THE CHICAGO WEEKLY NEWS and LINCOLN CO. LEADER, 1 year $2.75.

R. R. MEETING.

On last Monday evening a large and enthusiastic meeting of our citizens was held at Young & Taliaferro's Hall, for the purpose of hearing the reports of the several committees that were appointed at the citizens' railroad meeting held on the 2nd inst., an account of which we published in last week's issue.

Promptly at 7½ o'clock Col. J. W. Heman called the meeting to order, after which the minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

The chairman of the committee on survey expense, Mr. Watson, was called upon and reported that White Oaks had subscribed and would pay two dollars. Our [illegible] White [illegible] $1,000 a [illegible] every expense [illegible] right of way [illegible] Parker, [illegible] conditions which [illegible] with approval by [illegible] plan suggested [illegible] gives the Lincoln [illegible] Lone free right [illegible] White Oaks, and [illegible] at no loss shall fall [illegible] perty owners. The [illegible] voted throwing the [illegible] further north than [illegible] subscribed by the El [illegible] Oaks R. R. This statement [illegible] by several gentlemen who said they would [illegible] subscriptions as soon [illegible] was perfected [illegible] construction would [illegible] he will also state [illegible] stated that some [illegible] would not [illegible] and right and [illegible] White Oaks [illegible] the first ex- He [illegible] this to [illegible] will go [illegible] provided [illegible] of Texas [illegible] of this block [illegible] pleased [illegible] that [illegible]

[illegible] ed there as it was at the El Paso R. R. Convention it will help to swell the District subscription to the El Paso and Denver Short Line.

Speeches were made by Messrs Watson and Hewitt, whose liberality in subscribing money for the construction of the road merits the warmest commendation.

Mr. M. Whiteman also addressed the meeting. He said that for years past rail road building to White Oaks had been all talk and that the outside world would not believe we had anything like the riches that lie buried in the hills of White Oaks and it's tributaries—the Bonito, Fearless and Gallinas, mountains of gold, silver, copper, lead, iron and marble, and that a railroad from El Paso to Denver could and would pay a handsome profit—that this was the people's work of which Lincoln County and New Mexico would be justly proud.

After moving that the several committees be continued and that the meeting become a permanent organization, for, as Mr. Hewitt stated, the people of White Oaks had enlisted for the war, determined to remain in the field until their part of the work of building was accomplished, the meeting adjourned for two weeks.

A BREEZY LETTER

From Maj. De W. C. Lane.

Santa Monica, Cal.,
October 1st, 1891.

DEAR MAJOR:

With the advent of the LEADER for which accept thanks, comes my promise to write you, and altho' promises are often like pie crust, made only to be broken, mine was not of that kind.

We reached Los Angeles Tuesday at 10 p. m., after a very pleasant trip. We met a former resident of White Oaks at San Antonia, Mr. Oscar Dyer, who very kindly saw to our trunks and had them all checked, saving us a good deal of trouble.

At Deming we had a long wait; our train was delayed owing to a washout near El Paso, hence we did not get away from there until 11 o'clock at night.

We saw on the way to Los Angeles the Great Desert Lake, looking almost like the ocean. I have since read the article in the October number of the Cosmopolitan, which gives a very good description of it.

We found Los Angeles much [illegible] charming city. It seems [illegible] there was room enough for everything and the abundance of flowers make it seem like a great garden.

Of course we noticed the ladies dresses about the first thing, but found no great difference between them and those worn by the ladies of White Oaks, who, I have always contended, dressed in as good taste as those of any town I have ever visited.

Now you would like, manlike, to have me give the gentlemen a little flattery. Flattery is called insincere praise. If I give my White Oaks friends praise it shall be sincere, so I shall dispose of the flattery question by saying nothing and letting you guess, and of course you will guess what will please you the most.

I wish I could tell you something about Santa Monica, the most exquisite spot, I think, I have ever seen. It is 18 miles from Los Angeles, trains running back and forth all the time. With the grand Pacific Ocean as far as the eye can reach, high mountains on one side, with plenty of large trees and flowers everywhere I think I could be content to live here the remaining days of my life.

