PRICE $2 THE YEAR

PERSONALS

Miss Sally Silvers of Ancho, graduated from the San Marcos, Texas high school with the class of '45.

Lost: May third between Carrizozo and Duran one brooder cover. Any one finding same please notify H. W. McMullan, Carrizozo, N. M.

Miss Patsy Dolan is home from the Albuquerque Business College which institution she attended for the past term and is here for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Collier were in town first of the week. They visited Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Goodson while here. Clyde was on his way from Phoenix, Ariz. to Hobbs, N. M., to work.

Miss Mary Lou May, 1945 graduate and Valedictorian of the Carrizozo High School, has accepted a position as stenographer with the local office of the State Welfare Department.

Mrs. June Kerr of San Mateo, Cal., is visiting her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Rentfrow and will remain for about one month. Her husband is in the Navy, somewhere in the Pacific.

L. T. Williamson of Jicarilla and niece Miss Jane Wallace of Kansas City were here Saturday. Mr. Williamson has a group of valuable mines at Jicarilla and will soon start a mining boom in that locality.

Mrs. Lucille C. Patterson, supt. of the Lincoln county schools, attended the New Mexico Conference on Education held in Albuquerque April 27. This meeting was well attended by superintendents from all over the state.

John H. Bryan, small sons Harold Cecil and Clifford Vernon were here from Corona Saturday. Mr. Bryan is employed at the Airbase near Alamogordo and resides at Tularosa to which place he ordered his Outlook sent.

In a letter from Paul Aguayo, formerly of Nogal, but now on a ranch near Belen, he tells about how well he likes his new home. He said among other things, that the grass on his ranch is stirrup high. He sends best regards to old friends in Nogal and Carrizozo.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Seideman of Nogal were here Monday and notified us to advertise two good milch cows for sale, also a good gentle work horse. Mr. Seideman has a tractor, which does his work on the farm, thus giving Mrs. Seideman and himself time to go trout fishing in the nearby mountains.

Roswell Merchants Honor Carrizozo H. S. Graduates

We wish to call your attention to the full page ad on page 5 of this issue, where the merchants of our friendly city of Roswell are sponsoring the space in honor of the graduation class of 1945. Among the different business houses, you will find many whom you know and some were former Carrizozo residents. When in Roswell and stand in need of anything that you can't buy at home, they will be pleased to see that you get what you want in the different lines of merchandise they are advertising. So does our neighboring merchants bestow the honor of taking page 5 to offer their congratulations to graduates.

Joseph Reeves

On Jan. 23, 1914 at Garrison, Texas, a little boy, Joseph Wheley Reeves was born. There he spent his childhood days and attended school, where he finished the 10th grade; left school to help his father farm.

At the age of 21, enlisted in CCC at Corona, here he met, loved and married Juanita Hodge Dec. 26, 1938. To this union was born two children Joseph Frank, age 5, Wanda Blanch, age 2. Spent next two years in Houston, Texas, returned to Corona, spent the rest of his life on the ranch.

He was a friend to all and loved by every one. Devoted to his family and home.

He was struck by lightning while at work on the evening of April 20, 1945.

His work on earth was finished. The Lord in this, his merciful way called him home. His remains were laid to rest in Corona Cemetery April 23, 1945.

Ralph Bonnell, Tom Babors and Roland Allen were here Monday from the Glencoe country in the interest of the big Rodeo, which the Lincoln County Roper's Club will give on the dates of July 3-4, at the Rodeo grounds near Capitan. If you want anything done well, leave it to the Roper's club.

Card of Thanks

I wish to thank everyone for their many deeds of kindness and beautiful floral offerings, during the loss of our dear husband and father. May God bless you all.

Mrs. J. W. Reeves and Children.

Burton Fuel Yard

Will unload a car of Dawson Nut and a car of Dawson Grate coal this week.

You can get the size you want by ordering early.

Also save money by having coal delivered direct from car.

Play Ball!

Plans are under way in Carrizozo for formation of a kid's baseball team to enter the American Legion Junior Baseball Program tournament at Albuquerque in August. It is believed that a worthy kid's team can be whipped together in Carrizozo to try to wrestle the State title which has been a monopoly of Albuquerque for a good many years. Who knows... maybe the State championship team to represent New Mexico at the regional tournament in Colorado this year will go from Carrizozo. The local American Legion post promises 100% cooperation in sponsoring the tourney team. Mr. Roy Shafer, Chairman of the County Commissioners, has promised that the county grader will soon get the ball park in shape to play on. Mr. Art Roland has donated baseballs. Other equipment is needed. If you have any around your place not being used and care to donate to this cause call the Welfare office at the Courthouse and someone will pick it up. You may be sure that it will be put to good use. Most important are players. Any boy in Carrizozo under 18 who wants to play ball is asked to go to the Carrizozo ball park any evening after 5:30 to try for a place on the teams. As many teams will be formed as there are boys to play. So, let's play ball!—A. S. Chavez.

