New Fishing License Due Today

"Please don't fish after March 31 without a brand new fishing license," was the warning issued to fishermen today by Elliot S. Barker, State Game Warden. "The new license year," he said, "begins April 1 and the old license won't fool anybody."

"New licenses will be available by about Mar. 26. When you buy a license get a copy of the game law digest and carefully review the new seasons and bag limits, to avoid any unpleasant misunderstandings. Another thing that will help a lot is for every resident to buy his license in his home town and avoid the difficulty of getting a witness known to the vendor in some other part of the state."

"Remember the general trout season does not open until May 15. There are several special trout waters that do open April 1 and full information is given in the Game Law Digests available for the asking at license vendors."

"While the general warm water season is open April 1 to April 11 and May 30 to Nov. 30, the waters in Chaves and Eddy Counties are closed from April 1 to May 29 inclusive. The season in Chaves and Eddy Counties is May 30 to Mar. 31 except across River above McMillan Dam (April 1 to Mar. 31), Bitter Lakes Federal refuge and Washington Ranch (June 1 to Oct. 15) and Penasco River above Trails End (May 15 to Nov. 21). Use of carp, sucker, buffalo and gar for bait is prohibited in all waters which have been cleaned of this fish."

"April 1 to Nov. 21 is the season for all species of fish on the following waters: Abbott Lakes, Storrie Lake, Charotto Lakes, Horse Lake Weatherly Lake, Miami Lake Spring Lake, Bluewater Lake and Nogal Lake."

"Beginning April 1, trot lines and set lines may be used in fishing for catfish either day or night with cut bait only. All lines must be tagged with name, address, license number and date line was set out. All lines must be run once in 24 hours."

"Remember buy your license in your home town and ask for Game Law Digest."

WHAT HAS HAPPENED TO MEAT PRICES?

Is any form of "price control" workable? The answer to that is yes—but not the kind of arbitrary and artificial controls which governments sometimes impose, to the eventual sorrow of their people. The only kind of "price control" which does a sound job is that which is part and parcel of the supply-and-demand system of production and distribution.

Meat has been providing an exceptionally good example of that. This winter there was a seasonal increase in meat supplies. As a result, between September and mid-January the general wholesale price of all meats, for the country as a whole, declined about 20 per cent. This was reflected in sharp declines in retail prices. In the Chicago area, over the same period of time, pork chops dropped an average of 20 per cent, round steak 25 per cent, and so on down the line. Lard, which is one of the major by-products of the meat packing industry, sank 30 per cent.

This, to repeat, was the result of increased meat supplies available to the consumer. How long that will go on no one knows. But all of us should know, from experience and observation, that government controls and allocations would inevitably create shortages—precisely as they would act as a welcome shot in the arm to the black market. No one will do his utmost to produce more meat for the future if he knows that the prices he will receive, and the markets available to him, will be dictated by the whims of politicians whose principal interest lies in seeking favor with the voters.

Supply and demand continues to demonstrate that it is the best and fairest economic system yet devised by man.

Born to Mayor and Mrs. Vernon Petty Sturdat, March 26th, a son. He is named Michael.

S. P. ADOPTS RADAR TO "SPOT" BREAKS IN TELEGRAPH LINES

First installation in this country of radar-type equipment as a "trouble shooter" to locate breaks in railroad telegraph and telephone lines has just been completed by the Southern Pacific. It was announced today by J. W. Corbett, vice president in charge of operations for the railroad.

The radar type equipment has been installed at Dunsmuir, the railroad's division terminal in northern California. Corbett said it has been successful in quickly spotting line interruptions, occasionally to the exact pole, saving much time in getting repair crews to the scene of the trouble.

The location of a break in the wires, or a grounded point, is indicated by the pattern of a wave picture projected on the radar apparatus. It was explained. The radar device has an effective range up to 100 miles, depending on the kind of metal in the wire circuit, and can be plugged into any telegraph or telephone circuit.

Corbett said other installations of the new radar type fault finder are planned by the Southern Pacific.

Highway Meeting Date Responed

The National Highway 54 Association meeting, scheduled for April 15th and 16th, has been postponed one week, due to the fact a number of our active members have made arrangements for Easter Sundays and could not possibly attend.

The entire membership of the New Mexico association are anxious that we have a good attendance.

A & M PHYSICAL SCIENCE STAFF ABOARD DESTROYER

State College N. M., Mar. 31—Somewhere in South America equatorial waters, accompanying the specially adapted naval craft, the U.S.S. Norton Sound, four members of New Mexico A & M's Physical Science Laboratory staff, aboard two navy destroyers, are participating in Aerobee rocket firings at sea—the first of their kind to be attempted. The four PSL staffers on the voyage are Richard Ohlemacher, William A. Sullivan, August Ebenberger, and Victor C. Fussman, Jr., all part of the laboratory's field group at the White Sands Proving Ground. The PSL men are in charge of two telemetering stations, and are assigned the important task of keeping in touch with the rocket by radio during flight.

