HOOVER COMMISSION REPORTS

"With five bills substantially conforming to the Hoover Commission Recommendations passed by Congress to enable estimated savings of $1.25 billions a year, 20 per cent of the reorganization program has already been enacted in to law," Dr. Robert L. Johnson, National Chairman of the Citizens' Committee for the Hoover Report and President of Temple University, declared in a recent address before the Philadelphia Chapter of the Military Order of World Wars at the Union League Club.

Asserting that "during the past three-and-a-half months more reorganization in the Executive Branch of the Federal Government has been accomplished than at any previous time in the nation's history," Dr. Johnson said that despite this gratifying fact there was "urgent necessity for continued public interest in the Citizens Committee's program" if the recommendations of the Hoover report were to be adopted in their entirety.

"The minute citizen action slows down the reorganization program slows down with it," he continued. "Almost any major reform can be accomplished when the Administration and the Citizens Committee are operating in the harness together. All major accomplishments to date have occurred in fields where the Administration and the Citizens Committee united to favor specific proposals."

Dr. Johnson quoted from a letter he had received from Secretary of Defense Louis Johnson after the latter had effected drastic economies in the military Establishment, saying that "without the wonderful work of the Committee, such a start in eliminating unnecessary expenditures would not have been possible. With your continued support and the interest of the good citizens of this country I am hopeful this action will benefit the economy of the Nation without reducing its efficiency of defence."

Calling attention to the fact that the cost of the Federal Government was five times what it was before World War II and ten times what it was 20 years ago, Dr. Johnson said that "fifty years ago we spent $500,000,000 a year for the whole Federal Government. This year we will spend that much on the Post Office Department alone."

Referring to former President Hoover's birthday anniversary speech, Dr. Johnson pointed out that "the average citizen works 47 days a year to support the Federal Government, and gets less for his dollar in the market place all the time. Yet we are going deeper and deeper into debt each year."

At ceremonies following his speech to the organization, Dr. Johnson was presented with a life membership card.

The nonpartisan, nonprofit Citizens Committee for the Hoover Report was formed to rally public opinion behind the recommendations for government reforms proposed in the now famous Hoover Report.

The Committee welcome to membership all patriotic Americans who are interested in "better government at a better price."

Is Bigness Bad? Many critics of our American system see big business as a special target for their attacks. According to their charges, big business throttles competition, creates monopolies, maltreats labor, and kills small enterprises. Their attitude toward big business represents more than a natural dislike for bigness in business. It also shows their awareness in using the propaganda weapon to destroy our system. If they should succeed in getting public opinion on their side, it soon would be reflected in legislation which could well destroy this segment of our economy, and eventually turn our entire economy into state socialism.

"Grown Up" Business Big business is nothing but small business grown up. They grew up because the public allowed them to do so. No business can become big business without public approval. Public approval cannot be bought. It is earned through the hard-work process of competing against scores of other companies and giving John Q. Public a better washing machine, dress, or automobile for his money. As demand for a product grows, facilities must be increased to meet that demand. A business grows as the public, with its buying, dictates.

Good Dividends As business grows, it becomes more efficient and makes possible real savings to the public. Our $1,500 mass produced automobile would cost $19,000 if built with the tools of 1909. Mass purchasing, production and distribution result in economies impossible to small business. Larger investment provides also the necessary extensive research demanded by keen competition. This huge investment pays dividends to workers, too. Labor-saving tools multiply the productive capacity of the worker and ease the load from his back. This greater production allows him higher pay and shorter hours and puts him in a class far above workmen of any other nation.

Bad for Whom? Small business has fared well in this progress story. You see, big business has created thousands of enterprises that owe their existence to its production. Without the huge output provided by the automotive industry, the average city would be without its many accessory stores, radiator shops, repair shops, filling stations, parking lots, and garages. Far from being exterminated, small business continues to develop. Big business has made a striking contribution to our nation's prosperity and progress. As long as it is operated by human beings, there will be occasions for justifiable criticism. However, minor criticisms must not be allowed to destroy the true importance of big business to a growing nation. It is essential to a continued dynamic economy. The public, having created big business, will further prosper by its continuance.

Love So Amazing

Lesson for November 13, 1949

LONG AGO riding in his slow chariot through the southern sands, a puzzled reader with Isaiah 53 in his hands asked the question, other readers have asked ever since: Does the prophet speak of himself or of some other? The answer given by Philip (see Acts 8) has been the answer of the church ever since: This prophecy can be understood only in the light from Calvary's Cross. Philip did not say, and we need not insist, that the prophet had Jesus, and Jesus only, in mind when he wrote.

What we do say is that while these words might have described some one the prophet knew, might have described the whole nation of Israel, might even have described himself, still the words make but a poor picture of any one else, compared with the picture they make of Jesus.

The Scarlet Thread

ISAIAH 53 has been in the center of the church's thinking about Christ from the beginning. It may be said to run like a scarlet thread through the New Testament. It was in the back of the minds of Paul and John and Peter alike. This great prophecy sheds a light on what otherwise had been a black opaque blot—the death of Christ.

What would otherwise be simply a horrible tragedy, perhaps the greatest tragedy of history, the perfect case of complete injustice, the final evidence that there is no God, in the light of Isaiah 53 becomes a center of glory.

Instead of being ashamed of the cross on which Jesus died, the church sings, "In the cross of Christ I glory." "Love so amazing, so divine, demands my soul, my life, my all."

