One of Missouri's most gifted lawyers, polished gentlemen and stalwart Republicans, is Col. D. S. Twitchell, now in Santa Fe, visiting his son, Ralph E. Twitchell. We hope the old gentleman will tarry long enough in our vineyard to take in the Fair at Albuquerque, where he can see the diversified products of our Territory and where we can once more see him.

According to the Albuquerque Democrat the Lincoln County democratic ticket has been removed to Eddy county. The removal would be a healthy one as the men composing it would run better there than here. The authority quoted, however, is so unreliable that we decline believing the report until it is confirmed.

We have devoted so much room this week in taking care of our democratic wards that we must wait until next week ere we groom the Republican nominees whose names we this week fly at our mast head with unfeigned pleasure. The name of each candidate is a synonym of worth and competency.

Our old time friends and fellow townsmen, D. B. Berger, and J. D. Hill, of Ft. Scott, E. J. Chenault, of the same Kansas city, together with a Texas capitalist, will arrive here early the coming month. They are not coming to locate here, but their coming is hailed by White Oaks.

Last week we had but room and time to present the above as the result of the Licking County democracy's incubation, and relate the fact of the bellwether of the White Oaks delegation—John Y. Hewitt—refusing to lead into the convention on the pretense that it was packed (by the other fellows.) White Oaks was not represented in preparing the delectable menu presented the political gormands of their feather. It's none of our funeral but there being more fun in their procession than out of it we'll join and march with it a little way toward its cemetery anyhow.

In our judgment, Mr. Hewitt is too good for his party. But, how long has the gentleman been a democratic partizan, and how is it that he is now a censor in the party and is authorized to withhold his sheep from cavorting with life long democratic goats? If he was a democrat when we first knew him we didn't know it. If he was not a Republican when he occupied our editorial chair during a two month's visit we made East in '84, we were innocent of the fact, believing as we did that our trust was safely reposed in his keeping, as in very truth his services called forth our hearty and sincere acknowledgements.

Mr Hewitt reminds us of Senator Tipton, of Nebraska, who, in 1871 left the Republican party because President Grant refused to promote his son, Thomas Corwin Tipton, from one Consulship to a more important one. The story was told us in the old gentleman's presence by his son-in-law, the lamented Gen. Atkinson, while at Santa Fe during the Tertio in '83. The National democratic committee took advantage of the Senator's break and secured his consent to take the stump for Greeley in 1872. Among other places Tipton was assigned to was Binghamton, N. Y. Mr. T. arrived in the city named on the evening before the day on which he was to speak and was met at the train by a carriage. Arriving at his hotel he was met by the bonifaces, who was an ardent democrat, and after shaking the Senator warmly by the hand and seeing his grip taken care of, invited the orator to follow him and led the way into the bar-room, where he said: "Senator, I have here some of the best whisky in the state—have some." "No, thank you," said the Senator, whose calling before entering politics was that of a preacher and during the war a chaplain. "Well," said the landlord, "I have the very best of brandy—take a snort of that." "No, thank you," said the Senator. "Dear me; well, I have unexcelled gin," continued the hotel man. "No," again said the Senator, "I don't drink liquor of any kind." "You don't; well, your'e a holt of a democrat," said the host. "Well," was the response, "you must excuse me, I haven't belonged to your party but a short time." Hewitt hasn't been a democrat but a little while, not long enough to learn how to act as becomes a full-fledged democrat when thrown in communion with such, even for political purposes.

George Curry is the democratic candidate for sheriff. He, too, reminds us of a story of the Irishman lately arrived, who enquired of a fellow countryman who had lived in New York for years, how long a man had to live in this country before he could vote.—"That depends," said the old Hibernian, "what season of the year you land. If you arrive in the summer you won't have long to wait, but if you get here late in the fall you'll have to wait nearly a year." George has been in Lincoln County about 8 years. He arrived here "late in the fall," and didn't seek office for nearly two years after arriving, since when he has ran and been elected with clock like regularity. We opine that the people have gotten tired voting for him and think that if he is not so dead as Jackson he ought to be, and this fall they will lay him out as cold as Julius Cæsar.