The telemetering were designed and constructed at White Sands by a group of PSL technicians. After shipment to a West Coast Navy yard, they were installed on the two destroyers by the same PSL men who are to operate them. The same technicians were also responsible for the installation of transmitting equipment aboard the Norton Sound itself. The four men, especially trained for their assignment by intensive experience during numerous rocket firings at the White Sands Proving Ground, have been directly connected with the guided missile research program being carried out by the Physical Science Laboratory at A & M under Navy contract.

It is expected that important information about the earth's upper atmosphere will be obtained as a result of the Aerobee firings at sea.

School Gets State N. Central Approval

A letter from Dr. Finley, Chairman of the North Central Committee for the State of New Mexico, has stated the school as unqualifiedly approved by the State Committee. This week the National meeting of the North Central is being held in Chicago which has final approval.

This school has been on the North Central since April 1945, after it had been dropped in April 1942 due to violations of the regulations. If the public wants a school that is up to the standard in every way, and will rank with any of the schools in the twenty states that are members of the North Central Association it is possible in Carrizozo. This cannot be done by the faculty, School Board Members, but must have the cooperation of parents, pupils and the people of the community all working together.

MARCH MEETING FOR TEACHERS

Friday, March 18, every school in the Lincoln county system under the supervision of Mrs. Elva Wilson county superintendent, was represented at an all day meeting with the San Patricio school and the teachers there as hosts.

During the morning Mrs. Bernice Sweeney, a San Patricio teacher and president of the Lincoln County teachers association, presided at a business meeting where schools and plans for activities in the school were discussed by all members present.

At noon the meeting adjourned and members and guests were served chicken dinner in the lunch room which was decorated for the occasion in green, white and yellow, carrying out the colors of the 4-H Club of the school. Special guests for this dinner Mr. Farmin Montes, superintendent of the Honda High School, Mrs. Sydney Bonnell, member of the county school board, and Mr. Manuel Corona, also a member of that board.

The meal was prepared by Mrs. Helen Lucas, Mrs. Howard Ruess and Mrs. Johnny Thomas. Other ladies of the community assisted with the serving.

During the afternoon session Mrs. Sweeney and Miss Able May Brewer, teacher at San Patricio, presented a program of folk dances with most of the girls and some of the boys in the school taking part. The children had made most of their costumes themselves in craft class and the older girls helping the younger ones. They made designs with crayola on unbleached muslin skirts to create effective costumes for the dance program.

Mrs. Marie Pacheco, principal of the school, and other teachers, Mrs. Inez Pacheco, Mrs. Brewer, Mrs. Sweeney had also arranged exhibits of art work and arts and crafts being done in their 4-H Club and Art Club for the visitors. On display were dresses, skirts, blouses, hot dish mats, tied and dyed luncheon sets, loom weaving, drawings, etc. Both the boys and girls are interested in this part of the school program and are making wonderful progress in these forms of creative art.

Following the dance program Dr. R. G. M. Enlers of the New Mexico Department of Health from Las Cruces, N. M., spoke to the group.

Mrs. Wilson, superintendent, stated that there was only one teacher in the county schools absent from the meeting.

Companies Apply For REA Loans

As the result of negotiations by representatives of the Allocations & Loans Division of R. E. A., the Inland Utilities Company, the Vaughn Light and Power Company, and Central New Mexico Electric Cooperative, Inc., the Board of Trustees of the Central New Mexico Electric Cooperative requested loan funds for the purchase of the Vaughn Light & Power Company serving Vaughn and Encino, and the Willard Division of the Inland Utilities Company serving Mountainaire, Willard, Estancia, McIntosh, Moriarty, Stanley and adjacent territory. The Board has also requested $1,900,000.00 for additions to the electric generating equipment in these plants.

The resolution of the Board at its regular meeting, March 17, 1949, follows: "Be it resolved that the Central New Mexico Electric Cooperative, Inc., make application to the R.E.A. for loan funds in the following amounts and for the purposes herein set out:

- $80,000.00 for the acquisition of the properties of the Willard Division of Inland Utilities Company, $1,800,000.00 for additional generating capacity for the Willard Division of Inland Utilities Company, $125,000.00 for acquisition of the Vaughn Light & Power Company at Vaughn, New Mexico (Plant and distribution system), $600,000.00 for additional generating capacity for the Vaughn plant, if found to be necessary, $5,500.00 for acquisition of the property of Corona Mechanical & Equipment Company, $35,000.00 supplemental loan completion of A Section, $20,000.00 supplemental allocation for the Corona Generating Plant.

