Frontier Days Celebration

With special decorations, open doors and flags waving a hearty welcome, Lincoln County's first annual Frontier Days Celebration sponsored by the American Legion posts of Carrizozo, Capitan, Corona and Ruidoso was held at the local grounds last Friday and Saturday. Nothing was left undone by the committees, assisted by the clubs, schools and business people.

In spite of cold weather and mud they came from the most remote parts of the county, from Roswell and other adjoining territory. Saturday was the greatest day from the stand point of attendance, and the last "round-up" of the various events and especially the parade which exceeded anything of the kind we have ever had in this county. Indeed the entire program was a "banner attraction" from start to finish. The "Frontier Days" was so successful this year that the citizens and business people intend to co-operate with the Legion in making it larger and better next year. Also a premium list that will rank with the larger Fair associations in the state is to be added.

Oldest cow man: Sam Wells. Oldest rider: Henry Lutz. Youngest rider: Billie Karr.

Best hill billy band: local CCC camp. Best woman rider: Mrs. Ed Queen.

Best Woman's Costume: Mrs. Paul Mayer.

Best Decorated car or float: Girls Camp, Capitan.

Oldest vehicle in parade, (wagons buggies or carts) covered wagon: Tom Karr. This ancient prairie schooner had two hounds tied under the wagon, a cow tied to the rear, chicken coop in the back and a barrel for water tied on the side. The occupants were appropriately dressed.

Especially good features, were floats by grade school girls and boys, High school, Junior High, home Ec department Ft. Stanton CCC camp, local camp, forest service, Carrizozo Hardware Company, White Oaks coal, Ziegler, Kelley cars. Other especially noticeable features, was an old prospector leading a burro, four ladies riding side saddles, a car containing some boys in Spanish costumes, Mr. Fritz, car, and many others.

Morgan Reily

The hearts of many Carrizozo friends of Mr. Morgan Reily were made sad last Friday when the News of his death in Dallas, Texas was announced. Mr. Reily was born and reared in Carrizozo and his untimely death was a severe shock to his many Lincoln County friends. In early manhood he was a grocery merchant here in the firm of Reily and Lujan, at the stand where Herron's store is now located. Later he became a traveling salesman for the American Tobacco Company in which line he was extremely successful, and received several promotions, the most recent of which was when he was made general manager for the Dallas district. He and Mrs. Reily were in Fort Worth on business when the robbery occurred.

Mr. and Mrs. Reily visited their mother, Mrs. Nellie Reily and other relatives here only two weeks ago. He was a splendid young man, devoted to his family; a loving husband, a kind neighbor and a friend to all.

Besides his widow, Mrs. Esther Reily he is survived by his mother, Mrs. Nellie Reily and four sisters: Mmes Sam Allen Will Ed Harris, Herndon Jackson and Clint Brannum all of whom have deepest sympathy of friends.

Funeral services were conducted in Dallas at 10 o'clock last Monday by the Masons followed by interment in the Masonic plot in Dallas.

Mr. Lucero of Corona who has a badly broken leg and has been in the Rathmann Hospital for the past month, is improving.

The News is short handed this week as Mr. Marshall St. John left yesterday for the Veterans hospital in Albuquerque for special treatment.

Mr. Ab Hunter, cattle brand inspector from Alamogordo was in town Tuesday of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Wells and S. W. Wells of White Oaks were in town Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Ferguson of Coyote were attendants at the Frontier exposition and rodeo last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell of Alamogordo visited their granddaughter Euna Sloan, here last week.

Students who came home to attend the Frontier Days' celebration were: Misses Rhoda Freeman and Wilma Snow Messrs. (Red) Pfingsten, Fletcher Hall and Carl Freeman from State College; Misses Ida Greer and Eula Emerson from Albuquerque College of Beauty Culture.

School Notes

The high school English department has prepared Supplementary Reading-Lists for each class. The books have been carefully selected and graded to meet the requirements of a standard high school reading course. The rating of books has been based partly upon literary value, partly upon their aptness and fitness in connection with the aims of the English courses for which they are designed, and partly upon the tastes and training of the pupils for whom they are intended. Provision has been made for placing on file a permanent record of each pupil's reading.

The school authorities arranged for doctors Baker and Monoe, optometrists, to give all students a free examination. This marks an up-to-date progressive step on the part of our public school system. The eyes are considered the most important of all the senses, and every means should be taken to preserve them.

The report cards were passed out Wednesday morning. Many were disappointed in their grades and many were surprised. Let's all work hard and make better grades next six weeks.

The Vocational Department Float took second prize in the Frontier Day parade. The sophomore class was represented by Louise Degner who was sitting at a sewing machine. Geraldine Sweet held the sophomore flag in place of the President who was absent.

Carrizozo High school is outstanding. It has well developed rules to follow and let me tell you they are completely followed! An important factor of this school is that we have a library that is catalogued by the Dewey Decimal System, and is a splendid system of checking in and put books.

This year we have a better football team than last year. The two games they have played with Capitan have been tied. One of our best players is still in bed caused by an accident.

We are proud of our Home Ec Department for winning first, second and third prizes on their canned peaches, chile sauce, jelly and bread and butter pickles at the Lincoln County Frontier Days Fair.

The class presidents with the help of their class will arrange an assembly program for the near future. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Mr. J. H. Fulmer is in New York on business.

Miss Charlotte Emerson and Miss Jennings, school teachers from Lou were in town Saturday.

Mr. Tom Morey, Gallup, N. M., visited his sisters, Mrs. A. Lantz and Mrs. Kelner last Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. Claude E. Porter of Corona attended the Frontier Days celebration in Carrizozo Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Peebles of Nogal, attended the celebration here Friday. While in town they became new subscribers to the News.

Mrs. R. L. Huffmyer is in Clovis with her sister who is dangerously ill.

Methodist Church Notes

Sunday 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. is the last service before conference. Let everybody turn out. Sunday evening we will make a complete report of work done and what we will report at conference. We still lack some to win Mr. Harvey's donation. We know we are going to make it for Carrizozo and Capitan people are always so kind and generous.

Man Beaten by 2 Women Dies

Morgan Reily, 42 of Dallas who was beaten and robbed by two women near Fort Worth Tuesday night, died shortly after noon Friday in a Dallas hospital.

Following his death, murder charges were filed in Justice of the Peace Beatty's court here against Mrs. Billy Jo Palmeri, 29, and Miss Betty Simpson, 22, both of Kansas City.

District Attorney Parker recommended that bond be denied the two women, who have been held in the county jail here since they were arrested Tuesday night after Reily had been found unconscious on a road near Lake Worth.

