those who think that if Mr. Staley can no longer track with the democrats in power, that he should have gone the whole way, and have taken up the cudgels for the republicans. Such an attitude doesn't square with common sense. There are thousands of good democrats in New Mexico who are more or less bitterly opposed to the "New Deal."

In contradiction to the orders from the OPA rulings, Mayor La Guardia of New York City moved last week to supply his people with meat. He gave orders to the slaughter houses which had been idle as a result of the OPA rulings, to resume operations and supply the markets in the same manner as they did before they were put to idleness by the meat restrictions. He instructed the meat packers and slaughterers, to tell the cattle men to "go ahead" with shipments of livestock to the city for slaughter in order to relieve the current meat shortage. The OPA tried to stop him, but the game little Mayor went on with his work and now, the hotels, restaurants and meat markets in general are already receiving meat of all kinds in the great city of New York.

Ware Brazel was here for a few days this week with his family and mother, Mrs. Anna Brazel. Ware is foreman of a big ranch near Corona and comes down as often as possible to visit the folks.

Our old friend, Shorty Dawson, came in the first of the week from the Veteran's Hospital at Albuquerque, where he underwent treatment for about two months. Shorty looks fine and has gained a good amount of "beef." Keep it up, Shorty and you will soon be able to play baseball like you used to, you know.

CEMETERY WORKING—There is to be a cemetery working at Angus Saturday, July 17th.

Everyone invited to come and bring implements to work the cemetery. Also bring lunches. These fine, all day meetings at Angus are worth going a long distance for old friends to get-together again.

So all come and enjoy the day and let's clean the cemetery up good.

Singing Convention

The next singing convention of Lincoln County will be held at Corona, on the 4th Sunday of July, which will be on July 24. All who are interested in affairs of that nature are cordially invited to attend.

Colonel Jones, President.

CALLS LIMITED

Beginning Monday of this week local dairymen and truckmen of Roswell were ordered by the ODT not to accept calls for service after three o'clock in afternoons. Summing up the above condition, the Roswell Dispatch of Saturday said in part:

"The new order is similar to that imposed on garages and filling stations, in regard to the hours they may sell gasoline. We doubt very much that the ODT or any other government agency has the authority to impose hours on truckers. Unless there is a strong and wholly unnecessary policing force in the field, we suspect that the regulation will be more honored by its violation than by its observance." In conclusion, the Dispatch wonders when people will be allowed to attend to their own business affairs.

Louis C. Chavez was reclassified by the local draft board from 3 A to 1 A. He will be wearing his khakis before the month is over. Chavez is employed by the Marine Hospital at Fort Stanton.—Contributed.

We understand that Walter Burnett has deal pending with Elijah Lacey of Ancho to sell his ranch home north of Town. The deal has as we again understand, reached a verbal agreement, but the contract has not as yet been drawn up and signed.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Jenkins were here yesterday from their ranch home near Corona. From them we learned that they have purchased what was known as the Erwin ranch which adjoins the Jenkins ranch proper, all of which make the Jenkins ranch one of the finest and best equipped of any ranch in this part of the southwest.

Tall, cool glasses of Ginger Cooler will help get your daily quota of milk into your summer diets besides felling Ol' Sol on his busiest days.

Cool Salads, Drinks, Sandwiches Help Keep Family Comfortable

You will bless the sandwich, salad and cool drink ideas on those warm days when it is too hot to roast the meat and cook all your vegetables. Set the table in your coolest colors with coolest foods, and don your coolest frock, and you will be giving your family the best on the home front.

It's doubly important that you keep yourself and your family fit during these times as there are so many activities demanding buoyant health and energy. Even though the food you serve is on the cool side, make every bit of it count as far as its nourishment is concerned.

Cram the salads full of vitamins and minerals, and plan your menus to give your family a well-balanced diet. Foods served during the summer should be even more appetizing than foods served during other seasons, for appetites tend to lag.

If the family does not want to eat a great deal during the meal proper, make the snacks count. For instance, milk drinks will help to get in the pint daily for adults, and the quart for children. You'll enjoy this simple and delicious beverage:

*Ginger Cooler.

- (Makes 1 tall glass)
 - 1 cup milk, chilled
 - 1/2 teaspoon salt
 - 1/2 cup ginger ale
 - 2 to 3 tablespoons vanilla ice cream
- Pour into a tall, chilled glass. Add salt and stir in ginger ale. Top with ice cream and serve immediately.