R. Archie Perkins,
Secretary.

The Central New Mexico Electric Cooperative, Inc., is preparing a supplemental application to cover the cost of construction of additional distribution facilities to provide improved electric service in the area now served by these companies and to provide electric service to the unserved members in the vicinity of the properties to be acquired. Hollis W. Harris, E. E., of Amarillo, Texas, has been selected as Engineer to assist the Cooperative in this work.

Many new members are signing applications for service.

Notice of the Annual Meeting, April 4, 1949, at Corona, New Mexico, are being sent out to all members, and the meeting is expected to be well attended. The members at this meeting will vote on amendments to the By-laws to provide for outlining the territory served by the Cooperative into seven districts and to elect a Trustee from each district. After the election, the new Board of Trustees will organize and elect a President, Vice President, Secretary and Treasurer.

The Manager of the Central New Mexico Electric Cooperative stated that the acquisition of these properties, together with the allotment of funds for adding to the generating plants and the construction of additional facilities to provide electric service in this area, would benefit the whole area from Madris to Carrizozo and from Mountainaire to Vaughn, by providing adequate electric service to the whole area at the lowest possible rates.

Trail of The Cross
Lesson for April 3, 1949

THE TURNING-POINT in Jesus' career was dramatic. But the few friends who were present did not then realize what it meant. On a vacation journey, Jesus put to his most intimate friends this question: "Who do men say that I am?" Peter's answer, "Thou art the Christ," may sound obvious to us, but was not obvious then.

It was sensational, so much so that Jesus did not want the publicity that would come to him if that name "Christ" were freely circulated. For the word "Christ" meant nothing less than "King." To the Romans it would sound like treason; but to the Jews it would sound like Judgment Day.

When Peter said, "You are the Christ," he was implying also: "You are immortal. You are the coming conqueror of the world. You are not in the same class with any other man. You will do for mankind what no other here has ever done."

God's View and the Devil's
ON ALL THAT glowing devotion Jesus' next announcement fell like icy rain. In the ears of those friends of his it sounded like the bell of death. Never before had Jesus told them anything like this, and they must have found it hard to believe. For he had not a word about a throne, nothing about success, nothing about mastering the world. Quite the contrary. He must "suffer many things . . . be rejected . . . be killed." If they heard the words "rise again" too, the words made no impression.

For Jesus had announced what to them seemed impossible, absurd: He, the Christ, would be killed! Small wonder that Peter broke out: "No, No! But Jesus would not compromise. He even called Peter "Satan" for thinking as he did.

The Christian church agrees with Jesus, not with Peter. We realize today, as Peter himself did afterwards, what the Cross of Christ means.

Buddha, founder of a very different religion, died in old age of over-eating. Can you imagine Jesus doing that? Suppose Jesus had taken Peter's advice and made arrangements to retire comfortably where he would never see a cross? Then we never should have heard of him. He would not have been worth hearing from.

One Cross is Not Enough
YES, WE KNOW now that the Cross of Christ is important. But we are a good deal like Peter, after all. For we do not listen to what we do not like to hear. And the next words of Jesus, on that historic occasion, must have sounded then as they do now, most chilling of all. "Whoever would come after me, let him take his own cross and follow me." In Jesus' time no one was ever seen carrying a cross who was not already under sentence of death and on his way to be executed.

Translated into modern terms, what Jesus said would sound as horrible as this: Any man who wishes to follow me must take his seat on the electric chair . . . must take his place in the lethal chamber . . . must put his neck in a noose . . . and follow me.

One cross is not enough. There must be other crosses. My road is a death-march. I want for my followers only those who are willing to take the same trail.

Trail of the Cross
SUCH WORDS sounded harsh then; they do still. But in the light of the centuries, we can see what Jesus meant, better than that little band of frightened men around Jesus who did not want to hear the words "suffer . . . die." Jesus was not advocating pain for pain's sake.

Why did Jesus set his own face toward the cross? The Christian answer is, He did it for others. Now what is wrong with the world today? It isn't that we don't wish our neighbors well; but the trouble is, we don't want to be bothered, our good-will is too tender to stand any strain, we will do anything for other people provided it doesn't hurt.

But the world can be saved only as men and women imitate and imitate the spirit of the crucified Christ.

Glass Blocks Offer Builder Advantages Use Features Practical Feeder Barn Planning

This practical feeder barn, shown below, not only offers good ventilation, freedom from drafts, and abundant daylight, but is designed to cut maintenance costs as well. Developed principally for dairy stock, it has a labor-saving floor arrangement with a feed room and silo convenient to the feeding alleys. Doors at either end provide venti-

Dairy barn suitable for big or medium size farm operations. Lotion through the litter alley to remove odors. Ample roof vents disperse summer heat, aid the circulation of air in winter as do louvers under the peak of the gables.

