Hoard Coal Now

Coal is one thing the government asks the people to hoard. We have been asked to buy coal now so that we will not have a coal shortage next winter; and so there will be more freight cars available for moving war material. Buy your coal now and help the railroads to have plenty of cars. Next winter's war needs and the tire shortage will make shipping slower. So we ask you to take the government's friendly, timely hint and buy now.

Marvin Burton, Dealer.

Mrs. Mary Swearingen is here for a few days to visit Mr. and Mrs. Ansel Swearingen and to attend to business matters.

N. M. M. I. COMMENCEMENT

Two young men from Carrizozo will receive High School certificates from New Mexico Military Institute on Tuesday morning, June 2, 1942. They are:

Robert William Allen, son of Mrs. Kitty R. Allen of Three Rivers, and Samuel Dewey Stokes, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Stokes of Carrizozo.

Allen has been enrolled in the High School division for one year and has done well. He is completing the First Year Basic Course in the Senior Cavalry Unit of the R. O. T. C.

Young Stokes has been enrolled at the Institute for two years and has done well. He is a Private, First Class, and is completing the Basic Course of the Senior Cavalry Unit of the R. O. T. C.

These young men are among the twenty-seven boys from New Mexico included in the total of 104 who will receive High School certificates at the graduation ceremonies. Sixty-eight percent of the cadets receiving High School certificates enroll in the Junior College division, and may become graduates of New Mexico Military Institute after completing the two-year course. Governor Miles will present diplomas to 142 graduates at the June second ceremonies.

Other young men from Carrizozo who are expected home for the summer vacation immediately following Commencement are:

Tom W. Jones, Jr., son of Mrs. Oia-C. Jones and A. N. Spencer, son of Mr. Truman A. Spencer.

Enrollment at New Mexico Military Institute, Roswell, is limited to 620 Cadets. Of this number, one hundred fifty-seven are from New Mexico.

Scouts Honor Ripley

Coach W. S. Ripley of the Carrizozo Hi School and local director of the Boy Scouts was honored with a gold key chain by the first aid group of the Scouts in appreciation of his services and accomplishments. Mr. Ripley will spend the summer in Colorado after a trip to Kentucky. The Scouts look forward with pleasure to his return this fall.

Mrs. Gene Dow, Sr., has gone to El Paso to visit relatives and especially to see her son, Gene, who is stationed there in the Air Corps.

The above is a photograph of Machinists' Mate, Benjamin J. Dow who has been in the Navy since 1935. He is a son Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Dow, Sr., of Carrizozo. Ben was on the Mine Sweeper Finch, when it was sunk in Manila bay, but was rescued. At a later date he was reported missing in action.

Ruidoso Items

Dr. C. L. Vey has opened up the Ruidoso hospital and is ready for business. His many friends are glad to hear of this.

Mrs. J. B. Gazaway and Mrs. G. N. Taylor were in Roswell Wednesday shopping.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Phillips were here for the week-end fishing and visiting old friends. They were guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Graves.

Fishing season opened May 15 and Ruidoso had its share of fishermen. The largest caught up until Tuesday (of last week) was a 15 inch trout; Mr. Bob Roberts presented a telescope rod to the person catching and weighing in his store the largest fish caught from Friday to Sunday at noon. Mrs. O. H. Ferris of Ruidoso was the lucky winner.

Mmes. Nellie Abel and Myrtle La Valle of El Paso were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Hobbie Wednesday of last week.

Staff Sgt. Theodore Hobbie of Carrizozo and Ruidoso was among the 141 men decorated with the Purple Heart at Hickman Field, Honolulu recently, for Military Merits. His parents saw and recognized him in a news reel at the Ruidoso theatre last week. However prior to that they had been officially informed through the War Department.

TIN CANS

Numerous inquiries have been made regarding the salvaging of tin cans. New Mexico does not have a detinning plant and the transportation of tin cans to plants located in other states is not practicable at this time. When this situation is changed, local Conservation Boards will be notified.

IRON

A truck will call at every house in Carrizozo, tomorrow, Saturday May 30th, to gather iron scrap of any and all sorts. Please have your iron scrap gathered and placed near the front gate so as not to detain the haulers. The proceeds of this scrap will go to the Boy Scouts. A worthy Organization. Help the Boy Scouts by donating all the old iron you can gather in your yards.

International Relations, Mrs. Maud L. Blaney. Courtesy and Visiting, Mmes. C. A. Snow, A. J. Roland, Blanche Baxter. Membership, Marbry Burns, Edith McKinley, Felix Ramey. Press and Publicity, Miss Madena Brady. Due to tire rationing a Transportation Committee was not installed. Volunteers will be called for when needed. President's Address, Mrs. Mildred Nicholas. Solo: "Absence" Miss Thelma White. Installing officers, Mrs. Maude L. Baney; Installing Conductress, Mrs. Blanche Baxter; Installing Organist, Mrs. T. E. Kelley.