Before Reily's death, County Investigator Stanfield, Assistant District Attorney Brewster and Deputy Sheriff Watson took a signed statement from him regarding the attack.

Examining trial for the two women, scheduled for Friday morning, was postponed because Reily was not able to appear in court.

The defendants, have been held in jail. Hearing was postponed because of Reily's death, Parker said he was going to recommend that bond be denied.

Reily was robbed of a $600 ring and $15 in cash. The ring was recovered from one of the women.

The injured man was given treatment in a hospital here before he was taken to Dallas. He was suffering from a head injury and a groin wound.

Bill Decker, Dallas chief deputy sheriff, told the Fort Worth officers that a blood transfusion had been given Reily Friday morning. Fort Worth Star Telegram, Saturday Oct. 16.

Information received concerning Mr. Pete Johnson who was injured at Liberal Kansas, is that he will be able to return home within the next three week.

Mr. T. A. Spencer shipped several carloads of cattle last Tuesday.

The Joke's on Him

WHEN Joe Miller, a famous English comedian of the Eighteenth century, died in August, 1738, it was discovered that his widow received as her legacy naught but memories of an amiable and faithful, but improvident, husband. Thereupon a certain publisher named T. Read, a shrewd fellow of speculative tendencies, engaged a man named John Mottley to gather together all the current jests of the day and set them in type.

Soon afterwards there appeared in the bookstalls of London a volume which bore this imposing title: "Joe Miller's Jest, or the Wits Vade Mecum. Being a Collection of the most Brilliant Jest; the Politest Repartees; the most Elegant Bon Mots, and most pleasant short Stories in the English Language. First carefully collected in the Company, and many of them transcribed from the Mouth of the Facetious Gentleman, whose Name they bear; and now set forth and published by his Lamentable Friend and former Companion, Elijah Jenkins, Esq. Most Humbly Inscribed to those Choice-Spirits of the Age, Captain Bodens, Mr. Alexander Pope, Mr. Professor Lacy, Mr. Orator Henley, and Job Banker, the Kettle-Drummer."

The book was immediately popular and was followed by an endless succession of "Joe Miller" joke books. As a result, the name "Joe Miller" became firmly fixed in the consciousness of the English-speaking races as a synonym for "joke" and even today many of the wisecracks of the funny men of the stage, screen and radio are credited to him, especially when their audiences groan instead of laugh.

But the joke of it all in this: this man who, for two centuries, has been regarded as the King of Jesters, was a solemn fellow who not only never joked in his life (except when repeating his lines on the stage) but was utterly unable to see the point of a joke when it was told him by other men.

Antiquarian Discovery

ARE you one of those who believe that "the English have no sense of humor"? If so, read this confession which appeared in a London newspaper trade journal back in 1875.

An editor man is very sore (the wound is too new to allow of names being mentioned) at having recently been thoroughly hoaxed. A copy of an ancient inscription was sent for insertion to a local, the original of which was professedly taken from a stone found in excavating the foundations for some new building in Queen Victoria street. The following note accompanied it and with the inscription duly appeared.

"I enclose copy of an inscription in mediæval Latin from a stone discovered during the excavations in Queen Victoria street, where as you doubtless are aware, there formerly stood a church dedicated to a Saxon saint and missionary of whom many traces and relics still exist. He is known to the monkish chroniclers by the name of Uucatus Ambuana.

"Perhaps a copy might be suitable for your well known and extensively read paper and some of your antiquarian readers may be able to supply a translation.

ISABILLI HOERES AGO
PORTIBUS ES IN ARGO
NOXIE MARI THEIE TRUX
VOTIS INNEM PES AN DUX

A metrical translation was forwarded next day, and was inserted with a note that "we knew all the time it was a hoax and only inserted it as a joke," but those who saw Arthur just after he received the translation say they cannot reconcile his look of agonized horror and the awful profanity of his language with his public explanation.

"Insertion on stone discovered on the site of church of St. Walker, called by the monkish chroniclers, "Uucatus Ambuana" (Hokey Walker).

"I say, Billy, here's a go.
Forty buses in a row.
No, see that! They be trucks,
Vot is in em? Peas and Ducks."

"Massacre at Empire City"

THE silver mining business was booming in Nevada and her neighbor, California, was beginning to be more than a little jealous of her prosperity, especially since so many Californians were investing heavily in Nevada mining stock. So the newspapers in that state began advising the public to dispose of its Nevada stock and invest in California gold mines.

And then one day a shocking story appeared in the Virginia City (Nev.) Territorial Enterprise. It seems that a man in Empire City had followed the advice of the "foreign papers." Then, remorseful over his treason to home town industry and home town prosperity, he had killed himself, his wife and their nine children.

The story caused a sensation not only in Nevada but in every part of the country to which the telegraph wires carried it. Then the newspaper man who wrote the story of this "massacre" revealed that it was all a fake, written solely to point a "trade-at-home" moral.

Years later he confessed, "The idea that anybody could ever take my massacre for a genuine occurrence never once suggested itself to me, hedged about as it was by all those tell-tale absurdities and impossibilities." But such was his genius in telling a plausible story that the public did accept it unhesitatingly. His name was Mark Twain.

what Irvin S. Cobb thinks about:

The Place of Radio.

SANTA MONICA, CALIF. — "Deke" Aylesworth says radio can never displace newspapers. "Deke" is with Roy Howard's newspapers now and naturally wouldn't care to have his job shot out from under him by a loudspeaker. Most of us feel that way about our jobs, unless we happen to be working in some state institution, such as a penitentiary.

Radio never can displace newspapers any more than milk-tickets can displace milk. The newspaper reader chooses what he pleases from the day's coverage—gratifying obituary notices of people he didn't like; convincing statements from financial wizards explaining why his investments turned sour after he'd bought them on advice of aforesaid wizards; and, about once in so often, exciting special articles about the Hope diamond or the William Desmond Taylor case or the lure of Mr. Robert Taylor. But, the listener-in on radio must accept what somebody else already has predigested, which puts him in the same class with tapeworms.

So long as you can't wrap up a picnic lunch in a radio or use short wave sets to line pantry shelves with, we'll have newspapers. Thanks, "Deke," I'm working for a string of newspapers myself.

The League's New Head.

I TAKE back all I ever said about the League of Nations being as futile as a fly swatter in a saloon brawl.

The league has a new president—the Aga Khan, who has the largest private income on earth because 40,000,000 Mohammedans regard him as divine and pay for the privilege, often going hungry in order to do so. And he certainly is qualified to head a society dedicated to peace—he never parted from any of his wives except with the utmost harmony.

Well, to celebrate his election, the Aga Khan gave the most gorgeous banquet ever staged in Geneva—1,500 bottles of champagne and 300 pounds of caviar.

