ROMERO-FULMER

Miss Beatrice Jean Romero, of Palm Springs, Calif., daughter of Mrs. Barbara McVeigh Romero of 413 Rockenbach, Baldwin Park, Calif., became the bride of Paul Davis Fulmer, also of Palm Spring Friday at 2 p. m., August 10, at St. John the Baptist Catholic Church in Baldwin Park.

The double ring ceremony was performed before twenty intimate friends and relatives by the Rev. Hugh Regan.

The bride was gowned in white imported eyelet embroidered batiste over rose taffeta, fashioned with tiny puffed sleeves, tight fitted bodice and very full gathered skirt of ballerina length with rose taffeta bustle. She wore a rose taffeta and white eyelet batiste bonnet trimmed with white illusion maline. Her only jewelry was a strand of pearls. She carried an old fashioned bouquet centered with a large white gardenia, surrounded by a row of rose elvies, and a row of white carnations, arranged in rose maline and tied with a white satin ribbon.

Mrs. R. M. Purcey, the bride's elder sister and only attendant served as matron of honor. She wore a little cap and dress of rose eyelet embroidered batiste over powder blue taffeta designed with ballerina skirt and puffed sleeves. Her corsage was of rose elvies tied with powder blue ribbon.

Attending the groom as best man, was Ted Nienaber of Los Angeles.

The bride's mother was attired in a powder blue print frock with navy accessories and a rose elf corsage.

Following the wedding a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Purcey at 413 Rockenbach St., where the happiness of the newlyweds was pledged with champagne. A beautiful three-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom formed the centerpiece of the table, which was decorated with white and rose carnations and asters, and candles gleaming from crystal candelabra. Assisting at the reception was the other sister of the bride, Mrs. W. J. Krohne Jr., attired, identically the same as the matron of honor.

Mrs. Beatrice (Romero) Fulmer, Mrs. Romero, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Purcey and son, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Krohne Jr., Mrs. Eleanore (Jones) Blundell Murray Bonifield, and Mrs. Emmegeene (Krohne) Coffey are all former residents of Carrizozo, New Mexico.

VET ORGANIZATIONS TO OPEN 1948 STATE FAIR

Brief memorial services with several hundred veterans from throughout the state will officially open the eleventh annual New Mexico State Fair, September 19-20, Earle Stark of Albuquerque, general chairman of the program, announced.

All veterans organizations in the state have been invited to participate in the parade and services to be held on the race track in front of the Fair Grounds grandstand, he said. Admission to the grounds to veterans and their families will be free for those who participate, he added.

Gold Star Mothers organizations and women's auxiliaries of all veteran organizations will take part in the program. High ranking Army and Navy officers, National Guard and Army and Navy Reservists and their families, to be admitted free of charge, must enter on the East Central Avenue entrance and each veteran must provide identification to prove he is a veteran, Stark cautioned. They will be admitted free only between the hours of 11:00 A. M. and 1:30 P. M.

About 800 veterans from all over New Mexico participated in the opening day program at the 1947 State Fair. This year an even larger turnout is expected, Stark said. He also is expected to join in the ceremonies, Stark reported.

The parade, under the direction of Wayne Ellis, Albuquerque, parade marshal, will start at 12:30 P. M. inside the East Central entrance to the Fair grounds. Home Team Lesson for September 5, 1948

HUSBAND AND WIFE: Team or tug-of-war? In times when more and more homes are splitting apart, it is refreshing to read the story of one home that stuck together.

Dr. Fireman You could not think of Aquila without thinking of his wife Priscilla (or Prisca for short), or vice-versa. They were displaced persons, but that did not keep them down.

Family Trade Union

LIKE ALL JEWS of that time, they had a specialty, a trade they had learned. In this case someone had taught Prisca the same trade (or did she learn it from her husband?), so the two of them formed a sort of trade union. They were tentmakers, working not only in heavy tent-cloth but in the tanned skins of which many tents in that time were made.

Their home was a workshop, their hands were bent by long use of hard tools, very likely they initiated their produce. P & A tents were good tents. Their business was good, for we know they always had room for another guest, for another hand at the workbench. That was one thing helping their marriage to stick.

How many husbands and wives today are working teams? One reason why divorces are more common in cities than on farms is that the city man and his wife seldom have any work in common, while a farmer and his wife are a working team in which each needs the other to succeed. Find some work you two can share, even if it is washing the dishes, and you have something to help you hold together through the years.

