THE CALAMITY PARTY.

What is known as the "third party" should properly be designated the "Calamity Party." It is composed, largely, if not wholly, of men who have belonged to both of the old parties and left the ranks because the siftings did not suit their tastes and appetites.—They have insatiate maws and hands like those of Jove which would take in and cover the earth. They are goody goody, but in fact the credit of most of them is below zero. We have said before, and now repeat, that the man who is too pure to affiliate with either of the old parties—especially the Republican party—is too pure for earth and should be at once translated.

These goody-goody's remind us of the fable relative to King Log and King Stork and its subjects the frogs. King Log was a very good king compared with King Stork. King Log was given by Jupiter to the frogs, on urgent petition, and the frogs were happy for awhile, but finally concluded that they wanted another king of more activity and they rebelled. Jupiter, to appease them, sent to them King Stork. When King Stork was granted them by Jove, and he began eating them very lively, the frogs concluded they had better been satisfied with King Log. On him they had reeled, but King Stork feasted on them with unappeasable voracity. On a third appeal Jove sent word to the frogs that they were not content when they were well off and now they must accept the situation.

We submit the fable and it's moral to our Allt nce friends.

ELEGANT FASHION BOOKS.—The new Fashion Journal, "La Mode," "La Mode de Paris, and "Album des Modes," published by A. McDowell & Co., 4 West 14th Street New York, are the most elegant of their kind ever brought to our notice. The styles are drawn by the best artists, and the books are produced by rival houses in Paris, each trying to excel the other in the character of its publications. Formerly they were printed only in French; but they are now published in English for the use of American readers. These Journals simplify publication; and they have a [illegible] department in which lessons are given each month on how to make [illegible]. The adaptation, the lessons in dress-making and the fitting of the styles will much surpass those heretofore [illegible] in favor of these [illegible], causing them to be entitled to the "Favorites." These excellent publications can be obtained of [illegible] all newsdealers.

DEATH OF JUDGE AXTELL.

It was with pain that the people of New Mexico, those of them who had a personal acquaintance with Samuel Beach Axtell, of Santa Fe, learned that the great, the grand old man and able jurist was dead.

A few months since the aged gentleman was seized with the grippe and not regaining health or strength he concluded to pay a visit to his married daughter, living in Morristown, New Jersey, in hopes of recuperating. But it was not so decreed. Though nurtured in hardship, brought up thro' adverse surroundings, and possessed of an iron will, his physique was always frail and could at no period of his life have withstood strong physical pressure.—His mind was always strong, but not unlike Pope, Kirk, and others of acknowledged mental force, the ardor of which will never fade from the face of history, his constitution was a brittle thread upon which to hold all of his forces together. Yet, by observing organic laws he lived to a green old age, as evidenced by the fact that he lived from 1819 to 1891. He came into the world with material from which to create character and he left it with credit to his Creator and to his stewardship.

We knew the old gentleman well and believe that there has long been a reciprocal bond of friendship between us. The last time we saw him was at a political banquet in Santa Fe, when and where he was in good health and spirits, and on which occasion he made a cogent, unanswerable, argumentative speech. His address was kindly, but his convictions firm, and in the lines of duty marked out for him there are many living witnesses that he could neither be cajoled or terrified. Among kings he would have been recognized for his kingly worth—among men he was always held to be the peer of the abject and the purest. He was a self-made man and deserves the more credit for the result of his self-imposed task of building up character.

Typical of his true character may be quoted what he said at the last Territorial Republican Convention. Among other things in his speech he said: "There can no honest government grow out of dishonest politics."

At 16 years of age young Axtell entered as a preparatory student Oberlin College in his native State, Ohio, supporting himself by manual labor. He afterward entered the Western Reserve College, and took the degree of A.M. He studied law, and in 1851 went to California, where he was three times elected district attorney and twice elected to Congress from San Francisco.