Scipio Salazar is the democratic ideal for Treasurer. The day he qualified—at least the day he took the qualifying oath of office two years ago—we taught him to write "County Treasurer." If he knew anything before, or has learned anything since, we have failed to hear of it. He is a bird, of the genus burro.

But enough of democracy for this week. In order, however, to smother jealousy, we will promise to give pencil drawings of the balance of the candidates who were nominated by a clan too dirty for White Oaks democrats (our lilly whites,) to associate with, and will possibly retouch the pictures we present this week.

Free Trade How-Wash.

The editor of our local cotemporary is a bird. He comes at us with a diatribe on the tariff which would make a school boy blush to acknowledge as his thesis. He mistakes imbecile vaporing for argument and impotency for vigor. An institution for the keeping of the feeble-minded should be his home. The following is a specimen of his rot:

"In assuming the position that the tariff is a benefit to the laboring man, we are met by the fact that the laboring man is not receiving the benefit. Wages are not high because of the tariff, but in spite of it. The laboring man is not receiving the benefit of the tariff, but the manufacturer is receiving the benefit. The laboring man is receiving the benefit of the competition of the world. President Buchanan, too, in his message to Congress in '58, said:

"In the midst of unsurpassed plenty in agricultural products we are impoverished as a people.—Our manufactures have been stopped and thousands and tens of thousands of workingmen are now tramping the land begging bread."

The fact is that we export now in a single year more bushels of wheat than we exported in the entire 15 years under a democratic tariff-for-revenue-only system. During those 15 years statistics show that we sent abroad 56,000,000 bushels of wheat, while the same authority shows that we have exported more than that many bushels in a single year since '78. Yes, we export more wheat, and did in '90 and '91, than we exported from 1776 to 1861, a period of 71 years, extending from the administration of Washington, the protectionist, down to that of the noblest protectionist of them all, Abraham Lincoln.

There are many of our readers who remember back to the early '50's, when money demanded of borrowers 4 per cent. a month, and in '57, when it could scarcely be borrowed at any price, and what money we did get was of uncertain quality. They also recollect the days in '58, when our free-trade government sought to borrow money with which to prosecute a war against the turbulent Mormons and could'nt get it at any price, its credit not being as good as that of a solvent individual.

And now comes Vincent Howard, an English M. P., and says that skilled mechanics here obtain 77 per cent higher wages than in England and that the cost of subsistence is less here than there. It was to learn the situation that he came hither and this is the lesson he learned. The eminent free traders, Senators Carlyle and Harris, were forced to make a like confession in a recent Congressional report and they made it with pain instead of pleasure.

Hold; there is one democratic necessary that is higher than it was in good old democratic, free trade days—whisky. We apprehend that never again will we be able to procure democratic inspiration at 25c. a gallon.

A Happy Orphan. XI

Kenton Co., Ky., Oct. 9, '90.

In our orphan asylum here there is a 15-year-old child that had been suffering for years from nervousness to such an extent that she oftimes in the night got up, and with fear depicted on every feature and in a delirious condition, would rush promiscuously among the older people from an imaginary pursuer, and could only with great difficulty be again put to bed. Last year Father Koenig while on a visit here happened to observe the child, and advised the use of Koenig's Nerve Tonic, and kindly furnished us several bottles of it. The first bottle showed a marked improvement, and after using the second bottle up to the present time the child is a happy and contented being. All those suffering from nervousness should seek refuge in Father Koenig's Nerve Tonic.

$300 Reward for Ore Thieves.

The common experience of this camp shows that much is lost by the mine operators by the stealing of gold in specimens, if not in amalgum and bullion.—Therefore, the "Old Abe" Company offers a standing reward of Three Hundred Dollars for the arrest and conviction, of or information leading to the arrest and conviction of any person guilty of stealing any of the property of the Old Abe Co., even the smallest specimen of ore.—The rule of this company is to sell all specimens. Therefore none of the ore from this mine can be honestly held as specimens. And as the receiver, with guilty knowledge, is as guilty in law as the thief, this offer applies to the holder of Old Abe specimens.

