Preparation of the food was the responsibility of Lion Lewis Farris, who reported he was ably assisted by his helpers, Messrs. L. Z. Manire, S. M. Ortiz and Fay Harkey; Farris also wanted to express the appreciation of the Lions Club to Mesdames William Wrye, Anna Brazel and Lewis Farris for their assistance.

After supper, the group divided their time between the dance at Fireman's Hall and the carnival at the old Community Hall.

Music for the dancers was provided by Elmer Hus's Sacramento Hillbillies.