More Than Meats

ANOTHER bond that held these together was their hospitality. They had a long list of friends, some of them distinguished. We know about Paul and Apollos and we hear of many others. But when Apollos stayed at their house, he was getting more than meats.

If you don't do more for a guest than feed him, he might as well be at a restaurant. If you don't do more than amuse him, he might as well be at the movies. What those two did for Apollos was to give him ideas, bigger ideas, truer and better than he had ever had, about the Christian faith. No doubt Apollos enjoyed Priscilla's lamb chops, but when he left that home he was not merely a well-fed man but one whose soul had grown.

Here again is something for husband and wife today. What are you doing for the people who come in your door? If they come for dinner you wouldn't insult them with trash or poison. What do you give their minds, their souls? Poison, trash or food?

The Church in Their House

EVIDENTLY the P & A tents made enough money for Priscilla and Aquila to have a spacious home, for we find Paul in a letter mentioning "the church in their house." This more than anything else kept these two together, a working team. You know in every church there are a few key people. They may not be conspicuous, but like the distributor under an automobile hood if they are not there things do not run smoothly and maybe not at all.

Aquila and Priscilla were like that. Their church naturally revolved around them. This must have taken a good deal of their time, no doubt it cost them money, and it must have meant work. But if the church was in their house it was because they wanted it that way. It would be hard to believe that they asked for this so as to keep themselves from drifting apart; yet undoubtedly that was one effect of it.

The great majority of divorces are among people who have no connection with the church whatever. Many, of course, are of persons who are on church rolls somewhere. But how many broken marriages do you know among persons who are active in Christian work?

When you forget to put salt in the cooked cereal, dissolve salt in a little boiling water and mix that with the cereal so the taste will be uniform.

May Warn of Disordered Kidney Action

Modern life with its busy and worry-laden habits, improper eating and drinking—of too much coffee and tea—often shows heavy strain on the work of the kidneys. They are apt to become overworked and fail to filter wastes and other impurities from the life-giving blood. You may wake up feeling headache, backache, dizziness, and constantly tired. Nervous, all with wet. Other signs of kidney or bladder disorder are some of the following: heavy or too frequent urination. Try Doan's Pills. HOUSEHOLD MEMOS

Relishes Will Add Zestful Touch to Meals
(See recipes below).

Canning Relishes
BY THIS TIME you undoubtedly have finished your fruit and vegetable canning, but there still remain those late-in-the-season relishes. Those spicy, zesty accompaniments to meat and other entrees are almost as essential as the fruits and vegetables, and many women do not consider their canning complete without them.

Most relishes are easy to put up and there is little opportunity for spoilage if directions are followed. Enlist some help from the family for cutting up some of the vegetables and fruits and work will go forward rapidly.

SPICED GRAPES are delightful with mild-flavored meats such as lamb, veal and chicken.

Spiced Grapes
4 quarts stemmed grapes
8 cups sugar
2 cups vinegar
1 teaspoon grated nutmeg
2 teaspoons ground cinnamon
1 teaspoon ground cloves
1 teaspoon ground ginger
Dry seeds from grapes. Drain. Boil sugar, vinegar and spices for five minutes. Add grapes and cook until thick. Pour into hot sterile jars and seal at once.

If you aren't certain you have enough spreads for bread already canned, make some spicy, delicious apple butter. It may be used in sandwiches, cookies, or as spread for biscuits and muffins.

Apple Butter
1 peck apples
1 gallon sweet cider
8 cups sugar
1 tablespoon cinnamon
1/2 teaspoon cloves
Wash and slice apples. Add cider and cook until soft. Press through sieve. Boil the strained pulp until thick enough to heap on a spoon, then add sugar mixed with spices and continue boiling until so thick that no liquids runs from the apples. Pour into hot jars and process for 10 minutes in a boiling water bath. Complete sealing if necessary.

RELISHES SHOULD be moist but not juicy. Chief ingredients in them should have a firm rather than mushy consistency. Vegetables in both of these relishes should be finely chopped.