There are a good many bathers here still. Early last we went down on the beach to take in the sights. The bathers were out fully out to enjoy themselves. There was the timid woman who always has to be taken in, and the fast ware generally grasp at anything and everything within her reach—then the woman who don't care a cent who is looking on, but with an old hat well jammed down on her head runs into the highest water with a dive like a duck. The two fat men who go in to swim and then come out and roll in the sand, rub each other down with sand and workout and turn dance a few steps at the water's edge. We saw them all and laughed with as well as at them.

The Arcadia is a very fine hotel, [illegible] and the grounds, though small, [illegible] especially [illegible] at [illegible] pleasure. [illegible] "Her Fate Hanged" is an absorbing novellette; any woman can learn to ride, and to ride gracefully, if she will follow the rules given in "Lessons in Riding"; those who are preparing Christmas gifts will find appropriate mottoes for them and numerous pretty styles of in "Home Art and Home Comfort"; in "Sanitarian," Susanna W. Dodds, M. E., tell about "The Unequal Distributation of Clothing," in the first of her articles on "Woman's Dress Hygienically Considered"; housekeepers will find some appetizings "Thanksgiving Menus"; in fact, something to interest everybody will be found in this comprehensive Magazine, which is published for $3 a year by W. JENNINGS DEMOREST, 15 East 14th St., New York City.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.

MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP, for children teething, is the prescription of one of the best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and has been used for forty years with never failing success by millions of mothers for their children, during the process of teething, with perfect safety. It relieves the child from pain, cures dysentery and diarrhœa, griping in the bowels, and wind colic. By giving rest to the child it rests the mother. Price 25c. a bottle.

AMERICAN BEAUTIES.

The beauty of American women is proverbial, and the distinction is well merited. It is doubtful whether any country could show a more notable bevy of perfectly lovely woman than whose portraits are given in the November number of DEMOREST'S FAMILY MAGAZINE, just received. Exquisite pictures of a score of "Famous Beauties of the South" afford a feast of beauty that everyone should enjoy, and may, by simply procuring a copy of this splendid number of this jon. There is more cotton in part ticular. A unique series of articles is begun in this number, "Tho ever sold in the same length of Romances of Pre Columbian Dis- time.

Royal Baking Powder Contested in the New York Legislature.

[New York Press.]

Last Monday Mr. Kelly introduced the following bill in the assembly. A careful reading of it will show that it is a very important one.

An Act to prevent the use of poisonous and injurious ingredients in baking powders.

Whereas, Baking Powders [illegible] sold in this state, known as the "ROYAL" alum and other Baking Powders are advertised to be "absolutely pure, and,

Whereas, Official examination show them to contain ammonia and other injurious ingredients; therefore THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1.—Every can or package of baking powder containing Ammonia offered for sale in this State shall have a conspicuous label thereon with the words "Contains Ammonia" printed there in plain type not smaller than [illegible] size and any person who shall [illegible] or have or offer for sale, any such can or package of baking powder without such label thereon shall be guilty of misdemeanor.

Section 2.—This act shall take effect July 1st, 1891.

CONSTANTINOPLE CHURCH.

[illegible] had concluded to [illegible] daughter Ruth. We [illegible] thought it best called it [illegible]

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder.

A Pure Cream Tartar Powder. ROYAL, contains Ammonia. TAYLOR'S ONE SPOON. Contains Alum and Ammonia.

Dr. Price gives larger and fuller cans than those of any other Baking Powder manufacturer.

Above cut represents the comparative size of one pound can each "Dr. Price's," Royal" and "Taylor's One Spoon." These cans were set side by side, then photographed down in exact proportions to admit the plate in this space. Ask your grocer to set a one pound can of any other brand alongside 1 lb. Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder, and observe the difference, as illustrated above.

Adulterated powders may usually be detected by their heavier bulk, as shown by the small cans, and these scantily filled, often containing a circular to help fill out the cans. It is a singular fact that many of the ammonia and alum baking powders are advertised as "Absolutely Pure." All official examinations prove that it would be safe to reject all powders labeled absolutely pure.

