CARRIZOZO BOY SCOUT TROOP REORGANIZES

Sam Welsh, Scoutmaster of Troop No. 53 Boy Scout Troop, announced that the troop under the sponsorship of the Masonic Lodge, had been completely reorganized. Joe Ben-Hunsaker, Field Scout Executive for the Eastern New Mexico Area Council attended the meeting for reorganization. The troop reorganized with the following scouts present: Donald Roberts, Claude Wilson, Crawford Garrison, Alton Leonard and Robert Berry. Other scouts who still hold valid registration cards are requested to be present at the next meeting to be held Monday evening Nov. 3, at 7:00 o'clock. The troop can still use a few new 12 year old boys who have never been scouts. Boys who have become 12 and are out of Cub Scouting are requested to contact Mr. Welsh at his office in the Court House. Mr. Hunsaker stated that the Boy Scout program was for boys 12 to 15 years of age and that no boys would be accepted into the troop who are over 15 years old. Since no Scout Scouting program has been organized in Carrizozo, those boys 15 years old and over will be temporarily out of Scouting until the Senior program is started, Hunsaker said.

Anna B. Tiffany

It is with deepest sorrow that we chronicle the death of one of the best loved and most highly respected women of Carrizozo, Mrs. Anna Tiffany, who passed away in the Virginia Ann hospital in Hot Springs, Sunday evening, October 26, 1947.

Mrs. Tiffany became ill the first of last July, but continued to go about her usual affairs until in August when she became so seriously ill she was taken to the Turner hospital. Later she was removed to the Virginia Ann hospital in Hot Springs where she had hoped to improve sufficiently to take the baths, but she gradually became weaker from day to day until death claimed her.

Mrs. Tiffany came to Carrizozo with her husband the late Dan Tiffany in 1907, and had resided here continuously since that date. She was friendly, charitable and ever watchful for an opportunity to do some one a kindness.

She was a member of the Carrizozo Woman's Club. She was fully aware of her duties to society and to her civic affiliations, and eagerly did her share for each. She was well-read, a good conversationalist and very popular, especially among those people who had resided in Carrizozo twenty-five years and longer.

Mrs. Tiffany was always busy, always interested in helping everyone. Loyal and faithful, her friends were numbered by her acquaintances. She will be missed by everyone for unnumbered days to come. We who have known her so long realize that her kind deeds and the memories of her faithful friendship will live on and on.

Anna B. Tweedie was born July 23, 1872 in Walton, Delaware County New York. Her parents were Mr. and Mrs. John Tweedie, and had emigrated from Scotland to New York. On November 11, 1893 she was married to Daniel Delos Tiffany and came at once to his home in San Marcial, New Mexico. In 1908 they went to Cedar Rapids, Iowa where they lived until 1907 when they came to Carrizozo.

Her only survivors are a nephew, Edward Snyder of New York, who arrived Sunday; and a sister-in-law Mrs. Alice Tiffany, and Mr. Tiffany's niece, Mrs. Elmer Dewey of Iowa City, Iowa; and her host of friends everywhere.

Funeral services were conducted from the Methodist Church Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock. The Rev. Howard Pitts delivered the tribute.

Pall bearers were Roy Harmon, A. J. Rolland, Ansel Swearingen, O. S. Spurlock, Elmer Eaker and Joe West. Flower women were Mrs. R. A. Walker, Mrs. Spurlock, Mrs. E. A. Casey, Mrs. Roy Harmon and Mrs. E. Eaker and Mrs. Art Rolland.

Those who attended the funeral from out town include Mr. and Mrs. John Miller Albuquerque, Mr. and Mrs. Ansel Swearingen, Albuquerque, Mrs. Meda Holey, of Carlsbad and Mrs. R. W. Wieland, Claunch.

ABOUT COUNTY HOSPITALS

Today's question is: Can Lincoln County afford to bond itself for a hospital?

Perhaps, if funds were under the direction of a committee whose sole interest would be to give you the most for the money expended.

But, can Lincoln County afford to bond itself for two hospitals? The answer is absolutely NO!

And, if you vote for it, I wish that you and I arrive at the same non-descript remnant of our county's effort at the same time, me with a broken leg and you with a major infirmity. (I grant you priority of the half staff.) And, I hope they start me out on foot to borrow the saw or the ether or the axe (from the other remnant), that they may need for your execution. And, I hope before I get there I break the other leg. Then posterity may say, "They have their just deserts - and value for money mis-spent for us."