We believe that Christ suffered not for his own but for others' sake. Suffering, not forced but willingly undergone, suffering not as mere pain but that others might be saved, suffering on behalf of others and for love of them—this is the key to the riddle of existence, this is the key to the heart of God.

Not Christ Alone

IF CHRIST'S MEN had refused to follow where he led, if all Christians had been willing to let him carry, alone, the burden of the world's sin and grief, there never would have been any Christianity—for there would never have been any Christians. Peter and James and the rest of the apostles would have refused to die for Jesus' sake. The noble army of martyrs would have been an ignoble army of cowards.

No missionary ever would have left home and comforts and country; no mother would have laid down her life for her children; the unselfish service of those who have cared for the sick and the orphaned would never have been done; indeed, had no one ever been willing to suffer for the benefit of others, one wonders whether the world could have even held together this long.

Christ died that the world might live, yes; but others also had to die to make his death avail. He died for Africa, that Africans might live; but Africans died till men like Livingstone and Schweitzer and many a less famous man and woman also went out and lived there in loneliness and died in pain.

Christ died for the little children of the poor, but until the Salvation Army and others like them went down into the slums and suffered there with and for them, those poor little people died without so much as dreaming that God might love them.

Christ died for all the lepers in the world; but until a Father Damien, and others no less Christ-like, went among the outcast lepers and became outcasts themselves for the love of Christ, those lepers died in the dark.

"Let Him Take His Own Cross Daily"

YES, Isaiah 53 pictures the self-sacrifice of our Lord, above all. But any one who has any intention of being a true servant of God must be willing to find his own life-direction right here. The world does not need more pain; it does need those who will suffer pain to serve others in Christ's name.

Danger of Fires Worse on Farms Suggestions Advanced For Preventing Blaze

Of an estimated fire loss of 11,000 lives and nearly 700 million dollars in property and resources indicated for the year 1949, a great percentage of these losses will be made up of fires on the farm.

Because of lack of fire protection or adequate fire-fighting facilities, farm fires in almost every case are the most disastrous, because of the almost inevitable complete loss which results.

Already the national board of fire underwriters has reported property destruction from fire in the amount of 398 million dollars, 8.9 per cent below the same period for 1948. But even if a downward trend should continue for the remainder of 1949, this year's losses would approach the 1948 all-time high of more than 711 million dollars.

These figures mark 1948-49 as the most disastrous period in a decade that has recorded five billion dollars in fire destruction. Between 1940 and 1949, fire loss soared 132 per cent.

As the "prime cause" of most of the 800,000 fires annually, the Board lists "plain carelessness and misuse of heating and lighting equipment." The leading single cause of fire is careless smoking and use of matches, accounting for 16.63 per cent of the total destruction. However, over the past ten years, the combination of defective chimneys and flues, stoves, furnaces, boilers and their pipes, and sparks on roofs has been responsible for 29.47 per cent of all fires reported.

Proper safeguards in installation and maintenance of heating equipment, chimneys and flues, safety officials say, will prevent fires of this type. Many communities already protect their citizens with ordinances requiring the installation of fire linings in all new chimneys. One effective means of fireproofing chimneys involves the use of clay flue lining which forms a single, continuous nonflammable unit inside chimneys of all types. The indestructible clay lining prevents weather, heat and corrosive smoke and gases from eating away the mortar between the bricks of the chimney. This eliminates the danger of flames reaching combustible materials through cracks between the bricks.

Authorities urge homeowners to make a careful inspection of chimneys and heating equipment.

U.S. Agricultural Unit Helped Penicillin Use

Although the U.S. department of agriculture did not make the discovery of penicillin, its work made it practical to produce the antibiotic commercially. They discovered a new and more productive strain of the penicillin mould. Also as a part of their war research work they developed methods of feeding the mould and separating and purifying the product. A major contribution to itself.

Research Plan Opens New Fight On Schizophrenia

NEW YORK—A comprehensive research program and important new discoveries are helping mankind's conquest of schizophrenia. Details have been made public by Dr. Nolan D. C. Lewis, field director of the study of the mental ailment being made by the supreme council of the Scottish Rites Masons at a cost of $750,000.

This all-inclusive study, believed to be the first of its kind, was summed up by Dr. Lewis as offering "many of the missing pieces of the puzzle that is schizophrenia."

"This disorder known as schizophrenia is like a gigantic jigsaw puzzle with pieces missing," he said. "However, many of them have been found and fitted together and the missing ones are becoming fewer."

Study Infants

The researchers struck at schizophrenia from all possible directions. They studied the infant, the nursery school child, the adolescent and the aged. They looked at the parents, especially the mothers, of schizophrenics, and at the children of psychotic parents. They tried to find the answer to the question: "What type of person is likely to succumb to schizophrenia?"

They studied the effect of physical treatment, such as shock and insulin on patients, and of psychological treatment, such as group therapy. They analyzed what bodily changes took place during the illness.

These projects, plus the 226 articles, monographs and books that the money helped to finance, were described as representing a program that isolated the illness and "brought all the principal issues involved into a clear focus."

The seriousness of this illness is shown, by the fact that "in the civilian population each year thousands of unsuspecting souls are struck down suddenly by the living death known as schizophrenia, which is particularly cruel because its victims are often children and adolescents."