The economy in using Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder does not consist alone in the fact that much larger and fuller cans are given, but Dr. Price's is a stronger, purer and more wholesome baking powder than any other known. Does better work, and goes farther, hence more economical in every way.

What woman would use an ammonia or alum baking powder if she knew it? Such powders not only undermine the health, but ammonia gives to the complexion a sallow and blotched appearance.

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder is reported by all authorities as free from ammonia, alum, lime, or any other adulterant. The purity of this ideal powder has never been questioned.

Refuse all substitutes. They conceal either ammonia or alum.

DEAD.

The tall, manly form of Jeff. D. Grumbles lies prone in death; his big heart has ceased to beat; his noble soul has cleft the azure sky and now stands in the presence of it's Creator. After battling with fever for some three weeks his brain finally absorbed the disease, and at Thursday morning took it's place in the calendar Jeff's immortal spirit went out with the life of Wednesday.

Jeff came here in 1881, since which year he has been an indefatigable worker and so bore his moral equipoise as to command the respect of everybody. Some four years ago he married a Texas lad who with one of two children given them survive to mourn their irreparable loss.

He was aged 20 years on the 16th of last month hence was cut down in the prime time of life.—Since the "Old Abe" developed into a bonanza the deceased was it's foreman hold'n that position up to the date of his demise. On the announcement of his death on Thursday morning all mills closed down and every miner made preparations for the funeral, and in the afternoon all places of business were closed while stone-masons, mechanics and laborers outside of mineral lines suspended work in respect to his memory and to attend the obsequies. The public and high schools also closed their doors after dismissing their scholars.

The Congregational Church was crowded in the afternoon when Rev. Burke read pious selections from the Bible, hymns were sung, and an opportunity given to take a last look on the face of the departed, after which the funeral cortege which was very large, moved to the cemetery, where, under the auspices of the Knights of Pythias, and after the rendition of their impressive burial service, Jeff, as he was familiarly called, was laid away. Vale.

Thursday about noon, Mrs. Seymour, mother of the late Manville Seymour, departed this life, aged about 92 years. We have no data save that she was a Christian lady, who, bed-ridden for years, patiently awaited the call of her Master.

a San Francisco paper and of course you want a good one, the WEEKLY EXAMINER fills the want completely, for it is the best. It gives you every week not only all the news, but the best literary and miscellaneous matter published on the American continent is its specialty; being the best. It wants your subscription particularly—and offers not only to you, but to every other subscriber one or more attractive premiums.
In the first place, it gives every subscriber, one of the five magnificent etchings or paintings described below, and delivers it to him at his address, postage paid.
"The Retreat from Moscow," by Meissonier.
"The Roman Chariot Race," by A. Wagner.
Each of these pictures is 21x28 inches, and they are elegantly [illegible] showing every line and color of the great originals, either one of which would be chased for $100,000.
"Women and Children First," by C. Napier Henry.
"Christ Leaving the Praetorium," by Gustave Dore.
Each of these pictures is reproduced in photogravure, size 21x28, and [illegible] for framing, and will adorn the walls of the most refined home.
Each subscriber has the choice of any one of these four pictures, which will be mailed him in a tube direct from the EXAMINER office, as soon as the subscription is received.
In the second place, it will give 5,000 premiums, valued in the aggregate at about $125,000 to its subscribers this year. If there are 50,000 subscribers, one in ten will get one of these premiums; if there are 100,000, only one in twenty. But no matter how many there are, each and every one of these premiums—which range in value from 50 cents to $6,000—will be given absolutely without cost to some of those who have paid $1.50 for the WEEKLY EXAMINER for one year. The EXAMINER is thoroughly responsible, as you know, or as Wells, Fargo & Co. or any bank or commercial agency in San Francisco will assure you, and the leading men of the city will see that its premiums are distributed exactly as agreed and that every subscriber no matter where he is located, will receive just what is assigned to him.
Of course you want your home paper also, and you can just as well as not save a little money by taking the EXAMINER with it. W. R. HEARST, Publisher, San Francisco, Cal.
The EXAMINER and the LEADER, the combined price of which is $2.50, will be sent you for one year, postage paid, for $2.00. Send the money to the office of the LEADER and your subscription will be promptly forwarded to the EXAMINER, and you will receive therefor the EXAMINER'S numbered receipt. THE CHICAGO WEEKLY NEWS and LINCOLN CO. LEADER, 1 year $2.75.