Let us combine our efforts in an area hospital and raise our funds by public subscription. And let who will benefit by, from its location. Our efforts are for - instead of to - posterity.

I. O. O. F. GRAND MASTER VISIT

Dr. E. A. Grissom of Alamogordo Grand Master of the Independent Order of Oddfellows of the State of New Mexico paid a visit to Carrizozo Lodge No. 30 last Tuesday night, accompanied by four other members of the Alamogordo Lodge. Visitors witnessed the third degree conferred on B. G. Barnum.

After the meeting all adjourned to Millard's Cafe and enjoyed refreshments.

saying that, as Dr. Schwartz, Federal representative, had recommended a 15 bed hospital for Ruidoso and a 25 bed hospital for Carrizozo, perhaps it would be better to follow the Schwartz plan as recommended. Then the matter was discussed, from the angle of each town by the delegates.

Dr. L. H. Barry as a representative and spokesman for Corona strongly opposed two hospitals and recommended Carrizozo as the logical, and in fact the only suitable place for a county hospital, and believed that one good hospital for Lincoln County should be located here at the county seat. Other members of the Corona delegation, including Mayor Brown were in agreement with Dr. Barry.

Mayor Hall, for Capitan considered Capitan an appropriate place, but as a government representative had recommended the above mentioned two hospitals, that might be best.

For Carrizozo, Mayor English thought the upkeep of two hospitals might be a drain on county finances; he also stated that our transportation facilities were superior to other points; and that due to the location of the Southern Pacific railroad and other valuable property in this end of the county; that we were paying more taxes and were entitled as the county seat to have the hospital here.

The county health nurse favored Carrizozo as the proper place, but admitted that Ruidoso did need a hospital.

County Commissioner Bill Galacher discussed briefly the legal part of the question, taxes and a possible bond issue.

Ralph Petty inquired as to the additional tax-rate of proposed bond issue.

Dr. Turner also brought out the point that if we were to build this county hospital, and partly with Federal funds that the estimated initial cost per bed would be $20,000. He also stated it could be operated by an individual or a group; sponsored by the government and financed by Federal funds it would be open to every race or creed within our boundaries.

Ruidoso representatives thought the necessity for a hospital for Ruidoso a representative of the Chamber of Commerce, there said, "their terrain was such that if they became ill they would go to El Paso (135 miles), to Roswell (63 miles), or to Alamogordo (39 miles) rather than attempt the trip to Carrizozo."

Dr. Sutton, also a spokesman for Ruidoso made practically the same statement. Joe Dryden said Ruidoso would build the hospital and with large population would maintain it. But when the delegation was asked if they would agree to enter into a contract with the County Commissioners to keep up their own maintenance costs, promptly said not unless other localities (meaning Carrizozo) would enter into a like contract.

Dr. Sutton called attention to their large population, high type citizenry and enterprise. To all of which we heartily agree. Mention was made frequently to their terrain and the difficulty of getting to Carrizozo.

As editor of the Lincoln County News and Carrizozo Outlook we wish to call attention to the "terrain" of Carrizozo, and the entire valley. Altitude, aridity, and sunshine gives us one of the most healthful climates on earth. Our winters are usually mild, while summers are cool and delightful.

Our people are enterprising, warmhearted and ambitious; our population has a small steady growth and does not decrease or dwindle during the winter season.

Let us all unite for this great boon for our county, and when it is put to a ballot let us vote for a hospital in the county seat of Lincoln County.

As Postmaster Kelt said Thursday night "If the government furnishes part of the money, and if we vote a bond issue and if, and when we again need funds, the government will help again".

Boy Helped Solve Problem Of Bridging Niagara Falls

When the first bridge over Niagara Falls was planned in 1848, the problem of getting a cable from the American to the Canadian side was solved by offering $5 to the first person who could make a kite carry a string across the 800-foot chasm.

After this had been accomplished by a boy, the string was used to pull over a small steel cable which, for several years, enabled persons to go back and forth, two at a time, in a little wicker basket. The original steel suspension bridge thrown across the river just below the American falls had a span of 820 feet; and was long considered to be a feat of engineering.

HOUSEHOLD MEMOS

Let's Bake a Cake That's Feathery Light!
(See recipes below.)

Parade of Cakes

Now that the weather is cooler and we're spending less time out-of-doors, there's more call for mother's delicious cakes. A cake somehow seems to top off evenings at home perfectly when the youngsters have their school chums in for an evening or if guests drop in unexpectedly.