Dinner Party

Mr. and Mrs. Lon D. Merchant assisted by their daughter and husband Mr. and Mrs. Grady Eldridge entertained with a delicious dinner last Sunday at their lovely ranch home northeast of Capitan. The table with a lace cover and center piece, of multi color pansies was laden with delicious food. A very pleasant day for all present.

Guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Atkinson, White Oaks; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Radcliff, Carrizozo; Mr. and Mrs. Alie Stover, Carrizozo; Mr. and Mrs. George Goodson.

Episcopal Service

Bishop J. M. Stoney, assisted by Rev. Stueiland of Fr. Stanton held Episcopal church services at the Methodist church Monday evening at 7:30.

Voight-Barnes

April 30, about 7:30 p. m. in midst of a thunderstorm, rain and hail, Mr. Densmore Barnes of Carrizozo and Miss Winona Voight of Claunch hurried into the Baptist parsonage to get married. O. L. Oldham, Baptist pastor performed the ceremony. J. Conahay and Iva Fry Voight witnesses.

Cancer Control

The drive to secure funds to aid in the fight against that dread disease has been extended to May 15. The boxes for you to drop your dimes, quarters or any amount you wish to donate to this worthy cause will be appreciated.

Extension Club

Clothing Drive

Members of the Hondo Extension Club took the initiative in the Hondo and Ruidoso Valleys in sponsoring Drive in the rural areas during the month of April. Members of the Extension Club and the Friendly Club made six quilts; in addition to serving as leaders in collecting various garments in that area.

Part of the collection was brought to the last meeting of the club and was delivered to Mrs. Henry Hoffman, in Carrizozo to be turned in with the Carrizozo collection. Other members turned in their collection at Ruidoso.

Notice to the Public

The Carrizozo Volunteer Fire Department requests the assistance and cooperation of the public at all future fires within the limits of the Village of Carrizozo as follows:

1. All cars pull to the right curb when fire sirens blow and remain until Fire Truck and firemen have reached fire.
2. Park car one block away from site of fire.
3. Outlookers remain across from site of fire.
4. All persons not members of the Fire Department leave hose and equipment alone unless asked to assist by a member of the Department.
5. All persons not members of the Fire Department stay off Fire Truck.
6. Do not drive on or across any Fire Hose.
7. Please do not burn trash on windy days and such fires should always be attended and seen that they are thoroughly extinguished.

These requests are made because of several careless acts of the Public during the past few weeks. On one occasion a passenger car ran over the hose, bursting it and causing a lack of water at the fire. On another occasion a pickup parked on the hose shut off the water for several minutes. One parked their car in a street intersection causing a collision with the Fire Truck and considerable delay and confusion.

The Carrizozo Volunteer Fire Department is a volunteer organization and members must drop their work and get to the fire as soon as possible. If the public will cooperate by abiding by above mentioned requests, the efficiency of the Fire Department will be greatly increased and the necessity of enforcing the ordinance and levying fines against persons violating the City Ordinance relating to Fires will be unnecessary. Henceforth Ordinance No. 28 will be enforced and the public will be required to adhere to said Ordinance.

The Fire Warden and Fire Department will inspect all Public Buildings for Fire Hazards.
Carrizozo Volunteer Fire Department.
Fay Harkey, Chief.

Hondo Extension Club

The Hondo Extension Club met April 25th at the home of Mrs. Victoria Watson on the Ruidoso. Our gracious hostess served lunch to all present. Mrs. Ora Pfingsten had charge of a very interesting program on "Shortcuts in Housekeeping" Mrs. E. W. Nelson, president of the club, took charge of the business meeting. Mrs. Harris read the secretary's report. Reports were heard from the various committees on their duties. The program continued with talks made by Mrs. Bonnell. "Hints for prevention of accidents in the home". Mrs. Watson "It takes a heap of livin' in a house to make a home" with more thought to the little things that tend to make living more cheerful. Mrs. Radcliff "How to cut down on household tasks by keeping the house orderly with everything in its place. Mrs. Taylor "Hints on the care of household appliances". Hazel Perry "Sitting at work with stool, table and sink at proper height saves energy, comfort and convenience, increases efficiency" Mrs. Thomas "Keeping cleaning equipment in good order, clean and handy saves time and unnecessary steps". Mrs. S. M. Houston of Tinnie is a new member of the club. We had two guests, Mr. and Mrs. Radcliff and twenty-two regular members.