R. R. MEETING.

On last Monday evening a large and enthusiastic meeting of our citizens was held at Young & Taliferro's Hall, for the purpose of hearing the reports of the several committees that were appointed at the citizens' railroad meeting held on the 2nd inst., an account of which we published in last week's issue.

Promptly at 7½ o'clock Col. T. W. Heman called the meeting to order, after which the minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

The chairman of the committee on survey expense, Mr. Watson, was called upon and reported that White Oaks had subscribed and paid twenty-two dollars. Our readers will remember that White Oaks was asked for $1,000 as its share of the survey expense.

The committee on right of way through Mr. E. W. Parker, then reported with suggestions which were received with approval by the meeting. The plan suggested by the committee gives the Denver and El Paso Short Line free right of way through White Oaks, and also provides that no loss shall fall upon small property owners. The plan also suggested throwing the track 200 feet further north than that previously adopted by the El Paso & White Oaks R. R.; it will also save a large amount of improved property which would otherwise have caused serious loss, especially upon parties unable to bear the expense.

Mr. John Y. Hewitt, chairman of the committee on subscription to stock, reported that his committee had secured $19,175 and that with a little more time said subscription would be more than doubled, as parties who had subscribed small sums would largely increase their subscriptions as soon as assurances were given that the road would be built. This statement was fully endorsed by several gentlemen present who said they would increase their subscriptions as soon as the organization was perfected and the work of construction commenced. Mr. Hewitt also stated that he was advised that many wealthy and prominent non-residents who held real estate and mining properties in White Oaks would take stock in the road. He also stated that his committee had a wealth of mineral resources to the Denver Board of Trade and published a work and exhibited ... specimens of ... ore which excited ... pride and pleasure ... We have said ... say that our ... figure in ... fully appreciat... ed there as it was at the El Paso R. R. Convention it will help to swell the Denver subscription to the El Paso and Denver Short Line.

Speeches were made by Messrs Watson and Hewitt, whose liberality in subscribing money for the construction of the road merits the warmest commendation.

Mr. M. Whiteman also addressed the meeting. He said that for years past rail road building to White Oaks had been all talk and that the outside world would not believe we had anything like the riches that lie buried in the hills of White Oaks and it's tributaries—the Bonito, Jicarillas and Gallinas, mountains of gold, silver, copper, lead, iron and marble, and that a railroad from El Paso to Denver could and would pay a handsome profit—that this was the people's work of which Lincoln County and New Mexico would be justly proud.

After moving that the several committees be continued and that the meeting become a permanent organization, for, as Mr. Hewitt stated, the people of White Oaks had enlisted for the war, determined to remain in the field until their part of the work of building was accomplished, the meeting adjourned for two weeks.

The Royal Baking Powder Condemned in the New York Legislature.

[New York Press.]

Last Monday Mr. Kelly introduced the following bill in the assembly. A careful reading of it will show that it is a very important one.

AN ACT to prevent the use of poisonous and injurious ingredients in baking powders.

WHEREAS, Baking Powders manufactured in this state, known as the "ROYAL" alum and other Baking Powders are advertised for sale as absolutely pure, and,

WHEREAS, Official examination shows them to contain ammonia and other injurious ingredients; therefore THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1.—Every can or package of baking powder containing Ammonia offered for sale in this State shall have a conspicuous label thereon with the words "Contains Ammonia" printed there in plain type not smaller than great primer and any person who shall sell, or have in order for sale, any such can or package of baking powder without such label thereon shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Section 2.—This act shall take effect July 1, 1891.

CONSUMPTION CURED.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of Consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma, and all Throat and Lung Affections, also a positive and radical cure for Nervous Debility and all Nervous Complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, in German, French or English, with full directions for preparing and using. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper, W. A. NOYES, 820 Powers' Block, Rochester, N. Y.

Cleveland has concluded to call her new daughter Ruth. We think she might to have called it Marsh.