Week-ends, too, probably are full of light entertaining if the week is a busy one, and it's time the old custom of baking a cake on Saturday afternoon were reinstated.

Then, no matter who comes in that evening or that evening or stops for dinner or tea on Sunday, we have a cook's treat to set before them.

There are loads of cakes to please every palate, from feathery-textured spice cakes to delectable combinations of banana and pineapple-cake, as well as spiced dark devil's food and light-as-down, delicate whipped cream cake.

First, let's start off with a hot milk cake, easy on the budget and easy to mix. Top it with a broiled icing.

- Hot Milk Cake.
2 eggs, well beaten
1 cup sugar
1 cup sifted cake flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon baking powder
1/2 cup hot milk
1 tablespoon butter

Beat eggs until light and thick. Slowly add sugar and continue beating until very light and thick. Sift flour, baking powder and salt. Fold into egg and sugar mixture all at one time. Melt butter in hot milk and fold into cake. The addition of the flour and milk should take no longer than one minute. Pour into a well greased pan and bake in a preheated, moderate (350°F.) oven for 30 minutes.

- Broiled Icing.
1/2 cup brown sugar
1/2 cup butter, melted
1/4 cup cream
1 cup coconut

Combine ingredients, blending well. Frost cake and return to hot oven or broiler just long enough to brown.

- Banana Cake.
1/2 cup butter
1 1/2 cups sugar
1 cup banana, mashed
1/2 cup dates, chopped
1 cup crushed pineapple, drained
2 cups cake flour
1/2 teaspoon soda
1 teaspoon baking powder
1/2 cup nutmeat
1/2 cup sour milk

Cream sugar and butter thoroughly. Add bananas, dates, pineapple, and blend thoroughly. Sift dry ingredients three times and mix in nuts; add alternately with sour milk. Bake in a moderate (350°F.) oven for 35 to 40 minutes. Frost with caramel icing:

- 1 1/2 cups dark brown sugar
1 1/2 cups granulated sugar
1 1/2 cups milk
2 tablespoons butter

Combine sugars and bring to a

Baking Tips Help Give Successful Results

When you buy lamb chops for broiling, select some that are two-thirds to two inches thick. If they are any thinner, they dry out too readily before they are entirely cooked.

A well-cooked roast deserves a rest period of about 30 minutes before serving to the table. The roast will be much easier to carve in uniform slices if it stands a bit.

Ham 'n cornbread go a long way toward making any meal a success. Add finely diced ham to cornbread batter before baking. Serve with salads, soups and potatoes for a flavor-bright combination.

A never-to-be-forgotten rule when baking cakes, is to allow all the ingredients, especially the fat, eggs and liquid to come to room temperature before mixing. Their "cooperability" is increased tremendously and the texture of the cake improved.

How to Successfully Grow and Care For Your House Plants and Flowers

House Plants Ruined By Faulty Watering

DOTTED chrysanthemums are a fall favorite that bloom until near Christmas. They must be kept cool, and flourish best in an unheated room or sunporch.

Water only enough to keep them alive and in the spring start new plants by pinching off slips from tops of growing stems or using the new shoots around the base for slips.

Mums can be potted all year and planted outside in summer but during these winter months they need cool, moist air to survive.

You may want to know about preserving other indoor plants—cyclamen, primroses, cactus, geranium. Proper planting and watering for these and others are discussed in our booklet No. 30.

Send 25c in coin for "Success With House Plants and Flowers" to Weekly Newspaper Service, 643 West 17th Street, New York 11, New York. Print name, address with zone; booklet title and No. 30.

Jackson's Death

Stonewall Jackson did not die on the battlefield. The Confederate general was wounded by his own men on a reconnaissance during the battle of Chancellorsville on May 2, 1863. He died eight days later in a little frame house at Guinea Station, Va.

Kidneys Must Work Well

For You To Feel Well

24 hours, every day, 7 days every week, never stopping, the kidneys filter waste matter from the blood.

If more people were aware of how the kidneys must constantly remove surplus salt, excess acids and other waste matter that cannot stay in the blood without injury to health, there would be better understanding of why the whole system is upset when kidneys fail to function properly.

Burning, scanty or too frequent urination sometimes warns that something is wrong. You may suffer aching backache, headache, dizziness, rheumatic pains, getting up at night, swelling.

Why not try Doan's Pills? You will be using a medicine recommended the country over. Doan's stimulates the function of the kidneys and helps them to flush out poisonous waste from the blood. They contain nothing harmful. Get Doan's today. Use with confidence. At all drug stores.

