Roy E. Shafer has applied to the State Corporation Commission of New Mexico for a certificate to operate an Aviation charter service from Carrizozo to points within the state of New Mexico. Mr. Shafer will also operate a student transportation service for pilot training, and ranch and farm use. Said flying field is located on highway 880, close to Harry Miller's place, under the capable management of Marvin Roberts.

Mr. Shafer and associates have purchased an up-to-date plane for use in said undertaking; and commendations are in order for this group—as they are the first to establish a like venture.

Hope Close Is Wrong

(Health City Sun)

When the late lamented election wound up in a flurry of votes approving four more years of the same, this dissenting department sat down with the taste of ashes in its mouth, determined to let the country go to Hell with no help from us. We figured we would resolutely keep our big mouth shut about National affairs, and stick to our tubercular, no matter what happened. But when we were feeling pious about the firm decision we had reached, we stumbled over an AP story that Upton Close, Ace news commentator on the Shaffer Parade was going to be kicked off the air because, as he charged, pressure had been brought on NBC officials from Communist sources. And before we could do anything about it our suspicious mind jumped back to Earl Browder, who disbanded his Communist party in order to support Roosevelt. To Sidney Hillman; head of the CIO Political Action Committee known to be controlled by Communists. And to all the motel group of administration supporters traveling under the guise of Liberals, which means in plain language, boys who are liberal with political schemes to take it away from those who have it, and give it to those who do not! We hope Mr. Close is mistaken in his charge that he is being shut up because he said the wrong thing. Free speech in America is too important to free people, to be jeopardized by any group regardless of how much political help they gave to the party in power. We hope Mr. Close will dig into this matter publicly and settle once and for all the issue as to whether a man has a right to express his beliefs regardless of whether we believe they are right or not.

George Perry, the well driller, who always gets water and gets it quick, was a business visitor here Monday and made this office a friendly call. He was accompanied by Delbert Panell also of Glencoe. From George we learned the particulars of the Turkey snoot held at Capitan last Sunday. The Ropers Club provided 52 turkeys and everybody who took part in the shoot got a turkey.

Carrizozo lodge of Masons held a big communication Saturday night at Masonic Temple.

After the business session, the second and third degrees of Masonry were conferred. The work was followed by refreshments and the lights went out at 'Lew, I wolve.'

M. O. Longley, Noble Grand

Price Administration Speaker to be Here

There is to be a speaker from the Office of Price Administration at the regular High School Assembly next week, Wednesday, Dec. 6, at 8:30. It is desired that the public will attend. You have had many questions you would like to ask concerning price control and here is an opportunity to ask some one who knows.

Your local Price Panel wants you to feel free to come to them with your problems. We welcome criticism. You know there are two kinds of criticism, we welcome both and there is room for each in any effort that is doing so much good for both merchants and consuming public.

We are expecting that this same speaker will be at the Men's Club in the evening and the men will have a chance to trim them.

Spiced Fruit and Green Beans Pretty Meat Loaf (See Recipes Below)

Lean Meats

Most homemakers have already had their introduction to lean or utility beef for which they have to use long, moist heat cookery.

There is also such a grade of lamb and veal on the market. In fact, there is news which shows that a surplus of lamb and veal will soon come to market. This is lamb or veal which has not been fattened and which requires long, slow cooking to make it tender. Instead of roasting or broiling, use braising to turn it out juicy and tender. It's as nutritious, but lower in calories as the top grades of meat that have been fattened.

Seasonings play an important role in making this meat palatable to the taste. A touch of garlic with lamb is good, but there are other spices you'll want to keep on hand to make this meat good. They are bay leaves, pepper corns, capers, onions, parsley, Worcestershire sauce and mint. The recipe roundup begins with lamb loaf. Serve it plain with some of that home canned spiced fruit, or cover it with fluffy mashed potatoes to dress it up!

Savory Lamb Loaf (Serves 6)

- 1 1/2 pounds ground shoulder or neck of lamb
2 teaspoons salt
1/4 clove garlic minced or 1/4 cup chopped onion
1 cup milk
1/2 cup fine bread crumbs
1 egg
3 cups seasoned mashed potatoes, if desired

Combine all ingredients except potatoes into a loaf pan and bake in a 325-degree oven for 1 hour and 20 minutes. When baked turn out on a cookie sheet and frost with hot mashed potatoes. Loaf may also be left in pan and potatoes placed on top, then browned quickly in oven.

