CORONA NEWS

(By Mrs. A. E. Mulkey)

Corona won the first football game of the season Friday, Sept. 9th. The score was Corona 25 Vaughn 0. The game was played on Corona's home field. Both teams showed good sportsmanship. We hope our boys will again be the winners this Friday when Mountainair boys come to Corona.

Faculty Tea was given by the Home Ec-II class, prepared under supervision of Mrs. Zella Atkinson, Friday afternoon.

There is a newly organized quartette in Corona. Mr. Fred Burgess and Mr. C. H. Webber are tenors; Mr. Guereco, baritone and Mr. Iverson Burgess, bass.

Corona School orchestra is doing fine under the direction of Mr. Webber.

There was a freight train wreck late Sunday afternoon on September 4th which we failed to mention last week. A washout about eight or nine miles south of Corona caused derailment of about 26 cars. No one was hurt, but there was a good deal of damage and loss to the railroad company. Nearly everyone in and around Corona were out to see the wreck. The most badly damaged cars contained citrus fruits, and residents around Corona were allowed to take what could not be saved of the fruits by the Railroad Company. For once we have plenty of oranges and lemons. The wreck happened Sunday evening, September 4.

The Federation Womens' Club met Thursday, September 8. A number of guests were present. Some of the guests became members. The newly organized Men's quartette accompanied by Miss Merle Kyzar entertained with the following selections: "Steal Away to Jesus", "Drink to Me Only With Thine Eyes", and "Side Walks of New York". Mrs. Eileen Griffin gave a very interesting review of "The Golden Fury" by Marian Castle. The hostesses for the social hour were Mrs. Juanita Sultemeier and Mrs. Jean Sultemeier.

The Corona School Faculty Play will be presented Saturday evening, September 17. It will be a comedy in four acts. The male quartette and girls sextette will entertain between acts.

The American Legion and Auxiliary held a joint meeting at the school lunch room Wednesday September 7. Twenty were present including Mrs. B. Weaver of Alamogordo who is District president of the Auxiliary.

Rev. Rice Willard Presbyterian minister will hold services at the Legion Hut, Sunday at 7:30 P.M. September 18.

Westminster Fellowship, sponsored by Miss Martha Kerr and Mr. T. B. Ford, meet at the Legion Hut each Wednesday evening. There is a thirty minute service, followed by one hour of recreation. All highschool boys and girls are welcome.

NOTICE

The Womens Club of Carrizozo have postponed their regular meeting scheduled for September 16 to September 23. The building is being repaired and it is requested that all members keep the new date in mind. We hope every member will be present.

Highway 54's Projects Bring the Peoples' Dream

Nearer realization and we are now about to see the unpaved portion of the safest "All-Family highway" between Carrizozo and Santa Rosa paved. A long time we have waited and encouraged, and hoped. Of course, Rome wasn't built in a day, nor can highway 54 be paved in a week. Still one project below Organ Grande will be reconstructed at a sum of $164,767. The little more than twelve miles will be greatly appreciated by 54 travelers. Thyngeman & Co. of Albuquerque were awarded the contract. The other project announced is a little over 19 mile stretch North of Vaughn toward Santa Rosa. This contract was awarded to G. I. Martin of Albuquerque at a cost of $404,029.20. We consider this much mileage a boon to the state, and like most Highway 54 boosters are thankful for this much improvement. "Every little bit added to Fifty-four makes just a little bit more," toward completion.

N. M. HOLDS DOWN FOREST FIRES

Washington, D. C. - (Special) - New Mexico is one of 18 states to the Nation which held its forest fires down to less than ten percent of the total number of fires in 1948. This is considered good by foresters. New Mexico recorded a 5.0 percentage for last year—a slightly over half of the average for 1944 to 1948 inclusive. This was revealed in a recent survey released by the American Forest Products Industries, a non-profit organization supported by leading lumber, pulp and paper, and plywood industries in the U. S. AFPI's aim is to encourage the best protection, management and utilization of our forests.

Mr. Wm. Gallacher was a Carrizozo business visitor last week.

Taste-Teasers

"The way to a man's heart..."

It's picnic-time once more, when campfires spell romance for young and old. Here's a treat to take along that's sure to satisfy eager appetites—Bramburgers. You prepare them at home, wrap in wax paper, then cook them over a charcoal fire at the picnic site. Their succulent nut-like flavor is due to the addition of all-bran cereal, which also makes one to two extra servings from one pound of beef.

BRAMBURGERS
Beat 1 egg, season with salt and pepper, 2 tablespoons of minced onions, 1 tablespoon chopped parsley, 1 1/2 cups milk and 1 cup of bran. Let soak until most of moisture is taken up. Add 1 pound of ground beef. Mix thoroughly. Cut 10 slices of bacon lengthwise into two strips. Arrange two strips of bacon cross-wise on waxed paper. Mold a generous tablespoon of meat mixture into patties, and place on bacon intersection. Bring strips together on top of patty, overlapping with a toothpick. Bake in a hot oven (450°) about 20 minutes, or broil about 20 minutes. Remove bramburgers from pan. Add some milk and seasonings to drippings. Thicken slightly to make gravy. Yield: 10 patties.

concentrated orange juice? It tastes for all the world like freshly-squeezed oranges and the vitamin content remains intact. It is a welcome time and labor saver for the breakfast table—you simply open a can, add water, stir briskly and serve. I like to use it too, in recipes calling for orange juice. Take, for instance, this delicious one for sherbet which the makers of Minute Maid orange concentrate sent to me recently.

ORANGE SHERBET
Reconstitute a 6-ounce can of concentrate into orange juice with water according to directions on the label. In 1/2 cup of the reconstituted juice, soak 4 teaspoons of gelatin for 5 minutes. Set bowl over boiling water and stir until gelatin is dissolved. Combine rest of orange juice with a pinch of salt, 1/2 cup granulated sugar, 1/2 cup lemon juice, 1 teaspoon grated lemon rind and 1 cup of light cream. Stir in gelatin. Then turn mixture into freezing tray with control set at coldest setting and freeze until half frozen. When half frozen, turn mixture into bowl and beat well. Return to freezing tray and freeze until firm. Yield: About 6 servings.

GRAPE JELLY
5 cups juice
3/4 cups sugar
1 box powdered fruit pectin
To prepare the juice, stem about 3 1/2 pounds fully ripe grapes and crush thoroughly. Add 1 1/2 cups of water; bring to a boil and simmer, covered, 10 minutes. Place in jelly cloth or bag and squeeze out juice. Measure 5 cups into large saucepan. To make the jelly, measure sugar and set aside. Place saucepan holding juice over high heat. Add powdered fruit pectin and stir until mixture comes to a hard boil. At once stir in sugar. Bring to a full rolling boil and boil hard 1 minute, stirring constantly. Remove from heat, skim, pour quickly into glasses. Paraffin at once. Yield: About 11 six-ounce glasses.