Thus did the league justify its right to existence. There were but few flies in the ointment. Ethiopia's delegates were either deceased or missing, the league having drawn the color line, so to speak, which was more than Mussolini did when he wiped out their country last year. Spain's delegates likewise were absent, being mostly dead or else fighting one another.

Sick Calls De Luxe.

PAT O'BRIEN, the actor, tells this one about an Irish cop at the crossing who waved a car containing three priests to proceed after the stop signal had gone up and then, with harsh words, checked another driver who sought to follow along, too.

"But you let that other car with those three clergymen in it go through," protested the halted one. "They was on their way to a sick call," stated the officer.

"Now wait a minute," said the citizen. "I happen to be a Catholic myself and I know about those things. Who ever heard of three priests going on one sick call?"

For a moment only the policeman hesitated. Then he snapped: "Say, young feller, tell me this, you that knows so much—did you never hear of a solemn high sick call?"

French Slickers.

POLICE are still trying to round up the slickers who, in one day, raided twenty-nine banks scattered all over France. This reminds a fellow of 1931, when the bank examiners were coroners simultaneously sitting on the mortal remains of an even larger number of American banks, the main difference being that these French banks were looted by outside parties.

According to dispatches, this job was accomplished through fraudulent credentials for strangers presenting forged drafts. But I beg leave to doubt that part, remembering when I turned up at various outlying points over there with proper identifications and a perfectly good letter of credit. What excitement then on the part of the cashier (spade beard) and what deep distress for the president (trelis whiskers) and what stifled moans from the board of directors (assorted beavers) when, finally, they had so fork over. Why you can wreck a perfectly good bank here in less time than it takes to get a certified check for $9.75, less exchange, cashed in a French provincial bank.

But should it develop that any of these recently stolen francs were earmarked for payment to us on account of that war debt—brethren, that would indeed be news.

CARRY YOUR ALKALIZER WITH YOU

IF OVER-EATING CAUSES ACID INDIGESTION—

The fastest way to "alkalize" is to carry your alkalizer with you. That's what thousands do now that genuine Phillips' comes in tiny, peppermint flavored tablets—in a flat tin for pocket or purse. Then you are always ready.

Use it this way. Take 2 Phillips' tablets—equal in "alkalizing" effect to 2 teaspoonfuls of liquid Phillips' from the bottle. At once you feel "gas," nausea, "over-crowding" from hyper-acidity begin to ease. "Acid headaches," "acid breath," "over-acid stomach" are corrected at the source. This is the quick way to ease your own distress—avoid offense to others.

HELP KIDNEYS

To Get Rid of Acid and Poisonous Waste

Your kidneys help to keep you well by constantly filtering waste matter from the blood. If your kidneys get functionally disordered and fail to remove excess impurities, there may be poisoning of the whole system and body-wide distress. Burning, scanty or too frequent urination may be a warning of some kidney or bladder disturbance. You may suffer nagging backache, persistent headache, attacks of dizziness, getting up at night, swelling, puffiness under the eyes—feel weak, nervous, all played out.

In such cases it is better to rely on a medicine that has won country-wide acclaim than on something less favorably known. Use Doan's Pills. A multitude of grateful people recommend Doan's and your doctor!

Household Questions

Two Buttons and a Hair Pin.—In most cases that's all you need to keep the loose pieces from falling out of a shattered window pane in your home or car. Put one button on each side of the hole in the glass, run the hair pin through the buttons and twist the end until it is tight.

Lattice-Topped Pies.—Fruit and berry pies with lattice-style tops require less baking time than the regular full-crust toppers.

Cauliflower and Eggs.—Butter a pie dish and break into it 4 eggs. Half cook a small cauliflower and break into neat pieces. Arrange these round the eggs and season with salt and pepper. Pour over 4 tablespoonfuls milk and place 1 ounce butter in small pieces on the top. Sprinkle 2 ounces grated cheese over, and bake 15-20 minutes in a moderate oven.

Good Airing.—When you have the windows open in the morning to air the beds before making, open the clothes closet doors wide and let the current of air run through them. It will prevent them from getting that close stuffy odor so undesired where our clothes are concerned.

SPOON BREAD IS ALWAYS POPULAR

Water-Ground Corn Meal Gives It Perfect Touch.

By EDITH M. BARBER

NO MATTER how much you may enjoy a meal as a whole, there is usually one dish which furnishes the highlight and therefore, stands out in your memory. At least, I find that this is the case. It was spoon bread which one of my friends gave us for Sunday supper and which heightened our enjoyment of the baked ham, deviled eggs, the hot biscuits and the green salad which our host mixed himself with a deft hand.

When I questioned Alice-from-Virginia, the cook, I found, as I had suspected, that old-fashioned water-ground corn meal had done its part in producing a perfect spoon bread than which there is nothing better. Of course, as the French say about spinach, it is death to butter.

Corn meal of this type is appreciated in some places of the North as well as it is in the South.

Up in Rhode Island the wheels of an old mill are turning again to produce the principal ingredient of the famous griddle-baked "Johnny cakes" for which that state is famous. The title, by the way, is a corruption of the word "journey," upon many of which these cakes of corn meal furnished the only supplement to the fish from the streams and the game from the forests.

Spoon Bread.

- 1 1/2 tablespoons butter
- 1 tablespoon sugar
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 2 cups water ground corn meal
- 1 cup boiling water
- 2 cups milk
- 2 eggs, beaten lightly
- 2 teaspoons baking powder

Mix butter, sugar and salt with the meal, scald with boiling water and add milk, well beaten eggs and baking powder. Pour into buttered baking pan and cook slowly, 325 degrees Fahrenheit, for forty-five minutes.

Johnny Cakes.

- 1 cup water ground corn meal
  - Boiling water
  - 1 tablespoon melted butter
  - 1/4 teaspoon salt
- Scald corn meal with enough boiling water to make a drop batter. Stir in melted butter and salt. Mix until very smooth. Drop batter from spoon in dabs onto hot greased griddle. When brown on one side, turn over and brown on the other.

Scalloped Potatoes and Eggs.

- 2 hard-boiled eggs
- 2 cups diced cooked potatoes
- 1/2 cup minced ham
- 1/2 cups white sauce
- 1/4 cup bread crumbs
- 1 tablespoon butter

Slice the eggs and arrange in a baking dish in alternate layers with the diced potatoes. Sprinkle each layer with minced ham and cover with white sauce. Sprinkle the top with crumbs, dot with butter and bake in a moderate oven until the crumbs are brown.

Melba Sauce.