The next meeting will be held May 11 at the home of Mrs. B. J. Bunnell at Glencoe. The subject is "Sewing Machine Clinic" and Miss Veda Strong is to be present. Everyone is invited to noon and bring a covered dish.

ROOSEVELT'S DEATH ENDS GREAT ERA

WASHINGTON. — The meaning of the death of Mr. Roosevelt to the country and the world escaped searching examination in the period of shock and mourning.

His law partner Basil O'Connor, in a tribute which was great in its simplicity, said portentous estimates of the changes to be expected might not be safely made for a long time.

Yet the passing was not a shock to those who knew the condition of the President, and in that fact lies the substance of the immediate situation. A week before his death he had lost his taste for food. His general condition had become so weakened, a bad cold might at any time have brought the end which came through hemorrhage of the brain.

He had not been able to work at the White House for many previous weeks but had been at Hyde Park and Warm Springs. Indeed, he had been a sick man for at least 18 months. The greatest of men, while ill, cannot do their best job.

The immediate change, therefore, will go no further than to place a protégé of the late President at his desk. The difference of administration at first then will only be personal. Mr. Truman has been saying by every action and word that his guiding inspiration will be the thought:

"I would like to do this as Mr. Roosevelt would have wanted it done."

He went beyond the normally expected announcement promising to keep the Roosevelt policies, and proposed to keep the Roosevelt personnel as well.

No Market Change.

The war-sensitive stock market showed no discouragement at these prospects. There was no selling. National reaction generally shared this interpretation.

As far as the war is concerned, not the slightest change is possible. Our plans were all in the hands of the army and navy, and not only have been long-adopted, but all near fulfillment.

Some changes in the peace I think will eventuate. I believe Mr. Roosevelt was near some alterations to meet the newly-arising international situation. Whatever these turn out to be, they will not be far from his plans.

His State Secretary Stettinius knows the situation thoroughly, is realistic, and a far greater man than yet recognized (his handling of Argentina successfully gave evidence of this).

Furthermore, the personality of Mr. Truman is bound to inject itself more and more in all decisions, domestic and foreign, as time goes on. In a year or so, necessity may well force him into assumption of policy - originating initiative.

Remember he has nearly four years to serve, and time swiftly covers graves.

Yet I cannot escape the conclusion that this is the end of an era.

Great men, I have found, are like artists. When they produce a great work in a certain style which gains them popularity and fame, they think that is the only way to do things always thereafter. It becomes the only way for them. Writers who make a hit with a certain line of endeavor adopt that style and a change of it later becomes physically impossible for them. Actors who gain success playing a certain part, always thereafter live that part in other roles. They become that person.

Indeed all of us cling to the theories which once proved successful for us, long after they are successful or popular. New minds come along and capture popularity with new methods, and they supplant the old who cannot change.

Depression Era Gone.

Mr. Roosevelt was of the era of depression. He came into the thick of it, devised a successful and popular line of thought, illustrated by the spend - lend theory. Although times changed, he did not. He could not. Human nature would not allow him to discard or greatly alter the ideas which brought him to the top of the world, and he wanted to pursue them internationally as a postwar measure.

Truman is a new man, although also a product of the depression era. Indeed he has been a senator only since 1934. His knowledge is on the subject of war contracts.

Harry Truman's Life Story Proves Again 'Cabin-to-White House' Road Is Still Open

President Advanced From County Offices To Head of Nation

By Elliott Pine
Released by Western Newspaper Union.

Forty years ago Harry Truman was plowing behind a mule on a Missouri farm. Today he is in the White House, in many ways the most powerful man in the world.

The new president was born in Lamar, Mo., May 8, 1884. Four years later his parents, John Anderson and Martha Young Truman, returned to Jackson county, 125 miles north, which was the ancestral home of both. Harry grew up on the 600-acre family farm in Jackson county near Grandview. His mother, still alive at 92, remarked reminiscingly last fall when he was elected to the vice presidency:

"That boy could plow the straightest row of corn in the county. He could sow wheat so there wouldn't be a bare spot in the whole field. He was a farmer who could do anything there was to do—just a little bit better than anyone else."

During his grade and high school days Harry distinguished himself by his scholarship. He was an omnivorous reader, an earnest student of everything. When he graduated in 1901, he hoped to go to college, but, although his father was known as the "best horse and mule trader in the county," family finances would not permit any more education for the eager youth. He won an appointment to West Point, but was rejected for weak eyesight.

Harry decided to make his fortune in nearby Kansas City. After a few years at small jobs — drug clerk, bundle wrapper on the Kansas City Star, bank clerk, timekeeper on a railroad gang — he went back to the family farm at his grandmother's invitation.