Control over ventilation has been carefully planned to eliminate creeping drafts. Sliding doors insure a tight closure and the generous use of glass block panels minimizes drafts usually encountered with conventional windows. These panels are fitted with hinged sashes which are easily swung for ventilation. The glass blocks transmit an abundance of daylight. Even on cloudy days the barn is bright and cheerful.

As a barn material, glass block offers many advantages. Of hollow construction with a partial vacuum inside, the block has a high insulation factor which can help maintain heat of the barn in winter. This insulation value minimizes cold down drafts. Condensation and frosting are practically eliminated.

An all-important advantage in these days of high costs is the permanency of glass block panels. Set in mortar, the glass is impervious to weather and humidity, is unharmed by chemical disinfectants often required to maintain dairy sanitation. An occasional washdown with a hose is all that is required to keep the panel surfaces sparkling clean. Painting is never required.

Maintenance is also reduced by the liberal use of other long-wearing materials. Walls are of cinder or concrete block, the floor of poured concrete, and the roof of either a good grade of galvanized steel sheet or aluminum.

The floor plan has been developed for efficiency and functional use of space.

Know Your Pesticides

As every county agent will point out, it is profitable to the farmer to know how to choose and use pesticides properly.

There are many well known and many relatively new chemicals for controlling pests. Their strong points and their weak points should be compared before making a choice.

"It is important," the agents emphasize, "to be familiar with your pest problems and to recognize and follow reliable recommendations rather than mere reports and suggestions of untrained persons."

"Study the problems that may follow use of certain materials, such as residues and off-flavors. Consider timing of applications, dosages, methods of removing residues, etc., as a means of overcoming secondary problems. Be sure products you buy comply with all regulations."

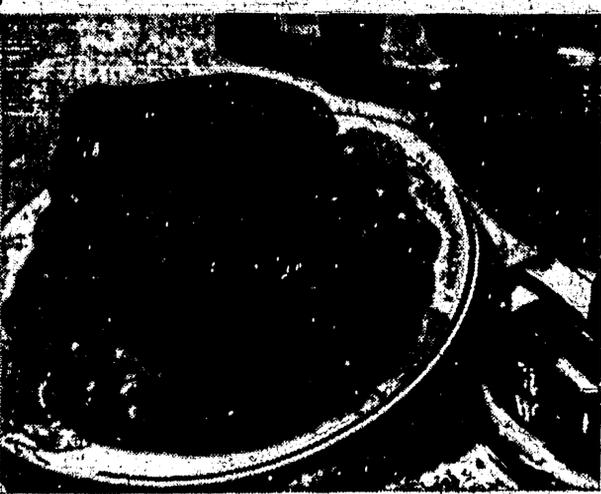

"Accuracy of dosage is one of the fundamentals in the use of modern chemicals. Read labels and accompanying directions carefully."

Check Fire Equipment, Farmers Are Advised

Farmers are urged by county agents to check fire extinguishers to be certain they are approved.

These warnings are based on reports from Fire Protection Institute, a national fire safety organization, that many "unapproved" extinguishers have been made available during the past few years. It was pointed out that an unapproved extinguisher is about as useful as a counterfeited dollar.

Speed your Cooking with Pressure Pans (See Recipes Below)

Quick Meals

IF YOU'VE EVER come home at five o'clock after an afternoon of club activities, have you wondered how to get a roast on the table and a meal cooked to completion within the hour?

The solution to this problem lies in cooking the meal in one of those efficient utensils known as a pressure cooker or pressure pan. In an hour, and in many cases, less time, you can have a steaming hot meal with meat, vegetables and potatoes on the table for a hungry family. All this can be accomplished with no more previous preparation than marketing.

Foods cooked under pressure cook quickly because the steam is held within the utensil. Food values are saved, too, so you can serve more healthful meals to the family. And, if you're a busy homemaker, you can save hours of time in the preparation of foods which usually take three or four hours to cook.

All of the recipes given today use meats that take long cooking time under ordinary circumstances. Use the directions carefully and follow the manufacturer's directions for using whatever kind of cooker you have.

THE RECOMMENDED pressure for most dishes including meats is 15 pounds. Study your cooker to see how this is obtained and maintained.