Porcupine Balls (Serves 6)

- 2 pounds ground shoulder of lamb
1/2 clove garlic, chopped fine
2 tablespoons butter or drippings
1/2 cup raw rice
1 teaspoon salt
2 cups boiling water
3 tablespoons flour
1 1/2 cups milk
1 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper

Brown garlic in butter. Mix lamb, rice and salt and shape into 12 balls. Brown in same fat. Pour water over balls. Cover and simmer for 1 hour. Remove balls. Add flour, salt and pepper to fat in pan. Mix thoroughly. Add milk and cook until it thickens. Place balls in sauce and serve. Noodles are a good starchy food to serve with veal and celery and parsley bring out its delicate flavor.

Lynn Says:

Treats for Today: Serve cottage cheese with peaches or pinesapple and sprinkle the top of the cheese with grated orange rind.

For male guests, serve frankfurters on toast with hot chili poured over all.

Place baked ham in between hot buttered biscuits and serve with a sauce of creamed chicken and mushrooms.

Acorn squash makes a supper dish when served with pork sausage links.

Add a teaspoon of onion juice to the gravy for added flavor.

Quick sandwich: Mix liver sausage with catsup and spread on bread. Toast under broiler.

Veal Stew With Celery and Noodles (Serves 4)

- 1 1/2 pounds cubed shoulder, breast or shank of veal, cut in cubes
2 ounces of salt pork
2 tablespoons flour
2 teaspoons salt
2 cups water
1 cup celery, cut
1 1/2 cups uncooked noodles
parsley

Cut salt pork in tiny pieces and fry in kettle until browned. Lightly flour veal and brown slowly in salt pork fat. Add salt and water. Cover and simmer slowly for two hours. Add celery and cook until tender. Cook noodles 10-15 minutes in boiling, salted water until tender. Drain. Serve by placing noodles in center of platter and surrounding with stew.

Grilled Lamb Patties (Serves 6)

- 2 pounds shoulder flank or breast of lamb
1/4 cup dry bread crumbs
1/2 cup milk
1/2 strips of bacon
1 pear halves
1/4 cup mayonnaise

Season lamb with 1/2 teaspoons salt and 1/4 teaspoon pepper. Add milk and bread crumbs and shape lightly into six patties. Wrap each with strip of bacon skewered in place with a toothpick. Place on broiler rack and broil six minutes, then turn. Add pears to rack with a teaspoon of mayonnaise in each one. Finish broiling—6-8 minutes. A pork sausage link may be used in place of the bacon, and should be placed on top of the patty. Tomatoes are perfect foil for the rather delicate flavor of lamb. In this dish, they are served with plenty of potatoes to stretch out the meat and make a hearty dish for winter.

Lamb-Potato Hot Pot (Serves 4)

- 4 lamb neck slices (about 1 1/4 lbs)
2 tablespoons melted fat
2 1/2 cups canned or stewed tomatoes
2 cups sliced onion
1 minced garlic clove
2 teaspoons salt
3 cups sliced, peeled potatoes

1 tablespoon flour
2 tablespoons water
Brown lamb in deep skillet or heavy kettle. Add tomatoes, onion, garlic and salt. Simmer, covered for 1 hour. Add potatoes and simmer for another 30 minutes. Arrange in slices on platter with potatoes over them. Blend flour and water and stir into gravy. Eging to a boil. Pour around and over potatoes.

Serving Suggestions.

When making stew arrange meat in center of platter and vegetables around it. Sprinkle all with chopped parsley.

It's nice to serve fresh toast or English muffins with plain one-dish dinners. It adds a bit of glamour to the meal.

Other hot breads that go well with wintry meals — popovers, toasted rusk, biscuits, cornbread, pecan rolls.

Desserts for wintry meals: baked apples, custard, rice pudding, with brown sugar and raisins, floating island, lemon souffle and custard pies.

WORLD-WIDE CHRISTIAN FELLOWSHIP

LESSON TEXT—John 17:18-23; 1 Corinthians 1:1-3; 12:4-7, 12, 13. GOLDEN TEXT—Neither pray I for these alone, but for them also which shall believe on me through their word; that they all may be one.—John 17:20, 21.

Unity among the believers in Christ is much talked about and desired by many in the church. They seek a single Christian communion in the world, or at least a gathering of all Protestant churches in one body. Such outward unity may be impossible to attain, and in fact might be quite undesirable if it did not express a unity of spirit and of true faith.

