A NATION MOURNS.

The American people mourn. On last Tuesday morning, the soul of President Harrison's wife evacuated the casket it had occupied for 57 years, and winged its flight up to Him who created it. For several months past the wife of our National Executive has been receding from the grasp of her loved and loving husband, all the while passing into darker shadows until, on the morning named, she lost her footing on earth and dropped into the "Unknown." For a little over 39 years the twain had traveled life's pathways as one, from obscurity to the pinnacle of earthly fame. Henceforth, Benjamin will walk without his Carrie, save as the spirit of the latter, invisible and intangible, may keep pace with him as his feet approach the dark river and dip therein as she did here before him, after which the trolley will sound for a return to which there will be no following it.

Columbus Day.

If Columbus had reached the shores of the New World on a day like that on which the good people here in White Oaks undertook to celebrate the 406th anniversary of his discovery we venture the assertion that he would have remained on the water in order to keep dry.

Preparations for the street parade were completed on a scale never before attempted in this place.—The Public Schools, the Grand Army, the Odd Fellows and the Knights of Pythias were to be in line, with all their regalia, to assist in the ceremonies of Flag raising and salute of the National colors. Shortly after 9 o'clock the downpour commenced and it soon became evident that the street parade would have to be abandoned entirely. A large portion of the school children and many of our patriotic citizens gathered at the Congregational Church, where a rearranged programme of exercises was carried through. In the meantime rain continued to fall during the greater part of the day and far into the night. However, umbrellas and slickers were brot to the front, so to speak, and 7:30 p. m. found every seat in the church filled.

Whether it was by design or accident, the committee on programme had certainly given the younger element an opportunity and the old-stagers, for once, took back seats. To say that the exercises throughout were a success, goes without saying. Who ever saw a new White Oaks to make a failure in any kind of literary entertainment? Friday evening's effort was no exception to the general rule.

After prayer by Rev Crutchfield the opening exercise was given by Miss Medora Hurd, who recited the address prepared by the National committee. It was well rendered. Remarkably so was that of Leona Rudisille, who recited in Spanish, her rendition sounding to the ear of the LEADER reporter as excelling in smoothness and accent that of the natives themselves. The recitation of Miss Watson was also good.

It was given to Miss Johnnie Collier to recite the poem, written for Columbus Day, by Edna Dean Proctor. The applause which followed Miss Collier's rendition of this grand epic showed that no mistake had been made in selecting her for this task.

The address of Prof. S. M. Wharton was scholarly and very thoughtful, besides being delivered in a pleasing and graceful manner. Maurice Parker really did himself proud in an oration that drew forth the hearty congratulations of his every hearer.

These literary exercises were bountifully sandwiched by music and patriotic songs, notable among which was the Star Spangled Banner, sung by Mrs. Carpenter.—This lady has a beautiful and very highly cultivated voice. There seemed to be a general regret that she did not appear in other numbers. It is to be hoped that she will in future favor White Oaks intellectuals with her fine musical talent.

The Congregational Church choir also acquitted themselves handsomely, eliciting frequent applause and encores.

A duet by the Misses Allan and Sutliff, was exquisitely fine.

Altogether, it was a pronounced success and those present felt well repaid for braving the storm to become partakers in the celebration of Columbus Day.

All the visiting attorneys have gone; excitement is over and we now drop back into our accustomed rounds and the rumble and jumble of every-day life. The court was a very quiet one; the docket was well cleared but new business had no chance of progress because of the failure that seems to be fatal here, to secure service. Our Judge is very lenient in the matter of jury service some people would suffer punishment.

Judge Freeman, more than any Judge we ever had, has the confidence of litigants, though the lawyers cannot do as they please or be as ungentlemanly as they desire to be at times. Professional courtesy and general ethics are not very strictly observed here at our bar.

DISTRICT COURT IN CHAVES CO.

MONDAY, OCT. 24.

The court met at 10 a. m., and proceeded with the organization of the juries. The petit jury was full upon the first call and a special list as a venire issued which was at once approved and qualified which filled the panel. The docket is small, the civil list being easily disposed of. The criminal docket is larger and will hold the court in session for about a week.