*New England Botted Dinner (Serves 4)
 1 1/2 pounds ham shank
 1 cup water
 4 small potatoes, peeled and halved
 4 small onions, peeled
 1 small turnip, peeled and sliced
 4 medium carrots, scraped
 1 small cabbage, quartered
 1/2 teaspoon pepper
 Place ham and water in cooker. Adjust cover, exhaust air and bring pressure to 15 pounds. Cook for 23 minutes. Reduce pressure and open cooker. Add prepared vegetables and pepper. Adjust cover, exhaust air and bring pressure again to 15 pounds. Cook for five to eight minutes, depending upon size of vegetables. Cool and open cooker and serve at once.

CANNED TOMATO sauce added to a pot roast gives you a wonderfully rich but economical gravy, as in the following recipe:

Savory Pot Roast (Serves 6-10)
 3 1/2-4 pounds pot roast of beef (chuck, round or brisket, boned)
 1 clove garlic
 Salt and pepper to taste
 2 tablespoons drippings
 1 (8-ounce) can tomato sauce
 2 tablespoons cornstarch

 1 pound ground beef
 1 clove garlic, chopped
 1 No. 2 can tomatoes
 1 (8-ounce) can tomato sauce
 2 medium onions, chopped
 1 teaspoon chili powder
 1 green pepper, chopped
 1 teaspoon salt

 4 tablespoons flour
 Salt and pepper
 1 teaspoon paprika

Place a slice of lemon on each piece of veal. Add sour cream. Adjust cover, exhaust air and bring to 15 pounds pressure. Cook 15 minutes. Cool cooker and serve veal, garnished with parsley.

The pressure pan may be used just as any other kettle for sauces, dressings, etc. without the cover. If you want to cook several different kinds of vegetables at the same time in a pressure pan, select those which require the same cooking time.

To soften cereals properly and to bring out their full flavor, use the pressure pan. It saves time.

Many of the pressure pans can be used for processing fruit and vegetables for canning. Follow directions.

NEW MEXICO NOTES

From A
Wheel Chair

NEW MEXICO NOTES

From a wheel chair
(By Katherine B. Mabry)
Some of us thought that law-making was over when the legislature went home but it appears that an effort is to be made to continue with it. Under the constitution of the state we have a rule (called the referendum) by which by securing petitions in the several counties bearing the signatures of a certain percent of the voters of the state certain laws passed by the legislature can be suspended or revoked entirely.

All that I was saying last week about the more efficient operation of the highway department under the new plan of the department and the highway engineer would be premature if we are not to have the additional gas tax the legislature provided.

I am not too well acquainted with the operation of the highway department, but no one has disputed the fact that at least one and a half cent additional tax is an absolute necessity if they are to keep the program going. We have stopped the practice of borrowing money through sale of debentures, or highway bonds, as some call them. We have been borrowing for many many years. The Governor said there would be no more going into debt; and that we would pay for the roads as we build them from now on or we would not build them. The legislature gladly went along with that idea.

We all know what surplus there would be, if any, will go to pay off the debt we have been accumulating for twenty years; and that it will be retired just that much sooner. All the two cents per gallon increase must be used ONLY for the payment of the debt and for no other purpose.

Perhaps we have gotten the habit of accepting debt, public and private, so readily that we cannot appreciate the advantage of paying off a debt a little faster than we are obliged to pay.

Well, New Mexicans usually solve these problems and I suppose this one will be solved without too much difficulty.

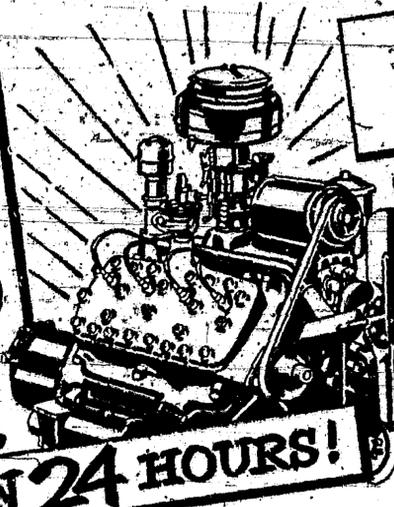

There is also an effort being made to hold up, by referendum, the new law modifying the primary system. I am sure that we can reason this one out in calmness, without calling names and getting too angry with each other. Let's remember that the bill, called the primary convention bill, passed the Senate 17 for to 5 against, and passed the House 37 for to 8 against. That big majority should indicate a pretty decided public support for a plan which would, as the sponsors claim, give greater party responsibility in the selection of candidates and at the same time preserve the most desirable features of the primary plan. The legislature including both Democrats and Republicans, gave practically a two thirds vote in support of a plan which they thought would improve our system. It seems to me that such a majority vote on a bill so thoroughly considered and debated should indicate the plan has merit and general bipartisan support.