Mmes. John Klassen, E. M. Montfort and Cliff Zumwalt were the hostesses and served delicious refreshments.

U. S. O. Fund Campaign

The U.S.O. is not a personal campaign of any one's. It is not for any particular group. It is a civilian campaign to raise funds to furnish some of the comforts and amusements for our armed forces. It is a small contribution asked of every American, regardless of race, creed, or any social order. The smallest donor to the greatest corporation can help. The time for the close of the month's campaign is drawing to a close. Let us not lose any time or effort. Every one who helps is playing an essential part in the war effort.

U.S.O. serves the nation by operating service clubs, troops-in-transit lounges, and other home-like comforts. Every church, every school, every social group has men in service. Lincoln county must not lag. Senator Perry Sears is our county chairman. See him in regard to any kind of help to be given. The 1942 goal is thirty-two million dollars. Lincoln county's quota of that amount is $7,200. Help now!

Mrs. Maggie Pfingsten of Negal was here Wednesday doing some shopping.

Mr. and Mrs. Seldon Burke of Capitan were in town Monday on business.

Pvt. Lell St. John is stationed at Ft. Bliss. He was chef at the Southern Pacific hotel in Carrizozo for several years, then went to Albuquerque where he operated the St. John cafe. Since joining the Army he has been assigned to William Beaumont hospital as cook. He is a brother of Probate Judge M. C. St. John and of Mmes Marquez and Padilla of this place, and of Mrs. Sam Martinez of Albuquerque.

Notice

All Retail stores will stop selling merchandise tomorrow at 12 noon and devote 15 fifteen minutes to selling War Defense Stamps.

Dr. and Mrs. R. T. Lucas left last Monday for their home in Kansas City. They stopped at Tucumcari to take their little nephew, Lewis bright, home. He accompanied them to Carrizozo to visit his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Burke and his uncle, Lewis Burke.

In the words of newspaper men, much of what we will hear will be "off the record," and the safest way for us to act is to assume that everything we hear is "off the record" unless we are told to the contrary. No ship will be sunk because of what we didn't repeat, no soldier's life jeopardized because of what we didn't say. Let us use free speech when it is necessary, but let us remember there is a difference between free speech and a loose tongue.—Ex.

NOTICE TO WOMAN'S CLUB MEMBERS

Will all members please pay their dues by June 10th, 1942 in order that the Year Book for next year may be prepared. Thank you.

Mrs. W. J. Jenne, Secretary.

BAPTIST CHURCH NOTES

Rev. B. James of Buckeye, N. M., will occupy the pulpit at the Baptist church at 8 o'clock Sunday evening. Everybody invited. All members are urged to come.

The Baptist Missionary Union will meet at the church each Wednesday afternoon at 2:30.

Mrs. Agnes St. John and son Lloyd were here last Friday enroute to San Antonio, N. M. to visit Mrs. St. John's son Ramon.

Re-Hearing to be Held June 3.

Special to the Lincoln County News, Santa Fe, N. M., May, 26, 1942

Motion for hearing on the application of the Lincoln County Utilities Company for authority to sell to the Village of Carrizozo its utility plant has been filed with the commission and hearing therein has been set for ten o'clock a. m. June 3, 1942 at Santa Fe, New Mexico. At that time the company proposes to submit additional testimony to show that the proposed purchase price of $86,000 actually does represent the fair market value of property being sold and the terms and conditions of sale are fair and consistent with the public interests. Authority to make the sale was heretofore denied on the ground that appraised value fixed by the engineers was not supported by the evidence submitted and that it was substantially more than the value of the property as reflected by the books of the company.

New Mexico Public Service Commission

The above telegram was received last Tuesday by the News. We are not in favor of stopping the wheels of progress, but this is a matter of great importance and should be voted on by the tax payers. The government is begging the people not to go in debt, and that would seem a safe rule for cities to go by, too, right at this time. No mass meetings have been called; no public discussions have been made, and while a great deal may be said in favor of municipal ownership, this would seem to be an unusually large price to the uninitiated for a town of only 1,100 people and not all of them real estate owners.

Local Author Has Article In June Magazine

Mr. Sam H. Nickels has an article printed in the June Outdoor Life on "Never Trust a Lion," which is on sale at the news stands now.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Johnson and sons have moved from Mayhill to Ruidoso for the summer and request that their paper be sent to Ruidoso.