Terrifying Thought

The mentally ill now occupy more than 50 per cent of the nation's hospital beds and schizophrenia accounts for the largest percentage of those who are mentally ill, he pointed out.

"It is terrifying that we have been able to predict that next year so many thousands of persons will start their weary march to the mental hospitals and that we are powerless to halt them and in most cases to help them."

"We have not known why certain people break down in the struggle to survive in this uncertain world—why they must literally 'go out of their wits' to escape its pain."

The groundwork for the program was laid down fifteen years ago by Dr. Lewis, who visited more than 200 laboratories, hospitals and other scientific centers and read hundreds of scientific papers, after which he wrote a book called "Research in Dementia Praecox" (now known as schizophrenia).

Least Three Acres Land In Bridgewater Township

SOMERVILLE, N. J. — Three acres of land are lost on either First Mountain or Second Mountain of the Watchung range, officials of Bridgewater township believe. Taxes are paid on the plot every year, although no one knows where it is.

William H. Cunningham, township engineer, dug up an old description that seemed to indicate that the Shangri-La might be part of the old Tebbles property.

"Trouble is," he said, "that the Tebbles departed long ago, leaving no heirs, assigns or successor. The Tebbles were one of the old first families around here and they had quite a large holding. This three acres was probably part of it, but we don't know which part. Can't seem to find out, either."

Nominal taxes have been paid on the three acres for the last forty-one years and the present owners are Mr. and Mrs. Walter Mills of Astoria, L. I. They started the Bridgewater Township committee on a search for the land by saying that they would like to look at it after all these years.

James J. Cunningham, tax collector for the township, said his records showed that the property was owned by Walter Martin, care of Mrs. E. Mills, Astoria. Collector Cunningham, unrelated to Engineer Cunningham, said Mr. Martin was the first husband of the present Mrs. Mills. The tract measures 100 by 1,400 feet, but the deed gives no "place of beginning." The deed was executed in 1909.

For the last few years the township has been trying to get up a tax map, without making much headway. If the missing three acres is not located by the time the map is finished, it may turn up purely through the elimination of identified property. Collector Cunningham said that might take a long time, though. He expects to continue levying taxes on the land while he tries to find it.

 - 1/2-3/4 cup milk
 - 1 tablespoon melted butter
 - 2 tablespoons honey
 - 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
- Sift flour, baking powder and salt. Cut in shortening. Add enough milk to form a soft dough. Turn out on lightly floured board and knead 1/2 minute. Divide into two equal portions. Roll each portion into a circle and spread with melted butter and honey; sprinkle with cinnamon. Cut into pie shaped pieces. Roll up beginning at wide end. Bake in a hot (400°) oven for 10-12 minutes.

Orange-Date Muffins
(Makes 12 muffins)

- 1/2 cup sifted flour
- 1 1/2 cups whole wheat flour
- 2 teaspoons baking powder
- 1 tablespoon sugar
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1 cup dates, chopped fine
- Grated rind of 1 large orange
- 1/4 cup molasses
- 1 egg, beaten
- 1 cup milk
- 1/2 cup melted shortening

Sift together white flour, baking powder, sugar and salt. Add dates and orange rind; mix well. Add whole wheat flour. Combine molasses, egg, milk and melted shortening. Add to dry ingredients and mix only until ingredients are moistened. Do not beat until smooth. Spoon batter into well greased muffin pans, 2/3 full. Bake in a hot (400°) oven about 20 minutes.

Leftover meat and chicken can be made into really generous hot sandwiches if they're dipped in egg-milk mixture, then fried. Serve with spiced fruit for a completely satisfying supper.

Hardcooked eggs, cut in quarters, swimming in rich cream sauce with pink shrimp, are hard to resist when served on small, split, toasted and halved biscuits.

Popovers split and filled with creamed chicken or chipped beef will satisfy the hungriest crowd for Sunday evening suppers.

Which Will You Have?

Foolish question? Not at all. In countries where freedom has vanished some people may own bikes, but cars may never be within their reach. The American standard of living provides abundantly. Installment buying with the aid of bank credit also is part of the answer. A bank auto loan at low cost helps many families to own new cars!

Let's Keep The Record Straight

"Two years without a hunting fatality in New Mexico is a record we are mighty proud of, and by the Grace of God and a little common sense we will avoid one this year," State Game Warden Elliott Barker said today.

"Injury from guns is thought of in two classes. One is injury from a gun accidentally discharged in a car, in camp or in the field, while the other type is the shooting of another hunter by mistaking him for some kind of wild game. The first type can be avoided by using the proper care with firearms. There is no possible excuse for the latter ever to happen.

"The best slogan for hunters to keep in mind to avoid hunting accidents is 'Be Sure It's Legal Game Before You Shoot'. If a man takes time to figure out just what species of game he sees and in case of deer, whether it is a buck with forked horns, there will be no danger of killing a fellow hunter," Barker said. "And it will also eliminate the deplorable killing of does and fawns and livestock. Always Be Sure It's Legal Game Before You Shoot."

SEND GIFTS EARLY

The deadline for mailing gifts to many foreign countries in order to assure their delivery prior to Christmas is rapidly approaching, according to T. U. Purcell, District Manager for the U. S. Department of Commerce in El Paso.

"In just a little more than two months Christmas will be with us, and joy of giving will be ours once again," Mr. Purcell said, "and to make sure that we do reap the full enjoyment of giving and, just as important, that our friends and relatives in foreign countries receive our gift packages with a minimum of delay and without expense to themselves, all of us should fully understand the regulations of this and other countries relating to the shipment of gift parcels."