PRES. HARRY S. TRUMAN

Truman studied law at night during his term of office, and gained admittance to the bar. Then in 1926 he was elected presiding judge of Jackson county which includes Kansas City, and environs.

Handled 60 Million Dollars.

He had charge of the spending of $60,000,000 for highways and public buildings," Truman said later. "Nobody ever found anything wrong with that, and it wasn't because they didn't look, either. We built more miles of paved roads in Jackson county than in any other county in the country, with only two exceptions."

Truman was repeatedly reelected to this office until 1934. He had sought the nomination for governor in 1930, and for county collector in 1932, but party heads advised him to wait a little longer. Then in 1934 came the big chance. Pendergast put Truman on the ticket for the U. S. senate. This was not such a favor as it might seem, for Pendergast did not expect victory in that year. By a peculiar stroke of luck, however, the opposition was divided between two strong candidates, and Truman's own popularity sufficed to win him a seat in the august upper house. During his first term Truman remained somewhat obscure, making few speeches, and in general following the lead of Missouri's senior senator, Bennett Clark.

With few exceptions, Senator Truman supported the party program. He voted for the original agricultural adjustment act, the Wagner labor act, social security, the Tennessee valley authority, and the joining of the World court. In his second year he voted for the Florida Ship canal and Passamaquoddy dam project. The only measure he opposed was the President's veto of the bonus payments.

In 1938 and '39 he supported preparedness appropriations and lend-lease. He was chairman of a subcommittee that investigated railroad finance, leading to the Transportation Act of 1940. His work in drafting the Civil Aeronautics authority was outstanding for thoroughness and practicality.

In 1940, after squeaking through the Democratic nomination battle with only 7,000 votes to spare, he won the election by a wide margin. Soon after resuming his seat he became interested in reports of extravagance in construction of army camps. Truman requested funds to set up an investigating committee, with himself as chairman. Within a few months the committee uncovered widespread waste, excessive purchasing, profiteering and inefficiency in military contracts. In the first report the committee attacked "needless waste" amounting to $100,000,000 in the army's cantonment construction program.

Plenty to Investigate.

Complaints poured into the committee's headquarters. One concerned inferior steel plate in naval construction—an investigation disclosed a serious situation, which was corrected. The committee brought about a reversal of policy when housewives complained about a shortage of sugar for canning. Thirty-one reports were issued—all unanimous on the part of the six Democratic and four Republican members. The committee was instrumental in consolidating the various and conflicting war agencies into the War Production board. It helped to end bottlenecks in synthetic rubber and aluminum production. It advocated subcontracting to small war plants.

"The thing to do is dig this stuff up now and correct it," Truman declared. "If we run this war program efficiently there won't be any opportunity for some one to undertake a lot of investigations after the war and cause a wave of revulsion that will start this country on the downhill road to unpreparedness, and put us in another war in 20 years."

These famous investigations put the "Truman committee" in the headlines time and again. Senator Truman grew into a national figure. President Roosevelt took increasing interest in him. So did Robert Hannegan, national Democratic chairman, who knew Truman in Kansas City. When the dust settled at the convention in Chicago last summer, Harry S. Truman found himself nominated as vice president. Victory at the polls in November thrust him into the second highest office in the land.

As vice president Truman had less opportunity to act independently than while in the senate, since as presiding officer of the upper house he could not take sides, as often he wished to do. Unlike his predecessor, Wallace, he did not travel abroad on any special missions for the President, but remained in Washington close to affairs of state.

Shrewd, Practical Man.

The new President is considered a shrewd and practical man, a middle-of-the-road liberal, with an ability to get along with conflicting factions and to compromise when necessary. Capital observers think he will rise to the demands of the enormous task ahead as have other vice presidents suddenly called to vast responsibilities.

Personally, the new President is a modest-looking man of almost 61. He stands 5 feet, 10 inches tall, weighs about 170 pounds, and is trim and well proportioned. Until they entered the White House, he and Mrs. Truman lived in a five-room apartment. They had no house - servants, as Mrs. Truman, who has been her husband's secretary for years, also preferred to take care of the apartment herself. The Truman's only child, Mary Margaret, is studying at George Washington university. She is 21, and a junior. Her hopes are for a career in music.

All his life President Truman has been a "joiner." Even as a child he often attended the Presbyterian Sunday school, although he is a Baptist. In youth he enlisted in the National Guard, and stayed in service for a dozen years until 1917. His fraternal connections include the Elks, the Masons (he was state Grand Master for Missouri in 1940-41) and the Ansh Templars.

Went to War.