BANKS AND THE WAR

Beyond The Peace

Without taking our eyes from the big job of winning the war, we are seizing this opportunity to urge provision NOW for the post-war period. Every individual should be ready with a cushion of cash to take up the shock that is certain to result as we shift back to peace. There are almost certain to be dislocations, unemployment, and other financial hardships. Now is the time to prepare, by buying Defense Bonds and making periodic bank deposits

FIRST AID AILING HOUSE

by Roger L. Whitman

(Released by Western Newspaper Union.)

CLEANING SOILED UPHOLSTERY

THE cleaning of soiled upholstery should be well within the ability of a housewife. The first step must be to find out whether the fabric is colorfast...

Question: There has never been any flooring laid in my kitchen over the plank subfloor...

Answer: I doubt if you can get satisfactory service from linoleum without laying a new floor.

Question: The floors in my old house are of wide boards with large cracks between them...

Answer: No ordinary crack filler can be used; for it would be dislodged by the swelling and shrinking of the wood...

Question: Has a house built of concrete blocks a tendency toward dampness?

Answer: With well-made concrete blocks and good construction a house need not be damp.

Question: How can rough finished tinted plaster walls be cleaned?

Answer: The best that can be done in the way of cleaning is to go over them with a stiff brush followed by vacuum cleaning.

Question: I would like to turn a china vase into a lamp. How can I drill a hole in the bottom?

Answer: The hole can be made with a twist drill having the tip ground off.

All This, We Find, Was According to Orders

Out for a drive in her pony-car, an elderly lady managed to get involved in some army maneuvers.

"Sorry, madam," he said; "you can't cross this bridge. It's just been destroyed."

"It looks all right to me," she murmured. Then, as another soldier came along, she asked: "Excuse me, but can you tell me what's wrong with this bridge?"

The soldier shook his head. "Don't ask me, lady," he replied; "I've been dead two days."

PREPAREDNESS by the AMERICAN RED CROSS

When disaster strikes, the Red Cross is first in and last out.

VOLUNTEER Special Services of the American Red Cross have been geared to meet war requirements and war priorities.

The Red Cross Motor corps has been active since the early days of the First World War, but since last year its work has tripled.

A new canteen aide corps has recently been formed in preparation for wartime emergencies.

The other general wartime volunteer services of the Red Cross include home service to the families of the men in the forces.

Clerical Positions Open in F. B. I.

D. A. Bryce, Special Agent in charge of the El Paso office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, today announced that the F. B. I. has a large number of positions open for qualified clerical personnel. Applicants graduating from high schools in May or June, particularly are invited to submit applications at once, thus assuring appointment without delay at the close of the school year. Positions as stenographers, typists and clerks are available to both male and female applicants who are eighteen years of age or older, and interviews will be given at any time at the F. B. I. office, 202 United States Court House, El Paso, Texas. Mr. Bryce urged that parents interest themselves in these opportunities to counsel their children in the choice of an interesting and patriotic career with the F. B. I. He also announced that these positions are open to all persons who are high school or college graduates and American citizens. Interviews may be arranged in person or by letter.

Books For Service Men

The Postmaster General has announced that books addressed to individuals in the different branches of the armed services of U. S. or to any point of use of our forces are acceptable for mailing at the special book rate without boxing or wrapping, merely secured with cord or twine twice around the two ways crossing in the center with address label securely fastened by glue, mullage, past or other adhesive to the flat outside binding. Books prepared in this manner shall not be accepted as insured or c. o. d. mail. Books may be insured or sent c. o. d. when packed in accordance with existing regulations.
In order to be accepted at the rate of 1 $\frac{1}{2}$ cents per pound or fraction thereof the books must contain no advertising matter other than incidental announcements of books, and they must otherwise conform to the conditions governing the acceptance of books at this rate.

Official U. S. Treasury War Bond Quotas For May

The above map of New Mexico shows the War Bond quotas, by counties, for the month of May, 1942. Total War Bond quota for the State is $1,054,500. Every bond purchaser in the State is expected to step up War Bond purchases on a basis of ten per cent or more of income. This is necessary to help America's armed forces take the offensive against the Axis powers. The American voluntary method of War Bond purchases must be successful in reaching the quotas set by the Treasury Department for every county in the nation. The job of every American now is to step spending and save dollars to help win the War.

Special to Lincoln County News: COWMEN TO CONSIDER WAR PROBLEMS AT HOT SPRINGS MEETING, JUNE 10th

Albuquerque, N. M., May 22.—An urgent call for meeting of the Executive Committee of the New Mexico Cattle Growers' Association at Hot Springs, New Mexico, Wednesday, June 10th has been issued by Tom Clayton, Sopar, N. M., President of the organization, and a special urgent invitation to the meeting has also been extended to all ranchers in the state whether they are members of the association or not. The Association has an active membership exceeding 1700 in good standing at the present time. More than 350 ranchers are expected to attend the Hot Springs meet.

