WILLIAM F. RYAN,

PASTOR KOENIG'S NERVE TONIC

The Best Remedy in this world, says J. Rayburn, of Syracuse, N. Y., is Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic, because my son, who was partially paralyzed three years ago and crippled by it, has not had any symptoms of them since he took one bottle of the remedy. I most heartily thank Pastor K.

Prejudiced, Yet Convinced.
St. Norwalk, Conn., May, 1890.
Although I took Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic with a certain prejudice, it has convinced me sufficiently that I want them for it, because now I am sleeping again. Many the terrible, anxious nights of the downtown fiend, where I lost five pounds of my fleshy, terrible feelings overpowered my mind, as that I was almost quite incapacitated. But now I would be myself again, and advise this to the fullest effect of its Truth. Yours, B. CLUNE, Parish.

FREE. A Valuable Book on Nervous Diseases sent free to any address. Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic and Liver Pills are sold on a positive guarantee first bottle benefits or money back. This invaluable book is free.

NEW YEARS—A. D. 1892.

Last week we dilated at some length on Christmas. The date of our next paper will be January 2, 1892. We think it most to doff our hat a bit to departing and incoming guests.

Another year is about being numbered with and added to the irrevocable past and we are reminded that our allotted time for accumulating earthly treasure, of gaining political distinction, training the intellect, cultivating genius, displaying eloquence, or other pursuits or purposes of life generally, will soon expire with us, and be transferred with a new lease to those who will come after us and take our places.

The evidences of the flight of time are so numerous and striking that the lessons they are designed to teach should not be lost upon us. As the leaves of flowers fall one by one, so do the members of communities, some when just putting on the garb of beauty, others when in the meridian of their glory, and still others live until the cold breath of fall and winter withers and decays them. In the spring-time, the streams and rivulets go bounding with life and issue melody as they glide along their beds to their destined course. But soon the bad ways are dry, and drop by drop the waters percolate or evaporate. True, the roses again blossom, and the streams and rivulets again gush with renewed life, but such revivals only indicate a new generation.

We again stand upon the threshold of another year. Soon the sun will cast it's rays upon an expiring year—1891 will meet 1892 and then pass into eternity leaving us to reflect that time is but the precursor of golden life, beyond this vale, the hope given to prepare for ages, the element of a year entering future, the [illegible] much kindles an eternal flame, the season for gaining favor with the Creator, for exercising the holy influences of faith, benevolence and love.

How many of us will be privileged to see 1893 supercede 1892? Perhaps all of us—maybaps several of our readers together with the writer of this screed will be denied the privilege. Ergo, we should so live as to be enabled to glide from life as noiselessly and fearlessly as the years, nor fear the terrors of that sleep which knows no waking, but is so apt to fall upon the eyelids and pulse at anytime.

[illegible] a truism to practical philosophers. Holy Writ ordained that all men shall die, but makes [illegible] [illegible] life. If living [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

LOCAL ROUNDUPS

Just how other writers name their locals and eastern papers style such, the Leader will give a new peculiar name. Whose wants this peculiar column.

MERRY Christmas.

THE wife of Jas. Bruce is quite ill.

CHRISTMAS is coming. 'Twill be here next Friday.

WE were three days this week without an eastern mail.

ROSS, of the Eagle, and his little family, arrived in town this week.

IN 1892 Christmas will fall on Sunday and the Fourth of July on Monday.

COL. G. W. Prichard, of Las Vegas is in town on a business visit of a week or ten days. The Col has large mining interests on Baxter Mountain.

NEXT Friday being Christmas, and Friday being our usual press day, we will next week issue but a half sheet, and put that to press on Thursday so that our force will be here to observe the Day.

THE wind blew great guns here on Friday and Saturday of last week. But our people had a summer picnic compared with those of Albuquerque, some of whom had their buildings razed, others their dwellings demolished, fences extirpated, porches reduced to kindling wood and every denizen frightened almost to death.

THE prettiest doll we ever saw is on exhibition at the post office. It is worshiped the most by [illegible] children in White Oaks and [illegible] Christmas Eve [illegible] open up [illegible] P. [illegible] every da[illegible]

[illegible] Tuesday morning the wife of Geo. Fitzpatrick presented h[illegible] lodge lord with a brand new screaming, howling boy...and [illegible] belt White Oaks is chuck full of babies George struts around [illegible] as though he was the only father in town. It is the wish of the Leader that the little stranger may live long lives and prove to his parents a world of pleasure.