It seems to me a little unfair to label this as "a politicians measure", as some are trying to do, unless we are willing to label a two thirds membership in the house, regardless of party lines, as trying deliberately to plan something against the interests of the general public. I would prefer to say that the legislature was trying to correct a situation which many believe has worked clumsily and expensively at least, if not badly, in the public interest.

The measure should be discussed and examined on the basis of merit, assuming that we are interested in that which promotes better government, as most of us are. It should not be considered upon any other basis.

Interior Modes... by Rand

MODERNIZE WITH COLOR! Several decorating tricks, usually accomplished only by highly-skilled technicians, were used to create this attractive room. What is more, they were used on an old-fashioned living room—inexpensively and easily by a housewife without the help of professional experts. The secret of her success lies in her application of a few tried and true decorating techniques and the use of easy-to-apply resin and oil paint.

The room shown above was originally very long and narrow with a very high ceiling. Unfortunately, a bold-patterned wallpaper only accentuated the odd shape of the room. An unattractive fireplace and an old-fashioned radiator didn't help either.

To revamp the room without making costly structural changes, this smart housewife first applied a coat of pale cream Kem-Tone right over the wallpaper on the long wall. Then she similarly painted the short wall in dark green, using one of the new Kem-Tone Vogue Deep Colors just recently placed on the market. The combination of light and dark colors made the room "square-off" in appearance. Next, the ceiling was lowered by painting a twelve-inch border around the top of the four walls to match the off-white ceiling.

To make the ugly fireplace and radiator "disappear", she painted them to match the walls. Easy-to-use washable Kem-Tone was used for walls, ceilings, radiator and fireplace. Look your "problem" rooms over and see if you can modernize with color.

Mr. C. O. Green of Clovis was elected president of Highway 70 Association at their last meeting to succeed Mr. L. P. Bloodworth. Meeting was held Monday, March 21st.

Hon. John E. Hall of Albuquerque, popular lawyer of that city and of Carrizozo attended court here last week.

LINCOLN COUNTY BOND INVESTMENTS

Lincoln County residents invested $4,382.50 in U. S. Savings Bonds during February 1949, the Treasury Department has reported to S. E. Grosven County Chairman of Savings Bonds Committee. Of this total, $4,012.50 was placed in Series E Bonds which will return $5,800.00 to their owners if held to maturity.

New Mexico's citizens invested $1,399,936 in U. S. Savings Bonds in February and $1,514,236.25 in January of this year. February's total exceeded that of all Februaries since 1945 and January's total was exceeded only by January 1946 of the post-war years.

TIME MAGAZINE
STATE COLLEGE, N. M., Mar. 31
Albert Rosenfeld, of Las Cruces, has recently been appointed string correspondent for TIME, nationally known news magazine.
Rosenfeld is an Aggie student- veteran, majoring in international affairs and foreign languages. He was editor of THE ROUND-UP, New Mexico A & M student newspaper, last year, and is now reports editor for A & M's Physical Science Laboratory.

Mrs. Bumgarner, county health nurse, attended a meeting of health officers in Roswell last week.

It Costs So Little for Nurses' Training

In a few short weeks many young girls will be graduating from High Schools all over the country thus completing the first lap of their journey through life. At that time they will be faced with a problem which must be answered wisely as it will affect their entire life later on. If answered correctly it will insure them happiness; if answered incorrectly, it will prove to be source of discontent. Each girl graduating will ask herself what profession should she prepare for which will prove most beneficial in the long-run.

The girl of today must not only prepare for financial security, but also for emotional security and happiness. She must be able to meet many situations which will arise, without warning, wisely and efficiently. As well as preparing for the economic side of her life, she must also prepare herself to be a good wife and a good mother. Not many professions will offer training that will fulfill the needs of the entire individual—but nursing will. Nursing will prepare the young girl so that she will have economic security, emotional security for marriage because she will be able to care for all members of her family in the time needed in a scientific and helpful manner, and social security because of the prestige of her profession and her personality which is developed to the utmost during the training period.

One of the important items to consider when choosing a profession is how much will the desired goal cost. Of all opportunities opened to the girl of today, nursing is one of the most economical. For example, the first year's training at Hotel Dieu School of Nursing, El Paso, Texas, costs $199.50. That small amount includes the college fee, books, uniforms, school cape, school sweater, health fee, library fee, activity fee and name tapes. It also includes room and board for the entire year. Where else could a girl live for one complete year for $199.50? The second year costs only $64.50. For $64.50 the girl receives books, uniforms, class pin and room and board. The entire cost for the 3rd year is $88.00. The total cost of the young lady's education is $302.00. For $302.00, each girl receives an attractive room to live in, nourishing food plus a professional preparation which will give her happiness the rest of her life.

