Being Happy Fashionable
Being one is happy seems to be the proper thing to do, according to Dr. Randolph Miller, psychologist at Teachers University. Of 500 women questioned, only 89 admitted that their happiness was below par, and none was a complete pessimist. Happiness is not affected by money, education or jobs, Doctor Miller said. His co-workers found smokers and non-smokers both were happy. And married men were happier, as a rule, than bachelors.

KNOW YOUR BANK

How Can I Save On My 1941 Income Tax?

Federal income tax rates have gone up, drastically. Now it becomes more important than ever to take the legal deductions provided for by law. Taxes, interest, charitable donations—these and other items may be legitimately deducted to determine the taxable portion of your income. That's where a checking account can be very helpful. When you pay by check each payment becomes a permanent record, available for reference at tax time. Open an account here.

WHO'S NEWS THIS WEEK

By LEMUEL F. PARTON
(Consolidated Features—WNU Service.)

NEW YORK.—Encouraging news is that we may keep our rubber heels, and if we have to travel on them, instead of on rubber tires, it won't be the fault of the Small, Still Voice Of Scientists Now Dr. Elmer W. Brandes, head of the bureau of plant industry of the department of agriculture.

For many years, Dr. Brandes has been exploring rubber jungles, wherever he can find them, studying rubber-yielding plants and staking out for the government useful data and techniques. Currently, he tells the house agriculture committee about the urgency of planting large areas of the guayule shrub. This time, the committee is listening more intently. Germany is far ahead of us in synthetic rubber production.

On occasion, Dr. Brandes has worked up a pleasant friendship with head-hunters, and should be able to get on friendly terms with congressmen. It was in August, 1928, that he landed his hydroplane in a jungle river in New Guinea. It scared the wits out of the pygmy head-hunters. But the genial and conspicuously unarmed Dr. Brandes lured them into his camp by friendly gestures and they became friends and co-operators. He has flown many thousands of lone jungle air leagues on many research expeditions to Central and South America, Asia and the Pacific Islands. In July, 1940, congress provided $500,000 for a study of crude rubber in the Western hemisphere. Dr. Brandes flew to Brazil and is now offering to congress the result of his researches there.

He was born in Washington in 1891, was educated in science at Michigan State college, Cornell and the University of Michigan, taught at Michigan State and entered the government service as a plant pathologist at the Puerto Rico agricultural experiment station in 1914. He served in the World war, as a second lieutenant, in France.

THERE is one section of the populace which won't be bothered much by all this rationing of food, clothes, automobile tires and household goods. It is the group which is, for the most part, a stranger to such luxuries. One of them asked me for a dime today.

"We gotta work fast," he said, "before the government gets all the loose dimes."

If, as reported, morale is good among people who are hungry and cold, the Salvation Army has helped, and will help, greatly to this end. And rating many new stars in his crown, or cap, is Col. John J. Allan, just now becoming the Army's lieutenant commissioner for 11 central states, with headquarters at Chicago.

When, as a young man, getting a start as a jeweler, John James Allan decided to give his life to the Salvation Army, he disguised himself as a derelict, when he went down into New York's Bowery. He shared their flop-houses, wore ragged clothes and took his hand-out where he found it. "Condescending to men of low estate," in the scriptural phrase, he found reciprocal understanding when he shared their troubles. That was the start of his career of kindly and aggressive friendliness as an evangelist, and champion of the down-but-never-outs, and as a cornetist for the Bowery and for King George of England—at a commended performance in 1944. He was for three years a soloist with Reeves American band of Providence, R. I.

He is the father of the United Service Organizations. It was on October 11, 1940, that he met with executives of the Y.M.C.A., the Knights of Columbus and the Jewish Welfare organization for united effort among the soldiers, and out of this meeting came the U.S.O.

He is married, the father of five children. He was born in Haxelton, Pa., in 1887, his mother having been born near Nottingham, England, a stone's throw from the home of General Booth.

In the World war, he was senior chaplain of the Seventy-seventh division in France, the first Salvation Army chaplain in the American armed forces. He won the French Croix de Guerre and later received the rank of major chaplain of the U. S. army. In 1938, he entered the army reserve corps, and his "Colonel" is a military title. He was in Salvation Army work in Newark from 1923 to 1936 and thereafter in Columbus, Ohio, for eight years, managing the Greenwood Lake Camp for Children. He never trumpets himself, but the Army does.