For the next few years working the big farm took all Harry's time. Then in 1917, he volunteered for the army, and soon became a lieutenant of field artillery. While in training camp he organized a canteen for the men, and took care of them in many other ways. Later he rose to a captaincy, and led his company in hard fighting in Saint Mihiel and the Argonne campaigns. On the boat home Harry was commissioned a major.

Soon after returning to Missouri, he married his childhood sweetheart, Elizabeth (Bea) Wallace, granddaughter of the first mayor of Independence, Mo. The ceremony took place in the Episcopal church, Mrs. Truman's sect.

In 1919 Truman decided to go into business, so he entered partnership with a man whom he met in army life, and established a haberdashery store in Kansas City. Harry invested his entire fortune, amounting to about $15,000. At first the business prospered but the sharp recession of 1921 brought disaster. Truman did not go into bankruptcy, but chose to pay off his debts as well as he could. In 1934, when elected to the U. S. senate, he was still meeting old bills.

Somewhat accidentally, he got into politics. An army acquaintance who was a nephew of Thomas Pendergast, then Democratic leader in Kansas City, suggested Harry Truman for some small position. The date Pendergast, discovering that Truman was well known and liked, had the backing of the American Legion, and was anxious for a new career, appointed him a road supervisor. In return Harry made occa-

New 'First Lady' Doesn't Like the Spotlight

The new First Lady, Bea Wallace Truman, has a retiring disposition, although she has been associated with her husband in public life for more than 20 years. Much of this time she has been his secretary and adviser, listening to his speeches, answering his mail, and doing other important duties. Nevertheless, she has no personal desire to make any speeches, or to take any active part in politics.

When she was married 26 years ago in the Trinity Episcopal church of Independence, Mo., she "thought and hoped that she was settling down to keeping house and doing church work in her home town."

The new mistress of the White House prefers to wear blue, as have several other First Ladies. It goes well with her blue eyes and gray hair. But she is not particularly interested in clothes. Her hobby is reading. Dickens and Scott are favorite authors.

Hedda Hopper: Looking at HOLLYWOOD

HOW evil can you get? The answer seems to be—go as far as you like. Look at the cinematic cads who have become idols of millions, all because they gave out with that certain schmaltz when they smiled and got tough.

Squish a grapefruit in a lady's pan and become an international idol. Fight the frills, fool 'em, kick 'em in the teeth. That's right, boys, be a gold plated heel. There's fame in being infamous; success in being anide; luxury in being a louse.

Alan Ladd, who hauls home more fan mail than the rest of the Paramount boys, collected his claue through rugged, hairy-on-the-chest snarls and being quick on the draw. He was an overnight sensation in the role of the Raven. "This Gun for Hire" put Ladd in the top money class.

"Mask of Dimitrios" brought immediate celebrity to Zachary Scott, who played the most hateful bum possible. He wasn't even nice to his mother.

"Evil appeals to the romantic," said Scott, who's right back being a wish in "Strange Honey-moon," since he's finished "Hold Autumn in Your Hand."

Zachary Scott

"It's human nature to want to kick over the traces and be unconventional. Don't ask me why. But so few people have the nerve. Cases of wishful thinking are universal. Evil somehow is regarded as colorful and evildeers are thought to have intentional fortitude for daring to be what they are.

"The public seems to find escapism in pictures about evil, and the sinners themselves are looked upon as fascinating because they're dangerous, and danger appeals to the multitude because it offers respite from routine," says the new devil hero, Scott.

Evil Lingers On

Although "Public Enemy" was produced years ago, that touching sequence wherein James Cagney wallops Mae Clarke with a grapefruit is still recalled but lovingly by the baddies.

That performance definitely established Cagney in motion pictures. Today he's starring in independent productions produced by his brother Bill, and has just finished a new rugged portrayal in "Blood on the Sun."

Clark Gable owes his start to dirty doings in a sagebrush thriller, "The Painted Desert."

Gable hadn't even been heard of before when he was hired for that job. But with the release of "The Painted Desert" all worries ceased for Gable. He snagged an M-G-M contract and everlasting fame.

From Pasadena Playhouse obscurity to a dynamic bit as a downed Nazi aviator who provided Greer Garson a few horrible minutes in "Mrs. Miniver" is the tale of Helmut Dantine.

His name was on every casting director's lips once his nasty Nazi interpretation was seen. Warners cornered the newcomer's signature on a term deal and he's been causing the heroines panic ever since. All of which hasn't affected Dantine with the girls of the world. They think he's just divine.

List Keeps Growing

As a menace in "Ship Ahoy"—a Red Skelton conglomeration of nonsense—John Hodiak arose from the multitude of contractees. That he-man quality brought him "Lifeboat" opposite Tallulah Bankhead. The rest has been gravy for Master Hodiak, whose M-G-M future is really bright.