Many countries make no provision for the duty-free entry of gift parcels, while others have certain restrictions which prohibit some items from being included in gift parcels. Mexico, for instance, has a long list of items under temporary import prohibition, and levies its regular import duty rates against those items which are permitted entry.

Import duties cannot be prepaid by sender, but for many countries to which Americans regularly send gift parcels, international money order facilities are available so that it is possible to send the recipient money to defray expense of duty and delivery charges.

Purcell suggests that anyone thinking of sending Christmas gift parcels to foreign destinations should ask his office for a copy of the Commerce Department's gift package memoranda for the country to which the package is going. The memoranda contain the regulations of the particular country affecting the treatment of gift packages, and may be obtained from the El Paso District Office of the U. S. Department of Commerce, in the El Paso Chamber of Commerce Building, without charge.

COUNTY KEY BANKER SAYS
FARM DEBT HAS NOT INCREASED
DESPITE MILLIONS SPENT FOR FARM AND RANCH IMPROVEMENTS.

While New Mexico farmers and stockmen have spent millions for improvements, soil conservation, and the purchase of new equipment since the war's end, farm and ranch debt has made no significant increase; and savings in cash, bank deposits, and United States Savings Bonds are at record levels, according to Mr. F. O. Brown, Ass't Cashier, Citizens State Bank, who represents the New Mexico Bankers Association as a county key banker.

"New Mexico farm and ranch families are going through these final months of adjustment from a war to a peacetime economy with very little disturbance," he said. "They are maintaining a sound financial position; and while they are using more credit for improvements and new equipment, their obligations are being paid off in relatively short time and they are adding to their already substantial financial reserves."

Reporting on the results of a fifth national survey of bank lending made by the Agricultural Commission of the American Bankers Association, Mr. Brown said that "total farm and ranch debt held by the banks of the state at the beginning of 1949 amounted to only about $18,000,000, compared with $16,000,000 on January 1, 1948. In addition to this amount, there are $6,056,000 in Commodity Credit Corporation loans held by the banks cooperation with the government's farm price support program."

In 1948, the last full year of operation, the 49 New Mexico banks serving agricultural communities loaned $44,693,000 to 12,699 ranchers and farmers. This represents 42.8 per cent of all farmers and stockmen in the state. Of the total amount, 12,227 farmers and stockmen borrowed from the banks to finance production in an aggregate amount of $43,296,000. Of these loans, only $16,499,000 outstanding at the beginning of this year. During the year, there were 472 farmers and ranchers representing only 1.6 per cent of all those in the state, who made real estate loans in an aggregate amount of $1,397,000. The prosperity of the farms and ranches is shown by the fact that of these long term debts, there were only $1,898,000 outstanding at the beginning of 1949. This was a decrease of about $100,000 from the preceding year. The total of all bank-held farm and ranch debt on January 1, 1949, was $18,397,000.

"The farm and ranch mortgage debt in New Mexico remains only about one-half of what it was in a comparable period after World War I," Mr. Brown pointed out.

He stated that agriculture borrowings are usually a reliable indicator of the economic condition of agriculture and that one of the brightest aspects of the present situation is the fact that the average loan per borrower during 1948 for production purposes was only $3,541, and the average loan made on farm real estate was only $2,960.

Cash reserves held by New Mexico farmers and ranchers, which are being consistently increased, are estimated to be sufficient to retire all their debt," Mr. Brown said. "However they are wisely holding the reserves as a safeguard against emer-

Recruiting service regulations permit the enlistment in high enlistment grades of officers who are to be released from active duty, according to T Sgt. Glen L. Hagge, Army & Air Force Recruiting Sergeant in Alamogordo. Such regulations insure that any officer who is slated for relief from active duty as an officer and who desires to continue in the military services, may continue on duty in a high enlisted grade, according to the branch of service in which he desires to serve, and the conditions under which he was accepted for commissioned status and released from active duty.

The purpose of the desire of the services to have ex-officers enlist is to retain their ability and training in the service. The advantages of the retirement program and extra pay for length of service continue from officer to enlisted status.

The recruiting Sergeant in Alamogordo will be glad to consult with officers contemplating relief from active duty, and has pointed out that the varied conditions under which each officer has seen service require individual attention to insure complete advantage of the rights and privileges under the law.

Of the record-breaking sale of 2,127,598 Federal "Duck Stamps" to sportsmen and collectors for the period July 1, 1948 to June 30, 1949, New Mexico Sportsmen purchased 2,010. State Game Warden Elliott S. Barker said today.

The largest sale in any state for the last fiscal year was 171,389 in California while Texas moved to second place with 164,075 sales.

Duck stamps, according to Barker, formerly cost $1.00 but this year's duck stamps which are now on sale at Post Office through the country cost $2.00.

"With the season beginning at noon Friday, Oct. 14, it might be well to remind sportsmen that every hunter of migratory birds who is 16 years of age or older must have on his person a duck stamp of current issue with his signature in ink across its face," Barker said.

agencies and to enable them to buy new equipment and make improvements. The big demand for new equipment to replace that worn out during war years appears to have been satisfied. There is a statewide trend to improve livestock and crops and to practice modern conservation methods and land management. This trend insures a steady improvement in the condition of agriculture for many years in the future."