Republican Platform

The representatives of the Republicans of the United States assembled in general convention on the shores of the Mississippi river, the everlasting bond of an indestructible republic whose most glorious chapter of history is the record of the Republican party, congratulate their countrymen on the majestic merits of the nation, under the banners inscribed with the principle of our platform of 1888, vindicated by victory at the polls and prosperity in our fields, work shops and mines, and make the following declaration of principles:

1 We reaffirm the doctrine of protection. We call attention to its growth abroad. We maintain that the prosperous condition of our country is largely due to the wise revenue legislation of the Republican congress. We believe that all articles which can not be produced in the United States, except luxuries, should be admitted free of duty, and that on all imports coming into competition with the products o American labor, there should be levied duties equal to the difference between wages abroad and at home. We assert that the prices of manufactured articles of general consumption have been reduced under the operations of the tariff act of 1890. We denounce the efforts of the Democratic majority of the house of representatives to destroy our tariff laws by piecemeal, as manifested by by their attacks upon wool, lead and lead ores, and we ask the people for their judgment thereon.

We point to the success of the Republican policy of reciprocity upon which our export trade has vastly increased and new and enlarged markets have been opened for products of our farms and workshops. We remind the people of the bitter opposition of the Democratic party to this practical as executed by a Republican administration, our present laws will eventually give us control of the trade of the world.

The American people, from tradition and interest, favor bi metallism, and the Republican party demands the use of both gold and silver as standard money, with such restrictions and under such provisions to be determined by national legislation as will secure the maintenance of the parity of values of the two metals, so that the purchasing and debt paying power of the dollar, whether of silver, gold or paper, shall be at all times equal.

The interests of the producers of the country, its farmers and its workingmen, demand that every dollar, paper or coin, issued by the government shall be as good as any other dollar.

We commend the wise and patriotic steps taken already by our government to secure an international conference to adopt such measures as will insure a parity of value between gold and silver for use as money throughout the world.

We demand that every citizen of the United States shall be allowed to cast one free and unrestricted ballot in all public elections, and that such ballot shall be counted and returned as cast; that such laws shall be enacted and enforced as will secure to every individual, rich or poor, native or foreign born, whites or black, this sovereign right granted by the constitution.

The free and honest popular ballot, the just and equal representation of all the people, as well as their just and equal protection under the laws, are the foundations of our Republican institutions, and the party will never relax its efforts until the integrity of the ballot and the purity of the elections shall be fully guaranteed and protected in every state.

We denounce the continued inhuman outrages perpetrated upon American citizens for political reasons in certain southern states of the Union.

We favor the extension of our foreign commerce, the restoration of our merchant marine and the creation of a navy for the protection of our national interest and the honor of our flag, the maintenance of the most friendly position with all foreign powers; extending still more widely our commerce and the production of our fisheries.

We reaffirm our approval of the Monroe doctrine and believe its application demands the maintenance of the navy of the republic in the highest degree.

We favor the enactment of more stringent laws and regulations for the restriction of criminal, pauper and contract immigration.

We favor efficient legislation by congress to protect the life and liberty of employes of transportation companies engaged in carrying interstate commerce, and recommend such legislation by the respective states as will protect employes engaged in state commerce, in mining and manufacturing.

The Republican party has always been the champion of the oppressed, and recognizes the dignity of manhood, irrespective of faith, color or nationality; it sympathizes with the cause of home rule in Ireland and protest against the persecution of the Jews in Russia.

The ultimate reliance of free popular government is the intelligence of the people and the maintenance of freedom among men. We, therefore, declare anew our devotion to liberty of thought and conscience, of speech and of the press and approve all agencies and instrumentalities which contribute to the education of the children of the land; but while insisting upon the fullest measure of religious liberty, we are opposed to any union of church and state.

We reaffirm our opposition declared in the Republican platform of 1888, to all combinations of capital organized in trusts or otherwise to control arbitrarily the condition of trade among our citizens, and heartily endorse the action already taken in this subject, and ask for such further legislation as may be required to remedy any defects in existing laws, and to render their enforcement more complete and effective.

We approve the policy of extending to towns, villages and rural communities the advantages of the free delivery service now enjoyed by the larger cities of the country, and reaffirm the declaration contained in the Republican platform of 1888, favoring the reduction of letter postage to one cent the earliest possible moment consistent with the maintenance of the postoffice department and the highest class of postal service.