For Pan-American Solidarity Against Axis

Undersecretary of State Sumner Welles, center, and U. S. ambassador to Brazil, Jefferson Caffery, are shown talking to Oswaldo Aranha, Brazil's foreign minister, who was also administrator of the Pan-American conference held in Rio de Janeiro. The photo was made just before the third conference of foreign ministers in the interest of lining up all the American republics in a solid 100 per cent Western hemisphere front against the Axis, with a complete rupture of diplomatic relations. Leaders described Aranha as a "tower of strength."

Commandos Examine Captured Field Piece

British troops examine a German field gun, captured during their occupation of the island of Manley, Norway. The British commandos were landed on the Norwegian islands of Vaagsø and Manley, after coast defenses had been silenced. Fifteen thousand six hundred and fifty tons of enemy shipping were destroyed, with munition dumps, oil tanks and storehouses.

Hawaii Gets Set for 'Return Engagement'

U. S. troops and native workmen work on underground installations of dugouts. This is a first aid dugout equipped to perform surgery in an advanced position.

Warns Draft Boards Against Hysteria

Brig. Gen. Lewis H. Morshay, director of selective service, speaks at national press conference in Washington. He said he expects the nation's manpower in the next several months to come from men in the 21 to 34 age group, and warned local draft boards not to indiscriminately classify men for immediate service because we are at war.

Visits White House

Wendell L. Willkie, 1940 Republican candidate for the presidency, shown with reporters as he walked down the White House roadway, following a conference with President Roosevelt. Willkie gave the reporters no indication as to what the conference was about.

Production Chief

Donald Nelson, named by the President to head a war production board, superseding the supply, allocations and priorities board. Nelson has "final" authority over all matters of production.

In 'Merry England'

Mrs. Winston Churchill is shown, obviously enjoying a dance with a munitions worker at a recreation center in the North of England. This center was opened for the use of workers who have come from the south of England and Scotland.

Commands Dutch

Lt. Gen. Heinrick Forsten, commander of the armed forces of Netherlands East Indies, which have made things so hot for the invading Japanese.

Antique Finish on Furniture
PAINTED furniture in white or light cream usually becomes more attractive when given a finish known as "antique." In its application the painted finish of the furniture should be thoroughly dry, and if necessary, smoothed with very fine sandpaper. A coat of a thin varnish, known as a glaze, is then applied liberally. This glaze is not clear, but is tinted either with dark brown or with black. While the glaze is still wet, it is wiped off with lintless cheese-cloth in such a way that a very thin coat is left on the flat surfaces, while more is left in the carvings and moldings. The effect is to produce a shading that goes from fairly deep tones to so light a tone that it can hardly be noticed. Examination of articles of antique finish at a furniture store will give the idea. If glaze cannot be had, it can be made by thinning varnish with one-fourth as much turpentine, and tinting with color-in-oil; the kind that comes in tubes.

Damp Basement
Question: The basement of our two-year-old house feels damp, although there is no standing water in it. We have six-inch cement channels under the rainwater leaders, but no underground drains, as we were warned that these might become stopped. Is the trouble in the foundation? Is the dampness to blame for the appearance of many cobwebs at the windows?
Answer: When rainwater leaders discharge close to a house, the water may work back to the foundation walls and make the cellar damp. This is probably your trouble. The discharge should be at least 15 feet away. To get rid of the cobwebs, pull them down as they appear with a vacuum cleaner, and spray the space with an insect liquid. Work it into all cracks and joints in the woodwork and elsewhere, for it is there that spider eggs develop.

Cupboard Drawer Dust
Question: My cupboard drawers deposit wood dust on the shelves underneath. We have put in metal strips for the drawers to run on, but still find dust particles.
Answer: That dust is worn from the edges of the drawers as they slide in and out. Rubbing all the wearing parts with paraffine will end the trouble, and will also make the drawers slide more easily.

Floor Board Cracks
Question: In my hundred year old house there are cracks between the boards of the pine floors. What filler can I use that will stay in?
Answer: First, nail the boards solidly to the beams; you can toenail them at the edges. Then cut strips of pine to fit the cracks and nail them in with finishing nails.

Patched Stucco
Question: Three sides of my stucco house are in good condition. Cracks on the front side have been patched, and the patches spell the looks. Could I have this side chingled over the stucco? Or must the stucco first be taken off?
Answer: Shingles can be put on over the stucco through the use of hardened steel nails, which are on the market for just such a purpose. Ordinary nails would bend on being driven into stucco, but these hard nails will do the trick. If your house is detached, its appearance with three sides of stucco and the front chingled might be odd. The effect would be better if the defective stucco is taken off and replaced.