Chow-Chow
1 gallon chopped cabbage
15 onions
12 green peppers
12 red peppers
2 quarts tomatoes, chopped
5 cups sugar
4 tablespoons ground mustard
1 tablespoon turmeric
1 tablespoon ground ginger
4 tablespoons mustard seed
3 tablespoons celery seed
2 tablespoons mixed pickling spices
1 gallon vinegar
Mix all vegetables, which have first been chopped, with one-half cup salt. Let stand overnight, then drain. The spices in a bag. Add sugar and spices to vinegar. Simmer 30 minutes. Add all ingredients and simmer until hot and well seasoned. Remove spice bag and pack hot chow-chow into sterile jars; seal at once.

LYNN SAYS:
Following Rules for Pickling Fruits and Vegetables
Pickles should be crisp and firm, solid and evenly colored. The correct color for the green pickle is olive rather than bright green. Pack sufficient liquid in the jars in which you can pickles so that those on top will not shrivel. Fresh spices are your best guarantee of flavor when making pickles. Spices lose flavor as they stand so only freshly opened packages should be used.

LYNN CHAMBERS' MENU

Baked Peas Beverage
Recipe Given

Tomato Chutney
12 ripe tomatoes
3 onions

6 tart apples
1 pod hot pepper
1 clove garlic
1 cup seeded raisins
3 cups brown sugar
1 tablespoon ginger
1 teaspoon ground cinnamon
1 teaspoon salt
3 cups vinegar
Skin tomatoes and onions, seed peppers, pare and core apples, wash raisins and then run all ingredients through the food chopper. Combine all ingredients and cook until thick.

Corn Relish
2 quarts corn
1 quart cabbage
1 cup chopped green pepper
1 cup chopped red pepper
2 large onions
1 cup sugar
2 tablespoons ground mustard
1 tablespoon mustard seed
1 tablespoon salt
1 tablespoon celery seed
1 quart vinegar
1 cup water
Boil corn for five minutes. Cold dip. Cut from cob and measure. Chop and measure cabbage and peppers. Chop onions. Combine ingredients and simmer 20 minutes.

CLOVE APPLES are very popular with roast pork dinners. If you add a few drops of red food coloring, the apples will be pretty and eye-catching.

Clove Apples
2 pounds prepared apples
4 cups sugar
2 1/2 cups water
1 tablespoon crushed ginger root or mixed whole spices
12 whole cloves
Food coloring
Use apples that hold shape after cooking. Pare, core and cut large apples in halves or quarters. Pare and core small apples, but leave whole. Boil sugar, water and cloves with food color with the peelings of two or three red apples until the jelling point is reached (220 degrees). Remove cloves and peelings, pour syrup over apples.

Crab Apple Pickles

Fruits and vegetables used for pickling should not be overripe. The same rules for selecting pickling material as for general canning holds true.

When making fruit pickles, cut the fruit in uniform sizes and shapes so the pickles look attractive when served. The syrup for fruit pickles is as thick as that for preserves.

Vegetables which are brined should be kept thoroughly covered with the brine, otherwise those standing uncovered by brine will spoil.

Woman's World Needs, Use, Fabric Durability Are Keys in Selecting Linens

By Erta Halay

"I'VE been keeping a home for seven years," said an intelligent homemaker to me recently, "and now my linens need replenishing. But I'm not certain that I know just how to buy them correctly."

Contrary to opinion, brides are not the only ones buying linens today. Many a homemaker is seeing 10-year-old sheets fall into sinks at each laundering, while bath towels are developing holes in alarming proportions.

Should the choice be muslin or percale sheets? What thread count is best to select? How should the yarn count affect the choice of sheets? How large should bath towels be? Are cotton or linen towels better for dishes? These are but a few of the bewildering questions a homemaker must be able to answer before she can make her choice.

Correctly Chosen Sheets Are Satisfying

Decide on the best size before you ever get to the store to do your purchasing. Anyone who has ever been troubled by having sheets that are skimpy will realize the wisdom of this point. Beds are more comfortable, easier to make and stay well-made longer if there is sufficient tuck-in on all sides.

For the standard five-inch thick, 76-inch long mattress, the 108-inch torn length is most desirable. If you select one less than 99 inches long, there will be skimpiness on the tuck-in. A single width bed requires a 65-inch width.

Measure blankets for quality...

A three-quarter bed requires a 72-inch sheet and the double bed requires an 81-inch width sheet. Most sheets are labeled as to size on the tabs but, if they are not, measure them to be certain.