- 1/2 cup currant jelly
  - 1/2 cup sugar
  - 1 cup pulp and juice of raspberries
  - 1/2 tablespoon cornstarch
  - 1 tablespoon cold water
- Add jelly and sugar to raspberries, and bring mixture to the boiling point. Mix cornstarch with cold water and stir into raspberry mixture. Stir over medium fire until the mixture is thick and clear. Strain and cool.

Ginger Cake.

- 4 tablespoons shortening
- 1/2 cup sugar
- 1 egg
- 1/2 cup sour milk
- 1/2 cup molasses
- 1 teaspoon cinnamon
- 1 teaspoon ginger
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 teaspoon soda
- 1 1/2 cups flour

Cream fat, add sugar gradually. Beat egg well and add. Mix the molasses and milk. Mix and sift dry ingredients, add alternately with liquid to creamed fat and sugar. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees Fahrenheit) thirty to thirty minutes.

Nut Wafers.

- 2 tablespoons butter
- 1 1/2 cups brown sugar
- 1 egg
- 2 tablespoons water
- 1/4 cup flour
- 1/2 cups chopped nuts.

Cream butter, stir in sugar, add egg and water. Add flour mixed with nuts. Drop by teaspoonfuls on a baking sheet, greased with an unsalted fat or oil, at least two inches apart. Bake about seven minutes in a moderate oven, 325 degrees Fahrenheit, until brown. Remove from oven, let stand half a minute and remove from baking sheet with spatula. If last wafers get too hard to remove easily return to the oven a minute and then remove.

Tomato Preserves.

- 4 pounds ripe tomatoes
- 5 cups sugar
- 1 lemon

Scald and peel tomatoes. Leave tomatoes whole. Add sugar and let stand overnight. Add thinly sliced lemon and cook until the mixture is clear and thick.

Household Hints

By BETTY WELLS

IF THERE'S one thing that makes a lady see red, white and blue, it's a glimpse of her best curtains looped up in a big knot to get them out of the way. And yet unless a man has been expertly housebroken, he'll knot them every time they flutter in his face. We don't usually advocate nagging, but in a case like that we do think it's forgivable.

But, of course, the best way is to fix the curtains so they won't flip around irritatingly. It goes without saying that you can't keep curtains looking like anything if they're going to be knotted from time to time, and yet we certainly can sympathize with a man who gets mad at a curtain that flaps at him when he is trying to take it easy.

If you drew a man who feels strongly about curtains that flutter, better take care to see that adequate provisions are made for getting the curtains out of the way without damage to themselves or dispositions. The best way is to have a pair of tie-backs at each window ready for use even though the curtains normally are made to hang straight. These tie-backs can be simple knobs or metal holders that probably won't show at all most of the time but they'll be there when needed. Be sure that they're good and substantial so they'll really do the job. Use them with or without cords, depending on the curtain and the tie-backs.

Another way to solve the problem is to have the curtains made with rings across their tops to pull back or else to draw back out of the way on transverse rods. Then have the bottoms weighted with dressmaker weights that you buy by the yard. This will keep the curtains from fluttering when drawn back. As a matter of fact, weights in the hems of the curtains will alone do a lot toward keeping them from fluttering in the way.

All Right If There's Room.

We have a few remarks to get out of our system on the subject of twin beds. In the first place, we think they're all right in their place but they've been going a lot of places the last few years that they haven't any business being. The average bedroom in the average house is too small for two beds and when they are used there, they eat up all the floor space and tend to make the room look very awkward. So before you go off the deep end and decide on twin beds instead of a double bed, do some measuring and floor planning to make sure that you'll have a graceful amount of floor space left in the room after the beds are in.

Another point to think about is the added expense of two beds. Remember that you have to invest about twice as much in springs, mattresses and blankets. Not to mention the double laundry you'll always have and the double number of beds to make.

Then we're old fashioned enough to think that a fine big double bed looks handsome in most rooms, though, of course, there are large rooms where twin beds fit with distinction. We also like the luxury of wide expanse of bed to spread our covers over.

But there's plenty to be said in favor of twin beds. Mainly that many people like to sleep alone. On that score we'd say that if it's your own permanent bed you're deciding on, it's better to stretch any number of points and get the kind of bed you'll find most comfortable because you'll spend a lot of your life there. But if you're buying for a guest room, you can count on the fact that guests usually come singly so the like-to-sleep-aloners will usually have it to themselves anyway. And when they do come in pairs, they'll probably survive sharing a good innerspring mattress for a night or two to accommodate a gracious hostess.

If you're still bound to have twin beds, investigate those new space savers—two beds with a single headboard. They look like one double bed because they stand together, thereby saving floor space. But they spring apart to facilitate bedmaking.

Ask Me? Another? A Quiz With Answers Offering Information on Various Subjects

1. What American statesman was the grandson of a king?
2. How much does a single inch of rain over an acre weigh? Over a square mile?
3. How many wars have there been since the signing of the Armistice in 1918?
4. Do Chinese surnames precede or follow the given names?
5. Who was the author of "Give me men to match my mountains"?
6. Name some famous musicians who had the gift of absolute pitch.
7. How many cabinet members were there in the first President's cabinet?
8. What is the usual order of business for general meetings of clubs and similar organizations?
9. What caused a farm to "sink" in Idaho?
10. How many words are there in the English language?

Answers

1. Charles Bonaparte, a member of Theodore Roosevelt's cabinet.
2. A single inch of rain weighs 113 tons an acre, or 72,300 tons a square mile.

3. There have been 17 wars since November 11, 1918.
4. They precede.
5. Samuel Foss.
6. Among them are Mozart, Brahms, Mendelssohn, Rachmaninoff, Von Bulow and Max Reger.
7. Three: secretaries of state, at first called foreign affairs; treasury and war. The attorney general and postmaster general were not at first given cabinet rank.
8. Reading of the minutes; reports of boards and standing committees; reports of special (select) committees; special orders; unfinished business; general orders; new business.
9. The geological survey terms this a landslip. The Salmon Falls river undercuts its canyon walls until some of the land overhead breaks away, causing cracks or other land adjustments at some distance from the rim.
10. According to the World Almanac the reputable English language contains approximately 700,000 words. Possibly 300,000 more terms may be stigmatized as nonce, obsolete, vulgar, low, etc., and therefore seldom or never sought in dictionaries.

87 SPEED RECORDS BROKEN TO MAKE TIRES SAFER FOR YOU

Never Before Have Tires Been Put to Such Gruelling Torture

AT SPEEDS as high as 180 miles an hour—with the hot, coarse, abrasive salt grinding, tearing, scorching his tires—Ab Jenkins' special racer, weighing nearly three tons, pounded over the Bonneville Salt Beds at such terrific speed that it caused the surface to break up. Before the end of the run the track was so pitted and rough that it was almost impossible to hold the car on its course. Yet Jenkins set 87 World, International and American speed records on Firestone Tires.