Cabin Ventilation
Question: How can the attic of a cabin be ventilated? Are ventilators made that can be opened in summer and closed in winter? What ventilating device can be put in the ceiling over the stove?
Answer: Lumber yards and dealers in building material carry louvers made either of metal or of wood to be put high up in the ends of the gables. These have shutters that can be closed in winter and are made with insect screens. To carry off smoke and vapors from a stove, build a hood over it, with a ventilating pipe passing through the ceiling to an outlet in the roof. The hood can be made of sheet metal, plasterboard, or anything similar.

Painting Cake Boxes
Question: In redecorating kitchen sets, such as cake and bread boxes, I do not seem to have the right oil, so that paint will take on the appearance of enamel. Can you tell me what to use?
Answer: For best results, you should start with the thorough cleaning of the boxes with sandpaper to take off old paint and for the slight roughening of the metal surface. Then put on one coat of enamel undercoater and a finish coat of enamel. These two should be of the same color, and for best results, made by the same manufacturer.

AMERICAN RED CROSS WAR CHEST CAMPAIGN

The Red Cross has recently requested to raise fifty million dollars for a War fund to be used for taking care of men in the armed forces...

President Roosevelt issued a proclamation to this effect last Friday, and asked that each chapter meet its quota as quickly as possible.

The quota for Lincoln County is $1100.00. Mr. J. E. Hall is the County War Fund Chairman...

Every person who can give to this cause is urged to see their local chairman or forward funds direct to Mr. Hall at Carrizozo at once.

Let's do our part for the protection of our boys in service and put this drive over the top as quickly as possible.

Frank Adams, Chapter Chairman.

Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas

To all Banks in the Eleventh Federal Reserve District:

Recurring rumors that the Federal Government intends to confiscate all savings are being circulated in many parts of the country. The continued circulation of such rumors might lead to the withdrawal of saving deposits. In connection with these rumors, Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau recently made the following statement:

"I wish to state most emphatically that there are no foundations whatever for such rumors. The Federal Government does not have under consideration any proposal involving the confiscation of the savings deposits of this country for any purpose. Furthermore, anyone circulating rumors of this character is acting against the welfare of the nation."

The importance of financing the war effort to the greatest possible extent from current income rather than from accumulated savings has been repeatedly emphasized by the Treasury Department. In furtherance of that policy, efforts are being made to encourage all employers to adopt a payroll allotment plan for the sale of Defense Bonds to their employees, because that is regarded as one of the essential steps in combating the development of inflammatory tendencies.

Murdered by mistake in his hour of triumph. Just as the struggling composer glimpsed the success of his popular song, whose haunting melody everybody is now humming, singing or whistling, a stranger pointed a gun through the window and killed him. Read this real-life tragedy, truly stranger than fiction, in The American Weekly, the magazine distributed with next week's Los Angeles Examiner.

Last Words

Last words of dying persons are like the mutterings in a delirium. Why then are they so treasured? asks Dr. J. Shelton Horsley in an article in Hygeia Magazine. The melodramatic picture of relatives hovering over a deathbed is based on the wrong conception. Last words are of no value when they come from a mind benumbed by approaching death. It is better to remember the words spoken while the person was in a healthy mental and physical state.

Current Fashions Stress New Use of Daring Color Contrast

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

In present war times when economy is a virtue every woman is urged to practice. For example, there's that dress hanging in your closet, "perfectly good," yet seeming to have outlived its usefulness. The sleeves show wear at the elbows. Why not rejuvenate this poor outfit with a new pair of sleeves in a bright, contrasting color? To complete the costume, add a belt, and, perhaps, pockets in the same bright color. You might even go so far as to do the contrast sleeves in a tri-color scheme, coral for the top, gold for the center and purple for the lower arm portion, repeating the colors in pockets and neckline details.

Smartly typical of the new vogue for contrast is the dress shown to the right in the picture above. It has a definitely "peasant" feeling in its use of vivid colors and its trimming in a flower of self fabric.