The program will be devoted entirely to open discussions and action is expected to be recommended on the many problems resulting from reorganization, new plans and policies of the Government as they affect the livestock industry, made necessary by the nation's total war effort.

Most important problems before the cattle industry in New Mexico today, President Clayton said, appear to be a growing extreme and serious ranch labor shortage; land acquisition by the Federal Government and various grazing land complications; safeguarding livestock health during the war emergency; complying with the Department of Agriculture's Cattle Marketing Goals; and producing the beef necessary to supply our armed forces and at the same time remain in a sound economic condition.

B. A. Christmas, prominent Las Cruces rancher, and Vice-President of the State Association will act as Chairman of the General Resolutions Committee during the Hot Springs meeting. Clayton said.

What You Buy With WAR BONDS

The Army's fighter planes are the finest in the world and develop speeds up to 400 miles an hour. They cost approximately $100,000 each, provide fighter escorts for the huge flying fortresses, and combine speed, range, altitude and blistering fire power.

America's plane production plants are working over-time turning out thousands of these fighter planes. War Savings Bonds will help pay for them and the American people are committed to at least ten percent of their income to finance their cost in War Bonds. Every American, buying his share every pay day, will make it comparatively easy to supply our army and navy air corps with these supreme Eagles of the air.

A MESSAGE FROM THE SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY

TO THE PEOPLE OF NEW MEXICO: This week a new campaign for the sale of War Bonds and Savings Stamps is under way throughout the Nation. It is the War Bond Quota Campaign.

It is urgently necessary that you double the rate at which you are now buying War Bonds and Stamps. This will mean the sale direct to individual Americans of War Bonds and Stamps to the amount of not less than one billion dollars every month.

One billion dollars a month is the National quota. It is equal to one-fourth the combined incomes of all Americans.

This money is needed to buy the tools of war for our fighting forces. It will not pay for all of them. Our war expenditures now are at the rate of about FOUR BILLION a month, and they are growing daily. But a billion dollars a month direct from the people will make all-out production possible. Without it we cannot do our best; without it we cannot put forth our full effort.

It is desperately needed for another reason. We can't fight a war and at the same time live and spend as usual. There are not enough goods to go around — the things we buy with money. If we go on spending at the 1941 scale, we'll be robbing the fighting men to add to our own comfort or pleasure. We'll be driving up the cost of living for all of us. We'll be imposing dire hardships on our neighbors.

What is asked of you is 50 per cent of your earnings — a tithe for Liberty. It is not a tax; it is not even a contribution; it is a loan at interest, for your use and protection later.

Your Government asks you to cut down your expenditures, to save your boys on the firing line and in the training camps, through your Government, ask you to save so that they may have what they need to win YOUR WAR for you — America asks you to save to HAVE TO WIN THE WAR; to buy War Bonds and Stamps up to not less than 50 per cent of your income.

Is Liberty worth 10¢? Is Democracy worth 10¢? Is America worth 10¢? I think I know my answer.

Sincerely,
A. M. Tamm

The above letter was sent to this newspaper by Secretary Morgenthau in Washington. We publish it in the interest of the War Bond Quota Campaign and earnestly recommend that all our readers do their share in the tremendous job ahead of financing the War effort.

NEW YORK—A veteran watchman of sea lanes assumes command of the vast South Pacific area for the Allied Nations, just at a time when Admiral Ghormley pan's southward lunge makes transport possibly the crucial issue of the Pacific war. For his success in keeping men and goods moving across the Atlantic in the World war, Vice Admiral Robert Lee Ghormley was rewarded with the Distinguished Service medal.

At 58, he takes on a far-flung area of land and sea, including many vital bases, fighting not only for sea-way for the U.S.A. but for New Zealand, Australia and the Free French. His command covers all land, sea and air forces of the four nations. He will be responsible to Adm. Chester W. Nimitz, commander in chief of the United States Pacific fleet.

Admiral Ghormley is known to navy officers as "thoroughly dependable," rather than picturesque or showy. One of his shipmates of the first World war, recently said to this writer:

"He is a good tactician, and a hard plugger, with a patient mastery of detail. He's always wide awake and if he were a hockey player he'd be a crack goal keeper. He had a tough, lonesome job, guarding overseas transport in the first World war, and carried it through perfectly, with big results and little glory. He keeps his mind strictly on his work."

Admiral Ghormley was born in Portland, Ore., and took an academic degree at the University of Idaho. He was graduated from Annapolis in 1900. He commanded the Nicaraguan naval operations and his decorations include the Nicaraguan Campaign badge and the Victory medal.