He was appointed Governor of Utah in 1874, by President Grant and in 1875 was transferred to the governorship of New Mexico. In 1876 he was one of the judges at the great Centennial at Philadelphia, and in the fall of 1878 was superseded as Governor by Gen. Lew Wallace. In 1882 he was appointed Chief Justice of New Mexico by President Arthur. On May 1, 1885, he tendered his resignation which was accepted to take effect on the 27th of the same month. He has since that time resided at Santa Fe, which he considered his permanent home. His permanent home is now far from Santa Fe. May it be well with him there.

Mr. D. B. Berger of East Scott Kansas, is guest of the Windsor. He yesterday purchased a large plant of mining machinery which he will send to White Oaks where he has extensive mining interests.

"White Oaks is a thriving place, said Mr Berger to a Republican reporter last evening, "and the main thing needed there is more railroads. The people of that section are looking to Denver to help them get at least one, and that is the air line from Denver to El Paso via White Oaks. I am afraid the people here do not appreciate the great benefit such a road would be to them. White Oaks alone would make the road one that would be valuable on account of its supplies of granite, coal, iron and gold. There are mountains of granite all through that section, and iron in equally abundant quantities. The gold mining industry would also be an item of no small importance. That entire country is rich with mineral, and has at present five mines producing and a great many good prospects that would be worked if they could get machinery, but it costs a small fortune to get it there at present, and the railway would remove that. I have been through a large portion of the West, and I do not know of any place in the country that possesses so many natural resources."—Denver Republican.

ELSEWHERE will be found a notice of the arrangement by which the LEADER can be clubbed with the San Francisco Examiner. The San Francisco Weekly Examiner is considered to be one of the best newspapers published in the United States, and is certainly the best printed on the Pacific coast, everybody is interested in hearing from in view of the marvelous growth of California and the Northwestern states. The publisher of the Examiner is W. R. Hearst, only son of of the late Senator Hearst, who has expended an enormous amount of money in establishing the paper and making a success of it; and his liberal offers to subscribers have been so effective that in California, Oregon and Washington almost every one takes the Examiner. Our offer to furnish both papers for $3, is an exceedingly liberal one, and we expect to obtain a large list of subscribers for the Examiner, as well as for the LEADER; so that some of the magnificent premiums in the Examiner's $125,000 list will come into this neighborhood. Every subscriber gets one of the magnificent premium pictures with Examiner, besides what may be given in the grand distribution of $125,000 in extra premium worth from 50 cents to $6,000 each.

CONSUMPTION CURED.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of Consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma, and all throat and Lung Affections, also a positive and radical cure for Nervous Debility and all Nervous Complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, in German, French or English, with full directions for preparing and using. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper, W. A. NOYES, 820 Powers' Block, Rochester, N. Y.

OUR NEW YORK LETTER.

New York, Aug. 5, '91.

The latest scheme to come to light for a raid on Uncle Sam's treasury is that proposed by Mr. W. K. Vaughan, ex-Mayor of Council Bluffs, who is now in this city. Mr. Vaughan proposes that the Government appropriate the snug sum of $400,000,000 for the purpose of pensioning the negroes in this country who were formerly slaves. This sum is not to be donated as a free gift but as a reimbursement for the labor performed by the slaves while they were held in bondage. Mr. V. has a bill in Congress for this purpose and it is his intention to pledge all presidential candidates to favor the bill or he will turn the whole negro vote against him. In case all the candidates refuse, he will organize a new party with the single point of slave indemnity for it's platform. England will be asked to pay her share for having introduced the institution into this country, for which purpose Queen Victoria has been written to but she has not yet replied.

The great umbrella question is about to be solved by the organization of a company whose sole object will be to loan and receive back umbrellas. The U. S. Umbrella Providing Company is the name of the concern, which has a capital of $150,000, and will be in operation in this city by the end of this week. If a person wishes to avail himself of the company's service he has simply to pay a subscription fee of $3, for which he is given a metal check. The umbrellas will be on deposit at numerous stations scattered all over the city and ultimately in every city in the country. Whenever a member is caught in a rain storm he has only to step into one of the convenient depots, surrender his check and receive a neat silk umbrella. He is not required to return it to the place where he got it but may hand it in at any depot in the country receiving the check back again. A man may take the umbrella to San Francisco, if he pleases, and turn it in there, or he may leave it at any of the 800 depots in New York. There will be depots at all theatres, hotels, ferries and elevated railroad stations, so that no one hereafter will ever need to own an umbrella—or get wet.