Building tires capable of establishing such records is made possible by patented Firestone manufacturing processes. These exclusive features enable Firestone to provide car owners with extra safe tires.

For the greatest protection equip your car with Firestone TRIPLE-SAFE Tires. By TRIPLE-SAFE we mean—

- 1 PROTECTION AGAINST SKIDDING—The scientific tread design stops your car up to 25% quicker.
- 2 PROTECTION AGAINST BLOWOUTS—The Firestone patented Gum-Dipping process counteracts internal friction and heat that ordinarily cause blowouts.
- 3 PROTECTION AGAINST PUNCTURES—Two extra layers of Gum-Dipped cords under the tread give extra protection against punctures.

Make your car tire-safe for fall and winter driving. Join the Firestone SAVE A LIFE Campaign today by letting your Firestone Dealer or Firestone Auto Supply and Service Store equip your car with a set of new FIRESTONE TRIPLE-SAFE Tires—the safest tires that money can buy!

YOU CANNOT AFFORD TO DRIVE WITHOUT FIRESTONE TRIPLE-SAFE TIRES

Last year highway accidents cost the lives of more than 28,000 men, women and children and a million more were injured! More than 40,000 of these deaths and injuries were caused directly by punctures, blowouts and skidding due to smooth, worn, unsafe tires!

Bankers Do Say "Yes"

Despite the idea many people have that bankers are "cold, hard-shelled, mercenary individuals" whose one aim in life is to refuse a loan, banking as a business is built on the demand for loans.

Bankers are just as anxious to make a loan to a good customer as the customer is to borrow the money. Bank credit is the life-blood of every community, and "bankers do say 'yes'" when the need for the loan is genuine and the ability to repay justifies the risk. Your banker must remember however, that it is your money he is loaning, not his own.

HOW TO CHECK JAPAN?

United States Doesn't Wish to Take the Lead . . . No Peace in Labor Ranks

Hull, Davis and Welles Going to Confer With President.

Edward W. Pickard

SUMMARIZES THE WORLD'S WEEK

© Western Newspaper Union

May Moot in Brussels

HOW far President Roosevelt is willing to go in the effort to stop Japan in China in what other powers, especially Great Britain, are eager to know. The people of the United States also would like to be informed in that matter.

Mr. Roosevelt, who conferred with Secretary of State Hull, Undersecretary Sumner Welles and Norman Davis, his roving ambassador, was represented as being strongly averse to taking a solitary lead in the action to check the Japanese.

The National Council for Prevention of War, representing a part of the extreme peace sentiment in the United States, announced that its annual meeting had declared for immediate invocation of the neutrality law which the President has not seen fit to put in operation.

Japan Denies Violations

IN A formal reply to the charges of treaty violation the Tokyo foreign office flatly denied responsibility for the Sino-Japanese conflict and asserted that China, not Japan, had violated the treaties.

Italy Supports Japanese

THERE was considerable doubt whether Italy would take part in the Pacific treaty conference, but it was assumed that if it did, it would defend the course pursued by Japan in China and would do what it could to frustrate the designs of the other conferees.

Japs Win Big Battle

DISPATCHES from Shanghai said the Japanese forces in north China had won a big victory in Hopai province, breaking through the Chinese lines at Shichlachuang on a vital railway after three days of fierce fighting.

mous republic comprising the five northern provinces is revealed in the Tokyo press. The capital is to be Peiping under its old name of Peking

No Peace for Labor

WAR between the rival factions in American organized labor is not going to cease in the near future. The C. I. O. leaders gathered in Atlantic City for their first "war council," and John L. Lewis, their chief, revealed plans for setting up a permanent dual organization.

John L. Lewis

contemptible" and said those unions considered themselves now out of the federation and awaited any further action by the federation with complete indifference.

In the federation convention at Denver it was taken for granted that the ten C. I. O. unions would be finally expelled, and President Green announced plans for the attack on the rival organization in several great fields.

One of the speakers in Denver was Senator George L. Berry of Tennessee. He has kept his pressmen's union within the federation, although he was closely associated with Lewis in "Labor's Non-Partisan League."

More TVA's Opposed

ONE of the bills which President Roosevelt wants congress to push through in the expected special session is the measure introduced by Senator Norris creating seven more TVA's to preserve and develop natural resources throughout the country.

The Treasury department objected to construction, operation, and maintenance of sewage and industrial waste disposal plants by federal authorities working "independent of and not subject to health laws of the respective states."

The Department of Justice "preferred" not to offer any suggestion. The Department of Labor reported "no specialized knowledge" of flood control and conservation.

Court Upholds Black

FOR the present, at any rate, Hugo L. Black's seat on the Supreme court, bench is secure. The court refused to permit Albert Levitt, former federal judge in the Virgin Islands, and Patrick Henry Kelly of Boston to contest the legality of Black's appointment.

America Backs Up League

DENONCING Japan as the aggressor in the conflict in China and accusing Tokyo of violating both the nine-power treaty and the Kellogg-Briand pact, the United States government lined up with the League of Nations.

Secretary of State Hull issued a statement to this effect, asserting that Japan's action in China was inconsistent with the principles that should govern the relationships between the nations and was contrary to the provisions of the two treaties.

Fifty member nations of the league voted for the resolution branding Japan as an invader and treaty violator and warning of more drastic action if Tokyo does not mend its ways.

The Aga Khan, Indian prince who is president of the league assembly, sent messages to the signers of the nine-power treaty and to Germany and Russia, asking them to convene immediately.

These events followed closely upon President Roosevelt's startling address at the dedication of a boulevard bridge in Chicago, which turned out to be perhaps the most important speech he ever has made.

He continued: "The peace-loving nations must make a concerted effort in opposition to those violations of treaties and those ignorings of humane instincts which today are creating a state of international anarchy from which there is no escape through mere isolation or neutrality."

We are determined to keep out of war, yet we cannot insure ourselves against the disastrous effects of war and the dangers of involvement.

Mussolini Balks

PREMIER MUSSOLINI politely but definitely refused to take part with Great Britain and France in a discussion of the removal of volunteers from Spain, unless Germany also participated.

Prime Minister Chamberlain and other ministers hastened to London for a special cabinet meeting to consider this serious situation. It was felt that Mussolini was determined to keep his "volunteers" in Spain and would send more men there if he thought necessary.

Nazis Cheer Windsor

THE duke and duchess of Windsor were given a fine reception in Berlin. Nazi officials meeting them at the station and the people cheering them heartily.

A writer on the Los Angeles Evening News said the duke of Windsor was to become a "world film czar" for the Hollywood studios at a $100,000 yearly salary.