That fact, however, should not hinder us from seeking a world-wide fellowship of all believers of every race and creed in the unity of the Holy Spirit. The true church, the invisible body of Christ, is not divided, even though its members are scattered in many denominations. We are reminded in our lesson that whatever else may be true about us, we (that is, all believers) are united in Christ. We are: I. In the World—but in Christ (John 17:18-23).

Even as Christ was sent of the Father into the world to be the Light of the World, so we are here in the darkness of sin and sorrow to shine as lights for Him (Matt. 5:14-16). He did not pray that His disciples (and that includes us, v. 20) should be taken out of the world (v. 15) but that they should be kept from sin in the world.

So we are in the world. But let us never for a moment forget that though we are in the world we are also in Christ. He will give us—in fact He has given us—grace and glory so that we may represent Him in the world.

There is to be a oneness about believers (v. 21), not alone because of their good (blessed as that may be!), but in order that the world may know and believe in Christ (vv. 21, 23). The obvious corollary to that truth is that every evidence of division and friction between God's children is an opportunity and an excuse for the world to deny the truth of the gospel.

"Behold how these Christians love one another" was the baffled testimony of the pagan world in the early days of the Christian church. They could argue with their philosophy, and question their theology, but they had to admit that something had happened to these people which made them really love one another.

II. In the Church—but in Christ (1 Cor. 1:1-3).

The church, even in its outward form of local assemblies and denominations, has a place of great importance in the world. One could certainly not find a more wonderful body of people nor more satisfying opportunity for service than that afforded by the church.

The ones to whom Paul addressed this letter were members of "the church of God which is at Corinth," but they were what is of infinitely greater importance, "saints"—those who had been sanctified, or set apart from this wicked world, in Christ Jesus.

This glorious distinction was not theirs alone, but belonged to "all that call upon the name of the Lord Jesus in every place" (v. 2). Here again we have that fellowship and unity in the love of Christ which transcends all other relationships and which ignores the boundaries of race, color, social position—yes, even of church membership.

No matter who or where another believer may be, Jesus Christ is "their Lord and ours" (v. 2). One could shout, "Hallelujah—Praise the Lord!" for such a delightful communion of all those who love Him.

III. In Service—but in Christ (1 Cor. 12:4-7, 12, 13).

God has work to be done in the world. To accomplish that work, He gives diverse gifts to men. How wonderfully He endows and calls men and blesses them in His service! We can think of nothing more satisfying than to serve Him.

But even here we must keep in mind that the important thing is that we are not individual stars to shine in our solitary glory. No indeed, we are only a part of a great plan and purpose being carved out by "the same Lord" (v. 5). We are called, commissioned and sent by the one Holy Spirit (v. 7). We are "one body" (v. 12), baptized by the Holy Spirit into that blessed relationship, and it is that body of Christ which is at work in the world to do His will.

Nor does that in any way minimize the glory or the value of what we are called to do. On the contrary, it enhances our calling and encourages us to greater endeavor. We are not alone. We are in the Lord's service, yes; but first of all we are in Christ, and that means that we move forward with a great world-wide fellowship of those who have like precious faith.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

Leather shoes that are difficult to polish should be rubbed over with a cut lemon. They will shine beautifully afterwards.

When spiced peaches are opened this winter, be sure to save the juice. It makes delicious basting for broiled or browned sausages.

Less bacon will be needed to season baked beans if it is run through a food chopper before adding to the beans.

Cover discolored ceilings with a solution of thick starch. Let it dry and then brush off—and the marks, too!

Orange or lemon rind may be grated before squeezing the fruit for juice and dried for later use. After grating, place where it will dry thoroughly and store in a tight container.

Predicts Increased Investment By American Farmers During Sixth War Bond Campaign

WASHINGTON, D. C.—A prediction that American farmers will invest more money in bonds during the Sixth War Loan than in any previous drive was made today by the War Finance Division of the U. S. Treasury.

Farmers bought $250,000,000 worth of War Bonds during 1943, according to the Bureau of Agricultural Economics. In 1944 it is believed they can and should purchase a total of $2,000,000,000, Ted E. Gamble, national Director of the War Finance Division, said.

Income at Peak
 The Sixth War Loan, starting November 20, comes at an ideal time for agriculture, he pointed out. This is not only the time when farm income is at a seasonal peak, but 1944 marks three years of record breaking farm income, he said.

Based on information obtained from the B. E. A., the Agricultural Section of the War Finance Division estimates the 1944 cash farm income at $20,600,000,000, compared with $20,000,000,000 in 1943.