A band of 40 Arabs arrived in this city one day last week on the steamship Caland from Antwerp. They came from the Lebanon Mts in Syria, and most of them are very intelligent. Among the number is Joseph Mihry, a Mediterranean sponge diver, who, it is said, can stay in the depths of the sea three minutes. Mirhy descends to the depth of 35 fathoms or 210 feet. He thinks of following the occupation of a diver in this country. Some of the Arabs have been in this country before and have gone home again to get their wives. About twenty of them will go to Havana to engage in agricultural pursuits, while the rest will stay in New York.

Making love is a game that two can play at When there are three it is work.

"WAS IT SUICIDE?"

Why marriage is sometimes a failure is an interesting and important question to all; and everyone married or single, should read the absorbing story with the above title, by the poet-novelist, [illegible] popular author's most forcible style, which is published in the September number of that always bright periodical, Lippincott's Magazine. It contains, besides, an abundance of other good reading matter, just the sort that one enjoys at this season. There is a splendid article, fully illustrated, about "Brazil;" "A Poet at Home" tells about Ella Wheeler Wilcox and her lovely home, and with it are pictures of "the poet's corner" and portraits of her in some of her noted gowns; whether you ever enjoyed that rare sport moose hunting or not, you will be interested in "A Stray Shot at a Moose," written by the fortunate amateur sportsman who brought down his game at the first shot, which is also finely illustrated.—"A Seven Day's Tramp and What it Cost" describes a "tramp" by eight girls and a chaperon, and the chaperon tells the story.; then there are stories and poems, and the various departments are replete with useful and amusing matter, and there are nearly 200 illustrations, besides a beautiful water color "Play ball, Pa!" which appeals to every admirer and devotee of baseball. And this is only a fair sample of what one gets monthly in this ideal Family Magazine, which is published for $2 a year, by W. Jennings Demorest, 15 East 14th St., New York City.

The Parent of Insomnia.

The parent of insomnia or wakefulness is in nine cases out of ten a dyspeptic stomach. Good digestion gives sound sleep, indigestion interferes with it. The brain and stomach sympathize. One of the prominent symptoms of a weak state of the gastric organs is a disturbance of the great nerve centres, the brain. Invigorate the stomach, and you restore equilibrium to the great centre. A most reliable medicine for the purpose is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which is far preferable to mineral sedatives and powerful narcotics which, though they may for a time exert a superficial influence upon the brain, seem quiet to act, and invariably injure the tone of the stomach. The Bitters, on the contrary, restore activity to the operations of that all important organ, and their beneficial influence is reflected in sound sleep and a tranquil state of the nervous system. A wholesome appetite is likewise given to the notice of the liver and bowels by its use.

LAST Wednesday's stage took to the R. R. Mrs. Frank Gibbons and Miss Christina Bohnet, (sister-in-law of Jos. Greshoeber,) the former destined for San Pedro to visit her parents the Mackels—the latter to her old home in Kansas.

D. J. M. A. JEWETT, the Major domo of Lincoln, spent a couple of days in town this week.—We had the honor of shaking hands with his highness on the Avenue, but on passing the LEADER office he closed the eye nearest approaching it.

We are indebted to the management of the Territorial Fair, Albuquerque, Sept. 14-19, for complimentaries. We hope that this portion of God's favored vineyard will be well represented there A specimen about our size will be there if possible.

James Russel Lowell, ex-Minister to the Court of St. James, and one of the most brilliant writers, or rather authors that America ever has produced—as also Geo. Jones, of the New York Times, died this week. Wonder what they do with sure-enough writers on the other shore. We have a selfish curiosity in the premises.

POST-OFFICE NAMES.

Odd Sometimes Noteworthy Upon Some Newly-Created Offices.