Fr. Coughlin Off the Air

FATHER COUGHLIN, the "radio priest" of Detroit, is off the air, at least for the present. He was removed by Archbishop Edward Mooney for using in an interview the words "personal stupidity" in describing the President's appointment of Hugo L. Black to the Supreme court.

Ogden Mills Dies

OGDEN L. MILLS, who succeeded Andrew Mellon as secretary of the treasury and for years was a leader in the Republican party, died of heart disease at his home in New York.

Special Session Likely

CONGRESS probably will be called into special session between November 8 and November 16. This was revealed by President Roosevelt just after his return to his Hyde Park home.

Mr. Roosevelt also made it clear he has not abandoned his plans to "reform" the federal courts, including the Supreme court.

Be Chic This Fall in Handsome Lace

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

LACE, lace, lace! Write it down on your shopping memoranda as many times as you wish and then add a postscript in favor of lace, for lace reaches a new high this season in the matter of importance.

What the style creators of our day and generation are doing with lace in the way of daring and ingenious handling leaves nothing to the imagination. For instance, there are the stunning lace trimmed black sheer wool dresses that bear the Paris stamp and carry that "something different" look which we all covet.

Another adaptation of lace is in insets and appliques of individual motifs. These are positioned anywhere on the dress much after the manner that gay print motifs were used on monstone fabric during the past summer.

The biggest thrill, however, comes in the acceptance of lace used in a fabric way. The idea, to be sure, is not new for its practicality has been demonstrated without question during the last several seasons.

for the making of practical day dresses and the blouse to wear with your smart autumn wool suit. On the contrary we have come to realize and appreciate that a handsome lace dress tailored to utmost simplicity is not only good looking and practical but being lace it flatters and "does something" for you as none other but lace can do.

You'll love a dress like the one shown to the right in the illustration to wear this fall and winter under your furred cloth or all-fur coat. Just try out the idea and see how practically and logically this theory of lace for the daytime frock works out.

If in doubt as to the new blouse to wear with your autumn suit, let lace, either handsome wool lace or the now-so-modish macramé or some equally as sturdy type, solve your problem.

The most outstanding thing about the ensemble is the combination of lace with crepe. Lace is also being combined with many other fabrics in the fall showings of eminent French designers.

HER STARLET BAG

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

The movies have a great deal to do with the modern trend in child thought, and when a child sees her favorite star carrying a smart little handbag, as little girls in filmland are wont to do, she wants one too.

WOODEN TRIMMINGS FOR FALL COSTUMES

Novelty wooden buttons adorn many of the newest sports frocks while handsomely carved wooden clips, pins and buckles are also featured as trimmings.

Belts made entirely of wooden pieces hinged together or of wood in alliance with metal chains are decorative assets to suits as well as dresses while the same ideas are repeated in the designing of necklaces and bracelets.

Pouch Bags Fashionable as an Accessory for Autumn

Pouch bags are back in style for fall and are shown in soft dull leather broader at the base than at the top. Fashioned with round or rectangular caps that fit over the opening of the bag, when it is opened the sides may be spread out so that the contents may be found easily.

Silky antelopes with severe gold and silver trim are the loveliest of afternoon bags.

Evening Headdress

You must wear, when you dress formally for evening, either a feather, a flower or a fantasy of glittering sequins in your hair.

READY TO BRING YOU RELIEF IN MINUTES

THE REASON BAYER ASPIRIN WORKS SO FAST

Drop a Bayer Aspirin tablet into a tumbler of water. By the time it hits the bottom of the glass it is disintegrating. This speed of disintegration enables genuine BAYER Aspirin tablets to start "taking hold" of headache and similar pain a few minutes after taking.

YOU can pay as high as you want for remedies claimed to relieve the pain of Headache, Rheumatism, Neuritis, Sciatica, etc. But the medicine so many doctors generally approve—the one used by thousands of families daily—is Bayer Aspirin—15¢ a dozen tablets—about 1¢ apiece.

Simply take 2 Bayer Aspirin tablets with a half glass of water. Repeat, if necessary, according to directions. Usually this will ease such pain in a remarkably short time.

For quick relief from such pain which exhausts you and keeps you awake at night—ask for genuine Bayer Aspirin.

HOW OFTEN CAN YOU KISS AND MAKE UP?

NEW husbands can understand why a wife should turn from a pleasant companion into a stray for one whole week in every month. You can say "I'm sorry" and kiss and make up earlier before marriage than after. If you're wise and if you want to build your husband, you won't be a three-quarter wife.

For three generations one woman has told another how to go "smiling through" with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It helps Nature tone up the system, thus lessening the discomfort from the functional disorders which women must endure in the three decades of life: 1. Turning from girlhood to womanhood. 2. Preparing for motherhood. 3. Approaching "middle age."

Famed Ancient Colors Bettered by Modern Dye Manufacturers

Tyrian Purple and Blue of Egypt Are Debunked

New York.—Our modern age is sometimes criticized for doing things in a big way. We turn out paints by the vat; dyes by the carload. It is supposed to be a sad change from the good old days when Egyptians mixed colors that would last 4,000 years, and when Tyrians patiently extracted drops of royal purple from shellfish.

But chemists who concoct our up-to-date colors can well defend themselves. They long ago investigated the Tyrian purple legend and showed that this famous dye is no regrettable lost art.

True, the dye makers of Tyre achieved a sort of miracle by milking thousands of snail-like shellfish to get the lone whitish drop from each head. In the air the white stuff turned green, then blue, then purple. Finally, set by alkali, it became the crimson that Tyrian purple actually appeared.

Our Chemists Do Better. But, the chemists explain, the only reason debutantes and shop-girls aren't wearing royal purple today is because better crimson dyes are known. Laborators could make it by the ton, but you wouldn't buy it.

It is the same with the famous Egyptian blue used in decorating walls in Egypt, and later in Rome. Recently, research scientists for a printing ink corporation tested this blue, because of its reputation for permanency. Gently handling specimens of Roman wall painting, they analyzed the blue color by a spectro-photometer. They found the Egyptian blue a good deal like modern ultramarine. It was fast to light, heat, salt water, and mild acids. But—it did not come up to modern standards.

Men Not Born Equal, Study of Primitive Races Evidences

New York.—All men are not born equal. Scientific evidence, long lacking or insufficient, now points to genuine mental differences between races apart from the more superficial superiority that results from advantageous geographic location, proximity to other peoples, and a background of culture or civilization.

It has been natural to suppose that men differ from each other mentally as they do in the more obvious matters of skin color, shape of nose, or curliness of hair. But procuring scientific proof of such differences was a stupendous task.