There's something about the mid-dy-blouse fashion done in red, white and blue that makes an irresistible combination. The pattern for the two-piece outfit, centered in the group above, with its easy-to-follow instructions, is especially interesting if you sew the modern way. If you aspire to be your own seamstress, your local sewing center will instruct you, at little or no expense, in the making of such expert dress-maker details as buttonholes. Crisp white rayon fabric is used for the mid-dy blouse and cadet blue for the skirt. Bands of vermilion red accent the collar, cuffs and pockets and can be made in "jig time" with an edge stitcher sewing machine attachment.

And don't forget about the newest bathing suits. They have sprightly little skirts of ruffles, each in a different color. A bandanna for the head repeats the color scheme. (Released by Western Newspaper Union.)

AT FIRST this matter of using two or three colors together in daring contrast was regarded as an adventure that would give a new slant to fashion. It was a deliberate departure from traditional color technique that might reasonably be expected to prove a mere passing fad. However, this courage on the part of designers to start something new has not only added zest to fashion, but has developed a movement that is being carried over from one season to another with increasing enthusiasm.

This spring the fashion program fairly vibrates with breathtaking color contrasts that defy staid and sedate ideas as to which color goes with which.

In every phase of fashion, from bathing suits to sweaters and from simple daytime dresses to dress-up afternoon frocks and pretentious "formals," designers are courageously handling color in new ways with an artistry that is winning tremendous applause.

To demonstrate the brilliant and audacious spirit style creators express in their use of color, note the daytime dress shown to the left in the group illustrated above. The dress in this instance is of narrow wale corduroy with sleeves and collar of bright red wool jersey. A patch pocket has a striking heraldic design embroidered in multi-colored yarns.

By the way, this idea of contrasting sleeves might serve as an inspiration in stretching a limited budget to meet the exigencies arising

Luscious to Look At and Eat, Too . . . Orange Sponge Cake

(See Recipes Below)

Snacks, II

What shall I serve to guests who drop in for an evening of bridge or for a chat? This is a question I've heard many hostesses ask, especially when the weather is so warm that visiting time really comes into favor again. The answer is simple, for a delectable cake with steaming coffee, or hot drink turns the trick.

Your guests will have finished their supper only a short time before, and since snacks do not come late in the evening, it is best to serve something not too heavy. Light cakes, preferably those with a touch of piquancy and tartness, fill the bill perfectly. These cakes may be baked in one of your not-so-busy moments to have on hand for just such an occasion.

Hot drinks are favorites in the chilling weather. If you like coffee, be sure to have quantities of the steaming beverage on hand. If you are on the lookout for new ideas, there are the hot fruit juice combinations which fill the spot. Either type of drink goes well with these dessert-like cakes.

Here's the first cake on our list. It's like spun gold in color with just the right tartness. You'll find that the novel oranges which peel and separate easily into sections will be perfect for decorating the cake as pictured above.

- Orange Sponge Cake
  - Coffee
  - Mints
  - Gingerbread With Whipped Cream
  - Hot Spiced Tea

  - Mulled Fruit Juice
  - Mixed Hard Candy

top of cake. Chill in refrigerator. Decorate with fresh orange sections just before serving.

Gleaned from an excellent chef, this Lemon Cake-Pie is a good combination of a cream pie and cake. Because of the delicate lemon flavor it will prove interesting to serve for those evenings when friends just drop in for a bit. Made just according to directions, it's guaranteed to bring plenty of accolades!

Lemon Cake-Pie

- 1 cup sugar
- 1 tablespoon butter
- 2 tablespoons flour
- 2 eggs
- 1 cup milk
- 1 lemon

Blend the sugar and butter, add beaten egg yolks, milk, flour and the juice and rind of the lemon. Fold in the stiffly beaten egg whites and pour into an unbaked pie-crust. Bake in a slow (325-degree) oven 35 to 40 minutes. The top will be like a sponge cake and underneath there's a soft, firm custard.

Pumpkin Pie

- 3 eggs, slightly beaten
- 1 cup sugar
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
- 1/2 teaspoon nutmeg
- 1/2 teaspoon ginger
- 1/2 teaspoon cloves

Put cups cooked canned pumpkin, 1 cup cream, rich milk or undrained evaporated milk, 1 cup orange juice, 1/2 cup sugar, spices, salt. Add slightly beaten eggs, pumpkin, cream or milk, and orange juice. Pour into an unbaked 10-inch pie shell. Bake at (350-degree) for 15 minutes, and then in a moderate (375-degree) oven for about 50 minutes or until knife comes out clean when inserted in filling. Serve with whipped cream garnished with grated orange peel.

