International Uniform Sunday School Lesson

SCRIPTURE: James 3:1-10; Acts 4:1-10.
DEVOTIONAL READING: Proverbs 12:1-12.

Christian Conduct

Lesson for November 2, 1947

CHRISTIAN standards of conduct must be understood as Christ's standards, not man's standards. Our lesson makes this quite clear when James declares,

Dr. Newton

"My brethren, be not many masters (judges), knowing that we shall receive the greater condemnation," James 3:1. James goes on in this third chapter to emphasize the truth that man is by nature inclined to "run away," even as the horse when he is not bridled, or the ship when it is not controlled.

Which brings the first practical lesson—that of the tongue. "The tongue is a little member," says James, "and boasteth great things. Behold, how great a matter a little fire kindleth!"

The Words I Say
IN PROVERBS 8:7, we read, "My mouth shall utter truth." And again in Proverbs 25:11, we read, "A word fitly spoken is like apples of gold in pictures of silver."

Which adds up to this: The words we say have much to do with what people think of our standard of conduct. If we speak words of truth and kindness, we need not be concerned what people will think of us.

Boys and girls who guard their tongues will have friends. Boys and girls who speak words of envy, prejudice and falsehood will be shunned.

The Right Words
WHAT is in our hearts determines what we say and do. Therefore, if we are to speak the right words, our hearts must be right—right with God.

I have just come from a playground where a group of junior boys and girls were having a picnic. I got there at the moment when a baseball game was in the decisive ninth inning. One of the junior boys was umpire. He called a pitched ball a strike, and the batter objected. Words followed—not altogether pleasing words. They saw me standing on the sidelines, and asked me to settle the matter. I had not seen the pitched ball closely enough to express an opinion.

The boy who had spoken most sharply went to the boy who was umpire, took his hand, and said, "It's okay with me. I am sorry I said what I did." That boy had the right attitude. He turned wrong words into right words, because his heart was right.

The Power of Words
"SPEAK not one against another," writes James, 4:11. Two teen-age girls were walking home from school. One spoke bitterly to the other of a third girl. They parted at the corner, and the girl who had spoken the bitter words of her neighbor slipped and fell as she passed the home of the girl about whom she had been speaking. The neighbor girl rushed to her side, helped her into the house where her mother dressed the ankle. Waiting for her father to come with the car, the girl who had spoken bitter words began to cry. Thinking that her neighbor was crying from the pain of the ankle, the girl who had been bitterly scolded spoke sympathetically to her neighbor.

"Will you forgive me?" cried out the distressed girl.
"Forgive me?"
"For the unkind words I spoke about you to Mary. O, I am sorry, sorry."
Forgiven, they became trusted friends.

Words Reflect Character
THIS lesson should summon every heart to utter the prayer of the Psalmist:
"Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in thy sight, O Lord, my strength, and my Redeemer," Psalm 19:14.

Our words reflect our character. Christ's standard of conduct calls for words wisely chosen. Longfellow put it well when he wrote:

*I shot an arrow into the air,
It fell to earth, I knew not where;
For, on a swiftness in flight, the light
Could not follow it in its flight.*

*I breathed a song into the air,
It fell to earth, I knew not where;
For who has sight to hear, the song
That is not follow the flight of song?*

*Long, long afterwards, in my hall,
I found the arrow with feathers still,
And the song from beginning to end,
I found again in the heart of a friend.*

HOUSEHOLD MEMOS

by Lynn Chambers

Don't Skip Lunch If You're Striving For Balanced Diet

Shirred eggs may be popped into the oven a few minutes before luncheon. Line individual baking dishes with leftover vegetables or meat for a more substantial luncheon.

Have lunches suddenly become a problem now that cooler weather is with us and a few pieces of fruit and a glass of milk just don't seem to satisfy you? Or, are you like the woman I know who is trying to lose weight and is trying to get nourishment without a lot of calories and is trying to cut down on easy-to-prepare sandwiches?