He was made assistant chief of naval operations in 1930 and held that post until relieved of this duty on August 9, 1940, when he was sent to London as a special naval observer for the American embassy. On April 22, 1942, he was ordered to Auckland to organize joint naval operations with New Zealand. He became a vice admiral on September 20, 1941.

INDUSTRY and government, it would appear, have been keen competitors for the services of Mrs. Anna Rosenberg. Industry, for the moment, is in the lead, paying her $22,500 a year, while the government gets a cut of only $13,000 in her hectic working year. She keeps them both at arm's length and attends to the most deserving.

She weighs in at 112 pounds, desk-side. She comes through a hard working day with all the frills and ruffles of her exiguous person still fresh and in place.

The house appropriations committee lights up Mrs. Rosenberg's manifold activities and jobs in exploring doubles in federal jobs, along with private employment. As regional director for the social security board, she receives $7,500 a year and her salary as a consultant on the staff of Nelson Rockefeller, coordinator of American affairs, nets her $8,000 a year.

In 1914, the girl from Budapest, here with her parents at the age of 14, settled a strike. In the Wadleigh high school, which she attended, students struck against compulsory military training. She called a student meeting and made an impassioned speech which ended the strike and got her considerable newspaper attention. She was Anna Lederer then. When we entered the war, she left high school to sell Liberty bonds and Thrift stamps. In 1919, she married Julius Rosenberg, now a rug merchant.

Even then she was plagued by demands for her services. She studied practical politics with Belle Moskowitz, political ally and mentor of Alfred E. Smith. This association led to fund-raising and organizing work for philanthropies, widening into a broad field of trouble-shooting in industrial and social welfare issues.

"Yes, Phil, John was on the phone a few minutes ago and he said you were a so-and-so. He is, too? Listen, I'll get up a nice little dinner and get you two together."

That is a fair sample of her work-a-day telephone talk. She has worked almost entirely in the no-man's land between the warring forces of industry and labor, and between one or both and government. She is a wisp of a woman, a five-foot three brunette to give exact specifications, always nicely tailored, with a penchant for plenty of feminine fixings.

Leaving the fox holes they had dug behind them, the soldiers charge (upper photo) to holes that were prepared and left by preceding troops. Below: A general rush as mail call is sounded in this lonely desert training camp.

Arriving on the range, the men unlimber the anti-aircraft guns and prepare to set them up for the day's maneuver.

U. S. Sub Brings Home Golden Bacon

This photograph, released in Washington, shows the actual delivery of the treasure snatched out of Corregidor (before the arrival of the Japs) by a U. S. submarine, whose commander and crew were honored by the army. Stealing into Manila bay under Jap batteries, the sub brought in a cargo of shells and loaded up with gold, silver and securities.

New York's Gas Rationing Begins

A little less than one-third of New York city's 600,000 motorists registered for gasoline rationing on the first day of the three-day registration period. Registration in the city took place in 753 public schools, and was particularly for motorists whose last names begin with A to L. Photo shows a clerk registering an applicant.

'Pleasant Dreams'

Quarters are rather cramped aboard a submarine because of the amount of machinery she must carry. These bunks may seem tight to the landsman who is used to lots of room in which to toss, but sub-men find them comfortable.

Leatherneck's Balloon Barrage

You have seen U. S. marines in many roles. Now you see how the versatile "leathernecks" handle their barrage balloons. At the marine base at Parris Island, S. C., barrage balloon base group I operates its stable of great gasbags. The balloons are captive, sewn on steel cables. Above, a quartet of balloons is being jockeyed into position by marine ground crews.

Refreshments for the Class of '42! (See Recipes Below.)

Commencement Time

There's a last-minute flurry of hair brushing and straightening of ties as Jane and Billy get ready for their graduation exercises. Yes, this is, really, the year the children are getting through with school. It's hard to believe, isn't it? It seems like just yesterday that they started school!

Your role is that of sitting back and beaming at their accomplishments, but, just as important, providing the children with a party and refreshments after commencement. Simplest way of taking care of refreshments is setting up a table in the porch or dining room. Then fill this with assorted breads and cold cuts, add a few relishes for good measure, and you have the makings of a successful party.

The meat platter provides an attractive assortment of sandwich filler. Arrange in clockwise fashion, the following: chicken pattie, cooked tongue, meat loaf and liverwurst. You can let the imagination of your guests run freely with making their own sandwiches, but in case they run out of ideas, you might suggest some of these:

Chicken pattie and boiled ham with sweet pickle relish and lettuce on whole wheat bread. Meat loaf with tomato ketchup on white bread. Liverwurst and chicken loaf on whole wheat bread.