The type of the sheet usually gives the thread count. A type 180 sheet signifies there are 180 threads per square inch, a type 128 sheet means that many threads to the square inch. Usually, the higher the thread count, the better the quality of the sheet. The number of threads in each direction should be equal to get the greatest benefit from the sheet.

Have towels long enough.

Weight on sheets is not nearly as important. Light weight may mean a very fine yarn or few yarns, so that sheet is poor and sleazy.

Lots of wear on a sheet comes from the top seam. Hems should be at least four inches and, if you can find a sheet that has both top and bottom hem, the sheet will wear longer.

Be Smart!

Casual smart, right in detailing, spacious enough to permit overnight use, these are the new carry-all bags. You'll find them in finest quality leathers at luxury prices but also in modestly priced fabrics, fibers or straw with leather or simulated leather trims. All are new and growing more popular day by day.

Plastic Bag

Sticky fingers can't hurt this bunny-decorated bag because it's made of vinylite plastic that wipes clean with a damp cloth. The good workmanship of this gay, serviceable little bag will withstand rough usage while the shoulder strap offers maximum protection against loss. The strap also leaves small hands free for such important matters as dolls, balloons and lollipops.

Few women have linen sheets and cotton is thoroughly satisfactory. For everyday wear, the best choice is muslin; for "best" occasions, a good quality percale frequently is chosen.

Hemstitched sheets do not wear particularly well; if you have them, use for "best" occasions. Otherwise, the plain edges will give best wear for both occasions.

Tinted sheets are attractive if you want to match or contrast the bedroom, but only fast-colored ones should be chosen. White sheets give best all-around service.

Pillowcase Requirements Are Identical With Sheets

After you have selected a sheet for thread count and weight, select pillowcases in the same type. Pillowcases that are six inches longer than the pillow are best for appearance and wear.

When pillowcases are too wide for the pillow, as many of them are that you receive for gifts, turn them inside out and stitch on both of the long sides to make them fit properly.

Pillow fillings are another consideration to bear in mind when you choose bedding. Those filled with a combination of duck and goose down are best from the standpoint of comfort and lasting wear.

Chicken and turkey feathers are used in the cheaper pillows, and frequently have stiff quills in them that may be uncomfortable.

Make certain the feathers are clean or the fillings will develop a rancid, musty odor.

Kapok filling is good if you have allergies to feathers. However, kapok tends to pulverize when used for a long time and will lose resiliency, thus making a replacement necessary, with its consequent expense.

Pillow ticking should not be heavily sized for the filling will come through readily. Rub the ticking to test it; if dust flies, sizing is present.

Hold Blankets in Light To Check Yarns

A good blanket always is marked for size. If you think you are getting a bargain, have the blanket measured and compare it with those which have size stated on the label.

Hold a blanket up to the light to see if the yarns are well distributed. If you see thin spots, you can be certain that these will wear out soon.

Blankets may be cotton, rayon, wool or a combination of two or more of these fibers. Cotton makes a strong blanket, wool a warmer one. A part wool blanket with less than 25 per cent wool is no warmer than a cotton one.

Virgin wool does not necessarily mean the blanket is of the best quality. The best blankets have long fibers. Virgin wool may be stronger if it is of good quality but, if it is poor, it might be better to buy a reprocessed wool.

The sizes on most bathroom towels are important. Select those 29 by 49 for most practical purposes. You may have some that are 28 by 44, but any larger than that will make the towels a laundering problem, either by adding a lot of excess weight if the laundering is done commercially or by being too heavy if you do your own.

FIRST AID to the AILING HOUSE

by Roger C. Whitman

QUESTION: How should plaster walls that show dampness through the wallpaper be treated? Some say that using black asphaltum on the wall would waterproof it. But how will wallpaper be over this material? Aluminum paint is said to be good for sealing the wall. But will wallpaper hold over this?

ANSWER: I would not advise using black asphaltum for this purpose. Your wallpaper may be pulpy and absorbent, and probably the plaster also absorbs and holds much of the dampness from the air. Before repapering, and after removing the present paper, try the effect of painting the walls with good aluminum paint. Let this dry, apply a glue size, and then hang a washable type of wallpaper or an oilcloth type of wall covering. If there is excessive moisture in the air of your house, try to locate the cause.

QUESTION: There is a "ring" in the ceiling where some patching had been done. Will this correct itself if the ceiling is repapered after a lapse of several months?