No matter which of the above situations is your particular problem, the column today is designed to help. The woman who works around the house has a definite luncheon problem, mainly because she needs to balance her diet as well as keep up her energy for household tasks.

Calories are a problem to her whether she is trying to maintain, gain or lose weight. Economy, too, in these days of rising prices, is a problem because she doesn't always care to eat leftovers from the night before, at least, just as leftovers, heated and set on a plate.

For these reasons, I think the answer to the luncheon at home is to have eggs made in one of several interesting ways. And, if just eggs alone aren't appealing enough, use them with vegetables or other foods to make them appetizing.

Eggs are a rich protein food, low in calories, high in nourishment. They can be filling, and they can be tempting provided you experiment with novel ways of serving.

First on the list are two interesting salads with eggs. Serve them with crisp wedges of lettuce or lettuce cups.

Pimiento Olive Salad. (Serves 4)
4 eggs, hard cooked
1/2 cup chopped ripe olives
1/2 cup pimiento, chopped
1/2 cup chopped celery
2 tablespoons chopped green pepper
1/2 teaspoon salt
Mayonnaise, as desired

Mix chopped olives, pimiento, celery and green pepper. Place in crisp cups of lettuce and serve with eggs, sliced on top. Use with mayonnaise.

Bean and Egg Salad. (Serves 6)
1 can of red kidney beans
4 sweet pickles, chopped
3 hard-cooked eggs, sliced
1/2 cup chopped celery
2 tablespoons finely chopped onion
1 teaspoon salt
1/4 tablespoon mayonnaise

Rinse, drain and chill the kidney beans. Add remaining ingredients, mixing thoroughly. Arrange in nests of lettuce. Garnish with a few slices of egg and other greens, if desired.

Here's a nice egg salad to have when you have a neighbor dropping in for lunch:

Egg and Cheese Salad Bowl. (Serves 6)
1 bunch watercress
1 bunch celery
1 head lettuce
4 hard-cooked eggs
1 carrot, cut into sticks
1/4 pound cheese, cut into sticks
French dressing

LYNN SAYS:
When Using Eggs, Remember These Facts
Egg whites will beat better when they are warm. Let stand at room temperature for a while if you want them to beat until light and fluffy for meringues or cakes.

Scrambled eggs take on new glamour when they are served with cheese added to eggs while cooking; or, if you prefer, oiled sauce—1 tablespoon to 8 eggs; or, chopped leftover meat.

LYNN CHAMBERS' MENU

Clear Tomato Soup
Shirred Eggs with Chopped Ham
English Muffins
Green Bean Salad
Carrot Curls
Spice Cake
Beverage

Break greens into bowl. Cut eggs into wedges. Combine all ingredients with french dressing to taste. Here are egg dishes which are nice for luncheon if you have the youngsters coming in to eat with you:

Eggs Diablo. (Serves 6)
6 hard-cooked eggs
6 slices toast, buttered
1 cup tomato catsup
1/2 cup chili sauce
2 tablespoons worcestershire sauce
1 tablespoon butter
1 teaspoon mustard
1 teaspoon vinegar
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper

Slice eggs onto buttered toast and cover with a sauce made by heating the other ingredients to the boiling point. Serve hot.

Egg-Asparagus Double Decker. (Serves 6)
12 slices toast
6 eggs, creamed with 2 cups white sauce
Asparagus tips

Cover half the toast with creamed eggs, place asparagus tips on each and top with second layer of toast, eggs and asparagus.

Dutch Baked Eggs. (Serves 6)
6 hard-cooked eggs
2 tablespoons butter, melted
1 teaspoon minced parsley
1/4 teaspoon dry mustard
Salt and pepper
1/2 cup cleaned shrimp
1 cup cream or evaporated milk
Grated cheese
Butter

Chop eggs, add melted butter, seasonings, shrimp and cream; mix well. Pour mixture into greased baking dish and sprinkle top with grated cheese and bits of butter. Bake in a hot oven (400° F.) about 10 minutes or until cheese begins to melt.