Balance the sandwich spread with a salad of some kind. If the youngsters are boys, they will go for slices of tomato on lettuce. For girls or a mixed group, a molded fruit salad will be tops:

- 1 package lemon gelatin
1 cup water
1 cup pineapple juice
1 cup sliced pineapple
4 to 5 grated carrots (raw)
Lettuce or endive
Mayonnaise or French dressing
Heat water and pour over gelatin. Add cold pineapple juice and set aside to cool. Add grated carrot and pineapple cut in tidbits. Place in individual molds or a large ring mold which has been rinsed in cold water. Let jell, then turn out on a bed of crisp lettuce or endive, and serve with dressing. If a large mold

Lynn Says:

Did you know that it is perfectly proper to wash the American Flag? Of course, you know it is disrespectful to display a badly soiled one, but perhaps you were a bit worried about trying to wash it. A recent survey made by professional laundries reveals that flags made of woolen material should be washed and rinsed as often as possible.

is used, the outside may be garnished with fruit such as sliced oranges, pineapple, and apricots. No party is complete without confections of some kind because there are moments when you actually want to nibble on something sweet. Here is a recipe featuring dried fruits noted for their high sugar content. They're easy to fix and full of taste.

- *Fruit Dreams. (Makes 60 squares)
1 14-ounce package plifted dates
1/4 pound nutmeats
1/4 pound figs
1/4 pound apricots
1 teaspoon grated orange rind
1 tablespoon orange juice
Put dates, nutmeats, figs and apricots through the meat grinder. Knead orange rind and juice into the mixture. Roll with a rolling pin into a square sheet 1/4 inch thick. Cut in squares and dip into powdered sugar.

- *Honey Lemonade. (Makes 1 serving)
1 lemon
1 to 3 tablespoons honey
1 cup water
Extract the juice from the lemon and add the honey. To this add cold water and ice to chill. Serve this in individual glasses with a slice of lemon on the rim of each glass. Or, if you prefer using a punch bowl, set the drink in that (increasing the recipe to take care of as many people as you are having), and let blobs of sherbet float on top of the lemonade.

- *Chocolate Covered Sugarless Cake.
2 1/4 cups sifted cake flour
2 3/4 teaspoons double-acting baking powder
1/4 teaspoon salt
3/4 cup butter or other shortening
2 teaspoons grated orange rind
1 cup light corn syrup
2 eggs, unbeaten
1/4 cup milk
1 1/4 teaspoons vanilla

- *Chocolate Chip Frosting.
Place cake layers on a baking sheet, having one layer top side down. Cover tops with semi-sweet chocolate chips, using 2 packages. Heat in a moderate (350-degree) oven 6 minutes or until chips are just softened. (The cake may be frosted while warm. Heat only 3 minutes.) Remove from oven. Spread softened chips over bottom layer, letting chocolate run down sides. Arrange top layer and spread as before. Then spread sides evenly.

Boom Towns Struggle With Labor Influx

War Industries Tax Normal Facilities in Smaller U. S. Cities.

Released by Western Newspaper Union. In the turbulent economic wake of conversion and war production, a thousand patriotic towns and villages anxiously seek answers today to a multitude of new problems concerned with accommodating Uncle Sam's mobile armies of war workers.

There isn't anything spectacular about these problems that are keeping village presidents up nights and putting furrows in the brows of town councils and boards. They're as commonplace as dishwater, hospital beds, school desks or fire engines. But their solution is very important indeed in the nation's fight to smash the Axis.

Populations Doubled. Things aren't the way they were before Pearl Harbor in these thousand towns. All-out war production has turned scores of them literally overnight into 1942 versions of boom areas. Crossroads hamlets have had their populations doubled between one sunup and the next. War boom towns in Illinois, Michigan, Alabama, Washington, Ohio, California, have had to figure and plan as they never did before to provide the most meager housing, transportation, health and educational facilities for in-migrants needed to man the new machines of war.

Serious Medical Problems. In a Michigan town, medical authorities recently warned that an epidemic of tuberculosis was breeding in the very heart of the suburban factory district, 10 miles from a huge bomber plant. A report on overcrowding in the area stated that "more than 4,000 patients, 450 of them tubercular, are jammed into hospital space designed for 2,500."

The authorities of an Illinois village suddenly awoke to the fact that many of their wells no longer reached the water table in that area, due to the emergency drilling of numerous other wells by war production plants surrounding the village site on three sides; a village in Minnesota found that the increased number of war workers and their families moving into the community necessitated the hiring of another teacher, a part-time janitor and the purchasing of new supplies of books and other equipment.

ers ask for livable quarters, good water and sanitary facilities; there must be classrooms for their children, recreation, beds in hospitals for them when they fall sick. Congress has recognized both the needs of the mobile armies engaged in war production, and the problems of the localities affected through the enactment of the Amended Lanham act. In the hands of the Federal Works agency the legislators have placed a great part of the job of keeping ahead of the vast community requirements of these industrial legions of Joneses, Cohens, Murphys and Kozlowskis.