The test with which an American child is given an I. Q. rating is obviously not suited to an adult African Bushman. Written tests are automatically barred for the illiterate.

So-called performance tests are almost equally useless. The uncivilized man cannot understand the directions necessary, the pictures are meaningless to him.

A new attack is provided by comparing two primitive peoples not with civilized man but with each other. Dr. S. D. Porteus, psychologist widely known for his psychological maze tests, has gone to the desert wastes of central Australia and to the home of the Kalahari Bushmen in South Africa.

Cinnamon Trees Grew in Texas Many Years Ago

Stephenville, Texas.—Cinnamon trees once grew in what is now Texas, millions of years ago, when there were dinosaurs to browse on their leaves.

A group of fossils which include leaves of plants like cinnamon, sassafras, sarcoparilla, and maple, found near here, are described by Prof. O. M. Ball of the Agricultural and Mechanical College of Texas in the Journal of Geology.

Utah Fossil Tract Last Pasture of the Huge Sauropods

These Reptiles Famous for Having Two Brains

Washington.—The bones of a sauropod, gigantic dinosaur that made the world picture of 150,000,000 years ago a nightmare, have been found in a western Utah fossil tract that may have been the last pasture where the last of the fabulous appearing reptiles awaited their final end, the Smithsonian Institution announced.

Another chapter has thus been written in the curious history of the forty-ton monsters and their smaller-racial brothers that peopled the world hundreds of millions of years ago and then utterly disappeared.

The bones, found by Dr. Charles W. Gilmore, the Institution's paleontologist, are only 80,000,000 years old as against the 150,000,000 year age of most of the dinosaur remains, giving rise to the belief that the western Utah tract where they were found may have been the spot where the monsters met extinction.

Insufficient materials to reconstruct the sauropod, known from other specimens to have ranged between 75 and 100 feet in length and 40 to 50 tons in weight, were found. But enough evidence was uncovered by Doctor Gilmore to add significantly to previous knowledge regarding these creatures.

Last Round-Up of Reptiles.

True mammals were already beginning to appear in North America at the time that the last of these massive creatures were making a last stand against probable climatic changes that cut off their food supply.

The last round-up, with drought and chill over the semi-tropical forest which at that time covered North America as the herders may have taken place in Utah in the neighborhood of the fossil finds. Scientists have been unable to proceed further than such speculation in accounting for the disappearance in a very short time of the giant reptiles of the Cretaceous era.

The sauropods are famous not only as the largest land creatures, but because they had a small brain in the head and a second "brain" in the hindquarters for controlling the movements of the hind legs and tail, in much the same fashion as a hook-and-ladder fire truck.

Finding the sauropod bones in the 60,000,000 year old beds was called "more remarkable than finding a living mastodon or saber-toothed tiger" by the Smithsonian Institution.

More Broken Necks Are Due to the Automobile

Chicago.—More people are getting their necks broken these days than in the horse and buggy era, and the automobile is responsible. Dr. H. F. Plaut of Cincinnati told members of the Congress of Radiology here.

The particular part of the neck which gets broken is the atlas, the first vertebra at the base of the skull which forms the pivot on which the skull rotates.

"Previously fractures of the atlas were reported among longshoremen and in gymnasium accidents," Dr. Plaut recalled. "Now automobile accidents throw riders against the tops of cars and pitch them to the pavement with many cases of fractured atlases."

Most of these patients recover and are fully active, Dr. Plaut said. Fractures of the skull above the atlas are more dangerous.

The atlas is not easily injured by direct violence because it is well protected by other bones and is deeply imbedded in surrounding soft tissues. But in a head-on fall the force is directed against the weakest part of the atlas by the pressure of the skull at this point.

Picnic Site of Oldest Inhabitants Is Found

Minneapolis.—Two thousand knife-marked bones, remnants of ancient feasting in the northern lake region of Minnesota, have been discovered at a camp ground of America's earliest people.

Prof. A. E. Jenks of the University of Minnesota announced the find to the Journal of Science. That the scene reveals very old inhabitants is indicated by finding bones of a kind of bison, long extinct on this continent, among the bones of bear, elk, caribou and other big game animals in the kitchen refuse. The feasters also left knives and other tools of bone and stone.

The kitchen dump, abandoned thousands of years ago, is buried three to nine feet under a bog of grasses and marsh weeds, in Itaska State park. Professor Jenks has been excavating the site in co-operation with the state conservation commission and the federal government.

BEAUTY'S DAUGHTER

By Kathleen Norris

CHAPTER XV—Continued

"But, good heavens, Vic, what's that!" the man said roughly, in impatience. "What's all that compared to the other thing, compared to hurting your pride, and killing your love for me, and putting the thought of another woman eternally between us? Why, let's of the fellows go home to women who are extravagant and nagging and nervous, and who don't have a houseful of gorgeous kids to show for it! There's no comparison between the two."

"I think there is. I think nagging and extravagance and nerves are serious things, too, and I think women who won't have children, who hate home, who are always running about with other men, are just as bad! Even if they don't go to the limit—even if they feel along, getting everything they can out of a man and then stopping short, never giving anything—it seems to me deplorable." Vic said. "My own temptations are different," she added.

"I think maybe I'm a mother first and a wife afterward; I've never gone in for pink baby pillows and long-legged dolls!"

The words brought back with a moment of horror the memory of her last night of Serena's bedroom, and she was silent.

"Serena loved you," she said thoughtfully, in the silence.

"She never loved anyone but herself," Quentin said. "Everything she said and did revolved about that. She loved her own beauty and power. She used them to get what she wanted. I knew it, after a while. Marjorie must have discovered it as soon as they were married. Her first husband tried twice to kill himself. She was cold and vain, poor girl! And she was the woman," he ended, "for whom I broke your heart!"

"No, you didn't break my heart."

"Breaking a person's heart is a cheap way of putting it," Quentin said. "It sounds romantic, when it wasn't anything but damn' stupid and selfish. You said what it really did, a minute ago. It made you think less of me; that's the real price. We never can go back of that. You'll never be able to trust me again. There'll always be that feeling, somewhere, 'way back in your mind, that I failed you!"

Vicky, her elbows on her hands, looked thoughtful.

"I suppose so," she said slowly. "But I don't know that it matters. You've seen me looking pretty horrible, ugly and crying and frightened and only anxious to be let off pain; it doesn't seem to make you like me any less when I'm all gotten up in my new Paris clothes. Luckily people forget those things, when—under it all—they love each other."

Quentin answered with a long look.

"I think you really believe that," he said after a while. "You're not like anyone else in the world!"

Vicky in her turn was thoughtful.