$300 Reward for Ore Thieves.

The common experience of this camp shows that much is lost by the mine operators by the stealing of gold in specimens, if not in amalgam and bullion.—Therefore, the "Old Abe" Company of fers a standing reward of Three Hundred Dollars for the arrest and conviction, or information leading to the arrest and conviction of any person guilty of stealing any of the property of the Old Abe Co., even the smallest specimen of ore. Republican Platform

The representatives of the Republicans of the United States assembled in general convention on the shores of the Mississippi river, the everlasting bond of an indestructible republic whose most glorious chapter of history is the record of the Republican party, congratulate their countrymen on the majestic merits of the nation under the banners inscribed with the principle of our platform of 1888, vindicated by victory at the polls and prosperity in our fields, work shops and railways, and make the following declaration of principles.

We reaffirm the doctrine of protection. We call attention to its growth abroad. We maintain that the prosperous condition of our country is largely due to the wise revenue legislation of the Republican congress. We believe that all articles which can not be produced in the United States, except luxuries, should be admitted free of duty, and that on all imports coming into competition with the products of American labor, there should be levied duties equal to the difference between wages abroad and at home. We assert that the prices of manufactured articles of general consumption have been reduced under the operations of the tariff act of 1890. We denounce the efforts of the Democratic majority of the house of representatives to destroy our tariff laws by piecemeal; as manifested by their attacks upon wool, lead and lead ores, and we ask the people for their judgment thereon.

We point to the success of the Republican policy of reciprocity upon which our export trade has vastly increased and new and enlarged markets have been opened for products of our farms and workshops. We remind the people of the bitter opposition of the Democratic party to this practical business measure, and claim that as executed by a Republican administration, our present laws will eventually give us control of the trade of the world.

The American people, from tradition and interest, favor bi-metallism, and the Republican party demands the use of both gold and silver as standard money, with such restrictions and under such provisions to be determined by national legislation as will secure the maintenance of the parity of values of the two metals, so that the purchasing and debt paying power of the dollar, whether of silver, gold or paper, shall be at all times equal.

The interests of the producers of the country, its farmers and its workingmen, demand that every dollar, paper or coin, issued by the government shall be as good as any other dollar.

We commend the wise and patriotic steps taken already by our government to secure an international conference to adopt such measures as will insure a parity of value between gold and silver for use as money throughout the world.

We demand that every citizen of the United States shall be allowed to cast one free and unrestricted ballot in all public elections, and that such ballot shall be counted and returned as cast; that such laws shall be enacted and enforced as will secure to every individual, rich or poor, native or foreign born, white or black, this sovereign right granted by the constitution.

The free and honest popular ballot, the just and equal representation of all the people, as well as their just and equal protection under the laws, are the foundations of our Republican institutions, and the party will never relax its efforts until the integrity of the ballot and the purity of the elections shall be fully guaranteed and protected in every state.

We denounce the continued intimidation of voters perpetrated in some American states for political purposes in certain southern states of the Union.

We favor the extension of our foreign commerce, the restoration of our merchant marine and the creation of a navy for the protection of our seaboard and the honor of our flag; the special care of the most friendly relations with all foreign powers; entertaining all among with none; and the protection of the rights of our citizens.

We reaffirm our approval of the Monroe doctrine and believe in the achievements of the manifest destiny of the republic in the broadest sense.

We favor the enactment of more stringent laws and regulations for the restriction of criminal, pauper and contract immigration.

We favor efficient legislation by congress to protect the life and liberty of employes of transportation companies engaged in carrying interstate commerce, and recommend such legislation by the respective states as will protect employes engaged in state commerce, in mining and manufacturing.

The Republican party has always been the champion of the oppressed, and recognizes the dignity of manhood, irrespective of faith, color or nationality; it sympathizes with the cause of home rule in Ireland and protest against the persecution of the Jews in Russia.