A BREEZY LETTER

From Mrs. D. N. M. Lane.

Santa Monica, Cal.,
October 1st, 1891.

DEAR MAJOR:

With the advent of the LEADER for which accept thanks, comes my promise to write you, and altho' promises are often like pie crust, made only to be broken; mine was not of that kind.

We reached Los Angeles Tuesday at 10 p. m., after a very pleasant trip. We met a former resident of White Oaks at San Antonia, Mr. Oscar Dyer, who very kindly saw to our trunks and had them all checked, saving us a good deal of trouble.

At Deming we had a long wait; our train was delayed owing to a washout near El Paso, hence we did not get away from there until 11 o'clock at night.

We saw on the way to Los Angeles the Great Desert Lake, looking almost like the ocean. I have since read the article in the October number of the Cosmopolitan, which gives a very good description of it.

We found Los Angeles much [illegible] charming city. It [illegible] there was room enough for everything and the abundance of flowers make it seem like a great garden.

Of course we noticed the Ladies dresses about the first thing, but found no great difference between them and those worn by the ladies of White Oaks, who, I have always contended, dressed in as good taste as those of any town I have ever visited.

Now you would like, manlike, to have me give the gentlemen a little flattery. Flattery is called insincere praise. If I give my White Oaks friends praise if shall be sincere, so I shall dispose of the flattery question by saying nothing and letting you guess, and of course you will guess what will please you the most.

I wish I could tell you something about Santa Monica, the most exquisite spot, I think, I have ever seen. It is 18 miles from Los Angeles, trains running back and forth all the time. With the grand Pacific Ocean as far as the eye can reach, high mountains on one side, with plenty of large trees and flowers everywhere, I think I could be content to live here the remaining days of my life.

There are a good many bathers here still. Sunday last we went down on the beach to take in the sights. The bathers were certainly out to enjoy themselves. There was the timid woman who always has to be taken in, and at the first wave generally grasp at anything and everything within her reach—then the woman who don't care a cent who is looking on, but with an old hat well jammed down on her head goes into the highest breaker with a dive like a duck. The two fat men who go in together and then come out and roll in the sand, roll each other down with sand and seaweed and then dance a hornpipe at the water's edge. We ran down all and laugh with as well as at them.

The Arcadia is a very fine hotel, covering, handsomely illustrated and the grounds, though small, which are especially attractive and kept in [illegible] order. At this place I met Miss [illegible] guests.

We attended the Presbyterian Church on Sunday, a new building, seated with opera chairs, and nearly all the windows were of stained glass. The sermon was preached by a gentleman who said he numbered among his acquaintances many of the crowned heads of Europe. So I felt we were favored and the sermon well flavored.

Now, is my promise not well kept? I have done it purely to please you, and if I have done so, in any degree, I am fully satisfied,

Sincerely Yours,
A. L.

AMERICAN BEAUTIES.

THE beauty of American women is proverbial, and the distinction is well merited; it is doubtful whether any country could show a more notable bevy of perfectly lovely woman than whose portraits are given in the November number of DEMOREST'S FAMILY MAGAZINE, just received. Exquisite pictures of a score of "Famous Beauties of the South" afford a feast of beauty that everyone should enjoy, and may, by simply procuring a copy of this splendid number of this publication. A unique series of articles is begun in this number, "The Romances of Pre-Columbian Discovery." Other illustrated articles of timely interest, and stories by well known writers, make up a number that will be found unusually attractive. DEMOREST'S FAMILY MAGAZINE is published by W. JENNINGS DEMOREST, 15 East 14th St., New York City.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.

MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP, for children teething, is the prescription of one of the best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and has been used for forty years with never failing success by millions of mothers and children, during the process of teething, by softening the gums, reducing all inflammation, will allay all pain; cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhœa, whether arising from teething or from other causes. We believe it the best and surest remedy in the world, in all cases of dysentery and diarrhœa in children, whether arising from teething or from any other cause. Full directions for using will accompany each bottle. None genuine unless the fac-simile of CURTIS & PERKINS, New York, is on the outside wrapper. Sold by druggists throughout the world. Price 25c. a bottle.