Something for the New Year.

The world renowned success of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, and their acclaimed popularity for over a third of a century as a remedy for stomach, liver, and kidney complaints, is scarcely more wonderful than the welcome that greets the annual appearance of Hostetter's Almanac. This valuable medical treatise is published by The Hostetter Company, Pittsburg, Pa., under their own immediate supervision, employing no hands in that department. They are running about 11 months in the year on this work, and the issue of same for 1892 will be more than ten millions, printed in the English, German, French, Welsh, Norwegian, Swedish, Bohemian and Spanish languages. Enter by a copy of it for valuable and interesting reading concerning health, and numerous testimonials as to the efficacy of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Astronomical calculations, varied information, astronomical calculations and chronological items, etc., which can be depended on for correctness. The Almanac for 1892 can be obtained free of cost, from druggists and general country dealers in all parts of the country.

NEXT Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, the Congregational pastor will preach a short Christmas sermon to the Sunday School. The subject of the evening sermon will be "The Star in the East." All are invited to attend these services.

On Christmas Eve the Congregational Sunday School will have a Christmas Tree from which gifts will be distributed for the encouragement of the children. The distribution of gifts will be preceded by brief, appropriate exercises of singing and recitations.

WE wish everybody indebted to the LEADER on any account, subscription, advertising or job work, would make it a point to square accounts between now and the new year. Dear delinquent reader, don't forget us.

How many of us will be privileged to see 1893 supercede 1892? Perhaps all of us—mayhaps several of our readers together with the writer of this screed will be denied the privilege. Ergo, we should so live as to be enabled to glide from life as noiselessly and fearlessly as the years, nor fear the terrors of that sleep which knows no waking, but is apt to fall upon the eyelids and pulse at anytime.

It is a truism to powerful philosophizing. It has been ordained that all men shall die, but melancholy only results, till a living death, and hopeless decadence already [illegible] of them before it. As the [illegible] unclouded sun inspires within the human breast a sense of cheerfulness which radiates all surroundings, so a sunny temperment in man and woman becomes contagious and renders life more worth the living. Then when death does claim us our kindred and friends will not be haunted by the gaunt specters of our vinegar visage and fretful disposition. No, the motto of every mortal should be—"Dum Vivimus Vivamus," which, translated from dead Latin into live English signifies, "While we live let us live."

Every paid up subscriber to the LEADER should be happy, and we believe is, and in conclusion we wish each and all of them—

A HAPPY NEW YEAR.

CONSUMPTION CURED.
An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of Consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma, and all throat and Lung Affections, also a positive and radical cure for Nervous Debility and all Nervous Complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, in German, French or English, with full directions for preparing and using. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper, W. A. NOYES, 149 Power's Block, Rochester, N. Y.

THE passing away of the whale is beginning to attract attention just as the extinction of the buffalo called out a great deal of regret from the scientists and the common people partial to buffalo robes a few years ago. The big whales that formerly disported themselves in the northern waters in immense schools are becoming so scarce that the industry is practically ruined in spite of a steady increase in the price of the product. The whalers are now turning their attention to the Anti Arctic ocean where the big whales are thought to be still numerous. It requires two months to reach the proposed fishing grounds, but as both summer and winter can be utilized for the work there may be money in harpooning in those waters despite the distance. If it is impossible to supply the market from that direction it will be found necessary to reconstruct woman's clothing on a basis that requires no whalebone.

Something for the New Year.
The world renowned success of Koehler's Hermetic Barometers, and their continued popularity for over a third of a century, as a household ornament, is generally known, therefore it is considered that [illegible] the annual appearance of Koehler's Almanac. Refer to a copy of it for [illegible] and interesting reading, concerning [illegible] and numerous testimonials as to the efficacy of Dr. Koehler's Hermetic Barometers, [illegible] valuable information, [illegible] Almanac for 1892 can be obtained free of cost from druggists and general country dealers in all parts of the country.

We are indebted to Maj. W. H. H. Llewellyn, Secretary, for a pamphlet containing the laws, rules and regulations of the World's Columbian Exposition, department of New Mexico. It contains the Act of Congress creating the Territorial Board of Managers for New Mexico, the rules and regulations for the government of the Board, classification of exhibits and names and addresses of officers and members of the Territorial Board. Persons desirous of acquiring a copy can do so by addressing the Maj. at Las Cruces.

It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain; cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhœa. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

Distinguished Dead.

