BUCK BEEF MAKES THEM BEEF — "Steal, all you want," says the settling sign planted onto the window of the meat company window in Little Rock. The meat brokers are not buying any at all this week. They loan a closed list, complete with blocked names before the day is done with the price. This was not the first strike in the Little Rock area, but it is the regular海湾 boycott demanding renumeration of prior prices.

ONLY TEENAGERS VOTE — Georgia is the only state in the Union which permits teen-agers to vote. This year, according to the Georgia Board of Elections, about 1,500 teen-agers voted in the state's general election. However, teen-agers in other states are not permitted to vote. In some states, such as New York, teen-agers may vote if they are registered to vote. In other states, such as California, teen-agers are not permitted to vote until they turn 18.

OUR DOG IS BETTER THAN YOURS — This is the claim made by the owners of the dog who has been living with the owner in the same house for the past five years. The dog is a purebred Chihuahua, and the owners say it is the best dog they have ever owned. The dog is very loyal and has never caused any trouble. The owners say they are not sure how much they paid for the dog, but they know it was more than the average price for a Chihuahua. They say they are very proud of their dog and are happy to show it off to anyone who wants to see it.

WOMEN'S YEAR — Women's rights activists have been fighting for decades to gain equal rights with men. They have made significant progress over the years, but there is still a long way to go. One of the biggest challenges they face is the economic disparity between men and women. Despite the progress that has been made, women still earn less than men on average. This is not only unfair, but it also perpetuates a cycle of inequality that can be difficult to break.