BACKWARD GLANCES

40 YEARS AGO
1927 Capitan News

The engine that pulled a train of material for the pipe line from Carrizozo to Capitan on Tuesday, while returning the same evening left the rails while rounding the curve half a mile from town, pulling the tender and caboose with it. The wrecking crew arrived next forenoon and by hard work succeeded in getting the track cleared by evening, when the "toot-toot" of the engine whistle gave notice similar to the celebrated dispatch sent the Superintendent by a section foreman named Finnigan on the occasion of a similar accident: "Off the track and on again. All right and gone again—Finnigan." The rolling stock was not damaged, but a couple hundred feet of track was torn up and the heavy ties splintered into kindling wood. The cause of the accident was a soft track caused by the recent heavy rains.

Among the indications that Carrizozo will, in the near future, be one of the most important towns along the Rock Island railroad is the steady growth of the town and the substantial nature of the improvements already made and the character of the buildings projected.

A contract has been let for three large business buildings on Main Street. The buildings will be of pressed brick, and an order for 90,000 has been placed with the manufacturer and they are due to arrive in a few days. The buildings are already rented, which goes to show that some long headed people are keeping their weather eye on that town.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Sam's a Matrimony Expert

Sam Abernathy never intended to be a matrimony expert, but he hit the nail on the head the other day when he said:

"What marriage really needs is more open minds and a lot fewer open mouths."

Sam may not think much of his missus' choice of hats or her habit of serving watercress and cream cheese salad. But he keeps his mouth shut (I mean, he just uses it to eat the salad). And the missus never criticizes Sam's affection for that worn-out chair before the fire, and his mellow glass of beer and pipe at the end of a long day.

From where I sit, that prescription would apply to most human relationships. Criticism rarely rouses anything but resentment. But an open mind—whether it's applied to a woman's choice of hats, or a husband's preference for a pipe and a moderate glass of beer or two—leads to the conclusion that there's right on both sides.

SIX MONTHS

How Long No Meat?

Amid a certain amount of weeping and wailing and less gnashing of teeth than usual, President Truman's program involving meatless Tuesdays and eggless Thursdays, lumbered tentatively through its first week.

Even the most ardent optimist could not call this phase of the food conservation drive to help Europe an instantaneous success; however, it might improve with time.

And it was in the handwriting on the wall that there would be considerable time, for administration experts predicted that the days of voluntary self-denial would last for at least six months.

President Truman himself has set the dates for the interim emergency aid to Europe campaign—from December 1 to March 31—although that time limit was imposed specifically for the raising of 500 million dollars in cash. Regarding the food conservation aspect, Charles Luckman, head of the citizens food committee, said "Our only idea is to do the job until it is done. No time schedule has been set."

Secretary of Agriculture Clinton Anderson was a little more definite. He pointed out that conservation to save grain might be necessary until the winter wheat crop, now being planted, begins to come in next June and July. Then he offered a faint hope with a hollow ring: "Meatless days are not in the picture indefinitely," he said.

The Eating Public

Public opinion, it developed, was far from united on a solid front behind the food conservation plan.

Restaurant operators said their customers were grumbling about meatless and eggless days.

Millions of Americans resented the suggestion of a voluntary meatless Tuesday since they already are going without meat four or five days a week because they can't afford to buy it often than that.

The poultry industry pointed out that if every one of the 140 million residents of the U. S. were to eat one less egg a week, the government would have to buy 600 million dozen eggs under the law requiring government support of parity prices; and the government already holds in storage several million cases of surplus eggs purchased to support farm prices.

SOIL RESOURCES:

Depletion?

Hard cash isn't the only cost involved for American taxpayers in the government's program to export a half billion bushels of wheat and feed grains annually to Europe.

The invisible price which this nation is paying is the possible depletion of the soil resources on which our future food supply depends.

During the war years, only about half of the nitrogen taken from the soil was replaced, according to recent studies. Only about half of the phosphorus removed was put back, and less than one-thirtieth as much potassium was added in the form of commercial fertilizers as was removed by harvested crops.

Those facts denote a trend which ultimately might lead directly to untold acres of sterile soil incapable of producing the food in the amounts necessary for maintenance of the American standard of living.

Already, the heavy drain on the mineral supply in the earth has reached the point where yields on many soils depend on the fact that minerals are being replaced constantly.

Supersonic Flight

British engineers have produced a small, jetless rocket plane which, on its first test run, attained a speed estimated at 300 miles an hour.