We commend the spirit of reform in the civil service and the wise and consistent enforcement by the Republican party of the laws regulating the same.

The construction of the Nicaragua canal is of the highest importance to the American people as a measure of national defense and to build up and maintain American commerce, and should be controlled by the United States government.

We favor the admission of the remaining territories at the earliest practicable date, having due regard to the interests of the people of the territories and of the United States. All the federal officers appointed for the territories should be selected from bona fide residents thereof and the right of self government should be accorded as far as practicable.

We favor the cession, subject to the homestead laws, of the arid public lands to the states within which they lie, under such congressional restrictions as the disposal of public lands, reclamation and occupancy by settlers will give the maximum benefits to the people.

The World's Columbian Exposition is a great national undertaking, and congress should promptly enact such reasonable legislation thereon as will insure a discharge of the expenses and obligations incident thereto and attainment of results commensurate with the dignity and progress of the nation.

We sympathize with all wise and legal efforts to lessen and prevent the evils of intemperance and promote morality.

Every kindful of the services and sacrifices of the men who saved the life of the nation, we pledge anew to the veteran soldiers of the republic a watchful care and recognition of their just claims upon a grateful people.

We commend the able, patriotic and thoroughly American administration of President Harrison. Under it the country has enjoyed remarkable prosperity, and the dignity and honor of the nation at home and abroad have been faithfully maintained, and we offer the record of its performance as a pledge of faithful performance in the future.

Newspaper Laws.

Dr. Tuckerman, editor of the Workman Cleveland, has taken some pains to collect and compile the decisions of the U. S. Courts on this subject and gives in the Washington Post, as the result of his investigations, the following, which may be relied upon as correct

1. Subscribers who do not give express notice to the contrary are considered wishing to renew their subscriptions.

2. If the subscriber orders the discontinuance of his periodical the publisher may continue to send it, until all arrearages are paid.

3. If subscribers neglect or refuse to take their periodicals from the office to which they are directed, they are responsible until they have settled their bills and ordered them discontinued.

4. If subscribers move to other places without informing the publisher and the papers are sent to the former address, they are held responsible.

5. The courts have decided that refusing to take periodicals from the office or removing and leaving them uncalled for, is prima facie evidence of intentional fraud.

6. If subscribers pay in advance they are bound to give notice at the end of the time if they do not wish to continue taking it, otherwise the publisher is authorized to send it, and the subscriber will be responsible until an express notice, with payment of all arrearages, is sent to the publisher.

The latest postal laws are such that newspaper publishers can arrest any one for fraud who takes a paper and refuses to pay for it. Under this law the man who allows his subscription to run along for some time unpaid and then orders it discontinued, or orders the postmaster to mark it "refused," or have a letter ordered sent notifying the publisher, leaves him self liable to arrest and fine the same as for theft.

Every home in the land may now be supplied with a set of the great author's works.

YOU WANT

a San Francisco paper and of course you want a good one. The WEEKLY EXAMINER fills the want completely, for it is the best. It gives you every week not only all the news, but the best literary and miscellaneous matter published on the American continent—that is its specialty; being the best. It wants your subscription—yours particularly—and offers not only to you, but to every other subscriber, one or more attractive premiums.

In the first place, it gives every subscriber, one of the four magnificent etchings or paintings described below, and delivers it safely at his address, postage paid.

"The Retreat from Moscow," by Meissonier,
"The Roman Chariot Race," by A. Wagner.

Each of these pictures is 22x28 inches, and they are elegantly reproduced in the finest, showing every tint and color of the great originals, either one of which would not be purchased for $100,000.

"Women and Children First," by O. Napier Hemy,
"Christ Leaving the Pretorium," by Gustave Doré.

Each of these pictures is reproduced in photogravure, size 15x21, and suitable for framing, and will adorn the walls of the most refined home.

Each subscriber has the choice of any one of these four pictures, which will be mailed him in a tube direct from the EXAMINER office, as soon as the subscription is received.