Although net farm income, due to higher operating costs, may not be greater than in 1943, most farmers now have reduced their debts and consequently will have more money to put into War Bonds, the division reports.

In the twelve months ending January 1, 1944, farmers reduced real estate mortgages alone by $850,000,000.

Bank Deposits Gain
 After paying all operating costs and necessary family expenses, farmers will have left this year for the first time, and debt reduction over $3,000,000,000, the Agricultural Section also estimates.

Because of the fact that new machinery is not obtainable, farm deposits are piling up in rural banks. Demand deposits held by farmers in these banks are estimated at $4,500,000,000 and time deposits at $2,000,000,000. Since the new method of redeeming Series E Savings Bonds makes them as liquid as a dollar bill, it is no longer necessary for the farmer to maintain a large bank account to meet possible emergencies, Mr. Gamble stated. Therefore, he believes farmers will convert part of these deposits into War Bonds.

Ted E. Gamble

War Bond purchasers will provide a farm financial reserve to protect against damage by drought, flood or livestock disease, will assure cash to replace and repair buildings and machinery as well as to build back soil fertility depleted by wartime food production, and will provide funds for education, vacations and old age security.

The high farm income this year is the result of the huge increase in farm production to meet wartime food needs rather than a rise in prices, which have been held down by the OPA it was explained.

Next time you hear a Southern Pacific train whistle in the night, think of it as something more than a lonely, haunting sound. It is a reassuring sound—a promise that even while you sleep, the war trains are rolling. It's the confident voice of an industry that's doing the biggest job in its history, and will be in there pitching long after the war is over.

Wouldn't you like to know the language of the train whistles? Below we show you:

What S. P. train whistles mean

We haven't room to explain all the whistles, but here are the commonest ones. The "b" stands for a short sound, the dash means a longer sound.

■ ■ ■ ● ■ Warning whistle when train is approaching a highway crossing.

● ● ● When train is running, this means it will stop at next station, which is not a regular stop. If train is standing still, this signal warns that it is about to back up.

■ One long whistle is sounded a mile before train reaches stations, railroad crossings, drawbridges, etc.

■ ● ● ● Signal for brakeman to protect rear of train. He must go down the track with necessary flagman's signals.

● ● ● ■ Signal for brakeman to protect front of train.

■ ■ ■ ■ ■ This signal orders brakeman to return from the west.

■ ■ ■ ■ ■ This signal recalls brakeman from the east.

■ ● ● This tells other trains that a second section is following.

● ● This is the engineer's answer to most signals from other trains.

● ● ● ● ● A succession of short sounds is a warning to persons or livestock on the track.

Big Allied Winter Push Aims At Heart of German Industry; WFA Sets Food Goals for 1945

Released by Western Newspaper Union. (EDITOR'S NOTE: When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of Western Newspaper Union's news analysis and not necessarily of this newspaper.)

With President Roosevelt, Prime Minister Churchill and Marshal Stalin scheduled to meet soon, there again has been a resumption of discussion as to the future disposition of Germany. On the basis of the latest information, the Reich might well be reduced to half of its 1938 size...

EUROPE: Big Push

Using their superior forces to prevent the Germans from building up strength for next year, the Allies launched an all-out drive against the enemy's west wall, moving forward toward the vital industrial Ruhr and Rhineland despite wintry weather...

MISCELLANY

The untimely death of Quartermaster Allen Shafer of Wisconsin in a game against Iowa was the first collegiate fatality due directly to football since 1940. Reflecting high business activity, money in circulation jumped up nearly $400,000,000 dollars in October...

CHURCH LOANS: Aid Homesteading

As a result of a homesteading program financed by the board of national missions of the Presbyterian church, farm families are settling on property purchased on extended terms of 30 years, with down payments deferred from one to three years, if practicable.

In addition to homesteading, funds may be used for the acquisition of forest lands for the benefit of the whole community, or for loans to improve home and farm equipment. Funds also have been utilized for awakening interest in farm ownership through the provision of general education in proper farming methods and advice in selecting suitable crops.

Under the homesteading program, an application is approved by the pastor and three elders of the church, with the prospective owner agreeing to cultivate the land and raise self-supporting crops.

Farm Values

Despite increases in the value of farm land since the outbreak of the war, the over-all situation remains spotty, with prices reaching inflationary proportions in some sections while rising to fair figures in others unduly depreciated during depression years.