"Naming a post-office is like naming a child—there is no accounting for the taste displayed in the name selected. Usually the post-office is named after the town, and when the town is started some enterprising citizen gets in his deadly work and the town is named after him. Others take their names from surroundings and often from incidents which happened when the site was first selected. Some are good, others bad; some long and some short, but there seems to be a general disregard of the proprieties in the selection of names. For instance, Happy Camp is the name of a newly-created post-office in California, and the probabilities are that the inhabitants are constantly fighting, and the only person who is happy is the undertaker, who is growing wealthy. Mountain View is more likely to be the name of a village at the bottom of a two-hundred-foot hill than to be near a mountain, while Marble Cliff is very remote from a marble quarry.

Passing events also help decide the names of places, and with the Johnstown horror fresh in the public mind many smaller towns will select that name to emphasize the establishment of the place.

Peace and Calm are two villages where post-offices have been established in Alabama, while Rat, Rye and Urbania have been discontinued. Excelsior is the name of a spicy Arkansas village, while people who desire to go to a new postal station in Alaska will have to have their letters addressed to Belkofsky. California has a choice collection of new names. Bitter Water, Calabasas, Orosi and Similoplis make a splendid quartette. Tourtelotte and Bovina are Colorado offices. Dakota, as becomes a newly-admitted State, is selecting names for its new offices from among those who advocated its admission, and is getting rid of its old Territorial names, reminiscent as they were with the names bestowed by cow-punchers whose idea of the ridiculous was very keen.

The warm climate of Georgia boasts of an Arctic town, while Sinker is the name of a village in Idaho.

The people of Illinois were so glad to get new postal facilities that they did not stop to complete the names, and sent them out as Lis and Mac. Nail and Cheek are two villages in the Indian Territory. Fritz, Snyder and McBrayer represent the ruling population in three Kentucky places. Chisa is located in Michigan, and Minnesota boasts of its short Line Park. Missouri contains Leat and Clio. Raton is in Nebraska, while Redstone takes its name from the granite hills of New Hampshire. New York is provided with a Bert, an Echo and a Jayville. Stem and Wharf are the names of two post-offices in North Carolina, and Scrub, Fox and Twin have Ohio written after them on envelopes.

Ale and Joy, while both are in Oregon, are not in the same county, and there is no connection between the two. Peach Tree, Early, Orphan's Home and Venus are in Texas. Exit and Joe are in the neighboring State of Virginia, and Washington has a newly-created small post-office called Nickel, while Fossil and Shell complete the list for Wyoming.—Washington Post.

GRAND PREMIUM OFFER!

A SET OF THE

WORKS OF CHARLES DICKENS,

In Twelve Large Volumes,

Which we Offer with a Year's Subscription to this Paper for a Trifle More than Our Regular Subscription Price.

CHARLES DICKENS.

Wishing to largely increase the circulation of this paper during the next six months, we have made arrangements with a New York publishing house whereby we are enabled to offer as a premium to our subscribers a set of the Works of Charles Dickens, in twelve large and handsome Volumes, with a year's subscription to this paper, for little more than our regular subscription price. Our great offer to subscribers enables almost every family to own a set of Dickens, the most popular author that ever lived. No matter before or since his time has written a line that he has loved, and his works are even more popular to-day than during his lifetime. They abound in wit, humor, pathos, masterly delineation of character, vivid descriptions of places and incidents, thrilling and skillfully wrought plots. Each book is intensely interesting. No home should be without a set of these great and remarkable works. Not to have read them is to be far behind the age in which we live. The set of Dickens' works which we offer as a premium to our subscribers is handsomely printed from entirely new plates, with new type, on fine paper, and contains the following world-famous works, each one of which is published with the greatest possible knowledge:

DAVID COPPERFIELD,
MARTIN CHUZZLEWIT,
NICHOLAS NICKELBY,
DOMBEY AND SON,
BLEAK HOUSE,
LITTLE DORRIT,
OUR MUTUAL FRIEND,
PICKWICK PAPERS,
BARNABY RUDGE AND CHRISTMAS STORIES,
OLIVER TWIST AND GREAT EXPECTATIONS,
THE OLD CURIOSITY SHOP AND THE UNCOMMERCIAL TRAVELER,
A TALE OF TWO CITIES, HARD TIMES AND THE MYSTERY OF EDWIN DROOD.