ANSWER: It is possible that the plaster may have disintegrated from excessive dampness or leakage, and the discoloration should be examined by a plasterer and taken care of before paper is hung. When the patching was done, it may be that not enough plaster was cut out, and a damaged area still remains.

Columbus Letter Up for Sale

A rare auction of important historical documents will be held in London soon. Probably the item which will command the highest price is the letter written by Christopher Columbus in which he announced his discovery of the New World.

This letter is one of the 7,000 rare documents dealing with five centuries of North and South American history to be sold. They are in a collection formed by the late Sir Leicester Harmsworth.

Among the other items are the prayer book of Benjamin Franklin and the deed of sale of East New Jersey by William Penn, founder of Pennsylvania.

Feeding Chicks

Chick creeps give the young birds a better chance for normal growth than when they have to compete with mature birds for the feed they obtain. Such creeps can be made by constructing a pen six feet square of vertical slats placed two and one-half inches apart. The chicks will soon learn to enter this pen for feed and water where they are not molested by the mature birds. Chicks should not be reared with old birds, except where hens are used for brooding, in which case the creep is a good investment.

NO HIGHWAY IN THE WORLD IS "ACCIDENT PROOF" FOR THE CARELESS DRIVER

"The finest highway in the world is not 'accident-proof' for a careless driver," H. L. Galles of the New Mexico Automobile Dealers Assn. said today in urging an intensified program of highway safety education throughout the State.

Mr. Galles cited figures compiled by the Travelers Insurance Companies which showed that nearly 84 per cent of the persons killed in traffic accidents in 1947 and 71 per cent of the persons injured were travelling in cars moving straight ahead. Other figures which he quoted, from the same source, showed that nearly 46 per cent of highway accident fatalities in 1947 and 29 per cent of injuries occurred when the speed limit was being exceeded.

"No highway ever built or possible to the most advanced engineering skills, could eliminate accidents of these types," he declared, "because they are caused by the human element—not by the engineering or mechanical element.

"Safety is primarily dependent on the man at the wheel of a car," he continued. "If he doesn't exercise common-sense and caution in driving and in regulating his speed he won't be able to avoid having an accident on the best engineered highway ever built.

"Certainly our new highways can be, and must be, constructed with an eye to eliminating physical hazards—but on these finer highways of the future, recklessness of the individual driver will result in death and injury just as it does now.

"It is therefore of the utmost importance that we intensify our program of educating the motoring public to sane and sensible driving practices, and back this up with consistently firm enforcement of our traffic laws."

Mr. Galles said that his organization in unison with other groups of the State Highway Users Conference, includes a plank favoring the promotion of safety on the highways through proper emphasis on the relative importance of safety education, law enforcement and highway engineering.

BACKWARD GLANCES

40 YEARS AGO FROM 1908 CARRIZOZO NEWS

It is currently reported that the El Paso, & Southwestern, from El Paso east, became a part of the Rock Island System on the first. It is also said that the Rock Island system was taken over by Harriman on the same date, and that it is now merged with the Southern Pacific system. Locally, nothing is known of the change, but many believe the rumor well founded, and now the thought uppermost in all minds is: "Where are we at?"

About 11:30 o'clock Saturday night the town was aroused by the firing of guns and the sight of flames issuing from the building on Alamo Avenue owned by V. Reil and occupied by Wingfield and Queen. The flames soon spread to the Gleason building, known as the Club room, and it also went. The further progress of the flames was stayed by the effective use of water carried in buckets and tubs by the many willing hands present. Other nearby buildings were threatened but the wind was favorable, and the crowd worked with a will to save them.

QUARTERLY CATTLEMEN'S MEETING SEPTEMBER 18-20

Three hundred state cattlemen are expected to attend the next quarterly meeting of the New Mexico Cattle Growers Association to be held in Albuquerque, September 19 and 20, according to G. W. Evans, Magdalena, President. The meeting will be held in conjunction with the New Mexico State Fair scheduled for the week of September 19.

"Last year our organization recognized the importance of constructing a youth building to house 4-H and FFA youth attending the State Fair and we made such a recommendation to the State Fair Commission. This year our members will have an opportunity to visit the youth building at the Fair. The building has been completed and will house a thousand boys and girls. It is one of the most elaborate buildings of its kind in the west," Evans said.

