OUR ELEVENTH YEAR.

Last week's issue of the LEAD rounded out the tenth year of its existence. In commemoration of the event it was our intention to this week present an article on White Oaks and Lincoln County in 1882 as compared with 1892, but other matters demanding our attention forbade it. Our plate is never, however, lost by a mail, and next week we hope to present an article on the subject indicated which will be read with interest by old settlers and people by late or new comers.

SENATOR HILL, in his speech at Brooklyn the other night, said, "I am still a democrat," which reminds us of Bob Ingersoll. Some years ago the distinguished infidel was candidate in Washington, for a Blaine delegateship to a National convention. But was defeated, Grant delegates being elected. A day or two afterwards Bob met a Blaine adherent who expressed regret at the outlook, closing his lamentation by saying, "Well, you're still for Blaine, Mr. Ingersoll?" "Yes," replied Bob, "damned still."

READ CAREFULLY.

Here is the way the democratic New York Herald talks of the condition existing in this country notwithstanding the claims of the Democratic platform and the calamity shriekers of that party that the country is going to the bad. The Herald says:

"The business of the country is in a provokingly healthy and flourishing condition. Imports during the fiscal year ending June 30, were greater than those of any former year, amounting to eight hundred and thirty three million dollars, while exports also exceeded the highest record and reached the enormous aggregate of one billion and twenty-seven million dollars. Railroad earnings for the first six months of the year are greater than those for any similar period in history and the output of manufactures has been far greater than ever before. Business failures for the first half of the present year have been 1,060 fewer in number and forty million dollars less in gross liabilities than they were during the corresponding period of 1891. New industrial enterprises for manufacturing iron, cotton and woolen fabrics are going into operation in various sections, and while the margin of profits is small, business is on a solid foundation, and the outlook in every direction is hopeful and encouraging. The grain crop is promising, money is abundant and collections are easy.

In the face of such a condition of things the calamity wailer must remain silent. He is laughed at by nobody, not even himself, for he is too smart not to realize that the country is in a marvelously prosperous condition and likely to continue so.

We suggest that the laboring men, and voters of all classes, read the above carefully and then compare it with the following extract from the Democratic National platform which says:

"We denounce the Republican protection as a fraud, a robbery of the great majority of the American people for the benefit of the few. We declare it to be a fundamental principle of the Democratic party that the Federal Government has no constitutional power to impose and collect tariff duties except for the purposes of revenue only."

Then when they have digested the calamity wail of the free trade democracy and their assault upon the credit and honor of our country and people, we would suggest that they turn away from it to the following extract from a speech made by the great German Chancellor, Prince Bismarck, before the German Parliament, May 14, 1879. He said:

"The success of the United States in material development is the most illustrious of modern times. The American nation has not only successfully borne and suppressed the most gigantic and expensive war of all history, but immediately afterwards disbanded its army, found employment for all its soldiers and marines, paid off most of its debt, gave labor and home to its millions employ of Europe as fast as they could arrive within its territory, and all this by a system of taxation so indirect as scarcely to be perceived, much less felt as a burden. Because it is my deliberate judgment that the prosperity of America is mainly due to its protective laws, I urge that Germany has now reached that point where it is necessary for her to imitate the tariff system of the United States."

This is the utterance of one of the ablest statesmen of this or any other century and furnishes a pregnant rebuke to those Democrats who fear him.

DR. PRICE'S Cream Baking Powder.

Used in Millions of Homes—40 Years the Standard.

Shall the Rich or Poor be Taxed?

The Democratic platform declares a Protective Tariff unconstitutional, and pledges the party to inaugurate a Tariff for revenue only.

A Tariff for revenue only is what England has. Let us examine it and see how it compares with our own McKinley law, and if possible discover wherein it is preferable to our present arrangement. Then we can intelligently decide whether we want to change.

England levies a duty on cocoa, that delicous wholesome breakfast beverage, of 2 cents a pound. Being a revenue duty, it is of course, added to the price. We get cocoa free.

The English man's coffee is Tariff taxed over 3 cents a pound; if roasted or ground, 4 cents a lb.—We get ours free.

Tea pays 8 cents a pound into the Imperial Treasury. It comes to the American tea table free.

These articles are articles of general consumption. A tax on them is paid mainly by the poor.

An unskilled laborer who can earn no more than $1.50, and is obliged to support his family out of that, drinks as much tea or coffee, perhaps, as any one of the Vanderbilts.

He, therefore, pays as much or more of the revenue tariff tax.

Under our Protective system the wealthy pay the import duties.

As a matter of fact, the laborer, the mechanic and the farmer can get along, and do get along for the most part, without a single imported article which pays duty. Those they must have free.