The ultimate reliance of free popular government is the intelligence of the people and the maintenance of freedom among men. We, therefore, declare anew our devotion to liberty of thought and association, of speech and of the press and approve all agencies and instrumentalities which contribute to the education of the children of the land; but while insisting upon the fullest measure of religious liberty, we are opposed to any union of church and state.

We reaffirm our opposition declared in the Republican platform of 1888, to all combinations of capital organized in trusts or otherwise to control arbitrarily the condition of trade among our citizens. We heartily endorse the action already taken upon this subject, and ask for such further legislation as may be required to remedy any defects in existing laws, and to render it effective.

We approve the policy of extending to towns, villages and rural communities the advantages of the free delivery service now enjoyed by the larger cities of the country, and favor the establishment of the parcels post system recommended by the Postmaster General, and the early establishment of postal telegraph.

We commend the able, patriotic and thoroughly American administration of President Harrison. Under it the country has enjoyed remarkable prosperity, and the dignity and honor of the nation at home and abroad have been faithfully maintained, and we offer the record of pledges kept as a plea of faithful performance in the future.

We give in the following table the new apportionment for each state, the old states being divided between the two parties as they voted the last presidential election:

Newspaper Laws.

Dr. Tuckerman, editor of the Workman Cleveland, has taken some pains to collect and compile the decisions of the U. S. Courts on the subject and gives to the Washington Post, as the result of his investigations, the following, which may be relied upon as correct:

1. Subscribers who do not give express notice to the contrary are considered wishing to renew their subscriptions.

2. If the subscriber orders the discontinuance of his periodical the publisher may continue to send it until all arrearages are paid.

3. If subscribers neglect or refuse to take their papers from the office to which they are directed, they are responsible until they settle their bills and order their papers discontinued.

4. If they remove to other places without informing the publishers and the papers are sent to the former address, they are held responsible.

5. The courts have decided that refusing to take periodicals from the office, removing and leaving them uncalled for, is prima facie evidence of intentional fraud.

6. If subscribers pay in advance they are bound to give notice in due season, if they do not wish to continue taking the paper, otherwise they are legally holden for another year's subscription. If they remove to other places without informing the publishers, they are responsible until they settle their bills and order a discontinuance.

The last two decisions apply to newspapers sent to regular subscribers. Any person who takes a paper and refuses to pay for it. Under this law the man who allows his subscription to run along for some time unpaid and then orders it discontinued, or orders the postmaster to mark it "refused," or have a postal card sent stopping the publication, renders himself liable to arrest and fine or imprisonment for theft.

GRAND PREMIUM OFFER!

A SET OF THE

WORKS OF CHARLES DICKENS,

In Twelve Large Volumes,

Which we offer with a Year's Subscription to this Paper for a Trifle More than Our Regular Subscription Price.

CHARLES DICKENS.

Wishing to largely increase the circulation of this paper during the next six months, we have made arrangements with a New York publishing house whereby we are enabled to offer as a premium to our subscribers a Set of the Works of Charles Dickens, in Twelve Large and Handsome Volumes, with a year's subscription to this paper, for a little more than our regular subscription price. Our great offer to subscribers eclipses any ever heretofore made. Charles Dickens was the greatest novelist who ever lived. No author before or since his time has won the fame that he achieved, and his works are even more popular to-day than during his lifetime. They abound in wit, humor, pathos, masterly delineation of character, vivid descriptions of places and incidents, thrilling and skillfully wrought plots. Each book is intensely interesting. No home should be without a set of these great and remarkable works. Not to have read them is to be far behind the age in which we live. The set of Dickens' works which we offer as a premium to our subscribers is handsomely printed from entirely new plates, with new type, on fine paper, and contains the following world-famous works, each one of which is published complete, unabridged, and absolutely unabridged:

DAVID COPPERFIELD,
MARTIN CHUZZLEWIT,
NICHOLAS NICKELBY,
DOMBEY AND SON,
BLEAK HOUSE,
LITTLE DORRIT,
OUR MUTUAL FRIEND,
PICKWICK PAPERS,
BARNABY RUDGE AND CHRISTMAS STORIES,
OLIVER TWIST AND GREAT EXPECTATIONS,
THE OLD CURIOSITY SHOP AND THE UNCOMMERCIAL TRAVELER, A TALE OF TWO CITIES, HARD TIMES AND THE MYSTERY OF EDWIN DROOD.