Have you discovered that miracle of modern foods, frozen-con-

Cleaning A Copper Stand

QUESTION: Can you tell me of a safe way to clean a copper stand? It has floral designs on the legs. I would like to have something that wouldn't be too hard to get out of the grooves.

ANSWER: There are excellent metal polishes on general sale that you can use, and many brushes in a wide range of sizes that will get into the carvings of floral designs. A simple way to clean copper is by washing with ordinary vinegar in which has been dissolved as much salt as will be taken up, followed by rinsing with clear water. You can make the solution into a paste by the addition of flour. If not well rinsed off afterward, the salt will further discolor the copper.

Household Hints

Cleaning Rings
Nearly any kind of ring is best cleaned with a toothbrush. Soap and water will do the job unless the ring is badly tarnished, in which case try using bicarbonate of soda. Just dip the damp brush in the bicarb and scrub the ring; rinse when finished.

Seat Cushion Care
Upholstered seat cushions will keep their shape and last longer if you "up end" them every night before retiring and replace them in the morning.

Prevent Scratches
Paste mastic on the bottom of heavy ornaments and flower pots to prevent scratches on table tops. Old felt hats can be cut up and pieces used for the same purpose.

JUST

A Hollywood artist, stranded in Rio de Janeiro, tried his hand at murals in order to pick up a few dollars. He approached the owner of a balcony on the subject of a nice pair of stallions for the empty wall near the door.

"No," said the owner, "I don't care for horses. I'm a seafaring man so if you can paint me a couple of full-rigged schooners on that wall I'll hire you."

"You're sure you don't want a couple of black stallions painted there?" persisted the artist.

"Of course I'm sure," snapped the owner impatiently. "Ships or nothing."

"O.K.," replied the artist, "I'll paint your ships, but any resemblance to a pair of black stallions will be purely coincidental."

The matronly dame studied a garish painting through her lorgnette for a good fifteen minutes. "Of all things, why in heaven's name did they hang such a monstrosity in the place of honor?" she exclaimed. "Maybe they couldn't find the artist," suggested her friend.

Religion and Habits

Lesson for September 15, 1949

RELIGION is not moral. It is a poor, flimsy, no-good religion. If morality is not religious, it soon cracks. Religion has to be moral and morality has to be religious, or else both of them lose their excuse for existence. This is not a new idea. It was in the Bible long ago. Our Psalms for this week are among those that bring out this truth: God is interested in how people live.

Dr. Foreman

He is interested in what they do seven days and seven nights a week; he is interested in their habits as much as their souls. Psalms 15 and 24 are so plain on this point that they need no explaining.

Churches and Liquor

THIS truth, that right religion and right behavior are twins, lights up all of life like a floodlight; but since this is our temperance lesson, let us focus it more or less on one spot.

It is a safe spot: the drink habit. Why does the church make such a fuss about people drinking? Catholic churches are opposed to liquor in excess, and most Protestant churches are opposed to liquor, period.

The movies have made the "binge," the hangover, almost respectable; but the church knows better. Why? Will the time ever come when the churches are not opposed to the liquor business? No, it will not; because the churches know what liquor does.

The minister is usually the man (along with the lawyer and doctor and the sheriff) who has to pick up the pieces when drink gets a man or a woman and breaks up a family. The minister gets behind the scenes, he knows that some funerals would not have been funerals if it had not been for drink.

The car that "went out of control," the accident that should not have been fatal, the family quarrel that grew to hatred and violence—he sees enough of these caused by alcohol, to have no illusions about the stuff.

A Psalm in Reverse

IF THERE is a single reader of these lines who imagines that religion is only a "matter of the soul" and has nothing to do with what people eat or drink, then let him try a little experiment with the 15th Psalm.

As it stands in the Bible, it is a description of the kind of man who can appear without shame before God—in short, of the religious-and-moral man.

Now beginning with verse 2, take the Psalm phrase by phrase, and see how false and ridiculous it is if you try to make the description fit the man with the drink habit. "The victim of drink walketh uprightly, and worketh righteousness." Quite the contrary, he seems to be doing his best to ruin his own happiness and that of others.

"The drunkard speaketh the truth in his heart"—There is one truth he never speaks in his heart: I am a drunkard. The one thing the victim of alcohol never admits till it is too late (if ever) is the hold which alcohol has on him. "He that backbiteth not with his tongue, nor taketh up a reproach against his neighbor"—

Contempt Is No Cure

WELL, read on for yourself. The slave to alcohol (and many a man is chained to it, who would feel insulted if you called him an alcoholic) certainly does not fit the description of the man whose life God approves.

But the Christian will by no means think his duty done merely by sitting in the scoundrel's seat, or being an abstainer himself, or even by helping those who have fallen into the pit. He will remember that an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure.

The liquor business has no conscience. It sometimes comes out with pious remarks about temperance—but it keeps right on advertising, it knows no law but profit. The only whole-hearted workers for temperance will always be the people who make no money out of it. And the most effective workers for temperance will be those who themselves, in all their habits, give examples in life of what they preach.

Serve Fish Often For Meal Variety (See Recipe Below)

Seafood Specials

FISH do not swim in the ocean just to be eaten on Friday," says the old adage. If you've had the good fortune of eating fish prepared properly, then you certainly will adhere to the adage, for fish cooked to perfection is truly delicious.

But, there are other reasons for eating fish, too! You may have abundant body-building proteins, minerals and vitamins when you have a fish dinner.

Fish are modestly priced whether you buy them fresh, quick-frozen or canned, so they'll help you with food budgeting problems. They're plentiful and amazingly versatile, if you'll just give them a chance.

If you don't particularly enjoy fish, try a new way of preparation. One of the recipes in today's column might start you on a new food adventure. Or, if you tend to get tired of fish, try other methods of preparation with a dash of spanking brand new flavor tricks. You'll be surprised at how many new ways there are for preparing the same foods.

Many have heard of "fish and chips," but have you ever tried them at home? Use fillets of fish which have been cleaned, then season with salt and pepper. Roll them in flour and dip in a thin batter, and fry in deep fat (350°). Served with shoe string potatoes, also fried in deep fat until golden and crisp, a hearts of lettuce salad and a generous serving of lemon quarters, you'll have a really delicious dinner for any night of the week.

DO YOU OBJECT to the odor of fish? Fish which is not overcooked will not have that odor to which you may rightfully object. It's wise to remember that fish is delicate and does not need long cooking to make it tender.