Gene Kelly realizes the value of being a heel. From being a personable no-good in "Pal Joey," a Broadway musical, Kelly attracted Hollywood's eye. His introduction to the camera was as a guy you loved hating in "For Me and My Gal." What a dirty life he gave Judy Garland!

The champion nasty character of them all is George Sanders, who saunters back and forth between the devil and the angels. George's hateful dandy in "Loyds of London" brought him to our notice. It was his first big splash. He's been splashing ever since, and I don't mean in a bathtub, either.

Yes, it pays to be bad. Any actor, aspiring for fame, should not make heaven his destination, as far as film roles are concerned, but arm himself with a pitchfork and horns and charm the multitude.

Answer to Her Prayer

R.K.O. has signed Maureen O'Hara for "The Fabulous Invalid." This play is taken from the Broadway hit by Mess Hart and George S. Kaufman. It's a drama of the American theater, told through the career of a famous actress, and will be done in technicolor. The role will give her a chance to do some real acting as well as look beautiful. . . . Diana Shore serenaded sailors on a warship at San Pedro the other morning. At sunrise she sang "Oh, What a Beautiful Morning."

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By HAROLD I. LUNDQUIST, D. D., of The Holy Bible Institute of Chicago. Released by Western Newspaper Union.

Lesson for May 6

Lesson subjects and Scripture texts selected and copyrighted by International Council of Religious Education; used by permission.

THE HEBREW MONARCHY AT ITS HEIGHT

LESSON TEXT—1 Kings 9:1-7, 26; 10:25-28; 11:4, 11. GOLDEN TEXT—Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord.—Psalm 33:12.

Keeping up with the neighbors is not always a desirable thing, but both men and nations do it. When the last judge, Samuel, had become old, Israel began to demand a king like the nations round about them.

Although the rejection of His direct rule over them through His chosen men was a sad development, God permitted them to choose a king. Saul, their first king, was evidently selected for his appearance and his physical superiority. He began well, in dependence upon God, but came to a tragic end because of sin.

David, who followed Saul, had his failings, but was essentially a man after God's own heart. He wanted to build a temple for God, but because he was a man of war, God decreed that his son, Solomon, who succeeded him, was to build it.

With the reign of Solomon, and especially with the building of the temple, the monarchy in Israel reached its highest development—only, to go down to disaster.

Our lesson opens after the remarkably fine prayer with which Solomon dedicated the temple.

I. Dedication Accepted (9:1-3).

God was pleased with Solomon's intelligent and spiritual prayer and the act of dedication, and He hallowed the house of the Lord by putting His name on it and assuring them of His continual presence.

It is a delightful thing that God is willing to accept at the hands of a man the dedication of either himself or his possessions for God's glory. The Lord is Maker of heaven and earth and surely has no need of what we have. And yet He does have need of it, and is ready to use it as we present it to Him.

Our act of dedication results in His act of acceptance and consecration of our talents, our time, our money, or our goods for His glorious service. But God expects His people to continue in devotion to Him if they are to have His continued presence and blessing.

II. Consecration Expected (9:4-7).

The throne of David was to remain in the lineage of Solomon as long as he and the people of Israel walked uprightly before God. He expects obedience to His commandments, and apart from it He cannot give His blessing.

Note the faithfulness of God. No man would ever have introduced such a note of solemn portent and of warning into an occasion which seemed all gladness and light. Prosperity was at its height. The king was in favor with both God and man. Into that picture of success and grandeur God paints with bold strokes a great and striking "IF."

It is presumption to think that we can coast along on past attainments or former piety. If we are to be used and blessed of God tomorrow and the day after, we must look to our consecration to Him and our obedience to His will.

III. Possessions Glorified (9:26; 10:25-28).

We read in 10:23 that "King Solomon exceeded all kings of the earth in riches and wisdom." He had reached the pinnacle. The Chinese have a proverb, "The man who stands on the pinnacle has nowhere to step but off."

It need not have been a snare for Solomon to be rich if he had maintained his simple faith in God, but the temptations brought in by heathen wives whom he foolishly married, coupled with the deceitfulness of riches (Matt. 13:22), soon led him into the downward path.

The almost unbelievable riches of Solomon could have been used for the glory of God, but instead they were an end in themselves.

When money takes the ruling hand in a man's life, he loses out spiritually. His life becomes an empty farce; his soul can be satisfied with only more and more gold.