There's something about good, old-fashioned lemonade that still hits the spot during days that the thermometer speeds to the top rung of the temperature ladder:

Grandmother's Lemonade.

- (Serves 10 to 12)
- 2 cups sugar or 2 1/2 cups honey
- 2 1/2 cups water
- Juice of 6 lemons
- Juice of 2 oranges
- Grated rind of 1 orange
- 1 cup mint leaves

Cook sugar and water 10 minutes. (If using honey, bring water to a boil, then add honey and cook 5 minutes.) Cool. Add fruit juices and rind. Pour over mint leaves.

Cover and let stand 1 hour. Strain into jar and keep in refrigerator. Use 1/2 cup syrup for each glass; fill with crushed ice and water.

Sherbet's a popular dessert, and plenty cool! The citrus fruit in this makes it even cooler:

Orange Sherbet.

- (Makes 1 quart)
- 1 1/2 cups sugar
- 1 cup water
- 2 egg whites, stiffly beaten
- 2 cups orange juice
- 3 tablespoons lemon juice

Boil sugar and water together for 5 minutes. Beat slowly into egg whites. Add fruit juices. Pour into freezing tray and set cold control at fast freezing. Freeze stiff, then beat or stir thoroughly. Return to freezing compartment and finish freezing. Serve in sherbet glasses.

Lynn Says

Point-Savers: Don't stretch those points out of joint when you're making sandwich fillings. Try these suggestions:

- Diced chicken, green pepper, pickle, mayonnaise.
- Sliced chicken with orange marmalade, or sliced chicken and dill pickle, sliced.
- Cottage cheese and crisp, chopped bacon.
- Hard-cooked egg, chopped with minced pimientos, diced green pepper, and mayonnaise and chili sauce to moisten.
- Chopped hard-cooked egg, chopped stuffed olives, mayonnaise.
- Chopped hard-cooked eggs and catsup to moisten.
- Peanut butter, raspberry jam.
- Shredded cabbage, grated pineapple, mayonnaise.

40 Feet of Rain

Much more rain falls on the windward side of the Hawaiian Islands than on the leeward side. One of the wettest spots on earth is the mountain of Waialeale on Kauai island. Its summit is usually bathed in clouds, and 40 feet of rain falls there every year.

Wolves Threaten Food Supply, Shot From Sky

Wolves are threatening the wartime food supply of people living in the Arctic circle. In less than 10 years they have reduced reindeer herds in Alaska from 550,000 animals to 170,000.

According to Mr. J. Sidney Rood, director of the United States Reindeer service at Nome, Alaska, the only answer to the menace is the employment of government aeroplanes flying low enough to permit shooting of the wolves, after the fashion of the coyote hunters of the Montana-Idaho country.

One airplane, operating only in the pilot's spare time, accounted for 30 wolves last spring in a comparatively small area.

The TIRE OF TOMORROW is here TODAY!

THE WORLD-FAMOUS FIRESTONE DeLuxe Champion TIRE IS NOW BEING MADE WITH Firestone Butaprene THE MARVELOUS New SYNTHETIC RUBBER

JUST as you'd expect, Firestone is FIRST to build the tire of tomorrow for the car owners of America. It is only natural that Firestone should be the leader in working out new processes, in creating new compounds and in building better tires from American-made rubber, for Firestone has always been the pioneer in developing new materials, new methods and new machines that have resulted in tremendous advancements in tire design, construction and performance.

From Firestone have come such revolutionary improvements as the FIRST straight side tire, the FIRST rubber non-skid tread, the FIRST commercial demountable rim, the FIRST patented Gum-Dipping Process, the FIRST balloon tire, the FIRST Saffi-Lock Cord Body, the FIRST Super-Speed Construction and the FIRST practical pneumatic tractor tire.

In 1933, Firestone built the FIRST synthetic rubber airplane tires for our armed forces. In 1940, Firestone built its FIRST synthetic rubber passenger car tires at the New York World's Fair and began the manufacture of its own synthetic rubber, called Butaprene, the same type that was later adopted by the Government. In 1942, Firestone became the FIRST company to produce synthetic rubber in a Government-owned plant and later became the FIRST to make synthetic rubber using butadiene made from grain alcohol. And today Firestone is making synthetic rubber tires for passenger cars, trucks, buses, airplanes, tractors, farm implements and all types of war vehicles.