Gingerbread

- 1/2 cup boiling water
- 1/2 cup shortening
- 1/2 cup brown sugar
- 1/2 cup molasses
- 1 beaten egg
- 1 1/2 cups flour
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 teaspoon baking powder
- 1/2 teaspoon soda
- 1/2 teaspoon ginger
- 1/2 teaspoon allspice
- 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon

Pour water over the shortening and add sugar, molasses and egg. Add sifted dry ingredients and beat until smooth. Bake in a waxed-paper lined square pan in a moderate (350-degree) oven for 35 minutes. Cool before turning out from pan.

Flour Sack Dress

Imagine! A dress as attractive as this actually made out of ordinary cotton flour sacks! You'll need three large cotton bags for this charming frock. It is no trick at all to dye them a deep red and for trimming use beige colored yarn (dyed with coffee liquid). Add real pine cones for buttons and you have a dress for the farmerette that any city cousin would look upon with understandable envy.

Slim Skirts Have Soft Draped Lines

There's excitement coming in the way of skirt silhouettes. To say that they are versatile is to put it mildly. In the fashion picture there will not only be pleated skirts but there is an important trend toward pencil-slim draped effects.

Very smart, too, are the new wrapover effects, many of which tie on without any other fastening. The surprise is the skirts that are slouched in a new way. These will be repeated again and again in wash dresses. Also in long evening tulle-sets.

Ballarina skirts are making front page news, and the young set is wearing them like the diablo!

Color Goes to Work—In New Defense Uniforms

Color is being advocated throughout the fashion field. Those who are studying conditions say that for defense work, particularly, bright color is essential to morale. The gabardines, denims and other cottons used for uniforms, field work and various defense activities will not only be thoroughly practical and functional, but they will spread a good measure of cheer.

Spring Hats

Flattering hats, many of them flower trimmed, will be worn from now on into the spring. The flower-trimmed cat is a favorite. The little sailor, of straw or felt, will also be shown. Many fabrics will feature back drapes over the hair.

Child's Slacks

Very practical and cunning for little tots are pinafore slacks with matching bonnets that are made with a view to stressing the "pretty" look. Chambray and seersucker are favored fabrics for these suits.

Few More Years Would Have Toughened Uncle

The oldest inhabitant had celebrated his hundredth birthday and the reporter of a local paper called on him for an interview. "To what do you attribute your longevity?" the reporter inquired. The centenarian paused a moment and then, holding up his hand and ticking off the items on his fingers, began: "I never drank alcoholic liquors, or over-ate, and I always rise at six in the morning."

"But," protested the reporter, "I had an uncle who acted in that way, yet he only lived to be eighty. How do you account for that?"

"He didn't keep it up long enough," was the calm reply.

Household Hints

To remove brown stains from light-colored ranges, dip a cloth in turpentine and apply to stains. With a little pressure the stains will come off.

Store dried fruits in their original packages, tightly covered, or place them in covered fruit jars. It is best not to wash them until time to use.

The unsightly ring left by cleaning fluids, when used to remove spots, may be avoided by placing under the spot a pad made of thick absorbent cotton.

Apply paint remover with a brush. When paint begins to curl remove with a putty knife. Remover takes time and cannot be hurried.

Hot mulled fruit juices tend to winter evening snacks. You can have them made by heating the citrus and adding 1 teaspoon whole cloves and 1 stick cinnamon (tied in a bag) while the cider is heating.

Here's another mulled fruit juice served piping hot: To 1 quart whole cranberry sauce, add 1 whole nutmeg. Empty a large can of apple juice and a 12-ounce can of cherry juice in the saucepan and add spices. Heat, remove spices and serve. This recipe takes care of eight people.

Hot spiced lemon tea has lots of pick-up. Make it by pouring 5 cups boiling water over 5 teaspoons lemon juice. Steep 5 minutes, then strain. Dissolve 1/2 cup sugar in 1/2 cup boiling water. Cool and add 1/2 cup lemon juice. 1 teaspoon grated lemon peel. 1/2 teaspoon ground cardamom.

New York.—A chemical process which is retarded by increasing heat was described recently by the American Chemical society. Such a thing, the society declared, is as remarkable as "a fire which quenches itself as it grows hotter."
The process was reported to the society by Prof. D. B. Keyes and H. D. Foster of the University of Illinois. It was described as a phenomenon which "is believed to mark the first time that anyone has been able to slow up burning of an organic material by raising the temperature."