With the passing of 1891 there have gone over to the silent majority many of the eminent or conspicuous ones of the earth.—The list includes Bancroft, Lossing and Kingleke, the historians; Parnell, Balmaceda, Boulanger, ex President Grevy, ex Vice President Hamlin, Sir John McDonald, Secretary Windom, William Henry Smith, Gov. Hovey, of Indiana, ex-Governor Stafford, of Arizona, in politics; Lowell and Winchell, in general literature, Lawrence Barrett, Marie Wilt Emma Abbott and W. J. Florence on the stage; Sherman, Von Moltke, Joseph E. Johnston, soldiers; Geo. Jones, the editor; and Kalakaua, Karl I. of Wurtemberg, Prince Jerome Napoleon, and the Ameer of Afghanistan, kings.

THERE is a rancher in Wyoming who is very anxious for a wife.—In his advertisement he says that he is not particular about her looks, her age or her fortune, and she need not be a good cook as he is something of an artist in that himself. Then what in thunder does he want a wife for?

The Daily Tribune, published at Jackson, Tenn., recently published the following remarkable paragraph:

"Rev. J. H. Felts, pastor of the West Mission Church, delivered his farewell sermon this conference year, Sunday. This is the first year Rev. Mr. Felts has had charge of West Jackson Church, and by untiring zeal and social qualities he has made many warm friends among his congregation who will be glad to see him return."

Doubtless "warm" was written instead of "women," but it is no two to one that the mistake was not a bull's eye shot

It has been figured out that the Prince of Wales has cost the people of Great Britain $30,000,000 since he attained his majority.—Wales is about an average as Princes go, but he does not give promise of ever being worth what he cost.

THE Kansas City Star deprecates the attempt made to discredit football because a promising student at Lawrence died from the effects of a game the other day, and recalls the fact that only a week ago a woman in Illinois died from heart failure caused by excitement at a gospel meeting.—As a matter of course that ends the debate.

A good story is told by the Mt. Sterling Sentinel-Democrat on Col. Richard Hanson, of Bourbon county, Ky., Master Commissioner of the Bourbon Circuit Court, illustrating his extreme absentmindedness:

"Many years ago Hanson lived a next-door neighbor, to the late William Alexander, a prominent lawyer of Paris, whose wife was a niece of Jefferson Davis. Mr. Hanson seldom raises his head or looks to the right or to the left in the walks of life—in fact, he usually keeps in the middle of the road, and his chew of tobacco (if he uses it) in the middle of his mouth. Going to his dinner one day he turned into his neighbor Alexander's gate, thinking it was his own, and in his straightforward unassuming way walked to the dining-room, ate his dinner, not realizing that he was not in his own dinning room, nor looking at the lady before him. When he had finished he put on his hat and left with the remark; 'Eva, you had a d—d poor dinner to-day.'"

THE work of tunneling 5 miles through the main range of the Rocky Mountains for railway and wholesale gold and silver mining purposes, goes on day and night, and this without state or government aid. More than 6,000 feet of the distance is already driven, and 25 veins of gold and silver ore already crossed. The Denver Apex & Western Railroad to connect Denver with Salt Lake City at saving of 250 miles of distance by using this tunnel, has agreed for its use for twenty years, and to pay one dollar for each passengers and fifty cents per ton for each ton of freight taken through it. The large illustrated 22-page pamphlet sent to all who send two cents therefor to Mark M. Pomeroy, General Manager, Rooms 40 Pulitzer Building, New York City is wonderfully interesting instructive and suggestive reading matter, telling as it does what men are now doing day and night, where they are working more than 2,000 feet perpendicularly below the surface of Mount Kelso.—Nearly 5,000 men, women and children are now financially interested as owners of the Atlantic-Pacific Railway Tunnel and all the properties of the Company.

"My wife's a Democrat," he said, "and I'm a Republican, and now we've got a third party at our house."

"Indeed!"

"Yes, a boy born last night."

"What is he—Republican or Democrat!"

"I guess he's a mugwump, for he doesn't seem to know much."

The motto of business men is "push. It is also that of business men's doom.

HAPPY NEW YEAR.

G. A. R. Monday night.

SHERIFF Roberts spent a day in town this week and a very agreeable hour in the LEADER office.

THIS week Col. T. W. Herman received the appointment of Deputy U. S. Marshal and took the oath of office.

UUR thanks are due friend Jno. R. Patton, chef of the Carrizozo ranch, for a pretty and toothsome New Year's loaf of bread.