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS

Truman Renews Pledge of Support Of 'Safe Plan' for Atomic Curbs; Attlee Charts British Saving Plan

(EDITOR'S NOTE: When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of Western Newspaper Union's news analysts and not necessarily of this newspaper.)

MAKES BID FOR STEEL PEACE . . . Cyrus Ching (facing camera) director of the U. S. mediation service, is surrounded by newsmen as he arrived from Washington to make another effort for settlement of the paralyzing steel strike. These conferences were described as "exploratory," although Ching later reported that the situation was "not hopeless."

TRUMAN:

Supports A-Curbs

"To assure that atomic energy will be devoted to man's welfare and not to his destruction is a continuing challenge to all nations and all peoples."

In those words, President Truman pledged his support to any safe and effective plans that would outlaw the atomic bomb.

THE PRESIDENT spoke at a ceremony in which the United Nations laid the cornerstone for its permanent headquarters in New York city.

Mr. Truman called the cornerstone rites "an act of faith — our unshakable faith that the United Nations will succeed."

The President declared that control of weapons is essential to a peaceful world and said that "Ever since the first atomic bomb was developed, a major objective of U. S. policy has been a system of international control of atomic energy that would assure effective prohibition of atomic weapons . . . and at the same time would promote the peaceful use of atomic energy by all nations."

HE ENDORSED the Bernard Baruch control plan which was rejected by Russia.

The chief point of disagreement between western powers and Russia on atomic energy control has been insistence by the West on an effective means of inspection to see that nations would keep their pledges to outlaw the bombs. Russia wouldn't hold still for that proposal.

WORLD FRONT:

Spotty Picture

The world picture was spotty as international developments became increasingly confused. Washington development intensified the tension between the U. S. and Russia in the cold war, British and U. S. leaders were beginning to split on the issue of recognizing the Chinese Red conquering government. France was hard-pressed to organize its government, a Greco-Tito pact appeared possible and the U. S. closed its consulate at Dorian. A look at the overall situation showed that in.

WASHINGTON — The United States in a new crackdown on Russia had obtained an indictment against Amtorg, Russian purchasing agency in the U. S., and six of its officers on charges of falling to register as agents of a foreign power. The maximum penalty for violation of that law would be $10,000 fine and five years imprisonment. The firm itself was liable to a $10,000 fine. Shortly after U. S. attorney general McGrath announced return of the indictment, five of the Russians were arrested by FBI agents in New York. As was expected, Soviet officials vigorously protested the arrests. There had been repeated allegations in congress that Amtorg acts as an espionage agent. Said assistant U. S. attorney Edward R. Rigney: "Diplomatic passports don't constitute a defense for the crime charged here." The indictments did not charge Amtorg with serving as an espionage agency for the Soviets.

LONDON — There was a developing split between Great Britain and the United States on the issue of recognition of the Communist regime in China. Indications were that London would establish full diplomatic relations soon. However, this appeared contingent on whether the Communists would

GOLD RUSH

Pea-Size Nuggets Cast New Yukon Spell

The spell of the Yukon was reaching out again to heat the blood of men who seek quick fortunes in gold. Reports of nuggets "the size of peas" being found near Fishwheel in Alaska had been flashed throughout the territory and a new gold rush was on. Grizzled scoundrels, untried tenderfeet vied with each other to stake claims for the precious metal.

Norway Reports Progress In Atomic-Energy Study

Norway was getting along rather well with atomic research, according to a report by the council for scientific research.

The report said drilling for uranium in Sotesdal valley had been successful, and underground operations had started with a crew of 30.

The country's first atomic pile is being built near Oslo, and three universities have received equipment for atomic research.

ENGLAND:

More Austerity

In a drastic effort to rescue Great Britain from its financial morass, Prime Minister Clement Attlee charted an economic course designed to save 784 million dollars annually. He also ordered a cut of 400 million dollars in dollar imports.

THUS did the prime minister plot a course of more austerity for the British people.

The savings effected, or hoped to be effected, would result from lopping off spending for national defense, capital investments, public relations and food subsidies.

Attlee presented a quick, graphic interpretation of what was proposed. "We must reduce expenditure and increase production," he told the house of commons. But it wasn't as simple as the formula would seem to make it.

To the already austerity-weary Britons it meant that many of the goods for which they now have to stand in line for hours would be even more scarce. Gasoline and some food items would cost more. They would have to pay a 14-cent fee for medicines they were getting free under the national health program.

leave the British alone at Hong Kong and promise to respect their rights there. The difference on opinion between the U. S. and Britain on the subject of recognition was not considered as particularly serious and it was regarded here as an inevitable reflection of their differing national interests. While the U. S. has been withdrawing from China, the British are still "in" and hope to remain so for obvious economic and financial reasons.

DARIEN — Harassment by Chinese Communists had forced closing of the U. S. consulate there. The American consul and vice-consul from this Russian-controlled city moved to Seoul. The U. S. attaches who had spent 15 months here said Communist policies prevented their relief at the end of a scheduled eight-month tour of duty. At a news conference, the reported Communist obstacles had limited their movements severely. Vice-consul Culver Gleystein said he was once held four hours by Chinese Communist police and Soviet soldiers who accused him of "signaling out to sea" with the lights of his jeep.