THE Farmers' Alliance combine to hold wheat and cotton for higher prices has so far made no impression. There is more cotton in port than ever before at this season of the year, and more on the market than ever sold in the same length of time.

As you see the standard

A Pure Cream Tartar Powder. ROYAL, Contains Ammonia. TAYLOR'S ONE SPOON. Contains Alum and Ammonia.

Dr. Price gives larger and fuller cans than those of any other Baking Powder manufacturer.

Above cut represents the comparative size of one pound can each "Dr. Price's," Royal" and "Taylor's One Spoon." These cans were set side by side, then photographed down in exact proportions to admit the plate in this space. Ask your grocer to set a one pound can of any other brand alongside 1 lb. Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder, and observe the difference, as illustrated above.

Adulterated powders may usually be detected by their heavier bulk, as shown by the small cans, and these scantily filled, often containing a circular to help fill out the cans. It is a singular fact that many of the ammonia and alum baking powders are advertised as "Absolutely Pure." All official examinations prove that it would be safe to reject all powders labeled absolutely pure.

The economy in using Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder does not consist alone in the fact that much larger and fuller cans are given, but Dr. Price's is a stronger, purer and more wholesome baking powder than any other known. Does better work, and goes farther, hence more economical in every way.

What woman would use an ammonia or alum baking powder if she knew it? Such powders not only undermine the health, but ammonia given to the complexion a sallow and blotched appearance.

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder is reported by all authorities as free from ammonia, alum, lime, or any other adulterant. The purity of this ideal powder has never been questioned.

Refuse all substitutes. They conceal either ammonia or alum.

PERSONAL AND LITERARY.

—George Eliot was so religious when a young woman that she would not go to the theater or opera or even an oratorio, although she was devoted to music.

—The color of Othello has been a questioned point in Shakespeare. M. Benjamin Constant, the French artist, has recently expressed his opinion that Othello was not yellowish-brown, but decidedly black.

—Todd's Johnson's dictionary has 55,000 words, Worster's latest edition 116,000, Webster's 118,000, the Imperial 120,000, the Encyclopedic 160,000. The Century dictionary is to have 200,000 and more, very possibly 10,000 or 20,000 more.

—The real name of Edna Lyall, author of "We Two," "A Knight Errant," and other semi-religious novels, is Ada Ellen Bayley. She is an English woman, and has considerable means apart from the earnings from her novels, which have a large sale. She is said to have made up her mind when she was ten that she would follow a literary career, and her first book was written and published when she was only seventeen.

—Wilkie Collins wrote to his publishers during his visit to America in 1873: "Wherever I go I meet with the same kindness and the same enthusiasm. I really want words to express my grateful sense of my reception in America. It is not only more than I have deserved, it is more than any man could have deserved. I have never met with such a cordial and such a generous people as the people of the United States. Let me add that I thrive on this kindness. I keep wonderfully well."

—Martin Farquhar Tupper's daughter tells how her father came to write his "Proverbial Philosophy" as follows: "It is quite romantic. Papa fell in love with his cousin Isabelle, and then he thought he would, when he married her, translate his notions in the manner of Solomon's Proverbs, and he did so in the articles, first on marriage, then on love, friendship, and so on. But, of course, you know my father has written a great deal against Ritualism, and he is a strong supporter of the constitution.

PRINTERS' INK.
A JOURNAL FOR ADVERTISERS.

Is issued on the first and fifteenth days of each month, and is the representative journal of the truly liberal of American advertisers. It indicates in the inexperienced advertiser how, what, and where to print (which is quite as important as how to display and what arrangement to use); how much money to expend—in fact, discusses in every point that studies of profitable discussion. Advertising is to art practiced by many but understood by few. The conductors of PRINTERS' INK understand it, and their advice is based on an experience of more than twenty-five years in placing advertising contracts for many of the largest and most successful advertisers. Free Reading Matter.

There are various schemes for getting reading matter at a trifle above actual cost. What would you think if you could get good literature free?