"Our quarterly meeting has been arranged for Sunday evening and Monday morning in order to avoid conflict with livestock events at the Fair," Evans said. "Joy B. Dillingham, President of the Kansas City Stock Yards Company of Kansas City, Mo. has been invited to

Why Doesn't The Bank Pay Interest On Checking Accounts?

Payments of interest on checking accounts in any insured bank is prohibited by law or regulation. The reason is that the bank can pay interest on deposits only out of earnings from the investment of those deposits. Inasmuch as checking account funds can be withdrawn on demand, cash reserves must be larger to meet withdrawals, therefore the amount available for investment is smaller and the investment period shorter.

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS

U. S. Registers Cold War Victory; Moscow Talks Headed for Failure; Truman, Congress in Budget Fight

By Bill Schoentgen, WNU Staff Writer

(EDITOR'S NOTE: When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of Western Newspaper Union's news analysts and not necessarily of this newspaper.)

COLD WAR

Villian Revealed

At last something had happened that could and did make people understand what this Russian situation was all about.

It had been pretty difficult going for the world public to perceive the basic truth when it was obscured by confusing circumstances like currency reform in Berlin, control of the German Ruhr, a maze of spies at home and political annihilation of small European nations by Russia.

What it all amounted to, as far as most people were concerned, was a mess of verbal pottage that they wouldn't trade for the comics page any day of the week.

Then it happened. Mrs. Oksana Kosenkina, the Russian school teacher, jumped from a third-story window in the Soviet consulate in New York to achieve the liberty she so desperately sought.

Mikhail Samarin, the other Russian school teacher, was wanted by the Russians but managed to retain his freedom. Refusing the Soviet demand that he return to Russia, he tossed this scallion for the Communists into the propaganda war: "I won't return to death."

And finally, in England Olympic athletes from Czechoslovakia and other Soviet satellite states were steadfastly refusing to return to their home countries after their taste of a free land.

It all added up to the biggest break the western nations have had yet in their propaganda battle with the East.

This was simple, basic, understandable: These people from the land of the Soviets—the schoolteachers and athletes—utterly despised the idea of returning. They simply would not do it.

Thus, it was in the end a few ordinary persons who destroyed the elaborate fabrication which Moscow had constructed to represent to the world the ideal way of life that existed in the Soviet Union.

One Voice of America spokesman said: "This is what we have been waiting for in our war of words. This is something that can be easily understood by people all over the world."

The Communists tried frantically to cover this breach in their curtain by calling it, among other things, an underground conspiracy in the U. S. to wreck any possibility for peace between the two nations.

But the villain's disguise was off now and everyone knew him. Try as they might, the Communists never would be able to explain why two obscure school teachers would seek their freedom so desperately, nor why Russia was so determined to get them back.

PARLEY:

Failure

From Moscow came crushing news for all those hoping for peace: The talks between the western democracies and Russia were reported to be on the brink of failure.

Barring a last-minute miracle in the conferences between the U. S., England, France and Russia, the East-West stalemate would continue, along with the Soviet blockade of Berlin.

It was reported that the western powers were getting ready to stay in Berlin under conditions of economic siege, planning to maintain and enlarge the air lift to supply the 2.5 million persons in their sectors.

There was, however, one slim chance that utter failure could be avoided. The three western ambassadors were scheduled for a final talk with Premier Stalin, and it was a possibility that the negotiations might be rescued. But the odds against agreement stood at about five to one, officials said.

If the conference ended in the anticipated failure, it was thought that the Big Four governments would try to conceal the extent of the fiasco from the public in order to avoid the even greater degeneration of East-West relationships that undoubtedly would result if everyone knew just how hopeless the case was.

However, if the Moscow talks did break up in futility it would not mean necessarily that all similar negotiations would be abandoned. It would mean that any further effort to reopen them would be delayed until at least next spring—possibly March—after the election and inauguration.

WHAT'LL YA HAVE, GENTS?

How About 55 Gallons of Black Coffee?

Coffee and milk, by a wide margin, remain the favorite beverages of American drinkers who will down nearly eight billion gallons of coffee and nearly seven billion gallons of milk in 1948.

The report on the national liquid intake, compiled by the family economics bureau of Northwestern National Life Insurance company, also estimates that about 2.7 billion gallons of beer and 1.7 billion gallons of assorted soft drinks will be consumed this year.