The above are without question the most famous novels that were ever written. For a quarter of a century they have been celebrated in every nook and corner of the civilized world. Yet there are thousands of homes in America that are not supplied with a set of Dickens, the want of which deprives the leading and intelligent people in moderate circumstances from enjoying a luxury. By reason of the use of modern improved printing, folding and stitching machinery, the publishers are able to place a whole page, and the great competition in the book trade enables us to offer our subscribers and readers a set of Dickens' works at a price which will be within the reach of every one. Every home in the land may now be supplied with a set

POST-OFFICE NAMES.

Odd Suggestions Bestowed Upon Some Newly-Created Offices.

Naming a post-office is like naming a child—there is no accounting for the taste displayed in the name selected. Usually the post-office is named after the town, and when the town is started some enterprising citizen gets in his deadly work and the town is named after him. Others take their names from surroundings and often from incidents which happened when the site was first selected. Some are good, others bad; some long and some short, but there seems to be a general disregard of the proprieties in the selection of names. For instance, Happy Camp is the name of a newly-created post-office in California, and the probabilities are that the inhabitants are constantly fighting, and the only person who is happy is the undertaker, who is growing wealthy. Mountain View is more likely to be the name of a village at the bottom of a two-hundred-foot hill than to be near a mountain, while Marble Cliff is very remote from a marble quarry.

Passing events also help decide the names of places, and with the Johnstown horror fresh in the public mind many smaller towns will select that name to emphasize the establishment of the place.

Pisco and Cain are two villages where post-offices have been established in Alabama, while Rat, Rye and Urbanity have been discontinued. Secretary is the name of a spicy Arkansas village, while people who desire to go to a new postal station in Alaska will have to have their letters addressed to Belkofsky. California has a choice collection of new names. Bitter Water, Calabasas, Orosi and Stanislaus make a splendid quartette. Tourtelotte and Bovina are Colorado offices. Dakota, as becomes a newly-admitted State, is selecting names for its new offices from among those who advocated its admission, and is getting rid of its old Territorial names, reminiscent as they were with the names bestowed by cow-punchers whose idea of the ridiculous was very keen.

The warm climate of Georgia boasts of an Arctic town, while Blaker is the name of a village in Idaho.

The people of Illinois were so glad to get new postal facilities that they did not stop to complete the names, and sent them out as Lis and Mac. Nail and Cheek are two villages in the Indian Territory. Fritz, Snyder and McBrayer represent the ruling population in three Kentucky places. China is located in Michigan, and Minnesota boasts of its short Line Park. Missouri contains Last and Clio. Raton is in Nebraska, while Redstone takes its name from the granite hills of New Hampshire. New York is provided with a Bell, an Echo and a Jayville. Stem and Wharf are the names of two post-offices in North Carolina, and Scrub, Pie and Twin have Ohio written after them on envelopes.

Ale and Joy, while both are in Oregon, are not in the same county, and there is no connection between the two. Peach Tree, Early, Orphan's Home and Venus are in Texas. Exit and Joe are in the neighboring State of Virginia, and Washington has a newly-created small post-office called Nickel, while Fossil and Shell complete the list for Wyoming.—Washington Post.

Free Reading Matter.

There are various schemes for supplying reading matter at a trifle above actual cost. Would you think it you could get good literature free?

Drop a postal to G. T. Nicholson, G. P. and T. A., A. T. & S. F. R. R. Co., Topeka, Kan., and ask for a copy of "To Mexico by Palace Car." You can also procure free copies of "A Santa Barbara Holiday," Guide to San Diego Bay Region," Las Vegas Hot Springs Guide," and folders relating to Texas, Oklahoma and Kansas.

Newspaper Laws.

Dr. TALMAGE, editor of the Workman Cleveland, has taken some pains to collect and compile the decisions of the U. S. Courts on it, in relation and gives to the Washington Post, as the result of his investigations, the following, which may be relied upon as correct:

1. Subscribers who do not give express notice to the contrary are considered wishing to renew their subscriptions.

2. If the subscriber desires the discontinuance of his periodical the publisher may continue to send it until all arrearages are paid.