Baked fish is popular, especially when it's stuffed with a nicely seasoned celery mixture, then served with a tangy lemon-butter sauce.

- *Stuffed-Baked Fish (Serves 6)
- 3 to 4 pound whole fish
 - 3 tablespoons chopped onion
 - 1/2 cup chopped celery
 - 1 tablespoon minced parsley
 - 1/2 cup bacon drippings
 - 4 cups dry bread cubes
 - 1 teaspoon salt
 - 1/2 teaspoon pepper
 - 1 teaspoon sage, marjoram or thyme
 - 4 slices bacon

Have fish cleaned but leave on head, tail and fins. Wipe dry. Rub inside and out with salt; let stand about 10 minutes. Cook onion, celery and parsley in drippings until golden brown. Combine with bread cubes and seasonings.

Toss lightly and stuff fish loosely. Fasten fish with skewers and lace with string. Place fish, seam side down in a shallow, well greased baking pan. Brush with melted fat or salad oil. Bake, uncovered, in a moderately hot oven (375°) for 40 to 50 minutes. Baste occasionally with fat or oil. During the last 15

LYNN SAYS: These Tested Ways Help in Fish Cookery

When breading fish fillets, allow the fish to stand after breading for at least one half hour, so that the coating will not fall off when the fillets are fried.

Potato nests are a nice innovation for serving creamed fish. Make them by cutting raw potatoes into slender strips, and cook in hot fat for 2 minutes. Press the potatoes into muffin pans and brown in a hot oven.

minutes of baking time, lay strips of bacon on top of fish.

*Lemon-Butter Sauce: Combine 1/2 cup melted butter or substitute with two tablespoons lemon juice and one tablespoon chopped parsley. Serve over baked fish.

Fish goes to lunch just as nicely as to dinner, when it's tuna fish in golden-brown and-puffy sandwiches:

Tuna Fish Sandwiches (Serves 4-6)

- 1 cup grated tuna fish (canned)
- 1/2 cup chopped celery
- 1/2 cup chopped green pepper
- 1 tablespoon lemon juice
- 2 tablespoons onion juice
- 1/2 cup salad dressing
- Salt, pepper and paprika
- 1/2 cup coarsely grated American cheese

Combine all ingredients except cheese and season to taste. Cut bread slices diagonally in half. Toast one side; spread other side with tuna mixture. Sprinkle with cheese and broil until golden brown and puffy.

HERE'S A RECIPE for the thin

batter into which to dip the fish for deep-fat frying:

- 1 cup sifted flour
- 1 teaspoon baking powder
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 2 eggs
- 1/2 cup milk
- 1 tablespoon melted butter or salad oil

Sift together flour, baking powder and salt. Beat eggs, add melted fat or oil and milk. Combine with dry ingredients. Beat until smooth and use for fish fillets which have been seasoned and rolled in flour. Fry in deep fat until golden brown. Serve at once.

*Oysters have a delicate flavor, but you can coax them into an even more appetizing tempting dish as follows:

Savory Oyster Casserole (Serves 4)

- 2 dozen oysters
- 1 cup cooked, chopped spinach
- 1 bay leaf
- 1/2 teaspoon tabasco sauce
- 1 cup toasted bread crumbs
- 2 tablespoons butter
- 1 tablespoon chopped onion
- 1 tablespoon minced parsley
- 2 tablespoons flour
- 2 tablespoons minced celery
- Salt, pepper and cayenne pepper

Add seasonings to parsley, spinach, bay leaf, onion and celery. Brown flour in butter and add spinach mixture to it. Cook slowly for 15 minutes and then remove bay leaf. Drain and dry oysters and place in a buttered baking dish, or in individual casseroles. Mix oysters with bread crumbs, then top with vegetable mixture. Dress with lemon juice. Bake in a hot (450°) oven for about 12 minutes. Serve with additional lemon, if desired.

Chopped sweet pickles added to bread-stuffing make a nice innovation when used with pike or other white-fleshed fish.

Lemon-browned butter is another fine idea for serving with fish. Brown but do not burn butter over a slow fire in a heavy skillet. Add to this a dash of Worcestershire sauce and lemon juice to season.

Fish fillets are sometimes more interesting if dipped in bread dressing, rolled, fastened with string and baked or fried, than when served flat.

It may be caused by disorder of kidney function that permits poisonous waste to accumulate. For truly many people feel tired, weak and miserable when the kidneys fail to remove excess acids and other waste matter from the blood.

You may suffer nagging backache, rheumatic pains, headaches, dizziness, getting up nights, leg pains, swelling. Sometimes frequent and scanty urination with stinging and burning is another sign that something is wrong with the kidneys or bladder.

Modern surgical methods have changed the outlook for recovery in cases of brain tumor, with complete cures quite common.

"My race for life against a Rattler's Poison!"

A true experience of WILLIAM F. COLLEY - San Diego, Calif.

1 "A piercing shriek cut the silence as I lay in wait for deer in the Laguna Mountains near San Diego. I dashed to Sam Reardon, my hunting companion. A 3 1/2-foot rattler had dug his fangs into Sam's ankle! Twice in my own life, I'd felt the rattler's sting. I knew what to do.

2 "I shot the rattler—opened my snake kit. Night was closing in. I needed light—good, steady light. My flashlight with its 'Eveready' batteries was the answer. By its light, I made a courageous, cut a cross incision and removed the venom.

3 "And those long-life 'Eveready' batteries gave plenty of bright light as I carried Sam and dragged a car. I thank my flashlight for saving Sam's life. Now I know why 'Eveready' batteries are the batteries with 'Nine Lives'!"

THE FLASHLIGHT BATTERY WITH "NINE LIVES"! EVEREADY

Just as an active cat... takes a cat nap... and bounces back with new pep... so Eveready flashlight batteries recover power between uses and bounce back for extra life!

Technical explanation: due to the electro-chemical regeneration of the depolarizer.

"Eveready," "Nine Lives," the cat symbol are trade-marks of National Carbon Company, Inc.

Polio Emergency Drive

Confidence that the entire community would give whole-hearted support to the Polio Epidemic Emergency Drive was expressed today by Mrs. J. P. Turner, chairman of the Lincoln County Chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

The Drive, announced Sept. 7 by Basil O'Connor, National Foundation president, is being held as a last resort because "in no other way can the National Foundation continue to aid in increased numbers of polio patients without slowing up scientific research and professional education," he said.

It is the first emergency drive in the history of the fight against polio in the United States.