Considered, in all its aspects, farming has risen from a 49 to a 70 billion dollar industry since the war began, with value of land and buildings totalling over 45 billion dollars, crop and livestock inventories over 15 billion dollars, and liquid capital about 12 billion dollars.

Making good use of wartime prosperity, farmers have whittled mortgage debts down nearly a billion dollars since 1939, with the figure now standing at about 5 1/2 billion dollars.

Wonder Show

With America's learned scientists behind the test tubes looking more and more into the substances of matter, wonders may never cease.

Already the list of accomplishments runs high, as evidenced at the National Chemical exhibition in the United States in Chicago, Ill., where lightweight and weather-resistant plastic magnesium furniture, lawn sprays which kill weeds but spare grass, and women's synthetic clothes, were on display.

LAND REFORM: Split Polish Estates

Carrying out its policy of agricultural reform, the Moscow sponsored Polish committee of national liberation divided up 5,000 acres of land owned by Count Alfred Potocki among 1,050 families.

At the same time, the liberation committee announced that it had taken over the Potocki family's Lencut castle, which would be converted into a museum. All together, Count Alfred Potocki, a prominent industrialist said to have fled to Vienna with the Germans, owns 75,000 acres.

POLITICAL ACTION: CIO Success

With 110 congressional members elected with the support of the political action committee, the CIO declared that the victory demonstrated the effectiveness of labor's first big organized effort in a campaign.

Whether the PAC would be continued was considered at the CIO convention in Chicago, Ill., where union leaders called for support of their fight for higher wages and demands for industrial, labor and government planning for provision of 60,000-800 postwar jobs.

Declaring that the election of the 110 candidates backed by it assured the presence of an "improved congress" for the next session, the CIO said that its PAC "proved to be the decisive factor because it did the organized, door-to-door work that brings success in a campaign."

Quotes

"If full employment is not achieved under our free enterprise system (after the war) then the people will demand something different. It is clear, I believe, that if we fail we shall pass to some form of planned and regimented economy. We shall lose our economic freedom. We shall become dependent upon government and government expenditures, with continuous deficit financing to support the economy, expand employment and thus systematically increase national income."

Washington Digest

Senate Setup Promises Postwar Treaty Approval

Defeat of Ardent Isolationists Assures Smoother Sailing on Program for Cooperative World Organization.

By BAUKHAGE, News Analyst and Commentator.

WNU Service, Union-Trust Building, Washington, D. C. Washington, in these weeks of preparation for the forthcoming meeting of the Big Three, has gradually begun to realize that the result of the November election, whatever its effect on domestic politics may be, placed America face to face with the greatest problem in the field of foreign affairs that this country has ever attempted to solve.

And regardless of how effective the efforts of our statesmen may be there is no question that the people have placed behind them a pledge of harmonious support.

The President will sit down at the meeting, probably somewhere in the Middle East, with Prime Minister Churchill and Marshal Stalin, with the most specific mandate as to foreign policy ever given a President by the people of the United States.

America's representatives at the United Nations conference, which will probably take up the unfinished business started at Dumbarton Oaks, will enter discussions with the greatest military force and international prestige that any of this country's diplomats has ever enjoyed before.

When the United States senate starts deliberations on the agreements which grow out of the parleys of the Big Three (or Big Four) and the later meetings of the United Nations' representatives, that body will have what now appears to be the necessary two-thirds majority of senators whose constituencies have expressed themselves in favor of broad international cooperation.

The people have spoken. It now depends on the wisdom and the ability of their servants to produce the kind of a plan for the postwar world which will be at once thoroughly American in principle, acceptable to our friends and effective against our enemies.

A brief review of the new complexion of the senate reveals how strikingly the people spoke in favor of international cooperation.

Trend Evident Before Election. The trend became evident before the election in four primary contests, and bipartisan support for the policy of international forces was achieved and cooperation has been reinforced by other circumstances as well.

Another defeat in the primaries was that of Senator Worth Clark of Idaho, whose opponent (now Senator-elect Taylor) campaigned on a strong internationalist platform, the first to win on such a program in this state so strong in the Borah tradition.

Another ardent isolationist to fail renomination in spite of his splendid record as a skilled legislator was Bennett Champ Clark. His fall was a mighty blow to the isolationist cause since he was a member of the Nye nominations committee, composed of Senator Nye of North Dakota, Clark and Senator Bone of Washington, a group which for years has been the well-spring of emphatic anti-internationalist speech and action.