They buy home-made boots and shoes, home-made clothing, home-made utensils.

Products of the labor of their fellow citizens are good enough for them, and by buying them they escape paying a cent of Tariff tax.

But the wealthy, the fashionable the Anglo-maniacs, who turn up their noses at American products and dote on French silks, German underwear and English worsteds—these are the ones, who mainly pay the expenses of Government.

The question between a Tariff for revenue only and a Tariff for protection, is, therefore, a question as to whether the rich or the poor should pay the Tariff. We ask our readers, which shall it be?

"Steel Rails—Why a duty of $13.44 on them. In January and February, 1890, English steel rails cost £7 5s, or about $35 a ton delivered on board vessels; in May the quotation was £417s 6d., or about $33 per ton, a fall of more than $11 per ton in three months.

In August 1888, English steel rails were quoted at £8 12s 6d., or $17.63 per ton, and from May to August 1888, they were regularly quoted at £8 7s 6d., or $16.43. The quotations in 1886, and again in 1888 were doubled in the early part of 1890. We do not need protection against British steel rails at $35 per ton, but do against steel rails at $16.43 per ton.—Swank."

GEN. SPEER spent a day in our town this week. His "calling and election" are sermon. All the cocks in the county can't de feat him.

$300 Reward for Ore Thieves.

The common experience of this camp shows that much is lost by the mine operators by the stealing of gold in specimens, if not in amalgum and bullion.—Therefore, the "Old Abe" Company of Jefferson offers a standing reward of Three Hundred Dollars for the arrest and conviction, or of information leading to the arrest and conviction of any person guilty of stealing any of the property of the Old Abe Co., even the smallest specimen of ore.—The rule of this company is to sell all specimens. Therefore none of the ore from this mine can be honestly sold as specimens. And as the receiver, with guilty knowledge, is as guilty in law as the thief, this offer applies to the holder of Old Abe specimens.

Republican Platform

The representatives of the Republicans of the United States assembled in general convention on the shores of the Mississippi river, the everlasting bond of an indestructible republic whose most glorious charter of history is the record of the Republican party, congratulate their countrymen on the prospects of the nation under the banners inscribed with the principle of our platform of 1888, vindicated by victory at the polls and prosperity in our fields, workshops and mines, and make the following declaration of principles.

We reaffirm the doctrine of protection. We call attention to its growth abroad. We maintain that the prosperous condition of our country is largely due to the wise revenue legislation of the Republican congress. We believe that all articles which can not be produced in the United States, except luxuries, should be admitted free of duty, and that on all imports coming into competition with the products of American labor, there should be levied duties equal to the difference between wages abroad and at home. We assert that the prices of manufactured articles of general consumption have been reduced under the operations of the tariff act of 1890. We denounce the efforts of the Democratic majority of the house of representatives to destroy our tariff laws by piecemeal, as inaugurated by by their attacks upon wool, lead and lead ores, and we ask the people for their judgment thereon.

We point to the success of the Republican policy of reciprocity upon which our export trade has vastly increased and new and enlarged markets have been opened for products of our farms and workshops. We remind the people that reciprocity was initiated by the Republican administration, and that what as executed by a Republican administration, our present laws will eventually give us control of the trade of the world.

The American people, from tradition and interest, favor bi-metallism, and the Republican party demands the use of both gold and silver as standard money, with such restrictions and under such provisions to be determined by national legislation as will secure the maintenance of the parity of values of the two metals, so that the purchasing and debt paying power of the dollar, whether of silver, gold or paper, shall be at all times equal.

The interests of the producers of the country, its farmers and its workingmen, demand that every dollar, paper or coin, issued by the government shall be as good as any other dollar.

We commend the wise and patriotic steps taken already by our government to secure an international conference to adopt such measures as will insure a parity of value between gold and silver for use as money throughout the world.

We demand that every citizen of the United States shall be allowed to cast one free and unrestricted ballot in all public elections, and that such ballot shall be counted and returned as cast; that such laws shall be enacted and enforced as will secure to every individual, rich or poor, native or foreign born, white or black, this sovereign right granted by the constitution.

The free and honest popular ballot, the just and equal representation of all the people, as well as their just and equal protection under the laws, are the foundations of our Republican institutions, and the party will never relax its efforts until the integrity of the ballot and the purity of the elections shall be fully guaranteed and protected in every state.

We denounce the [illegible] interference [illegible] American citizens [illegible] certain south [illegible] foreign [illegible] of our [illegible] national [illegible] the rights of [illegible]

We reaffirm our approval of the Monroe doctrine and believe in the achievement of the manifest destiny of the republic in the broadest sense.

We favor the enactment of more stringent laws and regulations for the restriction of criminal, pauper and contract immigration.