All of these years of experience, all of the knowledge that made these FIRSTS possible have been called upon in producing the new Firestone DeLuxe Champion Tire made with Firestone Butaprene. It is now ready for the car owners of America as released by the Government. But do not think that the crisis is past. America's greatest rubber supply is still on the wheels of its 27,000,000 cars. So you must continue all of the rubber conservation measures that have been so effective. However, if you are eligible and require new tires, remember this — in mileage, in strength and in safety the new Firestone DeLuxe Champion Tire upholds the Firestone tradition of "Best in Rubber — Synthetic or Natural."

COMMENTS

"There won't be any more baptizing in the windmill pool on my pasture. Twice in the past few months my gate has been left open by Christian people, and I can't afford to chase cattle all over the county just to save a few sinners." X

Italy is preparing for a 30 years' war—radio broadcast.

Note: There won't be anything left of Mussolini's country within six months, due to the bombing.

W. L. Miller of Nogal advertised a Pick-up car for sale in the Outlook; he sold it the next day after the paper came out. It pays to advertise, quoting Mr. Miller.

Herr G. J. relates to the German people—You no longer have to fight for Hitler; you must fight to save your own neck. (Hell Hitler)—mit Razzherzes.

An old maid summoned the hotel manager to her room, pointed across the court to an open bathroom window, which framed the head of a man.

"That man is naked in the bathroom with the shade up," she exclaimed.

"Why, that's perfectly all right. All you can see is his head," the manager said.

"Not if you stand on this trunk," she exclaimed indignantly.

A little bitter with the sweet—W. C. Davis, son of Mrs. Fannie Sherrill, had his leg broken while riding a vicious bronco at the Capitan rodeo on July 3rd.

Useless information—Cheese from buffalo milk is furnished Lucia's fighting men.

Isn't It Just Too Bad?
A Rome radio broadcast complains that the Allies are not playing fair, and are using the formula of "When your opponent is down and out—kick him in the teeth."

What did Italy do to poor France when that nation was collapsing? She entered the war and stabbed France in the back, hoping for a quick victory and a share in the spoils. Wasn't it kicking an opponent when down?

If Italy really wants to adhere to sportsmanlike rules, let her confess that she is down to surrender. As long as she continues to resist she cannot complain.—Albuquerque Journal.

"There were about a million people at the Capitan rodeo on July 4th."—description given by a child.

Now that the Lincoln County Roper's Club rodeo is a thing of the past, we suggest the Sheriff's posse hold a like event sometime in the not too far distant future.

SHACKLES ARE WAITING

(Industrial News Review)
If the war finally ends with a national debt of around 350 billion dollars, the Federal budget of the future must approximate 20 to 25 per cent of the national income. The people will work a quarter of the time for the government.

The bulk of new war-manufacturing plants which are now producing war goods are for all practical purposes owned by the government. Although operated by private citizens, the government furnished most of the money for their construction. In addition, there is political pressure for permanent government control of the natural resource industries. The future presents a grim picture indeed so far as individual liberty is concerned, if a majority of people in this nation do not wake up to the terrifying potentialities of expanding government power.

The country is committed to a huge public debt which will absorb a large share of the earnings of every worker. The war made that inevitable. We have lost what might be called our financial liberty. But we still have political liberty.

Whether that, too, is lost is dependent upon the people themselves. If they permit private industries to be absorbed by government, and the stage is now set for that, the foundation of political liberty will be wiped out. Without continued private ownership and management of the coal and metal mines, the oil, power and transportation industries, together with manufacturing enterprises, under a free competitive system, there can be no real independence, economic or political for the ordinary citizen.

It is to the interest of every individual to do his part to see that industry not only remains free of government dominion, but that government pursues tax and regulatory policies which encourage private employment.

The exigencies of war have shackled our pocketbooks. But government bureaucracy must not be allowed to shackle our freedom and destroy the republic.

If you want State and National news have Fred Sanchez deliver the Albuquerque Journal to you every morning.

When Pearl Harbor burst upon us our great expanse of territory was protected by a one ocean navy of about 350 first line ships with an addition of an approximate number building.

Now we are in a five ocean war and we are required not only to pay for the building of enough ships of the line but also for hundreds of Liberty ships and auxiliary craft. The amount of money you invested in War Bonds when we had a one ocean navy was all right then, it isn't enough now. Buy more and more War Bonds.