All-out war production has brought living conditions such as these in a midwestern town to hundreds of communities from coast to coast. Many trailer communities lack proper sanitary facilities and a large number of them try to accommodate too many trailers for the space.

'Grand Hotel'—1942 Emergency Model

Because of insufficient living accommodations, these weary workers in a small Virginia town are forced to sleep around the stove of a general store. This condition exists in many other crowded defense areas.

In a Pennsylvania town, jammed with war workers, a pumper and fire fighting equipment were required immediately to reduce the hazard of a possible general conflagration; a Kentucky hamlet had to arrange for an extension of its sewerage facilities or suffer the consequences; a Colorado town, a Wisconsin city, and a Texas county were confronted with the need for new schools at once.

The patriotism and morale of these workers are high, but so are their American standards of living. For their families, these war work-of public works or equipment for health, safety or welfare of persons engaged in national defense exists or impends, FWA is authorized, with the approval of the President, to relieve such shortage. This authorization is conditioned on evidence that the necessary works or services could not "otherwise be obtained when needed, or could not be provided without the imposition of an increased excessive tax burden, or an unusual or excessive increase in the debt limit of the taxing or borrowing authority."

Need for Construction. Assistant FWA Administrator Baird Snyder, acting for Administrator Philip B. Fleming, has pointed out that: "Incapable from the lives of modern industrial workers and their families—for transportation, education, health and recreation—are prosaic roads, sewers, schools, hospitals and many other types of public construction."

Without such construction, those who have studied the problem declare, the efficiency of industry would be seriously impaired and labor would float from one town to another in fruitless search for decent living conditions. In the last four months, FWA has quickened the pace of work in response to imperative war needs. Today, throughout the nation, this federal agency is building or ready to build all the war works that can be provided with $200,000,000 worth of federal funds plus whatever local contributions are available.

A great deal of red tape has been cut in FWA since war was declared. The Man with the shears in the Great Lakes region and Middle West, for instance, is Markley Shaw, former assistant to the director of the old FWA defense housing division, who casts as personal representative of the administrator.