"Although we've been spared the scourge of polio this year, all of us are eager to join in providing help for those who are now feeling its impact," Mrs. Turner said. "So far, our Chapter has not had to spend any money for new cases here. Our March of Dimes funds are being paid out for treatment of local patients afflicted in previous years. If new cases developed, we'd have to request additional funds from national headquarters, as so many other chapters now are doing. We want to be sure they would be forthcoming."

"Everyone in the country is supporting the fight against polio so that full help will be available wherever and whenever it is needed."

Contributions from Lincoln County to the Polio Epidemic Emergency Drive are one way of returning the generosity of other givers throughout the nation whose help has made or will make it possible to take care of polio cases here, Mrs. Turner said.

"Given in great sorrow, such as a polio epidemic can cause, this spirit of cooperative giving is a heart warming thing," Mrs. Turner said.

"Lincoln County's dimes are really marching now."

Do banks help fight inflation?

Decidedly, yes! By accepting your thrift deposits and your purchases of U. S. Savings Bonds, banks help you postpone your spending for scarce articles; by lending funds to business and industry for constructive purposes, banks help increase the supply of scarce goods. In these and other ways, banks fight inflation.

High School to be Represented

Albuquerque Sept. 16. — For the first time in the history of the New Mexico State Fair, High School students will be represented with exhibits in addition to the hundreds of primary grade displays, Mrs. Gail N. Barber, Santa Fe, supervisor of the school department, reports.

The addition of the senior grades to the always large school department will make the 1949 exhibit the largest ever held in this state she said. Both county and municipal schools will be eligible to enter the show in a special department created by grades 9, 10, 11, and 12. Competition in the primary grades will be divided between municipal and county school departments.

Classes for the school division number over 300 and include paper craft, wood craft, weaving, home, community and theater arts, posters, drawing, painting, plastic art, sculpture, glass, jewelry, textile art, metal and leather craft, etc.

Reserved seats at Fair, two dollars

Albuquerque, Sept. 16. A special reserved section in the grandstand of the New Mexico State Fair will be offered to the public this year, Leon H. Harma, Secretary-Manager, announces.

The section will contain 200 seats with cushions and backs for comfort of race and rodeo patrons. Each seat will be sold at $2.00 for each performance.

Harma said the demand for box seats has exceeded the available supply to such an extent that the 200 reserve seats have been set aside to accommodate those racing and rodeo fans who prefer more comfortable accommodations.

WHY THE MISSOURI PACIFIC RAILROAD STRIKE?

Over twenty years ago, the Congress of the United States passed the Railway Labor Act. It was hailed by union leaders as a model for the settlement of labor disputes.

THE LEADERS of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers, Order of Railway Conductors, and the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen on the Missouri Pacific Railroad have refused to avail themselves of the peaceful means provided by this Act for settling their disputes. They insist that they be the sole umpire of their own disputes, over the meaning of contracts.

There is no Need for Strikes

With all of the available methods for the interpretation of contracts, there is no need for a strike or even a threat of a strike, but the leaders of these railroad unions have ignored the ordinary procedures established by law and insist upon imposing their own interpretations of their contracts by means of a strike. The wheels have stopped rolling on the Missouri Pacific. They may stop rolling on other railroads at any time. Recently the Wabash Railroad was forced to discontinue operation for several days under similar circumstances.

What are These Strikes About?

These strikes and strike threats are not about wage rates or hours. They result from disputes over the meaning of existing contracts. They cover claims for a full day's pay for less than a day's work, or payments for services performed by others who were fully paid for the work done, efficiently or economically if the leaders of the unions ignore agreements or laws.

Provisions of the Law which are Disregarded

There are five ways under the Railway Labor Act to settle disputes over the meaning of contracts:

- 1—Decision by National Railroad Adjustment Board.
- 2—Decision by System Adjustment Board for the specific railroad.
- 3—Decision by arbitration.
- 4—Decision by neutral referee.
- 5—Decision by courts.

The Missouri Pacific Railroad has been and is entirely willing to have these disputes settled in accordance with the requirements of the Railway Labor Act. Regardless of this fact, the union leaders have shut down that railroad.

Innocent Bystanders Suffer Losses and Hardships

There are about 5,000 engineers, firemen, conductors and trainmen on the Missouri Pacific. They are known as "operating" employees, and are the most highly paid of all employees on the nation's railroads, but their strike action has resulted in the loss of work to 22,500 other employees of the Missouri Pacific. In addition, they have imposed great inconvenience and hardship upon the public and the communities served by that railroad.

The Railway Labor Act was designed to protect the public against just such interruptions of commerce.

If these men will not comply with the provisions of the law for the settlement of such disputes, then all thinking Americans must face the question, "What is the next step?"

President Truman's Board Condemns Strike

There is an established legal method for handling disputes involving existing written contracts—just as there is such a method of settling any contract dispute which you may have in your daily life.

The President of the United States appointed a Fact Finding Board to investigate and adjust the Missouri Pacific dispute. This Board reported, in part, as follows:

"... It is with a deep sense of regret that we are obliged to report the failure of our mission. It seems inconceivable to us that a coercive strike should occur on one of the nation's major transportation systems, with all of the losses and hardships that would follow, in view of the fact that the Railway Labor Act provides an orderly, efficient and complete remedy for the fair and just settlement of the matters in dispute. Grievances of the character here under discussion are so numerous and of such frequent occurrence on all railroads that the general adoption of the policy pursued by the organizations in this case would soon result in the complete nullification of the Railway Labor Act..."

Do banks help fight inflation?

Decidedly, yes! By accepting your thrift deposits and your purchases of U. S. Savings Bonds, banks help you postpone your spending for scarce articles; by lending funds to business and industry for constructive purposes, banks help increase the supply of scarce goods. In these and other ways, banks fight inflation.

"It's Hard to Make a Million But Try to Keep It." Today a man has little chance of making a million through accumulation by ordinary income. Because of taxes, millionaires can't afford to keep their money or give it away. Read it in the American Weekly, that great magazine distributed with next Sunday's Los Angeles Examiner.

So this is HOUSEKEEPING

Whoever said woman is the weaker sex was never a bride. The fragile-looking little thing has to have a constitution of iron to put up with the series of crises that just naturally come with the first year of wedded bliss—for instance, the first heart-breaking scratches on lovingly-selected furniture.

It happens that the Sturds are partial to the lovely glow of dark woods. Thus for our mahogany and walnut furniture had suffered early a scar. Then out of a clear sky during a routine dusting there they were—big as life and twice as obvious! I'll admit it, I wailed! The side of our desk sported two long, jagged marks. And the top of an end table showed a cluster of little nicks. After I had considered all possible kinds of reasons to the unknown responsible party, I decided something had better be done. Feeling highly clever, I called the company which had sold us our furniture and poured out my woe. They must be used to hysterical brides because they took it in stride and came up with the answer—use a scratch cover polish.