3. If subscribers neglect or refuse to take their periodicals from the office to which they are directed, they are responsible until they have settled their bills and ordered them discontinued.

4. If subscribers remove to other places without informing the publisher, and the papers are sent to the former address, they are held responsible.

5. The courts have decided that refusing to take periodicals from the office or removing and leaving them uncalled for is prima facie evidence of intentional fraud.

6. If subscribers pay in advance they are bound to give notice at the end of the time if they do not wish to continue taking it, otherwise the publisher is authorized to send it, and the subscriber will be responsible until an express notice, with payment of all arrearages, is sent to the publisher.

The latest postal laws are such that newspaper publishers can stop any one for fraud who takes a paper and refuses to pay for it. Under this law the man who allows his subscription to run along for some time unpaid and then orders it discontinued, or orders the postmaster to mark it "refused," or have a postal card sent notifying the publisher, leaves himself liable to arrest and fine the same as for theft.

Grand Premium Offer!

A SET OF THE

WORKS OF CHARLES DICKENS,

CHARLES DICKENS.

In Twelve Large Volumes,

Which we Offer with a Year's Subscription to this Paper for a Trifle More than Our Regular Subscription Price.

Wishing to largely increase the circulation of this paper during the next six months, we have made arrangements with a New York publishing house whereby we are enabled to present as a premium to our subscribers a set of the Works of Charles Dickens, in Twelve Large and Handsome Volumes, with a year's subscription to this paper, for little more than our regular subscription price. Our great offer to subscribers will soon be withdrawn, so those who intend to avail themselves of it should not delay. Charles Dickens was the greatest novelist who ever lived. No author before or since his time has written half the matter that he achieved, and his works are read and admired more to-day than during his lifetime. They abound in wit, humor, pathos, masterly delineation of character, vivid descriptions of places and incidents, thrilling and skillfully wrought plots. Each book is intensely interesting. No home should be without a set of these great and remarkable works. Not to have read them is to be far behind the age in which we live. The set of Dickens' works which we offer as a premium to our subscribers is handsomely printed from entirely new plates, with new type. The twelve volumes contain the following world-famous works, each one of which is published complete and absolutely unabridged:

DAVID COPPERFIELD,
MARTIN CHUZZLEWIT,
NICHOLAS NICKELBY,
DOMBEY AND SON,
BLEAK HOUSE,
LITTLE DORRIT,
OUR MUTUAL FRIEND,
PICKWICK PAPERS,
BARNABY RUDGE AND CHRISTMAS STORIES,
OLIVER TWIST AND GREAT EXPECTATIONS,
THE OLD CURIOSITY SHOP AND THE UNCOMMERCIAL TRAVELER,
A TALE OF TWO CITIES, HARD TIMES AND THE MYSTERY OF EDWIN DROOD.

The above are without question the most famous novels that were ever written. For a quarter of a century they have been celebrated in every nook and corner of the civilized world. Yet there are thousands of homes in America, but not supplied with a set of Dickens, the usual high cost of books preventing people in moderate circumstances from enjoying them. But now, owing to the use of modern improved printing, folding and stitching machinery, the cheapness of white paper, and the great competition in the book trade, we are able to offer to our subscribers and readers a set of Dickens' works at a price which will bring them within the reach of every family in the land may now be supplied with a set.

LOCAL ROUNDUPS

Luck sometimes makes a name,
But printers ink so black and solemn,
Will give a man peculiar fame,
When put in this peculiar column.

LOTS of locals on 1st page.

JAS. BRUCE will next week open a saloon opposite the post-office.

BUD. MERRITT has moved his saloon into the building formerly occupied by Dr. Reid.

WM. ENDER has gone to the Gallinas to spend the balance of the year doing assessment work.

WE are deeply indebted to Mrs Barber for a generous supply of blackberries, which were very toothsome to yu editor.

JOHN WHELAN, late of Lincoln passed through town on Monday for the R. R. It is rumored that his face is turned toward California.

THE Las Vegas Optic says that Page Otero is now in New York City. It is Otero & Pierce, mining brokers and investment, company, 32 Broadway.