HAWAII — The prolonged strike of dock workers at five of Hawaii's six ports was over at last. The CIO International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's union ordered its 2,000 striking stevedores to go back to their jobs. The men struck May 1, demanding a raise of 32 cents in their $1.40 hourly wage. The strike technically ended October 5, but continued, pending settlement of side issues involving working conditions, pay and other issues in outer island ports.

FARM FAIR:

World's Biggest

Something of interest to every agriculturist, from the man who wants to grow bigger potatoes to the high-booted cowboy with the prize-winning Hereford, is on the agenda of the Canadian Royal Winter Fair slated for Toronto's coliseum November 15 to November 23, omitting Sunday.

IN ADDITION there will be a complete display of the latest wrinkles in farm machinery and aids to more profitable operation.

The Royal Winter Fair has long been recognized as the world's largest agricultural exhibition staged under one roof. Sponsored by Canadian federal, grain and agricultural associations, the competitions carry with them many world championship awards.

FOR THE FIRST TIME in 20 years, competition in the seed and grain divisions will be thrown open to any grower in the world and thus will award the winner world championship honors. Some 10,000 prize ribbons together with thousands of dollars in monetary awards will be handed out.

Farm home displays, washing machines and a host of things interesting to women are always features of Canada's top winter fair.

GEN. VAUGHAN:

'Shock Absorber'

It was interesting to note the multiple interpretations Maj. Gen. Harry Vaughan, White House aide, was applying to his position of entertainer, aide and personal confidant of President Harry Truman.

AT A DINNER given by fellow Democrats in Washington, Gen. Vaughan, linked with the capital's "5 per centers" and mysterious John Maragon, one-time White House hanger-on, portrayed himself in a new light.

He is, he said, a "shock absorber," as it were, as well as a "part of the scenery" at the White House.

"IT IS NOT pleasant furnishing the throat," he went on, "but I might as well earn my pay by being a shock absorber . . . at the White House."

"I am an authority on investigations," he said. "We've had so many investigations in the last year or so that have laid an egg."

He pointed out that when administration critics complain about "trivial things," it's a healthy sign that "there is not a great deal that they can complain about."

THE "TRIVIAL THINGS" to which the general referred were charges that certain Washington figures with "influence" could swing government contracts and favors where they wished for a "5 per cent" fee, gifts of deep freezers to members of Washington's official family.

The general's personal popularity continued unimpaired. He and Mrs. Vaughan were elected honorary vice-presidents of the District of Columbia Democratic Club.

LEOPOLD:

No Poll, Please!

Former Belgian premier Paul-Henri Spaak wanted none of a proposed poll to determine if King Leopold should return to the throne.

SUCH AN ACTION might "destroy Belgium" Spaak declared in a radio address in Brussels.

Premier Gaston Eyskens, a pro-Leopold Social Christian, has proposed a country-wide poll on whether Belgians want Leopold back from his exile in Switzerland.

"I approve the prime minister's desire to solve the royal question," Spaak said, "but I do blame him, condemn him for trying to solve the royal question this way."

Gets Navy Post

Edward E. Whoox, former Philadelphia newspaperman, has been named special assistant to the undersecretary of the navy. He succeeds Cedric Worth, self-styled author of the "anonymous" document which touched off the D-56 probe.

ISOLATION:

A 'Big Peril'

In Chicago, Sen. Scott Lucas (D., Ill.) was sharply critical of a number of colleagues whom he called "an isolationist group of senators far more dangerous to the security of our democracy than the Communists and fellow travelers under orders of Stalin." Lucas, majority leader in the U. S. senate did not name the senators at whom he hurled the criticism, but he identified them as opponents.

AFTER YOU, MY DEAR PANDIT . . . President Harry Truman steps aside and asks Pandit Nehru, India's prime minister, to precede him to speaker's platform at Washington national airport after the Indian leader's arrival in the United States. In his welcoming speech, Mr. Truman praised Nehru as "the loved and respected leader of a great nation of free people." Nehru said his nation would fight abridgment of liberty wherever it is found.

REVOLUTIONARIES . . . Two of the 11 Communist bosses convicted on charges of conspiring to overthrow the U. S. government by violence leave federal court in New York handcuffed together. They are Harry Winston (left), organizing secretary of the Communist party, and Eugene Dennis, general secretary. Each of the 11 faces maximum sentence of 10 years and $10,000 fine.

SOMETHING NEW IN DENMARK . . . Mrs. Eugenie Anderson, Red Wing, Minn., watches her daughter play the piano. Mrs. Anderson has been appointed by President Truman as the first woman ambassador of the United States, and her post will be the capital of Denmark. She was national Democratic committee woman from Minnesota. "It's a great honor," she said, "and even a greater responsibility."

WANTED: A HOUSE AND HUSBY . . . Mrs. Jean Malinowski's advertisement in a Ravenna, Ohio, newspaper brought 13 quick proposals of marriage—all rejected. The 27-year-old divorcee wants a man with a home in which she can shelter her two children. She also requires that he earn at least $70 a week. Here, she answers an applicant by telephone on her daughter, Sharon Rose, 6, and Fedeine, 7, with a family, looking for a father, from in Cleveland.

How Church Chimes Rang For the Benefit of Brooklyn

By BILLY ROSE

This week I'd like to spin a little story—a very, very little story. It's of no great importance, and I won't get mad if the editor decides to file it in the wastebasket, and in its place print some big story about Marshal Tito or Rita Hayworth's baby.