WE are in receipt of an invitation to attend the ceremonies attending the laying of the corner stone of the new Albuquerque Democrat office on the 26th inst. Were it possible we would certainly be there as nothing gives us more pleasure than to rejoice over journalistic success.

The World Enriches.

The facilities of the present day for the production of everything that will conduce to the material welfare and comfort of mankind are almost unlimited and when Syrup of Figs was first produced the world was enriched with the most perfect laxative known, as it is the only remedy which is truly pleasing and refreshing to the taste and prompt and effectual to cleanse the system gently in the Spring time or, in fact, at any time and the better it is known the more popular it becomes.

WHEN the Old Abe was discovered to be a bonanza there were those here who prognosticated that the find would soon pinch out, that it was but a pocket, etc.—Since then the mine has been penetrated to a depth of several hundred feet and instead of pinching out signs the seam widens and is much richer than it was above, leading the beholder to believe that there is enough of the veil wealth in that mine to pay the National debt.

WHEN near the post-office the other day we were amused as we saw two yahoo friends meet and one to the other:

"Say, Jim, do you know where I can get a pair of spectacles?"

"Yes; I have a pair."

"Be you goin' to use 'em for three or four days?"

"No; not above Sunday."

"Well you lend 'em to me for them?"

"Cert."

"Bully; I'll 'a' 'em by your goin' home and get 'em."

We wish everybody indebted to the LEADER on any account, subscription, advertising or job work would make it a point to square accounts between now and the new year. Dear delinquent reader, don't forget us.

MORTGAGE SALE.

WHEREAS, Felipe Miranda and Perfecta Miranda his wife, then of the county of Lincoln and Territory of New Mexico, by their certain mortgage deed, dated the 15th day of May, A. D. 1891, and recorded in the Probate Clerk's office of Lincoln County, in Book "A" of the record of mortgage deeds and conveyances, pages 186, 187 and 188, did convey to M. Brunswick, his heirs and assigns, as mortgagee, the following described parcel of land and real estate situated in the county of Lincoln and Territory of New Mexico, as follows, to-wit:

The east half of the north-west quarter of section (9) twenty-six (26) township (7) nine south of range (18) sixteen east of the New Mexico principal meridian, and containing 80 acres.

To secure the two promissory notes of said Felipe Miranda, dated respectively February 4th, 1891, for the sum of $118.11, and February 12th, 1891, for the sum of $12.50, payable to the order of the said M. Brunswick, one day after date, with interest on the first note above mentioned at the rate of eighteen per cent. per annum from maturity, and twelve per cent. per annum from maturity on the note last above mentioned.

And whereas it was provided in and by said mortgage deed that if default should be made in the payment of said notes, and the interest thereon at the time and in the manner specified in said notes when the same should become due and payable, then, and in such case, the said mortgagee, his heirs and assigns, in person or by their agents or attorneys, might sell or dispose of said mortgaged premises at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, first giving notice of the time and place of said sale by publishing a notice in some newspaper published in the said county of Lincoln, for ninety days before the date of such sale, and in his or their name or names might make and deliver to the purchaser a deed for said premises.

And whereas default has been made in the payment of said notes and the interest thereon as the same, which is still outstanding.

And whereas, also, the said mortgagee, M. Brunswick did, on the 12th day of September, 1891, for a valuable consideration, sell, assign and set over unto Lesley Wells, the said mortgage and together with the said notes and the money due and to grow due thereon, with interest.

Now, therefore, public notice is hereby given that on the

between the hours of [illegible] o'clock, p. m., at the front door of the court house in the town and county of Lincoln, the said assignee, Leslie Wells, or agent or attorney, will sell at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, the premises hereinbefore and in said mortgage deed described, and will execute and deliver to the purchaser or purchasers thereof a good and sufficient deed therefor.

$300 Reward for Ore Thieves.

The common experience of this country shows that much is lost by the mine operators by the stealing of gold in specimens, if not in smaltzin and bullion.—Therefore, the "Old Abe" Company offers a standing reward of Three Hundred Dollars for the arrest and conviction, or information leading to the arrest and conviction of any person guilty of stealing any of the property of the Old Abe Co., even the smallest specimen of ore.—The rule of this company is to mill all specimens. Therefore none of the ore from this mine can be honestly held as specimens. And as the receiver, with guilty knowledge, is as guilty in law as the thief, this offer applies to the holder of Old Abe specimens.