The plane was the first of a group to be used in experiments with supersonic speed, in an effort to determine what happens when a craft crosses the "supersonic barrier"—that is, travels at a rate of speed greater than the speed of sound in air.

SECURITY RISKS:

No Peace of Mind

Communism, particularly since the revival of the Comintern in nine European countries, is taking its toll in the U. S. by undermining the American peace of mind.

That obvious fact has been given added significance by the state department's disclosure that summary dismissal faces state department employees who are "habitual or close" associates of persons even "believed to be" Communists.

In plain language, that is a reversal of a fundamental principle of Anglo-American law—that a man is judged innocent until he is proved guilty beyond a reasonable doubt.

In fact, the state department, in a "security principles" document recently made public, says specifically that if there is a "reasonable doubt" about a worker's loyalty the "department will be given the benefit of the doubt and the person will be deemed a security risk."

While idealists could quibble at length about abridgment of "constitutional rights," few would deny that the state department simply was playing it safe in the face of a manifest danger.

10 PER CENT:

Freight Boost

Freight transportation costs quivered delicately and prepared to take off like big birds as the Interstate Commerce commission granted U. S. railroads an emergency 10 per cent increase in freight rates.

The boost, which applies to all commodities except coal, coke and iron ore, on which increases of 10 to 11 cents a ton were granted, was pretty much what the railroads wanted and will give them an additional 125 million dollars in revenue during the rest of 1947.

ICC authorized the 10 per cent raise as a kind of "stopgap aid" until the board can act on the railroad's major request for an overall boost of 27 per cent which has been pending since September 5.

The carriers said the increase was needed to offset higher wage and equipment costs. Principal U. S. railroads recently granted a 15 1/2 per cent wage boost to a million non-operating employees, and they are faced with similar demands by operating personnel.

Meantime, the consumer-public knew who would get the bill.

POISON:

'Internal Life'

Henry Wallace, who, unlike most politicians, has an opinion on every conceivable thing under the sun, came out with a new idea on the strained relations between the U. S. and Russia.

This mutual ill-feeling, he said, is a disease which is poisoning the "internal life of both countries."

The former vice-president called the recently established Comintern "the most unmistakable symptom we have had yet of the split between the United States and Russia." That split is what he called a disease.

Wallace As far as the poisoning of "the internal life" of the U. S. is concerned, Wallace asserted that it has reached a point here where "millions of people are afraid to speak their minds, even in private." That, he intimated, is a forewarning that "thought control" may be on its way "with alarming speed."

SOLD GOLD:

Second Time

Beady bent economically, although not yet quite broke, Great Britain, in the latest phase of her desperate quest for dollars, has sold 120 million dollars worth of gold to the U. S. in exchange for an equal amount of kronas.

It was the second such sale from Britain's new dwindling gold reserve. Early in September 50 million dollars worth of gold was sold to the U. S.