BUDGET:

Unbalanced

Will there be a surplus or deficit in the government's budget at the end of this fiscal year?

It was a question good for a lot of political haymaking, and both President Truman and his Republican opponents in congress went to work with a will.

Mr. Truman's forecast was that the government would be 1.5 billion dollars in the red next June. In his mid-year budget report he blamed the Republicans' "ill-timed" five-billion-dollar tax cut for putting the nation back in the hole.

Stricken with horror, GOP lawmakers rapped back sharply: Far from harboring a deficit, they said, the treasury will close its books next June with a surplus of between five and six billion dollars.

The President had juggled figures for political campaign effect, the Republicans charged bitterly.

"Another of the weird distortions which are coming from the White House while its occupant is a nervous candidate for re-election," commented Sen. Styles Bridges (Rep., N. H.) mordaciously.

Mr. Truman had said that federal expenditures this year would hit 42 billion dollars, while Republicans claim that actual expenses will total 38 billion. They charged, too, that the President had figured the national income 3.4 billion dollars too low for the year.

Just who was right in the matter, if anyone, was impossible to say. The entire affair had many of the characteristics of the kind of temper in a teapot that is a run-of-the-mill event in an election year.

Actually, even if President Truman's estimate turns out to be the correct one, the books still will show an "adjusted surplus," despite the 1.5-billion-dollar operating deficit. That is because congress provided that three billion of the surplus last year should be shifted to this year's accounts to help meet foreign aid costs.

PSYCHIATRY:

War Cure

How can the world prevent wars? Use of psychiatry would be a big help, according to Dr. John Milne Murray, professor of clinical psychiatry at Boston university.

A psychiatrist, he said, is one who seeks the reason for the failure of human relations in the individual rather than in the mass.

"But," he asked, "what is war except a mass breakdown of inadequate relations ending up in a tremendous burst of self-destruction?"

Take, for instance, the reactions of a child trying to adjust itself to a harsh environment. Under stress the child may revert to archaic forms of behavior, and that is very similar to the impulse of destruction which, on a world-wide scale, becomes war.

Therefore, knowledge of mass human reactions should be employed to afoolish war, Dr. Murray concluded.

Actually, it's all very simple. If people didn't act the way they do they wouldn't have to fight each other. The trick is to make them understand that.

Out of the Park

In some dimly seen future time baseball record books might fall into dust, but there will be those who still talk of Babe Ruth. And among kids the legend of the Babe might grow into this: Every baseball he ever hit he hit for a home run. And some might smile at the exaggeration but say nothing because it will be a magnificent story.

Paper Work

War-guilt trials of the Japanese war lords in Tokyo produced literally tons of evidence—bale after bale of recorded testimony and documentary proof of the Jap war criminals' carryings-on. Job of translating all the data will take five weeks, after which the international military tribunal will hand down its verdicts.

MASARYK:

Murdered?

Last March 10 Jan Masaryk, foreign minister of Czechoslovakia under the Communist regime, fell to his death from a third-story window in the foreign office in Prague.

Since then Masaryk's friends, as well as many who never knew him but admired him because of his hopeless fight in behalf of Czechoslovakia's national liberty, have speculated long as to whether he committed suicide or was killed by the Communists who wanted him out of the way.

The official Communist version of the incident was suicide, but too many persons had too many doubts to let it rest at that.

Then, suddenly, last month the doubts were crystallized. Dr. Oskar Klinger, Masaryk's personal physician, asserted that the Czech statesman did not commit suicide.

He was sure of that, he said, because he and Masaryk had planned to escape by plane to Great Britain on the very day that Masaryk died.

Klinger said that the security police discovered Masaryk's plan to flee and came to his rooms that night to arrest or kill him. Defending himself, Masaryk shot and killed possibly four men.

With the remaining men closing in, Klinger's version went, Masaryk was forced closer and closer to the window. Then, the men either threw him out the window or, overwhelmed by fear, Masaryk flung himself out.

In proof of his conviction, Klinger offered this evidence:

Masaryk would never have committed suicide because he was afraid of physical pain. Also, he left no note or letter—a usual practice in suicides.

Shots were heard in the building the night he died, and four coffins were carried from the place that morning before the Czech commission arrived to inspect Masaryk's body, indicating that four persons might have been killed during the night.

? Current Events ?