Fast as I could make it, I scurried to the store, took the man's recommendation, and came home with my polish. Old English scratch cover polish saved the furniture, my disposition, and then and there we formed a life-long friendship. I followed the label directions and applied the polish with a cloth directly to the scratches. Next, the entire surface was covered. Last, I wiped dry with a clean cloth... and stepped back amazed! That one easy application made the scars blend smoothly into the wood and brought back all the original beauty! Once over the "scratch blues" I realized that my new standby really did two jobs at once: it hid scratches and polished furniture beautifully—both at the same time!

Thanks to Old English, I've survived another crisis. If I can find an easy solution to the next problems that are sure to crop up why I might not live to a ripe old age!

What's phosphorus to a pig?

Just a half a pound of your 250-lb. pig is phosphorus. This seems a small amount. But without it, your pig would die. And there are other minerals just as vital to livestock. Some they need in quite large amounts... calcium and sodium as well as phosphorus. Others we call trace elements. These they need in very small amounts... such as cobalt, iron, copper and manganese.

But your animals do need these trace elements. The people at the agricultural colleges have proved that past all doubt. Some minerals are a "must" if you want to raise healthy, fast-gaining cattle. That goes for lambs and hogs, too. For example, those men find that grass and grains in Dade County, Florida, are short of copper and iron. Chatham County, Washington, needs iodine to check goiter. They know that San Diego County, California, hasn't enough phosphorus. In Aroostook County, Maine, the scarce mineral is cobalt. Ranchers and farmers in these four corners of the country have this problem. Their feeds and forages are short of one or more vital minerals. Many other areas share the problem, including parts of the great Corn Belt.

But you ask, "How can I spot animals which suffer from mineral shortages?" It's not too easy. If the lack is serious, your stock may have rickets, "big neck," anemia or other ailments. But there are some early symptoms you can spot. These are bone chawing, loss of appetite, slow gains, rough and scrubby coats. Or just a general unthrifty condition gives you the clue. If you start feeding a mineral which contains the essential trace elements, you may bring them around fast. But if this doesn't work, then you should consult your veterinarian, county agent or agricultural college.

The common mineral deficiencies in your area are known. By feeding mineral-balanced rations, you can correct these lacks. Or you can build up the mineral content of the soil. Either, or both, of these will help you grow healthier livestock, at a lower cost.

MONEY and MEAT—In the fall months we run into an unusual situation in the livestock-meat packing industry. At that time we often see the year's high market for top finished beef cattle. And this top price usually is being paid when the average price for all cattle is moving in the opposite direction.

The high price is explained by the fact that during the fall we usually have the shortest supply of the year of well finished, long fed cattle. Brisk demand for this short supply naturally will force the price up.

The lower average price results from the annual move to market of huge numbers of grass-fed cattle.

About 20 per cent of all the cattle and lambs slaughtered during a whole year must be handled in September and October. Meat from these animals being slaughtered any given day generally is on the dinner table in less than 14 days.

Folks aren't likely to have any more money to spend on food during the fall months than in February, when fewer meat animals are being marketed.

Since beef and lamb is largely a fresh meat business, there's a lot of meat to eat during the fall months. Consequently, since consumers have no more money to spend, meat prices have to be lowered. And that's just what happens, as it usually does with an increased amount of meat to be sold and no increase in the amount of money with which to buy it. These lower meat prices are most noticeable, of course, in the large consuming centers where surplus supplies always can be moved at a price.

Naturally, then, livestock prices follow meat prices. Producers should keep in mind that the prices they receive for their livestock are governed by what the packer can get for the meat and the by-products. This is perfectly demonstrated, as we have pointed out above, when the price for one kind of cattle, in short supply, is moving up at the same time that prices of other cattle, in heavy supply, are moving down.

Supplemental Mineral for Wintering Range Ewes

by William H. Burkitt
Montana State College

Thirteen mineral elements are known to be necessary for normal functioning of an animal body. However, this does not mean that all 13 must be supplied in a mineral mixture. Many of them are present, under usual feeding conditions, in sufficient amounts for breeding ewes. Those lacking in Montana include sodium and chlorine (salt), iodine, phosphorus, and possibly cobalt.

Lack of sufficient iodine in the ration of pregnant ewes results in lambs being born with "big neck" (goiter). Thin wool in lambs may also result. If dead or weak lambs have shown "big neck" or thin wool at birth in past years, stabilized iodized salt should definitely be fed the ewes this winter.

Phosphorus deficiency may exist in wintering range ewes, particularly if there is little or no supplemental feeding. Abortions and weak lambs may result from deficient phosphorus. Pregnant ewes should have from 0.16% to 0.18% phosphorus in their feed. Many grass hays and mature-range grasses contain less than 0.15% phosphorus and some contain as low as 0.04% phosphorus. Bone meal, defluorinated rock phosphates, and monosodium phosphate are satisfactory sources of phosphorus. Palatability and consumption may be improved by mixing with salt.

Cobalt is believed to be needed by micro-organisms in the rumen. A lack results in loss of appetite, less feed consumption, and eventually starvation. A possible cobalt deficiency may be guarded against by mixing 1 ounce of cobalt salt with each 100 pounds of stock salt. (Editor's note: The principles of nutrition discussed above apply to most kinds of livestock and in all parts of the country.)

Hello Again!

We are glad to be back with the Swift page of information and ideas. What did we do all summer? Well, among other things, we visited with farmers, ranchers, agricultural editors and educators. And we rounded up the facts we need to make these messages interesting and useful to you producers. As we said away back in 1944—"This is your page, and we welcome suggestions from our readers." We still do. Just write to me at Swift & Company, Chicago 9, Illinois... And when you're in Chicago, drop in and see us.

LET'S SUPPORT OUR "MEAT TEAM"—You know, times change—but some folks don't change with the times. I'm thinking of the type of man who always thinks that someone is getting the best of him in business. He sells a load of steers. No matter what his return, he's not satisfied—the packer, the commission man, the retailer—somebody else always gets a "bigger slice." But, during this past summer, I talked to a lot of people about the livestock-meat industry and our mutual problems. And I found a refreshing, encouraging attitude—"Sure, we got problems. Who hasn't these days? But if producer, packer and retailer work together as the 'meat team,' we'll work things out..." It's just good business to have a decent regard for the contributions made by other members of your team. I hope you have followed the "Meat Team" advertisements of the American Meat Institute and will talk to your neighbors about them.