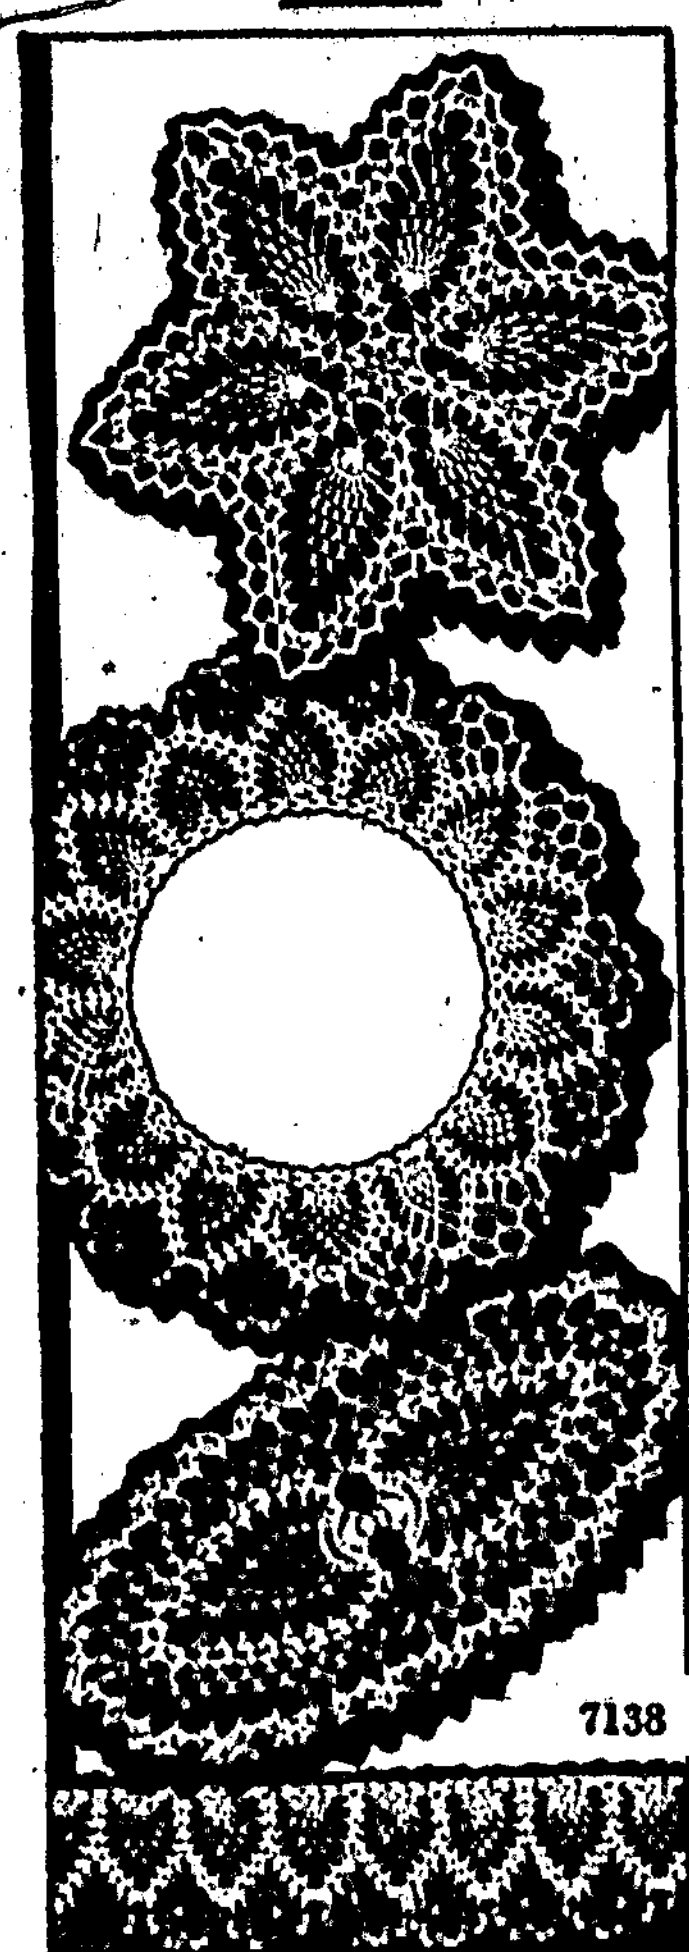

Full-Scale Wartime Basis. "Public works are now being handled on a full-scale wartime basis," explained Mr. Shaw, whose headquarters are in Chicago. "My instructions are to let nothing stand in the way of prompt, efficient development of war projects. Under new regulations no federal funds will be allotted for the construction of a permanent building under the war public works program, if a temporary or semi-permanent one will suffice. This applies even though the applicant proposes to contribute the full amount of the difference.

"Except where a structure is an addition to an existing facility, negotiations will be opened on the basis of simplified standard plans of the Federal Works agency. Elimination of all building material beyond absolute necessity in war public works construction recently has been ordered throughout the nation, and this step is expected materially to reduce the use of critical war materials as well as to free man-hours of labor for other war production."

Assistant Administrator Snyder has listed the following types of projects directly attributable to war activities as eligible for federal allotment of funds: Schools, hospitals, health centers, detention hospitals, fire department buildings and certain equipment except radio equipment, recreation buildings, water and sewer facilities, and maintenance and operation of schools and hospitals where necessary.

In recent months, the Federal Works agency has built or contracted to build scores of community facilities in every section of the nation where production wheels turn. The U. S. Public Health Service, in co-operation with the state departments of health, is intensifying the application of general health plans in strategic localities. Co-operating in the general plan to assist individual localities and provide living facilities for war workers is the National Housing agency, which is building thousands of houses and dormitories.

Lincoln County Iron Shipped

For the first time since the last World War, iron ore from Lincoln County has been moved in car-load lots to the blast furnace at Pueblo, Colorado. Albuquerque, New Mexico, has a contract with the Colorado Fuel & Iron Corporation for the purchase of crude iron ore from Lincoln County, and obtained a special freight rate from the Southern Pacific. During the past 60 days, 125 cars involving approximately 7500 tons of ore have been shipped from their property near Corona.

J. H. Fulmer and C. E. Degner reported upon returning from a trip to Albuquerque yesterday the U. S. Bureau of Mines had acted favorably upon an application by the Lincoln Ore and Metal Co. to set up a Bureau of Mines project to examine and report upon the iron deposits of Lincoln County. Together with the work that has been done recently on the Jones group of claims in Socorro County, this indicates great interest in the iron deposits of this area.

Mr. Fulmer reported that the Lincoln Ore and Metal Company has already filed a request with the War Production Board for the location of a blast furnace in Lincoln County, and that many officials and individuals have become interested in the project.

Mr. Fulmer, who has taken an active interest in this development as President of the Lincoln County Chamber of Commerce, stated that besides the efforts of the Lincoln Ore and Metal Company, he desired to warmly commend the help of George Lusk, State Director of the Office of the War Production Board, and John Kelly, New Mexico State Geologist. Mr. John Pratt, who was associated with Mr. W. W. Gallagher and Leonard Whitwell on their iron properties and did considerable work in the county unfortunately died about two weeks ago.