Here are five questions, based on recent happenings in the news, which are guaranteed not to keep you awake nights. Unless, that is, you stay up late to read the paper anyway.

1. Several witnesses before the house un-American activities committee, refusing to answer questions about Communist activities, invoked the fifth amendment to the Constitution. What does the amendment say?

2. President Truman said recently that a woman president of the U. S. "was not only a possibility, but a probability" some day. At present the Constitution prohibits a woman from becoming president. True or false?

3. Population of the U. S. is 143,414,000. Name the nations that have larger populations in order of their size.

4. What outstanding war events took place three years ago on these dates: August 5, August 9, August 14?

5. Born in 1896, he was governor of Kansas from 1915 to 1919 and became a senator in 1919. Recently he retired from the senate as its senior member in point of service. Who is he?

ANSWERS

- 1. "No person . . . shall be compelled in any criminal case to be a witness against himself."
2. False. Only presidential qualifications required are that he be born in the U. S., be a resident of the country for 14 years and at least 35 years old.
3. China (475 million), Union of India (300 million), U. S. S. R. (195 million).
4. August 5 Nagasaki was atom bombed; August 9 Russia declared war on Japan; August 14 Japan surrendered.
5. Sen. Arthur Capper (Rep., Kas.).

BOXCARS:

No Worries

Despite all-time record production and the bumper crops forecast for this year, U. S. railroads do not expect as tight a boxcar situation this autumn as has prevailed during the past several years.

Northwestern grain, bulking larger than any other section, has begun to taper off, more cars are available in the Northwest this year than last and terminals still have space for storage.

DIXIECRATS WHOOP IT UP . . . Count the political parties in the U. S.—two, three, four of them. And the youngest party, the Dixiecrats, is the most rambunctious of all. Forsaking the regular Democratic party to paddle their own states' rights canoe, the Dixiecrats held a convention in Houston, Tex., where they nominated J. Strom Thurmond, governor of South Carolina, as their presidential candidate and Fielding Wright for vice president.

NOW THE "NO" IS ON THE OTHER FOOT . . . Soviet Ambassador Alexander Fanyashkin, leaving the office of Under-Secretary of State Robert Lovett, reflects deep disappointment. He had delivered a formal diplomatic note demanding custody of Mrs. Oksana Kosenkina, Soviet teacher who made a "freedom leap" from a window of the Soviet consulate in New York. Fanyashkin received a polite but definite "no."

CANADA'S GREATEST OIL DISCOVERY . . . It's oil by the millions of barrels at the new Leduc field near Edmonton, Alberta, Canada. Less than two years old, the field is hailed as one of the greatest oil discoveries in the British empire. One hundred wells already have been drilled, one of which, Atlantic No. 2, broke loose last March and flowed wild at 14,000 barrels a day. Sixty tons of feathers (above), cement and wood pulp failed to stop it for five months.

THE YOUNG LADY IS UNCOVERED . . . Charology attired in a century-old children's costume, petite Margery Anne MacConnell extends tentative greetings to Elsie the cow during a centennial celebration at Brewster, N. Y. Elsie seems (to coin a phrase) to have her placid bovine eye more on Margery's old-fashioned bonnet than on the wisp of hay she is being offered. The little girl was a prize-winner in a children's parade.

LABOR . . . Maurice J. Tobin, former governor of Massachusetts and former mayor of Boston, has taken the oath of office as secretary of labor to succeed the late Lewis B. Schwellenbach. Tobin, 47 years old, has been a strong Truman supporter.

CRUSADEE . . . Mrs. E. D. Vaughn of Dallas, Tex., fed up with high meat prices, launched a campaign in her city to get housewives to stop buying meat for a week in order to break the rising spiral. Her idea for a butcher boycott spread to cities all over the country, resulting in a moderate buyers' strike.

SPEEDY . . . Donald F. Strub of Akron, Ohio, is pridefully placed by his mother after he won the 11th annual all-American soap box derby at Akron. He also won a four-year scholarship to any state college or university.

BERLIN COP . . . Johannes Himmels, recently appointed police chief of Berlin by the Allied governments, is among those not recognized by the Russians. Soviet occupation forces ignored his appointment, named their own chief of police.

APPETIZING . . . Ready to go overboard for some of that Virginia seafood, Mrs. E. D. Vaughn will be an appetizing attraction in the national seafood festival to be held at Hampton, Va., September 16 and 17.