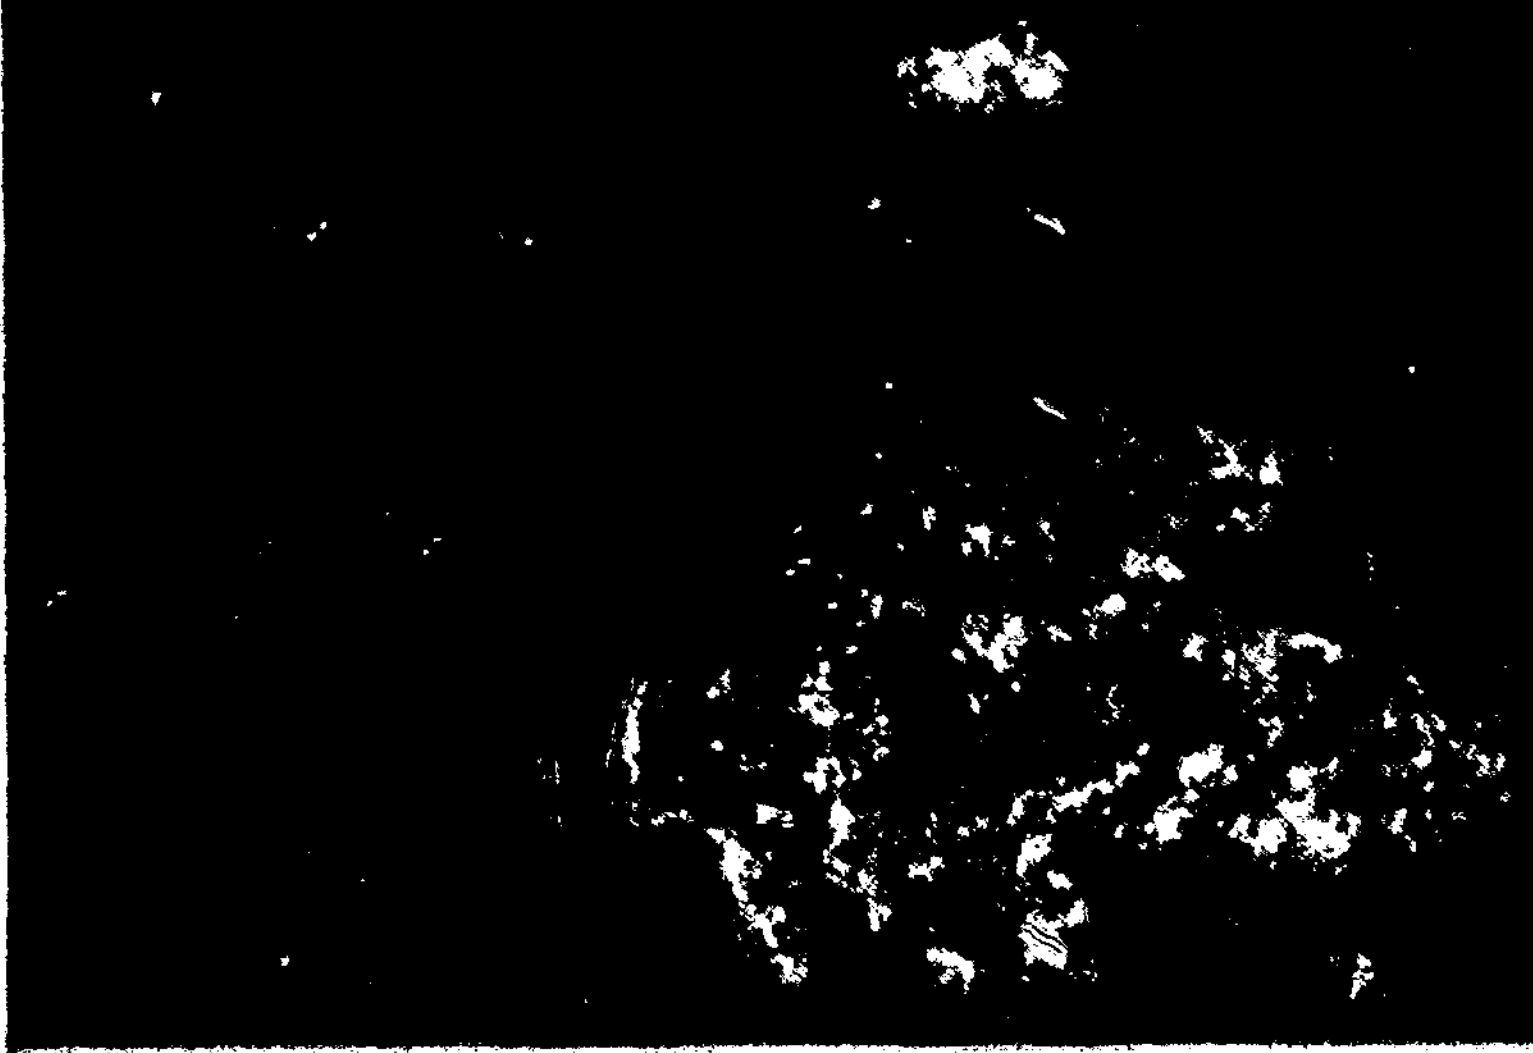

MEATLESS BUT NOT FISHLESS . . . Joseph Franke of Chicago is pictured here as he weighs in an extra supply of red snappers for one of the now famous meatless Tuesdays—days when fish sales go swimmingly. Meatless Tuesday, as part of President Truman's food conservation program, is coupled with poultryless and eggless Thursday to make up America's effort to help alleviate hunger in Europe.

UNION CHIEF AT CO-OP STORE . . . Walter Reuther, president of United Automobile Workers union (CIO), is shown with his wife, May, and their daughter, Linda, as they carried weekly supply of groceries from the cooperative grocery store operated by local 400 of the U.A.W. in Highland Park, Mich. Store was set up by union to sell goods in case lots at wholesale prices as a method of resisting soaring living costs.