Hard-cooked eggs cut in wedges add a satisfying note to salads as well as other easy-to-make luncheon dishes. Don't ignore their value as garnish and nourishment for they are a rich protein source.

Chinese Poached Eggs. (Serves 4)
1 cup rice
2 tablespoons butter
Salt and pepper
2 tablespoons flour
1 cup milk
1 teaspoon grated onion
1 tablespoon chopped celery
6 eggs, poached

Cook rice in boiling, salted water. Drain and blanch. Prepare white sauce by melting butter, blending in flour, salt and pepper. Add milk, grated onion and celery. Cook until thickened, stirring constantly. Arrange hot rice on platter, place eggs on top and cover with sauce. Garnish with paprika and celery.

Shirred Eggs.
Grease individual baking dishes. Break into this an egg and bake in a moderately low (325° to 350° F.) oven for 12 to 18 minutes depending upon firmness desired. Serve from baking dish. Top with bread crumbs or cheese before baking, if desired. Or, layer the dish with chopped chicken, sausages, bacon as well as cooked or mashed vegetables before breaking in eggs, as desired.

Eggs are a highly perishable food and deteriorate rapidly at room temperature. They should be refrigerated to keep fresh.

The shell color of eggs varies with the breed of the chicken, but has nothing to do with the flavor, nutritive value or the cooking of the egg itself.
Use leftover egg yolks by simmering them in salted water for 10 minutes and then grating them for garnish on green vegetables, salads or creamed dishes.

Champion Farmer McKINLEY Uses Firestone CHAMPION GROUND GRIPS

AND HE GETS UP TO 100% MORE EFFECTIVE CLEANING 62% MORE DRAWBAR PULL 91% LONGER WEAR

More than Seven Million Pounds of Produce! That is the production record Champion Farmer H. L. McKinley (on tractor), and sons Don, Phil, Hal and Keith (not shown) made last year on 1100 acres of rich farmland near St. Ansgar, Iowa. Their record includes 2 1/2 million pounds of potatoes from 135 acres, and a nearly equal poundage of choice cabbage from 100 acres. The McKinleys keep their soil highly fertile by a five-year rotation and the application of 170 tons of fertilizer annually. An extensive steer and hog feeding program turns corn and roughages into cash, and builds additional fertility in the soil. The farm is highly mechanized. All eight tractors roll on Firestone Tires.

ECONOMY-MINDED farmers like Champion Farmer H. L. McKinley find costs go down when they use Firestone Champion Ground Grips.

Tests show that Firestone Champion Ground Grips clean up to 100% more effectively, pull up to 62% more, last up to 91% longer, and roll smoother over highways.

The reasons are simple. The curved bars cut deeply into the soil. Mud falls easily and cleanly from the tapered openings between the bars. Because the traction bars are connected, they're stronger, they have more tread rubber to push into the ground and pull. This extra tread rubber also lengthens tire life — makes tires roll smoother.

Although judged best by leading farmers everywhere, Firestone Champion Ground Grips cost no more than ordinary tractor tires. Specify the "Champion" when you order your new tractor, or when you buy replacements for your tires. See your nearest Firestone Dealer or Store today.

BACKWARD GLANCES

40 YEARS AGO

1907. Capitan News

The echoes in the Capitan mountains have, during the past two or three weeks, been agitated by the desultory reports of the sportsman's gun. Gante in that hunter paradise, the Capitan mountains, is reported to be less plentiful than in previous years, yet enough bear and black-tail remain to give the amateur hunter good sport.

Governor Curry has visited many portions of the territory and in every place he has aroused enthusiasm for statehood. The governor has been able to do this for the reason that the people want statehood and he brought a message from President Theodore Roosevelt that he would do all he could to secure statehood for New Mexico. The president, however, after arousing hope, now throws cold water on the proposition by asserting that New Mexico has no chance for statehood at the hands of congress this winter. If the president isn't a "Quitter" what is he?