Drop a postal to G. T. Nicholson, G. P. and T. A., A. T. & S. F. R. R. Co., Topeka, Kan., and ask for a copy of "To Mexico by Palace Car." You can also procure free copies of "A Santa Barbara Holiday," "Guide to San Diego Bay Region," "Las Vegas Hot Springs Circle," and folders relating to Texas, Oklahoma and Kansas.

Newspaper Laws.

Dr. Tackerman, editor of the Workman Loveland, has taken some pains to collect and compile the decisions of the U. S. Courts on the subject and gives to the Washington Post, as the result of his investigations, the following, which may be relied upon as correct:

1. Subscribers who do not give express notice to the contrary are considered willing to renew their subscriptions.

2. If the subscriber orders the discontinuance of his periodical, the publisher may continue to send it until all arrearages are paid.

3. If subscribers neglect or refuse to take their periodicals from the office to which they are directed, they are responsible until they have settled their bills and ordered them discontinued.

4. If subscribers remove to other places without informing the publishers and the papers are sent to the former address they are held responsible.

5. The courts have decided that refusing to take periodicals from the office or removing and leaving them uncalled for is prima facie evidence of intentional fraud.

6. If any subscription is in advance they can legally collect at the end of the time for which the paper is paid; if payment is refused the publisher is authorized to stop it, and the subscriber will be responsible for any further issues. The payment of all arrearages is left to the subscriber.

The latest postal laws are said to make newspaper publishers responsible for fraud who takes a paper out of the office they for it. Under this law the publisher allows the subscription to run after some time unpaid and then orders the paper to be discontinued, or orders the paper to be sent to another address, or notifies the postmaster that he refuses to take the paper, or leaves the paper uncalled for, he is liable to be prosecuted for fraud.

Excellent Train Service.

The present schedule of train service on A. T. & S. F. R. R. from New Mexico is an excellent one.

A fast express leaves El Paso, Deming and Silver City early each afternoon, making connection at Lordsburg, and Texas Wells to La Junta, by daylight, arriving at Kansas City evening of second day, and Chicago morning of third day after day of departure. This train carries Pullman palace sleepers from El Paso to Kansas City, and Los Angeles to Chicago, with Pullman tourist sleepers Los Angeles to Kansas City making direct connection at La Junta for Pueblo, Colorado Springs and Denver, and at Barton for St. Louis via the Frisco Ry.

The train from San Francisco (with palace sleepers to Kansas City and tourist sleepers to Chicago) leaves Albuquerque daily at noon, strikes darkness near Wagon Mound, arriving in Kansas City evening of next day, and in Chicago the following morning. An additional Pullman sleeper is attached at Las Vegas, reaching Chicago without change to Denver via La Junta and Trinidad.

"Hello! Tom, glad to see you, old fellow! It's almost ten years since we were married. Sit down; he's have an experience meeting. How's the wife?"

"Oh I she's as sane as usual,—always wanting something. I can't afford it.

"Well, we all want something more than we've got. Don't we?"

"Yes; but I guess what will be my regret. I started to keep down expenses, and now I'll says I've 'means,' and she's tired of saving and never having anything to show for it. I saw your wife down street, and she looked as happy as a queen!"

"I think she is; and we are. Commercial, too,—have to be. My wife can make a little go further than anyone I ever knew, yet she's always surprising me with some dainty confection that adds to the comfort and beauty of our little home, and she's always 'merry as a lark.' When I ask how she manages it, she always laughs and says 'Oh! that's my secret!' But I think I've discovered her 'secret.' When we married, we both knew we should have to be very careful, but she made me confidant; she would have the Magazine. And she was right! I wouldn't do without it myself for double the subscription price. We read it together, from the title-page to the last word; it teaches keep our hearts young; the 'problems' of important events and scientific matters keeps me posted so that I can talk understandingly of what is going on; my wife is always trying some new idea from the household department; she makes all her dresses and those for the children, and she gets all her patterns for nothing, with the Magazine; and we saved Joe when he was sick with the croup, by doing just as directed in the Sanitarian Department. But I won't tell you half!"

"What wonderful Magazine is it?"

"Demorest's Family Magazine, and—"

"What! Why that's what I'll wanted so, bad, and I told her it was an extravagance."

