Christians vs. Barbarians.

The Christian nations and the Empire of the Chinese are not in perfect harmony. It will be some time yet before they reach that blessed state. The Christian nations are young and have their own way of thinking. The Chinese nation is much older and had established lines of government a long time before the Christian era. Both, of late, have been intent on looking abroad. By treaty the ports of both were opened. The Christian might open Chinese ports and Chinese towns, and the Chinaman might also enter Christian ports and Christian towns. But in course of time, and under the stress of politics, this country decided to abjure the treaty—that part of it which permitted Chinamen to come to America, but not that provision which permitted Americans to go to China, and of traveling and settling there. To the Chinaman this seems to be a one-sided arrangement. They are slow to see the ways and wherefores that lead up to it—and it is not a matter of wonder that troubles arise and bad blood gets the upper hand. These people are interested through their prints of the main features of our acts concerning them, and it is fair to presume that the accounts are not necessarily favorable to our side as they travel, hence there is little return to render that troubles arise. Moreover, is a nation of four hundred millions of people, covering a vast area, and doing things in plodding ways, it is not to be supposed that the central government can exert itself so readily as that of this country. We use the telegraph and rail. They have little of either, and neither are used in the transaction of the affairs of state.

But underlying all is the fact that they want no interference with Christian nations that goes farther than the mere interchange of goods at port cities. They object to immigration of Christians into their country. Now that their people are shut out from our ports they are all the more unwilling that our people should be permitted to have the run of their country. Perhaps there is some sense in that way of reasoning.

Besides all this, they are not of our religion and do not wish to be. They dislike our proselyting ways in the same degree, perhaps, that we should object to the coming here of the adherents of Buddhism, Mohammedanism or any other foreign religion. From such adventuring conditions and ways these troubles come and ever will. It is easy to say that we are ever ready and the Chinaman always ready, but the latter intended that we should not.

There is one further story in

to White Oaks, and turn the ten miles already graded, ready to use, with all the franchises and rights of way, to the new organization.

The former directors of the old organization will do all they can to assist in making the efforts of the new directors successful and harmonious and good will prevail among the citizens of El Paso, so that if hard work and the assistance of the entire people of El Paso means anything work will be commenced ere long. The executive committee will meet on or before Oct. 15, at Las Vegas, when definite plans and reliable information will be given to the public.

Let our citizens of Lincoln Co., and especially of White Oaks, put their shoulders to the wheel and assist to their utmost, as the proposition means business and will make White Oaks what it should have been long ago, the largest, most successful and important city in New Mexico.

In this connection we append a few editorial notes from our exchanges. The last one was written by an Ishmalite hand, by a fellow who is opposed to everybody and every thing but J. G. Albright.

The El Paso Herald aptly remarks that railroads are not built in a day, and at present it is difficultly experienced in inducing the investment of capital, but there is plenty of capital awaiting profitable investment, and if the resources of the country are properly placed before the moneyed men, there should be no reasonable doubt but that the White Oaks road will be built, and in the near future.

Prof. Carrera, of Las Cruces, surprised the El Paso convention with the statement that the gypsum beds alone from the White Oaks district would pay in a short time for the cost of construction of the proposed railroad. The United States produces annually 100,000 tons of gypsum and imports 150,000 tons more, at a cost of $1,500,000. The gypsum beds of White Oaks are of peculiar formation. It is impossible to estimate the amount in sight, but there are millions upon millions of tons there that contain 25 per cent of water.

A special dispatch from El Paso to the Denver Times states that Denver will promise $200,000, Trinidad, $200,000—Las Vegas, $100,000—White Oaks, $50,000 and the Maxwell land grant will probably subscribe $200,000 in aid of the construction of the El Paso short line.

The enterprising town of White Oaks offers right of way and deeded grounds to help secure the R. R. from El Paso. Messrs Hewitt and Watson each offer to donate $5,000 to help secure the road. White Oaks is a good town, in a rich mineral region, and deserves railroad facilities.

The presentation of the naked facts is all that is necessary for the early construction of the Denver, Pueblo, Trinidad, Las Vegas, White Oaks & El Paso Railway, usually called the El Paso short

When the Bell Rings,

El Paso R. R. Convention.

The El Paso R. R. Convention held Sept. 21, 22, and 23rd, was, without controversy, the most successful move that has ever been inaugurated for the advancement of White Oaks and Lincoln County generally. The cities of Denver, Trinidad, Pueblo and Las Vegas, north of us, mean business, and will contribute liberally to the building of the R. R. from Denver to El Paso via White Oaks.

Denver's representative, Hon. T. M. Patterson, is a man of renown, wealth and influence, and among the wealthiest western men who control great wealth and can place the matter of building the White Oaks Road before his people in such a light that almost any amount can be raised and will be. Those cities will do their part.

Pueblo will do all that is asked of her and is greatly interested in the line of road contemplated.