In the second place, it will give 5,000 premiums, valued in the aggregate at about $125,000 to its subscribers this year. If there are 50,000 subscribers, one in ten will get one of these premiums; if there are 100,000, only one in twenty. But no matter how many there are, each and every one of these premiums—which range in value from 50 cents to $6,000—will be given absolutely without cost to some of those who have paid $1.50 for the WEEKLY EXAMINER for one year. The EXAMINER is thoroughly responsible, as you know, or as Wells, Fargo & Co. or any bank or commercial agency in San Francisco will assure you, and the leading men of the city will see that its premiums are distributed exactly as agreed and that every subscriber no matter where he is located, will receive just what is assigned to him.

Of course you want your home paper also, and you can just as well as not save a little money by taking the EXAMINER with it. The price of the WEEKLY EXAMINER is $1.50 per year, including the premium picture and your share of the $125,000 list of premiums, which are fully described in the twelve page Premium Supplement, which will be sent free on application to

W. R. HEARST, Publisher, San Francisco, Cal.

The EXAMINER and the LEADER, the combined price of which is $3.50 will be sent you for one year, postage paid, for $2.50. Send the money to the office of the LEADER and your subscription will be promptly forwarded to the EXAMINER, and you will receive therefor the EXAMINER's numbered receipt. You can get a Premium Supplement by applying at this office.

Republican Platform

The representatives of the Republicans of the United States assembled in general convention on the shores of the Mississippi river, the everlasting bond of an indestructible republic whose most glorious chapter of history is the record of the Republican party, congratulate their countrymen on the majestic merits of the nation under the banners inscribed with the principle of our platform of 1888, vindicated by victory at the polls and prosperity in our fields, work shops and mines, and make the following declaration of principles.

1 We reaffirm the doctrine of protection. We call attention to its growth abroad. We maintain that the prosperous condition of our country is largely due to the wise revenue legislation of the Republican congress. We believe that all articles which can not be produced in the United States, except luxuries, should be admitted free of duty, and that on all imports coming into competition with the products o American labor, there should be levied duties equal to the difference between wages abroad and at home. We assert that the prices of manufactured articles of general consumption have been reduced under the operations of the tariff act of 1890. We denounce the efforts of the Democratic majority of the house of representatives to destroy our tariff laws by piecemeal, as manifested by by their attacks upon wool, lead and lead ores, and we ask the people for their judgment thereon.

We point to the success of the Republican policy of reciprocity upon which our export trade has vastly increased and new and enlarged markets have been opened for products of our farms and workshops. We remind the people of the bitter opposition of the Democratic party to this practical measure as executed by a Republican administration, our present laws will eventually give us control of the trade of the world.

The American people, from tradition and interest, favor bi-metal ism, and the Republican party demands the use of both gold and silver as standard money, with such restrictions and under such provisions to be determined by national legislation as will secure the maintenance of the parity of values of the two metals, so that the purchasing and debt paying power of the dollar, whether of silver, gold or paper, shall be at all times equal.

The interests of the producers of the country, its farmers and its workingmen, demand that every dollar, paper or coin, issued by the government shall be as good as any other dollar.

We commend the wise and patriotic steps taken already by our government to secure an international conference to adopt such measures as will insure a parity of value between gold and silver for use as money throughout the world.

We demand that every citizen of the United States shall be allowed to cast one free and unrestricted ballot in all public elections, and that such ballot shall be counted and returned as cast; that such laws shall be enacted and enforced as will secure to every individual, rich or poor, native or foreign born, white or black, this sovereign right granted by the constitution.

The free and honest popular ballot, the just and equal representation of all the people, as well as their just and equal protection under the laws, are the foundations of our Republican institutions, and the party will never relax its efforts until the integrity of the ballot and the purity of the elections shall be fully guaranteed and protected in every state.

We denounce the continued infamy of wrongs perpetrated upon American citizens for political reasons in certain southern states of the Union.

We favor the extension of our foreign commerce, the restoration of our merchant marine and the creation of a navy for the protection of our national interests and the honor of our flag; the maintenance of the most friendly relations with all foreign powers; extending ...

We reaffirm our adhesion to the Monroe doctrine and ... by means of the monetary ... public in the ... [illegible]

We favor the enactment of more stringent laws and regulations for the restriction of criminal, pauper and contract immigration.