"Perhaps we're both tired," she said. "For that matter, what's happened tonight is enough to throw me into nervous breakdowns. We don't often talk this way. But it's only fair to tell you something, Quentin, that may partly explain the way I feel, the way I act. When we were married, eleven years ago, I talked about marrying for reasons, about not being carried away by excitement, about not falling in love."

"I told you my idea of marriage was companionship, home, children. You were a widower with a delicate youngster—" She laughed. "It seems funny now to think of Gwen as delicate, doesn't it?" she said. "Women were making your life a burden, and you needed just what I had to give. I remember our talking of it once, and your saying that whatever the agreement was before marriage, however reasonable and dispassionate the feeling was, no man could have a young wife around and not come to love her, that is presuming that he didn't come to hate her. Do you remember that?"

"Vaguely."

"Well, the joke was on me," Vicky said. "For I had it—had it desperately, the whole time! I trembled and got silly when you spoke to me, I thought of you all day long and lay awake dreaming of you all night. I was the love-sickest woman who ever knelt down and thanked God that the most marvelous man in the world had deigned to look at her! I never told you, I was too proud. I tackled the big house and the servants and Gwen; I even went to the hospital and had your babies, Quant. But I never dared tell you! You never asked me, you took me calmly for granted, meals and furniture and Gwen and babies and answering the telephone and buying you new shirts, and that was the way I wanted it to be. I didn't want to be the one to introduce the silly, the sentimental side of it, cry when you forget my birthday, and expect you to compliment me every night on the way my hair was done! I'd said I wanted a certain kind of marriage—work and responsibility and companionship, and plenty of criticism if I didn't do my job, and I got it! But I've loved you all the time! Quant, when you come home tired at night and go to sleep with your big heavy head on my shoulder, I lie awake sometimes for joy. Juliet has nothing on me, nor Beatrice, nor Nicolette! I've never loved anyone else, and no woman ever loved a man more, or so much, his old coat and his voice in the hall at night, and the way he looks at her when she's scared in her strange room in the hospital, the way his hand pats her hand when she goes up to the surgery."

"She stood up, smiled at him."

"There," she said. "That's my awful confession. I've made you a speech."

Quentin took Victoria in his arms.

"You've made me a speech, Vic. I'll never forget it."

Victoria raised her eyes to her husband's eyes, and there was in them the shadow of her undefeated smile.

(THE END)

Wool Is Going Places

LADY, lady, lady have you anything in wool? Smart women everywhere are clamoring for wool. They're wearing it to work, to play in, to date in, to go to church in. Yes, wool is going places! Sew-Your-Own is here today (and will be here tomorrow) with three ultra smooth new models for you to choose from—just to make sure you won't be a poor little lady without something in wool for Fall.

Needs Slim Lines. That "something in wool" might well and easily be the handsome model at the left above. Especially does a weightier fabric need slim lines and here you have them pared down to hair-line precision. The zipper from throat to hemline gives this frock additional chic, and the far-reaching collar takes care of that all-important need for contrast. French wire, black, dark green, and geranium blue are the popular colors.

Compliment to Youth. Youth and the blouse in a skirt have always gone sporting together. That's a compliment to youth and real flattery for the two-piece above center. This engaging combination has a waist-catch top and a simply cut flaring skirt. A singular asset is its size range 14 to 42. And because it is figure flattering every size is benefited. Acetate crepe is lovely for the blouse, velvet or the wool is smart for the skirt.

For a Busy Body. If you're a busy body or a lady of legion labors, you'll thank Sew-Your-Own for the charming new frock at the right. Now is the time to cut two versions: one in gingham for housework, another as your "something in wool" in the long sleeve style for all occasions.

The Patterns. Pattern 1375 is designed for sizes 12 to 20 (30 to 40 bust). Size 14 requires 2 1/2 yards of 34-inch material. With short sleeves. 3 1/2 yards of 29-inch material. Collar and cuffs in contrast take five-eighths of a yard.

Pattern 1302 is designed for sizes 14 to 20 (32 to 42 bust). Size 16 requires 4 1/2 yards of 29-inch material.

Pattern 1382 is designed for sizes 24 to 42. Size 36 requires 2 1/2 yards of 54-inch material with long sleeves. 3 1/2 yards of 29-inch material with short sleeves.

Send your order to The Sewing Circle Pattern Dept., Room 1220, 211 W. Wacker Drive, Chicago, Ill. Price of patterns, 15 cents (in coins) each.

The Oppressor

IF WE should look under the skirt of the prosperous and prevailing tyrant, we should find, even in the days of his joys such alloys and abatements of his pleasure, as may serve to represent him miserable, even in the hour of his prosperity, and independent of his final infelicities, and although all tyrants may not have such accusing and fantastic consciences, yet all tyrants shall die, and come to judgment, and though such a man may be feared, he is not at all to be envied.

"Quotations"

If one looks up too much at the clouds, one stumbles against stars. Star-gazing is very sweet and elevating, but it is well sometimes to pick up the heavily flowers that grow round our feet.—R. Core.

Content is the great profession. Behavior is the perpetual revealing of us. What man does tells us what he is.—F. D. Huntington.

The machine has in general destroyed something which is the most important factor in the life of civilized man, beauty and the sense of profession.—Ignace Paderewski.

A wide-spreading, hopeful disposition is our only true umbrella in this time of tears.—T. B. Aldrich.

"FIVE Minus TWO Leaves FOUR"

WRONG? Well, yes—and no. The arithmetic of your school days taught that "5 minus 2 equals 3." But that is mathematics—not shopping! In shopping a home . . . granting a limited family income . . . we're simply got to do better than Mary did. We must sharpen our buying wit . . . see where the dollars of extra value hid . . . take five dollars to town and get much more for the money spent. Fortunately, there are ever-willing guides right at hand—the advertising agents in this newspaper. Advertisers themselves in their conventional sales merchandise, it takes dollars 5-1-1-1-CHE.

NO LESS than the engineer, you have a stake in any truly basic advance in automotive design.

For that reason, you will not lightly pass over the most important news-story of the new-car season: the story of Buick's new DYNAFLEX ENGINE and TORQUE-FREE SPRINGING.

What happens in this engine happens nowhere else in the world.

Each fuel charge is converted into a tiny fist-size hurricane — and the spark that sets it off releases more performance than gasoline ever gave to motorists before! Matching this marvelous power, is an equally incomparable ride.

Old-type leaf springs are replaced with jarless coils of easy-flexing steel.

No matter how the wheels may dip and curtsy, you ride serene in everlasting comfort unmatched anywhere before!

No other car in the world has these two features. Yet they are only leaders of a host of others you can't afford to miss!

See your Buick dealer this week, for what he has to offer is truly the engineering marvel of the new car season!