FACT CONFIRMED—Out in the West, whenever I passed a town with a local meat-packing plant, I thought, "This town, out here as there is lots of livestock, is well served by that local plant. But what about the distant cities filled with meat eaters and no nearby livestock production to speak of?" I know for a fact that meat has to travel an average of more than 1,000 miles to reach those consumers. The only way they can get meat is through the low-cost processing and marketing services provided by nationwide meat packers, like Swift & Company.

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS

British Ask Special Loan Favors; Senate Rejects Economy Measure; GI's Apply for War Risk Rebates

EDITOR'S NOTE: When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of Western Newspaper Union's news analysts and not necessarily of this newspaper.

BRITISH LOAN:

True to Form

Even before the talks got fully underway, the trend of the discussion concerning British-American finance deals was becoming familiarly clear.

THE PROBLEM was Britain's current financial crisis. The hope rested with U. S. procedure as it affects assistance. That the U. S. was thoroughly under the spell of British need and persuasion was shown in the statement that this government is hospitable to a proposal to relax terms of the British loan pact.

Under the current preliminary proposal, the U. S. would grant Britain permission to discriminate temporarily against American goods. Under the British loan pact, Britain got 3.75 billion dollars from the United States in return for a promise to treat American exports the same as those from British empire countries and Europe.

Now, the British want that requirement knocked out. Here's how the British plan would work:

BRITAIN could, for instance, refuse to license British buyers who want to buy American goods, but it could give "open licenses" to Britishers who, for example, wanted to import Italian goods. Since the Italian imports could be purchased with sterling, this would save Britain dollars.

Thus, with the monetary talks hardly underway, the British are asking a double burden of the American taxpayer—money from the taxpayer to solve Britain's economic problem while at the same time setting up what amounts to a boycott of American imports which will further cost the American taxpayer if he happens to be one of the businessmen affected by the ruling.

And, as the pattern seems to be, officials were reported favorable to the British proposal and — automatically, too — were planning to by-pass congress in implementing that approval.

WATCHMAKING:

Pioneered in U. S.

Many Americans believe precision watchmaking is an exclusively Swiss craft. Hence the small but lusty U. S. jeweled watch industry delights in pointing out that basic production methods now used by the Swiss were developed here a century ago, and that this "American system" was adopted by the Swiss about 1873.

Two years ago American craftsmen proved they hadn't lost their ingenuity. An Elgin, Ill., watch manufacturer introduced a rust-proof, acid-proof "durapower" mainspring which was called the most revolutionary advance in watchmaking since introduction of jeweled bearings 200 years ago.

Now by way of improving on perfection, the same factory announces its technicians have learned how to squeeze every last ounce of power out of the wonder-alloy mainspring.

Their method was to eliminate the conventional annealed arbor end of the spring, which had always been dead, unproductive weight. By pre-forming the arbor end, possible only with the new alloy, they have put the entire length of the spring to work. The result: A longer run of the watch between windings, hence a boon to lazy and forgetful thumbs and forefingers!

DIVIDEND:

Rebate for GI's

The federal government, in one of the most amazingly simple forms ever to come out of Washington, was receiving applications from World War II veterans for rebates on GI insurance premiums.

REJOICING over the windfall, surprised and delighted with the simple application form, veterans were flooding the mails with their application cards.

"It's like finding money on the street," one veteran declared.

The dividend payments from national life insurance surplus funds are to be made to persons who hold or have held these policies. The average payment is estimated at $175. To be eligible for a rebate, the veteran must have had his service life insurance in force at least 90 days. The dividend would not be issued on any service life insurance issued after December 31, 1947.

SPENDING:

Slash Rejected

The United States senate stood firm in support of President Truman's estimate of the financial needs of the nation for the next fiscal year.

A move to force the President to slash federal spending to a level 5 to 10 per cent below his advance estimates was defeated. But the margin was only three votes.

The economy amendment, had it carried, would have required the President to hold spending for the current fiscal year some two billion to four billion dollars below the estimates he made last January.

FOES of the proposed economy asserted it amounted to passing the economy buck to the President. Supporters of the amendment answered that the President was in better position than anyone else to determine where to cut.

After the decision on this issue, the senate passed by a voice vote a 14.00 billion dollar appropriation bill to pay for national defense—the cost of the army, navy and air force. This was 600 million less, however, than President Truman had asked.

IN OPPOSING the economy rider, Sen. Scott Lucas, majority floor leader, said the amendment was a "political gesture," an attempt to tell the President to do what congress lacked the courage to do. He asked if economy supporters would "impeach him" if Mr. Truman failed to cave as much as ordered.

On the contrary, contended Senator McClellan of Arkansas. "It is sound legislation necessary in the public welfare, and failure to balance the budget or hold the deficit to the minimum this amendment makes possible may well prove to be a stupid and dangerous blunder."

TELEVISION:

Color Must Wait

For those who want color in television, there were four more years of waiting.

That was the expressed conviction of a television manufacturer, Benjamin Abrams. He said that while color television had been demonstrated successfully, "it still is in the laboratory stage and it will be years before it is available for the general public." He then estimated the waiting time as four years.

Abrams said that at the present stage of development of color television, he did not believe manufacturers could turn out adapters for less than $300 to $500. And he estimated a set built especially for color would cost $1,000.

He declared present sets would not become obsolete even with the advent of color. But he said widespread interest aroused by the FCC exploration of color television was causing some prospective customers to postpone buying sets.

Abrams took issue with charges that manufacturers are deliberately holding back color video. He declared it would be in the manufacturers' own interest to bring out color sets quickly if they could produce them at prices within range of the general public.

Summing-up he said: "You can't push a button and have color television appear over night."

TITO:

How Long?

How long would Yugoslavia's Marshal Tito manage to hold out against Moscow? On-the-scene observers didn't give him long. They predicted that Tito would be liquidated by assassination or that Russia would abandon diplomatic maneuvering and move into Yugoslavia by force of arms.

THIS LATTER supposition was strengthened by the reported arrival of three Soviet mechanized divisions in southern Hungary. The general view in Belgrade was that the Soviet government had so involved its prestige in the 14-month campaign to destroy the present Yugoslav government that Moscow couldn't let Tito get away with anything further.

The presence of the new Soviet forces in Hungary was held indicative of the gravity of the new crisis between Belgrade and Moscow.

It was pointed out, however, that conditions which made Soviet operations successful in the Baltic states and in Poland do not exist in Yugoslavia. A direct attack might create a condition that could result in another European war.

THE RUSSIANS must realize that as well as anyone else. It will be interesting, therefore, to observe Russian strategy in the continuing onslaught against Tito's regime. If the Russians resort to military force, that action should notify the world that Moscow believes itself ready for war and is ready to face the issue.