When considering the choice of a school, the young girl should not only check the cost of her education, she must also check the agencies by which the chosen school is accredited. Hotel Dieu School of Nursing is accredited by the Texas State Board of Nurse Examiners and its graduates are eligible for the Red Cross Nursing Service and the various Federal Nursing Agencies. The School is also affiliated with the University of Texas through the College of Mines and the credit received in training at the School of Nursing will count toward a B. S. Degree in Nursing Education. All college fees are included in the tuition. The Hotel Dieu Hospital is approved by the American College of Surgeons and holds membership in the Texas Hospital Association, the American Hospital Association, and the Catholic Hospital Association.

The next class enrolls on August 22, 1949. For further information, contact the Hotel Dieu School of Nursing, El Paso, Texas.

The ranch house of Mr. T. J. McKight at Picacho was destroyed by fire last Sunday night. Everything in the house was lost. The barn rear the house which contained the wool clip from the shearing just completed the day before was barely saved.

Don't Forget The Trimmings

Hammy Gilbert and his two boys were out working like beavers fixing up his roadside stand the other day. It looked awfully spic and span to begin with. "Seems like you spend more time decorating the stand than you do raising stuff in all in it," I told him.
"Joe," he says, "I believe the stand is almost more important than the produce. We get five times more customers than we used to when we had the old one."
Hammy's smart. People appreciate a clean, attractive place, whether it's for buying vegetables or stopping in to have a friendly glass of beer. That's why the brewers and the tavern owners cooperate in maintaining wholesome, attractive surroundings wherever beer or ale is sold.

From where I sit, the product should be more important than the package, but just try wrapping a birthday present for your wife in an old newspaper!

IF ADULTS TOOK ADVICE GIVEN KIDS...

Howya-Doon Tells How Grownups Should Behave

... THEY'D GET GOUT, RHEUMATISM, ULCERS

By H. I. PHILLIPS

HOWYA-DOON, ADULTS?

The influence of a new radio character called "Howdy-Doody" on the kiddies is the talk of the amusement world. Howdy-Doody is a puppet on the program of Bob Smith, and, he has come close to taking over the American home at 5 p. m. daily. Howdy manages to work in a lot of pleas for the small fry to clean their plates, mind their health and otherwise behave themselves, and we think it might be a good idea to introduce a similar character for influencing the grownups.

Our character would be an adult puppet called "Howya-Doon," and would operate along the same pattern, as follows:

SMITH—Well, here's your friend Howya-Doon, the friend of all grownups, again, folks. Golly, how nice it seems to be with you adults once more! I hope you've all been very nice adults and behaved yourselves in every way. —Howya-Doon, did you clean up your plate today?

HOWYA-DOON—Aw gosh, I certainly didn't. I'm not that crazy, Mr. Smith.

SMITH—I thought not. That's fine. What happens to adults who lick their platters clean.

HOWYA-DOON—They get gout, indigestion, stomach acidity, rheumatism, double chins, heartburn and everything. Gee, their diet gets all shot to pieces, Mr. Smith, and they get fat and their clothes look awful on 'em.

SMITH—Right. So what is the proper way for grownups to behave at meals?

HOWYA-DOON—Aw, that's easy, Mr. Smith. They do just what I do, lay off any kind of food that tastes good!

SMITH—Anything that appeals to the taste, eh?

HOWYA-DOON—Sure. If it's appetizing, it's no good. All nice grownups who want their children to be proud of them will just go for carrots, beets, spinach and things like that.

SMITH—If by chance you get something on your plate that tastes swell and that isn't fattening, is it okay to eat it all?

HOWYA-DOON—Aw, no! A good little adult always carries a calory chart and makes himself pretty miserable figuring up the calories in everything he eats. I hope all you grownups do this.

SMITH—So do I, Howya. And now it's time to show the movies. We've got some wonderful ones that are right down the alley for grownups. They are from the American Medical association and show what happens to adults who enjoy eating and lead happy lives. But first, did you brush your teeth this morning?

HOWYA-DOON—Aw, sure, I took my uppers and lowers right out of the glass of water where I put 'em each night, and gave 'em a good stiff brushing.

SMITH—And what else did you do that all good grownups should do?

HOWYA-DOON—I put my hotwater bottle and my liver pads away neatly after I got up—and I made sure all the bottles in the medicine cabinet were in order.

SMITH—That's fine. And now we're going to introduce our new character Dub-a-Dab.

HOWYA-DOON—Who's Dub-a-Dab?

SMITH—He's the wonderful adult who never grunts, seems to enjoy life and ALWAYS BEHAVES SO HIS CHILDREN CAN BE PROUD OF HIM!