To begin with, this story concerns itself with a church, and a lot of bright people will tell you a church is no longer of any importance in this test-tube and Bunsen-burner age. To make matters worse, the church is in Brooklyn, and—well, I guess you've heard plenty of jokes about how unimportant Brooklyn is.

One day last summer while driving past a church on St. Felix street in Brooklyn, I heard a set of chimes that did nice things to my ears. They were unusually good chimes, and I figured to have cost a lot of money. Naturally, I wondered how they happened to be in the belfry of a modest church in a modest neighborhood.

"What's the church with the chimes?" I asked a newsstand proprietor. "Hanson-Place Central Church," he said. "It's Methodist."

"Have they had those chimes long?"

"No," said the newsie. "I think they put them in about a year ago."

The next day I did some telephoning, and I liked what I found out.

WHEN REV. John Emerson Zetter, pastor of the church, heard about a new type of electrically-controlled chimes called Carillon bells, he told his congregation about them and said it would be a nice thing for the neighborhood if people going to work in the morning and coming home at night could hear those beautiful chimes. He told his flock the bells cost a lot of money, and suggested they contribute a little something from time to time.

Maybe in a year or so, the church could afford the bells.

Next day a member of his parish phoned. "I've been discussing the bells with my business partner," said the parishioner, "and we'd each like to donate a third of the cost. But there's a hitch."

"What is it?" asked the Reverend.

"Well, my partner is Jewish," said the businessman, "and we were wondering if that would make any difference."

Reverend Zetter said he didn't think it would make any difference at all.

"We think," continued the businessman, "that it would be a good idea to find a Catholic to put up the other third. After all, people of all faiths are going to enjoy these bells."

THE NEXT DAY a Catholic in the neighborhood offered to put up the remaining third, and the Carillon bells were ordered. At the dedication ceremony a couple of months later, a plaque was put up on the wall of this Methodist church, and inscribed on it were the names of the Catholic, the Protestant and the Jew.

And that's all there is to this story—this very, very little story. Do I think this one set of electrically-controlled bells is going to eliminate religious bigotry in Brooklyn? Of course not. Do I think the people in Flatbush will hear the chimes

DAWN

Of the dark, the light O Hearts, remember

The eternal truth God gives us as a sign
That after the dark, as glowing as an ember,
Deep at the core of life, a light will shine:
The light of hope, after the bitter weeping;
The light of peace, after the lengthened pain.
The Christian heart held close within God's keeping
Will find the dark skies brightening again.

The risen Christ is proof of light's returning;
The risen Christ is symbol of the dawn.
O you who have been striving, longing, yearning
To catch the light ahead, move out, move on.
You will find him there among the springtime flowers,
Among the clean winds of a new-born day.
He is the lamp for all our future hours;
He is the light to guide us on our way.

—GRACE NOLL CROWELL

are going to be kinder and more tolerant? Again, of course not.

Why, then, am I writing this piece? Well, I guess it's because I'm fool enough to think that even one drop of clean water falling on a dusty street is important. Who knows? It may clean up an inch of ground and give somebody else an idea.

One of these days—and I don't expect to be around to see it—a lot of drops of clean water may fall and a lot of dust may be washed away.

STAGE-SCREEN-RADIO

IT IS QUITE POSSIBLE that "The Heiress" will bring Paramount another Academy Award; if it does, most of the credit should go to William Wyler, who directed and produced it. Olivia de Havilland and Ralph Richardson, seen as an awkward, shy, unattractive daughter and her bully of a father, give cupert performances. As a suitor anxious to marry the girl for her money, Montgomery Clift is less satisfactory. Miriam Hopkins is excellent as the girl's aunt; in fact, the entire supporting cast deserves praise. "The Heiress" is even better as a picture than it was as a successful play—and William Wyler is largely responsible.

The Farra concentration camp sequences of "Stronghold" which Producer-Director Rossellini had been holding personally, have finally been turned over to the Technostampa Laboratory in Rome. This makes the entire footage of the film available to RKO—so it won't be too long now till we see Ingrid Bergman in what she says will be her last picture.

After playing golf left-handed for 10 years and reaching a two handicap, Ken Carson, of the Garry Moore show, has turned right-handed, on the advice of Pro Harry Cooper. Cooper says Ben Hogan did it—why not Carson?

Wearing a black wig, Bette Davis sneers and snarls her way through "Beyond the Forest," the rather tiresome story of a small-town girl who was willing to commit murder to get to Chicago. Miss Davis likes to play wicked women, but she should not have chosen this one. Joseph Cotton and David Brian do what they can to improve matters, but the picture is not good.

Rodd Weatherwax, owner and trainer of Lussie, has had to hire a new secretary just to handle the fan mail sent to the collic by fans of her NBC Saturday radio series. Much of it comes from children, and it comes by the bushel.

Ed "Archie" Gardner is a disappointment to his son, Ed, Jr. The five-year-old, who has the handsomest cowboy outfit in New York's Central Park, wishes his father had become somebody dashing, like the Lone Ranger.

Both Mike Romanoff and his famous Beverly Hills restaurant have been signed for top roles in "A Lovely Place," which Humphrey Bogart will make for Columbia. This is the first time the well known tavern has been shown in a picture in great detail. Since much of the film's action takes place there it was decided to use the restaurant itself rather than build a replica.