If tactics of diplomatic attrition continue, then the embassies of the globe could safely hazard the opinion, and act upon it, that for all its sabre-rattling, the Kremlin is not ready to go to war—not just yet.

TRUMAN:

Long Memory

While President Truman may have nothing else in common with the symbolic GOP elephant, he shares the pachyderm's fame for long memory.

This was indicated by a recent story in Washington that the President appeared about to shake up the membership of the Fine Arts commission which opposed the controversial balcony Mr. Truman installed in the White House.

THAT BALCONY, as almost everyone will recall, was a bonanza for gag men and cartoonists, and, apparently, Mr. Truman didn't appreciate whatever humor might have been contained in the situation.

According to the Washington reports, Commission Chairman Gilmore D. Clark, who vigorously opposed the balcony project, has received no word from the White House since his term expired last March. Terms are about to expire for three other commission members and they, too, have received no communique from the White House about being reappointed.

During the winter of 1947-48 the dispute over the proposed balcony raged furiously after President Truman announced he wanted a second-floor "porch" built onto the White House. The Fine Arts commission formally voted disapproval and various architectural groups and citizens joined in.

THAT DIDN'T deter the President. Mr. Truman had the balcony built despite the criticism. The turmoil subsided quickly and many thought that was the end of the affair.

It might have been—but Mr. Truman, like an elephant, apparently, never forgets.

Moscow Bound

The Very Rev. Dr. Hewitt Johnson, dean of Canterbury, whose support of Russian ideologies has earned him the nickname, "Red Dean," is shown entering his car for the airport on the first stage of a trip to Moscow. This will mark his second journey to the Soviet capital since the war.

FARM AID:

Trace Sought

President Truman was casting about for an end to the feud on farm programs. To that end he invited a group of congressional leaders to the White House to discuss the situation.

Senator Thomas (D., Okla.) who is chairman of the senate agriculture committee expressed a hope the President "tells us exactly what he wants for a farm program next year."

HIGH-FLYING HIGHNESS . . . Among recent emigres arriving in New York on the S. S. General Balboa was White Russian princess Tamara Ugrinow, who is displaying the spirit of her 21 years by performing a jete, ballet terminology for "kicking the ceiling." The princess, brought here by the Church World Service, hopes to dance at the Metropolitan. She was held prisoner for three months in Yugoslavia.

DOUBLE-HEADER . . . Here is a couple of additions to the Philadelphia Athletics. Len Brissie, Athletic pitcher, beams as happily as if he had just pitched a no-hitter as he looks over his brand new twins, Ronald and Robert, in a Philadelphia hospital. Wife, Mrs. Dorothy Brissie, looks over the new twosome just as proudly but more modestly than Len. If the babies take the colic and cry at night, do you suppose the pitcher will issue a couple of walks? Or would you say Brissie now has two strikes on him?

MID-AIR MAGIC . . . Readying themselves for the coming plinkin season, Jimmy Knotts (left) and Captain Louis Allen, two veteran members of the forward wall at Duke University, Durham, N.C., give at the ball. Allen is Duke university's all-American candidate and Knotts should make his mark on the team. He is the younger brother of former Duke star, Ernie "Bear" Knotts. Football coaches all over the nation are beginning to gather the members of their squads together for limbering up and training for the 1948 season.

DOWN-UNDER UPSETTERS . . . One of the biggest upsets in the last dozen years of tennis was registered at Longwood Cricket club, Chestnut Hill, Mass., when this pair of ambitious Australian youngsters, George Worthington (left) and Frank Sedgman, held needed foreign bids, outwitted and outclassed defending champion Gordon Godfrey, Miami, and Bill Talbot, Wilmington, Del., to win 6-4, 1-2, 7-5, 6-3 in the quarter-final round of the US national doubles championships.

ONE AUTO CLUB LAUNCHES CAMPAIGN...

Some Drivers Act Late for Their Accidents

...AGAINST THE SAFE AND SANE DRIVER

By H. I. PHILLIPS

ALL DONE BY DAWDLERS

WATCH OUT! You're apt to get hit by a careful automobile operator, huh? You can never tell what those drivers who are in no hurry may do next. Wham! I knew it... another smashup due to one of those scoundrels of the highway, the cautious autoist!

The Automobile Club of New York, through William J. Gottlieb, its president, issues (with a straight or nearly so, face) a statement saying that dawdling drivers are a menace to safety, and urging that something be done about them. "While it is commonly believed that irresponsible, speeding, intoxicated or reckless drivers cause most accidents, many may be traced to those who drive cars too slowly," says the statement.

"When these slow drivers move out of the right-hand lane," says Mr. Gottlieb, "they create perils for faster drivers." (Ya don't say!) "This is utterly selfish and provocative of accidents," he adds. (How about some traps for slow drivers?)

However, "Anything to make the highways safer" is our motto. So let's rush up the following caution signs at once:

DRIVE FASTER
for
SAKE!
KEEP YOUR FOOT ON THE GAS!
IT SAVES LIVES
DON'T DAWDLE!
SCHOOL
ZONE
AHEAD

Or perhaps a few reading "SLOWPOKES CAUSE ACCIDENTS," "TAKING YOUR TIME FORBIDDEN," "ARE YOU DRIVING FOR PLEASURE? SHAME ON YOU" and "DON'T RISK LIFE AND LIMB BY PROCEEDING WITH CAUTION."

Of course, it is just possible the auto club is looking for some publicity. Auto associations are like that. But it is dangerous stuff these dizzy days on the highways to belittle the slow driver and classify him with the drunk, the roadhog and the speed maniac.

The dawdlers are mighty few and you never hear of one running over a child, crushing a baby carriage on a crowded sidewalk or going through a drugstore window. And who are those rough, tough, inconsiderate schmoo who may be seen tearing down our crowded highways at homicidal speed in trailer trucks? Just dawdlers out for a pleasant dawdle, eh?

(Note: At this point this article had to be concluded. The writer heard a terrific crash and rushed out to see what had happened. He found a truck, a bus and two sedans full of picknickers in a tangled mass. Well, that's what comes of caution.)

Anne Notre, the Jersey gal, who won that "Hollywood Calling" gets among other things a trip abroad, an ermine coat, a diamond ring, a sedan, two poodles and a year's supply of dog food free.... That stirs ya ed.

"There is no need for anyone to intervene between the businessman and the government in procuring government contracts. Let me repeat, there is no need to have any broker between the businessman and the government to do business."—Louis Johnson. Well, we'd like to see some newspaper send a businessman to Washington about doing business with it and record his progress trying to see the right man.