We favor efficient legislation by congress to protect the life and liberty of employes of transportation companies engaged in carrying interstate commerce, and recommend such legislation by the respective states as will protect employes engaged in state commerce, in mining and manufacturing.

The Republican party has always been the champion of the oppressed, and recognizes the dignity of manhood, irrespective of faith, color or nationality; it sympathizes with the cause of home rule in Ireland and protest against the persecution of the Jews in Russia.

The ultimate reliance of free popular government is the intelligence of the people and the maintenance of freedom among men. We, therefore, declare anew our devotion to liberty of thought and conscience, of speech and of the press and approve all agencies and instrumentalities which promote the education of the children of the land; and while insisting upon the fullest measure of religious liberty, we are opposed to any union of church and state.

We reaffirm our opposition declared in the republican platform of 1888, to all combinations of capital organized in trusts or otherwise to control arbitrarily the condition of trade and commodities.

We heartily endorse the action already taken upon this subject, and ask for such further legislation as may be required to remedy any defects in existing laws, and to render their enforcement more complete and effective.

We approve the policy of extending to towns, villages and rural communities the advantages of the free delivery service now enjoyed by the larger cities of the country, and reaffirm the declaration contained in the Republican platform of 1888, pledging the reduction of letter postage to one cent at the earliest possible moment consistent with the maintenance of the postoffice department and the highest class of postal service.

We commend the spirit of reform in the civil service and the wise and consistent enforcement by the Republican party of the laws regulating the same.

The construction of the Nicaragua canal is of the highest importance to the American people as a measure of national defense, and to build up and maintain American commerce and should be controlled by the United States government.

We favor the admission of the remaining territories at the earliest practicable date, having due regard to the interests of the people of the territories and of the United States. All the federal officers appointed for the territories should be selected from bona fide residents thereof and the right of self government should be accorded as far as practicable.

We favor the cession, subject to the homestead laws, of the arid public lands to the states and territories in which they lie, under such congressional restrictions as the disposition, reclamation, and occupancy by settlers will give the maximum benefits to the people.

The World's Columbian Exposition is a great national undertaking, and congress should promptly enact such reasonable legislation thereon as will insure a discharge of the expense and obligations incident thereto and attainment of results commensurate with the dignity and progress of the nation.

We sympathize with all wise and legal efforts to lessen and prevent the evils of intemperance and promote morality.

Ever mindful of the services and sacrifices of the men who saved the life of the nation, we pledge anew to the veteran soldiers of the republic watchful care and recognition of their just claims upon a grateful people.

We commend the able, patriotic and thoroughly American administration of President Harrison. Under it the country has enjoyed remarkable prosperity, and the dignity and honor of the nation at home and abroad have been faithfully maintained, and we offer the record of its acts kept as a pledge of faithful performance in the future.

Newspaper Laws.

Dr. Turkarman, editor of the Workman Clarsland, has taken some pains to digest and compile the decisions of the U. S. Courts on this subject and gives to the Washington Post, as the result of his investigations, the following, which may be relied upon as correct:

1. Subscribers who do not give express notice to the contrary are considered wishing to renew their subscriptions.

2. If the subscriber orders the discontinuance of his periodical, the publisher may continue to send it until all arrearages are paid.

3. If subscribers neglect or refuse to take their periodicals from the office to which they are directed, they are responsible until they have settled their bills and ordered them discontinued.

4. If subscribers move to other places without informing the publisher and the papers are sent to the former address, they are held responsible.

5. The courts have decided that refusing to take periodicals from the office or removing and leaving them uncalled for, is prima facie evidence of intentional fraud.

6. If subscribers pay in advance they are bound to give notice at the end of the time if they do not wish to continue taking it, otherwise the publisher is authorized to send it, and the subscriber will be responsible until an express notice, with payment of all arrearages, is sent to the publisher.

The latest postal laws are such that newspaper publishers can arrest any one for fraud who takes a paper and refuses to pay for it. Under this law the man who allows his subscription to run along for some time unpaid and then orders it discontinued, or orders the postmaster to mark it "refused," or have a postal card sent notifying the publisher, leaves himself liable to arrest and fine and a term for the same.

MRS. D. W. ROBERTS, of Lincoln, enlivened her many friends here this week by her presence amongst them.

Jno. Forsyth and Ed. Comery rode the Odd Fellow 2nd. degree goat last Tuesday night, while Elbert Collier rode the third.

LITTLE Cecil Bonney has been down with scarlet fever for ten days past, but C. D. reports it is covering.

NEWS comes in from the Three Rivers country that cattle are dying very fast there for want of grass and water.

WE learn that a big democratic pow wow will soon come off here, at which the leading chestnut fakirs of the Territory will appear.