The panic did not touch this office. We never had any money, therefore nothing to lose. All we want sometimes we don't get that is enough to eat and yet we have been fortunate this week and are well supplied in that line. Two of our friends came in and loaded us down with succulent turnips, beets, cabbages, etc., and were not passed in on subscriptions, either. Let the panic rage!

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Bess is Still Bouncing!

Scoter Wilson has the oldest taxi service in our town. In fact, Scooter's cab, "Bouncing Bess," is of 1927 vintage... and Scooter himself remembers when Main Street had cobble stones. But Scooter hasn't missed meeting trains in thirty years, come rain or shine. Scooter's mighty proud of that record, and he looks upon his taxi license as an obligation—to serve the community well, charge fair rates, and abide by traffic laws and rules of courtesy.

From where I sit, Scooter has his own "Self Regulation" program, like the Brewers and the licensed tavernkeepers. Tavernselling beer agree to abide not only by the law, but by strict rules of cleanliness and good behavior.

If there are any violations they're reported to the right authorities for necessary action. But like Scooter, most tavern keepers find "Self Regulation," and service to the public, add up to good will—not to mention good business.

THE FICTION CORNER

GOOD LOSER

By C. S. MONTAYNE

LUCY AMES could always tell when her husband drove in by the children's uproarious welcome. They were crowding down to the garage now—Bill Junior, Calvin, Cynthia, Paula and Roger, aged 8.

to have him defeated? It was silly. And yet—? They assembled in the playroom the next night. Calvin made a log fire and Cynthia arranged the chairs.

Why, she wondered, did children always adore their fathers? Perhaps it was because fathers were not home all day, telling them to do this; not to do that.

They streamed in, Bill in the van, the children following. He caught Lucy by the elbows, and raised her for a kiss.

Lucy wondered why young Bill failed to press his advantage—and then glanced at her husband's grimly set face.

Later, Lucy went from room to room making sure windows were not open too wide, that blankets were over small, hunched shoulders, doors properly closed.

"That you, mother?" She sat down on the edge of the bed. Her son's hand slipped into hers.

Bill Junior chuckled. "Got some news for you. It's a secret for the time being, but I'll let you in on it if you keep your mouth shut."

SOCIAL SECURITY INCREASE ANNOUNCED FOR SOME

Hundreds of retired workers in this area stand a chance of getting their social security retirement payments raised, Mr. Perry A. Webb, manager of the social security field office at Roswell, reported.

"Social Security Act amendments passed some months ago, make certain changes in the way the amount for a retired worker is figured. Since the amendments do not provide for a general or automatic increase," Mr. Webb explained, "amounts already being paid will be refigured only on request."

"In some instances, no increase will be due; in others, the increase will be small. Some applicants, though, if they ask us to recheck their claims, will realize a gain of several dollars per month," he continued.

Workers who filed their original claims as soon as they became 65 and did not go back to work are not affected. All others now drawing retirement checks which were figured before 1947 should have their claims rechecked if they have not already done so. Mr. Webb extended a special invitation to "come in and talk it over" to the following groups:

Those who returned to work after filing their claims. People in this group should get in touch with the social security office as soon as they retire.

Those who waited some months or years after they were 65 before filing their claims. Claimants in this group who continued working up until the time their claim was filed may or may not get an increase. Those who did not work during this time or who worked on non-covered jobs likely will be eligible for larger amounts.

Rev. F. J. Johnston, Pastor

There is a vast difference between the kind of questions that God asks and the kind that men ask. Denominations are characterized by their difference in questions. Last Sunday I asked, "Are you able?" next Sunday I will ask, "Will you?" These questions are quotations from the questions of Jesus. He asked some two hundred and fifty of them and due to their type they had a profound effect upon those who heard them. The right to ask questions may be the line of demarcation between world ideologies. That is, between democracy and dictatorship, between liberty and life or personal slavery and death.

My question to the people of my constituency is "Will you be made whole?" Come on you thinkers let's go. What say? Let us think some of these questions through next Sunday at 11 A. M. - S. S. at 10 a. m. You are cordially invited.