"Ignorance and uncertainty on the part of the businessman as to how he should proceed and whom he should see have been the basic causes for his succumbing to the five percenters," added Mr. Johnson. Never was a truer word spoken. And the bureaucratic red tapers, whose chief delight is playing hard-to-find and whose motto is "Never do anything in a half hour that can be stretched over a month," would die rather than relieve the ignorance and uncertainty.

THE GOTHAM BUGLE & BANNER

Tobacco Road reached London the other night... British stamina continues to get a rigid test... Western Union reports a deficit of nearly four million... Those "Having a wonderful time; wish you were here" telegrams must have been cut to "Arrived Okay, Tooth"... And nobody wants a singing telegram unless it's delivered by Edie Piaza... Singer Rogers is divorcing her third husband... Love is like that.

Vending Machine Move Proves Business-Better

A. R. Geist hated to tear down the attractive little building which had been his office when his Traffic Circle service station at Still Valley, N. J., grew up and required larger quarters.

Instead, he moved all the vending machines he had put in over the course of years into one spot in the old building, added a few comfortable chairs, and invited careworn patrons to use the building as a lounge.

The relocation did so well for both the vending machines and the service business that Geist is planning to add a frankfurter machine, a hot coffee machine, selling coffee in paper cups, more cold drink machines, and an ice cream vendor so that he can offer motorists a 100 per cent automatically dispensed lunch. Attractive feature of the plan to Geist is that it requires no extra labor.

The Greater Love

THE sight of others' suffering hurts me so. How can God bear it, he who knows so well The innermost recesses of the heart That hold the secrets tongues can never tell? I wonder at it often as I see Some child in pain, some aged one in distress—When my heart aches with pity, how can God Restrain a hand with power to heal and bless?

I question it, and then I know, I know! I learn it in this school which I attend: Whatever hurts us, hurts his great heart more; Whatever else may fail, he is our friend. He does not send our grief, or pain or loss, But if we wait and trust him as we should; I am quite certain his great love will turn Ultimately, all things for our good.

GRACE NOLL CROWELL

Star Dust STAGE-SCREEN-RADIO

By INEZ GEBHARD

MARIE WILSON, in New York to help publicize the hilarious screen version of "My Friend Irma," was probably the most cooperative actress Paramount has worked with in a long time. Also one of the nicest. "I want to go on making comedies," she said. "But with the radio 'My Friend Irma' going on, I won't have to take just anything that's offered." Pre-views

MARIE WILSON of the picture have been so enthusiastically received that a sequel, "Irma Goes West," is being prepared, to be made with the same cast. Three members of it, Miss Wilson, Dean Martin and Jerry Lewis, the comedians, have been signed for "That's My Boy." So she's back on the screen to stay.

More about the pretty Marie. Arriving on one of New York's hottest days, she posed on a lead of ice for news photographers. Her dog, a true lens hound, promptly scrambled up beside her and gazed into the cameras.

If you have a Mark Warnow Victor Record (No. 27068-BO) of "The Music Goes Round and Round" you may be able to get $10 for it. Mark Goodson and Bill Todman, producers of CBS' "Spin to Win," use it as their theme song, and they've worn their disc thin. So they will pay that sum for the first 10 records they receive—in good condition, of course.

Tipsters and radio columnists cannot cue listeners to the "Kate Smith Calls" show about the week's Mystery Personality. Each broadcast features a new celebrity, and a contestant must do some on-the-spot guesswork.

Betty Hutton, whose "Red, Hot and Blue" will be released before the end of the year, will make "Annie Get Your Gun" for MGM, then will do "The Life of Theda Bara" and another story based on the life of Mack Sennett.

The Fiction ACTING ON IMPULSE Corner

By Richard H. Wilkinson

"IT'S ABOUT TIME," said Uncle Ralph, "that you, my dear Constance, were married. You're nearly 23, which is the verge of the ineluctable age. Don't let popularity turn your head, my dear, it won't last forever. One of these days you'll find yourself seeking a man, instead of being sought after. And that," Uncle Ralph added, "often means disaster."

Connie Brigham wrinkled her cute little turned-up nose, closed one eye and stared soberly at Uncle Ralph with the glitter. Uncle Ralph cleared his throat and began to let his gaze wander about the room. He felt guilty.

"Which," said Connie, with the slightest of twinkles, "in a polite way of suggesting that I accept Bob Merrill, and forget all about Don Baxter. She stood up and ruffled Uncle Ralph's hair, an act which he received delightfully. And Connie went on: "Uncle Ralph, just why is it that you dislike Don so much? I think he's fascinating."

Uncle Ralph snorted. "Donald Baxter," he said, "is not a fit young man to become the husband of any girl. He's flighty, unreliable, impulsive, and out of a job. You never can tell what he's going to do next."

"He's romantic," said Connie. "He's after your money," said Uncle Ralph. "And he's so good looking," said Connie.

Uncle Ralph coughed. "On the other hand, Bob Merrill is dependable, honorable, manly, steady. You can count upon him to make you a good husband."

"That's just the trouble," said Connie. "What's just the trouble?" said Uncle Ralph. "He's steady and dependable. So easy to read. Life with Bob would be safe, yes, but it would also be monotonous."

WITH THIS in mind Uncle Ralph rose from the veranda chair in which he was sitting, only to see Connie coming slowly up the walk. He sat down again, and picked up his newspaper. Connie came on, "deleful and sorrowful of expression. She sighted Uncle Ralph, stopped and smiled whimsically.

"I guess you were right," she said. "About what?" asked Uncle Ralph. "Don." "Don? How was I right about Don?" "About never knowing what he's going to do next."

"What's he done, now?" "He's married. Decided to last night about 6 o'clock. At 6:30 he was a married man." "Oh, hum," said Uncle Ralph. He was not one to gloat, hence suppressed his delight with a masterful effort. He merely said mildly, "Well, that's that. Sort of turned out like I said it would. Well, you'll be happier with Bob. He's a man in a million."

Connie shook her head. "I can never marry, Bob, Uncle Ralph. That's what makes me feel so bad." "Tuck, tuck. That's no way to talk. You'll get over Don soon enough. Bet a thousand the girl he married isn't worth one-tenth of you."

"Yes," said Connie, "she's worth all of me. I'm the girl—Don married."

The only country in the world where you can still choose your own style of clothing; choose to build a home of your own; choose the materials and location. Take away the right to choose, to select, and to own and you destroy democracy. On a nationwide scale here's how Americans choose to spend their incomes. They spend four times more for food than they do for housing and rent. They spend 1 1/2 times more for clothing and 1 1/2 times more for household expenses. They spend as much on liquor and tobacco as they do on homes and they spend twice as much for liquor, tobacco, travel, entertainment, horseracing, cosmetics and other things rarely referred to as necessities than they do on housing.