WORLD'S MATCH-MAKER . . . The fabulous Otto Krueger is dead, but the Swedish match industry is still the heart of one of the world's largest combines. In fact, two out of every three persons on the globe use his matches. The modern and efficient machine in a match factory at Lidköping, Sweden, is one of the reasons why the combine can make millions of dollars out of splinters of wood.

BORN THAT AGAIN? . . . Complete and utter amazement is written all over the face of Charles Kemmer, 64, of Chicago, as he points wistfully to the 15-pound (that's fifteen pounds) daughter born to his 21-year-old wife, Lucille Melody Ann, the hefty new arrival, sleeps peacefully in the arms of Dr. Bernard Abrams of Chicago maternity center who officiated at her birth. He was a little surprised, too.

NEWS FOR A PEEPER

By PETER LANGDALE

STELLA was as curious as any wife should be who's left her husband after a note telling him he can't look after himself in the future, because she's fed up with his bad temper when he comes home evenings, and that she's just about had enough of cleaning and polishing and cooking in a three-room flat for a guy who's got as much sense of gratitude as an undertaker has a sense of humor.

She was curious because she'd never done this before; she'd never had time. They'd only been married three months, and that's not really long enough for a girl to know all about what happens when a wife gives her husband the air in writing.

She wanted to see how Bill reacted to that note on the dressing-table; whether he took it on the chin and went out to face the world, dauntless and wifeless, or whether he crumpled. She hoped he'd crumple.

Anyway, the best way to see a thing, she decided logically, was to go to the place where it was happening and keep your eyes open.

It'd been two-fifteen in the afternoon when she had written the note, and by three-fifteen she'd changed her mind a few score times, packed a suitcase with a few clothes, just for appearance, and closed the front door behind her with a firm resolution never to darken the threshold again until Bill went down on his knees and craved pardon.

Knowing Bill was due home at five o'clock, the thought occurred to her that unless she hurried she'd miss the show, and if she did that no one would forgive her, least of all herself.

The threshold was darkened once again as she entered the flat, but she didn't look at it that way. After all, maybe she'd been a little harsh with the darling boy; perhaps there was something in this jaded business man notion, or else why did movie magnates make pictures of them? And then—the spectre flashed like a lively nightmare through her mind—there was a chance, an awful chance, that Bill would kill himself with that gun he'd bought during the burglar scare.

He might even take to drinking his head off with his pay envelope, or put his head in the oven.

In fact, there were quite a number of things he might do, and Stella began to think she'd been led back to the flat by some Fate which had a personal interest in the destiny of young couples.

SHE walked into the bedroom and noticed that her missive was still there, just where she'd placed it on the dressing table. So Bill hadn't been back yet. She was in time to prevent disaster and that ugly follow-through about insanity which they always printed in the papers whenever anyone put himself on the spot. Glancing around the room, she only place she could think of to peek from was under the bed. From this angle, by lifting the frills of the bed-cover, she had a ringside view of the note on the dressing-table.

She'd be able to watch Bill's reaction when he read the note, and then, if he didn't stage a horizontal but went to the drawer where the gun was kept instead, she'd jump out and do her stuff.

She crawled forward and wriggled her way into position. Too bad she couldn't have a cushion or two to help her get comfortable, but there wasn't space. The floor was mighty hard, and it wasn't possible maybe... maybe he'd make a date with a pre-marriage sweetheart! She hadn't thought of dames before.

But the horror of the idea was crushed out of her by Bill's weight as he sat heavily on the bed and changed his shoes. When he'd got the second shoe on he began to hum. It was a snappy, light hearted tune, the kind a man hums when his spirits are on the boom.

Anger welled up in Stella's heart. He wasn't in the least repentant. A hard, insensitive brute who could watch his quarter-year-bridge walk out on him like so much laundry. He had no feelings, and she felt she wouldn't care a hoot if he dropped dead on the floor beside her.

When he'd dressed she saw him, to move much, because the underside of the mattress was so close; an inch lower and she couldn't have squeezed in at all.

Just as her pose was reproducing the first stage of paralysis, the front door opened and Bill came into the hall with a hearty "Hello, darling! You there?"

A few strides and he was in the bedroom. He saw the note and, squinting between the frills of the bed-cover, Stella watched him read it, peer at it, turn it over, and finally fold it away in his pocket.

There was dead silence while he stood beside the dressing-table staring blankly into space; deciding whether to use a gun or the gas meter, Stella supposed. She was all set to haul herself out the moment he made for the drawer where the weapon lay. Instead, he opened his wardrobe and, with a deep sigh, took out a suit—a good suit, which he put on.