We favor efficient legislation by congress to protect the life and liberty of employes of transportation companies engaged in carrying interstate commerce, and recommend such legislation by the respective states as will protect employes engaged in state commerce, in mining and manufacturing.

The Republican party has always been the champion of the oppressed, and recognizes the dignity of manhood, irrespective of faith, color or nationality; it sympathizes with the cause of home rule in Ireland and protest against the persecution of the Jews in Russia.

The ultimate reliance of free popular government is the intelligence of the people and the maintenance of freedom among men. We, therefore, declare anew our devotion to liberty of thought and conscience, of speech and of the press and approve all agencies and instrumentalities which contribute to the education of the children of the land; but while insisting upon the fullest measure of religious liberty, we are opposed to any union of church and state.

We reaffirm our opposition declared in the Republican platform of 1884, to all combinations of capital organized in trusts or otherwise to control arbitrarily the condition of trade among our citizens. We heartily endorse the action already taken upon this subject, and ask for such further legislation as may be required to remedy any defects in existing laws, and to render their enforcement more complete and effective.

We approve the policy of extending to towns, villages and rural communities the advantages of the free delivery service now enjoyed by the larger cities of the country, and re-affirm the declaration contained in the Republican platform of 1888, pledging the reduction of letter postage to one cent at the earliest possible moment consistent with the maintenance of the postoffice department and the highest class of postal service.

We commend the spirit of reform in the civil service and the wise and consistent enforcement by the Republican party of the laws regulating the same.

The construction of the Nicaragua canal is of the highest importance to the American people as a measure of national defence and to build up and maintain American commerce and should be controlled by the United States government.

We favor the admission of the remaining territories at the earliest practicable date, having due regard to the interests of the people of the territories and of the United States. All the federal officers appointed for the territories should be selected from bona fide residents thereof and the right of self government should be accorded as far as practicable.

We favor the cession, subject to the homestead laws, of the arid public lands to the states and territories in which they lie, under such congressional restrictions as the disposal, reclamation and occupancy by settlers will give the maximum benefits to the people.

The World's Columbian Exposition is a great national undertaking. This congress should properly enact such reasonable legislation thereon as will insure a creditable ... of the expenses and obligations incident thereto and attainment of results commensurate with the dignity and progress of the nation.

We sympathize with all wise and legal efforts to lessen and prevent the evils of intemperance and promote morality.

Ever mindful of the services and sacrifices of the men who saved the life of the nation, we pledge anew to the veteran soldiers of the republic watchful care and appreciation of their just claims upon a grateful people.

We announce the able, patriotic and thoroughly American administration of President Harrison. Under it the country has enjoyed remarkable prosperity, and the dignity and honor of the nation at home and abroad have been faithfully maintained, and we offer the record of pledges kept as a plea of faithful performance in the future.

Free Reading Matter.

There are various schemes of supplying reading matter at a little above actual cost. What would you think if you could get good literature free?

Drop a postal to G. T. Nicholson, G. P. and T. A., A. T. & S. F. R. R. Co., Topeka, Kan., and ask for a copy of "To Mexico by Palace Car." You can also procure free copies of "A Santa Barbara Holiday," Guide to San Diego Bay Region," Las Vegas Hot Springs Guide," and folders relating to Texas, Oklahoma and Kansas.

Newspaper Laws.

Dr. Tuckerman, editor of the Workman Cleveland, has taken some pains to collect and compile the decisions of the U. S. Courts on it, is subject and gives to the Washington Post, as the result of his investigations, the following, which may be relied upon as correct.

1. Subscribers who do not give express notice to the contrary are considered wishing to renew their subscriptions.

2. If the subscriber orders the discontinuance of his periodical the publisher may continue to send it until all arrearages are paid.

3. If subscribers neglect or refuse to take their periodicals from the office to which they are directed, they are responsible until they have settled their bills and ordered them discontinued.

4. If subscribers move to other places without informing the publisher and the papers are sent to the former address, they are held responsible.

5. The courts have decided that refusing to take periodicals from the office or removing and leaving them uncalled for, is prima facie evidence of intentional fraud.