The "Maxwell Grant," through its manager, Mr. M. P. Pels, took upon himself a great part of the amount to be raised for surveys, and announced that the right of way would be given, free of cost, through their entire domain, and furthermore that they would furnish timber for the entire line of road without charge for stumpage or cost from their land in Colorado and New Mexico and take such amount of stock in the company as the executive committee might place on their proposition.

Trinidad will do its share and furnish its proportion in every way, survey, donations for right of way, and taking stock in the company.

Taos County, through its representative on the executive committee, Hon. Anthony Joseph, will assist in an appreciable manner.

Las Vegas is enthusiastic in the enterprise and will contribute liberally in any manner that may come up or be required of it; in fact, it will contribute an amount equal to ten per cent. of its assessed value, if necessary. The best and most progressive men of the city are at the head of the movement, such as O. L. Houghton, E. A. Manzanarez, Jefferson Reynolds, et al. are interested to start, and in their lexicon there is no such word as "fail."

White Oaks will do its share. With John Y. Hewitt as the member of the executive committee the people in their confidence will assist him to their utmost. Never before has our town felt the importance that this movement means for all. Every man that has a piece of real estate, or an interest in the coal, iron, gold, silver, lead or marble properties of our own territory is personally interested in making the building of this line of road a success, and therefore all will and should contribute their mite.

El Paso is sobriety for the road and has agreed to pay off the entire indebtedness of the Look & Co.

This report is being circulated

on what appears to be good authority, that Jay Gould himself is behind the scheme to build a new road through New Mexico to El

Paso via Las Vegas and White

Oaks. Gould controls the Union

Pacific, which has a line from Trinidad to Catekill, in Colfax County and when he was at El Paso several years ago he had parties to manipulate things so as to get control of the El Paso-White Oaks

franchise. What the Territory wants is more railroads, and if

Jay Gould desires to build new lines let him do it.

Desirable for Ladies.

The new Fashion Journals published by Mc-Dowell & Co., 4 West

Street, New York, are again on our table. The superiority of these journals is abundantly shown on every page. "La Mode" is the smallest of the three, and intended for family use. It has many styles for children, and is only $1.50 per year, or 15 per copy. "La Mode

de Paris" is an elegant journal,

filled with everything of the latest style in Paris. This is a great favorite with ladies who wish to keep posted in the new styles as they come out. "Album des

Mode" is also a popular Parisian publication, many ladies giving it the preference. It is replete with such styles as are patronized by the middle-classes, its designs being neat and plain, yet all of the richest character. These three justice of the peace and a jury who had been trying a case all day,

were delayed by the absence of a witness named Sarah Mooney.

Finally the justice said, with an attempt at wit, "We will adjourn

this case without Sarah Mooney

(ceremony)." One of the jurors went home after laughing to him a while, proceeded to tell the story to his wife. "Huh! I don't see anything funny about that," snapped his wife. "Neither did I, dear,"

he said, "until I was about half way home; and it will not strike

you for about half an hour."

GRAND PREMIUM OFFER!
 A SET OF THE
WORKS OF CHARLES DICKENS,

In Twelve Large Volumes,
 Which we offer with a Year's Subscription to the Leader for a Trifle More than One Regular Subscription Price.

During the past six months, we have made arrangements with a New York publishing house whereby we are enabled to offer a premium to our subscribers on a set of the Works of Charles Dickens in Twelve Large and Handsome Volumes, with a year's subscription to this paper, for a little more than our regular subscription price. Our great offer to subscribers is only for a limited time. Charles Dickens was the greatest novelist who ever lived. His author before or since his time has been the most beloved and read of writers. His works were popular today than during his lifetime. They abound in wit, humor, pathos, sympathy, admiration of character, vivid description of places and incidents, deft and skillfully wrought plots. Each book is intensely interesting. No home should be without a set of these great and remarkable works. But to have read them is to be far behind the age in which we live. The set of Dickens' works which we offer as a premium to our subscribers is a set of twelve large, handsome volumes, each one of which is published in a separate volume, and absolutely unabridged.

DAVID COPPERFIELD, MARTIN CHuzzleWIT, NICHOLAS NICKLEBY, BOMBEY AND SON, BLEAK HOUSE, LITTLE DORRIT, OUR MUTUAL FRIEND, PICKWICK PAPERS, BARNABY RUDGE AND CHRISTMAS STORIES, OLIVER TWIST AND GREAT EXPECTATIONS, THE CURIOUSITY SHOP AND THE UNCOMMERCIAL TRAVELER, A TALE OF TWO CITIES, HARD TIMES AND THE MYSTERY OF EDWIN DROOD.

The above are without question the most famous novels that were ever written. For a quarter of a century they have been celebrated in every nook and corner of the civilized world. Set there are thousands of homes in America not yet supplied with a set of Dickens. The high cost of the books prevents people in general from enjoying this luxury. But now, owing to the use of modern improved printing, following and including the extremely low price of paper, and the great consumption of paper in the United States, we are enabled to offer our subscribers a set of Dickens' works at a price which all can afford to pay. Every home in the land may now be supplied with a set of the great author's works.

Lincoln County LEADER one year and full set of Dickens' works for $10.00.