"Well, my friend, there's where you made a grand mistake, and one you'd better rectify as soon as you can. I'll take your order right here, as my wife's account; she's gone to fulfill an engagement in time for our 5th wedding next month. My gold watch was the incentive I got for getting up a club. GRAND PREMIUM OFFER!

A SET OF THE

WORKS OF CHARLES DICKENS,

In Twelve Large Volumes,

CHARLES DICKENS.

Which we Offer with a Year's Subscription to the Lincoln County Leader for a Trifle More than Our Regular Subscription Price.

Wishing to largely increase the circulation of this paper during the next six months, we have made arrangements with a New York publishing house whereby we are enabled to offer a premium to our patrons in a set of the Works of Charles Dickens, in Twelve Large and Handsome Volumes, with a year's subscription to this paper for little more than our regular subscription price. Our present offer to subscribers will not last long before it is withdrawn. Charles Dickens is the greatest novelist who ever lived. Since the days of Shakespeare his name has been the most beloved, and his works are read by more people to-day than during his lifetime. They abound in wit, humor, pathos, masterly delineation of character, vivid description of places and incidents, and the skillfully wrought plots. Each tale is intensely interesting. No home should be without a set of these great and remarkable books. Not to have read them is to be far behind the age in which we live. The set of Dickens' works which we offer as a premium is one recently issued from entirely new plates, with new type. The twelve volumes contain the following world-famous works, each one of which is published complete, unabridged, and absolutely unobjectionable:

DAVID COPPERFIELD,
MARTIN CHUZZLEWIT,
NICHOLAS NICKELBY,
DOMBEY AND SON,
BLEAK HOUSE,
LITTLE DORRIT,
OUR MUTUAL FRIEND,
PICKWICK PAPERS,
BARNABY RUDGE AND CHRISTMAS STORIES,
OLIVER TWIST AND GREAT EXPECTATIONS,
THE OLD CURIOSITY SHOP AND THE UNCOMMERCIAL TRAVELER, A TALE OF TWO CITIES, HARD TIMES AND THE MYSTERY OF EDWIN DROOD.

The above are without question the most famous novels that were ever written. For a quarter of a century they have been celebrated in every nook and corner of the civilized world. Yet there are thousands of homes in America not yet supplied with a set of Dickens, the usual high cost of the books preventing people in moderate circumstances from enjoying this luxury. But now, owing to the use of modern improved printing, folding and stitching machinery, the extremely low price of white paper, and the great competition in the book trade, we are enabled to offer to our subscribers and readers a set of Dickens' works at a price which all can afford to pay. Every home in the land may now be supplied with a set of the great author's works.

Lincoln County Leader one year and full set of Dickens, for $2.75.

We received a very pleasant call this week from Bishop Kendrick, whose Episcopal charge embraces New Mexico and Arizona. The Bishop is a gentleman whom we are always pleased to meet. His religion seems to sit well with him. He is always jolly and has a flow of spirits on a par with the rather than detracts from his efforts to enforce the faith. The Bishop will preach at the Court House this (Sunday) and the following

No Such Thing.

Throughout every man, woman or child living in a region of country where fever and ague is prevalent, where the germs of malarial diseases are inhaled from the air and are produced from the water of such a region, [illegible] is absolutely necessary to counteract the malarial poison. [illegible] is the only medicine which will thoroughly expel the malarial poison from the system, and it is also a specific for [illegible] liver complaint, dyspepsia, constipation and rheumatism. It is a thorough blood purifier, and a powerful but safe stimulant to the weak and debilitated. It is the best safeguard against chills and fever, and for those who live in or travel through malarial districts it should be taken as a preventive, which is also a certain and speedy cure. It is the worst case of long-standing chills and fever, no matter of how long standing, that will not yield promptly to the influence of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Use it at once and be cured. Use it before you are attacked and be forewarned. Use it for any disease of the stomach, liver, kidneys or bowels, and be cured. Use it for nervousness, rheumatism, kidney complaint or debility, and be cured. Use it for anything that ails you, and be cured. Use it for a cough, cold or sore throat, and be cured. Use it for anything, and be cured. Use it for nothing, and be cured. Use it for everything, and be cured. Use it for anything that ails you