Care of Rubber Tile

QUESTION: I have almost new rubber tiles on my kitchen floor. Although the tiles are the best kind, I have to scrub them often and can't keep them clean. Black streaks come off from our shoes. I have to use a scouring powder to take off the streaks. We have no children, only four adults.

ANSWER: Use a good non-rubbing type of floor wax, and do not use harsh soaps or coarse abrasives. Wash only with mild soap, rinse well and dry. Apply the wax when needed.

What to give? What to give? If that question has you running around in circles this Christmas, here's a smart suggestion. Make a list of your friends who enjoy smoking. Then take the list into your neighborhood dealer. He has a well-stocked array of Ray Gill cartons of Camel cigarettes—yes, mild flavored Camels that bring pleasure with every puff. And for the pipe smoker or the man who likes to roll his own, your dealer will show you pound tins of Prince Albert Smoking Tobacco—the National Joy Smoke. Both these popular gifts come all dressed up in special, colorful Christmas wrappings. You don't even have to fuss with a personal greeting card—it's built right into the package for your easy-writing convenience. You'll be good to your friends and kind to your budget if you send them Camels and Prince Albert! —Adv.

Completely Secret Hearing Near Reality With Ultra-Small Aid

"It can't be built!" That's what electronics engineers told "Telex" 3 years ago, when they outlined plans for a revolutionary new hearing aid, smaller and lighter than any in existence.

But thanks to a miraculous "wireless circuit" printed on water-thin polystyrene plastic, the "impossible" is today a reality. The extraordinary new Telex 300 weighs only 3.4 ounces. It is smaller than any hearing aid ever built. It sets a new standard in clear speech understanding. It has a "built-in" battery economy that drastically reduces battery costs.

And with its case finished in genuine gold and silver (first ever offered—and at no advance in price), the new Telex 300 is certainly the most beautiful hearing aid ever designed.

For further information about the exciting new Telex 300, and about the three ways to truly secret hearing write: Mace L. Warner, 434 18th St., Denver, Colo. He will gladly send you complete details on how Telex can bring you hearing happiness. WRITE TODAY! —Adv.

SCOTT'S EMULSION HIGH ENERGY TONIC

The Fiction FORTUNE SMILES By Richard H. Wilkinson

CALEB WARE was a young man who quarreled with his father, and was turned away from his boyhood home. Caleb always said later that he went away of his own accord.

Fortune smiled on Caleb. Five years later he found himself prominent in the affairs of the small city in which he had chosen to live. Moreover, he was rich.

It was then that Caleb decided to go home. As the train began to climb into the fresh, clear air of the mountain-country, the tired look about his eyes vanished. Color appeared in his cheeks.

It thrilled him now to know that he was in a position to provide his father with all the comforts of old age.

He swung from the train at the tiny depot. Everything was the same; the cracker-box station, the general store, the postoffice and the few small dwelling houses.

A man with side whiskers and spectacles peered at him from the doorway of the depot.

"Hello, Banty. Where's your rig?"

The man stepped through the door. "Caleb Ware! Know yah anywhere! How be yah, Caleb?"

"Fine, Banty. And you?"

"Tol'able, Caleb. Just tol'able. Figure you got 'em out to the farm? Drive 'em out if you say so."

"Figured you would." He climbed into Banty's ancient rig, glad of this opportunity to ride with the station master and learn the news.

"Looks like you done quite well in the city," Banty suggested cautiously.

"Not bad," Caleb agreed. And he knew that feeling of triumph and victory at his success. He thought

"Caleb Ware! Know yah anywhere! How be yah, Caleb?" of his father's surprise and disappointment. It would be a bitter pill for old man Ware to swallow.

"How are things at the farm, Banty? How's dad?"

"Your dad's allin'," said Banty. "He ain't been right since you left five years ago."

"He left him? Why he turned me out!"

"Don't make no difference. You shouldn't a done it. He needed you at the farm. The place is plumb run down, and your dad ain't well."

Caleb felt suddenly that Banty was condemning him, that everyone in the village had condemned him.

"Dad isn't really bad, is he, too sick to work?" he asked.

"He is now. A month ago he was took bad. Ain't worked since." Banty spat and glanced at him sideways. "He won't be glad to see you, son, not like that. He's got too much pride."

CALEB UNDERSTOOD. He knew that his father would never take succor from a son who had deserted him, would never admit he needed the help of a traitor. He'd rather die starving than that.

Banty might have said more, but Caleb suddenly leaped from the slow moving buggy.

"You just keep on going, Banty, and forget you ever saw me. Dad need never know but what I come home because I had to."

Caleb plunged into the woods beside the road and discarded his coat and undid his pecktie. He walked for some distance through the heavy growth beside the highway. Branches tore at his linen and ripped great gashes. Briars clutched at his trousers and tore holes in them.

Thus Caleb came home. Sight of the farm gave him a pang. The house and grounds were run down and in need of repair. A cot had been placed on the year porch and on this cot Caleb saw the thin, gaunt figure of his father. He came and stood over the figure and looked down at it and smiled.

"Hello, Father," he said. "It's Caleb. I've come home to ask your forgiveness and to be taken in." His voice was humble.

Old man Ware opened his eyes and looked up at his son, and there was a quick happiness in his expression. His dimming vision saw the tumbled, ragged farm boy who had stalked so proudly away five years before.

"I knew you'd come back, Caleb. I knew you'd come to your old father for help sooner or later. And—and I'm glad."