6. If subscribers pay in advance they are bound to give notice at the end of the time if they do not wish to continue taking it, otherwise the publisher is authorized to send it, and the subscriber will be responsible until an express notice, with payment of all arrearages, is sent to the publisher.

The latest postal laws are such that newspaper publishers can arrest any one for fraud who takes a paper and refuses to pay for it. Under this law the man who allows his subscription to run along for some time unpaid and then orders it discontinued, or orders the postmaster to mark it "refused," or have a postal card sent notifying the publisher, leaves himself liable to arrest and fine the same as for theft.

YOU WANT

a San Francisco paper and of course you want a good one. The WEEKLY EXAMINER fills the want completely, for it is the best. It gives you every week not only all the news, but the best literary and miscellaneous matter published on the American continent—that is its specialty; being the best. It wants your subscription—yours particularly—and offers not only to you, but to every other subscriber, one or more attractive premiums.

In the first place, it gives every subscriber, one of the four magnificent etchings or paintings described below, and delivers it safely at his address, postage paid.

"The Retreat from Moscow," by Meissonier,
"The Roman Chariot Race," by A. Wagner.

Each of these pictures is 21x26 inches, and they are elegantly reproduced in the finish, showing every line and color of the great originals, either one of which would not be cheap at $100,000.

"Women and Children First," by O. Napier Henry,
"Christ Leaving the Pretorium," by Gustave Dore.

Each of these pictures is reproduced in photogravure, fine finish, and exclusively suited for framing, and will adorn the walls of the most refined home.

Each subscriber has the choice of any one of these four pictures, which will be mailed him in a tube direct from the EXAMINER office, as soon as the subscription is received.

In the second place, it will give 5,000 premiums, valued in the aggregate at about $125,000 to its subscribers this year. If there are 50,000 subscribers, one in ten will get one of these premiums; if there are 100,000, only one in twenty. But no matter how many there are, each and every one of these premiums—which range in value from 50 cents to $6,000—will be given absolutely without cost to some of those who have paid $1.50 for the WEEKLY EXAMINER for one year. The EXAMINER is thoroughly responsible, as you know, or as Wells Fargo & Co. or any bank or commercial agency in San Francisco will assure you, and the leading men of the city will see that its premiums are distributed exactly as agreed and that every subscriber no matter where he is located, will receive just what is assigned to him.

Of course you want your home paper also, and you can just as well as not save a little money by taking the EXAMINER with it. The price of the WEEKLY EXAMINER is $1.50 per year, including the premium picture and your share of the $125,000 list of premiums, which are fully described in the twelve page Premium Supplement, which will be sent free on application to

W. R. HEARST, Publisher, San Francisco, Cal.

The EXAMINER and the LEADER, the combined price of which is $3.50 will be sent you for one year, postage paid, for $2.00. Send the money to the office of the LEADER and your subscription will be promptly forwarded to the EXAMINER, and you will receive therefor the EXAMINER'S numbered receipt. You can get a Premium Supplement by applying at this office.

Democratic County Convention.

The Democratic County Convention was called to order at 9 a m on Thursday, the 18th, by Chairman Paul Meyer. The White Oaks delegation, headed by Jno Y Hewitt, and the Upper Penasco delegation, headed by Major Alfred Hunter, declined to go into the convention at all.—There was considerable music in the air for some time, but after awhile the convention got down to business.

George Curry was nominated for Sheriff, J. A. Alcock, of White Oaks, for Probate Clerk, C. A. After considerable wrangling in reference to the nomination for Commissioner in the 1st district the names that were nominated Ramon Lujan, the present incumbent, knocking out their strongest man, Candelario Griego

Paul Meyer, in the 3rd district, knocked out Thos W Hensley and A W Byrne got through in the 3rd district without serious opposition

In another place will be found a list of the democratic delegates to the various conventions to be held hereafter

Not much interest was manifested by the local voters and the ticket nominated without the participation of two of the strongest precincts of the county has fallen flat. Very few expected the election of more than a part of the ticket and since the Republican Convention has put forth its ticket the majority of democrats to k for the election of the Republican ticket as a whole Even the candidates upon the democratic ticket, with one or two exceptions, share in the general feeling of discouragement and gloom.