Solomon was soon led into the folly of turning to the worship of heathen gods. Little wonder that we find:

IV. Judgment Decreed (11:4, 11).

It would seem that a man who knows the Lord should grow in grace and become even more intimate with God as he grows old. One might expect that the passing of years should mellow and sweeten life. But sad to say, it is often not the case.

"When Solomon was old," he went after false gods. How tragic! Little wonder that one of the saintliest men this writer ever knew prayed constantly as he went on into his eighties, "Lord, keep me from ever becoming a wicked old man." Other old men and women (yes, and all of us) could well pray the same prayer.

So it became necessary for God to wrest the kingdom out of the hands of the great Solomon, and Israel goes on to its history of a people divided, of disobedience to God, and of ultimate judgment. Of that we shall see more in the weeks just ahead.

HOUSEHOLD MEMOS by Lynn Chambers

Canning is Food Insurance for Winter (See Recipes Below)

Early Canning

Strawberries and rhubarb, green peas and asparagus are all flaunting their gay colors before our eyes and begging to be eaten, either now or later.

One of the most basic rules in canning is that fruit and vegetables should be canned at the peak of the season to be their best. If you want a good product, you will have to put up a good food in another way of putting this rule across.

Canning at best does not improve the food, it simply preserves it for future use. Unless strawberries are sweet, and bright in color, they will not become so in the jars. The same is true of everything else which we put up.

Less canning sugar will presumably be allotted this year than previously, and it would be well to decide just how much of what you are going to put up before you start in using sugar. It will have to be strictly budgeted if it is to reach over all the winter's needs.

Those of you who have canned while sugar has been rationed know that it is possible to can with a great deal less sugar if you will put the fruit up not quite so sweet. Most of us can do with less sugar as long as we have nice looking jars of fruit.

One of the "musts" on your canning list this year should be several jars of jams, jellies and preserves to spread on bread next winter if butter supplies are low. The family will greet these fruit concoctions with cheers:

- Strawberry Marmalade. (Makes 12 6-ounce glasses.)
- 2 oranges
- 2 lemons
- 1/2 cup water
- 1/2 teaspoon soda
- 1 quart strawberries
- 7 cups sugar
- 1/2 bottle fruit pectin

Remove peels from oranges and lemons; cut off white membrane. Force peels through food chopper. Add water and soda. Cover and simmer for 10 minutes. Add orange and lemon pulp and juice. Simmer for 20 minutes. Add brushed strawberries. Measure 4 cups prepared fruit; add sugar. Bring to boiling and boil 5 minutes. Remove from heat; stir in fruit pectin. Let stand 5 minutes; skim; seal in hot, sterilized glasses.

- Currant Jelly. (Makes 4 to 5 small glasses)
- 1 quart currants
- 1/4 cup water
- Sugar.

Wash and pick over currants but do not remove stems. Mash a few in the bottom of a preserving kettle and continue until all berries are used. Add water, cover and heat slowly. When fruit is thoroughly heated, put into a jelly bag or in several thicknesses of cheese cloth and drain off juice. Measure 4 cups juice, bring to boiling point and boil 5 minutes. Add 3 cups of sugar and boil 3 minutes, or until jelly sheets off a spoon. Pour into several hot sterilized glasses, cover with paraffin and store.

- Strawberry and Rhubarb Jam. (Makes 6 to 8 Glasses.)
- 3 cups cooked pink rhubarb
- 3 cups strawberries
- 4 cups sugar

- Lynn Chambers' Point-Saving Menus.
- Mixed Vegetables in Bologna Cups
- Creamed Potatoes
- Perfection Salad
- Toasted Muffins and Jam
- Chocolate-Souffle Beverage

Use tender red rhubarb, trim off hard ends, wash without skinning cut into small pieces. Mix fruit and sugar, let stand several hours. Cool gently in preserving kettle until thick and clear. Pour into hot sterile glasses and paraffin at once.

For canning spring, first fruits use the directions given in these recipes to save color, food value and quality.

Canning Strawberries.

Use only fresh, ripe, firm and sound berries. Wash and stem. To each quart of berries add 1 cup sugar. Place in a porcelain enameled kettle (to prevent the berries from turning dark), let stand until juice flows. Cook slowly to the boiling point, then rapidly for 3 to 4 minutes, then cover kettle and let stand overnight. Drain berries and pack into hot sterilized jars. Heat syrup until it boils, pour immediately over fruit to within one-half inch of the top of the jar. Adjust cover and process in hot water bath 8 minutes or in pressure cooker 5 minutes under 5 pounds pressure. Remove jars, let cool and store.

This is an excellent, if unorthodox method for canning rhubarb. It is prepared by baking the fruit and then canning:

Canning Rhubarb.