The above are without question the most famous novels that were ever written. For a quarter of a century they have been celebrated in every nook and corner of the civilized world. Yet there are thousands of homes in America not yet supplied with a set of Dickens, the usual high cost of the books preventing people in moderate circumstances from enjoying this luxury. But now, owing to the use of modern improved printing, folding and stitching machinery, the extremely low price of white paper, and the great competition in the book trade, we are enabled to offer to our subscribers and readers a set of Dickens' works at a price which all can afford to pay. Every home in the land may now be supplied with a set of the great author's works.

NEW DISCOVERY by ACCIDENT

In compounding a solution a part was accidentally spilled on the hand and on washing afterward it was discovered that the hair was entirely removed. We at once put this wonderful preparation on the market and to-day have the demand that we are sure it will be in every household in the world under the name of Queen's Anti-Hairine. It unquestionably destroys the hair roots for a few minutes and then dies, disappears as if by magic without the slightest pain or injury to the skin or flesh of any other part. It is useless for us to publish testimonials of the thousands of ladies who have proved the merits of Queen's Anti-Hairine with their own faces. Thousands of LADIES and GENTLEMEN will be glad to know that Queen's Anti-Hairine will remove with ease and perfection hair on face, neck and arms, also the most stubborn growth on the body, leaving the skin soft and beautiful. Gentlemen who do not desire to grow a beard or mustache will find Queen's Anti-Hairine valuable after shaving, by preventing the future growth as none but genuine hair will grow after using it. Ladies who are troubled with superfluous hair on face, neck or arms will find Queen's Anti-Hairine a perfect boon. Its use requires no skill, and is perfectly harmless. Any one can use it with perfect safety. Many testimonials received from ladies who have used it. Send for circular containing testimonials, and you will find everything as represented. Price of Queen's Anti-Hairine $1, per bottle, and sent to any address in the United States or Canada, sealed from observation. Send money by express or by letter with full address written plainly. Don't send postage stamps. The advertisement is honest and straightforward in every word. We do not claim to send it C. O. D. and have it examined before paying for it, but we will do better than that. We will send it to any one who will write us and say they will remit the price of one bottle of Queen's Anti-Hairine within ten days after receiving it, if it does as represented. Don't delay, but write at once. Address all letters and orders to JOHN T. GUNN & CO., CINCINNATI, O. You can register your letter at any Post Office to insure its safe delivery. Every bottle guaranteed. If failure or slight irritation of any part of the skin should result from the use of Queen's Anti-Hairine, we will refund the money. Your friends will be pleased to know of Queen's Anti-Hairine.

SPECIAL—To ladies who have been annoyed with superfluous hair on face, neck or arms, we will send a sample bottle of Queen's Anti-Hairine, with full directions for use, on receipt of 10 cents in stamps. Send 10 cents and get a sample bottle. Never before offered. Never again to be offered. Never forget to send 10 cents. Address all letters and orders to JOHN T. GUNN & CO., CINCINNATI, O.

Right or Wrong.

Which will you have? It does seem as if some folks prefer to have the last condition of the liver rather than the first. They perpetually dose themselves with purgatives totally without virtue as alteratives of liver trouble. Recollect that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is the successful substitute for the people's choice, and yet, established and well known as it is, there are unfortunates who keep on trying the drastic remedies of former days. It is to the intelligent portion of the public that the well known and long tried properties of the Bitters appeal. Reason should be guided by experience in the matter of medication. "The best guide to our feet is the lamp of experience," said a great patriot of the early revolutionary period; and the contention is permanent with truth. For over a third of a century the Bitters daily has met with the endorsement of people following from liver complaint, malaria, constipation, rheumatism, debility and troubles accompanied by dyspepsia. Latterly it has declared itself and been thoroughly appreciated as a remedy for "la grippe."