The other two members of this group have departed likewise: Senator Bone was appointed to a judgeship in his home state; Senator Nye went down to defeat before the three-times governor of North Dakota elected on a clear-cut international platform.

Another breach was made in the nationalistic front by the withdrawal of Senator Reynolds of North Carolina who, like Senator Bone, left voluntarily.

There were two other defeats in final senatorial contests to be noted. Senator Holman of Washington mentioned in the famous book, "Under Cover," for his alleged ultra-nationalist leanings, was replaced by Wayne Morse, a Republican who leans well toward international cooperation, and the well-liked Senator Danaher of Massachusetts who went down before the aggressive campaign of Brian McMahon, one of former Attorney General Homer Cummings' assistant AGs. There are certain other points worth noting.

On the Foreign Relations Committee whence must come approval for international commitments, Senator Reynolds and Senator Bennett Clark and Nye are removed. In any case, however, the removal of Senator Nye, who was chairman of the powerful committee on committees, means that such new appointments as are made will not be influenced by the North Dakotan's extreme views.

Other factors make for support of the administration. The election has greatly strengthened the prestige of Senator Ball of Minnesota who was most active in the fight to get the original resolution favoring an international peace organization before the congress and the people. Similar increased influence in the senate will be exerted by former Representative Fulbright who fathered a like resolution in the house.

A look at the Republican leadership in the upper house is worth while in this connection, too.

GOP Minority Promises Moderation

At present a quartet of leaders with Senator White as their nominal head are at the helm. Of these Senator Taft, although usually rated as strongly nationalistic, is after all on record as favoring the old League of Nations in principle, criticizing only the fact that its members failed to carry out their promises. Another of large influence, Senator Vandenberg, has done a great deal to interpret the trend of popular sentiment in the middlewest away from a rigid nationalist viewpoint. He worked to that end in the Mackinac conference, and at the Republican convention last summer. He did yeoman's service in cooperation with Secretary of State Hull in obtaining senate support for UNRAA.

Without the help of these Republicans and their colleagues, and of course Senator Austin and Senator White, the administration could hardly get a two-thirds vote. This more conservative element will also furnish a valuable check against efforts toward extreme internationalism on the part of the administration which might turn the people against the administration and thus defeat its own purpose.

Perhaps the task of checking aggression is too great for human hands and human minds to achieve. But never before in our history has America had such an opportunity to lead the world toward the goal of good-will and peace among nations.

In all the various discussions concerning the restoration of sound currency conditions in the postwar period, the British balance of payments appears as one of the chief stumbling blocks, the Alexander Hamilton institute points out. As a result of the war, the balance of payments of Great Britain has witnessed a material deterioration.

The foreign trade of the country has shown a large excess of imports over exports which, before the institution of lend-lease, was met primarily through the shipment of gold and the liquidation of British-owned foreign assets. It is estimated that, during the war, Great Britain has lost approximately $4,000,000,000 of some of the best foreign assets held by British nationals.

The loss of income from these foreign investments has naturally had an adverse effect on Great Britain's balance of payments and, unless it is counteracted in other ways, it will reduce her ability to buy merchandise abroad. In normal times, Great Britain received about $300,000,000 from her foreign investments. An additional $400,000,000 per annum was received from British shipping. Substantial sums were also earned each year by British insurance companies operating all over the world and by the financial operations of the city of London.

Since the poorer foreign investments remain in British hands, it is difficult to determine with any degree of accuracy what the returns on these investments will be in the postwar period.

BRIEFS... by Baukhage

Labor-management production committees are now operating in more than 5,000 war plants. Geographically isolated from the rest of the country by the Rockies, California before the war had more than enough oil for domestic markets in the West Coast states. In consequence, it developed a substantial export market in the Far East.

A nation-wide contest for a popular song that will "stir up the people's fighting spirit" has been announced by the Japanese Information board. Fruit juices will be available in concentrated form, like candy, after the war, when it is expected there will be an oversupply of these products.

SNAPPY FACTS ABOUT RUBBER

Add ordinary cow's milk to the possible sources for rubber. Chevrolet, it recently was announced, have developed a product from milk which has the characteristics of natural rubber.

When the rubber tapper goes into the South American forests to work, he requires about 100 Hens of equipment and some 40 different items of food. And they say life in the rubber jungle is simple!

Test fleets of motor vehicles are driven 150,000 vehicle miles a day to develop "hogs" in synthetic tire construction. Their mileage is about six times around the earth.