Stepping out to discuss the problem with a friend, thought Stella, or still humming, write something on the back of her note, fold it in reverse way, and replace it in its original place on the dressing table.

Then he brushed his suit carefully, fixed his tie straight, gave himself the once-over in the mirror, and went into the hall.

Immediately the front door closed Stella wormed her way out from underneath the bed and snatched at the note. This must be some kind of clue to his movements.

She read: "It's much softer ON the bed."

BECOMING A GOOD LISTENER

He's gay, he's debonair, he's popular, he's sought after for his wit and charm. Among his friends are many attractive young women. The other day he was telling me about how he evaluates the personalities in deciding whether to continue their friendship or not, for he is a critical judge of personality and apparently is a man who is hard to please.

My friend says that the one quality he looks for, the great quality of attractiveness in a human being, is simply that of showing interest in the other person and in what he is saying.

"Whenever I take a young woman out to dinner for the first time," he explained, "I begin talking. She doesn't know it, but I am giving her a personality test."

"I tell her of some experience of mine. I don't talk about things I'm sure would bore her, but I try to make one of my experiences interesting to her."

"I say something like this: 'I had an interesting weekend a couple of weeks ago. Some amazing things happened to me. It was really funny.' And then I interrupt myself. 'Is that draft bothering you?' I'll ask."

"Then what's the next step?" I asked him.

"Why, I wait to see if she'll ask what happened to me on my trip or whether she will forget it and talk about something else."

"Most of them ask you to go on, don't they?"

"They do not. That's just the trouble. That's why I say that the average man or woman misses a fine opportunity to develop lasting and interesting friendships by not taking a deeper interest in the other person and in what he is saying."

I think that this man has hit upon one of the most vital subjects in the whole field of improving your life—an 'expressed interest, a sustained interest, a lively interest in the other person.

If you develop that, though you may have none of the other attributes of charm or appearance, you will have a priceless aid in becoming more popular.

And if you want to see how few people actually have developed it, give those with whom you are thrown into contact the same personality test that this man described to me—talk to a person about yourself a little while, then interrupt. Probably six out of ten won't ask you to get back on the subject.

I'll wager that the four out of ten who do are the ones you like and respect the most.

The Carrizozo Chapter of the Future Homemakers of America had four representatives to the District meeting in Capitan on October 18. Those attending the meeting were Josie Baroz, Lupita Candelaria, Margarett Shrum, and Norma Compton. The Tularosa chapter was also present with 28 members and the sponsor, Miss Alice Hogland.

Jean Sanchez from Capitan, president for 1947, presided over the meeting. Officers for the coming year were elected as follows: President, Betty Cain from Tularosa; Vice-President, Norma Compton from Carrizozo; Secretary, Evelyn Chaney from Capitan; and Parliamentarian, Dorothy Cooper from Tularosa. The School Carnival held on October 24 and 25 was very successful, the spirit of cooperation and contributions made by all is very commendable. This shows what can be done when all concerned are willing workers, and we hope that many things for the benefit for the school may be had because of this carnival. Since we now have a band once more there are many things that are needed to get the band going once more, and already we have secured a number of things for the band. The net proceeds will be near $500.00, the exact figure is not possible just now as all expenses have not been totaled. A complete announcement will be made showing what each booth made and what expense was incurred by each booth.

The Queen of the Carnival was Janet Shafer, and the King was Alfonso Madrid. They were crowned by Postmaster Herman E. Kell.

Capitan Methodist Church

Rev. F. J. Johnston, Pastor

I once sat-in at a Kiwanis dinner on the occasion of their entertaining a group of our town boys. A local business man in addressing the guests chose for his topic "Courage". At that time in our little town during a period of peace and quietness I was dubious as to the appropriateness of the topic but a few nights later I saw the little "Dare Devils" go up against a basket-ball team that looked to be twice their size and saw them fight for success to the last tick of the watch I became aware of how important courage could be in High school contests.

Not only on the floor of the gym is courage necessary but in the class room also and all through life. There are in every town squads of people taking the easy way or the low road just because they haven't the intestinal fortitude to do otherwise. I dare you to be a Christian! I dare you to attend church services next Sunday and get into the work. Can you take it — 7 Mat. 20:22 "Are ye able to drink of the cup that I shall drink?" Thanks for reading this and accept our invitation to worship and SS on Sunday.