LAST Sunday John Y. Hewitt left for Chicago, there to order a complete, first-class milling plant for the Old Abe.

FRANK J. HESS, and G. D. Green, two of White Oaks society young men, left the other day for Roswell, Mr. Hess en route to Old Mexico and Mr. Green remaining in the Pecos Valley, looking after his timber culture.

WHAT'S the matter with the White Oaks Dramatic Club? We would like to see it reorganized with the view of giving an entertainment once a month during the winter the proceeds to be donated to some public purpose. Ho! Zimmerman! Wake up.

SHERIFF Roberts was here on Monday last collecting taxes, this being his last precinct except Nogal, whither he went on Tuesday. He reports taxpayers as being unusually prompt in paying. The assessed tax of the county this year is $33,927.79. The tax rate is $1.87.

THE White Oaks Brass Band is played out, the leader having left us. No more will our valley reverberate the sweet strains of old Mendelssen. We hope our young citizens will take the matter in hand and perfect a reorganization as soon as possible. Perhaps some thing can be done toward securing a professional leader.

MONTOYA, the mail carrier, of whose mysterious disappearance we made mention last week, has not yet been heard of or from.—On Friday of last week the grey horse which he rode out of town on with the mail sack, was found on the prairie, with saddle, mumo, stirrups, under his belly. The beast showed evidence of a rough experience. But little doubt is now entertained that the poor fellow was waylaid, murdered, and body and mail pouch concealed.

—Since the above was put in type word came to town that the dead body of Montoya had been found. Saturday, after the riderless horse was brought in the mail-carrier's father-in-law and another Mexican, together with the two colored men, John Copeland and Andy Crawford, started out on the trail and following it to a canon a little beyond Red Cloud, and up the canon some 300 yards, they came upon the body. Upon the head were three wounds, one in the forehead, another above the ear and the third on the top of his cranium. Near the mouth of the canon was found the derringer employed to perform the murderous deed. Near by was the mail sack split open, the contents scattered about. The parties doing the killing doubtless thought that in the sack was a large sum of money expected by a sheep man to pay his herders off with. Thursday morning deputy sheriff Langston, Esquire Parker and a jury started for the scene there to hold an inquest. Langston also carried with him a warrant sworn out against a suspect.

COL. PRICHARD has been in White Oaks for the past ten days, overlooking his mining properties. He and Mr. Whetmore, of Las Vegas, are interested in a number of claims on Baxter Mountain.—Mr. Prichard has been doing some fine development work. On one of their properties he has run 4 or 5 cross-cuts, cutting the mineral at every point. He has opened up a remarkably fine looking lead and if there is anything in the looks of the rock taken from the vein it may prove a bonanza. He is doing his work intelligently and expects to have enough development work in a short time to determine what he will do. He is one of the owners of the Little Mac, and we all know that that mine is among the best. We understand that he is in favor of commencing operations on that property. Mr. Hewitt, of White Oaks, is also interested in the Little Mac, and it is to be hoped there will be no further delay in taking the ore out. No rich mine should lie idle for a moment in this camp.

THE Republican meeting last Wednesday night was well attended. It organized with Capt. Timoney as chairman and Col. Hosmer secretary. After a few remarks by the chair, Prof. B. H. Dye was introduced, who for an hour discussed the tariff question in a plain, logical manner, much to the interest of all and the instruction of many.

Mr. Dye was followed by Col. Prichard, who made an eloquent speech, confining his effort to the showing up of Joseph's delinquencies, and proving by the record that Antonio's letters from Washington to Catron did not deter him with his expressions over Catron's nomination, the conflict being anything but honorable to our Delegate. No unprejudiced man could have listened to Col. P's speech and left the hall with a good opinion of Joseph—for be it understood that the rebuttal to Joseph was not declamatory but fortified by proof unanswerable and documentary evidence.

A BEAUTIFUL silk patch-work quilt, made by the ladies of the Woman's Relief Corps, has been presented by that organization to Kearney Post, G. A. R., and the Post has decided to dispose of the same for the benefit of old Ki. Harrison, who is now living at Lincoln. Ki. is known all over the West as one who has done much service for the Government. He served through the Mexican war and in the war of the rebellion, and afterwards as Indian scout in this Territory. He is now old and infirm, having become so much paralyzed as to unfit him to support himself and family, and by the loss or negligence of those having his papers in charge has thus far been unable to procure a pension. It has been decided, in order to procure as much money as possible for this most worthy object, to put the quilt up for raffle, which will be done Saturday evening at the store of E. L. Ozanne & Co., where numbers can be secured and where the quilt is now on exhibition.—Everybody should take chances. "He that giveth to the poor lendeth to the Lord."