GOD make me brave for life,
Oh, braver than this!
Let me straighten my feet

God make me brave for life,
Much braver than this!
As the blown grass lifts me rise

Knowing, Thy way is wise.

God make me brave—Life brings

Help me to keep my sight,
Help me to see aright

Ozzie and Harriet
Switch to CBS

By INEZ GERHARD

AFTER PRACTICING fancy ice skating figures like mad at a local rink, Harriet Nelson talked the reluctant Ozzie into taking the family to Lake Arrowhead for winter sports, so that she could show off a bit. But they arrived to find the rink there covered with ten feet of snow. That suited Ozzie, who retired to their rooms and worked on the next "Ozzie and Harriet" script. If you're among their thousands of devoted listeners of course you know that they are working their own children into their program in place of the young actors who have portrayed them; also you know that they have just switched from NBC to CBS.

Burns and Allen's high. Hooperating didn't keep their sponsor from dropping them at the end of the current season. It is reported that he thought the show too expensive, wants to spend part of the money on television. Robert Young in a comedy series will be the replacement. With sponsors clamoring for them; George and Gracie were not worried.

Claudette Colbert wants to return to the New York stage next fall. She has signed a play she likes, but must clear up some picture commitments. Greer Garson, never yet seen on the Broadway stage, also wants to tackle it.

John Wayne may find himself wishing he were two people. He has signed to do one picture annually for Warner Bros., has a contract to make three for RKO, three for Republic and an unspecified number for his own independent company.

MR. DIGGLES ON DUTY

By MARY WHITEFORD

MR. DIGGLES kept his head down as though he were studying the prescription, scarcely hearing Mrs. Tompkins voice through the noise of blood thudding in his temples. When he tried to speak, his lips were dry and his tongue moved nervously over them. "I beg your pardon, Mrs. Tompkins, what was that you said?"

"I said if you haven't a delivery boy I'll wait for the three o'clock bus, but I'm anxious to get back as soon as I can."

He looked again at Dr. Price's cramped handwriting. "Oh, I'll deliver it, Mrs. Tompkins. I'm sorry to learn Mr. Tompkins isn't well."

"I told him it's just his bad disposition coming out. I told Dr. Price I certainly hated to drag him out in weather like this just for a stomach ache. Doctor says he'll be all right in a day or two."

Mr. Diggles took the handkerchief from the pocket of his grey alpaca coat and wiped his forehead. The moment he used to dream of years ago, was here at last. This would cost Dr. Price his practice. The city was, Dr. Price would never know he could have saved himself, if he hadn't made it so clear that a man who mixed prescriptions wasn't supposed to know about diagnosis. Dr. Price would never know what he'd done to himself when he told Mrs. White she might as well give the twins a chocolate soda as Diggles' Own Whooping Cough Mixture. Because of Dr. Price's new ways of doing things, no one bought Diggles' Ready Rheumatism Reliever now. Shots, it was, the doctor was giving for everything. Not prescriptions.

Manlaughter, they called it. He wet his lips. Well, he once would expect Mr. Diggles to interfere with Dr. Price's prescriptions again. Not a second time.

Though it was so many years ago, he could feel the flush of anger that flooded his face remembering the day he'd called Dr. Price up, and suggested that maybe the heart medicine he ordered for Mr. Venables was too strong.

"I know what I'm doing. Just mind your own business, Diggles, and I can mind mine." He looked again at the prescription. There was no mistaking the symbol and he'd fill it as it stood. He reached for the bottle and removed the cork. Carefully, he measured out the prescribed dose. MR. DIGGLES straightened suddenly, staring at the partly filled mortar. A feeling of nausea swept through him as he watched it up and flung the contents into the sink. He bent, replacing the bottle on the shelf, trembling.

Outside, the wind howled and flakes of ice made a cold noise beating the window pane.

Slowly, he walked toward the telephone. After all, just as many people swore by Dr. Price as trusted Diggles.

As he waited, listening to Dr. Price's telephone bell ringing, the shop door opened. Mr. Diggles put down the receiver and went to the front. Dr. Price was on the mat, stamping the snow from his feet.

"Diggles, will you let me see the prescription Mrs. Tompkins just brought in?"

"It was just trying to call you about it, Dr. Price. I felt there was some little inaccuracy." Dr. Price nodded. "Something told me. But I wasn't really worried. I know you'd catch a mistake if there was one. It's a great comfort to me to know that a substantial man like you is checking up on me, Diggles."

"I have to do what I can. A man has to do his duty. He smiled and stood up.

"That's right, doctor. I guess duty becomes a habit if you do it long enough." The wind screamed into the shop as Dr. Price opened the door and went out. It was a bleak, bitter day, but in Mr. Diggles' heart it was suddenly summer.