WE could wish that space would permit our publishing the call of President Morrison for the annual meeting of the Territorial Republican League, to be holden at Albuquerque on the 17th of Sept. It is an able document but far too lengthy for our columns.

MRS. TIMONEY has now got her book and stationary department in recherche shape. She is highly deserving of patronage because of her enterprise, suavity and the fact that she is prepared, as nobody here ever was before, to supply all kinds of literature.

The World Enriched.

The facilities of the present day for the production of everything that will conduce to the material welfare and comfort of mankind are almost unlimited and when Syrup of Figs was first produced the world was enriched with the only perfect laxative known, as it is the only remedy which is truly pleasing and refreshing to the taste and prompt as a Dental to cleanse the system gently in the Spring time or, in fact, at any time, and the better it is known the more popular it becomes.

THE Optic of Monday says—Col. G. W. Stoneroad started, overland, Sunday, for White Oaks, near which place he will take charge of the Jicarilla mining property, pending the resumption of work on the rich mines that only need water for their paying development.

ANOTHER scout was made happy on Thursday, that of E. M. Boone, one of our worthy young miners. The occasion was his being joined by his wife and little child. Mrs. B. is a first-class dressmaker and will engage in the business as soon as she arrives.

CARD OF THANKS.

The undersigned on leaving White Oaks, where we have been located for the past two months taking pictures and views, cannot depart without expressing, however feebly, our thanks to this people for their very liberal patronage and the courteous treatment we have received at their hands. It will be with pleasure that we shall make another visit here within a few months.

Cordially,
HODSOLL & STRINGFELLOW.

UNDER the head of "Big Sale" the last El Paso Bullion says—"We have been advised that the Old Abe, of White Oaks, N. M., of which H. B. Ferguson is an owner, has been sold for the sum of $600,000 and that the final papers were being executed. We trust that further information before next issue will place us in a position to publish a corroboration of this report.

"Go away from home to learn the news," is an old adage. Prof. Longnicker has been imposed upon The Old Abe has not been sold, neither is it for sale.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.

MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP, for children teething, is the prescription of one of the best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and has been used for thirty years with never failing success by millions of mothers, for their children, during the process of teething. Its value is incalculable. It relieves the child from pain, cures dysentery and diarrhœa, griping in the bowels, and wind colic. By giving health to the child it rests the mother. Price 25c. a bottle.

ONE of the best evidences of the financial health of a town is revealed by the post-office dumps and returns. In this showing White Oaks comes to the front.—During the first 12 days of this month the amount of money orders issued from our P. O. was $1,249,—or over a $100 a day.—Will some other 4th class office in the Territory compare figures?—This, be it understood, is but a small fraction of the local savings away of our people's money, as much more is sent by checks, drafts, express, etc.

LAST Wednesday Wm. Gallagher met with an accident which well nigh proved his quietus. He had been at work in Collier's well, and about the hour of noon was being hauled up in a bucket when he inhaled some foul air and fell headdirt to the bottom, nearly 30 feet receiving two very severe scalp wounds. He was speedily brought to terra firma and his home and is now doing well, but his hair will have to go uncombed for some time yet.

JAMES YOUNG, from Las Vegas, an expert mason, came here this week to superintend the masonry of Hewitt's new building. Before commencing on that however, he has so far employed himself in putting in place and readiness for work the new boiler and machinery of the Old Abe steam hoist. Mr. Young is a master mechanic, an all 'round genius and an Irish gentleman.

$300 Reward for Ore Thieves.

The common experience of this camp shows that much is lost by the mine operators by the stealing of gold in specimens, if not in amalgam and bullion.—Therefore, the "Old Abe" Company offers a standing reward of Three Hundred Dollars for the arrest and conviction, or for information leading to the arrest and conviction of any person guilty of stealing any of the property of the Old Abe Co., even the smallest specimen of ore.—The rule of this company is to mill all specimens. Therefore none of the ore from this mine can be honestly held as specimens. And as the receiver, with guilty knowledge, is as guilty in law as the thief, this offer applies to the holder of Old Abe specimens.