Wash tender, rosy rhubarb and cut into 1/2-inch pieces with a sharp knife. Measure the rhubarb and place it in a baking dish and add 1/4 as much sugar by measure as rhubarb. Cover and bake in a moderate (350-degree) oven 20 to 25 minutes until rhubarb is tender, but whole. Pack into hot sterilized jars immediately after removing from oven and process 10 minutes in a boiling water bath or 5 minutes at 5 pounds pressure in pressure cooker.

Canning Asparagus.

Wash young, tender asparagus and remove tough ends. Cut to fit into jar or in 1/2-inch lengths. Tie into small bundles and place in a saucepan. Add a small amount of boiling water and cook 4 to 5 minutes. Place immediately into hot sterilized jars, adding boiling liquid to within 1/2 inch of the top along with 1 teaspoon salt to each quart. Adjust cap and process immediately in a pressure cooker, processing pint jars 35 minutes at 10 pounds pressure.

Canning Peas.

Select tender, eye-sized, green peas. Shell and wash. Place in saucepan with boiling water to cover. Heat to boiling. Pack as hot as possible into sterile jars. Add 1 teaspoon salt and 1 teaspoon sugar to each jar. Process in the pressure cooker 50 minutes at 10 pounds.

Vitamin Value and Retention.

The more quickly you work once the fruits and vegetables are collected, the better will they retain their nutritive qualities. Everything should be in readiness so there is no time lost going from step to step.

If jars are stored in a cool, dark place there is a better chance of their keeping their vitamins and minerals.

Pretty House Frock for Matrons. A Sunback-Bolero—or Pinafore

1303 36-52

1285 12-20

Slimming Frock

THIS charmingly simple house frock for the larger woman has slimming, clean-cut lines and will keep you looking as fresh as a daisy.

Pattern No. 1303 is designed for sizes 36, 38, 40, 42, 44, 46, 48, 50 and 52. Size 38 requires 4 1/2 yards of 35 or 39-inch material; 2 yards ric rate to trim.

Sunback Dress

FOR precious hours in the sun, a nicely fitting sunback frock with a smart bolero to match. Or if you like, make the pinafore version with perky over-shoulder ruffles edged in colorful trimming.

Pattern No. 1285 is designed for sizes 12, 14, 16, 18 and 20. Size 14, sunback dress.

Hang up dresses and suits, but not sweaters. Lay them flat in a drawer so they will retain their shape.

When sweetness of cream is doubtful and there is no more on hand and it must be used, a pinch of soda stirred into it keeps it from curdling, even in hot weather.

To preserve rubber galoshes during the warm summer period, put them in a porous bag and hang them in a cellar where it is cool and damp. Heat injures rubber.

To clean a vase, cut newspapers into small pieces and swish the pieces around in soapy water on the inside.

Wash your oil cloth in a mixture of skim milk and turpentine. It will make it look like new.

A secret to making delicious potato salad is to cut the potatoes while they're warm and while warm add the onions and salad dressing. As the salad cools, the flavors will penetrate the potatoes.

SNAPPY FACTS ABOUT RUBBER

The contented cow will be more so after the war, when B.F. Goodrich research men expect low-cost rubber will make possible rubber mattresses or floor covering for stables. War-born synthetic represented 80 per cent of the nation's rubber consumption in 1944, reports John L. Collier, President of The B. F. Goodrich Company. In 1941 man-made rubber was less than one per cent of our consumption. The destruction of some 5,000 tires a day on the American battlefronts is one understandable reason for subordination of civilian tire needs to those of the military.

Bonds Over America

ASTOR COLUMN

Atop of Coxcomb Hill the Astor Monument reaches skyward, close to the site of the first permanent settlement in Oregon. Captain Robert Gray on a trading mission and his crew were the first white men to visit Astoria, at the mouth of the Columbia River. They came in 1792 and in 1805 Lewis and Clark passed the spot, setting up winter quarters seven miles southwest. The city's location and name were picked by members of a fur trading expedition sent out by the famous John Jacob Astor Company. War Bonds pay for munitions, planes and warships that guard this area so that future generations may enjoy opportunities still untouched there.

SAIPAN

YOUR WAR MAP OF THE PACIFIC...

BUT-

On Saipan today there is more than enough communications equipment in operation to meet the normal telephone requirements of a city of 190,000 people.

Here is graphic evidence of the reason for the shortage of telephone equipment at home. Then, too—with the realization that Saipan is only one small island on the way to Tokyo, you get some idea of the job that lies ahead.

Western Electric, producer of our telephone equipment, has manufactured much of the vast array of telephone, teletype and radio equipment used by our fighting forces and their allies in every theatre of war.

Another reason why there is not enough telephone equipment for all civilian needs.