YOU WANT

a San Francisco paper, of course you want a good one. The WEEKLY EXAMINER is just what you want completely, for it is the best. It gives you every week not only all the news, but the best literary and miscellaneous matter published on the American continent—that is its specialty; being the best. It wants your subscription—yours particularly—and offers not only to you, but to every other subscriber, one or more attractive premiums.

In the first place, it gives every subscriber, one of the four magnificent etchings or paintings described below, and delivers it safely at his address, prepaid.

"The Retreat from Moscow," by Meissonier,
"The Roman Chariot Race," by A. Wagner.

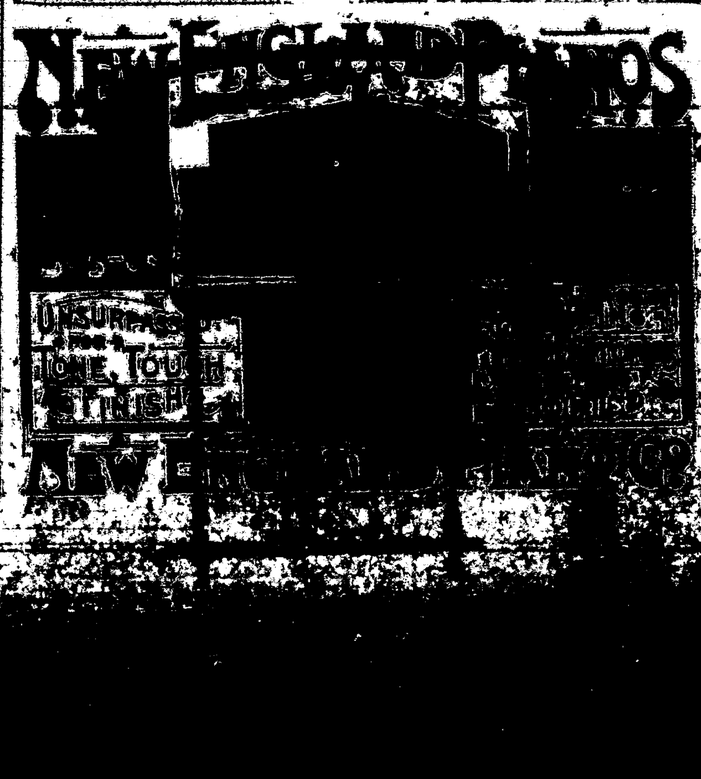
Each of these pictures is 22x28 inches, and they are elegantly reproduced in fac simile, requiring over [illegible] separate impressions, either one of which would not be considered cheap at $5.00.

"Women and Children First," by C. Napier Hemy,
"Christ Leaving the Prætorium," by Gustave Doré.

Each of these pictures is reproduced in photogravure, size 21x28, and eminently fitted for framing, and will adorn the walls of the most critical home.

In the second place, it will give 5,000 premiums, valued in the aggregate at about $125,000 to its subscribers this year. If there are 50,000 subscribers, one in ten will get one of these premiums; if there are 100,000, only one in twenty. But no matter how many there are, each and every one of these premiums—which range in value from 50 cents to $6,000—will be given absolutely without cost to some of those who have paid $3.00 for the WEEKLY EXAMINER for one year. The EXAMINER is financially responsible, as you know, or Wells Fargo & Co. or any bank or commercial agency in San Francisco will assure you, and the leading men of the city will see that its premiums are distributed exactly as above, and that every subscriber no matter where he is located, will receive what is assigned to him.

Of course you want your home paper also, and you can just as well as not save a little money by taking the EXAMINER with it. The price of the WEEKLY EXAMINER is $1.50 per year, including the premium picture and your share of the $125,000 list of premiums, which are fully described in the twelve page Premium Supplement, which will be sent free on application to

W. R. HEARST, Publisher, San Francisco, Cal.


The EXAMINER and the LEADER, the combined price of which is $2.50, will be sent you for one year, postage paid, for $3.00. Send the money to the office of the LEADER and your subscription will be promptly forwarded to the EXAMINER, and you will receive therefor the EXAMINER's numbered receipt. You can get a Premium Supplement by applying at this office.
